V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, during the Continuance of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons who shall be authorized for that Purpose, by the Commissioners of Excise for the Time being, or any two or more of them, within the Limits of the Chief Office of Excise in London, or by one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace in any other Part of Great Britain, at any Time or Times, with any Officer or Officers of Excise, or for any Officer or Officers of Excise, to enter into any Starch House, or any other Place whatever, wherein any Starch, Hair Powder, or Blue, shall be, or shall be suspected to be, preparing or making, or prepared or made, and every such Officer of Excise, and Person so authorized as aforesaid, shall have free Admittance into, and may inspect all the Materials, Vessels, and Utensils contained in any such Starch House or other Place (giving thereby as little Interruption as may be to the lawful Business which shall be there carrying on); and in case any such Officer of Excise shall have Reason to suspect that any Wheat, Barley, Rice, Potatoes, Flour, Meal, or any other Article or Thing used for the Food of Man, is mixed in any Waters or Liquids, or with any other Materials or Preparations whatsoever, or is otherwise in Operation for preparing or making Starch, Hair Powder, or Blue, it shall be lawful for such Officer, at any Time or Times during the Continuance of this Act, upon Payment of three Pence per Pound Weight, (if demanded,) to take a Sample, not exceeding fifty Pounds Weight, of any such Mixtures in Waters or Liquids, or other Materials or Preparations, which shall be found in any such Starch House or other Place aforesaid; and in case any Maker of Starch, Hair Powder, or Blue, or the Owner or Occupier of any such Starch House or Place, or any Workman or Servant belonging to any such Maker or Makers, or Owner or Occupier, shall refuse to admit such Person or Persons as shall be so authorized, or any Officer or Officers of Excise, into any such Starch House or Place, or shall obstruct or hinder any such Officer, or Person or Persons, in making such Inspection as aforesaid, or shall not allow any such Officer to take such Sample, after the said Sum of three Pence per Pound Weight shall be paid or tendered for the same, every such Maker, Owner, or Occupier shall, for every such Offence, respectively forfeit the Sum of two hundred Pounds; and it shall be lawful for any such Officer of Excise, or other Person or Persons authorized as aforesaid, having a Warrant for that Purpose from any two or more of the Commissioners of Excise, or any Justice or Justices respectively, as aforesaid, to seize, take, and carry away all such Wheat, Barley, Rice, Potatoes, Flour, Meal, or any other Article or Thing used for the Food of Man, and also all such Mixtures, or Waters, or Liquids, or other Materials or Preparations, as shall be found in any such Starch House, or other Place, together with all the Vessels, Sacks, Bags, and other Things in which the said Commodities, or any of them, shall be contained.

Persons authorized, and Officers of Excise, may enter Starch Houses and inspect Materials; and Officers may take Samples of Mixtures, paying for the same, if they suspect Wheat, &c. to be mixed therein.

Penalty of 200*l.* for refusing Admission, or preventing the Inspection of Materials, &c.

Wheat, &c. so found, may be seized.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any Maker or Makers of Starch, Hair Powder, or Blue, to have or keep, for his, her, or their necessary Use, in any Dwelling-House, Room, or Place, (not being an entered House, Room, or Place for making or preparing of Starch,) any Quantity of Wheat, Barley, Rice, Grain, Potatoes, Flour, or Meal, not exceeding, at any one Time, the Quantity of eight Bushels of Wheat, Barley, Rice, Grain, Potatoes, Flour, and Meal; and that if any such Maker or Makers shall, during the Continuance of this Act, be possessed of, or have in his, her, or their Custody or Possession, or in the Custody or Possession of any Person or Persons in Trust, or for the Use or Benefit of such Maker, more than eight Bushels of Wheat, Barley, Rice, Grain, Potatoes, Flour, or Meal, at any one Time, in any one or more Place or Places, every such Maker or Makers shall for every such Offence respectively forfeit all such Wheat, Barley, Rice, Grain, Potatoes, Flour, and Meal, exceeding the said Quantity of eight Bushels, and also the Sum of five Pounds for every Bushel so forfeited: Provided always nevertheless, that this Act shall not extend to inflict the said last-mentioned Forfeiture or Penalty, or either of them, upon any Maker of Starch who shall be the actual Grower of Wheat, Barley, or other Grain, and shall be possessed of any Quantity of such Wheat, Barley, or other Grain, in the Straw, grown by him, or after such Wheat, Barley, or other Grain, is threshed out or separated from the Straw: Provided, that such Wheat, Barley, or other Grain, shall not be kept in his Possession, or in the Possession of any other Person or Persons in Trust for him, for a greater Space of Time than twenty Days after the same shall be threshed or separated from the Straw, and so as such Wheat, Barley, or other Makers of Starch, &c. may keep in their Houses Wheat, &c. not exceeding eight Bushels: Penalty for having more than that Quantity;

but not to extend to Starch Makers, being Growers of Wheat, or Millers, in certain Cases.

Grain, be not kept in any Place used for making, preparing, or keeping Starch: Provided also, that this Act shall not extend to inflict the said last-mentioned Forfeiture and Penalty, or either of them, upon any Maker of Starch who practises the Trade of a Miller, and who was possessed of, and as a Miller worked, any Mill or Mills for the grinding of Wheat, Barley, or other Grain, on or before the third Day of November one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, for or upon Account of any Quantity of Wheat, Barley, or other Grain, which shall, during the Time hereinbefore limited, be found not wetted or steeped in any such Mill or Mills; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

On Oath of Ground of Suspicion that more than eight Bushels of Wheat, &c. is kept in any Storehouse, &c. Officers of Excise, and other Persons, may be authorized to search, and may seize the Surplus, and the Persons in whose Custody found to forfeit 5 l. per Bushel.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Officer or Officers of Excise, or any other Person or Persons, shall at any Time or Times have cause to suspect that any Wheat, Barley, Rice, Grain, Potatoes, Flour, or Meal, exceeding the Quantity of eight Bushels of such Wheat, Barley, Rice, Grain, Potatoes, Flour, and Meal, belonging to any Maker or Makers of Starch, Hair Powder, or Blue, shall be laid or kept in any Storehouse, Warehouse, Granary, or other Place or Places, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, then, and in every such Case, upon Oath made by such Officer or Officers, or other Person or Persons, before the Commissioners of Excise, or any two or more of them, in England for the Time being, or before one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace residing near the Place where such Officer or Officers, or other Person or Persons, shall suspect the same to be laid or kept, setting forth the Ground of his or their Suspicion, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or Justice or Justices of the Peace respectively, before whom such Officer or Officers, or other Person or Persons, shall make Oath as aforesaid, (if he or they shall judge it reasonable,) by Special Warrant under his or their respective Hands and Seals, to authorize and empower such Officer or Officers, or other Person or Persons authorized as aforesaid, by Day or by Night, (but if in the Night, then in the Presence of a Constable or other lawful Officer of the Peace,) to enter into all and every Storehouse, Warehouse, Granary, or other Place or Places, where he or they shall so suspect that any Wheat, Barley, Rice, Grain, Potatoes, Flour, or Meal, exceeding the Quantity of eight Bushels of Wheat, Barley, Rice, Grain, Potatoes, Flour, and Meal, belonging to any such Maker or Makers, shall be laid or kept, and to seize, take, and carry away all such Wheat, Barley, Rice, Grain, Potatoes, Flour, or Meal, as he or they shall so find, (over and above the said Quantity of eight Bushels,) together with all the Vessels, Sacks, Bags, or other Things, wherein the same shall be contained; and such Maker or Makers, or the Person or Persons in whose Custody or Possession such Wheat, Barley, Rice, Grain, Potatoes, Flour, or Meal, belonging to such Maker or Makers as aforesaid, shall be found, shall for every such Offence respectively forfeit and pay the said Penalty of five Pounds for every Bushel exceeding the said Quantity of eight Bushels; and the said Officer or Officers, and other Person or Persons, is or are hereby empowered by such Warrant, together with such other Person or Persons as he or they shall take to his or their Assistance, to enter such Storehouses, Warehouses, Granaries, and other Place or Places, and break open the Doors thereof, in case they be not forthwith opened on Demand.

Doors may be broke open.

Contracts for Delivery of Starch or Hair Powder during the Continuance of this Act, void.

VIII. 'And whereas there may have been Contracts made by Makers of Starch with several Persons for 'Starch or Hair Powder to be delivered and received at future Times after the passing of this Act;' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Contracts or Bargains made by any Maker or Makers of Starch, or by any Maker or Makers of Hair Powder, with any Person or Persons whatever, for any Starch or Hair Powder to be delivered at any Time during the Continuance of this Act, shall be, and are hereby declared to be, null and void.

No Hair Powder to be imported after certain Periods in less Packages than 224 lb. &c. on Penalty of Forfeiture, and 50 l.

IX. 'And whereas, for the Protection of the fair Trader, it is expedient to provide the several Restrictions, Regulations, and Matters hereinafter mentioned;' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, no Hair Powder shall be imported or brought from any Part of Europe, or, from and after the twentieth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, shall be imported or brought from any Part of Asia, Africa, or America, into Great Britain, or into any Port, Harbour, Haven, or Creek thereof, in any Ship or Vessel, otherwise than in Cask, Chest, Case, Bag, or other Package, each Cask, Chest, Case, Bag, or other Package whereof, shall contain two hundred and twenty-four Pounds neat of Hair Powder at the least, to be stowed openly in the Hold of such Ship or Vessel importing the same, on Pain to forfeit all the Hair Powder so imported or brought contrary to this Act, together with the Cask, Chest, Case, Bag, or other Package containing the same, which shall and may be seized by any Officer of the Customs or Excise; and the Master, Mate, or other Person, taking the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel, shall forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds.

In Entries of Starch or Hair Powder imported, the Number of Packages, &c. to be inserted, on Penalty of Forfeiture.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in every Entry or Report of any Starch or Hair Powder imported or brought into this Kingdom to be made, by the Master or Purser of any Ship or Vessel, in pursuance of an Act made in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuses, in his Majesty's Customs, the Number of Casks, Chests, Cases, Bags, or other Packages, with the particular Numbers and Marks of each of them, on board of each respective Ship or Vessel, shall be inserted, on Pain, for every Neglect or Refusal thereof, to forfeit such Starch or Hair Powder respectively, with the Cask, Chest, Case, Bag, or other Package wherein the same shall be contained, which shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Starch or Hair Powder imported, when weighed, to be deposited, &c. as the Officers of Excise shall direct.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That whenever any Starch or Hair Powder respectively imported or brought into this Kingdom shall, in order to ascertain the Duties payable thereon, have been weighed by the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs, the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs shall secure the same, until the Delivery thereof into the Charge and Custody of the proper Officer or Officers of Excise; and upon the Delivery thereof into the Custody of the proper Officer or Officers of Excise, the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, or Consignee or Consignees thereof, shall, at his, his, her, and their own proper Costs and Charges, remove all such Starch and Hair Powder respectively to, and deposit the same in, such convenient House, Warehouse, or Place as the proper Officer or Officers of Excise shall direct, and thereupon such Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, or Consignee or Consignees, shall, on being required by the proper Officer or Officers of Excise so to do, immediately wrap all such Starch and Hair Powder respectively, in Papers of the Colours, or one of them, hereinafter mentioned, and no other, each such Paper containing not less than four Pounds Weight, nor more than seven Pounds Weight of Starch, nor less than one Pound Weight, nor more than seven Pounds Weight of Hair Powder; and also tie up every such Wrapper with Strings, crossing each other on that Side of the Wrapper where the Ends of the Paper containing such Starch or Hair Powder respectively shall be folded, and also strongly affix, or paste with warm Paste made with Glue, on the Outside of every such Wrapper, after the same shall be so tied, a Label of very thin Paper, three Inches long, and three Inches broad, at the least, and of a different Colour from the Paper in which the Starch or Hair Powder respectively shall be wrapped; that is to say, if such Starch or Hair Powder shall be wrapped in Blue or Brown Paper, the said Label shall be White; and if such Starch or Hair Powder shall be wrapped in White Paper, such Label shall be Blue; and shall also affix and paste every such Label on the Foldings of both Ends of the Paper inclosing such Quantity of Starch or Hair Powder respectively, and in such a Manner as to prevent the opening of the said Paper containing such Starch or Hair Powder respectively, without tearing such Label; and the proper Officer or Officers of Excise shall attend to see such Starch and Hair Powder respectively papered and tied in Manner aforesaid, and such Label affixed and pasted on every such Paper containing such Starch or Hair Powder respectively; and such Officer or Officers shall cause every such Label affixed and pasted on every such Paper containing Starch or Hair Powder respectively, to be stamped or sealed with such Stamp or Seal as shall be provided by the Commissioners of Excise in England and Scotland respectively for that Purpose; and if any such Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, or Consignee or Consignees, of Starch or Hair Powder imported or brought into this Kingdom, shall neglect or refuse so to remove any such Starch or Hair Powder, or to deposit the same as aforesaid, or to wrap any such Starch or Hair Powder in Paper as aforesaid, or to tie up any such Paper as aforesaid, or to affix or paste any such Label as aforesaid, all and every such Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, or Consignee or Consignees, so offending, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Officer of Excise to attend, and cause Labels to be stamped.

Penalty of 100 l. on Importers, &c. neglecting to deposit, &c. Starch or Hair Powder.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of Excise, or the major Part of them, in England and Scotland respectively, shall provide proper Stamps or Seals for the stamping or sealing the Labels affixed or pasted on Paper containing all Starch and Hair Powder respectively, which shall be imported or brought into this Kingdom, and papered in pursuance of this Act, and shall cause such Stamps or Seals to be distributed to the proper Officers of Excise, for the Purpose before mentioned, which Officers are hereby enjoined and required, in using the same, to do no Hurt or Damage, or the least Hurt or Damage that may be, to the Starch or Hair Powder respectively, or to the Paper wherein the same shall be so wrapped; which Stamps or Seals shall and may be varied, altered, or renewed, from Time to Time, as the said Commissioners of Excise respectively, or the major Part of them respectively, shall think fit.

Commissioners of Excise to provide and distribute Stamps.

Officers to do no Hurt in using them.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall at any Time forge or counterfeit any Stamp or Seal, to resemble any Stamp or Seal, which shall be provided in pursuance of this Act, for stamping or sealing Starch or Hair Powder imported; or shall counterfeit or resemble the Impression of the same upon any Paper containing any Starch or Hair Powder, thereby to defraud his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, of any of the Duties upon Starch or Hair Powder, then every Person so offending, being thereof convicted in due Form of Law, shall be adjudged a Felon, and shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy: And if any Person or Persons shall at any Time sell any Starch or Hair Powder with any such forged or counterfeit Stamp, Seal, or Impression thereon, knowing the same to be forged and counterfeited, and with an Intent to defraud his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, of any of the Duties upon Starch or Hair Powder, or shall knowingly, with Intent to defraud his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, of any of the Duties upon Starch or Hair Powder, fix, or cause to be fixed, the Label of any Paper stamped or sealed according to the Directions of this Act, to any Starch or Hair Powder, other than that which was inclosed in such Paper at the Time when the Label thereof was stamped or sealed by the proper Officer or Officers of Excise, according to the Directions of this Act, every Person so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

Persons counterfeiting Stamps to suffer Death; and Persons selling Starch or Hair Powder with such Stamps, &c. to forfeit 200 l.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Starch imported or brought into this Kingdom shall be found in any Place belonging to any Starch Maker or Dealer in Starch, or to any Hair Powder Maker or Dealer in Hair Powder, or in the Custody or Possession of any Person or Persons to or for the Use or Benefit of any such Maker or Makers, or Dealer or Dealers in such Starch or Hair Powder, not being wrapped in Paper as aforesaid, or wrapped in Paper which shall be found not stamped or labelled as aforesaid, all such Starch shall be forfeited, together with all and singular the Casks, Chests, Cases, Bags, or other Packages, containing the same, and such Starch, Casks, Chests, Cases, Bags, and other Packages respectively, shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise, and the Starch Maker or Dealer in Starch, or Hair Powder Maker or Dealer in Hair Powder, to whom such Place shall belong, and also such other Person or Persons as aforesaid, in whose Possession such Starch shall be found, shall forfeit the Sum of two hundred Pounds: Provided always nevertheless, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be deemed or construed to extend, to forfeit any such Starch which shall have been imported into this Kingdom, nor any such Cask, Chest, Case, Bag, or other Package, containing the same, for or by Reason of such Starch being found not wrapped in Paper stamped or labelled as last aforesaid, such Starch being made into Hair Powder, or being taken out of the Papers in the Possession of any Hair Powder Maker or Blue Maker for the Purpose of immediately manufacturing the same into Hair Powder or into Blue, or Imported Starch found in any Place belonging to a Starch or Hair Powder Maker, &c. not properly stampt, &c. may be seized, and the Party to forfeit 200 l.

Act not to extend to such Starch being made into Hair Powder, &c.

any Quantity of Starch not exceeding twenty-eight Pounds Weight in the Possession of any Dealer in or Seller of Starch, and taken out of the Papers for immediate or current Sale; any Thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

If the Paper containing imported Starch or Hair Powder should be damaged, after being stampt, it may be re-papered, &c. under certain Conditions.

XV. 'And whereas it may happen that the Paper wherein any Starch or Hair Powder imported shall be 'contained, after the same has been stamped as aforesaid, may, by Accident, be broken or damaged,' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when the Paper wherein any such Starch or Hair Powder shall be contained shall, by any Accident, be broken or damaged, and the Starch Maker or Dealer in Starch, or Hair Powder Maker or Dealer in Hair Powder, to whom the same belongs, shall be desirous of having the same re-papered and re-stamped, such Maker or Dealer shall give to the proper Officer or Officers of Excise, within whose Survey he or she shall be, twenty-four Hours Notice in Writing, that such Maker or Dealer desires to have such Starch or Hair Powder re-papered and re-stamped, and thereupon, and upon the Production of such broken Paper, with the Label and Stamp, or Seal thereof, to such Officer or Officers, and leaving the same with him or them, it shall be lawful for such Officer or Officers, being satisfied that such Starch or Hair Powder had before been duly stamped or sealed as aforesaid, and that the Paper or Papers containing the same had been broken or damaged by Accident, as soon as is convenient after the Expiration of such twenty-four Hours, to re-stamp or re-seal such Starch or Hair Powder, the same being re-papered and tied, and such Label as aforesaid being affixed thereon in Manner hereinbefore directed.

No Hair Powder exceeding 28 lb. to be removed unless marked "Hair-Powder," on Penalty of Forfeiture.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when any Hair Powder, exceeding the Quantity of twenty-eight Pounds Weight, shall be removed or carried by Land or by Water, the Word "Hair-Powder" shall be painted or marked, in legible Letters of at least three Inches in Length, on every Cask, Chest, Case, Bag, or other Package wherein such Hair Powder shall be contained; and any Hair Powder, exceeding the Quantity of twenty-eight Pounds Weight, which shall be found removing or carrying, or removed or carried, by Land or by Water, in any Cask, Chest, Case, Bag, or other Package, not having the Word "Hair-Powder" so painted or marked thereon, shall be forfeited, together with the Cask, Chest, Case, Bag, or other Package containing the same, and the Boat or Vessel, Horses or other Cattle, Waggon, Cart, or other Carriage, made use of in removing or carrying the same; and the same shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise.

Dealers in Hair Powder receiving more than 28 lb. unmarked, to forfeit 200 l.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Dealer or Dealers in, or Seller or Sellers of, Hair Powder, shall, at any Time, knowingly receive into his, her, or their Custody or Possession, any Quantity of Hair Powder exceeding twenty-eight Pounds Weight, not having the Word "Hair-Powder" so as aforesaid painted or marked on the Cask, Chest, Case, Bag, or other Package containing the same, the Person or Persons so offending shall forfeit the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

Penalty of 200 l. for obstructing Officers.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall obstruct or hinder any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise in the Execution of any of the Powers and Authorities to him or them given by this Act, the Person or Persons offending therein shall, for every such Offence, (for which no other Penalty is by this Act imposed,) forfeit and lose the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

Recovery and Application of Penalties sued for by the Customs.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, created or imposed by this Act, and which shall be sued for or prosecuted under or by virtue of the Order or Permission of the Commissioners of the Customs in England and Scotland respectively, or by any Officer or Officers of the Customs, shall and may be sued for, prosecuted, recovered, and disposed of, in such Manner, and by such Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Fines or Penalties incurred, or any Goods forfeited, for any Offence against the Laws of Customs, may now legally be sued for, prosecuted, recovered, and disposed of; and the Officer or Officers of the Customs concerned in any such Seizure or Prosecution shall be entitled to and receive such Share of the Produce arising from the Seizures as they are now by Law entitled to upon Prosecutions of Seizures for unlawful Importations, and to such Share of the Produce arising from any pecuniary Penalty or Composition paid for any Offence against this Act, as they are now by any Law or Regulation entitled to upon Prosecutions for pecuniary Penalties.

Recovery and Application of Penalties sued for by the Excise.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures imposed by this Act, and which shall be prosecuted or sued for by Order of the Commissioners of Excise in England or Scotland respectively, or by any Officer or Officers of Excise, shall be sued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated by such Ways, Means, or Methods as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture may be sued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, respectively; and that one Moiety of every such Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture shall be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him, her, or them who shall inform, discover, or sue for the same.

Limitation of Actions in England.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action or Suit shall be commenced against any Person or Persons for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, such Action or Suit shall be commenced within the Space of one Calendar Month next after the Offence shall be committed; and if such Action or Suit shall be commenced or prosecuted in that Part of Great Britain called England, the Defendant or Defendants in any such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the Authority of this Act; and if it shall appear so to have been done, the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and if the Plaintiff shall be nonsuited, or discontinue his Action after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if Judgment shall be given upon any Verdict or Demurrer against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall and may recover treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have in other Cases by Law; and if such Action or Suit be commenced or prosecuted in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, the Court before whom

General Issue.

Treble Costs.

In Actions in Scotland, the

such Action or Suit shall be brought shall allow the Defender to plead this Act in his Defence, and the Pursuer shall not insist on his Action; or if Judgment shall be given against such Pursuer, the Defendant shall and may recover the full and real Expences he may have been put to by any such Action or Suit.

Defender may plead this Act, &c.

XXII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case his Majesty, at any Time or Times after the passing of this Act, shall, in his Royal Discretion, judge it to be most for the Benefit and Advantage of this Kingdom to permit the making of Starch from Wheat, Barley, Rice, Grain, Potatoes, Flour, Meal, or any other Article or Thing used for the Food of Man, that then it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty, by his Royal Proclamation or Proclamations, to be issued by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, or by his Majesty's Order in Council, to be published in the London Gazette, from Time to Time to permit and suffer all and every Person and Persons, Natives and Foreigners, (but not any particular Person or Persons,) at any Time or Times after the passing of this Act, to make Starch from Wheat, Barley, Rice, Potatoes, Flour, Meal, or any other Article or Thing used for the Food of Man; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

His Majesty may permit the making of Starch from Wheat, &c.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall commence and take Effect as to all such Matters and Things therein contained, in respect whereof no special Commencement is hereby directed or provided, from and immediately after the passing of this Act, and shall be and remain in Force until and upon the first Day of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven.

Commencement and Continuance of Act.

CAP. VII.

An Act for the Safety and Preservation of His Majesty's Person and Government against treasonable and seditious Practices and Attempts.—[18th December 1795.]

'WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, of Great Britain, in this present Parliament assembled, duly considering the daring Outrages 'offered to your Majesty's most Sacred Person, in your Passage to and from your Parliament at the Open-'ing of this present Session, and also the continued Attempts of wicked and evil-disposed Persons to dis-'turb the Tranquillity of this your Majesty's Kingdom, particularly by the Multitude of seditious Pam-'phlets and Speeches daily printed, published, and dispersed, with unremitted Industry, and with a transcendant 'Boldness, in Contempt of your Majesty's Royal Person and Dignity, and tending to the Overthrow of the 'Laws, Government, and happy Constitution of these Realms, have judged that it is become necessary to 'provide a further Remedy against all such treasonable and seditious Practices and Attempts: We, therefore, 'calling to Mind the good and wholesome Provisions which have at different Times been made by the Wis-'dom of Parliament for the averting such Dangers, and more especially for the Security and Preservation of 'the Persons of the Sovereigns of these Realms, do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be en-'acted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever, after the Day of the passing of this Act, during the natural Life of our most Gracious Sovereign Lord the King, (whom Almighty God preserve and bless with a long and prosperous Reign,) and until the End of the next Session of Parliament after a Demise of the Crown, shall, within the Realm or without, compass, imagine, invent, devise, or intend Death or Destruction, or any bodily Harm tending to Death or Destruction, Maim or Wounding, Imprisonment or Restraint, of the Person of the same our Sovereign Lord the King, his Heirs and Successors, or to deprive or depose him or them from the Style, Honour, or Kingly Name of the Imperial Crown of this Realm, or of any other of his Majesty's Dominions or Countries; or to levy War against his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, within this Realm, in order, by Force or Constraint, to compel him or them to change his or their Measures or Counsels, or in order to put any Force or Constraint upon, or to intimidate, or overawe, both Houses, or either House of Parliament; or to move or stir any Foreigner or Stranger with Force to invade this Realm, or any other his Majesty's Dominions or Countries, under the Obeisance of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; and such Compassings, Imaginations, Inventions, Devices, or Intentions, or any of them, shall express, utter, or declare, by publishing any Printing or Writing, or by any overt Act or Deed; being legally convicted thereof, upon the Oaths of two lawful and credible Witnesses, upon Trial, or otherwise convicted or attainted by due Course of Law, then every such Person and Persons, so as aforesaid offending, shall be deemed, declared, and adjudged to be a Traitor and Traitors, and shall suffer Pains of Death, and also lose and forfeit as in Cases of High Treason.

Persons who shall compass, devise, &c. the Death, Restraint, &c. of his Majesty or his Heirs, or to depose them, or to levy War to compel a Change of Measures, &c. to be deemed Traitors.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons within that Part of Great Britain called England, at any Time from and after the Day of the passing of this Act, during three Years from the Day of passing this Act, and until the End of the then next Session of Parliament, shall maliciously and advisedly, by Writing, Printing, Preaching, or other Speaking, express, publish, utter, or declare any Words or Sentences to incite or stir up the People to Hatred or Contempt of the Person of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or the Government and Constitution of this Realm, as by Law established, then every such Person and Persons, being thereof legally convicted, shall be liable to such Punishment as may by Law be inflicted in Cases of High Misdemeanors; and if any Person or Persons shall, after being so convicted, offend a second Time, and be thereupon convicted, before any Commission of Oyer and Terminer, or Gaol Delivery, or in his Majesty's Court of King's Bench, such Person or Persons may, on such second Conviction, be adjudged, at the Discretion of the Court, either to suffer such Punishment as may now by Law be inflicted in Cases of High Misdemeanors, or to be banished this Realm, or to be transported to such Persons, in England, who shall, by Writing, &c. incite to Hatred or Contempt of his Majesty or the Government, &c. shall be guilty of High Misdemeanors; and for a second Offence may be punished as for a High Misdemeanor, or ba-

such Place as shall be appointed by his Majesty for the Transportation of Offenders; which Banishment or Transportation shall be for such Term as the Court may appoint, not exceeding seven Years.

Persons banished or transported, found at large within Great Britain before the Expiration of their Term, to suffer Death.

Where such Persons may be tried.

Certificate of Conviction, &c. to be sufficient Proof.

III. And be it further enacted, That if any Offender or Offenders, who shall be so ordered by any such Court as aforesaid to be banished the Realm, or transported beyond the Seas, in Manner aforesaid, shall be afterwards at large within any Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain, without some lawful Cause, before the Expiration of the Term for which such Offender or Offenders shall have been ordered to be banished or transported beyond the Seas as aforesaid, every such Offender being so at large as aforesaid, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall suffer Death, as in Cases of Felony without Benefit of Clergy; and such Offender or Offenders may be tried, either before Justices of Assize, Oyer and Terminer, Great Sessions, or Gaol Delivery, for the County, City, Liberty, Borough, or Place, where such Offender or Offenders shall be apprehended and taken, or from whence he, she, or they was or were ordered to be banished or transported; and the Clerk of Assize, Clerk of the Peace, or other Clerk or Officer of the Court, having the Custody of the Records where such Orders of Banishment or Transportation shall be made, shall, at the Request of the Prosecutor, or any other Person on his Majesty's Behalf, make out and give a Certificate, in Writing, signed by him, containing the Effect and Substance only (omitting the formal Part) of every Indictment and Conviction of such Offender or Offenders, and of the Order for his, her, or their Banishment or Transportation, to the Justices of Assize, Oyer and Terminer, Great Sessions, or Gaol Delivery, where such Offender or Offenders shall be indicted (not taking for the same more than two Shillings and six Pence); which Certificate shall be sufficient Proof of the Conviction and Order for Banishment or Transportation of such Offender or Offenders.

Limitation of Actions for Misdemeanors; and

IV. Provided always, That no Person or Persons, by virtue of this present Act, shall for any Misdemeanor incur any the Penalties hereinbefore mentioned, unless he, she, or they be prosecuted within six Calendar Months next after the Offence committed, and the Prosecution brought to Trial or Judgment within the first Term, Sittings, Assizes, or Sessions in which, by the Course of the Court wherein such Prosecution shall be depending, the Prosecutor could bring on such Trial, or cause such Judgment to be entered, or in the Term, Sittings, Assizes, or Session which shall next ensue, unless the Court in which such Prosecution shall be depending, or before which such Trial ought to be had, shall, on special Ground stated by Motion in open Court, think fit to enlarge the Time for the Trial thereof, or unless the Defendant shall be prosecuted to or towards an Outlawry; and that no Person shall, upon Trial, be convicted by virtue of this Act, for any Misdemeanor, but by the Oaths of two credible Witnesses.

no Persons to be convicted thereof but by the Oath of two Witnesses.

Persons accused of Treason, to be entitled to Benefit of 7 Gul. III. Cap. 3. and 7 Annæ, Cap. 11.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all and every Person or Persons that shall at any Time be accused, or indicted, or prosecuted, for any Offence made or declared to be Treason by this Act, shall be entitled to the Benefit of the Act of Parliament, made in the seventh Year of his late Majesty King William the Third, intituled, An Act for regulating of Trials in Cases of Treason and Misprision of Treason; and also to the Provisions made by another Act of Parliament, passed in the seventh Year of her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for improving the Union of the two Kingdoms.

Act not to prevent Prosecution at Common Law.

VI. Provided also, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent or affect any Prosecution by Information or Indictment at the Common Law, for any Offence within the Provisions of this Act, unless the Party shall have been first prosecuted under this Act.

CAP. VIII.

An Act for the more effectually preventing Seditious Meetings and Assemblies.

'WHEREAS Assemblies of divers Persons, collected for the Purpose or under the Pretext of deliberating on Public Grievances, and of agreeing on Petitions, Complaints, Remonstrances, Declarations, or other Addresses, to the King, or to both Houses, or either House of Parliament, have of late been made use of to serve the Ends of factious and seditious Persons, to the great Danger of the Public Peace, and may become the Means of producing Confusion and Calamities in the Nation:' Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That no Meeting, of any Description of Persons, exceeding the Number of fifty Persons, (other than and except any Meeting of any County, Riding, or Division called by the Lord Lieutenant, Custos Rotulorum, or Sheriff of such County; or a Meeting called by the Convener of any County or Stewartry in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; or any Meeting called by two or more Justices of the Peace of the County or Place where such Meeting shall be holden; or any Meeting of any County, having different Ridings or Divisions, called by any two Justices of any one or more of such Ridings or Divisions; or any Meeting called by the major Part of the Grand Jury of the County, or of the Division of the County, where such Meeting shall be holden, at their General Assizes or General Quarter Sessions of the Peace; or any Meeting of any City, or Borough, or Town Corporate, called by the Mayor or other Head Officer of such City, or Borough, or Town Corporate; or any Meeting of any Ward or Division of any City or Town Corporate, called by the Alderman or other Head Officer of such Ward or Division; or any Meeting of any Corporate Body,) shall be holden, for the Purpose or on the Pretext of considering of or preparing any Petition, Complaint, Remonstrance, or Declaration, or other Address to the King, or to both Houses, or either House of Parliament, for Alteration of Matters established in Church or State, or for the Purpose or on the Pretext of deliberating

No Meeting of more than fifty Persons (except County Meetings, &c.) to be holden for or on Pretext of preparing Petitions for Alteration of Matters established in Church or State, unless previous Notice be given by seven Householders in some Newspaper, &c.

berating upon any Grievance in Church or State, unless Notice of the Intention to hold such Meeting, and of the Time and Place when and where the same shall be proposed to be holden, and of the Purpose for which the same shall be proposed to be holden, shall be given, in the Names of seven Persons at the least, being Householders resident within the County, City, or Place where such Meeting shall be proposed to be holden, whose Places of Abode and Descriptions shall be inserted in such Notice, and which Notice shall be given by public Advertisement in some public Newspaper usually circulated in the County and Division where such Meeting shall be holden five Days at the least before such Meeting shall be holden, or shall be delivered in Manner hereinafter mentioned; and that such Notice shall not be inserted in any such Newspaper unless the Authority to insert such Notice shall be signed by seven Persons at the least, being Householders resident within the County, City, or Place where such Meeting shall be proposed to be holden, and named in such Notice, and unless such Authority, so signed, shall be written at the Foot of a true Copy of such Notice, and shall be delivered to the Person required to insert the same in any such Newspaper as aforesaid; which Person shall cause such Notice and Authority to be carefully preserved, and shall also, at any Time after such Notice shall have been inserted in such Paper, and within fourteen Days after the Day on which such Meeting shall be had, produce such Notice and Authority, and cause a true Copy thereof (if required) to be delivered to any Justice of the Peace for the County, City, Town, or Place where such Person shall reside, or where such Newspaper shall be printed, and who shall require the same; and in case any Person shall insert any such Notice in any Newspaper, without such Authority as aforesaid, or in case any Person to whom any such Notice and Authority shall have been delivered for the Purpose of inserting such Notice in any such Newspaper as aforesaid, shall refuse to produce such Notice and Authority, or to deliver a true Copy thereof, being thereunto required as aforesaid, within three Days after such Production and Copy, or either of them, shall have been so required, every such Person, for every such Offence, shall forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds to any Person who shall sue for the same.

Notice not to be inserted, unless the Authority to do so be written at the Foot thereof.

Notice and Authority to be preserved, and produced to a Justice if required.

Penalty of 50 l. for inserting Notice without such Authority, &c.

II. Provided always, nevertheless, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful to deliver any such Notice as aforesaid, signed by the seven Persons in whose Names such Notice shall be given, with their Places of Abode, and Descriptions, five Days at the least before the Day on which such Meeting shall be holden, to the Clerk of the Peace of the County, Riding, or Division, within which such Meeting shall be proposed to be holden; and such Clerk of the Peace shall forthwith, and without Delay, send a true Copy of such Notice, with such Signatures and Additions as aforesaid, to three Justices of the Peace at the least, of such County, Riding, or Division, then resident within such County, Riding, or Division; or in case the Justices of the Peace of the City, Borough, or Town, where such Meeting shall be proposed to be holden, shall have exclusive Jurisdiction, then to three of such Justices, if so many shall then be resident within such Jurisdiction, and if not, then to so many of such Justices as shall be resident within such exclusive Jurisdiction; and in such Case, such Notice so given by such Means as aforesaid, shall be as effectual, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been given by public Advertisement, inserted in any such Newspaper as aforesaid.

Notice may be given to the Clerk of the Peace, who shall forthwith send a Copy to the Justices:

Such Notice to be effectual.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Meetings, of any Description of Persons, exceeding the Number of fifty Persons, (other than and except as aforesaid,) which shall be holden without such previous Notice as aforesaid, for the Purpose or on the Pretext of considering of or preparing any Petition, Complaint, Remonstrance, Declaration, or other Address to the King, or both Houses, or either House of Parliament, for Alteration of Matters established in Church or State, or for the Purpose or on the Pretext of deliberating on any Grievance in Church or State, shall be deemed and taken to be unlawful Assemblies.

Meetings without Notice to be deemed unlawful Assemblies.

IV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Persons, exceeding the Number of fifty, being assembled contrary to the Provisions hereinbefore contained, and being required or commanded by any one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, or by the Sheriff of the County or his Under Sheriff, or by the Mayor or other Head Officer or Justice of the Peace of any City or Town Corporate, where such Assembly shall be, by Proclamation to be made in the King's Name, in the Form hereinafter directed, to disperse themselves, and peaceably to depart to their Habitations, or to their lawful Business, shall, to the Number of twelve, or more, notwithstanding such Proclamation made, remain or continue together by the Space of one Hour after such Command or Request made by Proclamation, that then such continuing together to the Number of twelve or more, after such Command or Request made by Proclamation, shall be adjudged Felony without Benefit of Clergy, and the Offenders therein shall be adjudged Felons, and shall suffer Death, as in case of Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

If 12 or more Persons assembled contrary to this Act, shall continue together one Hour after being required by a Justice, &c. to disperse, they shall suffer Death.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Order and Form of the Proclamation to be made as aforesaid shall be as hereafter followeth; (that is to say,) the Justice of the Peace, or other Person authorized by this Act to make the said Proclamation, shall, among the said Persons assembled, or as near to them as he can safely come, with a loud Voice command, or cause to be commanded, Silence to be while Proclamation is making, and after that shall openly and with loud Voice make, or cause to be made, Proclamation in these Words, or like in Effect:

Proclamation to be made in the following

'OUR Sovereign Lord the King chargeth and commandeth all Persons being assembled immediately to disperse themselves, and peaceably to depart to their Habitations or to their lawful Business, upon the 'Pains contained in the Act, made in the thirty-sixth Year of King George the Third, for the more effectually preventing Seditious Meetings and Assemblies. GOD save the KING.'

Form.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Meeting shall be holden, in pursuance of any such Notice as aforesaid, and the Purpose for which the same shall in such Notice have been declared to be holden, or any Matter which shall be in such Notice proposed to be propounded or delibe-

If no Meetings holden pursuant to Notice, any Matter shall be propounded or deliberated upon, purporting that any Thing by Law eſtabliſhed may be altered except by Authority of King, Lords, and Commons, &c. a Magiſtrate may order them to diſperſe; and if 12 or more Perſons ſhall continue together an Hour thereafter, they ſhall ſuffer Death.

rated upon at ſuch Meeting, ſhall purport that any Matter or Thing by Law eſtabliſhed may be altered otherwiſe than by the Authority of the King, Lords, and Commons, in Parliamen aſſembled, or ſhall tend to incite or ſtir up the People to Hatred or Contempt of the Perſon of his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or of the Government and Conſtitution of this Realm, as by Law eſtabliſhed, it ſhall be lawful for one or more Juſtice or Juſtices, or the Sheriff of the County where ſuch Meeting ſhall be, or for the Mayor or other Head Officer, or any Juſtice of the Peace of any City or Town Corporate, where any ſuch Meeting ſhall be, by Proclamation, to require or command the Perſons there aſſembled to diſperſe themſelves; and if any Perſons, to the Number of twelve or more, being ſo required or commanded, by Proclamation to be made in the King's Name, in the Form hereinbefore directed, to diſperſe themſelves, and peaceably to depart to their Habitations, or to their lawful Buſineſs, ſhall, to the Number of twelve or more, notwithſtanding ſuch Proclamation made, remain or continue together by the Space of one Hour after ſuch Command or Requeſt made by Proclamation, that then ſuch continuing together to the Number of twelve or more, after ſuch Command or Requeſt made by Proclamation, ſhall be adjudged Felony without Benefit of Clergy, and the Offenders therein ſhall be adjudged Felons, and ſhall ſuffer Death, as in caſe of Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

Juſtices at Meetings on Notice may order Perſons propounding or maintaining Propoſitions for altering any Thing by Law eſtabliſhed except by Authority of the King, Lords, and Commons, &c. to be taken into Cuſtody; and in caſe of Reſiſtance may cauſe Proclamation to be made as aforeſaid; and if 12 or more ſhall continue together an Hour thereafter, they ſhall ſuffer Death.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, preſent at any Meeting requiring ſuch Notice as aforeſaid, ſhall think fit to order any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall at ſuch Meeting proceed to propound or maintain any Propoſition for altering any Thing by Law eſtabliſhed, otherwiſe than by the Authority of the King, Lords, and Commons, in Parliament aſſembled, or ſhall wilfully and adviſedly make any Propoſition, or hold any Diſcourſe, for the Purpoſe of inciting and ſtirring up the People to Hatred or Contempt of the Perſon of his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or the Government and Conſtitution of this Realm, as by Law eſtabliſhed, to be taken into Cuſtody, to be dealt with according to Law; and in caſe the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices, or any of them, or any Peace Officer acting under their or any of their Orders, ſhall be obſtructed in taking into Cuſtody any Perſon or Perſons ſo ordered to be taken into Cuſtody, then and in ſuch Caſe it ſhall be lawful for any ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices thereupon to make, or cauſe to be made, ſuch Proclamation as aforeſaid, in Manner aforeſaid; and if any Perſons to the Number of twelve or more, being required or commanded by ſuch Proclamation to diſperſe themſelves, and peaceably to depart as aforeſaid, ſhall, to the Number of twelve or more, notwithſtanding ſuch Proclamation made, remain or continue together by the Space of one Hour after ſuch Command or Requeſt made by Proclamation, that then ſuch continuing together to the Number of twelve or more, after ſuch Command or Requeſt made by Proclamation, ſhall be adjudged Felony without Benefit of Clergy, and the Offenders therein ſhall be adjudged Felons, and ſhall ſuffer Death, as in caſe of Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

Magiſtrates may reſort to Aſſemblies and act, and may require the Aſſiſtance of Peace Officers.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Juſtice and Juſtices of the Peace, Sheriff, Under Sheriff, Mayor, and other Head Officer aforeſaid, is and are hereby authorized and empowered, on Notice or Knowledge of any ſuch Meeting or Aſſembly as is hereinbefore mentioned, to reſort to the Place where ſuch Meeting or Aſſembly ſhall be, or ſhall be intended to be holden, or to any Part thereof, and there to do, or order or cauſe to be done, all ſuch Acts, Matters, and Things, as the Caſe may require, which they are hereby enabled to do, or order to be done, or which they are otherwiſe by Law enabled to do, or order to be done; and it ſhall be lawful for all and every Juſtices of the Peace, Sheriff, Under Sheriff, Mayor, and other Head Officer as aforeſaid, to take and require the Aſſiſtance of any Number of Conſtables or other Officers of the Peace, within their reſpective Diſtricts, or within the Diſtrict or Place wherein every ſuch Meeting as hereinbefore mentioned ſhall be holden; which Conſtables and other Officers of the Peace are hereby required to attend accordingly ſuch Juſtices, Sheriff, Under Sheriff, Mayor, or other Head Officer reſpectively, and to give ſuch Aſſiſtance as ſhall be neceſſary for the due Execution of this Act.

Perſons not diſperſing within an Hour after Proclamation may be apprehended;

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if ſuch Perſons ſo aſſembled as aforeſaid, or twelve or more of them, after any Proclamation made in Manner aforeſaid, ſhall continue together, and not diſperſe themſelves within one Hour, that then it ſhall and may be lawful to and for every Juſtice of the Peace, Sheriff, or Under Sheriff of the County where ſuch Aſſembly ſhall be, and alſo to and for every High or Petty Conſtable, and other Peace Officer within ſuch County, and alſo to and for every Mayor, Juſtice of the Peace, Sheriff, and other Head Officer, High or Petty Conſtable and other Peace Officer, of any City or Town Corporate where ſuch Aſſembly ſhall be, and to and for ſuch other Perſon and Perſons as ſhall be commanded to be aſſiſting unto any ſuch Juſtice of the Peace, Sheriff or Under Sheriff, Mayor, or other Head Officer aforeſaid, who are hereby authorized and empowered to command all his Majeſty's Subjects, of Age and Ability, to be aſſiſting to them therein, to ſeize and apprehend, and they are hereby required to ſeize and apprehend, ſuch Perſons ſo aſſembled, and continuing together after Proclamation made as aforeſaid, and forthwith to carry the Perſons ſo apprehended before one or more of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace of the County or Place where ſuch Perſons ſhall be ſo apprehended, in order to their being proceeded againſt for ſuch Offences according to Law; and that if the Perſons ſo aſſembled, or any of them, ſhall happen to be killed, maimed, or hurt in the diſperſing, ſeizing, or apprehending, or endeavouring to diſperſe, ſeize, or apprehend them, by reaſon of their reſiſting the Perſons ſo diſperſing, ſeizing, or apprehending, or endeavouring to diſperſe, ſeize, or apprehend them, that then every ſuch Juſtice of the Peace, Sheriff, Under Sheriff, Mayor, Head Officer, High or Petty Conſtable, or other Peace Officer, and all and ſingular Perſons, being aiding and aſſiſting to them or any of them, ſhall be free, diſcharged, and indemni-and if killed or maimed by reaſon of their Reſiſtance, the Magiſtrate, &c. indemnified.

fied,

fied, as well against the King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, as against all and every other Person and Persons, of, for, or concerning the killing, maiming, or hurting of any such Person or Persons so assembled, that shall happen to be so killed, maimed, or hurt as aforesaid.

Persons obstructing Magistrates attending, or going to attend Meetings, or obstructing Persons proclaiming, to suffer Death.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons do or shall, with Force and Arms, wilfully and knowingly oppose, obstruct, or in any Manner wilfully and knowingly let, hinder, or hurt, any Justice of the Peace, or other Person authorized as aforesaid, who shall attend any such Meeting as aforesaid, or who shall be going to attend any such Meeting, or any Person or Persons who shall begin to proclaim, or go to proclaim, according to any Proclamation hereby directed to be made, whereby such Proclamation shall not be made, that then every such opposing, obstructing, letting, hindering, or hurting any such Justice or other Persons so authorized as aforesaid, and so attending or going to attend any such Meeting, or any such Person or Persons so beginning or going to make any such Proclamation as aforesaid, shall be adjudged Felony without Benefit of Clergy, and the Offenders therein shall be adjudged Felons, and shall suffer Death as in case of Felony without Benefit of Clergy; and that also every such Person or Persons so being assembled as aforesaid, to the Number of fifty or more as aforesaid, to whom any such Proclamation as aforesaid should or ought to have been made, if the same had not been hindered as aforesaid, shall likewise, in case they or any of them, to the Number of twelve or more, shall continue together, and not disperse themselves within one Hour after such Let or Hindrance so made, having Knowledge of such Let or Hindrance so made, shall be adjudged Felons, and shall suffer Death as in case of Felony without Benefit of Clergy; and that also, if any Person or Persons, so being at any such Assembly as aforesaid, shall with Force and Arms wilfully and knowingly oppose, obstruct, or in any Manner wilfully and knowingly let, hinder, or hurt any Justice of the Peace, or other Magistrate, or any Peace Officer, in apprehending or taking into Custody, in Execution of any of the Provisions of this Act hereinbefore contained, any Person or Persons, or endeavouring so to do, that then every such opposing, obstructing, letting, hindering, or hurting, shall be adjudged Felony without Benefit of Clergy, and the Offenders therein shall be adjudged Felons, and shall suffer Death as in case of Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

Persons assembled to whom Proclamation ought to have been made, if the same had not been hindered, continuing together to the Number of 12 or more, for an Hour after such Hindrance, to suffer Death.

Persons at such Assemblies opposing the taking of Offenders into Custody to suffer Death.

Sheriffs Deputes, &c. in Scotland, to have the same Power as Justices in England.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Sheriffs Depute and their Substitutes, Stewards Depute and their Substitutes, Justices of the Peace, Magistrates of Royal Boroughs, and all other inferior Judges and Magistrates, and also all High and Petty Constables or other Peace Officers, of any County, Stewartry, City, or Town, within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall have such and the same Powers and Authorities, for putting this present Act in Execution within Scotland, as the Justices of the Peace and other Magistrates aforesaid respectively have, by virtue of this Act, within and for the other Parts of this Kingdom; and that all and every Person and Persons who shall at any Time be convicted of any of the Felonies afore-mentioned, within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall for every such Offence incur and suffer the Pain of Death, and Confiscation of Moveables.

Persons convicted of Felonies in Scotland, to incur the Pain of Death and Confiscation of Moveables.

Places for Lectures or Debates concerning supposed public Grievances, where Money is paid for Admission, unless previously licensed, to be deemed disorderly Places, and the Persons opening or using them to forfeit 100*l.* &c.

XII. 'And whereas certain Houses, Rooms, or Places within the Cities of London and Westminster, and 'in the Neighbourhood thereof, and in other Places, have of late been frequently used for the Purpose of 'delivering Lectures and Discourses on and concerning supposed public Grievances, and Matters relating 'to the Laws, Constitution, and Government and Policy of these Kingdoms, and treating and debating on 'and concerning the same; and under Pretence thereof Lectures or Discourses have been delivered, and 'Debates held, tending to stir up Hatred and Contempt of his Majesty's Royal Person, and of the Govern'ment and Constitution of this Realm as by Law established:' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every House, Room, Field, or other Place where Lectures or Discourses shall be delivered, or public Debates shall be had on or concerning any supposed public Grievance, or any Matters relating to the Laws, Constitution, Government, or Policy of these Kingdoms, for the Purpose of raising or collecting Money, or any other valuable Thing, from the Persons admitted, whether such House, Room, Field, or Place shall be opened or used for any such Purpose alone, or for any such Purpose together with any other Purpose, or under whatever Pretence the same shall be opened or used, to which any Person shall be admitted by the Payment of Money, or by Tickets sold for Money, or in consequence of his paying or giving, or having paid or given, or agreeing thereafter to pay or give, in any Manner, any Money or other Thing for or in respect of his Admission into such House, Room, Field, or Place, unless the opening or using of such House, Room, Field, or Place shall have been previously licensed Manner hereinafter mentioned, shall be deemed a disorderly House or Place, and the Person by whom such House, Room, Field, or Place shall be opened or used for the Purpose aforesaid, shall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds for every Day or Time that such House, Room, Field, or Place shall be opened or used as aforesaid, to such Person as will sue for the same, and be otherwise punished as the Law directs in Cases of disorderly Houses; and every Person managing or conducting the Proceedings, or acting as Moderator, President, or Chairman, at such House, Room, Field, or Place, or therein debating, or delivering any Discourse or Lecture for the Purpose aforesaid, and also every Person who shall pay, give, collect, or receive, or agree to pay, give, collect, or receive, any Money or other Thing, for or in respect of the Admission of any Person into any such House, Room, Field, or Place, or shall deliver out, distribute, or receive any such Ticket or Tickets as aforesaid, knowing such House, Room, Field, or Place to be opened or used for such Purpose, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds to such Person as will sue for the same.

And the Persons managing the Proceedings, and the Persons paying or receiving Money for Admissions, or delivering or receiving Tickets, to forfeit 100*l.*

Persons appearing as Master, &c. of such

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Person who shall at any Time hereafter appear, act, or behave him or herself as Master or Mistress, or as the Person having the Command, Government, Places liable to Prosecution.

Government, or Management of any such House, Room, Field, or Place as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken to be a Person by whom the same is opened or used as aforesaid, and shall be liable to be sued or prosecuted, and punished as such, notwithstanding he or she be not, in Fact, the real Owner or Occupier thereof.

Magistrates who, by information on Oath, have Reason to suspect that any Place is opened for delivering Lectures, &c. may demand to be admitted; and in case of Refusal, the Place to be deemed disorderly, and the Person refusing Admittance to forfeit 100 l.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for any Justice or Justices of the Peace, or Chief Magistrate respectively, of any County, City, Borough, or Place, who shall, by Information upon Oath, have Reason to suspect that any House, Room, Field, or Place, or any Parts or Part thereof, are or is opened or used for the Purpose of delivering Lectures or Discourses, or for public Debate, contrary to the Provisions of this Act, to go to such House, Room, or Place, and demand to be admitted therein; and in case such Justice or Justices, or other Magistrate, shall be refused Admittance to such House, Room, Field, or Place, or any Part thereof, the same shall be deemed a disorderly House or Place, within the Intent and Meaning of this Act; and all and every the Provisions hereinbefore contained respecting any House, Room, Field, or Place, hereinbefore declared to be a disorderly House or Place, shall be applied to such House, Room, Field, or Place, where such Admittance shall have been refused as aforesaid, and every Person refusing such Admittance shall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds to any Person who shall sue for the same.

Magistrates may demand Admittance to any licensed Place at the Time of delivering Lectures, &c. and if refused it shall be deemed disorderly; and the Person refusing Admittance shall forfeit 100 l.

XV. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for any Justice or Justices of the Peace, or Chief Magistrate respectively, of any County, City, Borough, or Place, where any such House, Room, or other Building shall be licensed as aforesaid, to go to such House, Room, or Building so licensed, at the Time of delivering any such Lecture or Discourse therein as aforesaid, or at the Time appointed for delivering any such Lecture or Discourse, and demand to be admitted therein; and in case such Justice or Justices, or other Magistrate, shall be refused Admittance to such House, Room, or Building, the same shall be deemed, notwithstanding any such Licence as aforesaid, a disorderly House or Place, within the Meaning of this Act; and all and every the Provisions hereinbefore contained, respecting any House, Room, Field, or Place, hereinbefore declared to be a disorderly House or Place, shall be applied to such House, Room, or Building so licensed as aforesaid, where such Admittance shall have been refused as aforesaid; and every Person refusing such Admittance shall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds to any Person who will sue for the same.

Justices may license Places for delivering Lectures; and may revoke them.

XVI. Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for two or more Justices of the Peace of the County, City, Town, or Place where any House, Room, or other Building shall be, which any Person shall be desirous to open for any of the Purposes aforesaid, by Writing under their Hands and Seals, at their General Quarter Session of the Peace, or at any Special Session to be held for the particular Purpose, to grant a Licence to any Person or Persons desiring the same, to open such House, Room, or other Building, for the Purpose of delivering for Money any such Lectures or Discourses as aforesaid, on any of the Subjects aforesaid, the same being clearly expressed in such Licence, for which Licence a Fee of one Shilling, and no more, shall be paid, and the same shall be in Force for the Space of one Year, and no longer, or for any less Space of Time, therein to be specified; and which Licence it shall be lawful for the Justices of the same County, City, Town, or Place, at any General Quarter Session of the Peace, to revoke and declare void and no longer in Force, by any Order of such Justices, a Copy whereof shall be delivered to or served upon the Person to whom the said Licence so revoked shall have been granted, or shall be left at the House, Room, or Building for which such Licence shall have been granted, and thereupon such Licence shall cease and determine, and be thenceforth utterly void and of no Effect.

Recovery of Forfeitures.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Person entitled to any of the Forfeitures aforesaid may sue by Action of Debt in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Courts of Justiciary or Exchequer in Scotland, when the Cause of Action shall arise in Scotland, in which Action it shall be sufficient to declare that the Defendant is indebted to the Plaintiff in the Sum of (being the Sum demanded by the said Action) being forfeited by an Act, made in the thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of his Majesty King George the Third, intituled, An Act for the more effectually preventing Seditious Meetings and Assemblies; and the Plaintiff, if he shall recover in any such Action, shall have his full Costs.

General Issue.

Provided also, that if any Action or Suit shall be brought against any Person for any Thing done in pursuance and in Execution of this Act, the Defendant may plead the General Issue; and if a Verdict pass for the Defendant, or the Plaintiff discontinue his or her Action, or be nonsuited, or Judgment be given against the Plaintiff, then such Defendant shall have treble Costs.

Treble Costs.

Act not to extend to Universities,

XVIII. Provided also, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to any Lecture or Discourses to be delivered in any of the Universities of these Kingdoms, by any Member thereof, or any Person authorized by the Chancellor, Vice Chancellor, or other proper Officers of such Universities respectively.

nor to Instructors of Youth.

XIX. Provided also, and be it enacted, That no Payment made to any Schoolmaster or other Person by Law allowed to teach and instruct Youth, in respect of any Lectures or Discourses delivered by such Schoolmaster, or other Person, for the Instruction only of such Youth as shall be committed to his Instruction, shall be deemed a Payment of Money for Admission to such Lectures or Discourses within the Intent and Meaning of this Act.

XX. Provi

XX. Provided also, That nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed to take away or abridge any Provision already made by the Law of this Realm, or of any Part thereof, for the Suppression or Punishment of any Offence whatsoever described in this Act. Act not to abridge any Law for the Suppression or Punishment of Offences herein described.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be openly read at every Epiphany Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and at every Leet or Law Day. Act to be read at certain Times.

XXII. Provided always, That no Person shall be prosecuted by virtue of this Act, unless such Prosecution shall be commenced within six Calendar Months after the Offence committed; and no Action shall be brought, for any of the Penalties by this Act imposed, unless the same shall be brought within three Calendar Months next after the Offence committed. Limitation of Actions.

XXIII. Provided also, That this Act shall commence and have Effect within the City of London, and within twenty Miles thereof, from the Day next after the Day of passing this Act, and shall commence and have Effect within all other Parts of the Kingdom, from the Expiration of seven Days next after the Day of passing this Act, and shall be and continue in force for three Years from the Day of passing this Act, and until the End of the then next Session of Parliament. Commencement and Continuance of Act.

CAP. IX.

An Act to prevent Obstructions to the free Passage of Grain within the Kingdom.

'WHEREAS divers Persons have assembled themselves in great Numbers, and committed great Violences, with Intent to hinder the Passage of Corn and Grain from Place to Place, whereby the necessary Circulation of Corn and Grain within the Kingdom may be prevented:' Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person or Persons shall, from and after the passing of this Act, wilfully and maliciously beat, wound, or use any other Violence to or upon any Person or Persons, with Intent to deter or hinder him or them from buying of Corn or Grain in any Market, or other Place within this Kingdom, or shall unlawfully stop or seize any Wheat, Flour, Meal, Malt, or other Grain, in or on the Way to or from any City, Market Town, or Place in this Kingdom, or shall wilfully and maliciously break, cut, or destroy any Waggon, Cart, or other Carriage wherein any such Wheat, Flour, Meal, Malt, or other Grain, shall be loaded, or the Harness of any Horse or Horses drawing or carrying the same, or shall unlawfully take off from any such Carriage, or drive away, kill, or wound, any such Horse or Horses, or unlawfully beat or wound the Driver or Drivers of any such Waggon, Cart, or other Carriage, or Horse so loaded, with Intent to stop such Wheat, Flour, Meal, Malt, or other Grain, or shall, by cutting of the Sacks, or otherwise, scatter or throw abroad any such Wheat, Flour, Meal, Malt, or other Grain, or shall take or carry away, destroy, spoil, or damage the same, or any Part thereof, every and all such Person or Persons, being thereof lawfully convicted before any two or more Justices of the Peace of the County, Shire, Stewartry, Riding, Division, Town, or Place Corporate, wherein such Offence or Offences shall be committed, or before the Justices of the Peace in open Sessions, (who are hereby authorized and empowered, summarily and finally, to hear and determine the same,) shall be sent to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to continue and be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding the Space of three Months nor less than one Month. Persons hindering the buying of Corn, or seizing it on its Passage, &c. to be committed to hard Labour for a limited Time.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any such Person or Persons so convicted shall commit any of the Offences aforesaid a second Time, or if, from and after the passing of this Act, any Person or Persons, with Intent to prevent or hinder any Corn, Meal, Flour, Malt, or Grain from being lawfully carried or removed from any Place whatsoever, shall wilfully and maliciously pull, throw down, or otherwise destroy, any Storehouse or Granary, or other Place in which Corn, Meal, Flour, Malt, or Grain shall be then kept, or shall unlawfully enter any such Storehouse, Granary, or other Place, and take and carry away any Corn, Flour, Meal, Malt, or Grain therefrom, or shall throw abroad or spoil the same, or any Part thereof, or shall unlawfully enter on board any Ship, Barge, Boat, or Vessel, and wilfully and maliciously take and carry away, cast or throw out therefrom, or otherwise spoil or damage any Corn, Flour, Meal, Malt, or Grain therein, every Person so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall be transported for the Space of Seven Years, in like Manner as other Felons are directed to be transported by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm; and if any such Offender so transported shall return into this Kingdom before the Expiration of the said seven Years, he or she shall suffer Death as a Felon, without Benefit of Clergy: Provided always, that no Attainder for any Offence made Felony by virtue of this Act shall make or work any Corruption of Blood, Loss of Dower, or Disinheritance of Heir or Heirs. Persons convicted of such Offences a second Time, or destroying Storehouses, or carrying Corn therefrom, &c. to be transported for seven Years, &c.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Inhabitants of every Hundred, in that Part of Great Britain called England, wherein any such Offence as aforesaid shall be committed, shall make full Satisfaction and Amends to all and every the Person and Persons, their Executors and Administrators, for the Damage they shall have sustained or suffered by any Injury or Violence done to their Properties by any Offender or Offenders against this Act; and that every Person and Persons who shall sustain Damages in their Properties by any of the said Offences, shall and are hereby enabled to sue for and recover such his or their Damages (the Sum to be recovered not exceeding one hundred Pounds) against the said Hundred, who by this Act shall be made liable to answer all or any Part thereof; such Damages to be sued for, levied, and raised in such Manner and Form, and by and under the like The Hundred where any such Offence is committed may be sued for Damages, not exceeding 100*l.*

like Methods and Directions, as are prescribed and mentioned in Cases of Actions of Robberies on the Highway in and by an Act, made in the seven-and-twentieth Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, intituled, An Act for the following Hue and Cry; and by one other Act, made in the eighth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the Amendment of the Law relating to Actions on the Statute of Hue and Cry, except so much thereof as relates to giving, leaving, or publishing Notice, or making fresh Suit and Hue and Cry, or any other Matter otherwise provided for by this Act.

No Person to recover such Damages, unless Notice be given of the Offence, &c and Recognizance entered into to prosecute known Offenders.

IV. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons shall be enabled to recover any Damages by virtue of this Act, unless he or they, by themselves or by their Servants, within two Days after such Damage or Injury done him or them, by any such Offender or Offenders as aforesaid, shall give Notice of such Offence done and committed to one of the Constables of the Hundred, or to the Constable, Borsholder, Headborough, or Tithingman of the Town, Parish, Village, Hamlet, or Tithing in or near which such Fact shall be committed, and shall, within ten Days after such Notice, give in his or their Examinations upon Oath, or the Examination of his or their Servants, being present at the Time of the Fact being committed, or having the Care of such his or their Properties to which such Damage or Injury shall be done, before any Justice of the Peace of the County, Liberty, or Division where such Fact shall be committed, whether he or they do know the Person or Persons that committed such Fact, or any of them; and if upon such Examination it be confessed that he or they do know that the Person or Persons that committed the said Fact, or any of them, that then he or they so confessing shall be bound by Recognizance to prosecute such Offender or Offenders according to this Act, or otherwise according to the Laws of the Realm.

If any Offender be convicted within a Year after the Offence, the Hundred not liable to make Satisfaction for Damages.

No Action for Damages to be brought till after a Year, nor unless commenced within two Years after the Offence.

V. Provided also, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Offence shall be committed against this Act, and any one of the said Offenders shall be apprehended, and lawfully convicted of such Offence, within the Space of twelve Months after the Offence committed, no Hundred or Franchise therein shall in anywise be subject or liable to make any Satisfaction to the Party or Parties injured for the Damages he or they shall have sustained; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided also, that no Person who shall sustain any Damage by reason of any Offence to be committed by any Offender contrary to this Act, shall be enabled hereby to sue or bring any Action against any Hundred where such Offence shall be committed till after the Expiration of one Year, nor unless the Party or Parties sustaining such Damage shall commence his, her, or their Action or Suit, within two Years next after the Offence committed.

Not to abridge any Law for the Punishment or Suppression of Offences mentioned herein.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed or taken to abridge or take away any Provision already made by the Law of this Realm, or any Part thereof, for the Suppression or Punishment of any Offence whatsoever mentioned or described in this Act: Provided also, that no Person who shall be punished by virtue of this Act, shall be punished for the same Offence by virtue of any other Law or Statute whatsoever.

CAP. X.

An Act for the better Relief of the Poor, within the several Hundreds, Towns, and Districts, in that Part of Great Britain called England, incorporated by divers Acts of Parliament for the Purpose of the better Maintenance and Employment of the Poor; and for enlarging the Powers of the Guardians of the Poor, within the said several Hundreds, Towns, and Districts, as to the Assessments to be made upon the several Parishes, Hamlets, and Places, within their respective Hundreds, Towns, and Districts, for the Support and Maintenance of the Poor.—[18th December 1795.]

'WHEREAS several Acts of Parliament have of late Years been made and passed, for the better Relief and Employment of the Poor in particular incorporated Hundreds, Towns, and Districts within that Part of Great Britain called England: And whereas certain Persons, described and appointed by the said several Acts, are thereby empowered to assess the several Parishes, Hamlets, and Places chargeable to the Poor's Rate within the said several Hundreds, Towns, or Districts respectively, in such Sums of Money as they shall think necessary, for defraying the Expences of supporting and maintaining the Poor within their respective Hundreds, Towns, and Districts, and for other the Purposes of the said Acts; but such Sums of Money, for which such Assessments are to be made, are by the said several Acts of Parliament limited so as that they may not exceed a certain Sum in any one Year, which Sum was calculated upon an Average of the Amount of the Poor's Rates in each Parish respectively, for a certain Number of Years previous to the passing of the respective incorporating Acts: And whereas, by Reason of the late very great Increase of the Price of Corn, and other necessary Articles of Life, the Amount of the Rates and Assessments so limited by the said several Acts of Parliament, are become insufficient for the necessary Relief and Maintenance of the Poor, who have also of late greatly increased in Number: And whereas in many incorporated Hundreds, Towns, and Districts the Expence of maintaining the Poor, since the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, has exceeded the whole Amount of the Rates which could be raised in the present Year within those Hundreds, Towns, and Districts, under their respective incorporating Acts; whereby considerable Debts have on that Account been incurred by the Guardians

'of the Poor of those Hundreds, Towns, and Districts: And it is therefore become necessary and expe-'dient that the Powers of the several Persons to whom is committed, by the said several Acts of Parliament, 'the Duty of appointing the Sums to be assessed on the several Parishes, Hamlets, and Places within their re-'spective Hundreds, Towns, and Districts, should be enlarged:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Directors and Acting Guardians of the Poor within any Hundred, Town, or District, in that Part of Great Britain called England, incorporated by any Act of Parliament for the Relief or Maintenance and Employment of the Poor, or for any other Persons, by whatsoever Name they are called or described, to whom is given, by any such incorporating Act, the Power of appointing the Sum or Sums to be assessed on the several Parishes, Hamlets, or Places within their respective Hundreds, Towns, or Districts, for the Maintenance of the Poor, and other the Purposes of such Act, at any of their annual, quarterly, or other general Meetings, whenever the Average Price of Wheat at the Corn Market in Mark Lane, London, for the Quarter immediately preceding such annual, quarterly, or other general Meeting, shall have exceeded the Average Price of Wheat at the same Market during those Years from which the Average Amount of the Poor's Rates was taken upon the passing of the several incorporating Acts respectively, to assess the several Parishes, Hamlets, and Places within their respective Hundreds, Towns, or Districts, which now are or usually have been charged to the Poor's Rates, in such respective Sums of Money as the said Directors and Acting Guardians, or such other Persons as aforesaid, shall think necessary for defraying the Expences attending the Support and Maintenance of the Poor for the current Quarter, and for paying the Interest of the Money borrowed and due by virtue of the said respective Acts, and of any Debts which may have been incurred since the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, in the Maintenance of the Poor, and for other the Purposes of the said Acts, notwithstanding such Sums of Money so to be assessed should exceed the Amount of the Assessments limited by such respective Acts of Parliament to be assessed on the respective Parishes, Hamlets, and Places within such incorporated Hundreds, Towns, or Districts, in any one Year: Provided always, that the Sums to be assessed, and the Assessments to be made by virtue of this Act, in each respective incorporated Hundred, Town, or District, shall be assessed, made, collected, and paid in the same Manner, and subject to the same Restrictions, Regulations, Limitations, and Powers of Appeal, and with the like Powers and Remedies for compelling Payment thereof, as the Sums to be assessed, and the Assessments to be made, by virtue of the several incorporating Acts, are by those respective Acts directed to be assessed, collected, and made within the several Hundreds, Towns, and Districts respectively incorporated by those Acts: Provided also, that the Sums to be assessed by virtue of this Act, upon any Parish, Hamlet, or Place, shall be in the same Rates and Proportions as the Assessments which have hitherto been made and levied by virtue of the said Act or Acts incorporating the several Hundreds, Towns, or Districts in which such Parishes, Hamlets, or Places are respectively situated: And provided also, that, from and after the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, the Sums to be assessed, by virtue of this Act, on any Parish, Hamlet, or Place, shall never exceed, in any one Year, the Amount of double the Sum at present raised by virtue of any incorporating Act now existing.

Directors and Acting Guardians of the Poor, incorporated by Acts of Parliament, may, in certain Cases, make such Assessments as may be necessary for the Support and Maintenance of the Poor, &c. notwithstanding they may exceed the Assessments limited by the respective Acts.

Assessments by virtue of this Act to be made, &c. as those under the incorporating Acts.

From Jan. 1, 1798, no Assessment to exceed double the Sums at present raised under the incorporating Acts.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Powers, Directions, Rules, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, which, in and by an Act, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights Service and Purveyance, and for settling a Revenue upon his Majesty in lieu thereof, or by any other Law now in force relating to his Majesty's Revenue of Excise, are provided, settled, or established, for managing, raising, levying, collecting, mitigating, or recovering, adjudging, or ascertaining, the Duties thereby granted, or any of them, shall be practised, used, and put in Execution, in and for the managing, raising, levying, collecting, mitigating, recovering, and paying, the Excise Duties by this Act imposed, and for preventing, detecting, and punishing Frauds relating thereto, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if all and every the said Powers, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in this present Act.

Duties to be carried to the Consolidated Fund.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies from Time to Time arising by the Duties by this Act imposed as aforesaid, (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted,) shall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster; and the said Money so paid as aforesaid, shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund.

Duties to be applied in defraying any increased Charge occasioned by any Loan of this Session, and for ten Years to be kept with other Duties granted for the same Purpose separate from other Monies.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Monies to arise from the said Duties, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient, shall be deemed an Addition made to the Revenue, for the Purpose of defraying the increased Charge occasioned by any Loan to be raised by virtue of any Act or Acts to be passed in this Session of Parliament; and that the said Monies, during the Space of ten Years next ensuing, shall continue to be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Public Revenue; and that there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt, during the said Period of ten Years, a Book or Books in which all the Monies arising from the said Duties, paid into the Receipt by virtue of this Act, shall, together with the Monies arising from any other Duties granted in this Session of Parliament, for the Purpose of defraying such increased Charge as aforesaid, be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, upon any Account whatever.

American Tobacco imported and warehoused may be removed Duty free to certain Ports for the Use of Land Forces on board Ship.

IX. 'And whereas by the Laws now in force, none but Tobacco of the Growth of the British Plantations, which shall have paid Duty, and which shall have been manufactured in Great Britain, can be legally used or consumed on board of any of the Transports employed in carrying his Majesty's Land Forces in any Part of Europe: And whereas it is expedient that Tobacco of the Growth or Production of the British Plantations in America, or the United States of America, regularly imported into Great Britain, should be supplied to the Ships or Transports employed to carry his Majesty's Land Forces, for the Use of Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers, without Payment of any Duty whatever under certain Conditions:' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commanding Officer of the Forces on board any such Ship or Transport in actual Service, on purchasing any such Tobacco for the Purpose aforesaid, which shall have been legally deposited in any Warehouse now or hereafter to be appointed by the Commissioners of the Customs for the Reception of the same on Importation thereof, to remove the same, without Payment of any Duty whatever, by Permission of the said Commissioners of the Customs, upon such Conditions, and under such Regulations and Restrictions, as they may deem necessary for the Security of the Revenue, to the Ports of Rochester, Portsmouth, or Plymouth, there to be deposited in the Charge of the Collectors and Comptrollers of such Ports respectively, who are hereby authorized and required, on such Tobacco being duly entered Outwards, to permit the same to be shipped and put on board any Ship or Transport in actual Service, within the Limits of their respective Ports, under the Care and Inspection of the proper Officers.

No Tobacco so shipt to be relanded, without Leave, in Great Britain, nor in Ireland, &c.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Tobacco so about to be shipped, shall be really and truly meant and intended for the Use and Consumption of such Land Forces, and that no Part thereof shall be by such Commanding Officer, or with his Privity, Consent, or Knowledge, relanded in any Part of Great Britain, without special Leave first had and obtained from the proper Officer or Officers of his Majesty's Customs for that Purpose, or landed in Ireland, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man.

Quantity which may be shipt.

XI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no greater Quantity of such Tobacco shall be allowed to any such Ship or Transport, than two Pounds Weight Avoirdupois by the Lunar Month, for each Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier, nor shall any greater Quantity be permitted to be shipped at one and the same Time, than will be sufficient to serve such Forces for any Time not exceeding the Space of six Months, at the Rate aforesaid.

An Act for granting to His Majesty further additional Duties on the Amount of the Duties, under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, therein mentioned.—[24th December 1795.]

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

'WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament 'assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray your Majesty's public Expences, and 'making such permanent Addition to the Public Revenue as shall be adequate to the increased Charge oc- 'casioned by any Loan to be raised by virtue of any Act or Acts for that Purpose to be passed in this 'Session of Parliament, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto your Majesty the fur- 'ther additional Duties hereinafter mentioned; and do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be 'enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, upon every Assessment to be made after the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, under or by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, for or in respect of the several Rates and Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, a further additional Rate or Duty after the Rate of ten Pounds for every hundred Pounds of the gross Amount of all the said former Rates and Duties charged by such Assessment, except as hereinafter is excepted.

From April 5, 1796, on every Assessment made under any Act now in force respecting Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for Taxes an additional Duty of 10 per Cent. on the Amount to be paid, except, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, upon every Assessment made or to be made for the Year ending the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, under or by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, for or in respect of the several Rates and Duties before mentioned, a further additional Rate or Duty after the Rate of ten Pounds for every hundred Pounds of the gross Amount of all the said former Rates and Duties charged by such Assessment, except as hereinafter is excepted, to be computed for the Half Year ending the said fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six.

On every such Assessment made for the Year ending April 5, 1796, the additional Duty of 10 l. per Cent. to be charged for Half a Year.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to charge with the said further additional Rate or Duty of ten Pounds per Centum by this Act imposed, the Amount of the Duty commonly call The Land Tax, granted to his Majesty in and by an Act of the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to his Majesty by a Land Tax, to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, or granted or to be granted by any Act of the present Session of Parliament, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, or that shall or may be granted by any Act or Acts of Parliament for granting an Aid to his Majesty by a Land Tax during the Continuance of this Act, nor the Amount of the Rates and Duties after the Rate of ten Pounds per Centum upon the gross Amount of certain assessed Taxes, granted by an Act, passed in the thirty-first Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty additional Duties on the Amount of the Duties, under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, therein mentioned, nor the Amount of the Rates and Duties granted upon Horses by several of the Acts of the twenty-fourth and twenty-ninth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, nor any Rate or Duty whatever, to be raised by Assessment by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

Act not to extend to certain Duties.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said further additional Rates and Duties hereby imposed as aforesaid, shall be paid over and above and in Addition to the respective Rates and Duties on Houses, Windows, and Lights, granted by two several Acts of the sixth and twenty-fourth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, upon inhabited Houses, granted by an Act of the nineteenth Year of the Reign of his Majesty, upon Male Servants, granted by an Act of the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his said Majesty, and upon Coaches and other Carriages, granted by two several Acts of the twenty-fifth and twenty-ninth Years of the Reign of his said Majesty.

Act to extend to certain Duties.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners authorized or appointed, or who shall be authorized or appointed, to put in Execution the said several Acts before mentioned, relative to the said former Rates or Duties, or any of them, on the Amount of which the said additional Rates or Duties are hereby imposed, shall be Commissioners for executing this present Act, and that the several Surveyors, Inspectors, Assessors, and Collectors, respectively appointed, or to be appointed, to put in Execution the said several Acts before mentioned, or any of them, shall be Surveyors, Inspectors, Assessors, and Collectors, to put in Execution this present Act, according to the respective Powers and Authorities given to them, by the said former Acts, or any of them, and the said Commissioners, and other the Persons aforesaid, being duly qualified to act in the Execution of the said several Acts before mentioned, relative to the said former Rates or Duties, or any of them, shall, and they are hereby respectively empowered and required to do all Things necessary for putting this Act in Execution with relation to the said further additional Rates or Duties hereby imposed, in the like and in as full and ample a Manner, as they, or any of them, are or is authorized to put in Execution the said former Acts, relative to the said Rates and Duties, or any Matters or Things therein respectively contained.

Commissioners, &c. appointed to put in Execution former Acts relative to the Duties, to put in Execution the present Act.

VI. And

Periods of paying the additional Duty for the Half Year ending April 5, 1796, VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said additional Rate or Duty hereby imposed for the said Half Year ending on the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, shall be paid at the Times and in the Manner following; (that is to say,) on the fifth Day of January and the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, by even and equal Portions, and shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be a Charge upon the respective Persons assessed to the Payment of any of the said former Rates and Duties, for the Year ending the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, (except as aforesaid,) and shall be paid by such Persons respectively, at the Times before mentioned; and the respective Collectors, to whom any Assessments for the Year ending the said fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six shall be delivered for the Purpose of collecting the former Rates or Duties, according to the Directions of the several Acts before mentioned, shall have full Power and Authority to demand, collect, and receive the said additional Rate or Duty hereby imposed for the said Half Year, of and from the Persons respectively charged with the said former Rates and Duties in Addition thereto, at the Times and in the Manner hereinbefore mentioned, without any new Assessment to be made for the same, and to give Acquittances in such Manner as is directed by the said Acts, with relation to the said former Rates and Duties.

which Collectors of former Rates may demand without a new Assessment.

Collectors by March 5, 1796, to estimate the additional Duty on Assessments for the Year ending April 5, 1796, and certify the same to the Commissioners, &c.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several and respective Collectors of the said former Rates and Duties, to whom any Assessments thereof for the Year ending the said fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, shall be delivered, shall, on or before the fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, estimate and ascertain, according to the best of their Skill and Judgment, the Amount of the Rate or Duty by this Act imposed upon every such Assessment, and shall, by Writing under their respective Hands, certify the same to one or more of the said Commissioners acting for the respective Divisions or Places in which such Assessments shall be made, together with the Names of the several Persons chargeable therewith, and the Amount of the said former Rates and Duties whereon such additional Rate or Duty is by this Act imposed, and shall also cause two Duplicates thereof to be made out and delivered to the said Commissioners in each Division or Place, all which Certificates and Duplicates thereof respectively shall be signed by such Commissioner or Commissioners; and the said Duplicates shall be forthwith transmitted to such Persons, and in such and the like Manner, as is directed by the said Acts relative to the said former Rates or Duties, or any of them, with respect to the Duplicates of Assessments therein mentioned.

Surveyors to examine Certificates, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the respective Surveyors or Inspectors appointed, or to be appointed, under or by virtue of the said several Acts relative to the said Rates and Duties, or any of them, shall be, and are hereby respectively empowered and required to inspect and examine the Certificates to be made of the said additional Rate or Duty for the said Half Year ending the said fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, before the Commissioner or Commissioners shall have signed the same, and to alter and amend any such Certificate or Certificates if they, or any of them, shall see just Cause for so doing; and every Person in whose Custody such Certificate shall be, is hereby required, upon the Request of any such Surveyor or Inspector as aforesaid, to produce the same for Inspection for the Purpose aforesaid.

After April 5, 1796, the additional Duty to be paid quarterly, and the Assessors to ascertain the Amount and certify the same to the Commissioners.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, the said further additional Rate or Duty hereby imposed shall be paid quarterly in each Year, on the four most usual Days of Payment in the Year for the said Duties; (that is to say,) on the fifth Day of January, the fifth Day of April, the fifth Day of July, and the tenth Day of October, in every Year, by even and equal Portions; the first Payment thereof to be made on the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six; and upon every Assessment to be made after the said fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, under or by virtue of the said Acts, or either of them, the Assessors appointed, or to be appointed, to make such Assessments, and in their Default the respective Surveyors and Inspectors appointed or to be appointed in pursuance of the said several Acts before mentioned, or any of them, shall ascertain the Amount of the said further additional Rate or Duty hereby imposed, and shall certify and return the same upon such Assessments to the respective Commissioners authorized to put the said Acts in Execution, at their respective Meetings to be held for returning such Assessments in all and every the respective Counties, Shires, Stewartries, Ridings, Divisions, Cities, Boroughs, Cinque Ports, Towns, and Places respectively; which said further additional Rate or Duty, so certified, shall be added to the Amount of the former assessed Rates and Duties, and shall be collected, raised, levied and received, under the Rules, Regulations, and Directions prescribed by the said former Acts, subject nevertheless to such proportional Increase or Abatement in the Amount thereof as shall be necessary, in case the said former Rates or Duties so assessed shall be increased or diminished by any Surcharge thereupon, or Appeal therefrom, in pursuance of the said former Acts.

Additional Duties to be ascertained, &c. as former Duties.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Rates or Duties by this Act imposed upon the Amount of the several former Rates and Duties as aforesaid, shall and may be respectively ascertained, managed, collected, paid, recovered, paid over, and accounted for, under such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, and according to such general Rules, Methods, and Directions, by which all the former Rates and Duties on the Amount of which the said additional Rates or Duties are by this Act imposed, or according to such special Rules, Methods, and Directions, by which such of the former Rates and Duties, upon the Amount of which any of the said additional Rates or Duties may be chargeable by virtue of this Act, were or might be ascertained, managed, collected, paid, recovered, paid over, and accounted for, except as far as any of the said Rules, Methods, and Directions, are expressly varied by this Act; and all and every the Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relative to the said former Rates and Duties, or any them now in force, and not hereby otherwise provided for the computing, surcharging, recovering, paying, and accounting for, the said Rates and Duties by any former Acts granted, as far as the same are applicable to the additional Rates or Duties by this Act imposed, and not repugnant to the particular Directions of this Act, shall be in full Force, and be duly observed, practised, and put in Execution, throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, for computing, surcharging, recovering, paying, and accounting for, the several additional Rates and Duties by this Act granted, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same or the like Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act.

Duties to be carried to the Consolidated Fund.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Monies arising by the said Rates and Duties, (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted,) shall, from Time to Time, be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, and shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund.

Duties to be applied for defraying the increased Charge occasioned by any Loan of this Session, and for ten Years, to be kept with other Duties granted for the same Purpose separate from other Monies.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Monies arising or to arise of the Duty hereby granted, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient, shall be deemed an Addition made to the Revenue for the Purpose of defraying the increased Charge occasioned by any Loan to be raised by virtue of any Act or Acts passed or to be passed in this Session of Parliament, and that the said Monies shall, during the Space of ten Years next ensuing, be paid into the said Receipt, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Public Revenue; and that there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt, during the said Period of ten Years, a Book or Books, in which all the Monies arising from the said Duty, and paid into the said Receipt, shall, together with the Monies arising from any other Rates and Duties granted in this Session of Parliament, for the Purpose of defraying such increased Charge as aforesaid, be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, upon any Account whatever.

CAP. XV.

An Act for granting to His Majesty New Duties on certain Horses, not charged with Duty by any other Act or Acts of Parliament, and on Mules.—[24th December 1795.]

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray your Majesty's public Expences, and making such permanent Addition to the Public Revenue, as shall be adequate to the increased Charge occasioned by any Loan to be raised by virtue of any Act for that Purpose to be passed in this Session of Parliament, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto your Majesty the new Duties hereinafter mentioned; and do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for every Horse, Mare, or Gelding, not charged with any Duty by the several Acts passed in the twenty-fourth and twenty-ninth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, or either of them, or by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament, on Horses kept and used for the Purpose of Riding, or for the Purpose of drawing any Carriage, therein respectively mentioned, and for every Mule, a Duty of two Shillings; to be paid by the Owner.

Two Shillings to be paid annually for every Horse not chargeable under 24 Geo. III. Cap. 31. or 29 Geo. III. Cap. 49. or by any Act of this Session, and for every Mule.

II. And be it further enacted, That, for the better assessing, levying, collecting, and paying, the beforementioned Duties by this Act imposed, the Commissioners authorized or appointed, or who shall be hereafter authorized or appointed, for putting in Execution the Acts relative to the present Duties on Houses, and Windows or Lights, and inhabited Houses, or any other Duties placed under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, shall be Commissioners for executing this present Act, with relation to the aforesaid Duties, and the Powers herein contained, in all and singular the Counties, Shires, Stewartries, Ridings, Divisions, Cities, Boroughs, Cinque Ports, Towns, and Places respectively, within the Kingdom of Great Britain; and that the several Surveyors, Inspectors, Assessors, and Collectors respectively, appointed to put in Execution the said several Acts before mentioned, or any of them, shall be Surveyors, Inspectors, Assessors, and Collectors, to put in Execution this present Act, according to the respective Powers and Authorities given to them by the said former Acts, or any of them; and the said Commissioners, and other the Persons aforesaid, being duly qualified to act in the Execution of the said several Acts before mentioned, relative to the said former Rates or Duties, or any of them, shall, and they are hereby respectively empowered and required to do all Things necessary for putting this Act in Execution, with relation to the aforesaid Rates or Duties hereby imposed, in the like and in as full and ample a Manner, as they or any of them are or is authorized to put in Execution the said former Acts, relative to the said Rates and Duties, or any Matters or Things therein respectively contained.

Duties to be under the Management of the Commissioners for Taxes; and the Surveyors, &c. under before-mentioned Acts, to put this in Execution.

III. And be it further enacted, That the aforesaid Duties so to be assessed under this Act shall be paid quarterly, at the Times and in the Manner following; (that is to say,) on the fifth Day of January, the fifth Day of April, the fifth Day of July, and the tenth Day of October, in every Year, by equal Portions; the first of the said Payments to be made on the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six.

Duties to be paid quarterly.

Assessors to give Notice to the Parties to prepare Lists of Horses kept in the Course of the Year ending the preceding 5th of April, Table to the present or former Duties, and of such as are claimed to be exempted.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the several Persons to be appointed Assessors as aforesaid, shall, within fourteen Days after such their Appointment, yearly give or leave Notice in Writing, to or for every Person keeping any Horse, Mare, or Gelding, not charged with any other Duty as aforesaid, or any Mule, within the Limits of the Places for which such Assessors are to act, at his or her Dwelling House or Place of Abode, to prepare and produce, within the Space of fourteen Days next ensuing the Day of giving such Notice, one List, in Writing, which List in Writing, (over and besides the Number of Horses, Carriages, and Servants, liable to the Duties on Horses, Carriages, and Servants, respectively, and of the Persons residing or inhabiting in any such Dwelling House, who shall have worn or used Hair Powder,) shall contain the greatest Number of Horses, Mares, and Geldings, not charged as aforesaid, and also of Mules, of whatever Age, and whether in Use or not, by him or her had or kept in the Course of the Year, ending on such preceding fifth Day of April as aforesaid, distinguishing therein the Number of such Horses, Mares, Geldings, and Mules, liable to the Duty of two Shillings hereby imposed; and the Number of Horses kept and used by him or her, for the Purpose of Riding, or for the Purpose of Drawing, liable to the said former Duties, and upon which additional Duties are by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament imposed, and also such Horses, Mares, and Geldings, as are claimed to be exempted from the said Duty by the particular Provisions of this Act; and every such Person shall, after such Notice so given or left, make out the said List accordingly, and sign the same with his or her own Hand, and deliver the same, or cause the same to be delivered, to such Assessor or Assessors, at any Time after the Expiration of fourteen Days from the said Notice being given, when he or they shall call for the same, or in Default thereof, shall leave the same at the Place mentioned in the said Notice, as the Abode of any of the Assessors, within ten Days after such Assessor or Assessors shall have so called for the same; and if any such Person shall neglect or refuse to make out, sign, and deliver, such List within the Time before mentioned, then such Assessor or Assessors shall, from the best Information he or they can obtain, make an Assessment upon such Person so refusing or neglecting, for or in respect of every Horse, Mare, Gelding, or Mule, kept by him or her as aforesaid; and every such Assessment so made upon any such Neglect or Refusal, shall be final and conclusive upon the Person thereby charged, who shall not be at Liberty to appeal therefrom, unless such Person shall prove that he or she was not at his or her Dwelling House or Place of Abode at the Time of the Delivery of such Notice, nor between that Day and the Time limited for delivering such List as aforesaid to the Assessors, or unless such Person shall allege and prove such other Excuse for not having delivered his or her List as the Commissioners for executing this Act shall in their Judgment think reasonable and sufficient.

Lists to be signed and delivered to the Assessors.

If Lists be not delivered, the Assessors to assess the Defaulters from the best Information obtained, which shall be final, unless Proof be made of Absence, &c.

V. And be it further enacted, That such Assessors as aforesaid shall not be bound by such Lists as shall be delivered to them respectively, in pursuance of this Act, but shall be at Liberty, if they shall find upon due Examination that any Horse, Mare, Gelding, or Mule, liable to the Duties by this Act imposed, is omitted, to surcharge the same, and make a true Assessment upon every Person within their respective Districts of the real Number of such Cattle kept by each such Person.

Assessors not to be bound by Lists delivered, but may surcharge Omissions.

Persons not delivering Lists to Assessors to forfeit 10*l*.

VI. And be it further enacted, That where any Person liable under the Directions hereinbefore contained to deliver such List as aforesaid to the Assessor or Assessors, shall refuse or neglect, within the Time hereinbefore prescribed, to deliver, or cause to be delivered, any such List to such Assessor or Assessors, he or she, so refusing or neglecting, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of ten Pounds, to be recovered by Action or Information in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, for Offences committed in England, and for Offences committed in Scotland, in the Court of Exchequer at Edinburgh, in which Action or Information no Essoin, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance shall be allowed; and one Moiety of every such Penalty or Forfeiture shall belong to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, and the other Moiety thereof, with full Costs of Suit, to the Person or Persons who shall inform or sue for the same.

Application of Forfeiture.

Surcharges for Omissions to be double the Duty, and the Persons making them entitled to a Moiety.

VII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where any Assessor or Surveyor or Inspector shall make a Surcharge upon any Person, for or in respect of any Horse, Mare, Gelding, or Mule, omitted to be inserted in any such List, such Surcharge shall be made after the Rate of double the Duty for every Horse, Mare, Gelding, or Mule, so omitted, and the Assessor, Surveyor, or Inspector, so making such Surcharge, shall be and is hereby entitled to, and shall have and receive for his own Use, one Moiety of the Sum charged by every Surcharge which shall be justly made upon any such List.

Duties to be ascertained, &c. as former Duties.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Rates or Duties by this Act imposed shall and may be ascertained, managed, collected, paid, recovered, paid over, and accounted for, under such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, and according to such general Rules, Methods, and Directions, by which the Rates and Duties on Horses kept and used for the Purpose of Riding, or for the Purpose of Drawing, are or may be ascertained, managed, collected, paid, recovered, paid over, and accounted for, except as far as any of the said Rules, Methods, and Directions, are expressly varied by this Act; and all and every the Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament, relative to the said Rates and Duties on Horses kept and used for the Purposes aforesaid, or any of them now in force, and not hereby otherwise provided for the surcharging, recovering, paying, and accounting for, the said Rates and Duties by any former Acts granted, as far as the same are applicable to the Rates or Duties by this Act imposed, and not repugnant to the particular Directions of this Act, shall be in full Force, and duly observed, practised, and put in Execution throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, for surcharging, recovering, paying, and accounting for, the several Rates and Duties by this Act granted, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to charge with the said Duties, any Horse, Mare, or Gelding, let to Hire for travelling Post by the Mile, or from Stage to Stage, or let to Hire for a Day or less Period of Time, by any Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person licensed for that Purpose by the Commissioners appointed to manage the Duties charged on stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper.

Act not to extend to Horses let for Hire by licensed Persons

X. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any Horse, Mare, or Gelding, under the Height of thirteen Hands, of four Inches to each Hand, nor to any Horse, Mare, or Gelding, which shall not at any Time whatever, preceding the Time of making the Assessment for that Year, have been ridden, or used as a Draught Horse, or for the Purpose of carrying any Burthen, and of which Horses, Mares, or Geldings, an Account shall be given as herein is mentioned, at the Time of the Delivery of Lists of Horses liable to the said Duties; any Thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

nor to Horses under 13 Hands, or not having been ridden, or used for Draught.

XI. And be it further enacted, That every Horse, Mare, or Gelding, notwithstanding any Claim of Exemption from the said Duty by virtue of this Act, shall be enumerated and included in the Lists of the Number of Horses kept by any Person, and required to be made and returned annually, as herein is mentioned, under the Title of Horses exempted from Duty; and that the Owner or Owners thereof shall, upon Demand made, produce, or cause to be produced, such Horse, Mare, or Gelding, to the Assessor or Assessors, Surveyor or Surveyors, Inspector or Inspectors, of the said Duty, or at any Meeting of the Commissioners for putting the several Acts relative to the several Duties on Horses, or any of them, in Execution, to be admeasured or otherwise examined, as the Case may require, respecting all or any of the Particulars before mentioned; and if the said Owner or Owners shall neglect or refuse, on Demand being made, to produce such Horse, Mare, or Gelding, for which such Exemption as aforesaid shall be claimed to the Assessor or Assessors, Surveyor or Surveyors, Inspector or Inspectors, of the said Rate or Duty, or to the said Commissioners as aforesaid, to be admeasured or otherwise examined as the Case may require, or if upon such Admeasurement or Examination, such Horse, Mare, or Gelding, shall not be found to be within the particular Exemption claimed as aforesaid, every such Owner or Owners shall be liable to and shall be surcharged with double the said Rate or Duty by this Act imposed on every Horse, Mare, or Gelding, kept as aforesaid, and shall not be relieved from such Surcharge, or any Part thereof, unless it shall be made appear to the said Commissioners, by Examination on Oath, on Appeal before them, that such Horse, Mare, or Gelding, for which such Exemption is claimed, was duly inserted in the List delivered of Horses kept by such Owner or Owners, according to the Directions of this Act, and that such Owner or Owners ought not to have been rated or assessed for such Horse, Mare, or Gelding, within the Intent and Meaning of this Act.

Horses for whom Exemption is claimed to be included in List, and on Demand to be produced for Examination, and if not produced, or if found not to be exempted, the Owner to be surcharged double the Duty.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Monies arising by the said Rates and Duties (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted) shall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, and shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund.

Duties to be carried to the Consolidated Fund.

XIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Monies arising, or to arise, of the said Duties, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient, shall be deemed an Addition made to the Revenue for the Purpose of defraying the increased Charge occasioned by any Loan to be raised by virtue of any Act or Acts passed, or to be passed, in this Session of Parliament; and that the said Monies shall, during the Space of ten Years next ensuing, be paid into the said Receipt, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Public Revenue; and that there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the said Recipt, during the said Period of ten Years, a Book or Books in which all the Monies arising from the said Duty, and paid into the said Receipt, shall, together with the Monies arising from any other Rates and Duties granted in this Session of Parliament for the Purpose of defraying such increased Charge as aforesaid, be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, upon any Account whatever.

Duties to be applied in defraying any increased Charge occasioned by any Loan of this Session, and for ten Years, with other Duties granted for the same Purpose, kept separate from other Monies.

CAP. XVI.

An Act for granting to His Majesty several additional Duties on Horses kept for the Purpose of Riding, or drawing certain Carriages, therein mentioned.

[24th December 1795.]

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

'WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray your Majesty's Public Expences, and making such permanent Addition to the Public Revenue as shall be adequate to the increased Charge occasioned by any Loan to be raised by virtue of any Act or Acts for that Purpose to be passed in this Session of Parliament, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto your Majesty the additional Duties hereinafter mentioned; and do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the several Duties following; (that is to say), Additional Duties.

That every Person who shall keep and use any Horse, Mare, or Gelding, for the Purpose of riding, or for the Purpose of drawing any Coach, Berlin, Landau, Chariot, Calash, Chaise, or any other Carriage, by whatever Name such Carriage is now or hereafter may be called or known, (for or in respect whereof any Rate or Duty heretofore under the Management of the Commissioners of the Excise, and now transferred to and under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes is payable,) shall be charged with the further additional Annual Duty of ten Shillings for each such Horse, Mare, or Gelding:

That every Person who shall keep two Horses, Mares, or Geldings, and no more, for the Purpose of riding, or for the Purpose of drawing any Coach, Berlin, Landau, Chariot, Calash, Chaise, or any other such Carriage as aforesaid, by whatsoever Name such Carriage now is or hereafter may be called or known, shall be charged with a further additional annual Duty of five Shillings for one of such Horses, Mares, or Geldings:

That every Person who shall keep and use three, four, or five Horses, Mares, or Geldings, and no more, for the Purpose of riding, or for the Purpose of drawing any Coach, Berlin, Landau, Chariot, Calash, Chaise, or any other such Carriage as aforesaid, by whatsoever Name such Carriage now is or hereafter may be called or known, shall be charged with a further additional Duty of seven Shillings and six Pence for each such Horse, Mare, or Gelding, exceeding the Number of one:

That every Person who shall keep and use six or more Horses, Mares, or Geldings, for the Purpose of riding, or for the Purpose of drawing any Coach, Berlin, Landau, Chariot, Calash, Chaise, or any other such Carriage as aforesaid, by whatsoever Name such Carriage now is or hereafter may be called or known, shall be charged with a further additional Annual Duty of ten Shillings for each such Horse, Mare, or Gelding, exceeding the Number of one.

Duties to be under the Management of the Commissioners for Taxes, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That, for the better assessing, levying, collecting, and paying, the beforementioned Duties by this Act imposed, the Commissioners authorized or appointed, or who shall be hereafter authorized or appointed, for putting in Execution the Acts relative to the present Duties on Houses and Windows or Lights, and inhabited Houses, or any other Duties placed under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, shall be Commissioners for executing this present Act with relation to the aforesaid Duties, and the Powers herein contained, in all and singular the Counties, Shires, Stewartries, Ridings, Divisions, Cities, Boroughs, Cinque Ports, Towns, and Places respectively, within the Kingdom of Great Britain; and that the several Surveyors, Inspectors, Assessors, and Collectors, respectively appointed to put in Execution the said several Acts before mentioned, or any of them, shall be Surveyors, Inspectors, Assessors, and Collectors, to put in Execution this present Act according to the respective Powers and Authorities given to them by the said former Acts, or any of them; and the said Commissioners and other the Persons aforesaid, being duly qualified to act in the Execution of the said several Acts before mentioned, relative to the said former Rates or Duties, or any of them, shall, and they are hereby respectively empowered and required to do all Things necessary for putting this Act in Execution, with relation to the aforesaid Rates or Duties hereby imposed, in the like and in as full and ample a Manner, as they or any of them are or is authorized to put in Execution the said former Acts relative to the said Rates and Duties, or any Matters or Things therein respectively contained.

Duties to be ascertained as former Duties on Horses, and the Acts relating to them, to extend to this Act.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Rates or Duties before mentioned, shall and may be respectively ascertained, managed, collected, paid, recovered, paid over, and accounted for, at such Times and under such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, and according to such general Rules, Methods, and Directions, and subject to such Provisoes and Exemptions by which the former Rates and Duties on Horses were or might be ascertained, managed, collected, paid, recovered, paid over, and accounted for; and all and every the Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relative to the said former Rates and Duties on Horses, or any of them, now in Force, for the surcharging, recovering, paying, and accounting for, the said Rates and Duties by any former Acts granted, as far as the same are applicable to the Rates or Duties by this Act imposed, and not repugnant to the particular Directions of this Act, shall be in full Force, and duly observed, practised, and put in Execution, throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, for surcharging, recovering, paying, and accounting for, the several Rates and Duties by this Act granted, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act.

24 Geo. III. Cap. 31. 29 Geo. III. Cap. 49. and this Act, not to extend to charge any Non-commissioned Officers and Privates of Yeoman Cavalry, for keeping one Horse, &c.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in the Acts of the twenty-fourth and twenty-ninth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, for granting to his Majesty certain Duties on Horses, Mares, and Geldings, kept and used for the Purpose of riding, or for the Purpose of drawing any Carriage therein mentioned, or in this Act, or any of them, shall extend, or be construed to extend, to charge with the Duties by the said several Acts, or any of them, imposed, any Non-commissioned Officer or effective Private Man, serving in any Regiment, Corps, or Troop, of Yeomanry Cavalry, raised by virtue of an Act of the thirty-fourth Year of his said Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for encouraging and disciplining such Corps or Companies of Men, as shall voluntarily enroll themselves for the Defence of their Counties, Towns, or Coasts, or for the General Defence of the Kingdom, during the present War, for one Horse, Mare, or Gelding, kept and used by them respectively for the Purposes aforesaid, or either of them; but that every such Non-commissioned Officer and effective Private Man respectively, keeping one such Horse, Mare, or Gelding only, shall be wholly exempt from the said Duties during his Continuance in the said Service; and that every such Non commissioned Officer and Private Man respectively, keeping more than one such Horse, Mare, or Gelding, shall, during his Continuance in such Service, be assessed and charged according to the Rates in the said several Acts and this Act prescribed, for one Horse, Mare, or Gelding, less than the Number of Horses, Mares, or Geldings, by him kept and used as aforesaid; any Thing therein respectively contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That, in order to exempt the Non-commissioned Officers and Private Men, serving in such Regiments, Corps, or Troops, every Commanding Officer of any such Regiment, Corps, or Troop, shall annually, before the twentieth Day of April in each Year, during the Continuance of the said Act of the thirty-fourth Year aforesaid, make out his Certificate of all Non-commissioned Officers and effective Private Men, containing their respective Names and Places of Abode, who shall, for the Space of six Weeks immediately preceding the Date of such Certificate, have punctually attended at all such Places as shall have been agreed upon for the Exercise of such Regiment, Corps, or Troop; and that such Certificate, signed by such Commanding Officer, shall be delivered to the Surveyor of the said Duties acting for the District where such Regiment, Corps, or Troop shall serve, with an Affidavit annexed thereto, verifying the Signature of the said Commanding Officer; and provided also, that every such Non-commissioned Officer and Private Man, claiming to be exempted as aforesaid, shall be inserted and described in the said Certificate of such Commanding Officer, as an effective Man in actual Service as aforesaid.

Commanding Officers of Non-commissioned Officers and Private Men to make out a Certificate annually before April 20, of what Non-commissioned Officers and Private, have attended Exercise the preceding six Weeks, to be delivered to the Surveyor for the District.

VI. And be it further enacted, That no Person occupying a Farm, the Rent of which shall be less than seventy Pounds a Year, and making a Livelihood solely thereby, shall be chargeable with any of the Duties by this Act imposed for or on Account of any Horse, Mare, or Gelding, being occasionally used in riding, and that no Person occupying his own Estate solely, or his own Estate together with a Farm, the Value of which, in the Whole, shall be less than equivalent to a Farm of the Rent of seventy Pounds a Year, (reckoning the Value of every such Estate occupied by the Owner thereof as equivalent to double the like Amount of the Rent of any rented Farm,) and making a Livelihood solely by such Estate, or by such Estate and Farm jointly, shall be chargeable with any of the Duties imposed, either by this Act, or by the said several Acts of the twenty-fourth and twenty-ninth of his present Majesty, for or on Account of any Horse, Mare, or Gelding, being occasionally used in riding, provided in every such Case respectively, that such Horse, Mare, or Gelding, be bona fide kept and usually employed for the Purposes of Husbandry; any Thing in the said recited Acts, or in this Act, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Persons renting Farms under 70*l.* per Ann. or occupying their own Estates solely or with Farms, together under 70*l.* per Ann. not liable to Duty for Horses occasionally used for riding.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Monies arising by the said Rates and Duties before mentioned, (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted,) shall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, and shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund.

Duties to be carried to the Consolidated Fund.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Monies arising, or to arise, of the several Duties before mentioned, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient, shall be deemed an Addition made to the Revenue, for the Purpose of defraying the increased Charge occasioned by any Loan, by virtue of any Act or Acts passed, or to be passed, in this Session of Parliament, and that the said Monies shall, during the Space of ten Years next ensuing, be paid into the said Receipt, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Public Revenue; and that there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt, during the said Period of ten Years, a Book or Books in which all the Monies arising from the said Duties, and paid into the said Receipt, shall, together with the Monies arising from any other Rates and Duties granted in this Session of Parliament for the Purpose of defraying such increased Charge as aforesaid, be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, upon any Account whatever.

Duties to be applied in defraying the increased Charge occasioned by any Loan of this Session, and, for ten Years, with other Duties granted for the same Purpose, to be kept separate from all other Monies.

CAP. XVII.

An Act for repealing the Duties on Licences to Persons using or exercising the Business of an Horse Dealer, and granting new Duties in lieu thereof.—[24th December 1795.]

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

'WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal the Duties imposed, by an Act of the tweny-fourth Year of 'the Reign of his present Majesty, on Persons using and exercising the Trade and Business of an 'Horse Dealer, and who shall take out a Licence to use and exercise the Trade and Business of an Horse 'Dealer, and to grant new Duties in lieu thereof; we, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the 'Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, as well for the Purpose aforesaid as towards raising the 'necessary Supplies to defray your Majesty's Public Expences, and making such permanent Addition to the 'Public Revenue as shall be adequate to the increased Charge occasioned by any Loan to be raised by virtue 'of any Act or Acts for that Purpose, in this Session of Parliament, have freely and voluntarily resolved to 'give and grant unto your Majesty the Duties hereinafter mentioned; and do most humbly beseech your 'Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several Duties on Persons using and exercising the Trade and Business of an Horse Dealer, and who shall take out a Licence to use and exercise the Trade and Business of an Horse Dealer, imposed by an Act of the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, cease and determine, save and except in all Cases relating to the recovering of any Arrears, which may remain unpaid, of the said Duties on Licences hereby repealed, and to the accounting for the same; and save and except all Licences granted and in force at and immediately before the passing of this Act; and that, from and after the passing of this Act, all the Powers and Authorities given and granted, and the Rules and Regulations established and prescribed by the said Act, in relation to the managing, securing, ascertaining, collecting, recovering, levying, and paying, the said Duties on Licences, and all Penalties and Forfeitures in respect thereof, shall cease and determine, save and except any Penalty or Forfeiture which shall have been incurred upon, or at any Time before, the passing of this Act.

Present Duties on Licences to Horse Dealers to cease.

Horse Dealers in London, &c. to pay an annual Licence Duty of 10 l.; and without London, &c. 10 l.

II. And be it further enacted, That every Person using and exercising the Trade or Business of an Horse Dealer within the City of London, or the City or Liberties of Westminster, the Weekly Bills of Mortality, the Parishes of Saint Mary-le-bone or Saint Pancras in the County of Middlesex, or the Borough of Southwark in the County of Surrey, and who shall take out a Licence to use and exercise the said Trade and Business of an Horse Dealer, shall yield and pay annually, to and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the Sum of twenty Pounds; and that every Person using and exercising the said Trade or Business of an Horse Dealer without the City of London, the City and Liberties of Westminster, the Weekly Bills of Mortality, the Parishes of Saint Mary-le-bone and Saint Pancras in the County of Middlesex, and the Borough of Southwark in the County of Surrey, and who shall take out a Licence to use and exercise the said Trade and Business of an Horse Dealer, shall yield and pay annually to and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the Sum of ten Pounds.

Duties to be under the Management of the Commissioners for Stamps.

III. And, for the better and more effectually raising, levying, collecting, and paying, the said Duties hereby granted on Licences, be it enacted, That the same shall be under the Government, Care, and Management, of the Commissioners for the Time being appointed to manage the Duties charged on stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, who, or the major Part of them, are hereby required and empowered to employ such Officers under them for that Purpose, and to allow such Salaries and incidental Charges as shall be necessary, and to provide and use such Marks or Stamps as they shall think fit, to denote the Duties, and to repair, renew, and alter the same, from Time to Time, as they shall see Occasion, and to do all other Matters and Things necessary to be done for putting this Act in Execution, with relation to the said Duties hereby granted, in the like and in as full and ample a Manner as they, or the major Part of them, are authorised to put in Execution any of the Laws now in being concerning stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper.

Two Commissioners may grant Licences, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, any two or more of his Majesty's Commissioners appointed to manage the Duties charged on stamped Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, or some Person duly authorised by them, or any three or more of them, shall grant Licences to such Persons who shall use and exercise the Trade and Business of an Horse Dealer, in any City, Town, or other Place, within Great Britain, to use and exercise the same within such City, Town, or Place, for any Space of Time as hereinafter mentioned, not exceeding one Year; and every such Licence shall cease and determine on the twenty-ninth Day of September in the Year for which the same shall be issued; and every such Licence taken out for the Year in which the same shall be issued, shall be in Force until and upon the twenty-ninth Day of September then next following, and shall commence from the Date thereof; and every such Licence taken out for any Year subsequent to the Year in which the same shall be issued, shall commence from the twenty-ninth Day of September then next ensuing, and continue in Force until and upon the twenty-ninth Day of September in the succeeding Year; and that every such Person shall take out a fresh Licence for another Year, ten Days at least before the Expiration of that Year for which he shall have been licensed, if he shall continue to use and exercise the said Trade and Business of an Horse Dealer; and shall in like Manner renew such Licence from Year to Year, paying down the respective Sums due on such Licence, as long as he shall continue to use and exercise the said Trade and Business of an Horse Dealer.

Period of Licences.

One Licence sufficient for Partners.

Licence to be confined to the Place mentioned therein.

V. And be it further enacted, That Persons carrying on their Trade and Business of an Horse Dealer in Partnership, shall not be obliged to take out more than one Licence, in any one Year, for carrying on such Trade or Business; and that no one Licence, which shall be granted by virtue of this Act, shall authorize or empower any Person or Persons to whom the same shall be granted, to keep any Horse or Horses for Sale in any other City, Town, or Place, than the City, Town, or Place, which shall be mentioned in such Licence.

The Words Licensed, &c. to be put on Places licensed for Sale of Horses, on Penalty of 10 l.

VI. And be it further enacted, That every Person exercising the Trade and Business of an Horse Dealer, and who shall have taken out a Licence for that Purpose, shall cause the Words Licensed to deal in Horses, to be painted or written in large and legible Characters, either on a Sign hung out, or on some visible Place in the Front of his or their House, Gateway, or Stables, at the respective Places at which he or they keep such Horses for Sale, to denote that such Person is a Dealer in Horses, and licensed for that Purpose; and if any Person, so licensed as aforesaid, shall presume to sell any Horse, without fixing or hanging out such Token as aforesaid, every licensed Horse Dealer so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds, to be recovered by Action of Debt or Information, in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster for Offences committed in England, and for Offences committed in Scotland, in the Court of Exchequer at Edinburgh; to be paid, one Moiety to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, and the other Moiety to the Person or Persons who shall inform or sue for the same.

Persons dealing in Horses after Jan. 1, 1796, not having a Licence now in force, without a Licence agreeable to this Act, liable to the

VII. And be it further enacted, That every Person using or exercising the Trade or Business of an Horse Dealer, (not having a Licence to use or exercise the said Trade and Business under the Act of the twenty-fourth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, and in force), who shall, after the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, carry on the said Trade and Business of an Horse Dealer, without having obtained a Licence for that Purpose under the Directions of this Act, shall be liable to be assessed to all and every the Duties imposed by the Acts of the twenty-fourth and twenty-ninth Years of his present Majesty's Reign, and by any Act or Acts to be passed in this Session of Parliament, on Horses used for the Purpose of riding, or for the Purpose of drawing any Carriage, in the said Acts or any of them mentioned, for for the greatest Number of Horses, Mares, and Geldings, kept by such Dealer in Horses at any one Time within the Year, for which a List is directed by the said several Acts, or this Act, to be delivered, in such Manner and under such Rules and Regulations as the said last-mentioned Duties are therein, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament, directed to be assessed; and that all Penalties and Forfeitures for not delivering Lists of such Horses, and all Powers of correcting and amending such Lists, and of surcharging the same, shall extend and be applied to all such Dealers in Horses, not being licensed as aforesaid, as amply and fully as to any other Person or Persons whatever.

Duties on Riding or Carriage Horses.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all the several Powers, Rules, Directions, and Provisions, contained in the Act of the twenty-ninth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, in relation to Licences granted to Persons using and exercising the Trade and Business of an Horse Dealer, shall continue and be in full Force in relation to Licences to be granted to Persons using and exercising the said Trade and Business under or by virtue of this Act, as fully and effectually as if the same had been particularly repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

Powers of 29 Geo. III. Cap. 49. in relation to Licences to deal in Horses, to extend to this Act.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies arising from the said Duties herein-before granted on Licences, and all Arrears of the Rates and Duties hereby repealed, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be paid from Time to Time into the Hands of the Receiver General for the Time being of the Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, who shall pay the same (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same being deducted) into his Majesty's Receipt of Exchequer at Westminster, at such Time and in such Manner as the other Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, are directed to be paid, and the same shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund; and that, from and after the passing of this Act, out of the Monies that shall be paid into the said Receipt of the said Duties on Licences hereby imposed, and Arrears of Duties hereby repealed, one Moiety of the Duties hereby repealed shall quarterly, on the fifth Day of January, the fifth Day of April, the fifth Day of July, and the tenth Day of October, in every Year, during the Period of ten Years, be set apart from the other Moiety of the said Monies; and that, after setting apart at the End of each such Quarter, one Moiety of the said Monies arising or to arise of the said Duties by this Act imposed, the other Moiety, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient, shall be deemed an Addition made to the Revenue for the Purpose of defraying the increased Charge occasioned by any Loan made by virtue of any Act or Acts to be passed in this Session of Parliament; and that the said last-mentioned Moiety of the said Monies shall, during the Space of ten Years next ensuing, be paid into the said Receipt distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Public Revenue; and that there shall be provided and kept, at the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt, during the said Period of ten Years, a Book or Books, in which the said last-mentioned Moiety of the Monies arising from the said Duties, and paid into the said Receipt, shall, together with the Monies arising from any other Rates or Duties granted in this Session of Parliament for the Purpose of defraying such increased Charge as aforesaid, be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, on any Account whatever.

Duties to be paid to the Receiver General of Stamps, and by him into the Exchequer.

Moiety of Duties to be set apart for 10 Years, and the other Moiety to be applied in defraying any increased Charge occasioned by any Loan of this Session, &c.

X. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought against any Person or Persons for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, such Action or Suit shall be commenced within six Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and shall be laid in the County or Place where the Cause of Complaint did arise, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants, in every such Action or Suit, may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon; and if the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants in any such Action or Suit, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be nonsuited, or discontinue his or their Action or Suit after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if, upon Demurrer, Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendant hath in other Cases to recover Costs by Law.

Limitation of Actions.

General Issue.

Treble Costs.

CAP. XVIII.

An Act for the Reduction of the Drawbacks and Bounties now allowed on the Exportation of Sugar.—[24th December 1795.]

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

'WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being desirous of making Provision for raising the necessary Supplies to defray your Majesty's Public Expences, and making such Addition to the Public Revenue as shall be adequate to the increased Charge occasioned by any Loan to be raised by virtue of any Act or Acts for that Purpose to be passed in this Session of Parliament; and being of Opinion that it is expedient, under the present Circumstances, that the Drawbacks and Bounties, now payable by Law on the Exportation of Sugar, should be reduced; do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, of the Drawbacks now allowed by Law on the Exportation from Great Britain of any Sugar, in the same State in which it was imported from Foreign Parts, four Shillings for each and every Hundred Weight of such Sugar shall cease, determine, and be no longer paid or payable to the Exporter or Exporters thereof: That, from and after the thirty-first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, of the Drawbacks or Bounties now allowed by Law

Part of present Drawbacks on Exportation of Sugar to cease from certain Periods.

Law on the Exportation from Great Britain of any Refined Sugar called Bastards, or any Ground or Powdered Sugar, or Refined Loaf Sugar broken in Pieces, or Sugar called Candy, four Shillings for each and every Hundred Weight of such Sugar shall cease, determine, and be no longer paid or payable to the Exporter or Exporters thereof: And that, from and after the said thirty-first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, of the Drawbacks or Bounties, now allowed by Law on the Exportation from Great Britain of any other Refined Sugar, seven Shillings for each and every Hundred Weight of such Sugar shall cease, determine, and be no longer paid or payable to the Exporter or Exporters thereof: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to reduce the Drawback now allowed by Law on Sugar exported to Ireland, in the same State in which it was imported into Great Britain from Foreign Parts.

Act not to extend to Sugar exported to Ireland in the State it was imported into Great Britain.

Out of the Duties on Sugar a Sum to be set apart quarterly for 10 Years, and the Remainder, with other Duties granted for paying any increased Charge occasioned by any Loan of this Session, kept separate from other Monies.

II. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, out of the Monies arising from the Rates and Duties upon Sugar imported into Great Britain, the Sum of two hundred and eighty thousand and twenty-nine Pounds eighteen Shillings and eight Pence Halfpenny, being one fourth Part of the Sum of one million one hundred and twenty thousand one hundred and nineteen Pounds fourteen Shillings and ten Pence, the Annual Average Produce for three Years, ending the fifth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, of the said Rates and Duties upon Sugar, shall quarterly, on the fifth Day of January, the fifth Day of April, the fifth Day of July, and the tenth Day of October, in every Year, during the Period of ten Years, be set apart from the Remainder of the Monies arising from the said Rates and Duties; and that the said Remainder of the said Rates and Duties shall, during the said Period of ten Years, be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Public Revenue; and that the said Remainder of the said Rates and Duties so paid into the said Receipt, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient, shall be deemed an Addition made to the Revenue, for the Purpose of defraying the increased Charge occasioned by the Loan to be made by virtue of any Act or Acts to be passed in this Session of Parliament; and that there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt, during the said Period of ten Years, a Book or Books, in which the said Remainder of the Monies arising from the said Rates and Duties shall, together with the Monies arising from any other Rates or Duties granted in this Session of Parliament, for the Purpose of defraying such increased Charge as aforesaid, be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, upon any Account whatever.

When Reduction of Drawback shall take place.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Reduction of Drawbacks and Bounties, directed by this Act to be made upon the Exportation from Great Britain of any Sugar of the several Descriptions herein mentioned, shall apply, take Effect, and be put in Execution, on all such Sugar which shall be shipped or laden on board any Ship in Great Britain at any Time after the twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, and the thirty-first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, respectively.

CAP. XIX.

An Act for determining the present Allowances for Waste on Salt carried Coastwise, and for reducing the respective Times of Payment of the Duties on Salt.

[24th December 1795.]

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

'WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament 'assembled, being desirous of raising the necessary Supplies to defray your Majesty's Public Ex'pences, and of making such permanent Addition to the Public Revenue as shall be adequate to the increased 'Charge occasioned by any Loan to be raised by virtue of any Act or Acts for that Purpose to be passed in 'this Session of Parliament, have freely and voluntarily resolved, that certain Allowances now made for 'Waste on White and Rock Salt carried Coastwise, from one Port of England or Wales, or the Port of 'Berwick upon Tweed, to any Port of England or Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, shall cease and determine; 'and also that the respective Times now allowed by Law for the Payment of the Duties on Salt be reduced, 'whereby a considerable Saving will be made in your Majesty's Revenue on Salt; do most humbly beseech 'your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the fifth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, the Allowances now made, or directed to be made, by Law for Waste, to Persons who shall ship any White Salt or Rock Salt to be carried Coastwise as aforesaid, shall cease and determine; and that then and from thenceforth all the Powers, Rules, and Directions, for making, ascertaining, and paying, such Allowances contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament, shall also cease and determine.

From Jan. 5, 1796, the Allowances for Waste of White or Rock Salt carried Coastwise to cease.

Duties on White and Rock Salt, and on Foreign Salt imported, to be paid as herein specified.

II. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where by the former Laws relating to the Duties on Salt, the Time for Payment of the Duties on White Salt is appointed to be nine Months, there shall be allowed three Months and no more; and where the Time for the Payment of the Duties on Rock Salt is appointed to be twelve Months, there shall be allowed four Months and no more; and where the Time for Payment of the Duties on Foreign Salt imported, is appointed to be six Months, there shall be allowed two Months and and no more; and that the Securities and Discount for Prompt Payment, after the said fifth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, shall be regulated accordingly.

Out of the Salt Duties a Sum to be set apart quarterly for 10 Years, and, with other Duties granted for paying any increased Charge occasioned by any Loan of this Session, kept separate from other Monies.

III. And be it further enacted, That out of the Monies arising by the Duties on Salt, after the fifth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, the Sum of eight thousand Pounds, being one fourth Part of the Sum of thirty-two thousand Pounds, the annual Average Produce upon an Account taken for three Years, ending the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four, of the Monies paid on Account of Allowances for Waste, and of the Difference between the Discount heretofore allowed, by reason of the Length of Time given for Payment thereof, and that which is provided by this Act, shall quarterly, on the fifth Day of January, the fifth Day of April, the fifth Day of July, and the tenth Day of October, in every Year, during the Period of ten Years next ensuing, be set apart from the Remainder of the said Monies, and paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Public Revenue; and that there shall be provided and kept at the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, during the said Period of ten Years, a Book or Books, in which the said Quarterly Sums directed to be set apart from the said Duties, and paid into the said Receipt, shall, together with the Monies arising from any other Duties granted in this Session of Parliament for the Purpose of defraying such increased Charge as aforesaid, be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, on any Account whatever.

CAP. XX.

An Act to continue, for a further limited Time, an Act, made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to prohibit, for a limited Time, the making of Low Wines or Spirits from Wheat, Barley, Malt, or any other Sort of Grain, or from any Meal, Flour, or Bran; and for permitting Home-made Spirits, deposited in the Warehouses for Exportation, to be taken out for Home Consumption, on Payment of Duty; and to prohibit the Distillation of Low Wines or Spirits from Melasses of the Manufacture of this Kingdom, or from Sugar or Potatoes.—[24th December 1795.]

'WHEREAS the Act hereinafter mentioned has by Experience been found useful and beneficial, and is near expiring: And whereas it is expedient to prevent the Distillation of Spirits from 'Melasses of the Manufacture of this Kingdom, or from Sugar, and also from Potatoes: May it therefore 'please your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That an Act, made in the thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to prohibit, for a limited Time, the making of Low Wines or Spirits from Wheat, Barley, Malt, or any other Sort of Grain, or from any Meal, Flour, or Bran; and for permitting Home-made Spirits, deposited in the Warehouses for Exportation, to be taken out for Home Consumption, on Payment of Duty, shall be, and the same is hereby further continued until the first Day of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven.

35 Geo. III. Cap. 119. continued till Feb. 1, 1797.

The Provisions of before-mentioned Act to extend to distilling from Melasses of this Kingdom, Sugar, or Potatoes.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the eighteenth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninty-five in that Part of Great Britain called England, and from and after the twenty-second Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, all and singular the Fines, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, contained, provided, settled, or established, in or by the said Act made in the last Session of Parliament, to prohibit the Distillation of Low Wines or Spirits from Wheat, Barley, Malt, Corn, Grain, Meal, Flour, Bran, or any Mixture therewith respectively, shall extend, and shall be deemed and construed to extend, to the brewing, making, preparing, extracting, or distilling, of Low Wines and Spirits respectively, from Melasses of the Manufacture of this Kingdom, or from Sugar or Potatoes, or any Mixture with the same respectively, and to all and every Person and Persons who shall brew, make, prepare, extract, or distil, Low Wines or Spirits respectively from Melasses of the Manufacture of this Kingdom, or from Sugar, or from Potatoes, or any Mixture with the same respectively; and that the said Fines, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, shall be used, applied, practised, and put in Execution, against the making, preparing, extracting, and distilling, of Low Wines and Spirits respectively, from Melasses of the Manufacture of this Kingdom, or from Sugar, or from Potatoes, or any Mixture with the same respectively, and to all and every Person and Persons who shall brew, make, prepare, extract, or distil, Low Wines or Spirits from Melasses of the Manufacture of this Kingdom, or from Sugar or Potatoes, or any Mixture with the same respectively, as fully and amply as if the same had been expresly provided in and by the said Act.

Not to extend to distilling from Wash brewed from Melasses, &c.

III. Provided always nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be deemed or construed to extend, to subject any entered Distiller to the Penalty of five hundred Pounds, for or by reason of his extracting or distilling any Low Wines or Spirits from any Wash openly brewed in his entered Distillery from Melasses of the Manufacture of this Kingdom, or from Sugar, or from Potatoes, on or before the fourteenth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, in that Part of Great Britain called England, or on or before the twenty-second Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; any Thing in the said recited Act or in this Act contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Diſtillers, during the Continuance of this Act, having in their Poſſeſſion (except in Places for Diſtillation) more than a certain Quantity of Melaſſes or Potatoes, liable to Penalty.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Diſtiller or Maker of Low Wines or Spirits, for Sale or Exportation, ſhall, after the eighteenth Day of December one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-five, until and upon the firſt Day of February one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, in that Part of Great Britain called England, and from and after the twenty-ſecond Day of December one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-five, until and upon the firſt Day of February one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, be poſſeſſed of, or have in his, her, or their Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion, or in the Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion of any Perſon or Perſons in Truſt or for the Uſe or Benefit of ſuch Diſtiller or Maker of Low Wines or Spirits, more than ten Pounds Weight of ſuch Melaſſes, or more than twenty Buſhels of Potatoes, at any one Time, in any one or more Place or Places, (not being a Place or Places for preparing, brewing, making, extracting, diſtilling, or keeping Wort or Waſh, Low Wines or Spirits,) every ſuch Diſtiller or Diſtillers, or Maker or Makers of Low Wines or Spirits, ſhall for every ſuch Offence reſpectively forfeit all ſuch Melaſſes and Potatoes reſpectively, and alſo the Sum of one hundred Pounds for ſuch Melaſſes, and the Sum of ten Pounds for every Buſhel of Potatoes.

Not to extend to Potatoes kept for the Conſumption of the Family, or of the Growth of the Diſtiller, if due Notice be given to the Exciſe Officer.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing hereinbefore contained ſhall extend to prohibit any Diſtiller or Maker of Low Wines or Spirits from having or keeping in his or her Poſſeſſion, any Quantity of Potatoes for the neceſſary Conſumption of his or her Family, or being of the Growth of ſuch Diſtiller or Maker reſpectively, provided that Notice ſhall be given to the Officer of Exciſe under whoſe Survey ſuch Diſtiller or Maker ſhall then be, of the Place or Places of growing ſuch Potatoes of the Growth of ſuch Diſtiller or Maker reſpectively, on or before the thirtieth Day of December one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-five in that Part of Great Britain called England, and the fifth Day of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

On Oath of Ground of Suſpicion that more than the allowed Quantity of Melaſſes or Potatoes is kept in any Storehouſe, &c. Officers of Exciſe and others may be authorized to ſearch, and may ſeize the Surplus, and the Perſon in whoſe Cuſtody found liable to Penalty.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any Officer or Officers of Exciſe, or any other Perſon or Perſons, ſhall at any Time or Times have Cauſe to ſuſpect that any ſuch Melaſſes exceeding the ſaid Quantity of ten Pounds Weight, or any Potatoes exceeding the ſaid Quantity of twenty Buſhels, ſhall be laid or kept in any Storehouſe, Warehouſe, or other Place or Places, belonging to any Diſtiller or Maker of Low Wines or Spirits, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, then and in every ſuch Caſe, upon Oath made by ſuch Officer or Officers, or any other Perſon or Perſons, before the Commiſſioners of Exciſe for the Time being reſpectively, or any two or more of them, or before one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, reſiding near the Place where ſuch Officer or Officers, or other Perſon or Perſons, ſhall ſuſpect the ſame to be laid and kept, ſetting forth the Ground of his or their Suſpicion, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace reſpectively, before whom ſuch Officer or Officers, or other Perſon or Perſons, ſhall make Oath as aforeſaid, if he or they ſhall judge it reaſonable, by Special Warrant, under his or their reſpective Hands and Seals, to authorize and empower ſuch Officer or Officers, or other Perſon or Perſons, by Day or by Night, but if in the Night, then in the Preſence of a Conſtable, or other lawful Officer of the Peace, to enter into all and every Storehouſe, Warehouſe, or other Place or Places where he or they ſhall ſo ſuſpect that any ſuch Melaſſes exceeding the ſaid Quantity of ten Pounds Weight, or any Potatoes exceeding the ſaid Quantity of twenty Buſhels as aforeſaid, ſhall be laid or kept, belonging to any ſuch Diſtiller or Diſtillers, or Maker or Makers of Low Wines or Spirits, and to ſeize, take, and carry away, all ſuch Melaſſes exceeding the ſaid Quantity of ten Pounds Weight, and ſuch Potatoes exceeding the ſaid Quantity of twenty Buſhels, as he or they ſhall ſo find, together with all the Veſſels, Sacks, Bags, or other Things wherein the ſame ſhall be contained; and ſuch Diſtiller or Diſtillers, or Maker or Makers of Low Wines or Spirits, or other Perſon or Perſons in whoſe Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion ſuch Melaſſes exceeding the ſaid Quantity of ten Pounds Weight, or ſuch Potatoes exceeding the ſaid Quantity of twenty Buſhels, as aforeſaid, belonging to ſuch Diſtiller or Diſtillers, or Maker or Makers ſhall be found, ſhall for every ſuch Offence reſpectively forfeit and pay the ſaid Penalty of one hundred Pounds for ſuch Melaſſes exceeding the ſaid Quantity of ten Pounds Weight, and the Sum of ten Pounds for every Buſhel of ſuch Potatoes exceeding the ſaid Quantity of twenty Buſhels; and the ſaid Officer or Officers, and other Perſon or Perſons, is and are hereby empowered by ſuch Warrant, together with ſuch other Perſon or Perſons as he or they ſhall take to his or their Aſſiſtance, to enter into ſuch Storehouſes, Warehouſes, and other Place or Places, and break open the Doors thereof, in caſe they be not forthwith opened on Demand.

Doors may be broke open.

Proof of Melaſſes being of this Kingdom, to lie on the Claimer.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Queſtion ſhall ariſe, whether any Melaſſes is really and bona fide Melaſſes of the Manufacture of this Kingdom, (although ſuch Melaſſes ſhould appear to have been entered or kept in the Officers Books, as being of ſuch Sort,) the Proof of the Fact of ſuch Melaſſes being really and bona fide not Melaſſes of the Manufacture of this Kingdom, ſhall lie upon the Owner or Claimer of ſuch Melaſſes, or on the Diſtiller or Maker of Low Wines or Spirits ſued or proſecuted in reſpect thereof; ſuch Proof to be by the Oaths of two or more credible Witneſſes, being ſkilful and experienced Perſons, competent to decide by Examination thereof, and having a certain Knowledge of the Fact.

Contracts for Delivery of Melaſſes, Sugar, or Potatoes, during the Continuance of this Act, void.

VIII. 'And whereas there may have been Contracts made by or with Diſtillers for Britiſh-made Spirits 'from Melaſſes, for Melaſſes or Sugar or Potatoes to be delivered and received at future Times after the 'eighteenth Day of December one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-five;' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all ſuch Contracts or Bargains ſo made by or with any ſuch Diſtiller or Diſtillers, for any ſuch Spirits, Melaſſes, or Sugar or Potatoes, to be delivered at any Time during the Continuance of this Act, ſhall be, and the ſame are hereby declared to be null and void.

Commiſſioners of Exciſe in

IX. 'And whereas by divers Laws now in force, certain annual Duties are impoſed upon Stills uſed for 'diſtilling Spirits from Melaſſes or Sugar, in Proportion to the Contents of ſuch Stills: And whereas it is 'reasonable that an Allowance should be made for such Part of the usual Season for distilling during which 'they may be prevented from working in consequence of this Act;' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland, or any four of them, to make such Allowances to the Persons taking out such Licences respectively, as shall appear to the said Commissioners, with the Approbation of the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or any three of them, to be reasonable.

Scotland to make an Allowance of the Duties on Stills, for the Time they are prevented working.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, imposed by this Act, shall be sued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated, by such Ways, Means, or Methods, as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture may be sued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated, by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, respectively; and that one Moiety of every such Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, shall be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them who shall inform, discover, or sue for the same.

Recovery and Application of Penalties.

XI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That any Part of this Act may be altered, varied, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

Act may be altered or repealed this Session.

A Bounty of ten Shillings per Quarter for every Quarter of Rye, weighing not less than four hundred Pounds Weight Avoirdupoise, which shall be imported into Great Britain before the thirtieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, until the Quantity of such Rye shall amount unto one hundred thousand Quarters; and a Bounty of six Shillings for every Quarter of Rye weighing not less than four hundred Pounds Weight Avoirdupoise, which shall be imported into Great Britain before the thirtieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, exceeding the Quantity to which the before-mentioned Bounty is limited.

and exceeding that Quantity.

Bounties to be under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Bounties shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England and Scotland respectively, and shall be paid out of any Monies in their Hands, arising by any of the Duties or Revenues under their Management respectively, to the respective Importers or Consignees of such Wheat, Wheat Flour, Indian Corn, Indian Meal, and Rye, respectively: Provided always, that a due Entry shall be made with the proper Officers of the Customs, at the Port into which such Articles shall be imported; and that the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs of the Port where such Wheat, Wheat Flour, Indian Corn, Indian Meal, and Rye, shall be imported, do receive full and satisfactory Proof that the said Corn, Flour, Meal and Rye, for which the Bounty herein allowed is claimed, is wholly and entirely without Mixture of any other the Growth of any other Country than that in respect whereof the said Bounty is claimed, and that in Default thereof, the said Bounties shall not, nor shall any of them, be allowed or paid.

Entry to be made with the Officer of the Customs at the Port of Importation, &c.

Importation to entitle to Bounties must be at certain Ports.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That none of the Bounties granted by this Act shall be paid, allowed, or received, unless the several Articles in the Act enumerated and described, shall be imported or brought respectively into some one or other of his Majesty's Ports; that is to say, the Ports of London, Aberystwyth, Beaumaris, Berwick, Boston, Bristol, Carlisle, Chester, Chichester, Colchester, Cowes, Dartmouth, Dover, Exeter, Falmouth, Harwich, Hull, Ipswich, Lancaster, Liverpool, Lyme, Lynn, Malden, Milford, Newcastle, Penzance, Plymouth, Poole, Portsmouth, Preston, Rochester, Sandwich, Southampton, Stockton, Sunderland, Swansea, Wells, Whitehaven, Whitby, Wisbeach, Yarmouth, Aberdeen, Air, Alloa, Campbeltown, Dumfries, Dunbar, Dundee, Glasgow, including Port Glasgow, Greenock, Kirkcaldy, Kirkcudbright, Leith, Lerwick, Montrose, and Wigton.

Articles imported to be inspected by the Officers and two skilful Persons, who are to certify whether they are of due Weight and merchantable.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, before any of the said Articles, imported or brought into this Kingdom for Bounty under the Regulations of this Act, shall be delivered out of the Charge of the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs of the Port where the same shall be respectively so imported or brought, such Articles respectively shall be carefully and attentively inspected and examined by such Officer or Officers of the Customs, as the Commissioners of the Customs in England and Scotland respectively shall think fit to direct for that Duty, and two indifferent and disinterested Persons, experienced in the Nature of the Article to be so inspected and examined; which two indifferent and disinterested Persons shall be chosen by the Principal Officers of the Customs at such Port, or any two of them, whereof the Collector for the Time being shall be one; which said Officer or Officers of the Customs so directed by the said Commissioners of the Customs respectively, and the said two indifferent and disinterested Persons so chosen as aforesaid to inspect and examine the said Articles respectively, shall, upon having viewed the same, certify and declare, upon their Corporal Oaths, first administered by the said Principal Officers, or any two of them, whereof the Collector shall be one, (who are hereby authorized and required to administer the same,) whether the said Articles respectively are or are not of the Weight required by this Act, and are or are not merchantable and fit for making Bread; and if the same shall appear by such Certificate to be of the Weight so required, and to be merchantable and fit for making Bread, the Bounties respectively granted by this Act shall be paid and allowed thereon; but if the same shall appear by such Certificate not to be of the Weight required by this Act, or not to be merchantable or fit for making Bread, no Bounty, granted by this Act, shall be paid or allowed thereupon.

Recompence to the Inspectors.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said indifferent and disinterested Persons, so chosen by the said Principal Officers to inspect and examine the said Goods, shall from Time to Time be paid by an Order of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, or any four or more of them, in England, or the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in Scotland, or any three or more of them, out of any Monies in their Hands arising by any of the Duties or Revenues under their Management respectively, the following Sums by Way of Recompence or Reward for their Trouble on such Inspection, Examination, and Certification; that is to say, the Sum of one Penny per Quarter for all Wheat, Indian Corn, or Rye, inspected and examined and certified by them as aforesaid, and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity; and the the Sum of one Penny per Barrel of all Wheat Flour, or Indian Meal, inspected and examined and certified by them as aforesaid, and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity.

Commissioners of Customs may pay Bounties on Articles imported before Oct. 15, 1796, on Proof of the Vessels having sailed at such Times that they might, in the ordinary Course of their Voyage, have arrived before Sept. 30.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any of the said Articles herein enumerated and described shall be imported or brought from any of the Ports or Places herein mentioned into any of the respective Ports herein also enumerated, subsequent to the Time limited by this Act, but before the fifteenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England and Scotland respectively, to order the Bounty or Bounties respectively to be paid thereon in like Manner as if the said Articles had been imported within the Time limited by this Act; provided Proof shall be made, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners respectively, that the Ships or Vessels on board of which respectively such Articles shall be so imported or brought, actually and bona fide set sail from such respective Ports or Places for Great Britain, at such Time that they might in the ordinary Course of their Voyage have arrived in Great Britain before the said thirtieth Day of September; and Proof shall also be given, and Entry shall be made, and the Goods inspected and examined, and certified in like Manner as is directed and required by this Act, to authorize the Payment of Bounty on the said Articles imported within the Time limited by this Act.

Bounties to extend to Articles imported before passing this Act.

VII. 'And whereas it may happen that Vessels, before the passing of this Act, may have arrived at different Ports of this Kingdom, having on board Articles of the several Descriptions herein mentioned, or of some one or other of them, intended for Exportation: And whereas in order to induce the Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors, or Consignee or Consignees, of such Goods, to enter them for Consumption in this Kingdom, it is expedient to extend the Bounties granted by this Act to such Articles:' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Bounties respectively granted by this Act shall extend to all such Articles, although imported or brought into this Kingdom before the passing of this Act, provided each and every the Rules, Regulations, Conditions, and Restrictions of this Act are in all other Respects duly complied with.

Vessels arriving at any Port where Bounty is not allowed, may sail to where it is.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Ship or Vessel has arrived or shall arrive at any Port in Great Britain, where, according to the Regulations of this Act, the Bounty is not allowed, the said Ship or Vessel shall and may lawfully depart from such Port without Molestation or Hindrance, with the several Articles on board, and may carry the same to any other Port of Great Britain at which the same may be entered for the Bounty, and there enter, land, and deliver the same; subject nevertheless to each and every the Rules, Regulations, Conditions, and Restrictions of this Act.

On Foreign Corn and Flour, warehoused before the passing of this Act, delivered out within three Months for Home Consumption, a Bounty to be paid;

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That on all Foreign Corn and Flour which shall have been secured in Warehouses in Great Britain, according to Law, before the passing of this Act, and which shall be delivered from thence within three Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, to be used and consumed in this Kingdom, there shall be paid and allowed to the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, or Consignee or Consignees thereof, a Bounty or Bounties respectively, not exceeding three-fifth Parts of the Bounties granted by this Act respectively on Corn and Flour imported from the Mediterranean, under the Authority of this Act; provided that all and each and every the Rules, Regulations, Conditions, and Restrictions, imposed and required by this Act, so far as the same are applicable to and can be put in Execution, shall be complied with in respect of all such Corn and Flour as shall be so respectively delivered out of such Warehouses, to be used or consumed in this Kingdom.

and if warehoused at a Port where no Bounty is allowed, it may be carried where it is.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Foreign Corn or Flour shall, before the passing of this Act, have been secured in any Warehouse or Warehouses according to Law, at any Port in Great Britain, where, according to the Regulations of this Act, the Bounty is not allowed, all such Foreign Corn or Flour shall and may be legally carried coastwise from such Port, without Molestation or Hindrance, to any other Port of Great Britain at which the same may be entered for the Bounty, and there the same may be entered, landed, and delivered, subject nevertheless to each and every the Rules, Regulations, Conditions, and Restrictions of this Act.

Continuance of Act;

XI. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in force until the fifteenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six.

which may be altered or repealed this Session.

XII. Provided always, That any Part of this Act may be altered, varied, or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. XXII.

An Act to permit Bakers to make and sell certain Sorts of Bread.

'WHEREAS it is expedient, in order to diminish the Consumption of Wheat, that Bakers should be permitted to make and sell, in all Places, various Kinds of mixed Bread, and such Kinds of Wheaten Bread as they cannot now sell in Places where an Assize is set: And whereas it is not expedient to apply to such Sorts of Bread the Restrictions contained in the Tables of the Assize and Price of Bread, now by Law established: May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons whatsoever, in any Place whatsoever, and whether any Assize of Bread shall be set in such Place or not, to make, sell, and expose to Sale, Peck Loaves, Half Peck Loaves, Quartern Loaves, and Half Quartern Loaves, made of the whole Produce of the Wheat, deducting only five Pound Weight of Bran per Bushel, or made of any

Loaves may be made of Wheat, deducting only 5lb. of Bran per Bushel, or mixed with any Grain or Potatoes, and sold at such Prices as shall be deemed reasonable.

Sort of Wheaten Flour, mixed with Meal or Flour of Barley, Rye, Oats, Buckwheat, Indian Corn, Peas, Beans, Rice, or any other Kind of Grain whatsoever, or with Potatoes, in such Proportions, and at such Prices for the said Loaves respectively, as the Maker and Seller thereof shall deem proper and reasonable; any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Mixed Bread to be marked to distinguish the Sorts, &c.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person or Persons who shall make, sell, or expose to Sale, any Loaves of mixed Bread as aforesaid, shall cause to be fairly imprinted on every Loaf of each respective Sort of Bread which he, she, or they shall make, sell, or expose to Sale, a Mark, in large Roman Letters, denoting what are the Sorts and Proportions of such Mixtures, or a large Roman M, together with some Mark distinguishing one Sort of such Bread from another; and shall also affix in some conspicuous Part of his, her, or their Shop, or in the Window thereof, a Paper, written in large and legible Characters at Length, specifying the Sorts and Proportions of the Mixtures composing each Sort of Bread, and also the Marks corresponding to each Sort, and the respective Prices thereof.

If Bread be deficient in Weight according to the Assize prescribed by 31 Geo. II. Cap. 29. or be not marked, or have any Mixture not denoted by the Mark, &c. the Offender liable to the Penalties of that Act.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any such Peck Loaves, Half Peck Loaves, Quartern Loaves, or Half Quartern Loaves, shall be deficient in Weight, according to the Assize of Loaves of such Denominations respectively, prescribed in an Act, passed in the thirty-first Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the due Making of Bread, and to regulate the Price and Assize thereof, and to punish Persons who shall adulterate Meal, Flour, or Bread; or if any such mixed Loaves shall not be imprinted with Marks pursuant to the Directions of this Act, and corresponding to the Paper hereinbefore required to be affixed, or if the same shall have any Mixture of Meal or Flour of any other Sort, or in any other Proportions thereof than shall be denoted by such Marks imprinted thereon, or any Mixture or Article as for or in lieu of Flour which shall not really be the genuine Flour or Article the same shall import to be, or if the same shall have in them any Alum, or Preparation or Mixture in which Alum shall be an Ingredient, or if any other Mixture or Ingredient whatsoever (except only the genuine Meal or Flour or Article of which the same purports to be made, and common Salt, pure Water, Eggs, Milk, Yeast, and Barm, or such other Leaven as shall at any Time be allowed to be put into Bread by the Court, or Person or Persons who shall have set an Assize of Bread for the Place where such Leaven shall be used; and where no such Assize shall be set, then such other Leaven as any Magistrate or Magistrates, within his or their Jurisdiction, shall allow to be used in making of Bread) shall be put into or in any wise used in making the Dough whereof, or as or for Leaven to ferment any such Dough, or on any other Account, under any Colour or Pretence whatsoever; every Person offending therein shall be liable to the same Penalties and Forfeitures, to be recovered and applied in the same Manner as is provided in the said Act, in the Case of any of the aforesaid Offences being committed against the several and respective Provisions in that Behalf made in the said Act.

This Act may be altered or repealed this Session.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful to alter or repeal this Act, or any Part of the same, during the present Session of Parliament.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall in any ways affect or infringe upon the Rights and Privileges of the City of London, or of the Worshipful Company of Bakers of the said City.

CAP. XXIII.

An Act to amend so much of an Act, made in the ninth Year of the Reign of King George the First, intituled, An Act for amending the Laws relating to the Settlement, Employment, and Relief of the Poor, as prevents the distributing occasional Relief to Poor Persons in their own Houses, under certain Circumstances and in certain Cases.

9 Geo. I. Cap. 7.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the First, intituled, An Act for amending the Laws relating to the Settlement, Employment, and Relief of the Poor, it is (among other Things) enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor, in any Parish, Town, Township, or Place, with the Consent of the major Part of the Parishioners or Inhabitants thereof in Vestry or other Parish or Public Meeting for that Purpose assembled, or of so many of them as shall be so assembled, upon usual Notice thereof first given, to purchase or hire any House or Houses in the same Parish, Township, or Place, and to contract with any Person or Persons for the lodging, keeping, maintaining, and employing, any or all such Poor, in their respective Parishes, Townships, or Places, as shall desire to receive Relief or Collection from the same Parish, and there to keep, maintain, and employ, all such Persons, and take the Benefit of the Work, Labour, and Service, of any such Poor Person or Persons, who shall be kept and maintained in any such House or Houses, for the Maintenance and Relief of such Poor Person or Persons who shall be there kept and maintained; and in case any Poor Person or Persons of any Parish, Town, Township, or Place, when such House or Houses shall be so purchased or hired, shall refuse to be lodged, kept, or maintained, in such House or Houses, such Poor Person or Persons so refusing shall be put out of the Book or Books where the Names of the Persons who ought to receive Collection in the said Parish, Town, Township, or Place are to be registered, and shall not be entitled to ask or receive Collection or Relief from the Churchwardens and Overseers of the same Parish, Town, or Township: And whereas the said Provision contained in the Act above mentioned has been found to have been and to be inconvenient and oppressive, inasmuch as it often prevent

'prevents an industrious Poor Person from receiving such occasional Relief as is best suited to the pecuniar 'Case of such Poor Person, and inasmuch as in certain Cases it holds out Conditions of Relief injurious to 'the Comfort and domestic Situation and Happiness of such Poor Persons:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Overseer or Overseers of any Parish, Town, Township, or Place, with the Approbation of the Parishioners, or the Majority of them, in Vestry or other usual Place of Meeting assembled, or with the Approbation in Writing of any of his Majesty's Justice or Justices of the Peace usually acting in and for the respective District, to distribute and pay Collection and Relief to any industrious Poor Person or Persons, at his, her, or their Homes, House or Houses, under certain Circumstances of temporary Illness or Distress, and in certain Cases respecting such Poor Person, or his, her, or their Family, or respecting the Situation, Health, or Condition of any Poor House or Poor Houses, in any Parish, Town, Township, or Place, wherein a House or Houses shall have been or shall be so hired, built, or purchased, and a Contract made with any Person or Persons for lodging, keeping, maintaining, and employing, any or all Poor Persons who shall desire to receive Collection or Relief, although such Poor Person or Persons shall refuse to be lodged, kept, and maintained, within such House or Houses; any Thing in the said Act passed in the ninth Year of his Majesty King George the First to the contrary notwithstanding.

Overseers, with the Approbation of the Parishioners or any Justice, may relieve Poor Persons at their own Homes.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any his Majesty's Justice or Justices of the Peace for any County, City, Town, or Place, usually acting in and for the District wherein the same shall be situated, at his or their just and proper Discretion, to direct and order Collection and Relief to any industrious Poor Person or Persons, and he, she, or they shall be entitled to ask and to receive such Relief at his, her, or their Homes, House or Houses, in any Parish, Town, Township, or Place, notwithstanding any Contract shall have been or shall be made with any Person or Persons for lodging, keeping, maintaining, and employing, any and all Poor Persons in a House or Houses for such Purpose hired or purchased, and the Churchwarden or Churchwardens, Overseer or Overseers, for such Parish, Town, Township, or Place, are required and directed to obey and perform such Order for Relief given by any Justice or Justices as aforesaid.

Justices may order Relief to Poor Persons at their own Homes.

III. Provided always, That the special Cause, as hereinbefore mentioned, of ordering and directing Collection or Relief to any Poor Person or Persons, at his, her, or their Homes, House or Houses, be assigned and written on each Order for Relief given and directed by any Justice or Justices as aforesaid: and provided always that such Order be given for, and do remain in force for a Time not to exceed one Month from the Date of such Order: Provided also, that it shall and may be lawful for any two Justices as aforesaid to make any further Order for the same or like Purpose, for any further Time not exceeding one Month from the Date of such Order, and so on from Time to Time, as the Occasion shall require, such Justice or Justices first administering an Oath as to the Need and Cause of such Relief in each of the above Cases, and thereon summoning the Overseer or Overseers of the Poor of the Parish, Town, Township, or Place, to be charged with such Relief, to shew Cause why such Poor Person or Persons should not receive such Relief in Manner as by Law provided in Cases where no Contract for lodging, keeping, and maintaining the Poor, shall as aforesaid have been made.

Cause of ordering such Relief to be assigned on the Order of the Justice, &c.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed, deemed, or taken to extend, to authorize, empower, or enable, any Overseer or Overseers, or any Justice or Justices of the Peace as aforesaid, to direct or order to distribute and pay, or to be distributed and paid, any Collection or Relief to any Poor Person or Persons, at his, her, or their Homes, House or Houses, as aforesaid, in any Parish, Town, Township, or Place, in or for which any House of Industry, or other Place for the Reception and Provision of the Poor thereof, hath been already erected or provided, or shall hereafter be erected or provided, by and under the Authority or Directions of an Act, passed in the twenty-second Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the better Relief and Employment of the Poor, or under the Authority or Directions of any special Act of Parliament or Law already passed for such Parish, Town, Township, or Place, and now in force for that Purpose; but that in every such Case all such last-mentioned Poor Person or Persons shall be provided for and relieved in such and the same Manner as before the making and passing of this Act.

Not to extend to Places where Houses of Industry are provided under 22 Geo. III. Cap. 83, or under any special Act.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act; and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such, by all Judges, Justices, and other Persons whomsoever, without specially pleading the same.

CAP. XXXVI.

An Act for encreaſing the Rates of Subſiſtence to be paid to Innkeepers and others on quartering Soldiers.—[7th March 1796.]

Mutiny Act recited.

'WHEREAS by an Act paſſed in the preſent Seſſion of Parliament, for puniſhing Mutiny and Deſertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, certain Rates are eſtabliſhed in that Part of Great Britain called England, the Dominion of Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, for the Payment of Innholders and others on whom Non-commiſſioned Officers and Private Soldiers are quartered and billetted, who ſhall be furniſhed with Diet and Small Beer at their Quarters; and an Option is given to ſuch Innholders and others, to furniſh certain Articles gratis, in lieu of Diet and Small Beer, at the Rates preſcribed: And whereas the Occaſion of marching and quartering of Troops has encreaſed, and may continue, and the Rules preſcribed for furniſhing Soldiers with Neceſſaries are, in many Inſtances, become, from the high Price of Proviſions, inadequate, and are productive of Diſtreſs to ſuch Innholders and others: May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That every Non-commiſſioned Officer and Private Soldier who ſhall be furniſhed with Diet and Small Beer within the aforeſaid Part of Great Britain, by the Innholders or other Perſons on whom ſuch Non-commiſſioned Officers or Private Soldiers ſhall be quartered and billetted by virtue of the ſaid Act, ſhall pay and allow for the ſame ten Pence per Diem; and that the Accounts of the ſame ſhall be rendered, and Payment thereof made, in like Manner as is directed in the ſaid Act now in force touching the former Rates of ſix Pence per Diem for the Cavalry, and four Pence per Diem for the Infantry.

Non-commiſſioned Officers and Soldiers to allow 10 d. per Diem for Diet and Small Beer in Quarters in England.;

II. And be it further enacted, That in caſe any Innholders or other Perſons on whom any Non-commiſſioned Officers or Private Men ſhall be quartered, ſhall, by virtue of the ſaid Option in the ſaid Act, furniſh ſuch Non-commiſſioned Officers or Soldiers with the Articles therein mentioned, in lieu of furniſhing Diet and Small Beer, at the Rates preſcribed by this Act, ſuch Innholders or other Perſons on whom ſuch Non-commiſſioned Officers or Soldiers are quartered, and by whom the ſaid Articles ſhall have been ſo ſupplied, ſhall receive, in Conſideration thereof, two Pence per Diem for each Non-commiſſioned Officer and Soldier, inſtead of furniſhing the ſame gratis, as required by the ſaid Act; which Sum of two Pence per Diem ſhall be accounted for and paid in like Manner as is directed touching the Rates aforeſaid.

and for Articles which have been furniſhed gratis in lieu thereof, 2 d. per Diem to be allowed.

For Horſes quartered, 10 d. 2 q. per Diem to be paid for Hay and Straw.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Sum to be paid to the Innholder or other Perſon, on whom any of the Horſes belonging to his ſaid Majeſty's Forces ſhall be quartered by virtue of the ſaid Act, for Hay and Straw, ſhall be ten Pence Halfpenny per Diem for each Horſe, inſtead of ſix Pence per Diem as directed in the ſaid Act.

So much of recited Act as relates to furniſhing with Diet Non-commiſſioned Officers and Soldiers on a March, or recruiting, repealed.

IV. 'And whereas the Proviſions contained in the ſaid recited Act, with reſpect to the Manner of dieting Non-commiſſioned Officers and Soldiers on a March, or employed in recruiting, and likewiſe the Recruits by them raiſed, have been productive of much Inconvenience, as well to the Troops as the Innholders;' be it further enacted, That ſo much of the ſaid recited Act as relates to the Manner of furniſhing Non-commiſſioned Officers and Soldiers on a March, or employed in recruiting, and likewiſe the Recruits by them raiſed, with Diet or other Proviſion, be, and the ſame is hereby repealed.

Regulation with reſpect to dieting Non-commiſſioned Officers and Soldiers on their March.

V. And be it further enacted, That all Non-commiſſioned Officers and Soldiers ſhall be entitled to receive their Diet and Small Beer from the Innholders or other Perſons on whom they may be billetted, at the Rates hereinbefore preſcribed, while on the March, as alſo on and for the Day of their Arrival at the Place of their final Deſtination, and on the two ſubſequent Days, unleſs either of the two ſubſequent Days ſhall be a Market Day in and for the Town or Place where ſuch Officers or Soldiers ſhall be billetted, or within the Diſtance of two Miles thereof, in which Caſe it ſhall and may be lawful for the Innholder, or other Perſon as aforeſaid, to diſcontinue on and from ſuch Market Day the Supply of Diet and Small Beer, and to furniſh in lieu thereof the Articles in the ſaid recited Act ſpecified, and at the Rate hereinbefore preſcribed.

When halted on a March, Non-commiſſioned Officers and Soldiers entitled to Diet and Small Beer as after arriving at their Deſtination:

VI. Provided always, That if any Regiment, Troop, Company, or Detachment, when on the March, ſhall be halted, either for a limited or indefinite Time, at any intermediate Place, the Non-commiſſioned Officers and Soldiers belonging thereto ſhall be entitled to receive their Diet and Small Beer from the Perſons on whom they ſhall be billetted at ſuch intermediate Place, for ſuch Time only for which they would be entitled to receive the ſame after arriving at the Place of their final Deſtination, according to this Act.

And if ſuch Halting be only for a Day after Arrival, and that be a Market Day, their Diet and Small Beer not to be diſcontinued.

VII. Provided nevertheleſs, That whenever it ſhall happen that any Regiment, Troop, Company, or Detachment, when on their March, ſhall be halted, and it ſhall appear by the Marching Orders, that it is not intended that ſuch Regiment, Troop, Company, or Detachment ſhall halt for any longer Time than one intire Day after the Day of their Arrival at the Place of halting, and the Day after ſuch Arrival ſhall be ſuch Market Day as aforeſaid, it ſhall not be lawful for the Innholders or other Perſons on whom the Non-commiſſioned Officers and Soldiers ſhall be billetted, to diſcontinue, on ſuch Market Day, the Supply of Diet and Small Beer to any ſuch Officers or Soldiers; but that all ſuch Officers and Soldiers ſhall be entitled to receive their Diet and Small Beer from ſuch Innholders and other Perſons aforeſaid, upon ſuch Market Day as aforeſaid, at the Rates hereinbefore preſcribed, in like Manner as they would have been entitled thereto such Day had not been a Market Day; any Thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary hereof notwithstanding.

Regulations respecting Recruiting Parties and Recruits on their March.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all Non-commissioned Officers and Private Men employed in recruiting, and the Recruits by them raised, shall, while on the March, and for two Days after the Day of their Arrival at any Recruiting Station, be entitled to the same Benefits as are herein-before provided in regard to Troops upon the March; but no Recruit enlisted after the two Days subsequent to the Arrival of the Party at their Recruiting Station, shall be entitled to be supplied with Diet and Small Beer at the Rate hereinbefore prescribed, except at the Option of the Person on whom he shall be quartered: Provided also nevertheless, that in case any such Recruiting Party, with the Recruits by them raised, shall remove from their Station, and after a Time shall return to the same Place, they, and the Recruits by them raised, so returning, shall not be again entitled to the Supply of Diet and Small Beer for such two Days as aforesaid, unless the Period between the Time of their Removal from such Place, and their Return thereto, shall have exceeded twenty-eight Days.

Continuance of Act.

IX. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall have Continuance from the twenty-fourth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, until the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven.

An Act to amend an Act made in the second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the better Preservation of the Game in that Part of Great Britain called England.—[24th March 1796.]

2 Geo. III. Cap. 19. recited,

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the second Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the better Preservation of the Game in that Part of Great Britain called England, whereby 'it is among other Things enacted, That no Person or Persons, after the first Day of June one thousand 'seven hundred and sixty-two, shall, upon any Pretence whatsoever, take, kill, destroy, carry, sell, buy, or 'have in his, her, or their Possession or Use, any Partridge, between the twelfth Day of February and the 'first Day of September in any Year, under the Penalty by the said Act laid and imposed: And whereas 'the searching for, taking, and killing of Partridges so early in the Year as the first Day of September, has 'been found very prejudicial to the Corn then growing or uncut, or cut and not carried: May it therefore 'please your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, so much of the said Act as relates to the taking, killing, destroying, using, or having, any Partridge before the first Day of September in any Year, shall be, and the same is hereby declared to be repealed.

and so much as relates to killing Partridges before Sept. 1, repealed.

No Partridge to be killed, &c. between Feb. 12 and Sept. 14.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, no Person or Persons shall, on any Pretence whatsoever, take, kill, destroy, carry, sell, buy, or have in his, her, or their Possession or Use, any Partridge between the twelfth Day of February and the fourteenth Day of September in any Year; and if any Person or Persons shall transgress this Act in the Case aforesaid, every such Person shall be liable to the same Penalty as by the said Act is laid and imposed on any Person or Persons transgressing the same; such Penalty to be imposed, inflicted, recovered, applied, and disposed of, in such and the same Manner, and under such and the same Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, as in and by the said Act is provided and directed, with respect to the Penalty thereby imposed on Persons transgressing the said Act.

CAP. XL.

An Act to continue several Laws relating to the giving further Encouragement to the Importation of Naval Stores from the British Colonies in America; to the Encouragement of the Silk Manufactures; and for taking off several Duties on Merchandize exported, and reducing other Duties; to the preventing the clandestine Running of Goods, and the Danger of Infection thereby; to the encouraging the Growth of Coffee in his Majesty's Plantations in America; to the free Importation of Cochineal and Indigo; to the granting a Bounty on certain Species of British and Irish Linens exported, and taking off the Duties on the Importation of Foreign Raw Linen Yarns, made of Flax; to the importing Salt from Europe into the Province of Quebec in America; to the encouraging the Manufacture of Leather, by lowering the Duty payable upon the Importation of Oak Bark, when the Price of such Bark shall exceed a certain Rate; to the more effectual Encouragement of the Manufactures of Flax and Cotton in Great Britain; to the allowing the Importation of Rape Seed, and other Seeds used for extracting Oil, whenever the Prices of Middling British Rape Seed shall be above a certain Limit; to the allowing a Drawback of the Duties on Rum shipped as Stores, to be consumed on board Merchant Ships in their Voyages; to the clandestine Running of uncustomed Goods, and preventing Frauds relating to the Customs; to the further Punishment of Persons going armed or disguised, in Defiance of the Laws of Customs or Excise; to the free Importation of certain Raw Hides and Skins from Ireland, and the British Plantations in America; and to the Duties on Spirits made in Scotland, and imported into England.

'WHEREAS the Laws herein-after mentioned have, by Experience, been found useful and beneficial, and are near expiring;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of an Act, made in the eighth Year of the Reign of King George the First, intituled, An Act for giving further Encouragement for the Importation of Naval Stores, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, as relates to the Importation of Wood and Timber, and of the Goods commonly called Lumber, therein particularly enumerated, from any of his Majesty's British Plantations or Colonies in America, free from all Customs and Impositions whatsoever, which was to be in Force for twenty-one Years from the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, and which, by several subsequent Acts, made in the sixteenth, twenty-fourth, and thirty-first Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, and the fourth, twelfth, nineteenth, twenty-sixth, and thirty-third Years of his present Majesty's Reign, was further continued until the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, shall be, and the same is hereby further continued, until the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand eight hundred and two, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

So much of 8 Geo. I. Cap. 12. as relates to Importation of Wood, &c. from America, Duty-free, continued to Sept. 29, 1802, &c.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of an Act, made in the eighth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the First, for the Encouragement of the Silk Manufactures of this Kingdom, and for taking off several Duties on Merchandizes exported, and for reducing the Duties upon Beaver Skins, Pepper, Mace, Cloves, and Nutmegs, imported, and for Importation of all Furs of the Product of the British Plantations into this Kingdom only, and that the two Corporations of Assurance on any Suits brought on their Policies, shall be liable only to single Damages and Costs of Suit, as relates to the Encouragement of the Silk Manufactures of this Kingdom, and to the taking off several Duties on Merchandizes exported, which was to continue in Force for three Years, from the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and which, by several subsequent Acts, made in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the First, and in the second, eighth, fifteenth, twentieth, twenty-sixth, and thirty-second Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, and in the sixth, fourteenth, twenty-second, and twenty-ninth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, hath been continued until the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, shall be, and the same is hereby further continued, until the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand eight hundred and two, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

'WHEREAS it is expedient that the Duties imposed by divers Act of the twentieth, twenty-third, 'and twenty-ninth Years of your Majesty's Reign, on every Skin or Piece of Vellum or Parch- 'ment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, upon which any Receipt, or other Discharge for any Legacy left by 'any Will or other Testamentary Instrument, or for any Share or Part of a Personal Estate, divided by 'Force of the Statute of Distributions, or the Custom of any Province or Place, should be engrossed, 'printed, or written, should be repealed, as to such Receipts or Discharges for which new Duties shall be 'granted by this Act; and that new Duties should be granted in lieu of the Duties so repealed; and that 'the Provisions made by the said several Acts for collecting the Duties thereby imposed, should be further 'enforced, as to the Duties which shall not be repealed by this Act: We, your Majesty's most dutiful and 'loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, as well for the Purposes afore- 'said, as towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray your Majesty's Public Expences, and making 'such permanent Addition to the Public Revenue as shall be adequate to the increased Charge occasioned 'by any Loan made by virtue of any Act or Acts for that Purpose passed or to be passed in this Session 'of Parliament, have freely and voluntarily resolved to grant unto your Majesty the Duties hereinafter 'mentioned; and do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several Duties by the said several Acts imposed on all Receipts and Discharges for Legacies given by any Will or other Testamentary Instrument, and for Shares or Parts of Residue of Personal Estate upon which any Duty shall be imposed by this Act, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, cease, determine, and be no longer paid or payable; and so much of the said several Acts as relate to such Duties so repealed, and the Payment thereof, shall be, and the same are hereby also repealed.

20 Geo. III. Cap. 28. 23 Geo. III. Cap. 58. and 29 Geo. III. Cap. 51.

Duties imposed by the before mentioned Acts, on Receipts for Legacies or Residues of Personal Estates, on which new ones are hereby laid, to cease.

New Duties.

II. And be it further enacted, That upon every Legacy, specific or pecuniary, or of any other Description, of the Amount or Value of twenty Pounds or more, given by any Will or Testamentary Instrument of any Person who shall die after the passing of this Act, out of the Personal Estate of the Person so dying, and also upon the clear Residue, and upon every Part of the clear Residue of the Personal Estate of every Person who shall so die, whether testate or intestate, and leave Personal Estate of the clear Value of one hundred Pounds or upwards, which shall remain after deducting Debts, Funeral Expences, and other Charges, and specific and pecuniary Legacies, (if any,) whether the Title to such Residue, or to any Part thereof, shall accrue by virtue of any Testamentary Disposition, or upon Intestacy, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the several Duties, after the Rates and in Manner following; (that is to say,) where any such Legacy, or any Residue or Part of Residue of any such Personal Estate, shall be given or shall pass to or for the Benefit of a Brother or Sister of the Deceased, or any Descendant of a Brother or Sister of the Deceased, there shall be charged a Duty of two Pounds for every one hundred Pounds of the Value of any such Legacy, or Residue or Part of Residue, and so after the same Rate for any greater or less Sum; where any such Legacy, or any Residue or Part of Residue of any such Personal Estate, shall be given or shall pass to or for the Benefit of a Brother or Sister of a Father or Mother of the Deceased, or any Descendant of a Brother or Sister of a Father or Mother of the Deceased, there shall be charged three Pounds for every one hundred Pounds of the Value of such Legacy, or Residue or Part of Residue, and so after the same Rate for any greater or less Sum; and where any such Legacy, or any Residue or Part of Residue of any such Personal Estate, shall be given or shall pass to or for the Benefit of a Brother or Sister of a Grandfather or Grandmother of the Deceased, or any Descendant of a Brother or Sister of a Grandfather or Grandmother of the Deceased, there shall be charged a Duty of four Pounds for every one hundred Pounds of the Value of such Legacy, or Residue or Part of Residue, and so after the same Rate for any greater or less Sum; and where any such Legacy, or Residue or Part of Residue of any such Personal Estate, shall be given or shall pass to or for the Benefit of any Person in any other Degree of collateral Consanguinity to the Deceased than is herein-before described, or any Stranger in Blood to the Deceased, there shall be charged a Duty of six Pounds for every one hundred Pounds of the Value of such Legacy, or Residue or Part of Residue, and so after the same Rate for any greater or less Sum: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to charge with any Duty any Legacy, or any Residue or Part of Residue, of any Personal Estate, which shall be given or shall pass to or for the Benefit of the Husband or Wife of the Deceased, or to or for the Benefit of any of the Royal Family.

Duties not to extend to Bequests to Husbands or Wives, or the Royal Family.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Duties shall be under the Care, Management, and Direction of the Commissioners for the Time being appointed to manage the Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper; who, or the major Part of them, are hereby empowered and required to employ the necessary Officers under them for that Purpose, and to cause four new Stamps to be provided to denote the several Rates of Duty hereby imposed; that is to say, one Stamp to denote the Rate of two Pounds per Centum, one other Stamp to denote the Rate of three Pounds per Centum, one other Stamp to denote the Rate of four Pounds per Centum, and one other Stamp to denote the Rate of six Pounds per Centum, and the same to alter or renew whenever it shall be requisite, and to do all Things necessary for carrying this Act into Execution, according to the Rules, Methods, and Directions herein contained, in as full and ample a Manner as they, or the major Part of them, are authorized and empowered to put in Execution any Law concerning stamped Vellum, Parchment, or Paper.

Duties to be under the Management of the Commissioners for Stamps.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall, by Writing under their Hands and Seals, or the Hands and Seals of the major Part of them, appoint proper Persons in the several Counties, Shires, Stewartries, Ridings, and Divisions, in Great Britain, as Occasion shall require, to collect and receive the Duties hereby imposed, and to keep proper Accounts thereof, to be transmitted to the Head Office of the said Commissioners; and upon Payment of any such Duty, if paid at the Head Office of the said Commissioners, the said Commissioners shall cause the same to be duly entered in their Books, and to be set down therein to the Account of the Personal Estate in respect whereof the said Duty shall be paid, and shall make like Entries in their Books, upon Transmission of the proper Accounts for that Purpose from the several Officers to be appointed by the said Commissioners in the different Counties, Shires, Stewartries, Ridings, and Divisions aforesaid, to whom they shall from Time to Time give proper Orders for such Purpose; and the Accounts of such Payments shall be kept, with proper References, in alphabetical Order, according to the Surname of the Testator, Testatrix, or Intestate, in respect of whose Personal Estate such Payments shall have been made respectively, so that it may at all Times appear upon the Books of the said Commissioners, what Payments have been made in respect of the Personal Estate of any Testator, Testatrix, or Intestate.

Commissioners to appoint Receivers of the Duties, and to keep Accounts, shewing the Personal Estates in respect of which the Duties have been paid.

V. And, in order that all Persons may be enabled to take Receipts and Discharges on the Payment or Satisfaction of any Legacy, or Residue of any Personal Estate, or any Part thereof, according to the Directions prescribed by this Act, be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties, from Time to Time, to provide sufficient Quantities of Paper adapted for such Receipts or Discharges as aforesaid, and to cause to be printed thereon the Form of Words in the Schedule hereunto annexed; and it shall also be lawful for any of his Majesty's Subjects, requiring such Receipts or Discharges, to cause the same to be duly filled up with Sums, Names, and Date, according to the Provisions before-mentioned, and also upon any Vellum or Parchment, or upon any other Paper not provided by the said Commissioners, to use the like Form whenever there shall be Occasion.

Commissioners may provide printed Receipts, which may be used, or others of the like Forms.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Duties hereby imposed shall, in all Cases in which it is not hereby otherwise provided, be accounted for, answered, and paid, by the Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Execution of the Will or other Testamentary Instrument, or the Administration of the Personal Estate of any Person deceased, upon Retainer for his, her, or their own Benefit, or for the Benefit of any other Person or Persons, of any Legacy, or any Part of any Legacy, or of the Residue of any Personal Estate, or any Part of such Residue, which he, she, or they shall be entitled so to retain, either in his, her, or their own Right, or in the Right or for the Benefit of any other Person or Persons; and also upon Delivery, Payment, or other Satisfaction or Discharge whatsoever, of any Legacy, or any Part of any Legacy, or of the Residue of any Personal Estate, or any Part of such Residue, to which any other Person or Persons shall be entitled; and in case any Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of such Execution or Administration as aforesaid, shall retain for his, her, or their own Benefit, or for the Benefit of any other Person or Persons, any Legacy, or any Part of any Legacy, or the Residue of any Personal Estate, or any Part of such Residue, which such Person or Persons shall be entitled so to retain, either in his, her, or their own Right, or in the Right or for the Benefit of any other Person or Persons, and upon which any Duty shall be chargeable by virtue of this Act, not having first paid such Duty, or shall deliver, pay, or otherwise howsoever satisfy or discharge any Legacy, or any Part of any Legacy, or the Residue of any Personal Estate, or any Part thereof, to which any other Person or Persons shall be entitled, and upon which any Duty shall be chargeable by virtue of this Act, having received or deducted the Duty so chargeable, then and in every Duties to be paid by Executors or Administrators, on retaining or paying Legacies.

If Duty be not paid before Legacies are retained by Executors, or discharged, they having deducted it, the Amount to be a Debt from them to his Majesty; and if they pay Legacies without deducting the Duty, it shall be a Debt from such Parties.

every of such Cases, the Duty which shall be due and payable upon every such Legacy, and Part of Legacy and Residue, and Part of Residue respectively, and which shall not have been duly paid and satisfied to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, according to the Provisions of this Act, shall be a Debt of such Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of such Execution or Administration as aforesaid, to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; and in case any such Person or Persons so having or taking the Burthen of such Execution or Administration as aforesaid, shall deliver, pay, or otherwise howsoever satisfy or discharge any such Legacy or Residue, or any Part of any such Legacy or Residue, to or for the Benefit of any Person or Persons entitled thereto, without having received or deducted the Duty chargeable thereon, (such Duty not having been first duly paid to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors according to the Provisions herein contained,) then and in every such Case such Duty shall be a Debt to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, both of the Person or Persons who shall make such Delivery, Payment, Satisfaction, or Discharge, and of the Person or Persons to whom the same shall be made.

What shall be deemed Legacies within the Intent of this Act.

VII. And be it further enacted, That any Gift by any Will or Testamentary Instrument of any Person dying after the passing of this Act, which shall, by virtue of such Will or Testamentary Instrument, have Effect, or be satisfied out of the Personal Estate of such Person so dying, or out of any Personal Estate which such Person shall have Power to dispose of as he or she shall think fit, shall be deemed and taken to be a Legacy within the Intent and Meaning of this Act, whether the same shall be given by way of Annuity or in any other Form, and whether the same shall be charged only on such Personal Estate, or charged also on Real Estate of the Testator or Testatrix who shall give the same; except so far as the same shall be paid or satisfied out of such Real Estate, in a due Execution of the Will or Testamentary Instrument by which the same shall be given; and every Gift which shall have Effect as a Donation Mortis Causa shall also be deemed a Legacy within the Intent and Meaning of this Act.

The Value of Annuities, and the Duty, to be calculated according to the annexed Tables, and the Duty paid by Instalments, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Value of any Legacy given by way of Annuity, whether payable annually or otherwise, for any Life or Lives, or for Years determinable on any Life or Lives, or for Years or other Period of Time, shall be calculated, and the Duty chargeable thereon shall be charged, according to the Tables in the Schedule hereunto annexed; and the Duty chargeable on such Annuity shall be paid by four equal Payments, the first of which Payments of Duty shall be made before or on completing the Payment of the first Year's Annuity, and the three others of such Payments of Duty shall be made in like Manner successively, before or on completing the respective Payments of the three succeeding Years Annuity respectively; and the Value of any such Annuity, if determinable upon any Contingency besides the Death of any Person or Persons, shall be calculated without regard to such Contingency: Provided always, that if any such Annuity shall determine by the Death of any Person, before four Years Payment of such Annuity shall become due and payable, then and in such Case the Duty shall be payable in proportion only to so many of the Payments of the said Annuity as actually accrued and became due and payable; and in case any such Annuity shall at any Time determine upon any other Contingency than the Death of any Person or Persons, then and in such Case, not only all Payments of Duty which would otherwise become due after the happening of such Contingency, if any such would become due, shall cease; but it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons who shall have paid any Duties which shall have previously become due, to apply for and obtain a Return of so much of the Duty so paid, as will reduce the same to the like Duty as would have been payable by such Person or Persons for such Annuity, calculated according to the Term for which the same shall have endured; which Abatement the said Commissioners for Management of the Stamp Duties shall settle and determine according to the Tables in the Schedule hereunto annexed, and shall cause the Amount of such Abatement to be paid to the Person or Persons entitled to the same, out of any Monies in their Hands arising from the Duties imposed by this Act.

The Value of Annuities payable out of Legacies, and the Duty, to be calculated according to the annexed Tables, and the Duty to be charged on the Value of such Legacies after deducting such Annuities, &c.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the Value of any Legacy given by way of Annuity for any Life or Lives, or for Years determinable on any Life or Lives, or for Years or other Period of Time, and charged on and made payable out of any other Legacy or Legacies, shall be calculated, and the Duty shall be charged thereon, in the same Manner as herein-before directed with respect to other Annuities; and the Duty on the Legacy charged with such Annuity, if any Duty shall be payable for such Legacy, shall be calculated on the Value of such Legacy, after deducting the Value of such Annuity; and the Duty for such Annuity shall be paid by the Person or Persons entitled to the Legacy or Legacies charged with such Annuity, by four equal Payments, in the same Manner as the same would be payable according to the Provisions herein-before contained, if such Annuity had been a direct Gift to the Annuitant, and subject to the like Proviso in case such Annuity shall determine before four Years Payment shall become due; and the Payment which shall be made for such Duty, shall be retained by the Person or Persons paying the same, out of the first four Years Payments of such Annuity, if so many shall become due, or out of so many of such Payments as shall become due by equal Portions.

Duty on Legacies given to purchase Annuities to be calculated on the Sums necessary to purchase them.

X. And be it further enacted, That the Duty payable upon any Legacy given by Direction to purchase with any Personal Estate of the Testator or Testatrix, or any Part thereof, an Annuity of a certain Amount for the Life or Lives of any Person or Persons, or any other Term, shall be calculated upon the Sum necessary to purchase such Annuity according to the Tables before-mentioned, and shall be deducted from such Sum, and paid as in the Case of other pecuniary Legacies; and the Person or Persons paying or satisfying such Legacy, and the Person or Persons for whose Benefit the same shall be paid or satisfied, shall be discharged, by Payment of such Duty so calculated as aforesaid, from all other Demands in respect of the Duty payable on such Legacy; and the Annuity to be purchased for the Benefit of the Person or Persons entitled to the Benefit of such Legacy, shall be reduced in Proportion to the Amount of the Duty payable thereon as aforesaid.

said, such Reduction to be calculated in the same Manner as the Duty so payable is herein-before directed to be calculated; and the Purchase of such reduced Annuity, together with the Payment of such Duty, shall satisfy and discharge such Legacy as fully as if an Annuity had been purchased equal in Amount to the Annuity so directed to be purchased.

Duty on Legacies whose Value can only be ascertained by Application of the allotted Fund, to be charged on the Money as applied.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any Benefit shall be given by any Will or Testamentary Instrument, in such Terms that the Amount or Value of such Benefit can only be ascertained, from Time to Time, by the actual Application for that Purpose of the Fund allotted for such Purpose, or made chargeable therewith; or if the Amount or Value of any Benefit given by any Will or Testamentary Instrument cannot, by reason of the Form and Manner of the Gift, be so ascertained that the Duty can be charged thereon under any other of the Directions herein contained; then and in every such Case, such Duty shall be charged upon the several Sums of Money or Effects which shall be applied from Time to Time for the Purposes directed by such Will or Testamentary Instrument, as separate and distinct Legacies or Bequests, and shall be paid out of the Fund applicable for such Purposes, or charged with answering the same.

How Duty on Legacies enjoyed by Persons in Succession, or having partial Interests therein, shall be charged.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the Duty payable on a Legacy or Residue, or Part of Residue, of any Personal Estate, given to or for the Benefit of, or so that the same shall be enjoyed by different Persons in Succession, who shall be chargeable with the Duties hereby imposed at one and the same Rate, shall be charged upon and paid out of the Legacy or Residue, or Part of Residue, so given, as in the Case of a Legacy to one Person; and where any Legacy or Residue, or Part of Residue, shall be given to or for the Benefit of, or so that the same shall be enjoyed by different Persons in Succession, some or one of whom shall be chargeable with no Duty, or some of whom shall be chargeable with different Rates of Duty, so that one Rate of Duty cannot be immediately charged thereon, all Persons who, under or in consequence of any such Bequest, shall be entitled for Life only, or any other temporary Interest, shall be chargeable with the Duty in respect of such Bequest, in the same Manner as if the annual Produce thereof had been given by way of Annuity; and such Persons respectively shall be so chargeable with such Duty, and the same shall be payable when they shall respectively become entitled to and begin to receive such Produce, and shall be paid by equal Portions during the aforesaid Term of four Years, if they shall so long continue to receive such Produce; and where any other partial Interest shall be given, or shall arise out of such Property so to be enjoyed in Succession, the Duty on such partial Interest shall be charged and paid in the same Manner as the Duty is herein-before directed to be charged and paid in like Cases of partial Interests, charged on any Property given, otherwise than to different Persons in Succession; and all and every Person and Persons who shall become absolutely entitled to any such Legacy or Residue, or Part of Residue, so to be enjoyed in Succession, shall, when and as such Person or Persons respectively shall receive the same, or begin to enjoy the Benefit thereof, be chargeable with and pay the Duty for the same, or such Part thereof as shall be so received, or of which the Benefit shall be so enjoyed, in the same Manner as if the same had come to such Person or Persons immediately on the Death of the Person by whom such Property shall have been given to be enjoyed, or in such Manner that the same shall be enjoyed in Succession.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the Duty payable on any Legacy or Residue, or Part of Residue, so given to, or so to be enjoyed by different Persons in Succession, upon whom the Duty shall be chargeable at one and the same Rate, shall be deducted and paid by the Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Execution of the Will or Testamentary Instrument under which the Title thereto shall arise, upon Payment or other Satisfaction or Discharge of every or any Part of such Legacy or Residue, or Part of Residue, to any Trustee or Trustees, or other Person or Persons to whom the same shall be payable or paid in trust or for the Benefit of the Persons so entitled thereto in Succession; and if the same shall not be so paid or satisfied to any such Trustee or Trustees, then such Duty shall be deducted and paid out of the Capital of the Property so given, upon Receipt, by any of the Persons so entitled in Succession, of any Produce of such Capital, or any Part thereof, according to the Amount of the Capital of which such Produce shall be so received; and where the Duty chargeable upon any such Bequest for the Benefit of or to be enjoyed by different Persons in Succession, shall be chargeable at different Rates, so that the same cannot be paid at one and the same Time, but must be paid in Succession as aforesaid, then and in such Case all and every the Person and Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Execution of the Will or Testamentary Instrument in which such Bequest shall be contained, shall be chargeable with such Duties in Succession, in the same Manner as such Persons would be chargeable with the like Duties in case of immediate Bequest; unless the Property bequeathed shall have been paid or otherwise satisfied to or vested in any Trustees or Trustee as aforesaid, in which Case such Trustees or Trustee, or his, her, or their Representatives, shall be chargeable with the Duties for and in respect of such Property so vested in him, her, or them respectively, in such and the same Manner as if he, she, or they had had or taken the Burthen of the Execution of the Will or Testamentary Instrument, by which such Bequest shall have been made; and in like Manner, where any partial Interest shall be given, or shall arise out of any such Property so to be enjoyed in Succession, and such partial Interest shall be satisfied or paid by the Person or Persons so enjoying such Property, such Person or Persons shall be chargeable with the Duties for and in respect of such partial Interest, and shall retain and pay the same accordingly, in such and the same Manner as if he, she, or they had had or taken the Burthen of the Execution of the Will or Testamentary Instrument, by which such partial Interest shall have been created; and in all such Cases the Person or Persons so chargeable with Duty, shall be Debtors to the King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in like Manner, and shall be subject to the like Penalties, as the Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Execution of such Will or Testamentary Instrument, are hereby made chargeable and subject to.

Plate, &c. while enjoyed in Kind, not liable to Duty till in Poſſeſſion of Perſons having Power to diſpoſe thereof.

XIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Duty ſhall be paid on any Articles of Plate, Furniture, or other Things, not yielding any Income, and given to or for the Benefit of, or ſo as that the ſame be enjoyed by, different Perſons in Succeſſion, whilſt the ſame ſhall be ſo enjoyed in Kind only by any Perſon or Perſons not having any Power of ſelling or diſpoſing thereof, ſo as to convert the ſame into Money or other Property yielding an Income; but if the ſame ſhall be actually ſold or diſpoſed of, or ſhall come to any Perſon or Perſons having Power to ſell or diſpoſe thereof, or having an abſolute Intereſt therein, then, and in each and every ſuch Caſe, the ſame Duty ſhall be chargeable and paid thereon as if the ſame had been originally given abſolutely, and with full Power to ſell or diſpoſe thereof, and ſhall be chargeable upon and paid by the Perſon or Perſons for whoſe Benefit the ſame ſhall be ſold, or who ſhall have Power to ſell or diſpoſe thereof, or an abſolute Intereſt therein, and ſhall become the Debt of ſuch Perſon or Perſons; but ſhall not be a Charge on any Perſon or Perſons by reaſon of his, her, or their having aſſented to ſuch Bequeſt, as to Perſon or Perſons having or taking the Burthen of the Execution of the Will or Teſtamentary Inſtrument by which ſuch Bequeſt ſhall have been made.

Duty on Legacies enjoyed in Succeſſion to be charged as ſuch, whether taken under Wills or by Inteſtacy.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where any Legacy, or any Reſidue or Part of Reſidue, ſhall be ſo given by any Will or Teſtamentary Inſtrument, that different Perſons ſhall become entitled thereto in Succeſſion, the Duty ſhall be charged thereon as given to be enjoyed in Succeſſion, whether the Perſon or Perſons entitled thereto ſhall take the ſame under or by virtue of ſuch Will or Teſtamentary Inſtrument, and the Diſpoſitions therein contained, or in default of ſuch Diſpoſitions, and as entitled by Inteſtacy.

Duty on Legacies in Joint Tenancy to be paid in proportion to the Intereſt of the Parties.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That where any Legacy, or Reſidue or Part of Reſidue, ſhall be given to or for the Benefit of any Perſon or Perſons in Joint Tenancy, ſome or one of whom ſhall be chargeable with any Duty hereby impoſed, and ſome or one of whom ſhall not be ſo chargeable, the Perſon or Perſons chargeable with Duty ſhall pay ſuch Duty in proportion to the Intereſt of ſuch Perſon or Perſons reſpectively in ſuch Bequeſt; and if any Perſon or Perſons chargeable with Duty, and entitled in Joint Tenancy as aforeſaid, ſhall become entitled by Survivorſhip, or by Severance of the Joint Tenancy, to any larger Intereſt in the Property bequeathed, than that in reſpect of which ſuch Duty ſhall have been paid, then, and in ſuch Caſe all and every ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo becoming entitled by Survivorſhip, or by Severance, ſhall be charged with the ſame Duty as if the Property to which ſuch Joint Tenant or Joint Tenants ſhall ſo become entitled had been originally given to or for the Benefit of ſuch Perſon or Perſons only.

Duty on Legacies ſubject to Contingencies, to be charged as for abſolute Bequeſts, &c.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That when any Legacy, or any Reſidue or Part of Reſidue, ſhall be given, ſubject to any Contingency which may defeat ſuch Gift, and whereupon the ſame may go to ſome other Perſons or Perſon, ſuch Bequeſt (unleſs chargeable as an Annuity under the Proviſions herein contained) ſhall be charged with Duty as an abſolute Bequeſt, to the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall take the ſame ſubject to ſuch Contingency, and ſuch Duty ſhall be paid out of the Capital of ſuch Legacy, or Reſidue or Part of Reſidue, notwithſtanding the ſame may, upon ſuch Contingency, go to ſome Perſon not chargeable with the ſame Duty, or with any Duty; and if ſuch Contingency ſhall afterwards happen, and the Property ſo bequeathed ſhall thereupon go in ſuch Manner that the ſame, if taken immediately after the Death of the Teſtator or Teſtatrix, under the ſame Title would have been chargeable with a higher Rate of Duty than the Duty ſo paid, the Perſon or Perſons becoming entitled thereto, ſhall be charged with and ſhall pay the Difference between the Duty ſo paid, and ſuch higher Rate of Duty.

How Duty on Legacies ſubjected to Power of Appointment ſhall be charged;

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That where any Legacy, or the Reſidue or any Part of the Reſidue, of any Perſonal Eſtate, ſhall be ſubjected to any Power of Appointment to or for the Benefit of any Perſon or Perſons ſpecially named or deſcribed as Objects of ſuch Power, ſuch Property ſhall be charged with Duty as Property given to different Perſons in Succeſſion; and in ſo charging ſuch Duty, not only the Perſon and Perſons who ſhall take previous or ſubject to ſuch Power of Appointment, but alſo any Perſon and Perſons who ſhall take under or in default of any ſuch Appointment, when and as they ſhall ſo take reſpectively, ſhall, in reſpect of their ſeveral Intereſts, whether previous, or ſubject to, or under, or in default of ſuch Appointment, be charged with the ſame Duty, and in the ſame Manner, as if the ſame Intereſts had been given to him, her, or them reſpectively, in and by the Will or Teſtamentary Diſpoſition containing ſuch Power, in the ſame Order and Courſe of Succeſſion as ſhall take place under and by virtue of ſuch Power of Appointment, or in default of Execution thereof, as the Caſe may happen to be; and where any Property ſhall be given for any limited Intereſt, and a general and abſolute Power of Appointment ſhall alſo be given to any Perſon or Perſons to whom the Property would not belong in default of ſuch Appointment, ſuch Property, upon the Execution of ſuch Power, ſhall be charged with the ſame Duty, and in the ſame Manner, as if the ſame Property had been immediately given to the Perſon or Perſons having and executing ſuch Power, after allowing any Duty before paid in reſpect thereof; and where any Property ſhall be given with any ſuch general Power of Appointment, which Property in default of Appointment will belong to the Perſon or Perſons to whom ſuch Power ſhall alſo be given, ſuch Property ſhall be charged with, and ſhall pay the Duty by this Act impoſed, in the ſame Manner as if ſuch Property had been given to ſuch Perſon or Perſons abſolutely in the firſt Inſtance, without ſuch Power of Appointment.

and how on Perſonal Eſtates directed to be applied in Purchaſe of Real Eſtates.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That any Sum of Money or Perſonal Eſtate, directed to be applied in the Purchaſe of Real Eſtate, ſhall be charged with and pay Duty as Perſonal Eſtate; unleſs the ſame ſhall be ſo given as to be enjoyed by different Perſons in Succeſſion, and then each Perſon entitled thereto in Succeſſion, ſhall pay Duty for the ſame in the ſame Manner as if the ſame had not been directed to be applied in the Purchaſe of Real Eſtate, unleſs the ſame ſhall have been actually applied in the Purchaſe of Real Eſtate before ſuch Duty accrued; but no Duty ſhall accrue in reſpect thereof, after the ſame ſhall have been been actually applied in the Purchase of Real Estate, for so much thereof as shall have been so applied: Provided nevertheless, that in case before the same or some Part thereof shall be actually so applied, any Person or Persons shall become entitled to an Estate of Inheritance in Possession in the Real Estate to be purchased therewith, or with so much thereof as shall not have been applied in the Purchase of Real Estate, the same Duty which ought to be paid by such Person or Persons, if absolutely entitled thereto as Personal Estate by virtue of any Bequest thereof as such, shall be charged on such Person or Persons, and raised and paid out of the Fund remaining to be applied in such Purchase.

Estates pur auter Vie applicable as Personal Estate, to be charged as such.

XX. And be it further enacted, That Estates pur auter Vie, applicable by Law in the same Manner as Personal Estate, shall be charged with the Duties hereby imposed as Personal Estate.

Money left to pay Duty not chargeable as a Legacy.

XXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Direction shall be given, by any Will or Testamentary Instrument, for Payment of the Duty chargeable upon any Legacy or Bequest out of some other Fund, so that such Legacy or Bequest may pass to the Person or Persons to whom or for whose Benefit the same shall be given, free of Duty, no Duty shall be chargeable upon the Money to be applied for the Payment of such Duty, notwithstanding the same may be deemed a Legacy, to or for the Benefit of the Person or Persons who would otherwise pay such Duty.

Mode of ascertaining Duty on Property not reduced into Money.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That in Cases of specific Legacies, and where the Residue of any Personal Estate shall consist of Property which shall not be reduced into Money, it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Administration of such Effects, or the Person or Persons by whom the Duty thereon ought to be paid, to set a Value thereon, and offer to pay the Duty according to such Value; or to require the Commissioners for Management of the Stamp Duties, to appoint a Person to set such Value, at the Expence of the Person or Persons by whom such Duty ought to be paid; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to accept the Duty offered to be paid, upon the Value set by the Person or Persons having or taking the Administration of such Effects, or by whom the Duty for the same shall be payable, without such Appraisement, if the said Commissioners shall think fit so to do; but if the said Commissioners shall not be satisfied with the Value so set, on which the Duty shall be so offered, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, notwithstanding such Offer, to appoint a Person to appraise such Effects, and to set the Value thereon, on which Value so set the said Commissioners shall assess the Duty payable in respect thereof, and require the same to be paid; but if the Person or Persons by whom such Duty shall be payable, shall not be satisfied with the Valuation made under the Authority of the said Commissioners, and pay the Duty accordingly, it shall be lawful for such Person or Persons to cause the Valuation so made under the Authority of the said Commissioners, to be reviewed by the Commissioners of the Land Tax for the Time being, of the District or Place where such Effects shall be, at their next Meeting, after the said Commissioners for Management of the Stamp Duties shall have assessed and required Payment of such Duty as aforesaid, if fourteen Days shall have elapsed between such Time and the Meeting of the said Commissioners of Land Tax, and if not, then at the next succeeding Meeting of the said Commissioners, of which Appeal six Days Notice shall be given to the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties; and the said Commissioners of the Land Tax shall and may (if they think fit) appoint a Person to appraise such Effects, and set a Value thereon, and shall and may hear and determine such Appeal, in the same Manner as in any other Cases of Appeal to them, and with the like Authorities, and their Judgment shall be final; and if the Valuation made under the Authority of the said Commissioners of the Stamp Duties in the Case last mentioned, shall not be duly appealed from within the Time aforesaid, or shall be affirmed upon Appeal, the Duty shall be paid according to such Valuation; and if any Variation shall be made on such Appeal, the Duty shall be paid according to such Variation; and if the Duty assessed in Manner aforesaid shall exceed the Duty offered to and refused by the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties, the Expence of such Appraisement and other Proceedings in assessing such Duty, shall be borne by the Person or Persons by whom such Duty shall be payable; and if any Dispute shall arise between any Person or Persons entitled to any such Legacy, or Residue, or Part of Residue, and any Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Administration of such Effects, with respect to the Value thereof, or with respect to the Duty to be paid thereon, the Duty shall be assessed by the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties on Reference to them by either Party for that Purpose; and if the Value of any Property on which such Duty ought to be paid shall be in Dispute, the said Commissioners of the Stamp Duties shall cause an Appraisement to be made thereof, at the Expence of the Person or Persons by whom such Duty ought to be paid, in the Manner herein-before directed in other Cases, and assess the Duty thereon accordingly; and if such Person or Persons by whom such Duty ought to be paid, shall be dissatisfied with such Valuation, or with the Assessment of Duty made upon such Valuation by the said Commissioners of the Stamp Duties, the same shall be reviewed and finally determined by the said Commissioners of the Land Tax, upon Appeal to them within the Time, and under the Restrictions, and in the Manner herein before directed in other Cases; but if such Valuation or Assessment shall not be duly appealed from within the Time limited for that Purpose, or shall be affirmed upon Appeal, the Duty shall be paid according thereto; and if any Variation shall be made therein on such Appeal, the Duty shall be paid according to such Variation; and in case the Effects whereon any such Duty shall be payable shall be at the Distance of ten Miles from London, then and in such Case it shall be lawful to make the like Application to such Person as shall be deputed for that Purpose by the said Commissioners to act in their Stead, in such Cases, within the County or District in which such Effects shall be; and such Person so deputed shall act in such Cases, in all Respects, in the same Manner as the said Commissioners are hereby authorized to act, subject nevertheless to the Instructions and Controul of the said Commissioners.

Duty on Legacies not satisfied in Money, &c. to be paid according to the Value of the Satisfaction.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That where any Legacy, or Part of any Legacy, or Residue, or Part of Residue, whereon any Duty shall be chargeable by this Act, shall be satisfied otherwise than by Payment of Money or Application of specific Effects for that Purpose, or shall be released for Consideration, or compounded for less than the Amount or Value thereof, then and in such Case the Duty shall be charged and paid in respect of such Legacy, or Part of Legacy, or Residue, or Part of Residue, according to the Amount or Value of the Property taken in Satisfaction thereof, or as the Consideration for Release thereof, or Composition for the same: Provided always, that if any Legacy or Bequest shall be made in Satisfaction of any other Legacy or Bequest, or Title to any Residue, or Part of Residue, of any Personal Estate remaining unpaid, the Duty shall not be paid on both Subjects, although both may be chargeable with Duty, but shall be paid on the Subject yielding the largest Duty.

If Legatees refuse to accept Legacies, Duty deducted, the Court, in case of Suit, may order them to pay Costs;

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Execution of the Will or other Testamentary Instrument, or the Administration of the Personal Estate of any Person deceased, or any Person or Persons hereby made chargeable with Duty, shall declare himself, herself, or themselves ready and willing, and shall accordingly offer to pay any pecuniary Legacy, or Residue, or Part of Residue, deducting the Duty payable thereon, or shall in like Manner offer to deliver or otherwise dispose of any specific Legacy, or any specific Property, Part of any Residue of any Personal Estate, to or for the Benefit of the Person or Persons entitled thereto, or to any Trustee or Trustees for such Person or Persons, upon Payment of the Duty payable in respect thereof, and the Person or Persons entitled to such Legacy, or Residue, or Part of Residue, or the Trustee or Trustees for such Person or Persons, shall refuse to accept such Offer, and to give a proper Release and Discharge for such Legacy or Residue, or so much thereof as shall be offered to be paid, delivered, or otherwise disposed of as aforesaid, then and in such Case, although no actual Tender shall be made, if any Suit shall be afterwards instituted for such Legacy or Effects, respecting which such Offer shall have been made, it shall be lawful for the Court in which such Suit shall be instituted, to order all Costs, Charges, and Expences attending the same, to be paid by the Person or Persons who shall have refused to accept such Offer, and to give or join in such Release or Discharge, or to order such Costs, Charges, and Expences, to be deducted and retained out of such Legacy or Effects, together with the Duty payable thereon, as the said Court shall see fit; and in case any Suit shall be instituted for Payment of any Legacy, or Residue, or Part of Residue, of any Personal Estate, and the Person or Persons sued for the same shall be desirous of staying Proceedings in such Suit, on Payment of the Money due, or delivering, or otherwise disposing of the specific Effects demanded, after deducting or receiving the Duty payable thereon, and in Suits where the Party sued may wish to stop Proceedings on Payment of Bequests, deducting Duty, the Court may make Order therein.

it shall be lawful for the Court in which such Suit shall be instituted, if it shall see fit, on Application in a summary Way, to make such Order for Payment of such Legacy, or Residue, or Part of Residue, or for delivering or otherwise disposing of such Effects, and for Payment of the Duty payable thereon, and all such Costs, Charges, and Expences, attending such Suit as shall be just.

If Suit be instituted concerning Administration, the Court to provide for Payment of the Duty.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That if any Suit shall be instituted concerning the Administration of the Personal Estate of any Person dying testate or intestate, or any Part of such Estate in which any Direction shall be given touching the Payment of any Legacies or Legacy of such Person, or the Residue of his or her Personal Estate, or any Part thereof, the Court wherein such Suit shall be instituted shall, in giving Directions concerning the same, provide for the due Payment of the Duties hereby imposed; and in taking any Account of any Personal Estate, or otherwise acting concerning the same, such Court shall take Care that no Allowance shall be made in respect of any Legacy, or Part of Legacy, or of any Residue, or Part of Residue, in any Manner whatsoever, without due Proof of the Payment of the Duties hereby imposed.

Executors may discharge Legacies on Payment of the Duty accrued.

XXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That any Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Execution of any Will or other Testamentary Instrument, or the Administration of the Personal Estate of any Person deceased, may from Time to Time pay, deliver, or otherwise dispose of any Legacy, or any Part of any Legacy, or make Distribution of any Part of the Residue of any Personal Estate, on Payment, from Time to Time, of such Proportions of the Duty hereby imposed, as shall accrue in respect of such Part of such Personal Estate as shall be so administered.

No Legacy, liable to Duty, to be paid without a Receipt, containing certain Particulars;

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That no Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Execution of any Will or Testamentary Instrument, or the Administration of the Personal Estate of any Person deceased, nor any Trustee or Trustees, or other Person or Persons hereby directed and required to account for any Duty, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, pay, deliver, or otherwise dispose of, or in any Manner satisfy, discharge, or compund for, any Legacy whatsoever, or any Part thereof, or the Residue of any Personal Estate, or any Part thereof, in respect whereof any Duty is hereby imposed, without taking a Receipt or Discharge in Writing for the same, expressing the Date of such Receipt or Discharge, and the Names of the Testator, Testatrix, or Intestate, under whose Will or Testamentary Disposition, or upon whose Intestacy the Title to such Legacy, or Part of Legacy, or to such Residue, or Part of Residue, shall accrue, and of the Person or Persons to whom such Receipt or Discharge shall be given, and of the Person or Persons to whom such Legacy or Residue, or Part of Residue, shall have been given, or shall have belonged in consequence of Intestacy, and the Amount or Value of the Legacy or Part of Legacy, or Residue or Part of Residue, for which such Receipt or Discharge shall be given, and also the Amount and Rate of the Duty payable and allowed thereon; and that no written Receipt or Discharge for any Legacy or Part of any Legacy, or for the Residue of any Personal Estate, or any Part of such Residue, in respect whereof any Duty is hereby imposed, shall be received in Evidence, or be available in any Manner whatever, unless the same shall be stamped, as required by this Act; and no Evidence whatsoever shall be given of any Payment, Satisfaction, or Discharge whatsoever, or of any Release or Composition of such Legacy, or any Part thereof, or of such Residue, or any Part thereof, without producing such Receipt or Discharge, duly stamped as aforesaid, unless the actual Payment of the Duty hereby imposed shall first be given in Evidence: Provided always, that a Copy of the Entry, in the Books of the Commissioners of the Stamps, of the Payment of such Duty, shall be admitted as Evidence thereof: Provided also, that Payment of any Annuity shall not be deemed a Payment for which such stamped Receipt shall be required, under the Directions of this Act, except the several Payments which shall complete the Payments for each of the first four Years during which such Annuity shall be payable; and in like Manner any Payment in respect of any Legacy or Bequest, hereby directed to be charged with the Duty in the same Manner as Annuities are hereby made chargeable with Duty, shall not be deemed a Payment for which such stamped Receipt shall be required, except the several Payments which shall complete the Payments for each of the first four Years, in respect of which such Legacy or Bequest shall be chargeable with Duty as an Annuity.

Copy of Entry at Stamp Office of Payment of Duty, Evidence. Stampt Receipts for Annuities not required but on completing Payments for each of the first four Years.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That any Person having or taking the Burthen of the Execution of any Will or Testamentary Instrument, or the Administration of the Personal Estate of any Person deceased, and any Trustee or Trustees, or other Person or Persons, hereby directed and required to account for any Duty, who shall pay, deliver, or otherwise dispose of, or in any Manner satisfy or discharge, or compound for any Legacy given by such Will or Testamentary Instrument, or the Residue, or any Part of the Residue, of such Personal Estate, to or for the Benefit of any Person or Persons entitled to such Legacy, or any Part thereof, or to such Residue, or any Part thereof, without taking such Receipt or Discharge in Writing as aforesaid, and causing the same to be stamped within the Time hereby allowed for stamping the same, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of ten Pounds per Centum on the Sum of Money, or the Value of the Property if not Money, for which such Receipt or Discharge ought to have been given in pursuance of this Act; and all and every Person and Persons receiving or taking the Benefit of any such Money, or other Property, without giving a written Receipt or Discharge for the same, in which the Duty payable in respect thereof shall be expressed to have been allowed or paid to the Person or Persons to whom such Receipt or Discharge shall be given, and which shall bear Date on the Day of signing the same, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of ten Pounds per Centum on the Sum of Money, or on the Value of the Property, so received or taken.

Penalty of 10l. per Cent. for paying or receiving Legacies without stampt Receipts.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That every such Receipt or Discharge shall be brought within the Space of twenty-one Days after the Date thereof, to the said Head Office of the said Commissioners, or to some other Office to be appointed by the said Commissioners for such Purpose, to be stamped, paying the Duty for the same, and upon such Payment either at the said Head Office, or at any other Office to be appointed as aforesaid, the Receiver General or other proper Officer to be appointed for that Purpose by the said Commissioners, as the Case shall require, shall write upon such Receipt or Discharge an Acknowledgment of the Payment of the Duty so paid in Words at Length, and bearing Date the Day on which such Payment shall be made, and shall subscribe his Name thereto, and enter an Account thereof in a Book or Books to be provided for that Purpose, to the Intent that he may be thereby charged with the Sum so paid; and in case the Duty shall be so paid at the said Head Office, then the Receipt or Discharge so brought to be stamped, shall be forthwith stamped with one of the said four Stamps as the Case shall require; and in case the Duty shall be so paid at any other Office to be appointed by the said Commissioners as aforesaid, the Receipt or Discharge whereon such Acknowledgment of the Payment of Duty shall be so written and subscribed, shall be transmitted within the Space of twenty-one Days from the Day of Payment of such Duty, to the said Head Office to be stamped, and the same shall be stamped accordingly with one of the said four Stamps as the Case shall require; and in case the Person or Persons paying such Duty at any such Office to be appointed as aforesaid, shall be desirous that the same should be transmitted to the said Head Office, by the Officer to whom such Duty shall be paid, and shall leave the same with such Officer for such Purpose, such Officer shall thereupon sign and deliver an Acknowledgment, that such Receipt or Discharge has been left with him for such Purpose, and shall transmit such Receipt or Discharge to such Head Office to be stamped as aforesaid, and the same shall be sent again to such Officer as soon as conveniently may be after the stamping thereof; and such Officer shall deliver back the same to the Person or Persons entitled thereto, upon Re-delivery to him of the Acknowledgment which he shall have given for the same: Provided always, that if any such Receipt or Discharge shall not be so brought to any such Office as aforesaid, within such Space of twenty-one Days as aforesaid, it shall nevertheless be lawful to carry such Receipt or Discharge to the said Head Office to be stamped in like Manner, within three Calendar Months after the Date thereof, paying the Duty for the same, and also the further Sum of ten Pounds per Centum on such Duty, by Way of Penalty for not having before paid such Duty, on Payment of which Duty and Penalty, the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and required to stamp such Receipt or Discharge, in the same Manner as if the same had been brought to the said Office within the Space of twenty-one Days from the Date thereof; but the said Commissioners, or any of their Officers, shall not on any Pretence whatever, except as herein-after directed, stamp any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, upon which any Receipt or Discharge for any Legacy or Part of Legacy, or any Residue of any Personal Estate, or any Part thereof, shall be written or signed with the said new Stamps, or any of them, unless the Duty for the same shall be paid, and such Receipt or Discharge shall be produced to be so stamped in Manner aforesaid, within the Times and in the Manner herein-before respectively limited and appointed.

Receipts to be stampt within 21 Days after Date, on which an Acknowledgment of Payment of the Duty shall be written, &c.

Receipts may be stampt within three Months after Date, on Payment of Duty, and 10l. per Cent. Penalty; but none to be stampt unless the Duty be paid, and they are brought to be stampt within the limited Time.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That if it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties, upon Oath or Affirmation, to be administered by a Justice of the Peace, or Master or Masters Extraordinary in Chancery, which Oath or Affirmation such Persons are hereby empowered to administer, that less Duty has been paid for any Legacy, or Residue, or Part of Residue, than ought to have been paid for the same, by Mistake, without any Intention to defraud; and if Application shall be made to the said Commissioners to rectify such Mistake, and accept the Duty really due before any Suit

Mistakes in paying Duty may be rectified, if no Suit be instituted, on Payment of the Difference within three shall be instituted concerning the same, and within three Calendar Months after Payment of the Money actually paid instead of the just Duty, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to accept the Difference between the Money paid and the just Duty, together with the Sum of ten Pounds per Centum on such Difference, by Way of Penalty, in full for the just Duty, and which shall be in Discharge of all Penalties incurred by Non-payment of such Duty, and to cause an Acknowledgment of the Payment of the just Duty to be written on the Receipt or Discharge given for such Legacy or Residue or Part of Residue, and to be subscribed by the proper Officer, and also to cause such Receipt or Discharge to be properly stamped if necessary, in the same Manner as would have been done if the just Duty had been originally paid.

Persons paying or receiving Money contrary to this Act, indemnified on discovering the other Offender.

XXXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Party or Parties paying or satisfying any Legacy, or any Residue of any Personal Estate, or any Part of such Residue, or receiving the same, contrary to the Provisions of this Act, who shall, within the Space of twelve Calendar Months after the Offence committed, discover the other Party or Parties offending therein, so that such Party or Parties so discovered be thereupon convicted, such Person so discovering shall be indemnified and discharged from all Penalties incurred for any Offence against this Act.

If by Infancy or Absence Legacies cannot be paid, the Money may be paid into the Bank, and laid out in the 3l. per Cents.

XXXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where, by reason of the Infancy, or Absence beyond the Seas, of any Person entitled to any Legacy, or to the Residue of any Personal Estate, or any Part thereof, chargeable with Duty by virtue of this Act, the Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of any Will or Testamentary Instrument, or the Administration of such Personal Estate, cannot pay such Legacy or some Part thereof, although he, she, or they may have Effects for that Purpose, or cannot pay such Residue, or some Part thereof, although he, she, or they may have the same, or some Part thereof, in his, her, or their Hands, it shall be lawful for such Person or Persons to pay such Legacy, or Residue, or any Parts or Part thereof respectively, or any Sum or Sums of Money on Account thereof, after deducting the Duty chargeable thereon, into the Bank of England, with the Privity of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, to be placed to the Account of the Person or Persons for whose Benefit the same shall be so paid; for Payment of which Money the said Accountant General shall give his Certificate as usual in such Cases, on Production of the Certificate of the Commissioners of Stamps, that the Duty thereon has been duly paid; and such Payment into the Bank shall be a sufficient Discharge for the Money so paid in, provided the Duty be also paid thereon as aforesaid; and such Money when paid in shall be laid out by the said Accountant General, without any formal Request for that Purpose, in the Purchase of three Pounds per Centum Consolidated Annuities, which, with the Dividends thereon, shall be transferred and paid to the Person or Persons entitled thereto, or otherwise applied for his or their Benefit, on Application to the Court of Chancery, by Petition or Motion, in a summary Way: Provided always, that if it shall afterwards appear that such Money, or any Part thereof, has been improperly paid into the Bank as aforesaid, it shall also be lawful for the said Court of Chancery, upon Petition, in a summary Way to dispose thereof, and of the Annuities purchased therewith, and the Dividends received thereon, in such Manner as Justice shall require: Provided also, that if it shall appear that the Duty paid in respect of any such Sum of Money was more than ought to have been paid, it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons who shall have paid such Duty, to apply to the said Commissioners for Management of the Stamp Duties, to repay such Excess of Duty; and the said Commissioners are hereby authorized, upon such Application, to repay such Excess of Duty to the Person or Persons who shall appear to them entitled to receive the same, or to pay such Excess of Duty into the Bank, with the Privity of the said Accountant General for the Benefit of the Person or Persons entitled, there to be placed to the same Account, and to be applied in the same Manner as the same would have been applicable, if paid together with the Remainder of the Legacy, or Sum of Money, in respect of which the same shall have been paid; and the said Commissioners are hereby authorized to make such Payments respectively out of the Monies in their Hands, arising from Duties imposed by this Act; and if the Duty paid to the said Commissioners shall appear to be less than the Duty which ought to have been paid, it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons who paid such Money into the Bank as aforesaid, upon Payment of the full Duty to the said Commissioners, in such Manner as the same ought to be paid, with such Penalties, if any, as ought to be paid in respect thereof, to apply to the Court of Chancery, in a summary Way, for the Repayment of the further Sum paid to the said Commissioners for such Duty out of the Money in the Bank so paid in by such Person or Persons, or the Produce thereof, which Payment the said Court is hereby authorized to order.

If such Money be improperly paid in, the Chancery may dispose thereof.

If more than the proper Duty has been paid, the Commissioners for Stamps may return the Excess; and if less, on Payment of the full Duty, the Chancery may order Repayment to the Party.

If it shall appear to the Commissioners for Stamps, at the End of two Years after the Death of any Person, that it will require Time to collect the Effects, or be difficult to ascertain the Residue of the Personal Estate, the Duty may compounded for;

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That if at the End of two Years after the Death of any Person deceased, it shall appear, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties, that it will require Time to collect the Debts or Effects of such Person then outstanding, or that from Circumstances it will be difficult to ascertain or adjust the Amount of the clear Residue of the Personal Estate of such Person liable to Duty, and the Parties interested therein shall be desirous of compounding for the Duty thereon, it shall be lawful for such Parties respectively, with the Consent of the Commissioners of Stamp Duties, to make Application to the Court of Exchequer at Westminster, if the deceased Person resided in England or elsewhere, except in Scotland, and to the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, if the Deceased resided in Scotland, for Leave to compound such Duty, stating upon Oath the Particulars of the Personal Estate for which such Composition shall be proposed to be made, by Affidavit to be filed in the said Court, and declaring at the same Time upon Oath, whether any other Property of the Deceased then outstanding besides the Property for which such Composition shall be proposed to be made, hath come to the Knowledge of the said Parties, or any of them, and the Nature thereof, and the Circumstances attending the same; and in such Case it shall be lawful for the said Court of Exchequer in England or Scotland, as the Case may may be, to appoint a proper Person to set a Value on the Personal Estate, or such Part thereof, for which no Duty shall have been charged, and which shall be specified in such Affidavit as the Property for which such Composition shall be desired, and to adjust and settle the Duty which, justly and equitably under all Circumstances, ought to be paid in respect of such Personal Estate so specified, and thereupon it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby required, if the said Court of Exchequer to which such Application shall be made shall confirm the said Adjustment and Settlement, and order the Duty to be accepted accordingly, and by Authority of such Order to accept Payment of the Sum so adjusted and settled, in full Discharge of the Duty on so much of such Personal Estate as shall be so specified; and according to such Order, and to enter the same in their Books accordingly, and to grant Certificates thereof, expressing the Receipt of such Duty by way of Composition under such Order; and every such Person to whom such Certificate shall be granted, and every future Representative of the same Estate, and all Persons entitled to the Benefit of the Property for which such Composition shall be so paid, shall be discharged from any further Payment of Duty on the same; and in all future Payments of such Property, it shall be lawful for the Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Execution of any Will or Testamentary Instrument disposing such Property, or the Administration thereof, to pay, apply, and dispose of the same, and for all Persons entitled to the Benefit thereof to receive the same, without having the Receipts and Discharges in Writing, hereby required to be given and taken for the same, stamped as herein-before directed; provided such Receipts or Discharges shall express the same to be give under the Authority of such Composition as aforesaid, and not liable to Duty: Provided always nevertheless, that the Duty shall be charged and paid upon all and every Part of the Personal Estate of such Person deceased, other than that which shall be specified in such Affidavit as aforesaid, and included in the Valuation in which such Composition shall have been made as aforesaid, and for which the said Court of Exchequer shall allow and order such Composition to be taken as aforesaid, in the same Manner as if no such Composition had been made; and all and every Person and Persons shall be liable to all the like Penalties and Forfeitures for not duly paying the Duty for such Personal Estate not compounded for, and subject to the like Rules, Methods, and Directions, for charging such Duty, as such Person and Persons respectively would be liable to if such Composition had not been made.

Duty to be paid on any Part of Personal Estates not included in the Composition.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That if at any Time after Payment of Duty on any Legacy, or Residue, or Part of Residue, of the Personal Estate of any Person deceased, any Debt shall be recovered against the Estate of such deceased Person, or any Loss shall happen, by Reason whereof, or for any other just Cause, any Legatee or other Person, by whom any Legacy or Part of Legacy, or any Residue of any Personal Estate, hath been received or retained, shall be obliged to refund the same, or any Part thereof, then in every such Case it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties, and they are hereby required, on due Proof made on Oath as aforesaid, to their Satisfaction, of the Amount of such Sums refunded, and that by Reason thereof there hath been an Over payment of Duty, to settle and adjust the Amount of such Over-payment, and to repay the same out of the Money in their Hands, arising from the Duties by this Act imposed, or to allow the same in future Payments, as the Case may permit or require.

If any Legacy be refunded, the Duty to be repaid.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Execution of any Will or Testamentary Instrument, or the Administration of any Personal Estate as aforesaid, shall be entitled to any Legacy, or the Residue, or any Part of the Residue, of the Personal Estate of any Testator, Testatrix, or Intestate, such Person shall be chargeable with the Duty whenever he, she, or they shall be entitled, in the due Course of Administration, to retain to his, her, or their own Use, any Part of the said Estate, in Satisfaction of such Legacy, or Residue, or any Part thereof; and every such Person, before any such Retainer, shall transmit to the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties, or their Officers, a Note containing the Particulars of such Legacy, Residue, or Part of Residue, intended to be retained, and the Amount or Value thereof, and the Duty which such Person or Persons shall offer to pay thereon; and the said Commissioners shall charge and assess the Duty thereon, in such Manner as the Duty shall be chargeable thereon by virtue of the Provisions in this Act contained, and such Duty shall be paid accordingly; and on Payment of the said Duty, the said Receiver General of the said Duty, or Officer appointed to receive the same, shall, at the Foot of a Duplicate of the said Assessment duly stamped, in such Manner as the said Commissioners shall direct for such Purpose, give a Receipt for such Duty in such Form of Words as the said Commissioners shall direct, which Receipt shall be a Discharge for the Duty expressed therein; and in case any such Person or Persons shall neglect to pay such Duty as aforesaid, within fourteen Days after the same ought to have been paid as aforesaid, every such Person and Persons shall forfeit and pay treble the Value of the Duty which ought to have been paid.

Executors previous to retaining their Legacies to transmit the Particulars with the Duty offered, to the Commissioners of Stamps, who shall charge the same agreeable to this Act.

Penalty for Neglect of Payment of Duty for 14 Days.

XXXVI. 'And whereas Doubts have arisen upon the Construction of the said Acts of the twentieth, twenty-third, and twenty-ninth Years of his Majesty's Reign, whether the Duties thereby imposed were intended to be imposed on all Legacies, Bequests, and Dispositions by Will or Testamentary Instrument whatsoever:' Be it enacted and declared, That all Receipts and Discharges whatsoever for Legacies specific and pecuniary, and of any Nature or Kind whatsoever, and for all Personal Estate whatsoever, in any Manner given or disposed of by Will or Testamentary Instrument, whether by Way of Annuity or other particular Bequest, or by Way of Residue, or Share of Residue, or otherwise howsoever, as well as on Personal Estate, distributable upon Intestacy, except such Dispositions as shall be made by any Will or Testamentary Instrument, with respect to which the Duties imposed by the said former Acts are hereby repealed, shall be deemed and taken to be Receipts and Discharges for Legacies, within the Intent and Meaning of the said former Acts respectively; and all and every Person and Persons to whom any such Legacy, or any Part of any such Legacy, shall be due and payable at the Time of passing this Act, or who at the Time of passing this Act shall be entitled to any Residue, or Receipts for Legacies except those by Will, respecting which the Duties imposed by Acts mentioned in the Preamble, are repealed, to be deemed Receipts within the Meaning of those Acts; and such Receipts to be given for Legacies due at passing this Act, and for Legacies becoming due afterwards, on which no Duty is hereby imposed.

or any Share or Part of any Residue, of any Personal Estate, under any such Will or Testamentary Instrument, or upon Intestacy, and also all and every Person and Persons who shall become entitled to any Legacy, or Residue, or Part of Residue, of any such Personal Estate, after the passing of this Act, upon which no Duty is imposed by this Act, and upon which the Duties imposed by the said former Act remain in Force and unrepealed, shall, upon Receipt or other Satisfaction or Discharge of any such Legacy, or Part of such Legacy, or Residue or Part of such Residue, sign and give a Receipt or Discharge in Writing, duly stamped as required by the said former Acts respectively; and the Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Execution of any Will or other Testamentary Instrument, or the Administration of any Personal Estate, shall have the like Powers to require such Receipt or Discharge in Writing, and to retain the Duty payable in respect thereof, and the Person and Persons paying, or otherwise satisfying or discharging, and the Person or Persons receiving, or being otherwise satisfied for such Legacy, or Residue, or Part of Residue, shall be in like Manner Debtors for the Duty imposed on such Receipt or Discharge in case of Non-payment of such Duty, and to the like Penalties for enforcing due Payment thereof, as by this Act are provided with respect to the Duties hereby imposed on Legacies, and Residue of Personal Estate of Persons dying after the passing of this Act.

If Administration be made void, and any Duty shall have been improperly paid, it shall be repaid; but if it ought to have been paid, it shall be allowed in Account with the rightful Executor.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That if the Authority under or by colour of which any Person shall have administered the Estate or Effects of any Person deceased, or any Part thereof, shall be void, or be repealed, or declared void, and such Person shall, before the Avoidance, Repeal, or Declaration of Avoidance, have paid any Duty hereby imposed, or any Duty imposed by any of the said former Acts, which shall not be allowed to such Person out of the Estate or Effects of such deceased Person, by reason that the same Duty was not really due or payable, the Money paid for such Duty shall, on Proof thereof to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties, be repaid to the Person or Persons who shall have paid the same, or his, her, or their Representatives, by the said Commissioners, out of any Monies in their Hands arising from the Duties imposed by this Act, or the said former Acts; but in case such Duty ought to have been paid by the rightful Executor or Executors, Administrator or Administrators, of such deceased Person, then and in such Case the Payment of such Duty shall be valid and effectual, notwithstanding such Avoidance, Repeal, or Declaration of Avoidance as aforesaid; and no such Person shall, by reason of the Avoidance, Repeal, or Declaration of Avoidance of such Authority, be sued, molested, or troubled for or in respect of such Payment; but all such Payments, in respect of the said Duty, shall be allowed in Account with such rightful Executor or Executors, Administrator or Administrators, and the same shall be deemed Payments in the due Course of Administration, as fully and effectually as if such Payments had been made by rightful Executors or Administrators; any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Persons swearing falsely, guilty of Perjury.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons, upon any Oath or Affirmation before the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties, or Commissioners of Land Tax, or any Person or Persons authorized by this Act to administer any such Oath or Affirmation, shall wilfully and corruptly swear, affirm, or alledge any Matter or Thing which shall be false or untrue, with Intent to defraud his Majesty of any of the said Duties hereby imposed, or with Intent to charge any Person or Persons with any greater or other Duty than such Person or Persons ought to be charged with, every such Person or Persons so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be, and is and are hereby declared to be subject and liable to such Pains and Penalties as by any Law now in being, any Person convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury is subject and liable to.

Penalty of 500l. for altering Receipts.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall alter any Word, Letter, Figure, or Number, in any Assessment or Receipt to be made or given in pursuance of this Act, for any of the said Duties after the same shall have been signed by the Officer appointed to sign the same, according to the Direction of this Act, or shall utter or publish as true any such altered Assessment or Receipt, with Intent to defraud his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or any other Person or Persons, then and in such Case every Person so altering, uttering, or publishing as aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of five hundred Pounds.

Persons forging Stamps, &c. to suffer Death.

XL. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person shall counterfeit or forge or procure to be counterfeited or forged, any Stamp directed or allowed to be used or provided, made or used, in pursuance of this Act, or shall counterfeit or resemble the Impression of the same upon any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, with Intention to defraud his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or shall utter, vend, sell, or expose to Sale, any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, liable to the said Duty, with such counterfeit Impression thereupon, knowing the same to be counterfeited, or shall privately or fraudulently use any Stamp directed or allowed to be used by this Act, with Intent to defraud his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, of the said Duty, every Person so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged a Felon, and shall suffer Death as in case of Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

Receipts duly stamped, free from all other Duties.

XLI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That every Receipt or Discharge for any Legacy, or any Part of any Legacy, or for any Residue, or Part of Residue, of any Personal Estate, which shall be duly stamped as required by this Act, shall be free and discharged from all Stamp Duties imposed by the said recited Acts, or by any other Act of Parliament upon Receipts or Discharges for Money; and that every such Receipt or Discharge which shall be duly stamped as required by the said recited Acts, and upon which no new Duty is imposed by this Act, shall be also free and discharged from any Stamp Duty imposed by any other Act upon Receipts or Discharges for Money.

Powers of former Acts relating to Stamps, to extend to this Act.

XLII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Powers, Provisoes, Articles, Clauses, Allowances, and all Matters and Things prescribed or appointed by any former Act or Acts of Parliament, relating to the Stamp Duties on Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, and not hereby altered, shall be of full Force and Effect with relation to the Duties hereby imposed, and shall be applied and put in Execution for the raising, levying, collecting, and securing the said Duties hereby imposed, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had severally and respectively been hereby re-enacted, with relation to the said Duties hereby imposed.

Recovery and Application of Penalties sued for within three Months.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That one Moiety of all pecuniary Penalties and Forfeitures hereby imposed, where no other Mode of Prosecution is specially prescribed by this Act, shall, if sued for within the Space of three Calendar Months from the Time of any such Penalty or Forfeiture being incurred, be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; and the other Moiety thereof, with full Costs of Suit, to the Person or Persons who shall inform or sue for the same within the Time aforesaid, and which shall and may be sued for in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, for Offences committed in England, or in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland, for Offences committed in Scotland, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Essoin, Privilege, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance shall be allowed; but nevertheless it shall be lawful for his Majesty's Attorney General in England, or his Majesty's Advocate in Scotland, in case it shall appear to his Satisfaction that such Penalty was incurred without any Intention of Fraud, to stop all further Proceedings, by entering a nolle prosequi, or otherwise, with respect as well to the Share of such Penalty claimed by such Informer or Informers, as to the Share thereof belonging to his Majesty.

Suits for Penalties incurred without Intention of Fraud, may be stopped.

Recovery and Application of Penalties not sued for within three Months.

XLIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in Default of Prosecution within the Time herein-before limited, no such Penalty or Forfeiture shall be afterwards recoverable, except in the Name of his Majesty's Attorney General in England, and of his Majesty's Advocate in Scotland, by Information in the Court of Exchequer in England or Scotland respectively, in which Case the Whole of such Penalty or Forfeiture shall belong to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; and that all Penalties and Forfeitures, and Shares of Penalties and Forfeitures, incurred as aforesaid, belonging to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall be paid into the Hands of the Receiver General of his Majesty's Stamp Duties for the Time being, any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding; and that in all Cases where the Whole of such pecuniary Penalties or Forfeitures shall be recovered to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to cause such Reward as they shall think fit, not exceeding one Moiety of such Penalty or Forfeiture so recovered, after deducting all Charges and Expences incurred in recovering the same, to be paid thereout to or amongst any Person or Persons who shall appear to them entitled thereto as Informers, in respect of such Penalties or Forfeitures so recovered; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Commissioners of Stamps may reward Informers.

Duties to be paid to the Receiver General of Stamp Duties, and by him paid into the Exchequer.

XLV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies arising from the said Duties herein-before granted, and also the Duties arising from the said former Acts of the twentieth, twenty-third, and twenty-ninth Years aforesaid, NOT hereby repealed, and all Arrears of the said Rates and Duties hereby repealed, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be paid from Time to Time into the Hands of the Receiver General for the Time being of the Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, who shall pay the same (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same being deducted) into his Majesty's Receipt of Exchequer at Westminster, at such Time and in such Manner as other Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, are directed to be paid, and the same shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund.

Exchequer to set apart a Proportion of the Duties for 10 Years, and the Remainder to be applied in defraying any increased Charge occasioned by any Loan of this Session, and kept with other Duties granted for the same Purpose separate from other Monies.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, out of the Monies that shall be paid into the said Receipt of the said Duties hereby imposed, and of the said former Duties not hereby repealed, and Arrears of Duties hereby repealed, the Sum of ten thousand two hundred and sixty-nine Pounds fifteen Shillings, being one fourth Part of the Sum of forty-one thousand and seventy-nine Pounds, the annual Average Produce for three Years, ending the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, of the Whole of the said former Duties, shall quarterly, on the fifth Day of July, the tenth Day of October, the fifth Day of January, and the fifth Day of April, in every Year, during the Period of ten Years, be set apart from the Remainder of the said Monies; and that after the setting apart at the said Receipt of Exchequer at the End of each such Quarter, the Sum of ten thousand two hundred and sixty-nine Pounds fifteen Shillings, the said Remainder of the said Monies arising or to arise of the said several Duties, and of Arrears as aforesaid, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient, shall be deemed an Addition made to the Revenue for the Purpose of defraying the increased Charge occasioned by any Loan made by virtue of any Act or Acts to be passed in this Session of Parliament; and that the said Remainder of the said Monies shall, during the Space of ten Years next ensuing, be paid into the said Receipt distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Public Revenue; and that there shall be provided and kept, at the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt, during the said Period of ten Years, a Book or Books, in which the said Remainder of the Monies arising from the said Duties, and paid into the said Receipt, shall, together with the Monies arising from any other Rates or Duties granted in this Session of Parliament for the Purpose of defraying such increased Charges as aforesaid, be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, on any Account whatever.

Limitation of Actions.

General Issue.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought or commenced against any Person or Persons for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, then and in every such Case the said Action or Suit shall be commenced within six Calendar Months after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and shall be brought in the County or Place where the Cause of Action shall arise, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit to be brought, may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the Authority of this Act; and if it shall appear to be so done, or if any such Action or Suit shall be brought after the Time before limited for bringing the same, or shall be brought in any other County, City, or Place, than as aforesaid, then and in every such Case the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and if upon such Verdict, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuit, or discontinue his, her, or their Action, or if a Verdict shall pass against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, or if, upon Demurrer, Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall and may recover Treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have for Costs of Suit in other Cases by Law.

CAP. LIII.

An Act for indemnifying all Persons who have been concerned in advising or carrying into Execution an Order of His Majesty in Council respecting the Exportation of Rock Salt; for preventing Suits in consequence of the same; for authorizing His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation or carrying coastwise of Rock Salt; and for making further Provisions relative thereto.—[26th April 1796.]

Order in Council of Aug. 12, and Dec. 30, 1795, and Feb. 12, and March 16, 1796, respecting Rock Salt, recited.

'WHEREAS his Majesty, by an Order in Council bearing Date the twelfth Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, was pleased to order that no Person or Persons whatsoever 'should, from and after the Publication of the said Order until the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, directly or indirectly, export, transport, carry, or convey, or cause or 'procure to be exported, transported, carried, or conveyed out of or from any Port or Place in Great Britain, 'or load or lay on board, or cause or procure to be laden or laid on board of any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, in order 'to be exported, transported, carried, or conveyed, out of any Port or Place in Great Britain, any Sort of 'Rock Salt whatsoever; which Order was, by three Orders of his Majesty in Council, bearing Date respectively the thirtieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, the twelfth Day of February 'and the sixteenth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, further continued for the Space 'of four Weeks, to commence from the eighteenth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six: 'And whereas the said Orders cannot be justified by Law, but were expedient for the Service of the Public, 'and for preventing the Supply of a necessary Article to his Majesty's Enemies, and ought therefore to be 'justified by an Act of Parliament; and all Persons issuing, advising, or acting under or in Obedience to 'the said Orders respectively indemnified:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all personal Actions or Suits, Indictments, Informations, and all Prosecutions and Proceedings whatsoever, which have been or shall be prosecuted or commenced against any Person or Persons for or by reason of any Act, Matter, or Thing advised, commanded, appointed, or done, or forborne to be done, in relation to the said Orders, or of any Contract or Agreement not performed by Reason or Means of or in Obedience to such Orders, be, are, and shall be discharged and made void by virtue of this Act; and that if any Action or Suit shall be prosecuted or commenced against any Person or Persons for or by reason of any such Act, Matter, or Thing so advised, commanded, appointed, or done, or forborne to be done, or such Contract or Agreement not performed, he, she, or they may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, in any Action or Suit so to be prosecuted or commenced after the eleventh Day of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, in that Part of Great Britain called England, shall become Nonsuit, or forbear further Prosecution, or suffer Discontinuance, or if a Verdict pass against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall recover his, her, or their Double Costs, for which he, she, or they shall have the like Remedy as in Cases where Costs by Law are given to the Defendant; and if any such Action or Suit shall be commenced or prosecuted, after the said eleventh Day of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, the Court before whom such Action or Suit shall be commenced or prosecuted, shall allow to the Defender the Benefit of the Discharge and Indemnity hereby provided, and shall further allow to him his Double Costs of Suit, in all such Cases as aforesaid.

Suits for any Matter advised or done in relation to the said Orders made void, and Persons prosecuted may plead the General Issue.

In Actions commenced or prosecuted after Feb. 11, 1796, Defenda ts to have Double Costs.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action or Suit hath been already commenced against any Person or Persons for any such Act, Matter, or Thing, so advised, commanded, appointed, or done, or forborne to be done, or on account of any such Contract or Agreement not performed, it shall and may be lawful for the Defendants or Defenders in such Actions or Suits respectively, in whatever Courts in Great Britain such Actions or Suits shall have been commenced, to apply to such Court or Courts respectively, to stay all Proceedings therein respectively, by Motion in a summary Way; and such Court or Courts are hereby required to make Order for that Purpose accordingly; and the Court or Courts making such Order shall award and allow to the Defendants or Defenders respectively Double Costs of Suit, for which they shall respectively have the like Remedy as in Cases where the Costs are by Law given to Defendants or Defenders.

Defendants in Actions already commenced may apply to the Courts to have them stayed, &c.

III. And be it further enacted, That his Majesty may, by Proclamation or Order in Council, when he shall see Cause, and for such Time as shall be therein expressed, prohibit the exporting or carrying coastwise, or the attempting to export or carry coastwise, any Sort of Rock Salt whatsoever.

His Majesty may prohibit the exporting or carrying coastwise Rock Salt,

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all Rock Salt whatsoever which shall be exported, transported, carried, or conveyed, or laden or laid on board of any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, in order to be exported, transported, carried or conveyed out of any Port or Place in Great Britain, or coastwise, contrary to any such Proclamation of his Majesty, or Order of his Majesty in Council, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs; and all and every Person or Persons offending therein shall forfeit treble the Value of any such Rock Salt as shall be so exported, transported, carried or conveyed out of this Kingdom, or coastwise, or laden or laid on board of any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, for either of those Purposes; and such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, together with her Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle, and Apparel, shall be forfeited, and the same shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs: Provided always, that his Majesty may by Special Licence under his Sign Manual, or by any such Order in Council or Proclamation, make such Exception with respect to the Exportation or carrying coastwise of any Sort of Rock Salt whatsoever, and such Regulations concerning the Manner of exporting or carrying the same coastwise, as to him, with the Advice of his Privy Council, shall appear to be proper, specifying the Quantities of the said Rock Salt, and also the Place or Places to and from which the same shall or may be so exported or carried coastwise.

and if exported or shipped for that Purpose, forfeited.

Offenders to forfeit treble the Value, and the Vessels may be seized.

His Majesty in Council may permit Rock Salt to be exported or carried coastwise.

V. And be it further enacted, That any Part of this Act may be altered, varied, or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

This Act may be altered or repealed this Session.

CAP. LIV.

An Act to amend an Act, made in the thirtieth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the more effectual Preservation of the Game in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; and for repealing and amending several of the Laws now in being relative thereto—[26th April 1796.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the thirteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the more effectual Preservation of the Game in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; and for repealing and amending several of the Laws now in being relative thereto; whereby it is among other Things enacted, that every Person who shall wilfully take, kill, destroy, carry, sell, buy, or have in his or her Possession, or use any Partridge, between the first Day of February and the first Day of September, in any Year, shall incur certain Penalties and Forfeitures, by the said Act laid and imposed: And whereas

13 Geo. III. Cap. 54. recited,

'the searching for, taking and killing of Partridges, so early in the Year as the first Day of September, has been 'found very prejudicial to the Corn then growing or uncut, or cut and not carried:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, so much of the said Act as relates to the wilfully taking, killing, destroying, carrying, selling, buying, having, or using, any Partridge, before the first Day of September in any Year, shall be, and the same is hereby declared to be repealed.

and so much as relates to killing Partridge before Sept. 1, repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, every Person who shall wilfully take, kill, destroy, carry, sell, buy, or have in his or her Possession, or use, within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, any Partridge, between the first Day of February and the fourteenth Day of September in any Year, shall be liable to and incur the same Penalties and Forfeitures, as by the said Act are laid and imposed on every Person wilfully taking, killing, destroying, carrying, selling, buying, having, or using, any Partridge, between the first Day of February and the first Day of September, in every Year; such Penalties and Forfeitures to be imposed, inflicted, applied, and disposed of, in such and the same Manner, and under such and the same Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, as in and by the said Act is provided and directed.

Persons taking Partridge, &c. between Feb. 1 and Sept. 14, liable to Penalties of recited Act.

CAP. LVI.

An Act for amending an Act, made in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for allowing Bounties, for a limited Time, on the Importation into Great Britain, of any Wheat, Wheat Flour, Indian Corn, Indian Meal, or Rye, in British Ships, or other Ships, the Property of Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, or on the Delivery of the same out of Warehouse for Home Consumption. [26th April 1796.]

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for allowing 'Bounties for a limited Time, on the Importation into Great Britain, of any Wheat, Wheat Flour, 'Indian Corn, Indian Meal, or Rye, in British Ships, or other Ships, the Property of Persons of any Kingdom 'or State in Amity with his Majesty, or on the Delivery of the same out of Warehouse for Home Consumption, 'it is directed, that none of the Bounties thereby granted shall be paid or allowed, unless the said Wheat, 'and other Articles, shall be imported into some one of the Ports therein mentioned: And whereas it is 'necessary

'necessary and expedient, that other Ports should have the like Benefits extended to them;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, upon the Importation into the Ports of Barnstaple, Biddeford, Bridgewater, Bridport, Cardiff, Cardigan, Carnarvon, Fowey, Newhaven, Scarborough, Shoreham, Weymouth, Borrowstoness, Perth, Grangemouth, and Port Dundas, or the taking out of Warehouse of any Wheat or other Articles mentioned and described in the said Act, the Importer or Proprietor thereof shall be entitled to and shall receive the like Bounty as if such Wheat, or other Articles, had been imported into any of the Ports mentioned in the said Act. Bounties granted by recited Act on Wheat, &c. imported, extended to certain other Ports,

II. Provided always, That the said Wheat, and other Articles, so imported or taken out of Warehouse, shall be subject and liable to the like Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, and Provisions, as if the same had been imported into any of the Ports mentioned in the said recited Act, or had been taken out of Warehouse in pursuance thereof. subject to the like Rules.

CAP. LVII.

An Act to indemnify such Persons as have omitted to qualify themselves for Offices and Employments; and to indemnify Justices of the Peace, or others, who have omitted to register or deliver in their Qualifications within the Time limited by Law, and for giving further Time for those Purposes; and to indemnify Members and Officers, in Cities, Corporations, and Borough Towns, whose Admissions have been omitted to be stamped according to Law, or having been stamped, have been lost or mislaid, and for allowing them Time to provide Admissions duly stamped; to give further Time to such Persons as have omitted to make and file Affidavits of the Execution of Indentures of Clerks to Attornies and Solicitors; and for indemnifying Deputy Lieutenants and Officers of the Militia, who have neglected to transmit Descriptions of their Qualifications to the Clerks of the Peace within the Time limited by Law, and for allowing further Time for that Purpose.—[26th April 1796.]

CAP. LVIII.

An Act to continue the Laws now in force for regulating the Trade between the Subjects of his Majesty's Dominions and the Inhabitants of the Territories belonging to the United States of America, so far as the same relate to the Trade and Commerce carried on between this Kingdom and the Inhabitants of the Countries belonging to the said United States.—[26th April 1796.]

'WHEREAS an Act was made in the twenty-third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for preventing certain Instruments from being required from Ships belonging to the United 'States of America; and to give to his Majesty, for a limited Time, certain Powers for the better carrying 'on Trade and Commerce between the Subjects of his Majesty's Dominions and the Inhabitants of the said 'United States; which said Act has been continued, by several subsequent Acts, until the fifth Day of April 'one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six: And whereas by an Act, made in the twenty-fourth Year of 'his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to extend the Powers of an Act, made in the twenty-third 'Year of his present Majesty, "for giving his Majesty certain Powers for the better carrying on Trade and "Commerce between the Subjects of his Majesty's Dominions and the Inhabitants of the United States of "America," to the Trade and Commerce of this Kingdom with the British Colonies and Plantations in America, 'with respect to certain Articles therein mentioned; the Powers given by the said recited Act were extended to 'the Trade and Intercourse between this Kingdom and the British Colonies and Plantations in America, so 'far as the same might relate to Iron, Hemp, and Sail-cloth, and other Articles of the Produce of any Place 'bordering on the Baltic, which might be exported from this Kingdom; which said last mentioned Act has 'also, by several subsequent Acts, been continued until the said fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred 'and ninety-six: And whereas it is expedient that the said Act of the twenty-third Year of his present 'Majesty's Reign, so far only as the same extends to the Trade and Commerce carried on between this 'Kingdom and the People and Territories belonging to the United States of America; and also that the said 'Act of the twenty-fourth Year of his Majesty's Reign should be further continued; may it therefore 'please your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Act of the twenty-third Year of his present Majesty's Reign, so far only as the same extends to the Trade and Commerce carried on between this Kingdom and the People and Territories belonging to the United States of America; and that the said Act, made in the twenty-fourth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, and all the Matters and Things therein contained, shall continue and be in force until the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and no longer. 23 Geo. III. Cap. 39. 24 Geo. III. Cap. 45. 23 Geo. III. Cap. 39. so far as relates to the Commerce between this Kingdom and the United States of America, and 24 Geo. III. Cap. 45. to continue in force till April 5, 1797.

II. And be it further enacted, That if any Iron, Hemp, Sail-cloth, or other Articles of the Produce of any Place bordering on the Baltic, which may be lawfully exported from this Kingdom, shall be exported from hence in any other Manner than such as is or shall be allowed by any Law now in force, or which shall hereafter Articles from any Place bordering on the Baltic, which may be exported from this Kingdom, if exported contrary to Law, and Goods imported from the United States of America, and not permitted by Law, and also Goods imported from these States contrary to Law, to be forfeited.

hereafter be in force, or by Order of his Majesty in Council; or if any Goods or Commodities whatever shall be imported from any of the Territories of the United States of America, into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, other than such as by any Law now in force, or which shall hereafter be in force, or by virtue of this present Act, or by Order of his Majesty in Council, now are, or hereafter shall be permitted to be imported; or if any Goods or Commodities shall be imported from the Territories of the said United States of America into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, in any other Manner whatever than such as is or shall be allowed by any Law now in force, or which shall hereafter be in force, or by Order of his Majesty in Council, the same shall be forfeited, together with the Ship or Vessel in which such Goods or Commodities shall respectively be exported or imported, and all the Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle, and Apparel, belonging thereto.

How Forfeitures are to be recovered and applied.

III. And be it further enacted, That every Forfeiture incurred by virtue of this Act shall and may be sued for, prosecuted, and recovered, by such and the like Ways, Means, and Methods, and the Produce thereof disposed of, paid, and applied, in such and the like Manner, and to such and the like Uses and Purposes, as any Forfeiture incurred by any Law respecting the Revenue of Customs may now be sued for, prosecuted, and recovered in the Places where respectively the Offence shall be committed; and that the Produce thereof shall be disposed of, paid, and applied in like Manner, in the said Places respectively; any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Act to continue in force till April 5, 1797; but may be repealed this Session.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue and be in force until the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and no longer.

V. And be it further enacted, That this Act, or any Part thereof, may be altered, varied, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. LIX.

An Act for the more effectual Execution of several Acts of Parliament, made for the Trials of controverted Elections, or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament.

[26th April 1796.]

30 Geo. III. Cap. 16.

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the tenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to regulate the Trials of controverted Elections, or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament, it is enacted, That at the Time appointed for taking any Petition, complaining of an undue Election or Return of a Member or Members to serve in Parliament, into Consideration, and previous to the reading the Order of the Day for that Purpose, the House shall be counted, and that if there be less than one hundred Members present, the Order for taking such Petition into Consideration shall be immediately adjourned to a particular Hour on the following Day, as therein mentioned, and the House shall then adjourn to the said Day; and that on the said following Day the House shall proceed in the same Manner; and so from Day to Day till there be an Attendance of one hundred Members at the reading the Order of the Day to take such Petition into Consideration: And whereas by an Act, passed in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, for explaining and amending the said Act, it is enacted, That if at the Time of drawing by Lot the Names of the Members, in Manner prescribed by the said former Act, the Number of forty-nine Members, not set aside nor excused, cannot be completed, the House shall proceed in the Manner they are directed by the said former Act to proceed, in case there be less than one hundred Members present at the Time therein prescribed for counting the House; and so from Day to Day, as often as the Case shall happen: And whereas by an Act, passed in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to limit the Duration of Polls and Scrutinies, and for making other Regulations touching the Election of Members to serve in Parliament for Places within England and Wales, and for Berwick upon Tweed, and also for removing Difficulties which may arise for Want of Returns being made of Members to serve in Parliament; and by one other Act, made in the twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the further Regulation of the Trials of controverted Elections, or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament, it is enacted, That Petitions complaining of the Omission, or of the Insufficiency of a Return to any Writ issued for the Election of any Member or Members to serve in Parliament, and also the Petitions of any Person or Persons desiring to oppose any Right of Election, or the Right of chusing, nominating, or appointing, any Returning Officer or Returning Officers, which shall have been deemed valid by the Determination of any Select Committee, shall be taken into Consideration, tried and determined, in the same Manner as Petitions complaining of undue Elections and Returns are directed to be taken into Consideration, tried, and determined, by the said Acts passed in the tenth and eleventh Years of the Reign of his present Majesty: And whereas it is expedient that further Provision should be made for preventing Delay in the Appointment of any such Select Committee, to be appointed for the Purposes aforesaid, any or either of them:' Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if, after counting of the House in the Manner beforementioned, there be less than one hundred Members present, or if the forty-nine Members, nor set aside nor excused, cannot be completed, it shall and may be lawful for the House, (after the

11 Geo. III. Cap. 42.

25 Geo. III. Cap. 84. and

28 Geo. III. Cap. 52. recited.

If, after counting the House, according to the Order or Orders for taking any such Petition or Petitions into Consideration shall have been adjourned to a particular Hour, on the following or such other Day as in the said Act is directed,) to proceed (in like Manner as they might have proceeded if there had been no Order or Orders for taking any such Petition or Petitions into Consideration on that Day) upon any Order of the Day for the Call of the House, which shall have been previously fixed for that Day, and to direct that the House, in pursuance of such Order, be then called over, if they shall so think fit, or to direct that such Order of the Day for a Call of the House shall be adjourned to such future Day as they shall appoint, and in either of such Cases to come to such Resolutions, and to make such Orders relating thereto, as are usually at any Time made in such Cases, or as to them shall seem meet; and in case no Order of the Day for a Call of the House shall have been previously fixed for that Day, then that it shall and may be lawful for the House to order that the House shall be called over on such future Day as they shall appoint, and to make such Orders relating thereto as they shall think necessary, and in any Case to make such other Orders as to them shall seem expedient for enforcing the Attendance of the Members on the Business of the House; and that the House shall then adjourn to the same Day to which such Order or Orders shall have been adjourned, and so from Time to Time, as Occasion shall require; and in case no such Proceedings with respect to any Call of the House, or other the Matters before mentioned shall take place, or if in the Course of those Proceedings the House shall be adjourned for want of Members, the House shall be deemed and taken, and shall be declared to be adjourned to the same Day to which such Order or Orders shall have been adjourned: Provided always, that in case the forty-nine Members, not set aside nor excused, cannot be completed, it shall not be lawful for the House to proceed upon any of the Matters before mentioned, until the Door of the House is unlocked, and the Parties, their Counsel and Agents, are withdrawn from the Bar.

first recited Act, there be not 100 Members present, or if 49, not set aside nor excused, cannot be completed, the House may proceed upon any Order of the Day for the Call of the House, &c.; but if such 49 Members cannot be completed, the House not to proceed until the Door is unlocked, and the Parties, &c. withdrawn.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the House shall not, on any Day when any such Petition or Petitions shall be ordered to be taken into Consideration, proceed to any other Business (other than such as may, by virtue of any Act of Parliament, be proceeded on previous to the reading of the Order of the Day for taking any such Petition or Petitions into Consideration) until there be an Attendance of one hundred Members, or until the Number of forty-nine Members, not set aside nor excused, shall be completed, other than and except to the calling over of the House, adjourning such Call, or ordering a Call of the House on a future Day, and making such Orders relative thereto as they shall think fit, or such other Orders as to them shall seem expedient for enforcing the Attendance of the Members on the Business of the House, in the Manner before mentioned.

When Petitions are to be taken into Consideration, the House not to proceed to other Business until there be due Attendance, except calling over the House, &c.

CAP. LX.

An Act to regulate the making and vending of Metal Buttons; and to prevent the Purchasers thereof from being deceived in the real Quality of such Buttons.

"WHEREAS the manufacturing and vending of Gilt and Plated Buttons has for many Years been a great, and till of late an increasing Branch of Trade in this Kingdom; and great Quantities of such Goods have been sent to Foreign Markets: And whereas it hath been discovered that certain deceitful and fraudulent Practices have been and may be used in the making and vending of such Buttons, particularly by the stamping or marking of Metal Buttons, being neither gilt or plated, with the Word Gilt or Plated, or with other Words or Marks intimating that the same were gilt or plated, to the Intent that the same might pass for, and be sold as and for Gilt and Plated Buttons; or by marking Metal Buttons of an inferior Quality, or being slightly gilt, with Words or Marks intimating that the same were Strongly Gilt, or Extra Strongly Gilt, to the great Injury of the Purchasers thereof, and of the fair Trader; and by which the Use and Wear of Gilt and Plated Buttons is greatly diminished, both at Home and abroad, and this valuable Manufacture may ultimately be lost to this Country:' Therefore, for preventing and punishing such fraudulent and pernicious Practices, be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by and with the Authority of the same, That, from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, no Person or Persons, who shall order or apply for any Metal Buttons of or from any Manufacturer or Maker of Buttons, shall order or direct the Words Gilt or Plated, or any other Word, Letter, Figure, Mark, or Device, indicating the Quality, to be printed, cast, stamped, or marked, in or upon any Part of such Buttons, or order or direct any Word, Letter, Figure, Mark, or Device, whether the same do or do not indicate the Quality, to be printed, cast, stamped, or marked in or upon the Underside of such Buttons, unless such Person or Persons do and shall at the same Time order and direct such Buttons to be gilt with Gold, or plated with Silver respectively; and that no Person or Persons shall procure or purchase, or cause to be procured or purchased, any Metal Buttons, not being gilt with Gold, or plated with Silver respectively, having the Words Gilt or Plated, or any other Word, Letter, Figure, Mark, or Device, indicating the Quality, printed, cast, stamped, or marked thereon, or having any Word, Letter, Figure, Mark, or Device, whether the same do or do not indicate the Quality, printed, cast, stamped, or marked, on the Underside thereof, knowing the same not to be gilt with Gold, or plated with Silver respectively, on Pain of forfeiting, in every of the Cases aforesaid, such Buttons, together with the Sum of five Pounds for any Quantity of such Buttons not exceeding twelve Dozen; and for any Quantity of such Buttons exceeding twelve Dozen, at and after the Rate of one Pound for every twelve Dozen; to be levied, recovered, and applied, in Manner hereinafter mentioned.

No Marks to be used but such as truly express the real Quality of the Buttons.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said first Day of August, no Person or Persons shall print, cast, stamp, or mark, or cause, direct, or procure to be printed, cast, stamped, or marked, in or upon any Part of any Metal Button or Buttons, the Words Gilt or Plated, or any other Word, Letter, Figure, Mark, or Device, indicating the Quality, or any Word, Letter, Figure, Mark, or Device, on the Underside thereof, whether the same do or do not indicate the Quality, unless the same be respectively really and bona fide plated with Silver, before the same shall be so printed, cast, stamped, or marked as aforesaid, or afterwards gilt with Gold, or destroyed before being sold; and that no Person or Persons shall put, place, or affix, or cause, direct, or procure to be put, placed, or affixed, upon any Metal Button or Buttons, having the Words Gilt or Plated, or any other Word, Letter, Figure, Mark, or Device, indicating the Quality, on any Part of such Button or Buttons, or any Word, Letter, Figure, Mark, or Device, on the Underside thereof, whether the same do or do not indicate the Quality, any Ornament or Ornaments whatsoever, unless those Parts of such Button or Buttons which shall not be covered by such Ornament or Ornaments be respectively really and bona fide plated with Silver, or gilt with Gold, before such Ornament or Ornaments shall be put, placed, or affixed upon such Button or Buttons; and that no Person or Persons shall put, place, or pack, or cause, direct, or procure to be put, placed, or packed for Sale, in or upon any Card or Cards, Paper or Papers, or other Substance, or sell, or expose or offer to Sale, or cause, direct, or procure to be sold or exposed, or offered to Sale, any Metal Buttons, not being gilt with Gold, or plated with Silver respectively, if the Words Gilt or Plated, or any other Word, Letter, Figure, Mark, or Device, indicating the Quality of such Buttons be printed, cast, stamped, or marked, in or upon any Part of such Buttons, or upon such Card or Cards, (not being the Pattern Card or Pattern Cards,) Paper or Papers, or other Substance; or if any Word, Letter, Figure, Mark, or Device, be printed, cast, stamped, or marked, on the Underside of such Buttons, whether the same do or do not indicate the Quality, knowing the same not to be gilt with Gold, or plated with Silver respectively; upon Pain of forfeiting, in every of the Cases aforesaid, such Buttons, together with the Sum of five Pounds for any Quantity of such Buttons exceeding one Dozen, and not exceeding twelve Dozen; and for any Quantity of such Buttons exceeding twelve Dozen, at and after the Rate of one Pound for every twelve Dozen; to be levied, recovered, and applied, in Manner hereinafter mentioned.

To restrain Persons from marking any other than the Words "Gilt" or "Plated" upon Metal Buttons.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said first Day of August no Person or Persons shall print, cast, stamp, or mark, or cause, direct, or procure to be printed, cast, stamped, or marked, in or upon any Part of any Metal Button or Buttons, any Word, Letter, Figure, Mark, or Device, indicating or purporting to indicate the Quality thereof, save and except the Words "Gilt" or "Plated" respectively; and that no Person or Persons shall put, place, or pack, or cause, direct, or procure to be put, placed, or packed for Sale, in or upon any Card or Cards, (except the Pattern Card or Pattern Cards,) Paper or Papers, or other Substance or Parcel, or expose or offer to Sale, or cause, direct, or procure to be sold, or exposed or offered to Sale, any Metal Buttons having any Word, Letter, Figure, Mark, or Device, indicating or purporting to indicate the Quality thereof, other than and except the Words "Gilt" or "Plated" respectively, printed, cast, stamped, or marked, in or upon any Part thereof, upon Pain of forfeiting in every of the Cases aforesaid such Buttons, together with the Sum of five Pounds for any Quantity of such Buttons exceeding one Dozen, and not exceeding twelve Dozen; and for any Quantity of such Buttons exceeding twelve Dozen, at and after the Rate of one Pound for every twelve Dozen, to be levied, recovered, and applied, in Manner hereinafter mentioned.

Where Persons may mark the Words "Double Gilt," and "Treble Gilt," upon Metal Buttons.

IV. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to inflict any Fine, Penalty, Forfeiture, or Punishment, upon any Person or Persons who shall print, cast, stamp, or mark, or cause or procure to be printed, cast, stamped, or marked, the Words "Double Gilt" in or upon any Metal Buttons, or put, place, or pack, or cause, direct, or procure, to be put, placed, or packed, for Sale, in or upon any Card or Cards, (except the Pattern Card or Pattern Cards,) Paper or Papers, or other Substance or Parcel, or expose or offer to Sale, or cause, direct, or procure to be sold, or exposed or offered to Sale, any Metal Buttons having the Words "Double Gilt" printed, cast, stamped, or marked, in or upon any Part thereof; provided continually, from the Time of gilding thereof, Gold shall remain put, placed, and equally spread upon the upper Surface of the said Buttons, exclusive of the Edges, in the Proportion of ten Grains to such Quantity of the said Buttons, the upper Surfaces of which, exclusive of the Edges, shall measure or be equal to the Superficies of a Circle twelve Inches in Diameter; or who shall print, cast, stamp, or mark, or cause or procure to be printed, cast, stamped, or marked, the Words "Treble Gilt" in or upon any Metal Buttons, or put, place, or pack, or cause, direct, or procure to be put, placed, or packed for Sale, in or upon any Card or Cards, (except the Pattern Card or Pattern Cards,) Paper or Papers, or other Substance or Parcel, or expose or offer to Sale, or cause, direct, or procure to be sold, or exposed or offered to Sale, any Metal Buttons having the Words "Treble Gilt" printed, cast, stamped, or marked, in or upon any Part thereof; provided continually, from the Time of gilding thereof, Gold shall remain put, placed, and equally spread upon the upper Surface of the said Buttons, exclusive of the Edges, in the Proportion of fifteen Grains to such Quantity of the said Buttons, the upper Surfaces of which, exclusive of the Edges, shall measure or be equal to the Superficies of a Circle a Circle twelve Inches in Diameter; any Thing herein-before said to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Penalty on making false Invoices.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said first Day of August, if any Person shall make out, send, or deliver, for, with, or in relation to any Metal Buttons, any List, Bill of Parcels, or Invoice, expressing therein any other than the real Quality of such Buttons, and shall at the Time of making out, sending, or delivering such List, Bill of Parcels, or Invoice, know that such List, Bill of Parcels, or Invoice, express therein any other than the real Quality of such Buttons, such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Pounds, to be levied, recovered, and applied in Manner herein-after mentioned.

Penalty on mixing Buttons of different Qualities.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons shall knowingly put, place, or intermix, or cause, order, direct, or procure to be put, placed, or intermixed, any Metal Button or Buttons, that shall not be respectively really and bona fide gilt with Gold, or plated with Silver, upon any Card or Cards, (except Pattern Cards,) or upon any Paper or Papers, or other Substance whereon or wherein any Metal Button or Buttons gilt with Gold, or plated with Silver, shall be put or placed, nor intermix the same in any other Manner, upon pain of forfeiting the Buttons so put, placed, or intermixed, together with the Sum of five Pounds for any Quantity of Buttons so put, placed, or intermixed, exceeding one Dozen, and not exceeding twelve Dozen; and for any Quantity of Buttons so put, placed, or intermixed, exceeding twelve Dozen, at and after the Rate of one Pound for every twelve Dozen; to be levied, recovered, and applied, in Manner herein-after mentioned.

For ascertaining what shall be deemed to be a Gilt Button.

VII. And, for the more easy and better ascertaining what shall be deemed or taken to be a Gilt or Plated Button or Buttons, be it enacted, That no Metal Buttons shall be deemed or taken to be Gilt Buttons, unless continually, from the Time of gilding thereof, Gold shall remain put, placed, and equally spread upon the upper Surface of the said Buttons, exclusive of the Edges, in the Proportion of five Grains to such Quantity of the said Buttons, the upper Surfaces of which, exclusive of the Edges, shall measure or be equal to the Area or Superficies of a Circle twelve Inches in Diameter; and that no Metal Buttons shall be deemed or taken to be plated Buttons, unless the Area or Superficies of the upper Surface thereof be made of a Plate of Silver, put, placed, or fixed upon Copper, or a Mixture of Copper with other Metals, previous to such Plate of Silver and Copper, or Mixture of Copper with other Metals, being rolled into Sheets or Fillets.

Recovery of Penalties.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any two or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the County, City, or Place where the Offender or Offenders shall reside, or where the Offence shall be committed, to hear and determine any Offence against this Act; and such Justices are hereby authorized and required, upon any Information exhibited or Complaint made in that Behalf, to summon the Party accused, and the Witnesses on each Side, and shall examine into the Matter of Fact, and upon due Proof thereof, either by Confession of the Party, or by the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, to give Judgment or Sentence for the pecuniary Penalty, with Costs to be allowed by such Justices; and to award and issue out their Warrant, under their Hands and Seals, for the levying such Penalty and Costs on the Goods and Chattels of the Offender or Offenders, and to cause Sale to be made thereof, in case they shall not be redeemed within five Days, inclusive of the Day of the Seizure, rendering the Surplus, if any, to the Person or Persons whose Goods or Chattels shall be distrained; and for Want of a sufficient Distress, such Justices shall and may commit such Offender or Offenders to his Majesty's Gaol for the County, City, or Place, where such Information shall be laid as aforesaid, there to remain for any Time not exceeding three Calendar Months, unless Payment shall be sooner made of the said Penalty and Costs.

Appeal

IX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall think him, her, or themselves aggrieved by the Judgment of such Justices, he, she, or they may (upon giving Security, with a sufficient Surety, to the Amount of the Value of such Penalty or Penalties, and Costs, together with such further Costs as shall be awarded in case such Judgment shall be affirmed) appeal to the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County, City, or Place where such Conviction shall be made; and the Justices at such Sessions are hereby empowered to summon and examine Witnesses on Oath, and to hear and finally determine the Matter of the said Appeal, and to award such Costs as the said Court shall think reasonable, to the Party in whose Favour such Appeal shall be determined.

Mitigation of Penalties.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for, and in the Power of the said Justices of the Peace, and also of the said Quarter Sessions, to modify and mitigate the said Penalties, in such Manner as to them shall seem expedient, provided that such Penalties shall in no Case be reduced below one Half, or, where such Penalties shall be less than the Sum of forty Pounds, below twenty Pounds.

Proceedings not to be quashed for Want of Form only.

XI. And be it further enacted, That no Conviction made upon any Offence or Offences in this Act mentioned or created shall be set aside in or by any Court whatsoever, for Want of Form, or through the Mistake of any Fact, Circumstance, or other Matter whatsoever, provided the material Facts alledged in such Conviction, and upon which the same shall be grounded, be proved to the Satisfaction of the said Court; any Law, Statute, or Custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

XII. And be it further enacted, That a Conviction in the Form or to the Effect following (mutatis mutandis) as the Case shall happen to be, shall be good and effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, without stating the Case, or the Facts or Evidence in any particular Manner; (that is to say),

Form of Conviction.

'BE it remembered, That on the —— Day of —— in the Year of our Lord —— at —— in the County of —— A. B. came before us, C. D. and E. F. two of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said County, [City, or Place, as the Case may be,] and informed us, that G. H. of —— on the '—— Day

'—— Day of —— now last past, at —— in the said County [City, or Place, as the Case may be,] [here set forth the Fact for which the Information is laid]; whereupon the said G. H. after being duly summoned to answer the said Charge, appeared before us on the —— Day of —— at —— in the said County, [City, or Place,] and having heard the Charge contained in the said Information, declared he was not guilty of the said Offence, [or, as the Case may happen to be,] did not appear before us pursuant to the said Summons; [or, did neglect and refuse to make any Defence against the said Charge;] but the same being fully proved before us upon the Oath of J. K. a credible Witness, [or, as the Case may happen to be,] acknowledged and voluntarily confessed the same to be true; and it manifestly appeared to us that the said G. H. is guilty of the Offence charged upon him in the said Information; we do therefore hereby convict him of the Offence aforesaid, and do declare and adjudge that he the said G. H. hath forfeited the said Buttons, together with the Sum of —— of lawful Money of Great Britain, for the Offence aforesaid, to be distributed as the Law directs, according to the Form of the Statute in that Case made and provided. Given under our Hands and Seals the —— Day of ——.'

For compelling the Attendance of Witnesses.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall be summoned as a Witness to give Evidence before such Justices of the Peace, touching any of the Matters relative to this Act, either on the Part of the Informer, or the Person or Persons accused, and shall neglect or refuse to appear at the Time and Place to be for that Purpose appointed, without a reasonable Excuse for such his, her, or their Neglect or Refusal, to be allowed of by such Justices of the Peace, or appearing shall refuse to be examined on Oath, and give Evidence before such Justices, then every such Person shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of five Pounds, to be levied and paid in such Manner and by such Means as are hereinbefore directed as to other Penalties.

Penalties may be recovered by Action.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to recover any of the pecuniary Penalties aforesaid by Action or Suit in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, with full Costs of Suit, wherein no Essoign, Protection, or Wager of Law, nor more than one Imparlance shall be allowed; and that it shall and may be lawful to and for any Justice of the Peace of the County, City, or Place, where the Offence is committed, or where the Offender or Offenders reside, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to cause any such Metal Buttons as shall be liable to be forfeited by virtue of this Act, to be seized, and the same, when seized, to keep in safe Custody, for the Purpose of producing the same in Evidence upon any Prosecution or Action to be instituted or commenced for the pecuniary Penalties incurred in respect thereof; and when and as soon as the further Production thereof in Evidence shall become unnecessary, then the same shall, by Order of such Justices, be defaced and destroyed.

Limitation of Time for Informations under the Act.

XV. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, That no Information shall be exhibited, or Action brought, for any of the Offences aforesaid, unless within the Space of three Calendar Months after the Commission of such Offences respectively.

Application of the Penalties.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That one Moiety of the pecuniary Penalties so to be recovered as aforesaid shall be paid and payable to the Poor of the Parish, Township, or Place, where the Offence shall be committed, and the other Moiety to him, her, or them, who shall inform or sue for the same.

To enable Parishioners to be Witnesses.

XVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in all Actions, Suits, Informations, Trials, and other Proceedings in pursuance of this Act, or in relation to any Matter or Thing herein contained, any Inhabitant of the Parish, Township, or Place in which any Offence or Offences shall be committed contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall be admitted to give Evidence, and shall be deemed competent Witnesses, notwithstanding his, her, or their being an Inhabitant or Inhabitants of the Parish, Township, or Place wherein any such Offence or Offences shall be supposed to have been committed.

Persons disclosing by whose Order any Thing punishable under this Act was done, shall not be liable to any Penalty for doing it.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any Person or Persons who shall be liable to any of the Penalties aforesaid, by Reason of any Thing done by him, her, or them, under the Order, Direction, or Procurement of any other Person or Persons, shall, before any Information or Complaint shall be laid or made against him, her, or them, discover to any two or more Justices the Name or Names of the Person or Persons by whose Order, Direction, or Procurement he, she, or they shall have done such Act which shall have made himself, herself, or themselves liable to any of the Penalties, so that such Person or Persons by whose Order, Direction, or Procurement he, she, or they shall have done such Act, shall be prosecuted to Conviction for the same, then and in such Case such Person or Persons who shall give such Information, or make such Complaint, shall not be liable to the Pains and Penalties aforesaid, but shall be entitled to a Moiety of the Penalty as other Informers.

Manufacturers not to be liable to Penalties in certain Cases.

XIX. Provided also, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Manufacturer or Maker of Buttons, who shall have ordered any Metal Buttons to be gilt with Gold by any Gilder or Gilders, or other Person or Persons whatsoever, shall, before the burnishing of the said Buttons, appear before two or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the County, City, or Place where such Gilder or Gilders, or other Person or Persons shall reside, or where the Offence of such Gilder or Gilders, or other Person or Persons, shall have been committed, and prove before the said Justices, by one or more credible Witnesses, that he ordered and directed the said Buttons to be gilt in the Manner required by this Act, and delivered a Quantity of Gold sufficient for that Purpose, or paid or contracted to pay a proper Sum of Money in that Behalf, and shall afterwards prosecute such Gilder or Gilders, or other Person or Persons, to Conviction, then and in any of the Cases the said Manufacturer or Maker of Buttons shall not be liable to any of the Fines, Forfeitures, Penalties, and Punishments in and by this Act inflicted, for or on Account of the said Buttons not being gilt with Gold; any Thing herein-before contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

XX. Pro-

What Buttons the Act shall not extend to.

XX. Provided also, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend or relate, to any Button or Buttons made of Gold, Silver, Tin, Pewter, Lead, or Mixtures of Tin and Lead, or Iron tinned, or of the mixed Metals called Bath Metal or White Metal, or of either or any of these Metals inlaid with Steel, or Buttons plated upon Shell or Shells; any Thing herein-before said to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Limitation of Actions.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Suit or Action shall be commenced against any Person or Persons for what he or she may do in pursuance of this Act, such Suit or Action shall be commenced within six Calendar Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards; and shall be laid, brought, and tried in the County, City, or Place, where the Offence was committed, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in such Suit or Action, Suits or Actions, shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence; and if any Suit or Action shall be brought after the Time before limited for bringing the same, or shall be brought in any other County, City, or Place, that then the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and upon such Verdict, or if the Plaintiff or Prosecutor shall become nonsuit or suffer Discontinuance, or if a Verdict shall pass against him or her, or if upon Demurrer Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall and may recover Treble Costs.

Public Act.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be deemed and allowed in all Courts within this Kingdom as a Public Act; and all Judges, Justices, and all other Persons herein concerned, are hereby required as such to take Notice hereof without specially pleading the same.

CAP. LXI.

An Act for further continuing and amending the several Acts passed for preventing the Frauds and Abuses committed in the Admeasurement of Coals, within the City and Liberty of Westminster, and that Part of the Duchy of Lancaster adjoining thereto, and the several Parishes of Saint Giles in the Fields and Saint Mary-le-bone, and such Part of the Parish of Saint Andrew Holborn, as lies in the County of Middlesex.

35 Geo. III. Cap. 80.

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to make further Provision respecting Ships and Effects come into this Kingdom, to take the Benefit of His Majesty's Orders in Council of the sixteenth and twenty-first Days of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five; and to provide for the Disposal of other Ships and Effects detained in, or brought into, the Ports of this Kingdom; it was amongst other Things enacted, That it should and might be lawful, at any Time before the Expiration of six Calendar Months after the passing of the said Act, to permit, by Order in Council, Ships or Vessels, under the special Circumstances of the Case mentioned in the said Act, to take the Benefit of the said Orders; and also of another Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for rendering effectual His Majesty's Orders in Council of the sixteenth and twenty-first Days of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, respecting the Admission of the Effects mentioned in the said Orders into the Ports of this Country, to be warehoused; and for indemnifying all Persons who have acted in consequence of such Orders; and that all Goods, Wares, Merchandize, and Effects, brought in the same, should be exempted from all Forfeitures; and all Persons who had acted or should act in bringing in the same, or who had acted or should act in pursuance of or according to any Special Order in Council, should be indemnified, and should be released and discharged, in the same Manner as is provided in the said last recited Act respecting Ships and Vessels, and Goods, Wares, Merchandize, and Effects, brought in Ships or Vessels entitled to the Benefit of the said Orders in Council of the sixteenth and twenty-first Days of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five; and that all such Ships or Vessels, and all Goods, Wares, Merchandize, and Effects, brought in the same, should be admitted to the same Privileges and Advantages as to Importation, Warehousing, or Exportation, and should be liable to the Payment of the same Duties, and be entitled to the same Drawbacks, and should be subject to the same Conditions, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as are provided in the said first-mentioned Act respecting Ships and Vessels, and Goods, Wares, Merchandize, and Effects, that have come into the Ports of this Kingdom to take the Benefit of the said last-mentioned Act, or of the said Orders in Council of the sixteenth and twenty-first Days of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five: And whereas a Number of Ships and Vessels have been admitted to an Entry by Order in Council, made in virtue of the said first mentioned Act, within the said six Calendar Months after the passing of the said Act: And whereas, at the Expiration of the said six Months, it being found that many Ships and Vessels, intending to take the Benefit of the Acts herein-before mentioned, were upon the Sea, and had not yet arrived, and that the Commerce of this Kingdom had already been benefited by the Admission of the aforesaid Ships and Vessels, and would be still further benefited by the Admission of others in the Manner herein-before mentioned; Orders in Council have been issued to admit to an Entry in the Ports of this Kingdom, several other Ships and Vessels in the Circumstances before mentioned, permitting such Parts of the Cargoes of such Ships and Vessels as were intended for Re-exportation, to be warehoused for Re-exportation, and such Parts thereof as may by Law be sold in this Kingdom, and were intended to be sold in this Kingdom, to be entered, upon Bond being given for Payment of such Duties as Parliament might think proper to impose on the same: And whereas it is expedient that such last mentioned Ships and Vessels, with their Cargoes, should be exempted from all Forfeitures, and all Persons who have acted or shall act in bringing in the same, or who have acted or shall act in pursuance of or according to such Special Orders, ought to be indemnified:' Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all such Ships or Vessels, with their Cargoes, shall be exempted from Forfeiture, and all Persons who have acted or who shall act in bringing in the same, or who shall act in pursuance of or according to such Orders issued since the Expiration of the said first mentioned Act, shall be indemnified, in the same Manner as if such Ships and Vessels, with their Cargoes, had been entitled to take the Benefit of the said Orders in Council of the sixteenth and twenty-first Days of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, and in the same Manner as Persons acting in pursuance of or according to the said last mentioned Orders have been exempted from Forfeiture, and indemnified by the said last mentioned Act; and such last mentioned Ships and Vessels, with their Cargoes, shall be considered as entitled to take the Benefit of the said Orders in Council of the sixteenth and twenty-first Days of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, and of the said last mentioned Act, and as entitled to the same Drawbacks, and as subject to the same Duties, Conditions, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as if such Ships and Vessels, with their Cargoes, had been admitted to Entry during the Continuance of the said first mentioned Act.

and 35 Geo. III. Cap. 15. recited.

Vessels admitted to Entry by Orders of Council since the Expiration of the first mentioned Act exempted from Forfeiture, and Persons acting under them indemnified, &c.

II. 'And whereas, under the special Circumstances of the Commerce of Europe, and particularly of that of The United Provinces, it will be for the Benefit of the Commerce of this Kingdom to continue to allow, Vessels not choosing to return to the

'allow, for a further Time to be limited, such Ships and Vessels described in the said Act, as may not 'choose to return to the Ports of The United Provinces, and also any other Ships and Vessels belonging to 'Persons of any Country in Amity with his Majesty, which are in search of a Place wherein to deposit 'their Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, to come to any of the Ports of this Kingdom, in the same Man- 'ner as if such Ships and Vessels, with their Cargoes, had been entitled to take the Benefit of the said Or- 'ders in Council of the sixteenth and twenty-first Days of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety- 'five;' be it therefore enacted, That, until the twenty-second Day of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, it shall and may be lawful to admit, by Order in Council, such Ships or Vessels, under such special Circumstances, to take the Benefit of the said last mentioned Act, and of the said Orders in Council of the sixteenth and twenty-first Days of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, and all Goods, Wares, Merchandize, and Effects, brought in the same, shall be exempted from all Forfeitures, and all Persons who shall act in bringing in the same, or who shall act in pursuance of or according to any such Order in Council, shall be indemnified, and shall be released and discharged in the same Manner as is provided in the said last mentioned Act respecting Ships and Vessels, and Goods, Wares, Merchandize, and Effects, brought in Ships or Vessels entitled to the Benefit of the said Orders in Council of the sixteenth and twenty-first Days of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five; and that all such Ships and Vessels, and all Goods, Wares, Merchandize, and Effects, brought in the same, shall be admitted to the same Privileges and Advantages, as to Importation, Warehousing, or Exportation, and shall be liable to the Payment of the same Duties, and be entitled to the same Drawbacks, and shall be subject to the same Conditions, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as are provided in the said first mentioned Act respecting Ships and Vessels, and Goods, Wares, Merchandize, and Effects, that have come into the Ports of this Kingdom to take the Benefit of the said last mentioned Act, or of the said Orders in Council of the sixteenth and twenty-first Days of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, except in Cases wherein any of the said Duties or Drawbacks have been altered by any Act passed in the present Session of Parliament.

Ports of the United Provinces, and Vessels belonging to any Country in Amity with his Majesty, may, by Order of Council, be admitted till Feb. 22, 1797, to take the Benefit of the last mentioned Act.

III. 'And whereas, by the first mentioned of the said Acts, his Majesty, by and with the Advice of his 'Privy Council, is empowered, from Time to Time, to grant a Commission or Commissions, under the Great 'Seal of Great Britain, to three or more Persons, authorizing them to take into their Possession, and under 'their Care, Ships and Cargoes described in the said Act, and to manage, sell, and otherwise dispose of the 'same, in the Manner therein directed: And whereas a Commission has been granted by virtue of the said Act 'to five Persons, and Doubts may arise whether a Majority of the said Commissioners are authorized by Law 'to do any Act in Execution of the Powers thereby granted, without the Presence and Concurrence of the 'other Commissioners;' be it further enacted, That every Act, Matter, or Thing, done or performed, or ordered to be done or performed, in Execution of the Powers granted in the said Commission, by any three or more of the said Commissioners, shall be deemed and taken to have been, and shall be equally valid, as if such Act, Matter, or Thing, had been done or performed, or ordered to be done or performed, by the Whole of the said Commissioners; and all and every Person and Persons who have done or performed, or shall do or perform, any Act, Matter, or Thing, in obedience to or in pursuance of the same, shall be indemnified as if the same had been done or performed, or ordered to be done or performed by the Whole of the said Commissioners; and that any three or more of the said Commissioners, and also that the Majority of Persons appointed in any future Commission to be granted by virtue of the said first mentioned Act, shall have full Power and Authority to do and perform, and order to be done and performed, any Act, Matter, or Thing, in Execution of the said Commissions respectively, which the Whole of the Commissioners appointed therein may do and perform, or order to be done and performed, by virtue of the said first mentioned Act, and the said Commissions respectively.

Three of the Commissioners appointed in virtue of the first mentioned Act, may act; as also the Majority of those who may be appointed in any future Commission.

CAP. LXXVII.

An Act to explain and amend an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Mackarel Fishery.—[14th May 1796.]

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, 'An Act for the Encouragement of the Mackarel Fishery, it is enacted, that for every Barrel of White 'Mackarel twice packed and completely cured, and containing thirty-two Gallons, which shall be ex- 'ported from any Port or Place in Great Britain into any Parts beyond the Seas, (except into the Medi- 'terranean,) a Bounty of two Shillings and eight Pence shall be paid; and for every Barrel of Mackarel 'which shall be landed from any Boats or Vessels, and which shall afterwards be properly salted and cured, 'there shall be paid a Bounty of one Shilling: And whereas it is in and by the said recited Act further en- 'acted, that the proper Officer or Officers appointed to pay the Bounties given by that Act, are thereby em- 'powered and directed to retain and keep in their Hands the following Sums, until the same shall amount to 'the Sum of two hundred Pounds; that is to say, For every Barrel of Mackarel, on which the Bounty of one 'Shilling shall be payable, the Sum of six Pence; and for every Barrel of Mackarel, on which the Bounty 'of two Shillings and eight Pence shall be payable, the Sum of one Shilling and six Pence; and to pay over 'the Sums so retained for the Purpose of defraying the Costs and Charges attending the obtaining and pass- 'ing the said Act, to Thomas Rashleigh, the Solicitor thereof; provided that such Costs and Charges do not 'exceed in the Whole the Sum of two hundred Pounds: And whereas, to avoid all Doubts with respect to 'the Payment of the said Bounties, and also as to the Payment of the Costs and Charges attending the ob-

35 Geo. III. Cap. 54. recited.

'taining and passing the said Act,' it is hereby enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Officer or Officers appointed or directed for the Payment of the several Bounties, granted by the Act made in the fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the First, intituled, An Act for recovering the Credit of the British Fishery in Foreign Parts; and by another Act, made in the twenty-sixth Year of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the more effectual Encouragement of the British Fisheries; shall pay the several Bounties granted and made payable in and by the said Act passed in the thirty-fifth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, at such Times, and in such Manner, and out of such Monies as the said Bounties are directed, by the said two recited Acts of the fifth and twenty-sixth Years of his present Majesty, or either of them, to be paid.

Bounties granted by the recited Act to be paid by the Officers appointed to pay Bounties under 5 Geo. I. Cap. 18; and 26 Geo. III. Cap. 81; who shall retain Money to defray the Charges of recited Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That such Officer or Officers so appointed for Payment of the said Bounties, shall retain and keep in his or their Hand or Hands the following Sums, until the same shall amount to the Sum of one hundred and seventy-six Pounds, being the Costs and Charges attending the obtaining and passing the said Act; (that is to say,) For every Barrel of Mackarel on which the Bounty of one Shilling shall be payable, the Sum of six Pence, until the same shall amount to the Sum of forty-four Pounds; and for every Barrel of Mackarel, on which the Bounty of two Shillings and eight Pence shall be payable, the Sum of one Shilling and six Pence, until the same shall amount to the Sum of one hundred and thirty-two Pounds; and do and shall pay such several Sums of forty-four Pounds, and one hundred and thirty-two Pounds so retained, making together the Sum of one hundred and seventy-six Pounds, unto Thomas Rashleigh, the Solicitor employed for obtaining and passing the said Act; any Thing in the said former Act made and passed in the thirty-fifth Year of his present Majesty, and this Act, to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

CAP. LXXVIII.

An Act for charging the Duty on Mahogany imported by Weight.—[14th May 1796.]

35 Geo. III. Cap. 20. recited;

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting certain Duties of Customs on the Importation of Fruit, Sallad Oil, Waste Silk, and Timber, and on the Exportation of British Rock Salt and Coal, among other Things a Duty of one Penny Halfpenny the Foot Square, Superficial Measure, is imposed on the Importation of Mahogany into the Kingdom of Great Britain, and a Drawback of the Whole of the said Duty is allowed on the Exportation thereof from the said Kingdom: And whereas Difficulties have arisen in respect to the ascertaining the Duty so imposed; and it is therefore expedient as well for the Benefit of the Revenue, as the Accommodation of the Merchant, that the Duty on Mahogany should in future be charged, and the Drawback allowed, on the Weight, instead of the Superficial Measure thereof:' Be it enacted, by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, instead and in lieu of the Duty imposed on the Importation, and the Drawback allowed on the Exportation of Mahogany by the said recited Act, the Duty and Drawback shall be respectively as follows; (videlicet,) and instead of the Duty and Drawback thereby granted and allowed on Mahogany, the following to take place.

Mahogany of the Growth of any of the Bahama Islands, and imported directly from thence, the Ton containing twenty hundred Weight	1	10	-	1	10	-

Mahogany not imported directly from any of the Bahama Islands, or not imported directly from the Bay of Honduras, or any Mahogany being of the Growth of any other Country or Place, the Ton containing twenty hundred Weight -	3	-	-	3	-	-

Duty and Drawback of Mahogany imported and not delivered to be according to this Act.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Mahogany has been imported since the passing of the said recited Act, and such Mahogany has not been delivered by the Officers of the Customs on Payment of the Duty thereby imposed, the same shall be charged with the Duty, and shall on Exportation be allowed the Drawback according to this Act.

Duties and Drawbacks to be levied and allowed as by the recited Act.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Duties and Drawbacks by this Act respectively imposed and allowed, shall be raised, levied, collected, paid, recovered, allowed, appropriated, and applied, in like Manner, and under such and the same Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as the Duties on the Importation, and the Drawbacks on the Exportation of the several Articles contained in the Schedule referred to in the said recited Act, are respectively now raised, levied, collected, paid, recovered, allowed, appropriated, and applied, by virtue and in pursuance of the said recited Act.

CAP. LXXIX.

An Act for reducing the Duty payable on Black Lead imported into this Kingdom.

'WHEREAS it is expedient for the more effectual preserving and encouraging the Manufacture of 'Black Lead Melting Pots in this Country, to reduce the Duty payable on the Importation into, 'and to alter the Drawback allowable on the Exportation of Foreign Black Lead from Great Britain;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Duty to be paid on the Importation, and the Drawback to be allowed on the Exportation, of Foreign Black Lead, by virtue of an Act, passed in the twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for repealing the several Duties of Customs and Excise, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof, and for applying the said Duties, together with the other Duties composing the Publick Revenue; for permitting the Importation of certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, the Produce or Manufacture of the European Dominions of the French King, into this Kingdom; and for applying certain unclaimed Monies, remaining in the Exchequer for the Payment of Annuities on Lives, to the Reduction of the National Debt, shall be, and the same are hereby repealed, (except as to the Recovery and Payment of Arrears,) and instead and in lieu thereof, the Duty on the Importation, and the Drawback on the Exportation, of Foreign Black Lead, shall be respectively as follows; videlicet,

The Duty and Drawback fixed by 27 Geo. III. Cap. 13. repealed.

New Duty and Drawback,

	Duty.			Drawback.

CAP. LXXXI.

An Act for allowing the Importation of Melasses from any Country in British Ships or Vessels, and in Ships or Vessels belonging to any State in Amity with His Majesty, for a limited Time.—[14th May 1796.]

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to prohibit, for a 'limited Time, the making of Low Wines or Spirits from Wheat, Barley, Malt, or any other Sort of 'Grain, or from any Meal, Flour, or Bran; and for permitting Home-made Spirits, deposited in the 'Warehouses for Exportation, to be taken out for Home Consumption, on Payment of Duty; it is amongst 'other Things enacted, That, from and after the tenth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-'five, until and upon the first Day of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, in that Part of 'Great Britain called England; and from and after the seventeenth Day of July one thousand seven hun-'dred and ninety-five, until and upon the first Day of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, 'in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; no Low Wines or Spirits shall be brewed, made, prepared, 'extracted, or distilled, from any Wheat, Barley, Malt, or Tilts, or any Sort of Corn or Grain, or from any 'Meal, Flour, or Bran, or any Mixture with the same: And whereas by an Act, passed in the present Ses-'sion of Parliament, intituled, An Act to continue, for a further limited Time, an Act, made in the last Session 'of Parliament, intituled, "An Act to prohibit, for a limited Time, the making of Low Wines or Spirits from "Wheat, Barley, Malt, or any other Sort of Grain, or from any Meal, Flour, or Bran; and for permitting "Home-made Spirits, deposited in the Warehouses for Exportation, to be taken out for Home Consumption, on "Payment of Duty; and to prohibit the Distillation of Low Wines or Spirits from Melasses, of the Manufac-"ture of this Kingdom, or from Sugar or Potatoes;" the said recited Act, passed in the last Session of Parlia-'ment, is further continued until the first Day of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, 'and all the Fines, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, in the said Act to prevent the 'Distillation of Low Wines or Spirits from Wheat, and the several other Articles therein enumerated, are 'extended to the brewing, making, preparing, extracting, or distilling of Low Wines or Spirits from Me-'lasses, of the Manufacture of this Kingdom; or from Sugar or Potatoes, or any Mixture with the same 'respectively:

35 Geo. III. Cap. 119. and

36 Geo. III. Cap. 20. recited.

'respectively: And whereas, for the Benefit of the Distilleries of this Kingdom, it is expedient to permit, 'for a limitted Time, the Importation of Melasses from any Country in Europe, not in the Possession of his 'Majesty, in any Ship or Vessel belonging to Great Britain, or belonging to any Kingdom or State in 'Amity with his Majesty, subject to the Duty on Foreign Melasses, not of and from the British Plantations 'in America, and to permit, during the Continuance of the said recited Acts, the Importation of Melasses 'from any Country out of Europe, not in the Possession of his Majesty, in any British Ship or Vessel owned 'and navigated according to Law, or in any Ship or Vessel belonging to any Kingdom or State in Amity 'with his Majesty, subject to the Duty on Melasses of and from the British Plantations in America:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That until the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons to import into this Kingdom, Melasses from any Country in Europe, not in the Possession of his Majesty, and in any Ship or Vessel belonging to Great Britain, or to any Kingdom or State in Amity with his Majesty, on Payment of a Duty of eleven Shillings and nine Pence the Hundred Weight; and during the Continuance of the before-recited Acts, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to import into this Kingdom, Melasses from any Country out of Europe, not in the Possession of his Majesty, in any British Ship or Vessel owned and navigated according to Law, on Payment of a Duty of three Shillings the Hundred Weight; and also to import any Melasses from any Country out of Europe, not in the Possession of his Majesty, in any Ship or Vessel belonging to any Kingdom or State in Amity with his Majesty, on Payment of a Duty of six Shillings the hundred Weight; and on the Exportation according to Law of such Melasses imported from any Country in Europe, not in the Possession of his Majesty, there shall be allowed a Drawback of eleven Shillings and five Pence the Hundred Weight; and on the Exportation according to Law of such Melasses imported in British-built Ships, from any Country out of Europe, not in the Possession of his Majesty, there shall be allowed a Drawback of two Shillings and eight Pence the Hundred Weight; and on the Exportation according to Law of any Melasses imported from any Country out of Europe, not in the Possession of his Majesty, in any Ship or Vessel belonging to any Kingdom or State in Amity with his Majesty, there shall be allowed a Drawback of five Shillings and eight Pence the Hundred Weight.

Melasses may be imported from any Country in British Vessels, or Vessels belonging to any State in Amity with his Majesty, on Payment of certain Duties, and to be allowed Drawbacks on Exportation.

Duties and Drawbacks to be levied and allowed, agreeable to 27 Geo. III. Cap. 13.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duties and Drawbacks shall be raised, levied, collected, paid, recovered, allowed, applied, and appropriated, in like Manner, and under such and the same Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as the Duties on the Importation, and the Drawback on the Exportation of Melasses, are respectively now raised, levied, collected, paid, recovered, and allowed, by virtue and in pursuance of an Act, passed in the twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, for repealing the several Duties of Customs and Excise, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof, and for applying the said Duties, together with the other Duties composing the Public Revenue; for permitting the Importation of certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, the Produce and Manufacture of the European Dominions of the French King, into this Kingdom; and for applying certain unclaimed Monies, remaining in the Exchequer for the Payment of Annuities on Lives, to the Reduction of the National Debt.

CAP. LXXXII.

An Act more effectually to prevent the Landing of Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, without the Presence of the proper Officer; to authorize Officers of the Customs to convey Wines laying on the Quays to His Majesty's Warehouse within a certain Time after the Landing thereof; and to require the Owners of Ships, Vessels, and Boats, licensed by the Admiralty, to give Security to re-deliver their Licenses, in case any such Ships, Vessels, or Boats, shall be lost, broken up, or otherwise disposed of.

27 Geo. III. Cap. 13.

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, in- 'tituled, An Act for repealing the several Duties of Customs and Excise, and granting other Duties in 'lieu thereof, and for applying the said Duties, together with the other Duties composing the Public Revenue; 'for permitting the Importation of certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, the Produce or Manufacture of 'the European Dominions of the French King into this Kingdom; and for applying certain unclaimed Monies, 'remaining in the Exchequer for the Payment of Annuities on Lives, to the Reduction of the National Debt; 'it is among other Things enacted, That all Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, imported or brought into 'Great Britain, with an Intent to be landed, except Diamonds, Jewels, Pearls, Precious Stones, and Bullion, and fresh Fish, British taken, and imported in British-built Ships or Vessels, owned, navigated, and 'registered according to Law; and also except Turbots and Lobsters, however taken or imported; whether such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize are or shall be liable to Duty or not, shall be regularly entered 'at the Custom-house, and landed in the Presence of the proper Officer or Officers, who shall examine the 'same, and shall not deliver them out of his or their Custody and Possession, until he or they shall have taken 'a particular Account of the Quantity and Species of such Goods: And whereas the good Purposes intended by the said Act have been in many Instances defeated, and the Revenue exposed to Frauds, by the 'Landing of Goods without the Presence of the proper Officer; and it is therefore expedient that the said 'Act should be amended, and that Goods so landed, either on Sundays, Holidays, or any other Days,

'shall be forfeited:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, imported or brought into Great Britain, (except Diamonds, Jewels, Pearls, Precious Stones, and Bullion, and fresh Fish, British taken, and imported in British-built Ships or Vessels, owned, navigated, and registered according to Law; and also except Turbots and Lobsters, however taken or imported,) whether such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize are or shall be liable to Duty or not, shall be unshipped or landed without the Presence of the proper Officer of the Customs, either on Sundays, Holidays, or any other Days, all such Goods shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer of the Customs.

No Goods imported, except Diamonds, &c. shall be unshipped without the Presence of the proper Officer, on Penalty of Forfeiture.

II. 'And whereas, by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for charging Warehouse Rent on Wines, in certain Cases, secured in His Majesty's Warehouses; for equalizing the Duties on Wines exported to India and China; and for providing Warehouses for Coffee and Cocoa Nuts imported into this Kingdom; Officers of the Customs are authorized to carry or convey to his Majesty's Warehouses, for Security of the Duties, any Wine that is not entered according to Law, within twenty Days from the Time of the Master making his Report at the Custom-house of the Ship on board of which such Wines shall have been imported: And whereas the Importers, Proprietors, or Consignees of Wine, are in the Practice of making Entries for the same, within the Time prescribed by Law, and letting such Wine remain on the Quays for a long Time, without being removed, whereby the Quays are much crouded, to the great Inconvenience of Trade and Commerce, and Impediment to the Publick Service;' for the Prevention thereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise, at the Expiration of ten Days from and after the Landing thereof, to carry and convey such Wines to any of his Majesty's Warehouses, and before the same shall be delivered out of any Warehouse or Warehouses, the Importer, Proprietor, or Consignee of such Wine, shall pay into the Hands of the proper Officers of Customs and Excise respectively, all Duties which shall be due thereon, and which shall remain unpaid, and into the Hands of the proper Warehouse Keeper of Customs or Excise Warehouse Rent, for such Wine, at and after the Rate of Sixpence per Week, for each and every Cask or other Package, from the Time of the same being warehoused, together with the Costs, Charges, and Expences attending the carrying of such Wine, Casks, and Packages to such Warehouse or Warehouses, or otherwise relating to such Wine, Casks, and Packages; and if the Importer, Proprietor, or Consignee shall neglect or refuse to take such Wine from such Warehouse or Warehouses within the Space of three Months, the same shall and may be sold to defray the said Duties, Warehouse Rent, Costs, Charges, and Expences incurred thereon; and the Overplus shall be paid to the said Importer, Proprietor, or Consignee.

Wine not removed in ten Days after Landing may be warehoused; and before Delivery thereout, the Duty, and 6d. a Week per Cask Warehouse Rent, with Charges of Removal, to be paid; and if not removed from the Warehouse in three Months, may be sold.

III. 'And whereas by an Act, passed in the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the more effectual Prevention of Smuggling in this Kingdom, and several other Acts, certain Ships, Vessels, and Boats, therein particularly described, are in certain Cases subject to Forfeiture, unless the Owner thereof shall have a Licence, as therein described and directed, for navigating the same, from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being, or any Person authorized by them to grant the same: And whereas the Owner of every Ship, Vessel, or Boat, so licensed, is required to give certain Security, as in the said Acts directed, before such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, proceeds to Sea, or sails out of any Port, Harbour, or Creek, in this Kingdom: And whereas it is expedient that, over and above the Security in the said Acts directed, further Security should be given by Bond, in Manner directed by the said Acts, by the said Owner, before any such Vessel shall proceed to Sea, or sail out of any Port, Harbour, or Creek, in this Kingdom, that on any such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, being lost, broken up, sold, or otherwise disposed of, the said Licence, so granted as aforesaid, shall be delivered up to the Person or Persons by whom such Security shall have been taken, or his or their Successors in Office, in order that the same may be cancelled within the Space of three Months from the Time any such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, shall have been lost, broken up, sold, or otherwise disposed of:' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Owner of every Ship, Vessel, or Boat, which shall be licensed in pursuance of the said Acts, or either of them, shall, before any such Ship, Vessel, or Boat shall proceed to Sea, or sail out of any Port, Harbour, or Creek, in this Kingdom, give Security by Bond, (over and above the Security directed by the said Acts,) in the Manner directed therein respectively, that in case any such Ship, Vessel, or Boat shall be lost, broken up, sold, or otherwise disposed of, every such Licence shall be delivered up to the Person or Persons by whom such Security shall have been taken, or to his or their Successors in Office, in order that the same may be cancelled, which he or they are hereby authorized and required to do, within the Space of three Months from the Time any such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, shall be lost, broken up, sold, or otherwise disposed of; any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

24 Geo. III. Sess. 2. Cap. 47.

Owners of Vessels licensed pursuant to last mentioned Act, to give Bond, that if they be lost, &c. the Licence shall be delivered up.

IV. Provided always, That although any Licence granted in pursuance of the said Acts may not be delivered up to be cancelled within the Time specified in this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England, or any four or more of them, or the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in Scotland, or any three or more of them, and they are hereby authorized respectively, in case they see sufficient Cause, at any Time, to direct the Person or Persons by whom Security shall have been taken from the Owner or Owners of any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, to whom such Licence shall have been granted, to receive such Licence, and cancel such Security.

Commissioners of Customs may at any Time direct Licences to be cancelled.

CAP. LXXXIII.

An Act for the further Support and Maintenance of Curates within the Church of England, and for making certain Regulations respecting the Appointment of such Curates, and the Admission of Persons to Cures augmented by Queen Anne's Bounty, with respect to the Avoidance of other Benefices.—[14th May 1796.]

12 Anne, Stat. 2. Cap. 12.

'WHEREAS, in and by a Statute passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, it is enacted, 'That if any Rector or Vicar, having Cure of Souls, should, after the twenty-ninth of September one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, nominate and present any Curate to the Bishop or Ordinary, to be licensed or admitted to serve the Cure of such Rector or Vicar in his Absence, the said Bishop or Ordinary, having Regard to the Greatness of the Cure, and the Value of the Ecclesiastical Benefices of such Rector or Vicar, should, on or before the granting such Licence, appoint, by Writing under his Hand and Seal, a sufficient certain Stipend or Allowance, not exceeding fifty Pounds per Annum nor less than twenty Pounds per Annum, to be paid or answered at such Times as he should think fit, by such Rector or Vicar to such Curate, for his Support and Maintenance; and if it should appear to the Bishop or Ordinary, upon Complaint or otherwise, that any Curate of such Rector or Vicar, licensed or admitted before the twenty-ninth of September one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, had not a sufficient Maintenance, it should be lawful for the said Bishop or Ordinary to appoint him a certain Stipend or Allowance in like Manner as before mentioned; and in case any Difference shall arise between any Rector or Vicar and his Curate, touching such Stipend or Allowance, or the Payment thereof, the Bishop or Ordinary, on Complaint to him made, should summarily hear and determine the same; and in case of Neglect or Refusal to pay such Stipend or Allowance, might sequester the Profits of such Benefice for and until Payment thereof: And whereas in many Places the Provision made, in and by the said Statute, for the Support and Maintenance of such Curate, is now become insufficient;' be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Bishop or Ordinary to appoint, under his Hand and Seal, any Stipend or Allowance for any Curate heretofore nominated or employed, or hereafter to be nominated or employed, not exceeding seventy-five Pounds per Annum, over and besides, on Livings where the Rector or Vicar does not personally reside four Months in the Year at least, the Use of the Rectory or Vicarage House, and the Garden and Stable thereunto belonging, such Use to be granted to the said Curate for the Space of twelve Calendar Months by the Authority of the Bishop or Ordinary, under his Hand and Seal, with Power in the said Bishop or Ordinary to renew the Grant from Time to Time, or a further Sum not exceeding fifteen Pounds per Annum, in lieu of such House, Garden, and Stable, in case there shall be none such, or it shall appear to the Bishop or Ordinary not to be convenient to allot and assign the same to such Curate; which said Stipend or Stipends shall be paid and recovered in such and the same Manner as the Stipend payable under and by virtue of the said recited Act: Provided always, That the said House, Garden, and Stable shall be for the Use of the said Curate and his Family only during his actual Residence in the said Rectory and Vicarage House.

Bishop or Ordinary may appoint a Stipend to Curates, of 75*l.* per Annum, with the Use of the Parsonage House in a certain Case, or an Allowance for it.

II. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the Bishop or Ordinary shall have Power, at any Time, under his Hand and Seal, to revoke the Grant to the said Curate of the said House, Garden, and Stable, or any of them; and also to insert in such Grant such Terms and Conditions to be observed on the Part of the Curate as he shall think reasonable; and also that the Curate shall peaceably deliver up the Possession of the Premises granted to him at the Expiration or other sooner Determination of the Grant thereof; and in case he shall refuse so to do, he shall forfeit and lose to the Rector or Vicar all such Parts of his Stipend as shall then be unpaid, or shall thereafter become due, and also the Sum of fifty Pounds to such Rector or Vicar, and which shall be recoverable in an Action of Debt.

The Grant of the House may be revoked.

Penalty on not delivering it up.

1 Geo. I. Stat. 2. Cap. 10.

III. 'And whereas by an Act, passed in the first Year of his late most gracious Majesty King George the First, it was enacted, That all Churches, Curacies, and Chapels, which should be augmented by the Governors of the late Queen Anne's Bounty, should be from thenceforth perpetual Cures and Benefices: And whereas it is expedient that such augmented Churches, Curacies, and Chapels should be subjected to the same Rules as Benefices, with respect to the Avoidance of other Benefices;' be it further enacted, That such augmented Churches, Curacies, and Chapels shall be considered in Law as Benefices presentative, so as that the Licence thereto shall operate in the same Manner as Institution to such Benefices, and shall render voidable other Livings, in like Manner as Institution to the said Benefices; and that it shall be lawful for the Bishop or Ordinary, within whose Jurisdiction such augmented Church, Curacy, or Chapel shall lie, to appoint, under his Hand and Seal, any Stipend or Allowance for the officiating Curate to be nominated or employed by the perpetual Curate or Incumbent thereof, not exceeding seventy-five Pounds per Annum, for which Payment the said Curate shall have the same and like Remedies as are herein-before given to the Curates of Rectors and Vicars.

Churches augmented by Queen Anne's Bounty, to be deemed Benefices presentative, and the officiating Curate may have a like Stipend.

IV. 'And whereas Doubts have been lately entertained, whether the Acceptance of such augmented Churches, Curacies, and Chapels has rendered voidable in Law such other Benefices as the Incumbents possessed before their Acceptance of the same: And whereas it is fit that many Incumbents who have accepted such Churches, Curacies, and Chapels, should be quieted in the Possession of the Benefices they enjoyed before the Acceptance of the same;' it is hereby enacted and declared, That all such Benefices as

were held in Conjunction with augmented Cures before the passing of this Act, shall continue to be held by the present Incumbents therewith; and that it shall not be lawful to present to the said Benefices until they shall become void or voidable by Death or Cession, or by other lawful Cause of Avoidance, arising after the passing of this Act.

Bishop or Ordinary may apportion the Stipend to officiating Curates of perpetual Curacies not augmented.

V. 'And whereas many perpetual Curacies, although not augmented by the Bounty of Queen Anne, 'have nevertheless become considerable in Value by the Improvement of the Tythes or Glebe of which they 'happen to be endowed, or by other Circumstances;' be it further enacted, That the Bishop or Ordinary within whose Jurisdiction they lie, shall have the like Power, and under the like Limitations, and with the like Remedies, in apportioning the Stipends to be paid to the said officiating Curates by the Curates or Incumbents of perpetual Curacies, as is herein-before given respecting the Apportionment of the Stipends to the Curates employed in perpetual Cures augmented.

Ordinary may license Curates employed, though no Nomination shall have been made to him by the Incumbent, and may revoke any Licence, subject to Appeal to the Archbishop of the Province.

VI. 'And whereas it is expedient that the Authority of Ordinaries to license Curates, and to remove li-'censed Curates, should be further explained, enlarged, and confirmed;' be it enacted and declared, That it shall be lawful for the Ordinary to license any Curate who is or shall be actually employed by the Rector, Vicar, or other Incumbent of any Parish Church or Chapel, although no express Nomination of such Curate shall have been made, either in Words or in Writing, to the Ordinary by the said Rector, Vicar, or other Incumbent; and that the Ordinary shall have Power to revoke, summarily and without Process, any Licence granted to any Curate employed within his Jurisdiction, and to remove such Curate for such good and reasonable Cause as he shall approve; subject, nevertheless, to an Appeal, as well in the Case of a Grant of a Licence to a Curate who has not been nominated, as in the Revocation of a Licence granted to a Curate; such Appeal to be made, in either Case, to the Archbishop of the Province, and to be determined in a summary Manner.

CAP. LXXXIV.

An Act for further continuing, for a limited Time, an Act, made in the twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act to enable the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, to let to Farm the Duties granted by an Act, made in the twenty-fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, on Horses let to Hire for travelling Post, and by Time, to such Persons as should be willing to contract for the same.—[14th May 1796.]

"27 Geo. III. Cap. 26. recited. From Aug. 1, 1796, the Treasury may let to Farm the Duties mentioned "in the recited Act, separately in Districts. No Contract to be made to continue beyond Feb. 1, 1800. "Powers of recited Act to extend to this."

CAP. LXXXV.

An Act for the better Regulation of Mills.—[14th May 1796.]

'WHEREAS the Laws now in being for the Regulation of Mills have been found deficient and in-'effectual:' Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, every Miller or other Person keeping a Mill for the grinding of Corn, shall have in such Mill a true and equal Balance, with proper Weights, according to the Standard of the Exchequer; and any Person or Persons appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for the more effectual Prevention of the Use of defective Weights, and of false and unequal Balances, to examine the Weights and Balances within his or their respective Counties, Ridings, Liberties, and Divisions, shall be, and he and they is and are hereby authorized and required to examine such Balances and Weights, and to proceed with respect to them in the same Manner as is provided in the said Act with respect to Weights and Balances; and every Miller, or other Person as aforesaid, in whose Mill shall be found no Balance or Weights, shall forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding twenty Shillings; and every Miller, or other Person as aforesaid, in whose Mill shall be found any Weight or Weights not being according to the Standard in the Exchequer, or any false or unequal Balance or Balances, and all Persons obstructing, hindering, or resisting such Persons in viewing and examining the same, shall be liable to be proceeded against, and shall forfeit and pay the like Penalties, as any Person committing the like Offences against the Provisions of the said Act would be respectively liable to.

A Balance and Weights to be kept in every Corn Mill, (which may be examined by the Persons appointed under 35 Geo. III. Cap. 102.) on Penalty of 20 s.

Provisions of 35 Geo. III. Cap. 102. to extend to this Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That every Person or Persons who shall bring or cause to be brought any Corn to any Mill to be ground, may require the Miller or other Person acting for him, or keeping the Mill, to weigh, in his or her Presence, such Corn before it shall be ground, and after it shall be ground may require the Miller or other Person as aforesaid to weigh, in his or her Presence, the Produce of the Corn so ground; and if any Miller or other Person as aforesaid, shall refuse so to weigh the said Corn, he shall be liable to forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding forty Shillings.

Millers to weigh Corn, if required, before and after grinding, on Penalty of 40 s.

III. And be it further enacted, That every Miller, or other Person keeping a Mill for grinding Corn, shall, after grinding any Corn, deliver to the Person who brought or caused such Corn to be brought, if such Person shall require the same, the whole Produce of such Corn in Weight, allowing for the Diminution in Weight that shall have been caused by the Waste in grinding, and by taking Toll, in Cases where Toll is herein-after allowed to be taken; and if such Corn shall be dressed into Flour, then the whole Produce in Weight, allowing for the Diminution in Weight that shall have been caused by the Waste in grinding and dressing, and by taking Toll as aforesaid; and if such Corn, on being weighed after grinding, or, after grinding the Deficiency, and treble the Value.

Millers to deliver the whole Produce of Corn when ground, if required, allowing for Waste and Toll, on Penalty of 1 s. per Bushel &c.

grinding and dressing, shall appear to weigh less than such full Weight, after allowing for the Diminution, aforesaid, as the Case may be, such Miller shall, for every Bushel of Corn so deficient in Weight, forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding one Shilling, and also treble the Value of such Deficiency.

Toll to be deducted from Corn before it be put into the Mill.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in Cases where Toll is hereinafter allowed to be taken, such Quantity of Corn as the Miller shall be lawfully entitled to deduct by Way of Toll for grinding the same, shall be deducted before the said Corn shall be put into the Mill.

No Corn, but Money, to be taken for Toll, on Penalty of 5 l. except where the Party has no Money.

V. And be it further enacted, That from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, no Miller, or other Person keeping a Mill for grinding Corn, shall demand or take any Part of the Corn brought to be ground, or of the Produce of such Corn when ground, by Way of Toll for Payment, but in lieu thereof he shall be entitled to demand Payment in lawful Money of Great Britain; and every Miller or other Person as aforesaid who shall demand or take any Part of the Corn brought to be ground, or of the Produce of such Corn when ground, by Way of Toll for Payment, shall for every such Offence be liable to forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding five Pounds: Provided always, that where any Person who has brought or caused to be brought any Corn to be ground shall not have Money to pay for grinding the same, it shall be lawful for the Miller or other Person as aforesaid, with the Consent of the Person bringing the same, or causing it to be brought, to take such Part of the Produce of such Corn as will be equal to the Money Price expressed in the Table of Prices for grinding such Corn, as herein-after required: Provided also, that nothing in this Clause contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to the ancient Mills, commonly called Soke Mills, or to such other ancient Mills where the Right and Obligation of the Possessors of the same to grind Corn for particular Persons, or within particular Districts, and to take a fixed and certain Toll for grinding, have been established by ancient Custom, and the Law of the Land, but that such Mills shall continue to take Toll in the same Quantity, and in the same Manner, as they have been used and accustomed to do under the Authority aforesaid.

Act not to extend to Mills where a Right to take Toll has been established by Custom and Law.

Millers to put up in their Mills a Table of Prices, on Penalty of 20 s.

VI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, every Miller, or other Person who shall grind for Hire or Toll, shall cause to be put up in some conspicuous Place in his Mill, and renew when necessary, in fair and legible Characters, a Table of the Prices in Money, or of the Amount of Toll or Multure, for which the several Operations of his Mill are to be performed respectively; and every Miller, or other Person, as aforesaid, who shall omit to set up and keep fair and legible such a Table, shall be liable to forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding twenty Shillings for every such Offence.

Act not to extend to private Mills.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any Mills kept for the private Use of the Proprietor or Occupier only.

Recovery and Application of Penalties.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That every Penalty and Forfeiture imposed by this Act shall and may be recoverable before any one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, or Place, where the Offence shall be committed, upon Conviction, or Confession of the Party, or on the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses; and such Penalty and Forfeiture shall be levied by Warrant under the Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, of such Justice or Justices, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person or Persons so offending; and the Penalty and Forfeiture, when so levied, shall be paid, one Moiety to the Informer, and the other Moiety to the Poor of the Parish where the Offence shall be committed, and the Overplus, (if any,) after the Costs of such Conviction and Distress and Sale are deducted, shall be returned to the Party or Parties offending; and in case such Distress cannot be found, and such Penalty and Forfeiture, and the said Costs and Charges, shall not be forthwith paid, it shall and may be lawful for such Justice or Justices, and he and they is and are hereby authorized and required, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, to commit such Offender or Offenders to the Common Gaol or House of Correction of the County or Place where the Offence shall be committed, for any Time not exceeding one Month, unless the said Penalty and Forfeiture, and Costs and Charges, shall respectively be sooner paid and satisfied: Provided always, that in case any Person or Persons shall find himself or themselves aggrieved by the Judgment of any such Justice or Justices, then he or they shall or may, upon giving Security to the Amount of the Value of such Penalty and Forfeiture, together with such Costs as shall be awarded, in case such Judgment shall be affirmed, appeal to the Justices of the Peace at the next General Quarter Sessions for the County, Riding, Division, or Place as aforesaid, who are hereby empowered finally to hear and determine the same; and in case the Judgment of such Justice or Justices shall be affirmed, it shall be lawful for such Justices, at their Quarter Sessions as aforesaid, to award the Person or Persons to pay such Costs, occasioned by such Appeal, as to themselves shall seem meet; and no such Judgment or Conviction shall be removeable by Certiorari into any Court whatsoever.

Limitation of Informations.

IX. And be it further enacted, That any Information for any Offence committed against this Act shall be laid before one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, within ten Days after the said Offence has been committed, and that otherwise such Information shall be of no Effect.

CAP. LXXXVI.

An Act to prevent Abuses and Frauds in the Packing, Weight, and Sale of Butter; and to repeal certain Acts relating thereto.—[14th May 1796.]

'WHEREAS, to prevent Abuses and Frauds in the Packing, Weight, and Sale of Butter, various Provisions were made, by a Statute, passed in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of his 'Majesty King Charles the Second, and intituled, An Act for reforming of the Abuses committed in the Weight 'and false Packing of Butter; and by another Statute, made in the fourth Year of the Reign of King 'William and Queen Mary, and intituled, An Act to prevent Abuses committed by the Traders in Butter and 'Cheese: And whereas the Provisions of the said two Statutes are found to be defective and insufficient; and 'therefore it may be expedient to make new Regulations in respect to the Packing, Weight, and Sale of 'such Butter:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Cooper, or other Person who shall make any Vessel for the packing of Butter, shall make the same of good and well-seasoned Timber, and tight, and not leaky, and shall grove in the Heads and Bottoms thereof; and every Vessel which shall be made for the packing of such Butter shall be a Tub, Firkin, or Half Firkin, and no other; and every Tub, Firkin, and Half Firkin, shall, at the Time the same shall be delivered out of the Possession of the Cooper, or other Person making the same, be of the Weight and Proportion, and capable of containing the several Quantities of Butter herein-after mentioned; (that is to say,) Every Tub shall weigh of itself, including the Top and Bottom, not less than eleven Pounds, and not more than fifteen Pounds Avoirdupois Weight; and neither the Top nor the Bottom of any such Tub shall be more than five eighth Parts of an Inch in Thickness in any Part thereof; and every such Tub shall be capable of containing eighty-four Pounds Avoirdupois Weight of Butter, and not less: Every Firkin shall weigh of itself, including the Top and Bottom, not less than seven Pounds, and not more than eleven Pounds Avoirdupois Weight; and the Top and Bottom of each such Firkin shall not be more than four eighth Parts of an Inch each in Thickness in any Part thereof; and every such Firkin shall be capable of containing fifty-six Pounds Avoirdupois Weight of Butter, and not less: And every Half Firkin shall weigh of itself, including the Top and Bottom thereof, not less than four Pounds, and not more than six Pounds Avoirdupois Weight; and the Top and Bottom thereof shall not be more than three eighth Parts of an Inch each in Thickness in any Part thereof; and every Half Firkin shall be capable of containing twenty-eight Pounds Avoirdupois Weight of Butter, and not less; upon Pain and Penalty that the Cooper, or other Person or Persons who shall make any such Vessel in any Respect contrary to the Directions aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay for every such Vessel, so made contrary to the Directions aforesaid, the Sum of ten Shillings.

13 and 14 Car. II. Cap. 26. and 4 Will. and Mary, Cap. 7 recited.

Regulations for making Vessels for packing Butter.

Penalty of 10s. for each Vessel made contrary to the above Directions.

II. And be it further enacted, That every Cooper, or other Person making a Vessel for packing such Butter as aforesaid, before suffering any such Vessel to go out of his Possession, shall, on the Bottom of such Vessel, on the Outside, with an Iron, brand his Christian Name and his Surname at Length, and in permanent and legible Letters, to denote that it is the Mark of the Cooper or Maker of the Vessel, together with the exact Weight or Tare thereof, or in default thereof, for every such Offence shall forfeit and pay, for every such Vessel not marked according to the Directions aforesaid, the Sum of ten Shillings.

Vessels to be branded with the Name of the Maker, and the Weight, on Penalty of 10s.

III. And be it further enacted, That every Dairy Man, Farmer, or Seller of Butter, or other Person who shall pack any Butter for Sale, shall pack the same in Vessels so made and marked as aforesaid, and no other, and shall properly soak and season every Vessel wherein he shall pack any Butter, before the packing thereof; and when such Vessel shall have been so soaked and seasoned, shall on the Bottom thereof, on the Inside, and on the Top of every such Vessel, on the Outside, with an Iron, brand his Christian Name and his Surname at Length, in permanent and legible Letters; and shall also, with an Iron, brand on the Top, on the Outside, and on the Bouge or Body of every such Vessel, the true Weight or Tare of such empty Vessel, when the same shall have been soaked and seasoned; and shall also, with an Iron, brand his Christian Name and his Surname at Length, in permanent and legible Letters, on the Bouge or Body of every such Vessel, across two different Staves at least, to prevent such Staves from being taken out and changed; and also shall distinctly, and at Length, imprint his Christian Name and Surname upon the Top of the Butter contained in every such Vessel when so filled; upon the Pain and Penalty that every Dairy Man, Farmer, or Seller of Butter, or other Person who shall offend in packing Butter for Sale, in any Vessel not made and marked by the Cooper or Maker thereof as aforesaid, or not soaked and seasoned as aforesaid, or in not branding the Weight of such Vessel, after the same shall be so soaked and seasoned as aforesaid, or in not branding his Christian Name and Surname at Length on every such Vessel as aforesaid, or in not imprinting his Christian Name and Surname on the Butter packed therein as aforesaid, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of five Pounds.

Directions for packing of Butter;

Penalty of 5l. for not conforming to them.

IV. And be it further enacted, That every Dairy Man, Farmer, or Seller of Butter, or other Person who shall pack any Butter for Sale, shall pack in every Tub, Firkin, and Half Firkin, (exclusive of the Tare of the Cask or Vessel,) the several and respective Quantities of good and merchantable Butter herein-after Quantities to be packed in each Vessel.

after mentioned; (that is to say,) in every Tub eighty-four Pounds Avoirdupois Weight net, and not less, (besides the Tare of the Cask,) of good and merchantable Butter; in every Firkin fifty-six Pounds Avoirdupois Weight net, and not less, (besides the Tare of the Cask,) of good and merchantable Butter; and in every Half Firkin twenty-eight Pounds Avoirdupois Weight net, and not less, (besides the Tare of the Cask,) of good and merchantable Butter; and that no Butter which is old or corrupt shall be mixed or packed up into any Tub, Firkin, or Half Firkin whatsoever, with any Butter which is new and sound; nor shall any Whey Butter be packed or mixed with any Butter that is made of Cream, but the said respective Sorts of Butter shall be packed up severally and apart by themselves, and shall not be mixed one with another; and every Tub, Firkin, or Half Firkin, of Butter, shall be of one Sort and Goodness throughout such Tub, Firkin, or Half Firkin; and that no Butter shall be salted with any Great Salt, but all Butter shall be salted and saved with Small fine Salt; nor shall more Salt be intermixed with the Butter than shall be needful for its Preservation; upon Pain and Penalty that every Dairy Man, Farmer, or Seller of Butter, or other such Person as aforesaid, who shall offend, by not putting up in each Tub, Firkin, and Half Firkin, of Butter to be sold, or to be exposed to Sale respectively, such Quantities as aforesaid, or by mixing Butter, or salting it contrary to the Directions aforesaid, shall for every Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds.

Butter not to be mixed, nor salted with Great Salt.

Penalty of 5*l.* for each Offence.

Penalty of 30*l.* for any Fraud in Sale of Butter, &c.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Change, Alteration, Fraud, or Deceit shall be made, used, or practised, by any Farmer, Dairy Man, and Seller of Butter, or Factor for the Sale or buying thereof, or any other Person or Persons whomsoever, either in the Vessel wherein Butter shall be packed for Sale as aforesaid, or in the Butter itself therein contained, whether in Quantity, Quality, Weight, or otherwise, or in any of the Brands or Marks directed to be placed on such Vessel as aforesaid, or in any of the Staves whereon such Brands or Marks shall be placed, or in any other Manner howsoever, after the packing of any Butter for Sale in any such Vessel as aforesaid, all and every Person or Persons who shall be concerned in making any such Change, Alteration, or in using or practising such Fraud or Deceit, shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence the Sum of thirty Pounds.

The full Quantity of Butter to be delivered in Vessels.

Satisfaction for Default may be recovered with Costs.

VI. And, to the Intent that the Benefit intended by this Act may be extended with full Effect to all Persons who do either cut out Butter by Retail or expend it, be it further enacted, that every Cheesemonger, Dealer in Butter, or other Person or Persons who shall sell to any Person or Persons any Tub or Tubs, Firkin or Firkins, Half Firkin or Half Firkins of Butter, shall deliver in every such Tub, Firkin, and Half Firkin, the full and due Quantity appointed by this Act, and not less, or in default thereof shall be liable to make Satisfaction to the Person or Persons who shall buy the same for what shall be wanting, according to the Price for which the same was sold; and shall be liable to an Action on the Case for Recovery of such Satisfaction, together with Costs of Suit.

Penalty of 5*l.* for re-packing in any Vessel Butter for Sale again.

VII. And be it further enacted, That no Cheesemonger, Dealer in Butter, or other Person or Persons whomsoever, shall re-pack for Sale any Butter, in any such Tub, Firkin, or Half Firkin as aforesaid, upon Pain and Penalty that every Cheesemonger, or other Person or Persons, who shall re-pack any Butter into any Tub or Tubs, Firkin or Firkins, or Half Firkin or Half Firkins, to sell the same again, shall for every Tub, Firkin, or Half Firkin, so re-packed, forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds.

Foreign Butter may be repacked in Vessels used for British Butter under certain Restrictions.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to make any Cheesemonger, or Dealer in Butter, or other Person or Persons whomsoever, liable to any of the Penalties of this Act, for using any of the Tubs, Firkins, or Half Firkins aforesaid, after the British Butter packed in such Vessels shall have been taken thereout, for the re-packing for Sale of any Foreign Butter, as do and shall, before he, she, or they so re-pack such Foreign Butter, entirely cut out or efface the several Names of the original Dairy Man, Farmer, or Seller of Butter, from and out of every such Vessel, leaving the Name and Tare of the Cooper, and the Tare of the original Dairy Man, Farmer, or Seller of Butter thereon; and after the Names are so taken out and effaced, do and shall, with an Iron, brand his, her, or their Christian Name and Surname, or Christian Names and Surnames, in Words at Length, and the Words "Foreign Butter" in permanent and legible Letters, upon the Bouge or Body of every such Vessel or Vessels, across two Staves at least, to denote that such Butter is Foreign Butter.

Penalty of 40*l.* for counterfeiting Names or Marks of Farmers, &c. on Vessels.

IX. 'And whereas divers Frauds and Abuses are daily practised in the Sale of Butter, in counterfeiting 'and forging the Names and Marks of Owners and Farmers, and of particular Dairy Men, upon Vessels 'wherein Butter is packed:' For preventing thereof in future, be it further enacted, That if any Person shall be hereafter convicted of counterfeiting or forging any of the Names or Marks of any such Owners, Farmers, or Dairy Men as aforesaid, or of causing the same, or any of them, or any Part thereof, to be counterfeited or forged, the Person or Persons so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Forty Pounds.

Recovery and Application of Penalties not exceeding 5*l.*

X. And be it further enacted, That all and every Offence and Offences committed against, or alleged to be committed against this Act, the Mode of determining which is not herein-before prescribed, and where the Penalty for the Offence shall not exceed the Sum of five Pounds, shall be inquired of, sued for, heard, and determined before one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, City, Borough, Town, Liberty, or Division, wherein such Offence shall be committed, or alleged to be committed; and upon Proof thereof, by one or more credible Witness or Witnesses upon Oath, before such Justice or Justices, the Penalties and Forfeitures thereby incurred shall or may be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of such Justice or Justices, the Overplus (after deducting the Charges of distraining and Costs) being to be rendered to such Offender; and that such Penalties and Forfeitures shall be to the Use of the Informer or Informers; and that in case sufficient Distress shall not be found, or such Penalties and Forfeitures shall not be paid forthwith, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, and he or they is and are hereby authorized and required, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, or their Hands and Seals, to cause such Offender or Offenders to be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction of the County or Place where such Offence shall be committed, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, for any Term not exceeding three Calendar Months, nor less than twenty-eight Days, unless such Penalties and Forfeitures, and all reasonable Charges, shall be sooner fully paid and satisfied.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the Justice or Justices before whom any Person shall be convicted in Manner prescribed by this Act shall cause such respective Conviction to be drawn up in the Form or to the Effect following; (that is to say,)

Form of Conviction.

'to wit. { BE it remembered, That on this —— Day of —— A. B. is convicted before —— —— of his Majesty's Justice or Justices of the Peace for the said County of —— [or, for the —— 'Riding or Division of the said County, of —— or, for the City, Liberty, or Town of —— as the 'Case shall happen to be] for that the said A. B. on [Time of committing Offence], at [Place of committing Offence], did [here state the Offence against the Act according to the Fact], contrary to the Form of the Statute in that Case made and provided; and the said —— adjudge him or her to pay and forfeit for the said 'Offence the Sum of ——. Given under my Hand and Seal, [or our Hands and Seals,] the Day and 'Year first above mentioned.'

Convictions to be transmitted to the Quarter Sessions, who may determine Appeals.

And the said Justice or Justices, before whom such Conviction shall be had, shall cause the same, so drawn up in the Form aforesaid, to be fairly written upon Parchment, and transmitted to the next General or Quarter Session of the Peace to be holden for the County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Liberty, or Place, wherein such Conviction was had, to be filed and kept amongst the Records of the said General or Quarter Session; and in case any Person or Persons so convicted shall appeal from the Judgment of the said Justice or Justices, to the said General or Quarter Session, the Justices in such General or Quarter Session are hereby required, upon receiving the said Conviction, drawn up in the Form aforesaid, to proceed to the Hearing and Determination of the Matter of the said Appeal, according to the Directions of this Act; any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Appeal may be made to the Quarter Sessions.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall think himself, herself, or themselves aggrieved by any Determination of any Justice or Justices of the Peace, who shall at any Time act in pursuance of the Power to him or them given by this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Person or Persons to appeal to the next General or General Quarter Session of the Peace to be holden for the County or Place where the said Offence shall be committed, or alleged to be committed, and the Justices assembled, presiding at such General or General Quarter Session, are hereby empowered to award Costs to either Party, as to them shall seem meet in respect of such Appeal.

Convictions not to be set aside for Want of Form, nor removeable into any Court at Westminster.

XIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no such Conviction made, or Judgment given as aforesaid, shall be set aside by the said Court of General or General Quarter Session for Want of Form, if the material Facts alleged in such Conviction or Judgment, and on which the same shall be grounded, be proved to the Satisfaction of the said Court; nor shall any such Conviction or Judgment, or any Order or Proceedings of the said Court, be removed or removeable by Certiorari, or any other Writ or Process whatsoever, into any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster; any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Recovery and Application of Penalties exceeding 5*l*.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That all such Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, imposed by this Act, as amount to more than the Sum of five Pounds, shall be sued for and recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster respectively; and that every such Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, last mentioned, shall be to the Use of him, her, or them, who shall inform or sue for the same, with Costs of Suit.

General Issue may be pleaded.

XV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall at any Time be sued, molested, or prosecuted, for any Thing by him or them done in pursuance or by colour of this Act, or of any Matter or Thing in this Act contained, such Person and Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence in his or their Defence or Defences; and if afterwards a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuited, or discontinue his, her, or their Action or Prosecution, or Judgment shall be given against him, her, or them, upon Demurrer or otherwise, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have Double Costs awarded to him or them against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

Act not to extend to Vessels containing not more than 14lb.

XVI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to the packing of Butter in any Pot or other Vessel which shall not be capable of containing more than fourteen Pounds Avoirdupois Weight of Butter.

Limitation of Actions.

XVII. Provided always, That every Information, Prosecution, or Suit, which shall be laid or brought for any Offence committed against this Act, shall be commenced within four Months after the Offence committed.

CAP. LXXXVII.

An Act for regulating the Trade or Business of Pawnbrokers.—[14th May 1796.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for further regulating the Trade or Business of Pawnbrokers, which was to be in 'Force for one whole Year, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament: And 'whereas, by an Act passed in the thirty-first Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, the said Act of the 'twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty was continued for one whole Year, and from 'thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament: And whereas, by an Act passed in the thirty-'third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, the said Act passed in the twenty-ninth Year of his present 'Majesty's Reign was in Part repealed, and, subject to such Repeal, continued from the Expiration 'thereof for the further Term of two Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Par-'liament: And whereas the said Act of the twenty-ninth Year of his present Majesty's Reign requires 'some Amendments, Alterations, and Additions; and it would be convenient for the Magistrates, and be-'neficial to the Pawnbrokers and the Public, if the Powers of the said Act, with such Amendments, Al-'terations, and Additions as are requisite, were consolidated and reduced into one Act of Parliament, to be 'in Force for a limited Time:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Acts, passed in the twenty-ninth, thirty-first, and thirty-third Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, for further regulating the Trade or Business of Pawnbrokers, shall be, and the same are hereby declared to be in full Force and Effect until the Expiration of the present Session of Parliament; and from and after such Expiration this Act shall commence and take Effect in lieu and instead thereof, and be put in Execution for and during the Term of three Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

29 Geo. III. Cap. 57. 31 Geo. III. Cap. 52. and 33 Geo. III. Cap. 53, recited.

From Expiration of the present Session this Act to be put in Execution for three Years.

II. And be it further enacted, That, upon and from the Commencement of this Act, it shall be lawful for all Persons using and exercising the Trade and Business of a Pawnbroker, to demand, receive, and take, of and from all and every Person and Persons applying or offering to redeem any Goods or Chattels pawned or pledged with such Pawnbroker, a Profit after the following Rates, over and above the Principal Sum and Sums which shall have been lent and advanced upon the respective Pledge or Pledges, before any such Pawnbroker shall be obliged to re-deliver the same; videlicet, Pawnbrokers allowed to take the following Rate for Profit.

For every Pledge upon which there shall have been lent any Sum not exceeding two Shillings and six Pence, the Sum of one Halfpenny, for any Time during which the said Pledge shall remain in Pawn, not exceeding one Calendar Month, and the same for every Calendar Month afterwards, including the current Month in which such Pledge shall be redeemed, although such Month shall not be expired:

For every Pledge upon which there shall have been lent the Sum of five Shillings, one Penny:

For every Pledge upon which there shall have been lent seven Shillings and six Pence, one Penny Halfpenny.

For every Pledge upon which there shall have been lent ten Shillings, two Pence.

For every Pledge upon which there shall have been lent twelve Shillings and six Pence, two Pence Halfpenny.

For every Pledge upon which there shall have been lent fifteen Shillings, three Pence:

For every Pledge upon which there shall have been lent seventeen Shillings and six Pence, three Pence Halfpenny:

For every Pledge upon which there shall have been lent one Pound, four Pence; and so on progressively and in Proportion for any Sum not exceeding forty Shillings:

For every Pledge upon which there shall have been lent any Sum of Money exceeding forty Shillings, and not exceeding forty-two Shillings, eight Pence:

And for every Pledge upon which there shall have been lent any Sum exceeding forty-two Shillings, and not exceeding ten Pounds, at and after the Rate of three Pence, and no more, for the Loan of every twenty Shillings, for all such Money so lent, by the Calendar Month, including the current Month; and so in Proportion for any fractional Sum:

Which said several Sums shall be taken in lieu of, and as a full Satisfaction for, all Interest due, and Charges for Warehouse Room.

Pawnbrokers Rates further regulated.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases where any intermediate Sum lent upon any Pawn or Pledge shall exceed the Sum of two Shillings and six Pence, and not exceed the Sum of forty Shillings, the Person lending the same shall and may take, by Way of Profit as aforesaid, at and after the Rate of four Pence, and no more, for the Loan of twenty Shillings by the Calendar Month, including the current Month as aforesaid Limiting the Profits for Part of a Month.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in all Cases where the Party or Parties entitled to and applying for the Redemption of Goods pawned, within the Space of seven Days after the Expiration of the first Calendar Month after the same shall have been pledged, he, she, or they shall and may be at Liberty to redeem the same, without paying any Thing by Way of Profit to the Pawnbroker for the said seven Days, or such Part thereof as shall then have elapsed; and that in all Cases where the Party or Parties so entitled, and applying as aforesaid, after the Expiration of the said first seven Days, and before the Expiration of the first fourteen Days of the second Calendar Month, he, she, or they shall and may be at Liberty to redeem such Goods, upon paying the Profit payable for one Calendar Month, and the Half of another Calendar Month to the Pawnbroker; but that in all Cases where the Party or Parties so entitled, and applying as aforesaid, after the Expiration of the said first fourteen Days, and before the Expiration of the said second Calendar Month, it shall be lawful for the Pawnbroker to demand and take the Profit of the whole second Month; and that the like Regulation and Restriction shall take place and be in Force in every subsequent Calendar Month wherein Application shall be made for redeeming Goods pawned.

Pawns to be entered in Books.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons who, from and after the Commencement of this Act, shall take, by Way of Pawn, Pledge, or Exchange, of or from any Person or Persons whomsoever, any Goods or Chattels, of what Kind soever the same shall be, and whereon shall be lent any Sum of Money exceeding five Shillings, shall forthwith, and before he, she, or they shall or may advance or lend any Money upon such Pawn or Pledge, enter or cause to be entered, in a fair and regular Manner, in a Book or Books to be kept by him, her, or them for that Purpose, a Description of the Goods or Chattels which he, she, or they shall receive in Pawn, Pledge, or Exchange, and also the Sum of Money to be advanced or lent thereon, with the Day of the Month and Year on which, and the Name of the Person and Persons by whom, such Goods or Chattels are so pawned, pledged, or exchanged, and the Name of the Street, and Number of the House, if the same shall be said to be numbered, where such Person shall abide, and whether such Person or Persons is or are a Lodger in, or the Keeper of such House, by using the Letter L. if a Lodger, and the Letters H. K. if a Housekeeper; and also the Name and Place of Abode of the Owner or Owners of such Goods and Chattels, according to the Information of the Person pawning, pledging, or exchanging the same, into all which Circumstances the Pawnbroker is hereby required to inquire of the Party pawning before any Money shall be lent or advanced, or any Exchange shall take place; and in all Cases where the Money lent on any such Goods or Chattels shall not exceed the Sum of five Shillings, such Entry shall be made in such Book or Books, by all and every such Person and Persons so taking the same by Way of Pawn, Pledge, or Exchange as aforesaid, within four Hours next after the said Goods and Chattels shall have been so pawned, pledged, or exchanged as aforesaid; and every such Person shall, at the Time of the taking of every Pawn, Pledge, or Exchange whatsoever, give to the Person or Persons so pawning, pledging, or exchanging the same, a Note or Memorandum, fairly and legibly written or printed, or in Part written and in Part printed, containing therein, in like Manner, a Description of the Goods and Chattels which he, she, or they have received in Pawn, Pledge, or Exchange, and also the Sum of Money advanced thereon, with the Day of the Month and Year on which, and the Name and Place of Abode, and Number of the House, if said to be numbered, of the Person or Persons by whom such Goods or Chattels are so pawned, pledged, or exchanged, and whether such Person is a Lodger or Housekeeper as aforesaid, by using the Letter L. if a Lodger, and the Letters H. K. if a Housekeeper, and also the Name and Place of Abode of the Owner or Owners thereof, according to the Information aforesaid, and upon which said Note or Memorandum, or on the Back whereof, shall be moreover fairly written or printed the Name and Place of Abode of the Pawnbroker giving the same; which said Note or Memorandum the Party and Parties pawning, pledging, or exchanging the said Goods or Chattels shall, and he, she, or they is and are hereby required to accept and take in all Cases, and the Pawnbroker shall not receive and retain such Pledge, unless the Party pledging, or offering to pledge the same, shall accept and take such Note or Memorandum; and every such Note, where the Sum lent shall be less than five Shillings, shall be delivered gratis; and where the Sum lent shall be five Shillings or upwards, and less than ten Shillings, such Pawnbroker shall and may take one Halfpenny for the same; and where the Sum lent shall be ten Shillings or upwards, and less than twenty Shillings, such Pawnbroker shall and may take one Penny for the same; and where the Sum lent shall be twenty Shillings or upwards, and less than five Pounds, the Sum of two Pence for the same; and where the Sum lent shall be five Pounds or upwards, the Sum of four Pence, and no more, and which Note shall be produced to the Pawnbroker before he or she shall be obliged to re-deliver the respective Goods or Chattels, except as herein-after is excepted.

Pawnbrokers to give a Note describing Things pawned.

VI. And

The Amount of Profits on Duplicates, indorsed on Pledges redeemed.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases where any Goods or Chattels, pawned or pledged, shall be redeemed, the Pawnbroker of whom the same shall be redeemed shall, at the Time of such Redemption, fairly and legibly write or indorse, or cause to be written or indorsed, upon every Duplicate respecting such Pawn or Pledge, the Amount of the Profit taken by him, or on his Account, on the Money lent upon such Goods or Chattels so redeemed, and shall keep such Duplicate in his Custody for the Space of one Year then next following.

Penalty against unlawfully pawning Goods the Property of others.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, if any Person or Persons shall knowingly and designedly pawn, pledge, or exchange, or unlawfully dispose of the Goods or Chattels of any other Person or Persons, not being employed or authorized by the Owner or Owners thereof so to do, it shall be lawful for any Justice to grant his Warrant to apprehend any Person so offending, and if he, she, or they shall be thereof convicted by the Oath of any credible Witness or Witnesses, or by the Confession of the Person or Persons, charged with such Offence, before any Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, where the Offence shall be committed, (which Oath every such Justice or Justices as aforesaid is and are hereby empowered and required to administer,) every such Offender shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of twenty Shillings, and also the full Value of the Goods or Chattels so pawned, pledged, exchanged, or disposed of, such Value to be ascertained by such Justice or Justices; and in case the said Forfeiture shall not be forthwith paid, the Justice or Justices of the Peace as aforesaid, before whom such Conviction shall be had, shall commit the Party or Parties so convicted to the House of Correction, or some other public Prison of the County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, wherein the Offender or Offenders shall reside or be convicted, there to remain and be kept to hard Labour for a Space not exceeding three Calendar Months, unless the said Forfeitures shall be sooner paid; and if, within three Days before the Expiration of the said Term of Commitment, the said Forfeiture shall not be paid, the said Justice or Justices, at his and their Discretion, may order the Person or Persons so convicted to be publicly whipped in the House of Correction or Prison to which the Offender or Offenders shall have been committed, or in some other public Place of the County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, where the Offence shall have been committed, as to such Justice or Justices shall seem proper; and the said respective Forfeitures, when recovered, shall be applied towards making Satisfaction thereout to the Party or Parties injured, and defraying the Costs of the Prosecution, as shall be adjudged reasonable by the Justice or Justices before whom such Conviction shall be had; but if the Party or Parties injured shall decline to accept of such Satisfaction and Costs, or if there shall be any Overplus of the said respective Forfeitures, after making such Satisfaction, and paying such Costs as aforesaid, then such respective Forfeitures, or the Overplus thereof, (as the Case shall happen,) shall be paid and applied to and for the Use of the Poor of the Parish or Place where such Offence shall have been committed, and shall be paid to the Overseers of the Poor of such Parish or Place for that Purpose.

Persons forging or counterfeiting Notes.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall counterfeit, forge, or alter, or procure to be counterfeited, forged, or altered, any such Note or Memorandum as aforesaid, or shall utter, vend, or sell any such Note as aforesaid, knowing the same to be counterfeited, forged, or altered, with Intent to defraud any Person or Persons whomsoever, every such Person shall be punished in Manner herein-after mentioned; and it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons, his, her, or their Servants or Agents, to whom any Note shall be uttered or offered, which he, she, or they shall have Reason to suspect to have been counterfeited, forged, or altered, to seize and detain such Person or Persons uttering or offering the same, and to deliver him, her, or them, as soon as conveniently may be, into the Custody of a Constable, or other Peace Officer, who shall, and is hereby required, as soon as conveniently may be, to convey such Person or Persons before some Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, wherein the Offence shall be supposed to have been committed; and if upon Examination it shall appear, to the Satisfaction of such Justice or Justices, that the Person or Persons charged with having committed any such Offence is or are guilty thereof, then and in every such Case the said Justice or Justices is and are hereby authorized and required to commit the Party or Parties offending to the Common Gaol or House of Correction of the County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, wherein the Offence shall be committed, there to be imprisoned for any Time not exceeding the Space of three Calendar Months, nor less than one Calendar Month, at the Discretion of such Justice or Justices.

For punishing Persons not giving a good Account of themselves, on offering to pawn Goods, &c.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Person or Persons who shall offer, by Way of Pawn, Pledge, Exchange, or Sale, any Goods or Chattels, shall not be able, or shall refuse to give a satisfactory Account of himself, herself, or themselves, or of the Means by which he, she, or they became possessed of such Goods or Chattels, or shall wilfully give any false Information to the Pawnbroker, or to his or her Servant or Servants, as to whether such Goods or Chattels are his, her, or their own Property or not, or of his or her Name and Place of Abode, or the Name and Place of Abode of the Owner or Owners of the said Goods or Chattels, or if there shall be any other Reason to suspect that such Goods or Chattels are stolen, or otherwise illegally or clandestinely obtained, or if any Person or Persons, not entitled, nor having any Colour of Title by Law, to redeem Goods or Chattels in Pledge or Pawn, shall attempt or endeavour to redeem the same, it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons, his, her, or their Servants or Agents, to whom such Goods or Chattels shall be so offered, or with whom such Goods or Chattels are in Pledge, to seize and detain such Person or Persons, and the said Goods or Chattels, and to deliver such Person or Persons immediately into the Custody of a Constable or other Peace Officer, who shall and is is hereby required, as soon as may be, to convey such Person or Persons, and the said Goods or Chattels so offered, before some Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, wherein the Offence shall be supposed to have been committed; and if such Justice or Justices shall, upon Examination and Enquiry, have Cause to suspect that the said Goods or Chattels were stolen, or illegally or clandestinely obtained, or that the Person or Persons offering and endeavouring to redeem the same shall not have any Pretence or Colour of Right to redeem the same, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices to commit such Person or Persons into safe Custody for such reasonable Time as shall be necessary for the obtaining proper Information on the Subject, in order to be further examined; and if upon either of the said Examinations, it shall appear to the Satisfaction of such Justice or Justices, that the said Goods or Chattels were stolen, or illegally or clandestinely obtained, or that the Person or Persons offering or endeavouring to redeem the same hath or have not any Pretence or Colour of Right so to do, the said Justice or Justices is and are hereby authorized and required to commit the Party or Parties offending to the Common Gaol or House of Correction of the County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, wherein the Offence shall be committed, there to be dealt with according to Law, where the Nature of the Offence shall authorize such Commitment by any other Law; and where the Nature of the Offence shall not authorize such Commitment by any other Law, then such Commitment shall be for any Time not exceeding three Calendar Months, at the Discretion of such Justice or Justices.

Where Goods unlawfully pawned, the Pawnbroker to restore them.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the Owner or Owners of any Goods or Chattels unlawfully pawned, pledged, or exchanged, shall make out, either on his, her, or their Oath, or by the Oath of any credible Witness, or being one of the People called Quakers, by solemn Affirmation, before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, within his or their Jurisdiction, that such Owner or Owners hath or have had his, her, or their Goods or Chattels unlawfully obtained, or taken from him, her, or them, and that there is just Cause to suspect that any Person or Persons, within the Jurisdiction of any such Justice or Justices, hath or have taken to Pawn, or by Way of Pledge, or in Exchange, any Goods or Chattels of such Owner or Owners, and without the Privity or Authority of such Owner or Owners thereof, and shall make appear, to the Satisfaction of any such Justice or Justices, probable Grounds for such the Suspicion of the Owner or Owners thereof, then, and in any such Case, any Justice or Justices of the Peace, within his or their Jurisdiction, may issue his or their Warrant for searching, within the Hours of Business, the House, Warehouse, or other Place of any such Person or Persons who shall be charged on Oath or Affirmation as aforesaid, as suspected to have received or taken in Pawn, or by Way of Pledge, or in Exchange, any such Goods or Chattels, without the Privity of, or Authority from, the Owner or Owners thereof; and if the Occupier or Occupiers of any House, Warehouse, or other Place wherein any such Goods or Chattels shall, on Oath or Affirmation as aforesaid, be charged or suspected to be, shall, after the Commencement of this Act, on Request made to him, her, or them, to open the same, by any Peace Officer authorized to search there, by Warrant from a Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, in which such House, Warehouse, or other Place, shall be situate, refuse to open the same, and permit the same to be searched, it shall be lawful for any Peace Officer to break open any such House, Warehouse, or other Place, within the Hours of Business, and to search as he shall think fit therein, for the Goods or Chattels suspected to be there, doing no wilful Damage; and no Pawnbroker, or other Person or Persons, shall oppose or hinder any such Search; and if upon the Search of the House, Warehouse, or other Place, of any such suspected Person or Persons as aforesaid, any of the Goods or Chattels which shall have been so pawned, pledged, or exchanged as aforesaid, shall be found, and the Property of the Owner or Owners from whom the same shall have been unlawfully obtained or taken, shall be made out to the Satisfaction of any such Justice or Justices, by the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, or if any such Witness or Witnesses shall be of the People called Quakers, by solemn Affirmation, or by the Confession of the Person or Persons charged with any such Offence, any such Justice or Justices shall thereupon cause the Goods and Chattels found on any such Search, and pawned, pledged, or exchanged as aforesaid, to be forthwith restored to the Owner or Owners thereof.

Punishing the Pawnbroker who will not deliver up Goods to the Pawner.

XI. 'And whereas Goods and Chattels are often pawned or pledged for securing the Payment of Money 'lent thereon, and the Profit thereof, and afterwards the Borrowers, or their Representatives, are desirous to 'repay the same, and the Profit due thereon, and make Tender thereof to the Person or Persons with whom 'the same are so pawned or pledged; yet they are frequently under great Difficulties to get back the Goods 'and Chattels so pawned, and are often under a Necessity to commence Suits at Law for the Recovery 'thereof, to their great Expence:' For Remedy whereof be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, if any Goods or Chattels shall be pawned or pledged for securing any Money lent thereon, not exceeding in the Whole the Principal Sum of ten Pounds, and the Profit thereof, and if within one Year after the pawning or pledging thereof, (Proof having been made on Oath or Affirmation as aforesaid, by one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, and by producing the Note or Memorandum directed to be given by this Act as aforesaid, before any Justice or Justices, to the Satisfaction of any such Justice or Justices, of the pawning or pledging of any such Goods or Chattels within the said Space of one Year, or one Year and three Months, as the Case may be,) any such Pawner or Pawners, who was or were the real Owner or Owners of such Goods or Chattels at the Time of the pawning or pledging thereof, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall tender unto the Person or Persons who lent, on the Security of the Goods or Chattels pawned, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, the Principal Money borrowed thereon, and Profit according to the Table of Rates by this Act established, and the Person who took such Goods or Chattels in pawn, his or her Executors, Administrators, or Aſſigns, ſhall thereupon, without ſhewing reaſonable Cauſe for ſo doing, to the Satisfaction of ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices, neglect or refuſe to deliver back the Goods or Chattels ſo pawned for any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding the ſaid Principal Sum of ten Pounds, to the Perſon or Perſons who borrowed the Money thereon, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, then and in any ſuch Caſe, on Oath or Affirmation as aforeſaid thereof made by the Pawner or Pawners thereof, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, or ſome other credible Perſon, any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, where the Perſon or Perſons who took ſuch Pawn as aforeſaid, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, ſhall dwell, on the Application of the Borrower or Borrowers, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, is and are hereby required to cauſe ſuch Perſon or Perſons who took ſuch Pawn, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, within the Juriſdiction of the Juſtice or Juſtices, to come before ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices, and ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices is and are hereby authorized and required to examine on Oath or ſolemn Affirmation, as the Caſe may require, the Parties themſelves, and ſuch other credible Perſon or Perſons as ſhall appear before him or them, touching the Premiſes; and if Tender of the Principal Money due, and all Profit thereof as aforeſaid, ſhall be proved, by Oath or Affirmation as aforeſaid, to have been made, (ſuch Principal Money not exceeding the ſaid Sum of ten Pounds,) to the Lender or Lenders thereof, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, by the Borrower or Borrowers of ſuch Principal Money, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, within the ſaid Space of one Year, or one Year and three Months, as the Caſe may be, after the ſaid pawning or pledging of the Goods or Chattels, then on Payment by the Borrower or Borrowers, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, of ſuch Principal Money, and the Profit due thereon as aforeſaid, to the Lender or Lenders, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns; and in caſe the Lender or Lenders, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, ſhall refuſe to accept thereof, on Tender thereof to him, her, or them, made by the Borrower or Borrowers thereof, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, before any ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices, ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices ſhall thereupon, by Order under his or their Hand or Hands, direct the Goods or Chattels ſo pawned forthwith to be delivered up to the Pawner or Pawners thereof, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns; and if the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall have lent any Principal Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the Whole the ſaid Sum of ten Pounds, on any Goods or Chattels pawned, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, ſhall neglect or refuſe to deliver up or make Satisfaction for the Goods or Chattels which ſhall be ſo proved, to the Satisfaction of ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices as aforeſaid, to have been ſo pawned, as any ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace as aforeſaid ſhall order and direct, then any ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices ſhall, and is and are hereby authorized and required to commit the Party or Parties ſo refuſing to deliver up or make Satisfaction for the ſame, to the Houſe of Correction, or ſome other public Priſon for the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, wherein the Offender or Offenders ſhall reſide or be convicted, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize, until he, ſhe, or they ſhall deliver up the Goods or Chattels ſo pawned and continuing redeemable as aforeſaid, according to the Order of ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices as aforeſaid, or make ſuch Satisfaction or Compenſation as ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices ſhall adjudge reaſonable, for the Value thereof, to the Party or Parties entitled to the Redemption of ſuch Goods or Chattels ſo pawned, and continuing redeemable as aforeſaid.

Perſons producing Notes or Memorandums deemed the Owners.

XII. And, to prevent any Inconvenience to Perſons carrying on the Trade and Buſineſs of a Pawnbroker, from ſeveral different Perſons claiming a Property in the ſame Goods or Chattels, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall at any Time produce any ſuch Note or Memorandum as aforeſaid to the Perſon or Perſons with whom the Goods therein ſpecified were pawned or pledged, as the Owner thereof, or as authorized by the Owner thereof to redeem the ſame, and require a Delivery of the Goods or Chattels mentioned therein to him, her, or them, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be, and is and are hereby deemed and taken to be, ſo far as reſpects the Perſon or Perſons having ſuch Goods or Chattels in Pledge, the real Owner and Owners, Proprietor and Proprietors of ſuch Goods and Chattels, and the Perſon or Perſons ſo uſing the ſaid Trade and Buſineſs of a Pawnbroker ſhall be, and is and are hereby directed and required, after receiving Satisfaction purſuant to the Proviſions of this Act reſpecting Principal and Profit, to deliver ſuch Goods and Chattels to the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall ſo produce the ſaid Note or Memorandum to him, her, or them, and ſhall be, and is and are hereby indemnified for ſo doing, unleſs he, ſhe, or they ſhall have had previous Notice, from the real Owner or Owners thereof, not to deliver the ſame to the Perſon or Perſons producing ſuch Note, or unleſs Notice ſhall have been given to him, her, or them, that the Goods and Chattels pawned have been, or are ſuſpected to have been fraudulently or felonioufly taken or obtained, and unleſs the real Owner or Owners thereof proceeds or proceed in Manner hereinafter provided and directed for the redeeming of Goods and Chattels pledged, where ſuch Note hath been loſt, miſlaid, deſtroyed, or fraudulently obtained from the Owner or Owners thereof.

Where Notes or Memorandums loſt, the Pawnbroker to deliver a Copy.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any Pawnbroker ſhall have had ſuch previous Notice as aforeſaid, or in caſe any ſuch Note or Memorandum as aforeſaid ſhall be loſt, miſlaid, deſtroyed, or fraudulently obtained from the Owner or Owners thereof, and the Goods and Chattels mentioned therein ſhall remain unredeemed, that then and in every ſuch Caſe the Pawnbroker or Pawnbrokers with whom the ſaid Goods and Chattels were ſo pledged or exchanged ſhall, at the Requeſt and Application of any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall repreſent himſelf, herſelf, or themſelves to the Pawnbroker as the Owner or Owners of the Goods and Chattels in Pledge, or exchanged as aforeſaid, deliver to ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo requeſting and applying for the ſame a Copy of the Note or Memorandum ſo loſt, miſ-laid, destroyed, or fraudulently obtained as aforesaid, with the Form of an Affidavit of the particular Circumstances attending the Case, printed or written, or in Part printed and in Part written, on the said Copy, as the same shall be stated to him or her by the Party applying as aforesaid, for which Copy of such Note or Memorandum, and Form of Affidavit, in case the Money lent shall not exceed the Sum of five Shillings, the Pawnbroker shall receive the Sum of one Halfpenny, and in case the Money lent shall exceed the Sum of five Shillings, and not exceed the Sum of ten Shillings, the Pawnbroker shall receive the Sum of one Penny; and in case the Money lent shall exceed the Sum of ten Shillings, the Pawnbroker shall receive the like Sum of Money as he is entitled to receive and take on giving the original Note or Memorandum, such Money to be paid by the Party applying for the same at the Time of making the said Application; and the Person or Persons having so obtained such Copy of the Note or Memorandum, and Form of Affidavit as aforesaid, shall thereupon prove his, her, or their Property in, or Right to, such Goods and Chattels, to the Satisfaction of some Justice of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Liberty, or Place, where the said Goods or Chattels shall have been pledged, pawned, or exchanged, and shall also verify on Oath or Affirmation, as the Case may be, before some Justice of the Peace, the Truth of the particular Circumstances attending the Case mentioned in such Affidavit or Affirmation to be made as aforesaid, the Caption of such Oath or Affirmation to be authenticated by the Hand Writing thereto of the Justice before whom the same shall be made, and who shall and is hereby required so to authenticate the same, whereupon the Pawnbroker shall suffer the Person or Persons proving such Property to the Satisfaction of such Justice as aforesaid, and making such Affidavit or Affirmation as aforesaid, on leaving such Copy of the said Note or Memorandum, and the said Affidavit or Affirmation with the said Pawnbroker, to redeem such Goods or Chattels.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Goods and Chattels which shall be pawned or pledged, shall be deemed forfeited, and may be sold at the Expiration of one whole Year, exclusive of the Day whereon the Goods and Chattels were so pawned as aforesaid; and that all Goods and Chattels so forfeited, on which any Sum above ten Shillings, and not exceeding ten Pounds, shall have been lent, shall be sold by public Auction, but not otherwise, by the Order of the Person having the same in Pawn, at and after the Expiration of the said Year; but the Person employed to sell such Goods and Chattels by Auction shall, and he is hereby required to cause the same to be exposed to public View, and Catalogues thereof to be published, and an Advertisement, giving Notice of such Sale, and containing the Name or Names of the Pawnbroker or Pawnbrokers with whom the said Goods or Chattels were in Pledge, to be inserted on two several Days in some public Newspaper, two Days at least before the first Day of Sale, upon Pain of forfeiting to the Owner or Owners of the said Goods or Chattels, for every Offence in the Premises, the Sum of ten Pounds.

On Notice from Persons having Goods in Pledge not to sell, three Months further allowed beyond the Year, for Redemption.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Person or Persons entitled to redeem Goods or Chattels in Pledge shall, before or upon the Expiration of the said one Year from the Time of pawning the same, give Notice in Writing, or in the Presence of one Witness, to the Person or Persons having the same in Pledge, or leave the same at his, her, or their usual Place of Abode, not to sell the same at the End of the said one Year, then and in every such Case such Goods or Chattels shall not be sold or disposed of by the Person or Persons having the same in Pledge until after the Expiration of three Calendar Months, to be computed from the Expiration of the said Year; during which said Term of three Months the Owner or Owners of the said Goods and Chattels shall have Liberty to redeem the same upon the Terms stipulated and provided by this Act.

Account of Sales to be entered by the Pawnbrokers in a Book; and Overplus paid to the Owner of the Goods pawned or sold.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person or Persons to whom any Goods or Chattels shall have been pawned or pledged shall, from Time to Time, enter in a Book or Books, to be kept by him, her, or them, for that Purpose, a true and just Account of the Sale of all Goods and Chattels pawned to him, her, or them, for upwards of ten Shillings, which shall be sold as aforesaid, expressing the Day when, and the Money for which such Goods or Chattels pawned were sold, together with the Name and Place of Abode of the Auctioneer by whom the same were sold, according to the Information thereof from the Auctioneer; and in case any such Goods or Chattels shall be sold for more than the Principal Money and Profit aforesaid due thereon at the Time of such Sale, the Overplus shall, by every such Pawnbroker, be paid, on Demand, to the Person by whom, or on whose Account, such Goods or Chattels were pawned, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, in case such Demand shall be made within three Years after such Sale, the necessary Costs and Charges of such Sale being first deducted; and such Person or Persons who pawned or pledged such Goods or Chattels, or for whom such Goods or Chattels were so pawned or pledged, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall, for his, her, or their Satisfaction in this Matter, be permitted to inspect the Entry to be made as aforesaid of every such Sale, paying for such Inspection the Sum of one Penny, and no more; and in case any Person or Persons shall refuse to permit any such Person or Persons who pawned or pledged such Goods or Chattels, or who is entitled to such Overplus Money, to inspect such Entry as aforesaid, in any such Book or Books, such Person or Persons, if an Executor or Executors, Administrator or Administrators, or Assignee or Assignees, at such Time producing, his, her, or their Letters Testamentary, Letters of Administration or Assignment; or in case the Goods or Chattels were sold for more than the Sum entered in any such Book or Books, or if any such Person or Persons shall not make such Entry as aforesaid, or shall not have bona fide, according to the Directions of this Act, sold the same, or shall refuse to pay such Overplus upon Demand to the Pawner or Pawners, Owner or Owners, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, he, she, or they, producing such their Letters Testamentary, Letters of Administration

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if, in the Courſe of any Proceedings before any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, in purſuance of or under this Act, it ſhall appear, or be proved to the Satisfaction of the Juſtice or Juſtices, upon Oath or ſolemn Affirmation, that any of the Goods or Chattels pawned as aforeſaid have been ſold before the Time allowed by this Act, or otherwiſe than according to the Directions of this Act, or have been embezzled or loſt, or are become, or have been rendered of leſs Value than the ſame were at the Time of pawning or pledging thereof, by or through the Default, Neglect, or wilful Miſbehaviour of the Perſon or Perſons to whom the ſame were ſo pledged or pawned, his, her, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, Agents or Servants, then and in any such Case it shall be lawful for every such Justice and Justices, and he and they is and are hereby required to allow and award a reasonable Satisfaction to the Owner or Owners of such Goods or Chattels in respect thereof, or of such Damage; and the Sum or Sums of Money so allowed or awarded, in case the same shall not amount to the Principal and Profit aforesaid, which shall appear to be due to any Person or Persons to whom the same were so pledged or pawned, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall be deducted out of the said Principal and Profit; and in all Cases where the Goods and Chattels pawned as aforesaid shall have been damaged as aforesaid, it shall be sufficient for the Pawner or Pawners, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, to pay or tender the Money due upon the Balance, after deducting out of the Principal and Profit as aforesaid for the Goods or Chattels pawned, such reasonable Satisfaction, in respect to such Damage, as any such Justice or Justices shall order or award, and upon so doing the Justice or Justices shall proceed as if the Pawner or Pawners, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, had paid or tendered the whole Money due for the Principal and Profit aforesaid; and if the Satisfaction to be allowed and awarded to the Owner or Owners of such Goods or Chattels shall be equal to, or exceed the Principal and Profit aforesaid, then and in such Case the Person or Persons to whom the same were so pledged or pawned, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall deliver the Goods or Chattels so pledged to the Owner or Owners thereof, without being paid any Thing for Principal or Profit in respect thereof, and shall also pay such Excess, if any, to the Person or Persons entitled thereto, under the Penalty of ten Pounds, to be recovered and applied in Manner herein-after mentioned.

Pawnbrokers to produce their Books when necessary.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, upon Complaint made to him on the Oath or Affirmation of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, where any Information shall be laid against any Pawnbroker for having offended against this Act, or respecting any Dispute between any Pawnbroker and Person having pawned Goods, or the Owner or Owners of Goods pawned, or respecting any Felony or other Matter, or on any other Occasion whatsoever, which, in the Judgment of any Justice or Justices, shall make the Production of any Book, Note, Voucher, Memorandum, Duplicate, or other Paper, necessary, which shall or ought to be in the Hands, Custody, or Power of any Pawnbroker, to summon such Pawnbroker before him, to attend, with all and every or any Book, Note, Voucher, Memorandum, Duplicate, or Paper, which he or she may or ought to have in his or her Custody or Power relating to the same, which he or she is hereby required to produce before such Justice or Justices in the State the same was or were made at the Time the Pawn or Pledge was received, without any Alteration, Erasement, or Obliteration whatsoever; and in case such Pawnbroker shall neglect or refuse to attend, or to produce the same in its true and perfect State, such Pawnbroker shall, in case he or she doth not shew good Cause for such Neglect or Refusal, to the Satisfaction of such Justice or Justices, forfeit the Sum of ten Pounds, for the Use, and to be levied in the Manner herein-after mentioned.

Penalty on Pawnbrokers offending against this Act.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Pawnbroker shall, from and after the Commencement of this Act, in anywise offend against this Act, every such Pawnbroker shall, for every such Offence in neglecting to make or cause to be made in a fair and regular Manner in such Book or Books as aforesaid, any such Entry as is required to be made by him, her, or them, by this Act, forfeit the Sum of ten Pounds; and for every other Offence against this Act, where no Forfeiture or Penalty is provided or imposed on any particular or specific Offence against any Part of this Act, the Sum of five Pounds; and that all Forfeitures incurred by any Offence committed against this Act shall and may be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender or Offenders, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, of any Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Town, or Place where the Offence shall be committed, and it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices to award to the Party complaining, out of the said Penalty, the Sum of two Pounds and ten Shillings, and the Remainder of the aforesaid Penalty or Penalties, not otherwise disposed of and applied by this Act, to be paid and applied to and for the Use of the Poor of the Parish or Place where the Offence shall have been committed, and shall be paid to the Overseers of the Poor of such Parish or Place for that Purpose.

Limiting the Time of Prosecution or Information.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person or Persons shall be subject or liable to any Prosecution or Information before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, by virtue of this Act, for any Offence or Offences against this Act, unless Information shall be given of such Offence or Offences within twelve Calendar Months next after the Offence committed.

Churchwardens, &c. to prosecute, &c.

XXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of any Parish or Place where any Offence shall be supposed to have been committed by any Pawnbroker against this Act, or some or one of such Officers, at the Discretion or Direction of any Justice of the Peace, on having Notice from such Justice of the Peace of such Offence being supposed to have been committed, shall, and they, or some or one of them, to be nominated by such Justice as aforesaid, are and is hereby required to prosecute every Offender for every Offence so to be suggested by such Justice to have been committed against this Act, at the Expence of the respective Parish whereof they or he are, is, or shall be, for the Time being, such Officers or Officer.

Act not to extend to Persons lending Money at 5 l. per Cent. without further Profit.

XXV. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any Person or Persons whomsoever, who shall lend Money to any Person or Persons whomsoever upon Pawn or Pledge at the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum Interest, without taking any further or greater Profit for the Loan or Forbearance of such Money lent, on any Pretence whatsoever.

XXVI. And

The Act to extend to Executors, &c. of Pawnbrokers.

XXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Provisoes, Regulations, and Clauses contained in this present Act shall, from and after the End of this present Session of Parliament, extend to and include the Executors, Administrators, and Assigns of all and every deceased Pawnbroker, in the same Manner as the same extend to and include the Pawnbroker when living, save and except that no such Executor or Administrator of any such deceased Pawnbroker shall be answerable for any Penalty or Forfeiture personally, or to be paid out of his, her, or their own Monies or Estate, unless the same shall be incurred and forfeited by his, her, or their own Act or Neglect.

General Issue.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall at any Time or Times, be sued, molested, or prosecuted for any Thing by him, her, or them, done or executed in pursuance of this Act, or of any Clause, Matter, or Thing herein contained, such Person or Persons may plead the General Issue, and give the Special Matter in Evidence for his, her, or their Defence; and if upon the Trial a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuited, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have Double Costs awarded to him, her, or them, against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

Inhabitants of any Place where Offences committed deemed competent Witnesses.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Actions, Suits, Informations, Trials, and other Proceedings, in pursuance of this Act, or in Relation to any Matter or Thing herein contained, any Inhabitant of the Parish, Town, or Place, in which any Offence or Offences shall be committed, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall be admitted to give Evidence, and shall be deemed competent Witnesses, notwithstanding his, her, or their being an Inhabitant or Inhabitants of the Parish, Town, or Place wherein any such Offence or Offences shall be supposed to have been committed.

XXIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Justice or Justices before whom any Person shall be convicted, in Manner prescribed by this Act, shall cause such respective Conviction to be drawn up in the Form or to the Effect following; (that is to say,)

Form of Conviction.

'to wit. { BE it remembered, That on this —— Day of —— in the —— Year of his Majesty's Reign, A.B. is convicted before —— —— of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said County of —— [or, for the —— Riding or Division of the said County of —— or, for the City, Liberty, or Town of —— as the Case shall happen to be] for —— and the said —— do adjudge him [or, her] to pay and forfeit for the same, the Sum of —— Given under —— the —— Day and Year aforesaid.'

And the said Justice or Justices, before whom such Conviction shall be had, shall cause the same, so drawn up in the Form or to the Effect aforesaid, to be fairly written upon Parchment, and transmitted to the next General or Quarter Session of the Peace to be held for the County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Liberty, or Place, wherein such Conviction was had, to be filed and kept amongst the Records of the said General or Quarter Session; and in case any Person or Persons so convicted shall appeal from the Judgment of the said Justice or Justices to the said General or Quarter Session, the Justices in such General or Quarter Session are hereby required, upon receiving the said Conviction, drawn up in the Form or to the Effect aforesaid, to proceed to the Hearing and Determination of the Matter of the said Appeal at such next Sessions, and not afterwards, according to the Directions of this Act, any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding; and no Certiorari shall be granted to remove any Conviction or other Proceedings had thereon, in pursuance of this Act.

Appeal.

XXX. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person convicted of any Offence or Offences punishable by this Act, shall think him or herself aggrieved by the Judgment of the Justice or Justices before whom he or she shall have been convicted, such Person shall have Liberty to appeal to the Justices at the General or Quarter Session of the Peace which shall be held for the County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, where such Judgment shall have been given, and that the Execution of the said Judgment shall in such Case be suspended, the Person so convicted entering into a Recognizance, at the Time of such Conviction, with two sufficient Sureties, in double the Sum which such Person shall have been adjudged to pay or forfeit, upon Condition to prosecute such Appeal with Effect, and to be forthcoming to abide the Judgment and Determination of the Justices in their said next General or Quarter Session, and to pay such Costs as the said Justices in such Session shall award on such Occasion, which Recognizance the said Justice or Justices, before whom such Conviction shall be had, is and are hereby empowered and required to take; and the Justices in the said General or Quarter Session are hereby authorized and required to hear and finally determine the Matter of the said Appeal, and to award such Costs as to them shall appear just and reasonable to be paid by either Party; and if, upon the Hearing of the said Appeal, the Judgment of the Justice or Justices before whom the Appellant shall have been convicted shall be affirmed, such Appellant shall immediately pay the Sum which he or she shall have been adjudged to forfeit, together with such Costs as the Justices in the said General or Quarter Session shall award to be paid for defraying the Expences sustained by the Defendant or Defendants in such Appeal, or in Default of making such Payment shall suffer the respective Pains and Penalties by this Act inflicted upon Persons respectively who shall neglect to pay, or shall not pay the respective Sums or Forfeitures by this Act to be paid by or imposed upon Persons respectively who shall be convicted by virtue of this Act.

Continuance of this Act.

XXXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be in Force for three whole Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and no longer.

XXXII. And

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed a Public Act; and be judicially taken notice of as such, by all Judges, Justices, and other Persons whomsoever, without the same being specially pleaded. Public Act.

CAP. LXXXVIII.

An Act to regulate the Buying and Selling of Hay and Straw; and for repealing so much of two Acts, made in the second Year of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, and in the thirty-first Year of the Reign of King George the Second, as relate to the Buying and Selling of Hay and Straw, within the Limits therein mentioned.

'WHEREAS many and great Abuses are committed by Salesmen, and other Persons selling Hay and Straw in the City of London and within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, and other 'Places within the Vicinity thereof: And whereas the Laws now in being are not sufficient to prevent the 'same;' for Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of an Act, made in the second Year of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, intituled, An Act for paving and cleansing the Streets in the Cities of London and Westminster, and Suburbs and Liberties thereof, and Out Parishes in the County of Middlesex, and in the Borough of Southwark, and other Places within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, in the County of Surrey, and for regulating the Markets therein mentioned; and also so much of an Act, made in the thirty-first Year of the Reign of King George the Second, intituled, An Act to ascertain the Weight of Trusses of Straw, and to punish Deceit in the Sale of Hay and Straw in Trusses, in London, and within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, and within the Distance of thirty Miles thereof; and to prevent Common Salesmen of Hay and Straw from buying the same on their own Account, to sell again; and also to restrain Salesmen, Brokers, or Factors in Cattle, from buying on their own Account, to sell again, any live Cattle in London, or within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or which are driving up thereto, as relates to Hay and Straw, shall, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, be, and the same are hereby repealed. So much of 2 Will. and Mary, Sess. 2. Cap. 8. and of 31 Geo. II. Cap. 40. as relates to Hay and Straw, repealed from 24th June 1796.

II. And be it further enacted, That no Hay or Straw whatever shall be sold in any Market or Place within the Cities of London or Westminster, or the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within thirty Miles thereof, other than what is made up in Bundles or Trusses; and if any Person shall sell any Hay or Straw, other than what is made up in Bundles or Trusses, within the Cities or Limits aforesaid, every Person so offending, and being convicted thereof, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Shillings. No Hay or Straw to be sold within certain Limits, except in Trusses, on Penalty of 20 s.

III. And be it further enacted, That each and every Bundle or Truss of Hay sold in any Market or Place within the Cities or Limits aforesaid, between the last Day of August in any Year and the first Day of June in the succeeding Year, shall contain and be of the full Weight of fifty-six Pounds at least; and that every Bundle or Truss of Hay sold within the Cities or Limits aforesaid, between the first Day of June and the last Day of August in any Year, being new Hay, of the Summer's Growth of that Year, shall be and contain the full Weight of sixty Pounds, and being old Hay of any former Year's Growth, the Weight of fifty-six Pounds as aforesaid; and that each and every Bundle or Truss of Straw sold within the Cities or Limits aforesaid, shall contain and be of the full Weight of thirty-six Pounds; and that every Load of Hay or Straw shall contain thirty-six Bundles or Trusses; and if any Hay shall be sold within the Cities or Limits aforesaid, whereof any Bundle or Truss shall be of less Weight than aforesaid, every Person so selling shall forfeit for every such Truss or Bundle of Hay, not being the full Weight aforesaid, any Sum not exceeding the Sum of five Shillings, nor less than two Shillings and Sixpence, and for every such Truss or Bundle of Straw the Sum of one Shilling: Provided always, that no Person shall be convicted in the Penalty aforesaid, for selling any Bundle or Truss of Hay or Straw deficient in Weight as aforesaid, where a Load or any other or less Quantity is sold at the same Time to the same Person, if the Number of Bundles or Trusses so sold shall amount upon the Whole to the Average Weight required as aforesaid. Weight of Trusses. Penalty for selling Trusses short of Weight, but not to extend to a deficient Truss of a Quantity sold to the same Person, if the Whole amount to the Average Weight.

IV. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall sell, within the Cities or Limits aforesaid, between the first Day of June and the last Day of December in any Year, any Hay of the Growth of that Year, as or for Hay of the Growth of any former Year, shall forfeit and pay for each and every Bundle or Truss of Hay so sold, the Sum of two Shillings and Sixpence. Penalty for selling new for old Hay.

V. And be it further enacted, That each and every Load, Bundle, or Truss of Hay or Straw, which shall be sold in the Cities or Limits aforesaid, shall be made up with such Hay or Straw only as the same appears to be by the Outside of every such Load, Bundle, or Truss; and that such Hay or Straw only, and not any inferior Hay or Straw, shall be deemed and taken to be the Hay or Straw which is to make up the Weight of every Bundle or Truss; and every Person who shall sell within the Cities or Limits aforesaid any Load, Bundle, or Truss of Hay or Straw, which shall in the Inside thereof be of inferior Goodness from what the Outside shall appear to be, shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding five Shillings, nor less than two Shillings and Sixpence, for every such Bundle or Truss of Hay, and the Sum of one Shilling for every such Bundle or Truss of Straw. Hay or Straw to be of one Quality. Penalty for selling it mixed.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Pair of Bands with which any Bundle or Truss of Hay shall be bound shall not exceed the Weight of five Pounds, upon Pain that every Person who shall sell any Bundle or Penalty for selling Hay with Bands exceeding 5 lb. Weight.

or Truss of Hay with Bands of a greater Weight, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of one Shilling, and also the further Sum of one Shilling for each and every Pound Weight that every such Pair of Bands shall weigh over and above the Weight of five Pounds.

Penalty on Persons binding Hay or Straw in light Trusses.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person employed to bind Hay or Straw, shall not bind up and make the same into Bundles or Trusses of such Weight as is directed by this Act, every Person so offending shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Sixpence for every Bundle or Truss of Hay or Straw not being of such Weight.

Penalty on Salesmen buying and selling, on their own Account, Hay or Straw, or Grass for Hay.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That no Common Salesman, Factor, or Agent, within the Cities or Limits aforesaid, shall buy and sell, on his own Account, or of any Person or Persons in Trust for him, any Hay or Straw whatsoever, or any Grass of any Kind or Description, growing or making into Hay, on Pain of forfeiting for each and every fifty-six Pounds Weight of Hay so bought and sold five Shillings, and for each and every thirty-six Pounds Weight of Straw so bought and sold two Shillings; and also for each and every Acre of such Grass growing or making into Hay, so bought and sold, a Sum of Money not exceeding five Pounds, nor less than fifty Shillings.

Salesmen within seven Days to send to the Owner an Account of the Place, Time, and Price of Hay or Straw sold, and of the Purchaser, on Penalty.

IX. And be it further enacted, That every Common Salesman, Factor, or Agent, for the Sale of Hay or Straw, within the Cities or Limits aforesaid, shall, within seven Days next after the Sale of every Load or other Quantity of Hay or Straw, send to the Person or Persons on whose Account the same shall have been sold, a just and true Account under his Hand, of the Place where, Time when, and the Price for which the same was sold, and also the Name and Place of Abode of the Purchasers thereof, on Pain of forfeiting for every Neglect or Omission a Sum of Money not exceeding twenty Shillings, nor less than ten Shillings.

A Register to be kept in Markets for entering Sales of Hay and Straw, which shall be open for Inspection.

X. And be it further enacted, That in every Market for the Sale of Hay or Straw within the Cities or Limits aforesaid, there shall be kept a public Book or Register for entering and registering therein an Account of all Hay and Straw which shall be, from Time to Time, sold in any such Market; and that in and for the City of London, such Book or Register shall be kept by the Clerk or Toll Gatherer for the Time being, appointed by the Lord Mayor, Commonalty, and Citizens in the said City; and that in and for every other such Market within the City of Westminster and Limits aforesaid, such Book or Register shall be kept by the Clerk or Toll Gatherer appointed within their several Jurisdictions, and that before Six of the Clock in the Evening on the Day of the Sale of any Hay or Straw, exceeding four Trusses in one Quantity, within the Cities or Limits aforesaid in any Market, and within seven Days after any such Sale in the said Cities and Limits out of any Market, there shall be made by the Seller thereof, a true and faithful Entry in the Book or Register of the Market in which such Hay or Straw shall be sold, or where the same shall be sold out of any Market, in the Book or Register of the Market nearest to the Place of Sale, distinguishing the true Names and Places of Abode of the Persons so selling, and for whom sold, and by whom and on whose Account the same shall have been bought, and the Place where sold, and the true Price paid or agreed to be paid for the same, which Entry shall be subscribed by each Seller of Hay or Straw, for which Entry shall be paid to the Keeper of the Book or Register the Sum of one Penny; and that every such Book or Register shall be kept at some convenient Place in every such Market for the Sale of Hay and Straw within the Cities and Limits aforesaid, and shall at all Times between the Hours of Nine of the Clock in Morning, and Six of the Clock in the Evening of each and every Day (Sunday excepted) be open for the Inspection of every Person applying to inspect the same, paying for every such Inspection the Sum of one Penny; and in case any Seller of Hay or Straw shall omit to make the proper Entry required by this Act, or the Keeper of any Book or Register for the Purposes aforesaid, shall knowingly suffer any untrue Entry to be made or signed therein, or shall refuse to permit such Book or Register to be inspected by any Person applying, and tendering Payment of the Fee for such Inspection, every such Seller of Hay or Straw, or Keeper of such Book or Register, so offending, shall, on Conviction for every such Offence, forfeit and pay a Sum of Money not exceeding five Pounds, nor less than ten Shillings.

Penalty for not making due, or making untrue Entry, or for refusing inspection of Register.

Act not to extend to Hay or Straw delivered on special Contract.

XI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall oblige any Person to register any Hay or Straw which he shall deliver in the Cities or Limits aforesaid, on special Contract or Agreement, but such Hay and Straw only which shall be sent to any Market or Place within the said Cities and Limits to be there sold, and which shall be accordingly there sold, shall be registered as before is directed; any Thing in this Act before contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Penalty on Clerk or Toll Gatherer buying or selling Hay or Straw.

XII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Clerk or Toll Gatherer, or his Deputy, within the Cities and Limits aforesaid, shall buy or sell, or be concerned in the buying or selling of Hay or Straw within the Cities or Limits aforesaid, under the Penalty of two Shillings and Sixpence for every Bundle or Truss of Hay so bought or sold by him, or in the buying or selling of which he shall be so concerned, and of one Shilling for every such Bundle or Truss of Straw.

Scales and Weights to be kept at the Clerk of the Market's Office, and at the Parish Watch House.

Hay Weighers.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That there shall be provided by every Clerk or Toll Gatherer within the Cities or Limits aforesaid, and kept at the Office of the Clerk of every Hay Market within the said Cities or Limits, as also at the Watch House of each and every Parish within the Limits thereof, by the Churchwardens and Overseers of such Parishes respectively, proper Scales and Weights, or Engines for the weighing all Hay and Straw which shall be required to be weighed; and such Clerk or Toll Gatherer of the Hay Market, or his Deputy, and the Constable or Headborough of the Parish or Place where such Scales, Weights, and Engines shall be kept, are hereby appointed Hay Weighers within their respective Parishes and Places; and if any Doubt shall at any Time arise, whether any Hay or Straw sold in the Cities or Limits aforesaid is not of the Weight the same ought to be, then it shall be lawful for the Buyer thereof, his Servant or Agent, on the Delivery of any such Hay or Straw at the Abode, Yard, or Loft of the Buyer, or other Place where the same shall be agreed by the Seller to be delivered, to cause the same to be weighed in the Presence of the Seller, or his Servant or Agent; and if, on the same being so weighed, the Buyer or Seller of any such Hay or Straw, his Servant or Agent, shall be dissatisfied with any such weighing, it shall be lawful for any such Buyer, his Servant or Agent, if the Hay be delivered within a Parish where there is any Hay Market, with all convenient Speed, to apply to the Clerk or Toll Gatherer, or his Deputy, of such Market, and if the Hay be delivered in any other Parish within the Cities or Limits aforesaid, to apply to the Hay Weigher nearest to the Place where any such Hay or Straw shall be delivered to weigh the same, and on any such Application being made, such Clerk or Toll Gatherer, or his Deputy, or other Hay Weigher who shall be applied to, shall with all convenient Speed come to the Place where such Hay or Straw shall be within the Limits aforesaid, and shall there weigh such Hay or Straw as shall be complained of, and the Weight thereof, which shall be ascertained by any such Clerk or Toll Gatherer, or his Deputy, or other Hay Weigher, shall be conclusive to all Parties; but in case the Clerk or Toll Gatherer of any Market, or his Deputy, shall not, upon such Application as aforesaid, come with all convenient Speed to the Place where such Hay or Straw shall be delivered, it shall be lawful for the Buyer, his Servant or Agent, to apply for the Purposes aforesaid to such other Hay Weigher as shall be nearest to the Place where any such Hay or Straw shall be delivered; and the Person who shall require any such Clerk, Toll Gatherer, or his Deputy, or other Hay Weigher, to attend and weigh any such Hay or Straw, shall pay or tender to such Hay Weigher the Sum of three Shillings for a Load, or in proportion for a greater or less Quantity, before he shall be obliged to go to weigh any such Hay or Straw, and if the Hay or Straw which shall be so weighed shall not be of the due Weight the same ought to be, then the Sum so paid shall be forthwith repaid to him by the Seller of such Hay or Straw; and if any Clerk or Toll Gatherer, Churchwarden or Overseer, within the Limits aforesaid, shall omit to provide and keep proper Scales and Weights, or Engines, for the weighing of Hay or Straw, or if any Clerk, Toll Gatherer, or his Deputy, or other Hay Weigher, shall neglect or refuse to weigh any Hay or Straw when required, at any seasonable Time in the Day Time, and so as the Sum aforesaid shall have been paid or tendered, every such Person offending therein shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding five Pounds, nor less than ten Shillings.

Buyer of Hay or Straw may cause it to be weighed on Delivery.

Directions for weighing it in case of Dissatisfaction.

Penalty for not providing Scales and Weights, or for neglecting to weigh Hay or Straw.

XIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person shall incur any Penalty for selling any Hay or Straw of less Weight or worse Quality than the same ought to be, unless such Hay or Straw shall be weighed either at or before the Delivery, with the Privity of the Buyer, his Servant or Agent, or complained of in respect of the Quality thereof at the Time and Place at which the same shall be agreed to be delivered by the Seller, in the Presence of such Seller, his Servant or Agent, unless such Seller, his Servant or Agent, on Request made, or on Notice given to him or them to attend to see such Hay or Straw so weighed, shall refuse or neglect to attend to see the same so weighed; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

No Penalty to be incurred for selling Hay or Straw, not Weight, or of bad Quality, unless weighed at or before Delivery, &c.

XV. And be it further enacted, That the Markets for Sale of Hay and Straw, within the Cities and Limits aforesaid, shall End at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon of every Market Day between Lady Day and Michaelmas, and at Two of the Clock in the Afternoon of every Market Day between Michaelmas and Lady Day, and that Notices thereof shall be given by the Clerk or Toll Gatherer, or his Deputy, in the several Markets or Places for the Sale of Hay and Straw within the Cities and Limits aforesaid, by ringing on the usual Market Days a large Hand Bell round each respective Market or Place for the Sale of Hay or Straw, one Hour before the Expiration of the Times above-mentioned, and again at the Expiration of the Hours above-mentioned, on Pain of forfeiting for every such Offence a Sum of Money not exceeding ten Shillings, nor less than five Shillings; and every Person who shall sell any Hay or Straw in any Market within the Cities or Limits aforesaid, after the Hours aforesaid, shall forfeit for every Bundle or Truss of Hay so sold the Sum of Sixpence, and for every Bundle or Truss of Straw so sold the Sum of three Pence.

Hours at which Markets shall end, of which Notice shall be given by ringing a Bell, on Penalty.

Penalty for selling after Market Hours.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person having the Care or Direction of any Waggon, Wain, or Cart, used for the Purpose of bringing Hay or Straw, shall suffer the same to remain in any Market or Place for the Sale of Hay and Straw, within the Cities and Limits aforesaid, on the usual Market Days from Lady Day to Michaelmas, after Five of the Clock in the Afternoon, and from Michaelmas to Lady Day after Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, in any Year, every Person so offending shall forfeit for every such Waggon, Wain, or Cart, so left as aforesaid, a Sum of Money not exceeding twenty Shillings, nor less than five Shillings.

Penalty for letting Hay Carts remain in Hay Markets after certain Hours.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person having the Care or Direction of any Waggon, Wain, or Cart, in any Market or Place for the Sale of Hay or Straw within the Cities or Limits aforesaid, shall permit or suffer the Horse or Horses drawing the same to feed and remain in any such Market or Place for the Space of fifteen Minutes, during the Hours allowed for Sale of Hay or Straw, under any Pretence whatsoever, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum of Money not exceeding twenty Shillings, nor less than five Shillings.

Penalty for permitting Horses drawing Hay or Straw to remain in a Market 15 Minutes during Market Hours.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Person whatsoever shall buy and sell again any Hay or Straw, that shall or may be conveying by Land or Water Carriage for the Purpose of selling within the Cities or Limits aforesaid, and that every Person so offending shall forfeit for every Truss of Hay or Straw so bought and sold the Sum of five Shillings; and no Person shall buy any Hay or Straw in any Market or Place for the Sale of Hay or Straw, for the Purpose of selling again in any such Market or other Place within the Act, or buying in a Market Place to sell it again therein.

Cities or Limits aforesaid; and every Person so offending shall, for every Truss of Hay or Straw so bought, forfeit and pay the Sum of five Shillings: Provided always, that no Person selling Hay or Straw by Retail at their own Premises, in any less Quantity than five Trusses as aforesaid, shall be liable to such last mentioned Penalty.

Penalty for charging more than actually paid.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person within the Cities or Limits aforesaid shall, after having purchased for, or sent in or delivered to any Person, by whom or on whose Account he may have been so employed to purchase any Hay or Straw, charge or demand a greater Price than what was really and truly paid or agreed to be paid for any such Hay or Straw, every Person so offending shall forfeit and pay the Sum of five Shillings for every Bundle or Truss of Hay or Straw so purchased, sent in, or delivered Penalty for delivering other than the Commodity sold.

XX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall sell any Quantity of Hay or Straw within the Cities or Limits aforesaid, and shall afterwards send in or deliver, or tender to the Buyer thereof, as and for the Hay or Straw so sold, any other Hay or Straw in Part or in Whole, every Person so offending shall forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Shillings for every Bundle or Truss of Hay, and the Sum of five Shillings for every Bundle or Truss of Straw so sent in, delivered, or tendered as aforesaid.

Penalty for fraudulently increasing Weight.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall knowingly and fraudulently mix or put, or cause to be mixed or put, any Water, or any Sand, Earth, or any other Matter or Thing, in any Bundle or Truss of Hay or Straw, with an Intent to increase the Weight thereof, and shall afterwards sell, send in, and deliver the same, or any Part thereof, within the Cities or Limits aforesaid; or if any Person shall sell any Quantity of Hay or Straw, within the Cities or Limits aforesaid, and shall afterwards mix or put, or cause to be mixed or put, in the Bundles or Trusses of such Hay or Straw, Water, Sand, Earth, or any other Matter or Thing, with an Intent to increase the Weight thereof, or any Part thereof, and shall afterwards send in, or deliver, or tender to the Buyer thereof, any such Hay or Straw, every Person so offending shall forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Shillings for every Bundle or Truss of Hay, and the Sum of five Shillings for every Bundle or Truss of Straw so sent in, delivered, or tendered as aforesaid.

Penalty for delivering less than the Number of Trusses sold.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person selling any Hay or Straw, in any Market or Place within the Cities or Limits aforesaid, shall deliver to, or tender to or for, or on Account of, the Buyer thereof, a less Number of Bundles and Trusses of Hay or Straw, as or for the true Number bought and sold, or if the Driver of the Waggon, Wain, or Cart, in which such Hay or Straw shall be, for the Purpose of being delivered according to such Sale, shall secrete, keep back, or withhold, any Part of the said Hay or Straw, or shall deliver a less Number of Bundles or Trusses to the Buyer, such Driver or Person selling, knowing the same so delivered not to be the true Number bought, or which ought to be delivered according to such Sale, every Driver or Person selling so offending, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds for every Bundle or Truss of Hay or Straw so secreted, kept back, withheld, or not delivered; and in Default of immediate Payment of any such Penalty by any such Driver, on Conviction before any Justice of the Peace in whose Jurisdiction the Offence shall have been committed, such Driver or Person selling shall be forthwith sent, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of such Justice, to the House of Correction, or other Prison within the Jurisdiction of such Justice, there to remain and be kept to hard Labour, without Bail or Mainprize, for any Space of Time not exceeding three Months, nor less than one Month, unless the said Penalty should be sooner paid; any Thing herein-after contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Penalty for not bringing Hay or Straw, exposed and not sold, to the Market Place on the ensuing Market Day, &c.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons, after having brought or received any Hay or Straw for Sale, or exposed any Hay or Straw to Sale on a Market Day, in any Market or Place for Sale of Hay or Straw within the Cities or Limits aforesaid, which shall not be sold, shall thereupon lodge the same in any Place near to such Market or Place as aforesaid, and shall not, if the same be not before that Time sold, bring and expose the said Hay or Straw for Sale in such Market or Place, by Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon of the next ensuing Market Day, or if any Person lodging any Hay or Straw as aforesaid, which shall be brought to any Place for the Purpose of Sale on a Bye Day or a Day between the usual Market Days, shall not, if the same be not before that Time sold, bring and expose all such Hay or Straw for Sale in such Market near to where the same was lodged, on the following Market Day by the same Hour as aforesaid, or as soon after as the Weather will permit without endangering the spoiling or injuring the same, every Person so offending shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence any Sum of Money not exceeding five Pounds, nor less than forty Shillings.

Penalty for giving or receiving false Receipts of the Price of Hay or Straw sold.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person who shall have been concerned in buying or selling any Hay or Straw within the Cities or Limits aforesaid, shall give, take, or receive, any false or untrue Receipt, Ticket, or Memorandum, of the Price of any Hay or Straw so sold or bought as aforesaid, expressive of a greater or less Price than what the same was really and truly sold for or bought, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding ten Pounds, nor less than five Pounds, upon Complaint being made to any Justice of the Peace within whose Jurisdiction the Offence shall have been committed, at any Time within six Calendar Months after such Offence committed, any Thing herein-after contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding: Provided always, that if any Person offending in either of the Cases aforesaid shall, within the said Space of six Calendar Months, give Information of and prosecute to Conviction any other Person so offending, such Informer shall be indemnified from the Penalty herein-before mentioned.

Limitation of Prosecutions.

XXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person shall be prosecuted for any of the before-mentioned Offences, except where it has been or shall be herein otherwise expressed, unless Information of any such Offence be given to the proper Magistrate, within fourteen Days next after the Commission of such Offence.

Recovery of Forfeitures.

XXVI. And, for the more speedy Recovery of all and every Forfeiture which shall be incurred under this Act, and for the disposing thereof, be it further enacted, That on Complaint or Information being made to any Justice of the Peace of any Offence committed against this Act within the Jurisdiction of such Justice, such Justice is hereby required and authorized to summon the Person or Persons charged with any such Offence, and also any Witness or Witnesses for the same, at a certain Time and Place in such Summons to be specified, and in Default of Appearance of the Party so summoned, on its being made appear to the said Justice upon Oath, that such Summons was duly served upon or left at the usual Place of Abode of the Party summoned, then every such Justice is hereby authorized and required to proceed to hear and determine the Matter of the said Complaint, by the Oath or Oaths of any one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, and to convict the respective Offender, and to award and adjudge the respective Penalties imposed by this Act to be paid by such Offender, together with the reasonable Costs and Charges attending such Conviction, to be ascertained and allowed by such Justice, and by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of such Justice, to cause the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of every such Offender, unless within five Days from the Day of making such Distress, the Party or Parties offending shall pay the Penalty and Costs to be incurred in such Warrant, and likewise the Costs and Charges of such Distress, rendering the Overplus (if any) to the said Offender; and if any Offender against this Act shall not have any Goods or Chattels within the Jurisdiction of such Justice whereon such Levy can be made, such Justice, before whom such Conviction shall be had, is hereby empowered and authorized to issue his Warrant for apprehending such Offender; and in case such Offender shall escape or go out of the Jurisdiction of such Justice, it shall and may be lawful for any other Justice of the Peace of the County or Place where such Offender shall be found, by Indorsement of such Warrant, to authorize the Execution thereof within the Jurisdiction of such Justice, as well as to convey the Offender before the Justice who granted such Warrant, who may commit him to some public Prison or House of Correction of the County or Place in which such Offence shall have been committed, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize, for any Term not exceeding three Calendar Months, nor less than fourteen Days, from the Time of every such Commitment, unless in Cases otherwise provided for by this Act, and unless such Offender shall sooner pay the Sum to be mentioned on every such Warrant of Commitment; and in all Cases where any Person shall be brought as a Witness touching any Matter contained in this Act, by any Summons or Warrant, before any Justice, and shall refuse to be examined, such Justice may commit any such Person to some Prison of the County or Place within the Jurisdiction of such Justice, for any Time not exceeding fourteen Days from the Time of every such Commitment.

Offenders may be committed for Want of Distress.

Witnesses refusing to be examined may be committed.

Salesmen convicted of Offences, may exhibit Complaint against Employer before a Justice, who may determine the Matter.

XXVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That when and as often as it shall happen that any Salesman or Salesmen shall in Manner aforesaid be convicted of any Offence against this Act, and thereby become subject to the Payment of any of the Penalties before mentioned, it shall be lawful for any such Salesman to exhibit his Complaint or Information against the Farmer or other Person, for whom or on whose Account he shall have sold the Hay or Straw, (on account of which such Salesman or Salesmen shall have been so convicted,) before some Justice of the Peace within the Jurisdiction in which such Hay or Straw shall have been so sold; and such Justice is hereby required to summon such Farmer or other Person, and also any Witness or Witnesses, to appear before him the said Justice, on a Day to be appointed and named in the said Summons, (not less than seven Days after the issuing of such Summons,) although such Farmer or other Person against whom such Information shall be laid, may happen to reside out of the County, City, Borough, Division, or Liberty, in which such Hay or Straw may have been so sold; and on its being made appear to the said Justice on Oath, that such Summons was duly served upon, or left at the usual Place of Abode of the Party summoned, then every such Justice is hereby authorized and required to proceed to hear and determine the Matter of the said Complaint or Information, in like Manner as is herein-before provided and directed, for hearing of Complaints against Salesmen; and if it shall appear to the Satisfaction of such Justice that such Salesman shall not have been guilty of or privy to any Fraud or Deceit in the Premises, but that such Fraud or Deceit was imputable to such Farmer or other Person so complained against as aforesaid, then such Justice is hereby authorized and required to award to such Salesman the Amount of the Penalty so by him paid as aforesaid, together with full Costs and Charges, as well those occasioned by the Complaint against him, as by such subsequent Complaint against such Farmer or other Person; such Costs and Charges to be first ascertained and allowed by such Justice, and to adjudge the said Farmer or other Person, the Owner of the said Hay or Straw, to pay the same; and the said Justice is hereby authorized and required, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to cause the same to be levied in like Manner as Penalties and Forfeitures are by this Act directed to be levied and recovered.

Warrant of Distress to be indorsed by a Justice of the Peace where the Party resides.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That whenever the Party against whom such Warrant of Distress shall be granted, shall happen to reside in another County, City, Borough, Division, or Liberty, out of the Jurisdiction of such Justice, that then, and in such Case, such Warrant shall not be executed or put in force until after it shall be endorsed by some Justice of the County, City, Borough, Division, or Liberty, to which such Summons shall be directed; and all and every the Justice and Justices of such County, City, Borough, Division, or Liberty, are hereby required to endorse the same, on due Proof of the Hand Writing of the Justice by whom such Warrant was issued, and such Warrant, when so endorsed, shall and may be executed in like Manner as if the same had been originally granted by a Justice of that City, Borough, Division, or Liberty, in which such Farmer or other Person shall reside: Provided nevertheless, that Complaint to be made within 14 Days after Conviction of a Salesman; and if frivolous, the Justice may award Costs to the Employer.

every such Complaint or Information shall be made within fourteen Days after the Conviction of such Salesman as aforesaid, and not afterwards; and if it shall appear to the said Justice, on hearing the Case, that such Complaint so made by the Salesman as aforesaid, is frivolous and unfounded, it shall be lawful for such Justice to award all reasonable Charges and Expences by Way of Costs, to be paid to the said Farmer or other Person, provided he shall attend the said Summons, as the said Justice shall think right, according to the Circumstances of the Case; such Costs to be levied on the Salesman so complaining, in like Manner as is herein-before directed.

Appeal may be made to the Quarter Sessions.

XXIX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Person convicted of any Offence punishable by this Act, shall think him, her, or themselves aggrieved by the Judgment or Determination of any such Justice as aforesaid, such Person may appeal against the same to the Justices at the General or General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of the County or Place in which any such Conviction shall have been made, which shall be held next after any such Conviction, unless such next General or General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for any such County or Place shall happen to be held within six Days next after any such Conviction; and if any such General or General Quarter Session of the Peace shall happen to be so held within the said Space of six Days next after any such Conviction, then it shall be lawful for any such Person, at the second General or General Quarter Sessions of the Peace which shall be held for any such County or Place next after any such Conviction, so that the Party appearing before any such Appeal shall be received, immediately upon such Conviction enter into a Recognizance with two sufficient Sureties, before such Justice so convicting as aforesaid, in the Sum of ten Pounds each, to appear and prosecute every such Appeal with Effect; and the Justices of the Peace at such General or General Quarter Session of the Peace, are hereby authorized and required, on every such Appeal being made, finally to hear and determine the Matter of every such Appeal, and to make such Order, and to award such Costs therein, as they in their Discretion shall see meet; and which said Order and Determination shall be final and conclusive to all Parties, and no Certiorari shall be allowed to remove any such Proceedings or Determination.

Penalties to go to the Prosecutor.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That every Penalty and Forfeiture by this Act imposed shall, when recovered, go and be paid to the Person or Persons who shall prosecute to Conviction any Offender or Offenders against this Act.

Limitation of Actions.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That no Person shall be sued or prosecuted for any Thing done in pursuance or in Execution of this Act, after the Expiration of six Months from the Offence committed; and every such Suit or Prosecution shall be brought in the County or Place where such Offence shall have been committed; and every Person so sued shall and may plead the General Issue, Not Guilty, and may give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon; and if a Verdict shall be found for the Defendant or Defendants, or if the Plaintiff shall become nonsuit, or discontinue his Action after the Defendant shall have appeared, or if Judgment shall be given upon a Demurrer against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants in every such Action shall recover Double Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same as Defendants have in other Cases for Recovery of their Costs.

Double Costs.

CAP. LXXXIX.

An Act for assessing the Commissioners, Clerks, and other Officers of the Duties on Salt, for their Salaries and the Profits of their respective Offices, to the Land Tax in the Parish of Saint Martin in the Fields, within the City and Liberty of Westminster, notwithstanding the said Office has been removed into Somerset Place, within the Duchy Liberty in the Strand, in the County of Middlesex.—[14th May 1796.]

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to his Majesty by a Land Tax, to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, it is enacted, that every Person in England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, rated or assessed for his Office or Employment, shall be rated and pay for his said Office or Employment in the County, City, or Place, where the same shall be exercised, although the Revenue or Profits arising by such Office or Employment are payable elsewhere; and it is also by the said Act further enacted, that any Part of the said Act may be altered, varied, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament: And whereas the Commissioners, Clerks, and other Officers for the Time being, appointed and employed in the Receipt, Management, and Government of the Duties on Salt, did, for a great Number of Years previous to the Year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight, exercise their Offices within the Parish of Saint Martin in the Fields in the City and Liberty of Westminster, during all which Time they were rated and assessed to the Land Tax, for their Salaries and other Profits of their said Offices, within the said Parish of Saint Martin in the Fields in the said City and Liberty: And whereas Persons seised and possessed of Estates and Property within the said Parish of Saint Martin in the Fields in the said City and Liberty, liable to be assessed to the Land Tax, will be much oppressed and aggrieved if the said Commissioners, Clerks, and other Officers, employed in the Receipt, Management, and Government of the said Duties on Salt, should be assessed for their Salaries and other Profits of their said Offices elsewhere than in the said Parish of Saint Martin in the Fields within the said City and Liberty:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, mons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Commissioners, Clerks, and other Officers, from Time to Time appointed and employed in the Receipt, Management, and Government of the said Duties on Salt, shall be assessed upon the said Act for their Salaries and other Profits of their Places in the Parish of Saint Martin in the Fields within the City and Liberty of Westminster aforesaid, where the Salaries and other Profits of the said Commissioners, Clerks, and other Officers, in the said Year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight, were assessed, and not elsewhere, so as the full Proportion which was assessed on the said Division of Saint Martin in the Fields in the City and Liberty aforesaid, in the said Year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight, be again assessed thereon by virtue of the said Act, and so as any other Division, District, Parish, or Place, to which the said Office has been or may be removed, be not charged with a greater Proportion, in respect of the said Salaries and Profits, than it was in the said Year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Commissioners, &c. of the Salt Office to be assessed to the Land Tax for their Salaries, &c. in St. Martin in the Fields.

II. Provided always, That out of the Sum to be assessed on the said Commissioners for the Receipt, Management, and Government of the said Duties on Salt, their Clerks, and other Officers, there shall be paid to the Collectors of the Land Tax for the Division, District, Parish, or Place, to which the said Office is or may be removed, one Moiety thereof; and also the Whole of the Land Tax for all additional Commissioners, Clerks, and other additional Officers of the said Duties on Salt, which shall or may be hereafter appointed and employed in the said Receipt, Management, or Government, to be applied in Aid of the Assessment to be laid upon the said Division, District, Parish, or Place, by virtue of the said Act.

One Moiety of the Assessment, &c. to be paid to the Collectors of the District to which the Office is or may be removed.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be adjudged, deemed, and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such, by all Judges, Justices, and other Persons, without specially pleading the same.

Public Act.

CAP. XC.

An Act for the Relief of Persons equitably and beneficially entitled to or interested in the several Stocks and Annuities transferrable at the Bank of England.—[14th May 1796.]

'WHEREAS by the Laws in being relative to the Transfers of Stocks and Annuities transferrable at the Bank of England, all such Transfers are required to be entered or registered; and such Entries are to be conceived in proper Words for that Purpose, and to be signed by the Parties making such Transfers, or (if such Party be absent) by his, her, or their Attorney thereunto lawfully authorized; and it is also declared, that no other Method of assigning or transferring such Stock and Annuities shall be good or available in Law: And whereas the Persons equitably and beneficially entitled to or interested in the said Stocks and Annuities have been and are put to great Inconveniencies by reason that the Trustees and other Persons, according to the said Laws in being, alone qualified to make Transfers and to receive the Dividends of such Stocks and Annuities vested in them in Trust, have been and are absent out of the Jurisdiction or not amenable to the Process of the High Court of Chancery or the Court of Exchequer; and other Cases of like Inconvenience have arisen:' For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, when and as often as it shall happen that all and every the Person or Persons in whose Name or Names any Part or Parts of the several Stocks and Annuities transferrable, or which hereafter shall be made transferrable, at the Bank of England, is, are, or shall be standing as a Trustee or Trustees, or the legal Personal Representative or Representatives of any such Person or Persons being deceased, shall be absent out of the Jurisdiction or not amenable to the Process of the said Courts of Chancery and Exchequer, or shall be a Bankrupt or Bankrupts, Lunatic or Lunatics, or shall refuse to transfer the Stock or Annuities, so legally vested in him, her, or them, or to receive or pay over the Dividends of such Stock or Annuities to the Person or Persons beneficially entitled thereto, or it shall be uncertain or unknown whether such Trustee or Trustees, Representative or Representatives, is or are living or dead; that then and in all and every such Case and Cases it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Courts of Chancery and Exchequer respectively, in any Cause depending in the said Courts respectively, to order and direct that the Accountant General, or the Secretary or Deputy Secretary, for the Time being, of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, do transfer, in the Book or Books of the said Company, such Stock or Annuities as aforesaid, either to and into the Name of the Accountant General of the said Court of Chancery, or of the Deputy Remembrancer of the said Court of Exchequer, in Trust in such Cause, or otherwise, to and into the Name or Names of the Person or Persons equitably or beneficially entitled to such Stock or Annuities as the Cases may respectively require, and as to the said Courts of Chancery and Exchequer shall, in their Discretion seem fit; and also to order and direct that the said Accountant General, Secretary or Deputy Secretary, for the Time being, of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, do also receive and pay over the Dividends of such Stock and Annuities as the said Courts shall direct; and when and as often as it shall happen that one or more only, and not all or both of such Trustees or Personal Representatives as aforesaid, shall be so absent or not amenable to such Process as aforesaid, or a Bankrupt or Bankrupts, Lunatic or Lunatics, or shall so refuse as aforesaid, or it be uncertain or unknown whether any one or more of such Trustees or Representatives is or are living or dead, that then and

When Trustees, in whose Names Stock shall be standing at the Bank, shall be absent, out of the Jurisdiction of the Chancery and Exchequer, or be Bankrupts, &c. the said Courts, in any Cause depending therein, may order the Stock to be transferred, and the Dividends paid; and when all the Trustees cannot be found, may order the forth coming ones to transfer Stock, &c.

and in all and every such last mentioned Case and Cases it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Courts of Chancery and Exchequer respectively, to order and direct that the other and others of such Trustees and Representatives, who shall be forthcoming and ready and qualified to act, do transfer such Stock or Annuities to and into the Name or Names of such Person or Persons as aforesaid, as the Cases may respectively require, and as to the said Courts shall in their Discretion seem fit; and also that such forthcoming Trustee or Trustees, Representative or Representatives, do also receive and pay over the Dividends of such Stock or Annuities as the said Courts shall direct; and that all such Transfers and Payments so made in pursuance of this Act, shall be, and are hereby declared to be valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; any former Statute, Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

If Bankrupts refuse to transfer Stock standing in their own Right, the Lord Chancellor may order it to be transferred to the Assignees.

II. 'And whereas it hath frequently happened that Commissions of Bankrupt have issued against Persons having certain Parts of the said Stocks or Annuities transferrable at the Bank of England, standing in their Names in their own Right, and such Persons have thereupon been declared and adjudged Bankrupts, but have nevertheless refused to transfer or join in transferring such Stock or Annuities;' for Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, when and as often as any Person or Persons shall be declared or adjudged Bankrupt, having any Part or Parts of the Stocks or Annuities transferrable, or which hereafter shall be made transferrable at the Bank of England, standing in his, her, or their Name or Names in his, her, or their own Right, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Great Britain for the Time being, on the Petition of the Assignee or Assignees chosen under the said Commission, to order the said Accountant General, Secretary, or Deputy Secretary, for the Time being, of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to transfer the said Stock or Annuities so standing in the Name or Names of the said Bankrupt or Bankrupts, in his, her, or their own Right, to and into the Name or Names of the said Assignee or Assignees, and also to receive and pay over the Dividends of such Stock and Annuities as the said Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Great Britain, shall direct; and that all such Transfers and Payments shall be valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; any former Statute, Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Stock standing in the Names of Lunatics, or their Committees, may in certain Cases be ordered by the Lord Chancellor to be transferred, &c.

III. 'And whereas Commissions in the Nature of a Writ de Lunatico inquirendo have frequently issued, and Persons have thereupon been found Lunatics, having certain Parts of the Stocks and Annuities transferrable at the Bank of England, standing in the Names of such Lunatics in their own Right, and the Committees of the Estates of such Lunatics having like Parts of such Stocks and Annuities standing in their own Names in Trust for or as Part of the Property of such Lunatics, have sometimes died intestate, or gone to reside beyond the Seas, or have themselves become Lunatics, or it has been uncertain and unknown whether they were living or dead: And whereas it is sometimes proper and expedient that such Parts of the Property of such Lunatics as aforesaid should be transferred, but by the Laws in being no valid or effectual Transfer thereof can be made, whereby great Inconveniencies have arisen;' for Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, in all Cases whatsoever where any such Stock or Annuities transferrable or thereafter to be made transferrable at the Bank of England, is, are, or shall be standing in the Name or Names of such Lunatic or Lunatics, in his, her, or their own Right, or in the Name or Names of the Committee or Committees of his, her, or their Estate or Estates, in Trust for the said Lunatic or Lunatics, or as Part of his, her, or their Property, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Commissioners of the Great Seal of Great Britain for the Time being, to order the Accountant General, Secretary, or Deputy Secretary, for the Time being, of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to transfer such Stock or Annuities to or into the Name of any new Committee or Committees, or otherwise, and also to receive and pay over the Dividends thereof, as the said Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Commissioners of the Great Seal of Great Britain for the Time being, shall direct; and that such Transfers and Payments shall be valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; any former Statute, Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Act to be an Indemnity to to the Bank.

IV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this present Act shall be and is hereby declared to be a full and complete Indemnity and Discharge to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, their Officers and Servants, for all Things done, or permitted to be done pursuant thereto, and that the same shall not be questioned or impeached in any Court of Law or Equity whatsoever, to their Prejudice or Detriment; and that this present Act shall be, and is hereby declared to be, and to be reputed and taken as a Public Act, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

CAP. XCI.

Oath to be taken by Persons approved,

'I A. B. do sincerely promise and swear, That I will be faithful and bear true Allegiance to His Majesty King George; and I do swear, that I am a Protestant, and that I will faithfully serve in the Militia of London, within the Kingdom of Great Britain, for the Defence of the same, during the Term of five Years, for which I am enrolled, unless I shall be sooner discharged.'

who shall be inrolled to serve five Years.

And every such Person shall be inrolled (in a Roll to be then and there prepared for that Purpose) to serve in the Militia of the City of London, as a Private Man, for the Space of five Years, and it shall be lawful for any one of the said Commissioners to administer the said Oath; and in case the said Constables, Beadles, or other Ward Officers, or any of them, shall neglect or refuse to give the said Notice in Writing, in Manner aforesaid, to every Person so provided to appear as aforesaid, or shall neglect or refuse to appear and make Return on Oath of the Service of such Notice in Manner aforesaid, every such Constable, Beadle, or other Ward Officer, so neglecting or refusing in either or both of the said Cases, shall forfeit and pay, for each Offence, any Sum not exceeding the Sum of forty Shillings.

Penalty on Ward Officers for Default.

In case of Deficiency of Men, the Commissioners to issue Precepts to the Aldermen, &c. to provide others, or pay 10 l. for each Man wanting;

XII. And be it further enacted, That if any of the Men provided by or for the several Wards in the said City and Liberties shall not appear, or shall not be approved by two or more of the said Commissioners, or if through Neglect, Mistake, or any other Cause, the full Number of Men appointed to be raised in any of the said Wards shall not be duly inrolled at the Court or Courts at or before the said Commissioners so to be appointed for that Purpose; or if any Militia Man shall, before the Expiration of the Term for which he was to serve, die, or be discharged in pursuance of the Sentence of a Court Martial, or by the Colonel or Commanding Officer of the Regiment to which he shall belong, with the Consent in Writing of two or more of the said Commissioners, as unfit for Service, or be otherwise regularly discharged, then and in either of the said Cases, the said Commissioners may and are hereby required immediately to issue Precepts to the said Alderman, Deputy, and Common Councilmen of the said Ward wherein such Deficiency or Vacancy shall happen, requiring them, or the major Part of them, within ten Days next following, to make good such Deficiency or Vacancy, or to provide other Men, or to pay to the said Commissioners the Sum of ten Pounds for each Man, in order that they may provide the same; and that if the Alderman, or Deputy, and Common Councilmen, of any of the Wards aforesaid, or the major Part of them, shall omit or refuse to provide the Quota or Number of Men herein appointed to be raised by or for their said respective Wards, or, having provided the said Quota or Number of Men, any of them shall not be approved of, or shall refuse or neglect to appear and take the Oath, and be inrolled as herein-before mentioned, or shall die, or be discharged, and others shall not be provided in their Stead as aforesaid, the said Ward shall, in lieu thereof, be charged with and pay the Sum of ten Pounds for every Man not so provided, sworn in, attested, and inrolled, which Sum or Sums of Money shall be applied by the said Commissioners in providing Men for the Wards which shall have paid the same, who shall be sworn in and inrolled to serve for the same Time and on the same Conditions as if they had been provided by the Alderman, or Deputy, and Common Councilmen of such Wards respectively, as herein-before is directed; and if any Surplus of such Monies shall remain, the same shall be paid to the Colonel, or such Officer as he shall appoint, of the Regiment for which such Person shall serve, and be applied as Part of the Regimental Stock Purse.

and if they neglect to do so, or if the Men be not approved of, &c. the Ward to be charged with 10 l. for each, to be applied by the Commissioners in providing the Men.

Surplus of Monies to be applied as Part of the Regimental Stock Purse.

Aldermen, &c. to make a Rate to defray the Expences of raising Men.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the Aldermen, or Deputies, and Common Councilmen of the several Wards of the said City and Liberties, or the major Part of them, shall, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to make an equal Rate upon all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politic and Corporate, Guilds, Mysteries, Fraternities, and Brotherhoods, whether Corporate or not Corporate, and the Owners or Occupiers of Public Offices and Buildings, who do or shall inhabit, hold, occupy, possess, or enjoy, any Land, House, Shop, Warehouse, Vault, Cellar, or other Tenement or Hereditament, within their said several and respective Wards, and the Liberties and Precincts within the same, (Regard being had in making the said Rate, to the Abilities of and likewise to the Rent paid by the said several Person and Persons, Bodies Politic and Corporate, Guilds, Mysteries, Fraternities, and Brotherhoods, whether Corporate or not Corporate, and the Owners and Occupiers of public Buildings,) to defray the Expences of raising the Quota or Number of Men to serve in the said Militia herein-before directed to be provided by or for the several and respective Wards aforesaid, as well as the Expences of filling up such Vacancies as may happen by Death or Discharge, as herein-before mentioned, and all other incidental Charges relating thereto.

Appeal from Rates may be made to the Court of Mayor and Aldermen.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That in case any Person or Persons shall think him, her, or themselves aggrieved by any Rate or Assessment to be made as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for them respectively to appeal to the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the said City, whose Decision shall be final and conclusive: Provided always, that Notice of such Appeal shall be left in Writing at the Office of the Town Clerk of the said City within ten Days after the Sum so rated and assessed shall be demanded, and such Appeal shall be made to the next Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the said City after such Notice shall be so left as aforesaid.

XV. And

XV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons, Bodies Politic and Corporate, Guilds, Mysteries, Fraternities, and Brotherhoods, whether Corporate or not Corporate, or the Owners and Occupiers of Public Offices and Buildings, who shall be rated and assessed by virtue or in pursuance of this Act, shall refuse or neglect, by the Space of fourteen Days next after his, her, or their respective Rate or Rates, Assessment or Assessments, shall be due and demanded by the Collector or Collectors authorized and appointed, either by the Alderman or his Deputy, and the Common Councilmen for the Time being in each Ward, or the major Part of them, or by the said Commissioners, in case the said Alderman, Deputy, and Common Councilmen, or the major Part of them, shall refuse, omit, or neglect to make the Rate or Assessment, and appoint such Collectors as hereinafter directed to collect and receive the same (such Demand being left in Writing, by the said Collector or Collectors, at the Land, House, Shop, Warehouse, Vault, Cellar, or other Tenement, Hereditament, Premises, or other Property, possessed, rented, or occupied by him, her, or them, to pay such Rate or Rates, Assessment or Assessments, so demanded as aforesaid, unless Notice of Appeal shall have been left as aforesaid, or if any such Notice be left, and if such Appeal shall not be made accordingly to the next Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the said City as aforesaid, then and in every such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for such Collector and Collectors, every or any of them, having a Warrant or Warrants under the Hand and Seal of the Mayor, or any other Magistrate of the said City, which Warrant or Warrants the said Collector and Collectors is and hereby required to apply for, and the Mayor or any other Magistrate of the said City are hereby authorized and required to grant, and with the Assistance of a Constable, or any Peace Officer of the Ward, County, City, or Liberty, where the Person or Persons, Party or Parties, so refusing or neglecting, shall reside, there to seize and distrain any of the Goods and Chattels of the Person or Persons so neglecting or refusing to pay, and if the same shall not be replevied, or such Rate or Assessment paid, within five Days next after such Distress made, together with the Costs and Charges thereof, then to appraise and sell so much and such Part of the said Goods and Chattels as shall be sufficient to pay the said Rate or Assessment, and the Costs and Charges attending such Distress and Sale, returning the Overplus (if any) to the Owner or Owners of such Goods and Chattels, the said Costs and Charges to be settled and allowed by the said Mayor, or other Magistrate, who shall have granted such Warrant or Warrants respectively: Provided always, that no such Distress shall, by virtue of this Act, be made out of the Limits of the said City and Liberties thereof, unless such Warrant or Warrants respectively shall be first backed or countersigned by some Magistrate of the County, City, or Liberty, where such Distress is proposed to be made, which Warrant or Warrants any Magistrate who shall be applied to for that Purpose shall forthwith, and is hereby authorized and required to back or countersign without Fee or Reward.

Rates may be levied by Distress.

No Distress to be made out of the Limits of the City, unless the Warrant be backed by a Magistrate of the Place.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That if any such Collector or Collectors shall refuse or neglect to apply for such Warrant or Warrants as aforesaid, or to make such Distress and Sale, pursuant to the Directions of this Act, except in Cases where such Distress shall be dispensed with by the Alderman, or his Deputy, and the Common Councilmen of each respective Ward, or the major Part of them, or by a Court of Commissioners, in Cases in which his Majesty's Commissioners shall be the Assessors, by virtue of this Act, by Writing under their Hands, in respect to the Poverty of the Party or Parties assessed, such Collector or Collectors shall, for every such Refusal or Neglect, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding the Sum of five Pounds; and if any Justice of the Peace, upon such Application to him made to back or countersign such Warrant or Warrants as aforesaid, shall refuse or neglect so to do, such Justice shall, for every such Refusal or Neglect, forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds; and if any Constable be called upon by any Collector or Collectors having such Warrant or Warrants, and shall refuse or neglect to aid and assist him or them in making such Distress and Sale, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding the Sum of forty Shillings.

Penalty for not making Distress, not backing Warrants, or neglecting to aid in making Distress.

XVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Inhabitant Householder of any Ward shall offer himself, and voluntarily serve in his own Right as a Private in the said Militia (being approved of, sworn in, and inrolled as aforesaid) for the Term of five Years, he shall be exempt from paying the said Rate for any House or Premises he shall then or in future inhabit within the said City and Liberties; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Householders serving in their own Right exempted from the Rate.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Alderman, or his Deputy, and the Common Councilmen for the Time being in each Ward within the said City or Liberties, or the major Part of them, shall be the Assessors, in their respective Wards, to charge all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politic and Corporate, Guilds, Mysteries, Fraternities, and Brotherhoods, whether Corporate or not Corporate, and the Owners and Occupiers of Public Offices and Buildings liable to be rated in their respective Wards as herein-before directed, and shall likewise be the Assessors of the Trophy Tax herein-after directed to be continued to be raised and paid, and shall appoint proper Persons to collect the said Rates and Taxes, and pay or allow unto such Collectors any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding three Pence in the Pound upon the Money so collected.

Alderman, &c. to be the Ward Assessors, and to appoint Collectors, with an Allowance.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That if the Alderman, or Deputy, and Common Councilmen of any Ward, or the major Part of them, shall refuse or neglect to provide all or any of the Men to be raised by such Ward, as herein-before directed, or to supply such Vacancies as may happen from Death or Discharge as aforesaid, according to the Precepts issued to them for that Purpose, or shall neglect or refuse to pay the Sum of ten Pounds for every Man not so provided or supplied as aforesaid; and if the said Alderman, or Deputy, and Common Councilmen of any Ward, or the major Part of them, shall neglect or refuse to make, levy, and raise, the said Rates, or to assess and levy the Proportion of the Trophy Tax of such Ward, the

If the Alderman, &c. neglect to provide Men, or pay for them, or levy Rates, the Commissioners may levy and apply such Rates;

the said Commissioners shall, and are hereby further authorized to make, assess, levy, and raise the said Rates, and also the Proportion of the Trophy Tax of such Ward, the Alderman, or Deputy, and Common Councilmen of which shall make such Default, in like Manner and with the like Powers and Authorities as the said Alderman, or Deputy, and Common Councilmen are hereby empowered to make, raise, levy, and assess the same; and the better to enable the said Commissioners to make the said Rates, and assess the said Tax, they are hereby authorized and empowered, if they find it requisite and necessary so to do, to call upon the Clerk to the Commissioners of the Land Tax for the City of London to produce before them the Book or Books containing the last Assessment or Assessments to the Land Tax upon each and every of the Wards in the said City, and the said Clerk is hereby required to produce the same when called upon, and also to furnish the said Commissioners with Copies of such Parts thereof as may be by them required of him, upon receiving a reasonable Compensation or Allowance for his Trouble therein; and in case he shall neglect or refuse to produce such Book or Books, or furnish such Copies, he shall, for every such Neglect or Refusal, forfeit and pay not exceeding the Sum of twenty Pounds; and the said Commissioners shall apply the said Rates, when received and recovered, in providing the Quota of Men, or so many of them as shall be wanting, for the Ward so neglecting or refusing, and to the other Purposes of this Act.

and may call for the last Assessment to the Land Tax from the Clerk, who shall produce it, and give Copies, on Penalty of 20*l*.

Commissioners to appoint an Adjutant to each Regiment, who, if from the Army, shall preserve his Rank, and may hold a Subaltern's Commission, and have Brevet Rank of Captain, without the requisite Qualification, &c.

XX. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners may and shall appoint one proper Person to be Adjutant to each Regiment of the said Militia, and such Person, if appointed out of his Majesty's other Forces, shall, during his Service in the said Militia, preserve his Rank in the same Manner as if he had continued in that Service, and the said Commissioners may give any such Adjutant a Commission of Lieutenant or Ensign, although such Adjutant may not have the Qualification required by this Act for a Lieutenant or Ensign; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, on the Recommendation of the Colonel or Commanding Officer of either Regiment, to appoint the Adjutant of such Regiment to the Rank of Captain by Brevet, provided such Adjutant has served five Years in the Rank of Lieutenant, either in the Militia or in any of his Majesty's other Forces, although such Adjutant may not have the Qualification required by this Act for Captains: Provided always, that no such Appointment to the Rank of Captain shall be valid, unless in the Instrument granting the same it shall be specified in what Regiment or Battalion, and whether of the Militia or of his Majesty's other Forces, such Adjutant hath served in the Rank of Lieutenant, and what was or were the Date or Dates of his Commission or Commissions: Provided also, that no Adjutant so appointed to the Rank of Captain shall, by the Date of such Appointment as aforesaid, or otherwise, be entitled to the Rank above, or to command any Captain of a Company in the said Militia, nor shall, by virtue of such Appointment, be entitled to receive any greater Pay, than that of a Lieutenant, together with his Pay as Adjutant.

A Surgeon, Quarter Master, and Regimental Clerk, to be appointed.

No Adjutant, &c. to be Captain of a Company. Regimental Clerk may be Captain Lieutenant.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners may appoint a Surgeon and Quarter Master to each Regiment, and also a Regimental Clerk to each Regiment, who shall execute the Office of Pay Master: Provided always, that no Adjutant, Surgeon, Quarter Master, or Regimental Clerk, shall be capable of being appointed Captain of a Company; and no Person holding a Commission of Captain of a Company shall be capable of being appointed Adjutant, Surgeon, Quarter Master, or Regimental Clerk: Provided nevertheless, that any Regimental Clerk may be appointed Captain Lieutenant.

Pay of Adjutants, Regimental Clerks, Quarter Masters, Serjeant Majors, &c. Civil Appointments may be made.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That every Adjutant, Regimental Clerk, and Quarter Master, to be appointed by virtue of this Act, shall receive the usual Pay of such Offices and Appointments in other Militia Forces, or such other Allowance as the said Commissioners shall think proper and adequate to the Service; and that Serjeant Majors, Serjeants, Corporals, Drum and Fife Majors, and Drummers and Fifers, shall receive the same Pay as those of the rest of the Militia Forces of this Kingdom; and the said Commissioners may make such Civil Appointments as they shall see necessary for carrying the Purposes of this Act into Execution.

Pay of the Militia to be issued by the Treasurer, as by the Receiver General of the Land Tax, to County Militia.

Regimental Clerks to give Security as in other Regiments, and pay Balances to the Treasurer.

Costs of Suit recoverable as by the Militia Act.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That the Pay of the said Militia shall be issued by the Treasurer appointed by the said Commissioners, in the same Manner as the Receiver General of the Land Tax for every County, Riding, or Place, within that Part of Great Britain called England, where the Militia is raised, are directed to issue the Pay of such Militia by any Act which now is, or hereafter shall be in Force for defraying the Charge of the Pay and Cloathing of the Militia in that Part of Great Britain called England, and the same shall be subject to the Regulations directed by or contained in any such Act; and the Regimental or Battalion Clerks appointed to the said Militia shall give Security by Bond to the said Commissioners, in like Manner as the Clerk of each Regiment or Battalion of Militia is directed by any such Act to give Security to his Majesty, which Bonds shall be lodged with the said Treasurer, and put in Suit by him in the Name of the said Commissioners, in the same Manner as is directed by such Act, and he shall be entitled to the like Costs, and five Pounds per Centum on the Money recovered, as thereby directed, and the Residue shall be accounted for by him to the said Commissioners; and the said Regimental or Battalion Clerks shall annually deliver in their Accounts, and pay the Balances in their Hands to the said Treasurer, in the same Manner as the Clerk of every Regiment or Battalion of Militia is directed by such Act to deliver in his Accounts, and pay the Balance in his Hands to the Receiver General of the Land Tax for each County; and all Costs and Charges of Suit shall be recoverable in like Manner as by the said Act is directed.

Officers on Half Pay serving as Lieute-

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That no Officer who is entitled to Half Pay, shall be deemed or taken to forfeit or quit such Half Pay during the Time he shall serve as Lieutenant, Ensign, Adjutant, Regimental mental Clerk, Pay Master, Quarter Master, or Surgeon, in the said Militia, but that the same shall nevertheless continue, and instead of the Oath directed by the Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, to be taken by such Officer, he shall take the following Oath; that is to say, nants, &c. may receive it on taking the following

'I A. B. do swear, That I had not, between —— any Place or Employment of Profit, Civil or Military, under his Majesty, besides my Allowance of Half Pay as a reduced —— in —— late Regiment of —— save and except my Pay as Lieutenant, [Ensign, Adjutant, Regimental Clerk, Pay-master, Quarter Master, or, Surgeon, as the Case may be,] for serving in the said Militia.'

Oath

And the taking of the said Oath, without taking any other Oath, shall be sufficient to entitle such Person to receive his Half Pay.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That Serjeants, Corporals, and Drummers, shall be appointed to the said Militia as follows; (that is to say,) there shall be three Serjeants, three Corporals, and two Drummers, to each Company, with the Addition of one Drummer to each of the Flank Companies; and such Serjeants, Corporals, and Drummers, shall be new cloathed, when not in actual Service, once in two Years, or oftener if necessary, at the Discretion of the said Commissioners; and all Serjeants and Corporals shall take the following Oath; (that is to say,) Proportions of Non-commissioned Officers and Drummers, and when to be cloathed.

Non-commissioned Officers to take the following Oath.

'I A. B. do sincerely promise and swear, That I will be faithful and bear true Allegiance to his Majesty King George; and I do swear that I am a Protestant, and that I will faithfully serve as a Serjeant [or Corporal, as the Case may be] in the said Militia, within the Kingdom of Great Britain, for the Defence of the same, until I shall be legally discharged.'

And the Colonel of each Regiment may appoint a Serjeant Major out of the Serjeants, and a Drum Major out of the Drummers; and all Serjeants, Corporals, and Drummers, having received any Pay as such in the said Militia, shall be deemed to be engaged, and compellable to serve in the said Militia until they shall be legally discharged: Provided always, that every Serjeant, Corporal, and Drummer, appointed in the said Militia, shall reside in the City of London, or within one Mile thereof: And provided also, that no Person who shall keep any House of public Entertainment, or who shall sell Ale, or Wine, or Brandy, or other Spirituous Liquors, by retail, shall be capable of being appointed, or serving as a Serjeant, Corporal, or Drummer, in the said Militia.

Colonel may appoint a Serjeant Major and Drum Major.

Non-commissioned Officers and Drummers, having received Pay, compellable to serve; to live within a certain Distance; and shall not be Publicans.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That any Serjeant, Corporal, Drummer, or Fifer, may be discharged by the Colonel, or by the Commanding Officer, (with the Consent of the Captain of the Company,) and that the Captain, with the Approbation of the Commanding Officer, may appoint any proper Person in the Room of every Serjeant, Corporal, Drummer, or Fifer, who shall die, desert, or be discharged; all which Serjeants and Corporals so appointed shall take the like Oath as is herein-before required to be taken by Serjeants and Corporals.

Colonel may discharge Non-commissioned Officers, and Drummers, and the Captain may fill up Vacancies.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That in case the Colonel and other Officers of both or either Regiment of the said Militia shall be desirous of keeping up a greater Number of Drummers than two for each Company, to be employed as Fifers or Musicians for the Use of the said Militia, and shall be willing to defray the Expence of such additional Drummers, it shall and may be lawful for the Colonel of each or either Regiment to engage any additional Number of Drummers to act as Fifers or Musicians in their respective Regiments, and all such Drummers so engaged to serve in the said Militia shall be deemed as Drummers in said Militia, within the Meaning of this Act, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, and shall be subject to the same Orders, Regulations, Penalties, and Punishments, as other Drummers of Militia are by this Act subject to, and shall continue to serve as Drummers so long as they shall receive the same Pay and Cloathing as other Drummers have, or better Cloathing in lieu thereof, and no longer.

Officers may keep Musicians as extra Drummers, paying the Expence.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Militia, or at least Half thereof, appointed as aforesaid, shall be trained and exercised once in every Year for twenty-eight Days together, at such Time and Place, (not exceeding the Distance of five Miles from the City of London, or as to four Days, Part of the said twenty-eight Days, not exceeding ten Miles from the said City,) as shall be appointed by the said Commissioners; and during such Time as the said Militia shall be assembled for the Purpose of being trained and exercised, all the Clauses, Provisions, Matters, and Things, contained in any Act of Parliament which shall then be in force for the punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, shall be in force with respect to the said Militia, and all the Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Private Men of the same, shall be subject and liable thereto, in all Cases whatsoever; but so that no Punishment shall extend to Loss of Life or Limb.

Militia to be exercised 28 successive Days annually, and subject to the Mutiny Act.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That Notice of the Time and Place of Exercise of the said Militia shall be sent by the Clerk of the said Commissioners to the Ward Clerks, Beadles, or other Officers of the several Wards of the said City, with Directions to cause such Notice to be affixed on the Doors of the Churches or Chapels in their respective Wards; and all such Militia Men shall duly attend at the Time and Place of Exercise, according to such Notice; and the said Clerk shall, ten Days at least before the Time appointed for the annual Exercise, transmit to the Colonel of each Regiment, (or to such Person as shall be by him appointed to receive the same,) a full and true List, specifying the Name, Place of Abode, and Date of Inrolment, of all Persons inrolled to serve in their respective Regiments, and shall in like Manner cause a Duplicate of such List to be transmitted to the Adjutant of each Regiment, Notice of the Time and Place of Exercise to be affixed on the Church Doors, and Lists of the Men enrolled to be sent by the Clerk to the Colonel, &c.

XXX. And

Adjutants, &c. to be subject to the Mutiny Laws.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That every Adjutant, Serjeant Major, Serjeant, Corporal, Drum Major, Drummer, and Fifer, of the said Militia, shall be at all Times subject to any Act which shall be in force for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, and to the Articles of War, and shall be under Command of the Colonel of the Regiment to which he belongs; and it shall be lawful for the Colonel to direct the holding of Courts Martial, whenever such Regiment shall be embodied or called out for the Purpose of annual Exercise, for the Trial of any Serjeant Major, Serjeant, Corporal, Drum Major, or Drummer of such Regiment, for any Offence committed during the Time such Regiment was not embodied or so called out, but no Punishment shall extend to the Loss of Life or Limb.

Colonel may direct the holding Courts Martial when the Regiment is embodied, for Trial of Serjeant Majors, &c. for previous Offences.

Non-commissioned Officers may be reduced to Privates.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That any Serjeant or Corporal of the said Militia may, by Sentence of a Court Martial, be reduced to the Condition of a Private Soldier of the said Militia, to serve as such during any Time not exceeding fifteen Months, after which Time, if not regularly re-appointed to the Rank of a Non-commissioned Officer, he shall be discharged from the Service.

Arms, &c. to be kept where the Commissioners shall appoint.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That the Arms, Accoutrements, and Cloathing, belonging to the said Militia, when not on Duty, or embodied, shall be kept in such convenient Place as the said Commissioners shall appoint; and that new Cloaths shall be provided for the Private Militia Men, at least once in every five Years, when not embodied for actual Service.

Privates to be cloathed every five Years when not embodied.

Pay of the Militia.

Men may be put under Stoppages.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioned and Non-commissioned Officers of the said Militia shall receive the same Pay as those of the other Militia Forces of this Kingdom, and no other; and when assembled for the Purpose of being trained and exercised, the Private Men shall receive one Shilling per Day each Man; during which Time it shall be lawful for the Captain or Commanding Officer of every Company to put the Militia Men of his Company under Stoppages, not exceeding Sixpence per Day, for the Purpose of providing them with Linen, and also with Stockings and other Necessaries, and for defraying the Expence of repairing any Arms which shall have been broken or damaged by any such Militia Man's Neglect: Provided always, that every such Captain or Commanding Officer shall account with each Militia Man for such Stoppage, and after having deducted what shall have been laid out and paid for the Purposes aforesaid, shall pay the Sum remaining (if there shall be any) into the Hands of the Militia Man to whom the same belongs, before such Militia Man shall be dismissed from such Training and Exercise.

Allowance in lieu of Quarters.

XXXIV. And, in order to prevent the Privileges of the said City from being infringed by the billeting or quartering of Soldiers therein, be it further enacted, That the Non-commissioned Officers, Drummers, Fifers, and Private Men, serving in the said Militia, shall, when embodied or called out for annual Exercise, or when ordered out by the said Commissioners, or by the Lord Mayor for the Time being, or other Magistrates, as herein-after directed, or in any Manner be in actual Service within the City of London or Liberties thereof, be allowed, in lieu of Quarters, at the Rate of one Shilling and nine Pence per Week each Man, to provide Lodging, in Addition to their Pay: Provided always, that if it shall appear that any or either of the said Serjeants, Corporals, Drummers, or Fifers, have not actually and bona fide resided within the said City, or within one Mile thereof, according to the Provisions of this Act, then and in such Case such Serjeant, Corporal, Drummer, or Fifer, shall not be entitled to the said Allowance, or to any Part thereof.

Serjeants, &c. not residing within the prescribed Limits, not entitled to any Allowance.

Commissioners to appoint Treasurers and Clerks.

Account of Trophy Tax to be delivered annually to the Corporation before a new Rate is made.

XXXV. And for the better and more speedy Execution of the Premises, be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall be and are hereby required to appoint one or more Treasurer or Treasurers, Clerk or Clerks, for receiving and paying such Monies as shall be received or levied by virtue of this Act, and of all which Receipts and Disbursements the said Treasurer or Treasurers, Clerk or Clerks, are once in every Year to give their Accounts in Writing, and upon Oath, to the said Commissioners, which Oath the said Commissioners are hereby empowered and required to administer; and that a Duplicate of the said Account, so far as the same relates to the Receipts and Disbursements of the Trophy Tax by the said Commissioners, be annually certified on Oath, and delivered by the said Clerk or Treasurer to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London in Common Council assembled, previous to the making of any new Rate or Assessment of the Trophy Tax.

Security to be taken from Treasurers and Clerks.

XXXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall, and they are hereby required to take such Security from the Treasurer or Treasurers, Clerk or Clerks, to be appointed by virtue of this Act, for the due Execution of their respective Offices, as shall be satisfactory to the said Commissioners.

In case of Invasion, &c. his Majesty may order the Militia to be embodied, subject to the Mutiny Laws.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases of actual Invasion, or upon imminent Danger thereof, and in all Cases of Rebellion or Insurrection, it shall be lawful for his Majesty, (the Occasion being first communicated to Parliament, if the Parliament shall be then sitting, or declared in Council, and notified by Proclamation, if no Parliament shall be then sitting or in being,) to order and direct the said Commissioners with all convenient Speed to draw out and embody the said Militia, or such Part as his Majesty shall in his Wisdom judge necessary, and in such Manner as shall be best adapted to the Circumstances of the Danger; and the Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, Drummers, Fifers, and Private Men of the said Militia shall, from the Time of their being drawn out and embodied as aforesaid, and until they shall by his Majesty's Orders be disembodied, be subject and liable to all the Provisions contained in any Act of Parliament

Parliament which shall be then in Force for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, and such Act shall be in Force with respect to the said Militia, and shall extend to all the Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, Drummers, Fifers, and Private Men, in all Cases whatsoever.

His Majesty within twelve Months from passing this Act may draw out the Militia;

XXXVIII. 'And whereas the Militia of this Kingdom is now drawn out and embodied,' be it therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty, by Warrant under his Sign Manual, at any Time within twelve Calendar Months from and after the passing of this Act, to draw out and embody the said Militia of the City of London, or such Part thereof as his Majesty shall in his Wisdom judge necessary, subject to the Restrictions and Regulations herein-after directed; and from the Time of their being so drawn out and embodied, and until they shall by his Majesty's Orders be disembodied, the Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, Drummers, Fifers, and Private Men of the said Militia, shall be subject and liable to the same Penalties as are herein-before directed in other Cases when the said Militia shall be embodied.

and when drawn out to be entitled to the same Pay as other Regiments of Foot; and the Non-commissioned Officers and Privates to Chelsea Hospital, XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That, from the Date of his Majesty's Warrant for the embodying and drawing out the said Militia into actual Service, and until they shall be disembodied by his Majesty's Orders, the Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Private Men of the same, shall be entitled to the same Pay as the Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Private Men of his Majesty's other Regiments of Foot receive, and no other; and if any Non-commissioned Officer or Private Man of the said Militia shall be maimed or wounded in actual Service, he shall be equally entitled to the Benefit of Chelsea Hospital with any Non-commissioned Officer or Private Man belonging to any of his Majesty's Forces.

When drawn out, his Majesty may put one Regiment under the Command of General Officers, to be led to a certain Distance.

XL. And be it further enacted, That when the said Militia shall be drawn out and embodied as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for his Majesty to put one Regiment of the said Militia under the Command of such General Officers as his Majesty shall be pleased to appoint, and to direct the said Regiment to be led, by its respective Officers, for the repelling and preventing of any Invasion, and for the Suppression of any Rebellion or Insurrection, to any Place not exceeding the Distance of twelve Miles from the said City, or to the nearest Place of Encampment beyond the said Distance of twelve Miles; and the other Regiment shall remain in the City of London, or the Liberties or Suburbs thereof, for the Defence of the said City and Liberties and Suburbs.

Commissioners may appoint an Agent.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That when the said Militia shall be embodied or drawn out into actual Service, and during the Time they shall continue in actual Service, the said Commissioners may appoint an Agent to the said Militia, and the said Commissioners shall take Security from such Agent.

Militia Men subject to 26 Geo. III. Cap. 107. as far as relates to Penalties for not attending Annual Exercise, for deserting, &c.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That every Militia Man, being sworn in and inrolled, and every Serjeant, Corporal, Drummer, and Fifer, raised by virtue of this Act, or by virtue of the said two several Acts, passed in the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, for better ordering the said Militia, shall be subject to every Clause, Provision, Matter, and Thing, contained in the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for amending and reducing into one Act of Parliament the Laws relating to the Militia in that Part of Great Britain called England, as far as relates to the Penalties and Punishments of Militia Men, Serjeants, Corporals, and Drummers, for not attending the Annual Exercise, for deserting during it, for not appearing when ordered to be embodied, for inlisting into the Army, or offering so to inlist, or inlisting into any other Militia; or for selling or pawning their Arms, Accoutrements, or Cloaths, or neglecting or refusing to return them in good Order, and shall be proceeded against in Manner directed by the said Act; and all Provisions and Directions in the said Act, for the Apprehension and Pursuit of Deserters, shall be deemed to extend to this Act, and the said Militia Men shall be entitled to the same Bounty, when ordered to march to any Encampment, by His Majesty Orders, as is granted by the said Act to other Militias, on being marched out of their respective Counties; and every Person having served in the said Militia, when embodied and drawn out into actual Service, being a married Man, may set up and exercise any Trade in any Town or Place in Great Britain, as directed by the said Act.

Married Militia Men may set up in any Part of Great Britain.

Militia when disembodied liable only to the Orders they were subject to before drawn out.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That when the said Militia, or any Part thereof, having been so embodied and drawn out into actual Service as aforesaid, shall be again disembodied, and the Officers and Private Men thereof dismissed to return to their several Places of Abode, the Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, Drummers, and Private Men, shall be subject only to the same Orders, Directions, and Engagements as they are made subject to under this Act, before being so embodied and drawn out into actual Service as aforesaid.

How the Pay, &c. of the Militia is to be defrayed.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That for defraying the necessary Charges of Pay, Cloathing, Trophies, and other incidental Expences of the said Militia, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to raise and levy in every Year, to commence and be computed from the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, the Proportion of one Month's Tax, amounting to four thousand six hundred and sixty-six Pounds thirteen Shillings and four Pence, which the said City hath been used to pay, by virtue of an Act of Parliament, passed in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for ordering the Forces in the several Counties of this Kingdom, and the said Commissioners shall be accountable for the same, and in Addition thereto the Receiver General of the Land Tax for the said City shall, and he is hereby required to issue and pay annually to the Treasurers appointed by the said Commissioners, upon his producing an Order of the Court of Lieutenancy for that Purpose, signed by nine Commissioners, so much Money as shall be necessary, in Aid of the Trophy Tax, towards the Expence of training, exercising, paying, employing, and keeping in Readiness, dineſs, the ſaid Militia, and other incidental Expences relating thereto; and the Receipt of the ſaid Treaſurer, indorſed on the ſaid Order, ſhall be a ſufficient Diſcharge to the ſaid Receiver General for the Money ſo to be iſſued and paid by him.

Act not to affect the Trophy Tax commencing Chriſtmas 1792.

XLV. Provided always, That any Thing in this Act contained ſhall not extend to annul or affect the Rate or Aſſeſſment of the Trophy Tax heretofore made, by virtue of his Majeſty's Warrant for raiſing the Tax for one Year, commencing from Chriſtmas one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-two, or ſo much thereof as now remains uncollected, or not accounted for to the ſaid Commiſſioners.

The Commiſſioners may order the Militia, when not embodied, to be trained and reviewed, and to be kept in Readineſs to be put under the Orders of the Lord Mayor or Magiſtrates; who may call the Whole or Part out for the Suppreſſion of Riots;

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That when the ſaid Militia ſhall not be embodied, according to the Proviſions of this Act, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, when and ſo often as it ſhall ſeem to them requiſite and neceſſary, to order the Serjeants, Corporals, and Privates of the ſaid two Regiments, or either of them, or ſo many of them as to the ſaid Commiſſioners may ſeem expedient, to be put in Poſſeſſion of their Cloaths, Arms, and Accoutrements, and to be inſpected, trained, and reviewed ſo often as the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall think fit and neceſſary, and with their proper Officers, or ſuch Officers as they ſhall appoint, to be kept in conſtant Readineſs to be put under the Orders of the Lord Mayor, or any three or more of the Magiſtrates of the ſaid City, who ſhall have Power and Authority to call out the Whole of the ſaid Officers, Serjeants, Corporals, and Privates, or any Part of them, for the Suppreſſion of Riots, or any other Duty for which they may be required, for the better Preſervation of the Peace of the ſaid City.

in which Caſe a Court of Lieutenancy is to be ſummoned, to whom the Reaſons for ſo doing are to be reported.

If a ſufficient Number of Commiſſioners to make a Court ſhall not attend, freſh Summons to be iſſued.

XLVII. Provided always, That it ſhall and may be lawful, in caſe of any ſudden Emergency, for the ſaid Lord Mayor, or any three or more of the Magiſtrates of the City of London for the Time being, by an Order in Writing to the Colonel or Colonels, or Commanding Officers, of both or either of the ſaid Regiments, to call out the Whole of the ſaid Officers, Serjeants, Corporals, and Privates, or any Part of them, for the Suppreſſion of any Riots or Tumults, or for the more effectually guarding againſt the ſame, and to order the ſaid Officers, Serjeants, Corporals, and Privates, to be put into Poſſeſſion of their Cloaths, Arms, and Accoutrements, for the Purpoſes aforeſaid; and the ſaid Colonel or Commanding Officer, upon Receipt of the ſaid Order, ſhall immediately obey the ſame to the beſt of his Power, and appoint a proper Commanding Officer to command and lead forth the ſaid Serjeants, Corporals, Drummers, and Privates, ſo called out by the ſaid Order: Provided that in any ſuch Caſe it ſhall be incumbent upon the ſaid Lord Mayor, within twenty-four Hours after the making and ſending of ſuch Order, to ſummon and hold a Court of Lieutenancy, and to ſuch Court, or to the firſt Court that ſhall be holden after the making and iſſuing ſuch Order, the Lord Mayor, or the Magiſtrates making and iſſuing ſuch Order, ſhall report his or their Proceedings, and Reaſons for calling out of the ſaid Officers, Serjeants, Corporals, and Privates, or ſuch Part of them as may have been ſo called out, and the ſaid Court ſhall thereupon make ſuch further Order therein, with reſpect to the continuing out or calling in the ſaid Officers, Serjeants, Corporals, or Privates, or ſuch of them as may have been called out as aforeſaid, as they ſhall deem expedient: Provided that in caſe a ſufficient Number of his Majeſty's Commiſſioners of Lieutenancy ſhall not aſſemble to make a Court within the ſaid twenty-four Hours, that then and in that Caſe the ſaid Lord Mayor ſhall iſſue forth a freſh Summons to hold a Court within twenty-four Hours after the iſſuing ſuch freſh Summons, and in caſe the ſaid Court ſhall not aſſemble within the ſaid next twenty-four Hours, that then and in that Caſe the ſaid Lord Mayor ſhall continue to iſſue a freſh Summons once in every twenty-four Hours, until a ſufficient Number of Commiſſioners of Lieutenancy ſhall have aſſembled to make a Court of Lieutenancy; and that in the meantime and until the aſſembling and holding the ſaid Court, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Lord Mayor, in caſe the Order was iſſued by or from the Lord Mayor, or if iſſued by three or more Magiſtrates, then by the Magiſtrates who iſſued ſuch Order, to continue out on Duty, or to diſmiſs the ſaid Commanding Officers, Serjeants, Corporals, Drummers, and Privates, or ſo many of them as he or they ſhall think expedient; and the ſaid Officers and Men, when ſo called out in either Caſe as aforeſaid, and thoſe who ſhall by the ſaid Commiſſioners be put in Poſſeſſion of their Cloaths, Arms, and Accoutrements, to be kept in conſtant Readineſs as aforeſaid, ſhall be ſubject to the Penalties and Proviſions of any Act that ſhall be then in Force for the Puniſhment of Mutiny and Deſertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, and to be entitled to the ſame Pay as when aſſembled for their Annual Exerciſe.

Penalty on Militia Men for not appearing when called out by the Commiſſioners, the Lord Mayor, or Magiſtrates.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Militia Man who ſhall not appear when called out by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or Lord Mayor, or any three or more Magiſtrates as aforeſaid, for the Suppreſſion of Riots, or any other Duty for the Preſervation of the Peace of the ſaid City, within the Times hereafter mentioned, after Notice ſhall have been given or left at his laſt or uſual Place of Abode, ſhall be ſubject to the following Penalties; (that is to ſay,) every Serjeant, Corporal, Drummer, and Fifer, who ſhall not appear at the Place, and within two Hours of the Time appointed by the ſaid Notice, ſhall forfeit the Sum of forty Shillings, if not within four Hours five Pounds, and if not within ſix Hours, to be deemed a Deſerter, and proceeded againſt as ſuch; and that every Private Man in the ſaid Militia, who ſhall be receiving Pay at the Time of being ſo ordered out, who ſhall not appear at the Time and Place appointed for that Purpoſe within two Hours of the Time appointed by the ſaid Notice, ſhall forfeit the Sum of twenty Shillings, and if not within four Hours, fifty Shillings, and if not within ſix Hours, to be deemed a Deſerter, and proceeded againſt as ſuch; and that every Private Man of the ſaid Militia, who ſhall not be receiving Pay at the Time of being ſo ordered out, who ſhall not appear at the Time and Place appointed by the ſaid Notice, ſhall forfeit the Sum of ten Shillings, and if not within twelve Hours twenty Shillings, and if not within twenty-four Hours, to be deemed a Deſerter, and proceeded againſt as ſuch: Provided always, that no Proſecution or Proceeding ſhall be had or commenced againſt any ſuch Private Militia Man not receiving Pay at the Time of being called out as aforeſaid, without the Order of the ſaid Court of Lieutenancy.

XLIX. And in order that the Families of Persons serving in the said Militia may have the Relief hereinafter directed, be it further enacted, That the Alderman, or Deputy, and Common Councilmen of each of the said Wards, or the major Part of them, shall divide the Quota of Men raised in each Ward, whether the same shall have been raised by the said Aldermen, Deputy, or Common Councilmen, or the major Part of them, or by the said Commissioners by virtue of this Act, amongst the Parishes within such Wards, and specify for which Parish each Man serves, in order that the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor of such Parish may be resorted to for defraying the Expences of providing for the Families of such Persons serving in the Militia as may become entitled to Relief, in Manner as by this Act directed; and in case the Aldermen, or Deputy, and Common Councilmen of either or any of the said Wards, or the major Part of them, shall omit or neglect to divide the said Quotas of Men among the Parishes in such respective Wards, in Manner herein-before directed, the said Commissioners shall and are hereby required, authorized, and empowered, to make such Division for such Ward or Wards, and to order the Parish or Parishes for which such Person or Persons shall be allotted to serve, to be entered upon the Roll herein-before directed to be provided for the Inrolment of the said Militia Men, in order that the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor of such Parish or Parishes may be resorted to for defraying the Expences of providing for the Families of such Persons, serving in the said Militia, as may become entitled to Relief, in Manner as by this Act is directed; and the Clerk of the said Commissioners is hereby required to deliver to the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Parishes and Liberties of the said City, from Time to Time, Lists of the said Men that are allotted to such Parishes and Liberties as aforesaid.

The Alderman, &c. to divide the Quota of Men amongst the Parishes, and specify for which each serves, that the Parish Officers may be resorted to for defraying the Expences of their Families, &c.

L. 'Whereas the Families of Persons serving in the said Militia, when embodied and called into actual 'Service, and ordered to march, may become chargeable to the Parishes or Liberties whereunto they are al-'lotted, by the Regulation of this Act, and the Families of Serjeants, Corporals, Drummers, and Fifers, 'serving therein, when embodied and called into actual Service, and ordered to march, may become 'chargeable to the Parish to which they belong, and it is necessary Provision should be made for such Fa-'milies;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person serving in the said Militia, or any Person serving in the Room or Place of any Man originally inrolled to serve therein, or any Serjeant, Corporal, Drummer, or Fifer, serving therein, shall, when embodied and called out into actual Service, and ordered to march, leave a Family unable to support themselves, the Overseer or Overseers of the Poor of the Parish, Liberty, Tything, or Township, where the Family of such Militia Man shall dwell, shall, by the Order of some one Justice of the Peace, out of the Rates for the Relief of the Poor of such Parish, Liberty, Tything, or Township, pay to such Family such weekly Allowance as to such Justice shall seem expedient, not exceeding the ordinary Price of one Day's Labour, for each and every Child born in Wedlock, and under the Age of ten Years, and for the Wife of such Militia Man, whether she shall or shall not have any Child or Children, and provided she does not follow the Regiment; and in every Parish, Liberty, Tything, or Township, where the Money arising by such Rates shall not be sufficient for the Purposes aforesaid, a new Rate or Rates shall be made for raising a Sum sufficient for that Purpose; and in case any such Militia Man shall not be allotted to the Parish or Liberty where his Family shall dwell, or the Family of any such Serjeant, Corporal, Drummer, or Fifer, shall not belong to the Parish, Liberty, Tything, or Township, where such Family shall dwell at the Time of marching as aforesaid, then every such Weekly Allowance shall be forthwith reimbursed to the Overseer or Overseers of such Parish, Liberty, Tything, or Township, by the Treasurer to the said Commissioners, on his or their producing and leaving with the said Treasurer a Certificate of the Order of the Justice allowing such Relief, which Certificate the said Justice is hereby required to grant accordingly.

If Non-commissioned Officers, Drummers, or Privates, when ordered to march, shall leave Families behind them, the Overseers, by Order of a Justice, to relieve them weekly out of the Poor Rates.

Treasurer to the Commissioners to reimburse Parish Officers, if the Men are not allotted to the Parish where the Family dwells, &c.

LI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in such Cases in which the said Treasurer shall reimburse to any Overseer or Overseers of the Poor of any Parish, Liberty, Tything, Township, or Vill, any Sum or Sums of Money, paid in pursuance of the Directions of this Act, on Account of the Weekly Allowance to the Family of any of the Persons aforesaid, serving in the said Militia, who shall not be allotted or belong to the Parish or Liberty where such Family shall dwell, the Money so reimbursed by the said Treasurer shall be repaid him by the Overseer or Overseers of the Parish or Liberty to which such Militia Man shall be allotted or belong, and the said Treasurer shall lay an Account of the Monies so paid by him before the Justices of the Peace for the said City, at their next General or Quarter Sessions, for their Allowance thereof, and the said Justices shall, and they are hereby required to allow the same accordingly, and forthwith to make an Order for the Overseers of the Poor of the Parish or Liberty to which such Militia Man shall be allotted or belong, to make good the same to the said Treasurer out of the Poor's Rates of such Parish or Liberty; and all Payments so made by such Overseer or Overseers, in pursuance of such Order or Orders of such Justice or Justices, shall be allowed and passed in their respective Accounts.

Treasurer to be reimbursed by the Parish to which the Men are allotted.

LII. And be it further enacted, That if any Churchwarden or Overseer of the Poor shall, on Demand made in pursuance of any Order of any Justice or Justices of the Peace, to be granted in either Case as aforesaid, for the Payment of any Sum of Money, and after the producing of the said Order to him, refuse or neglect, to pay and satisfy the Sum or Sums of Money directed to be paid in or by such Order, every such Churchwarden or Overseer of the Poor so refusing or neglecting to make such Payment, shall, for every such Neglect, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding the Sum of ten Pounds, to be recovered, upon the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, or by the Confession of the Party accused, before the Justice making such Order, or any other Justice of the Peace of the County, City, or Place, where the Offence shall be committed, which said Justice is hereby authorized and required, upon any Information exhibited, or Complaint made in that Behalf, to summon the Party accused, and to examine into the Matter of Facts, and upon due Proof thereof as aforeſaid to give Judgment for ſuch Penalty, to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, in caſe the ſame ſhall not be forthwith paid, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of ſuch Juſtice, cauſing the Overplus, if any, after deducting the Charges of ſuch Diſtreſs and Sale, to be rendered to the Party; and the Penalty ſo adjudged ſhall be paid, one Moiety thereof to the Party aggrieved, and the other Moiety thereof to the Poor of the Pariſh.

Penalty of 10l. on Parish Officers for not paying Money ordered by Justices, which may be levied by Distress.

Application of Penalty.

Appeal may be made to the Quarter Seſſions, who may finally determine the Matter and award Coſts.

LIII. 24 Geo. II. Cap. 44. to extend to the Mayor, Aldermen, Commiſſioners, Aſſeſſors, and Collectors.

LIX. And be it further enacted, That the Proviſions of an Act, paſſed in the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the rendering Juſtices of the Peace more ſafe in the Execution of their Office, and for indemnifying Conſtables and others acting in Obedience to their Warrants, ſhall extend to the ſaid Mayor and Aldermen, and alſo to his Majeſty's ſaid Commiſſioners, and to the Aſſeſſors and Collectors, in the Execution of this Act, or any other which relates to the ſaid Militia, in like Manner and as fully and effectually as the ſame extends to Juſtices of the Peace acting in the Execution of their Office.

LX. And be it further enacted, That no Officer serving in the said Militia shall sit on any Court Martial upon the Trial of any Officer or Soldier serving in any of his Majesty's Forces, other than Militia Forces, nor shall any Officer serving in any of his Majesty's Forces, other than the Militia Forces, sit on any Court Martial upon the Trial of any Officer or Private Man serving in the said Militia. Officers of City Militia to sit only on Trials of Officers and Soldiers of other Militia Regiments, &c.

LXI. And, in order that the Rights and Privileges of the City of London may not be infringed, be it further enacted, That this Act, or any Thing herein contained, shall not diminish or be prejudicial to the Rights, Privileges, Immunities, and Exemptions, to which the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, or the Freemen Citizens or Inhabitants of the said City, or the Suburbs and Liberties of the same, or of all privileged Places within the Limits and Precincts thereof, as well within the Liberties as without, are entitled to enjoy by Prescription, Act of Parliament, Charter, or Usage, but the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, and Freemen Citizens and Inhabitants of the said City, shall and may continue to enjoy all and singular the said Rights, Liberties, Usages, Customs, Privileges, Immunities, and Exemptions, in as full, ample, and beneficial a Manner as if this Act had not been made. Act not to prejudice the Rights of the City.

LXII. 'And whereas the said Militia being an Amendment or Regulation of the ancient Trained Bands 'of the City of London,' be it enacted, That the said Militia already raised, and to be raised by virtue of this Act, shall possess and enjoy all and singular the Rights and Privileges which were possessed and enjoyed by the ancient Trained Bands of the City of London, and which are not varied, altered, or taken away by this Act. Militia to enjoy the Rights of the Trained Bands.

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures by this Act imposed, which shall exceed the Sum of twenty Pounds, shall be recoverable by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Privilege, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, shall be allowed; and that all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, by this Act imposed, which shall not exceed the Sum of twenty Pounds, shall, on Proof upon Oath of the Offence before the Mayor or any other Magistrate of the said City, or any Justice of the Peace for the County, Liberty, or Place where the Offence shall be committed, be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of the said Mayor, Magistrate, or other Justice, rendering the Overplus (if any) on Demand, after deducting the Charges of such Distress and Sale, to the Person whose Goods and Chattels shall have been so distrained and sold, and for Want of sufficient Distress the said Mayor, Magistrate, or Justice is hereby required, in all Cases (when no particular Time of Commitment is by this Act directed) to commit such Offender to Prison where the Offence shall have been committed, for any Time not exceeding three Calendar Months; and the Money arising by all such Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, the Application whereof is not otherwise particularly directed by this Act, shall be paid to the Treasurer appointed by the said Commissioners, to be applied for the general Purposes of this Act. Recovery and Application of Penalties.

LXIV. And be it further enacted, That where any Distress shall be made for any Sum or Sums of Money to be levied by virtue of this Act, the Distress itself shall not be deemed unlawful, nor the Party or Parties making the same be deemed a Trespasser or Trespassers, on Account of any Default or Want of Form in any Proceedings relating thereto, nor shall the Party or Parties be deemed a Trespasser or Trespassers, ab initio, on Account of any Irregularity which shall be afterwards done or committed by the Party or Parties distraining, but the Person or Persons aggrieved by such Irregularity may recover full Satisfaction for the special Damage by an Action on the Case. Distress not unlawful for Want of Form.

LXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Rate or Assessment, nor any Order to be made, or Proceeding to be had, or any other Matter or Thing to be done, transacted in, or relating to the Execution of this Act, by the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen, or by his Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the Time being, or the Assessors or Collectors acting under the Authority of this Act, or by the Court of Quarter Sessions of the said City, shall be vacated or quashed for Want of Form only, or be removed or removeable by Certiorari, or by any other Writ or Process whatsoever, into any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, any Law, Statute, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that no Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall recover in any Action for such Irregularity, Trespass, or other Proceedings, if Tender of sufficient Amends shall have been made by or on the Behalf of the Party or Parties, who shall have committed or caused to be committed any such Irregularity, Trespass, or wrongful Proceedings, before such Action brought; and in case no such Tender shall have been made, it shall and may be lawful for the Defendant or Defendants in any such Action, by Leave of the Court where any such Action shall depend, at any Time before Issue joined, to pay into the Court such Sum of Money as he or they shall think fit, whereupon such Proceedings, or Order and Judgments, shall be had, made, and given, in and by such Court, as in other Actions where the Defendant is allowed to pay Money into Court. No Rate or Proceeding to be quashed for Want of Form, or removeable by Certiorari, &c.

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Action shall be brought against any Person for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, such Action or Suit shall be commenced within six Calendar Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and shall be laid in the County or Place where the Cause of Complaint did arise, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in every such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon; and if the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants in any Action or Suit, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be nonsuited, or discontinue his or their Action or Suit after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if on Demurrer Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendants Limitation of Actions. General Issue.

Treble Costs.

fendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendant hath in other Cases to recover Costs by Law.

An Act for permitting the carrying Coastwise of Lime, Lime Stone, Dung, and other Articles of Manure, without taking out Sufferance, Transire, or Let-pass.

[18th May 1796.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that Lime, Limestones, and other Articles, necessary for the Cultivation and Improvement of Land, should be removed Coastwise, with as little Expence as possible:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, no Sufferance, Warrant, Transire, or other Document whatever, shall be required by any Officer or Officers of the Customs for or on the shipping, carrying, conveying, removing, or landing Coastwise, within the Kingdom of Great Britain, of any Lime, Limestone, Chalk, Sand, Marle, or Dung, nor shall any Fee, Gratuity, or Reward, be charged, received, or taken, by any Officer or Officers of the Customs, for or on the shipping, carrying, conveying, removing, or landing Coastwise, within the said Kingdom, of any of the said Articles, on any Pretence whatever; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

From June 1, 1796, no Sufferance to be required for shipping or landing Coastwise Lime, &c.

An Act to prevent unlawful Combinations of Workmen employed in the Paper Manufactory.—[18th May 1796.]

'WHEREAS great Numbers of Journeymen Paper Makers, in various Parts of this Kingdom, have 'lately entered into unlawful Meetings and Combinations to obtain an unreasonable Advance of 'their Wages, and for other illegal Purposes, and the Laws at present in Force against such unlawful Con- 'duct have been found to be inadequate to the Suppression thereof, whereby it is become necessary that 'more effectual Provision should be made against such unlawful Combinations, and for preventing such un- 'lawful Practices for the future, and for bringing all Offenders in the Premises to more speedy and exemplary 'Justice;' may it therefore please your most Excellent Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all Contracts, Covenants, and Agreements whatever, in Writing or not in Writing, at any Time or Times heretofore made or entered into, by or between any Journeymen Paper Makers within this Kingdom, for obtaining an Advance of Wages, of them, or any or either of them, or of any other Journeyman or Journeymen, or for lessening their, any or either of their usual Hours or Quantity of Work, or for preventing or hindering any Person or Persons from employing whomsoever he, she, or they shall think proper to employ in his, her, or their aforesaid Business of a Paper Maker, or in any Way whatever to affect any Person or Persons carrying on the said Trade or Business, or in the conducting thereof, shall be, and are hereby declared to be illegal, null, and void, to all Intents and Purposes.

All Contracts between Journeymen Paper Makers for advancing their Wages, lessening their Hours of Work, &c. declared void.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Journeyman Paper Maker, or any other Person or Persons, shall, at any Time or Times after the passing of this Act, make, enter into, agree unto, or be concerned in the making of any Contract, Covenant, or Agreement, in Writing or not in Writing, in Support of or relative to such Combination as aforesaid, every Person so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted upon the Oath or Oaths of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, before any one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, where such Offence shall be committed, upon any Information to be exhibited in Writing, within one Month next after the Offence shall have been committed (which Oath the said Justice or Justices is and are hereby empowered and required to administer), shall, by Order of such Justice or Justices, at his or their Discretion, be committed to the House of Correction within his or their Jurisdiction, there to remain and to be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding two Calendar Months.

Journeymen Paper Makers and others entering into such Contracts, to be committed to the House of Correction.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Time of working by Journeymen at the Vat upon all Fine, Wove, and Plate Papers, if the Master shall so require, shall be Half an Hour about each Post, twenty of which Posts shall and do make a Day's Work; and the Dry Worker, upon all such Fine Papers as aforesaid, if the Master shall so require it, shall work twelve Hours per Day, allowing an Interval of one Hour thereout to each Journeyman for Refreshment.

Time of working by Vat Men and Dry Workers.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Journeyman Paper Maker who shall enter into any Combination to raise such Wages, or to alter the Hours or Duration of Work, or for any other Purpose contrary to this Act, or who shall, by giving Money, or by any other Means, directly or indirectly, solicit, intimidate, or endeavour to prevent any unhired Journeyman or Journeymen, or other Person or Persons wanting Employment in the manufacturing of Paper, from hiring himself or themselves to any Paper Manufacturer, or shall by any Means whatsoever, directly or indirectly, decoy, solicit, intimidate, influence, or prevail, or attempt or endeavour to prevail on any Journeyman Paper Maker, hired or employed, or to be hired or employed in such Manufacture, to quit or leave his or her Service, or shall proscribe, hinder, or prevent, or attempt to proscribe, hinder, or prevent, any Master or Mistress in such Art or Mystery from employing whomsoever he, she, or they shall think proper in such Manufactory, or being retained or employed shall refuse to work with any Person whomsoever which any Master or Mistress in such Art or Mystery shall think proper to employ, and shall be convicted of any or either of the said Offences, on the Oath or Oaths of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, before any one or more of his Majesty's Justice or Justices of the Peace within any or either of the Districts or Jurisdictions aforesaid where the Offence shall be committed, such Offender or Offenders shall be committed to the House of Correction, in the County or Place where the Offence shall be committed, to be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding two Calendar Months.

Penalty on Journeymen taking more Wages, or entering into Combinations to raise Wages, &c.

V. And, for the more effectual Suppression of all Combinations amongst Journeymen Paper Makers, and other Persons employed in the said Trade, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons whomsoever (whether employed in the said Trade or not) shall attend any Meeting or Combination by this Act declared to be illegal, or shall summons, give Notice to, or call upon, any Journeyman Paper Maker, or other Person employed in the said Trade, to attend any such unlawful Meeting or Combination, or who shall collect, demand, ask, or receive, any Sum or Sums of Money from any Journeyman Paper Maker or other Person employed in the said Trade for any of the above Purposes, or shall persuade, entice, inveigle, or intimidate any Journeyman Paper Maker or other Person employed in the said Trade, to enter into or be concerned in any such Meeting or Combination, or to turn out against, or quit the

If any Person shall attend or solicit any Journeyman Paper Maker to attend any unlawful Meeting, or shall subscribe or pay any Sum of Money to support the same, the Service or Employ of the Master or Mistress Paper Maker in whose Service they may be employed, or if any Person or Persons shall pay any Sum or Sums of Money, or make or enter into any Subscription or Contribution whatsoever for or towards the Support or Encouragement of any such illegal Meeting or Combination, every such Person or Persons so offending, and being thereof convicted before any one or more of his Majesty's Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Town, or Place wherein such Offence shall be committed, on the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, shall for every such Offence be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction for such County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, at the Discretion of such Justice or Justices, there to be and remain, without Bail or Mainprize, for any Time not exceeding two Calendar Months.

He may be committed for two Months.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person or Persons, who shall or may offend against this Act, shall and may, equally with all other Persons, be called upon and compelled to give, and shall give his or her Testimony and Evidence as a Witness or Witnesses, upon any Information to be exhibited under this Act on Behalf of the Prosecutor or Informer; and that in all and every such Case, he, she, or they so having given such Testimony or Evidence, shall be, and hereby is and are indemnified of, from, and against, any Information to be laid or Prosecution to be commenced against him, her, or them, for having offended, in the Matter wherein such Prosecution or Information, in or relative to which he, she, or they shall so give Testimony or Evidence, was made or brought.

Offenders against this Act to be admitted Evidence.

VII. And, for the more effectually enforcing the Purposes of this Act, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That on Complaint being made on Oath to any Justice or Justices of the Peace, of any Offence committed against this Act within his or their respective Jurisdictions, such Justice or Justices is and are hereby required and authorized to issue his or their Summons, to summon the Person or Persons charged with being an Offender or Offenders against this Act, and also to summon any Witness or Witnesses for any of the Parties, at a certain Time and Place in such Summons to be specified; and if any one so summoned shall not appear on such Summons, or offer some reasonable Excuse for the Default, then any such Justice or Justices shall issue his or their Warrant or Warrants for apprehending the Party so making Default, within the Jurisdiction of any such Justice or Justices, and upon the Party or Parties complained against appearing, or being brought before any such Justice or Justices on his or their Warrant or Warrants, or in case the Party or Parties complained against shall not appear to such Summons, being served upon him, her, or them, or left for him, her, or them, at his or their usual Place of Abode, and Proof shall be made thereof by Oath before any such Justice or Justices, then every such Justice or Justices is and are hereby authorized and required to proceed to make Inquiry touching the Matters complained of, and to examine into the same, by the Oath or Oaths of any credible Person or Persons as shall be requisite, and to hear and determine the Matter of every such Complaint, and upon Confession of the Party, or Proof by one credible Witness upon Oath, to commit or acquit the Party or Parties against whom Complaint shall be made; and if any Person or Persons so summoned to appear as a Witness or Witnesses as aforesaid, shall not appear at the Time and Place appointed by such Summons, and give his, her, or their Evidence or Evidences before him or them, then and in every such Case every such Justice or Justices shall and may issue his or their Warrant or Warrants, under his Hand and Seal, or their Hands and Seals, for the Commitment of such Person to some Prison in the County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Town, or Place where such Witness or Witnesses shall so make Default, there to remain until such Person or Persons shall submit himself, herself, or themselves to be examined as a Witness or Witnesses as aforesaid.

Justices empowered to summon Offenders, and to hear and determine.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Justice or Justices before whom any Person shall be convicted in Manner prescribed by this Act, shall cause such respective Conviction to be drawn up in the Form or to the Effect following; (that is to say,)

The Form of Conviction.

'BE it remembered, That on this —— Day of —— in the —— Year of his Majesty's Reign, A. B. is convicted before —— of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said County of —— [or, for the Riding, or Division, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, as the Case shall happen to be] for ——, and —— the said —— do hereby order and adjudge him [or her] to be committed to the House of Correction, to be kept to hard Labour for the Space of ——, or until he or she shall submit to be examined, as the Case may be, without Bail or Mainprize. Given under —— the Day and Year aforesaid."

And the said Justice or Justices before whom such a Conviction shall be had, shall cause the same, so drawn up in the Form or to the Effect aforesaid, to be fairly written upon Parchment, and transmitted to the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held for the County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, wherein such Conviction was had, to be filed and kept amongst the Records of the said General Quarter Sessions; and in case any Person or Persons so convicted shall appeal in Manner herein-after mentioned from the Judgment of the said Justice or Justices to the said General Quarter Sessions, the Justices in such General Quarter Sessions are hereby required, upon receiving the said Conviction drawn up in the Form aforesaid, to proceed to the Hearing and Determination of the Matter of the said Appeal, according to the Directions of this Act, any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding; and no Certiorari shall be granted to remove any Conviction or other Proceedings had thereon in pursuance of this Act.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases where any Information authorized by this Act to be made before any one or more Justice or Justices, shall be made upon Oath of the the Informer, to be taken by such Justice or Justices as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for such Justice or Justices to issue his or their Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, grounded upon such Information so made upon Oath, for the Apprehension and bringing of the Person or Persons offending or alleged to have offended against this Act, before him or them, or any Justice or Justices of the said County there sitting, without any previous Summons being issued to the Party so offending, or alleged to have offended, instead and in lieu of issuing of his or their Summons for his Appearance before him or them, to answer the Matters charged by such Information.

Appeal.

X. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person convicted of any Offence or Offences punishable by this Act, shall think himself or herself aggrieved by the Judgment of the Justice or Justices before whom he or she shall have been convicted, such Person shall have Liberty to appeal, at the Time of such Conviction, to the Justices at the then next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, which shall be held for the County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Town, or Place where such Judgment shall have been given; and that the Execution of the said Judgment shall, in such Case, be suspended, the Person so convicted entering into Recognizance at the Time of such Conviction, with two sufficient Sureties, in the Sum of twenty Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, upon Condition to prosecute such Appeal with Effect, and to be forthcoming to abide the Judgment and Determination of the Justices in their said next General Quarter Sessions, and to pay such Costs as the said Justices in such Sessions shall award on such Occasion, which Recognizance the said Justice and Justices, before whom such Conviction shall be had, are hereby empowered and required to take; and the Justices in the said General Quarter Sessions are hereby authorized and required to hear and finally determine the Matter of the said Appeal, and to award such Costs as to them shall appear just and reasonable to be paid by either Party, which Decision shall be final; and if upon the hearing of the said Appeal, the Judgment of the Justice or Justices before whom the Appellant shall have been convicted shall be affirmed, such Appellant shall immediately pay such Costs as the Justices in the said General Quarter Sessions shall award to be paid, for defraying the Expences sustained by the Defendant or Defendants in such Appeal, and shall be committed by the said Justices to the House of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour, or to the Common Gaol, as shall be mentioned in such Conviction, for the Space of two Calendar Months, or any less Time mentioned in such Conviction, without Bail or Mainprize, and until the Payment of such Costs.

Limitation of Actions.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought or commenced against any Person or Persons for any Thing by him, her, or them done or executed in pursuance of this Act, or for any Cause, Matter, or Thing therein contained, such Action or Suit shall be commenced within six Calendar Months next after the Matter or Thing done, and shall be laid in the proper County, and the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, and give the Special Matter in Evidence for his or their Defence; and if upon the Trial a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs become nonsuited, or discontinue his, her, or their Action or Prosecution, or Judgment shall be given against him, her, or them, upon Demurrer or otherwise, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have Double Costs awarded to him, her, or them against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

General Issue.

Double Costs.

Public Act.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be a Public Act, and be judicially taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and all other Persons whomsoever, without the same being specially pleaded.

CAP. CXII.

An Act for authorizing His Majesty to order the registering, and the granting Certificates of Registry, to certain Ships and Vessels, the Property of His Majesty's Subjects, which had belonged to, or been in Possession of, the Enemy, and concerning which Doubts have arisen whether they are entitled to be registered according to the existing Laws in that Behalf.—[18th May 1796.]

'WHEREAS in certain Cases the Governors of His Majesty's Colonies, Plantations, Islands, and 'Territories, have granted Certificates of Registry of Ships and Vessels, which had belonged to, or 'been in Possession of, the Enemy, concerning which Doubts have arisen whether such Ships and Vessels 'are entitled to be registered according to Law: And whereas, in some Cases, under such Circumstances, 'the Property of such Ships and Vessels have been transferred bona fide to certain of his Majesty's Subjects, 'who, under the Protection thereof, now use and employ such Ships and Vessels: And whereas it is highly 'just and expedient, that His Majesty, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, should be authorized 'to grant Relief in such Cases where no Fraud and Collusion shall appear to have been practised:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, to order any such Ship or Vessel, which shall have fallen under the Circumstances before mentioned, since the Commencement of the present War, and previous to the passing of this present Act, to be registered, and have a Certificate thereof, as nearly, according to the Form and Manner prescribed and directed by an Act, passed in the twenty-sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the further Increase

His Majesty in Council may order Vessels which have belonged to the Enemy, and to and Encouragement of Shipping and Navigation, or any Act now in Force, respecting the registering of Ships and Vessels, as the Circumstances of the Case will admit; and in case any Suit shall have been commenced for the Condemnation of such Ship or Vessel, it shall be lawful for his Majesty, by and with the Advice aforesaid, to order all Proceedings thereupon to be staved, either absolutely, or upon such Terms or Conditions as His Majesty, with the Advice aforesaid, shall think proper.

whom Certificates of Registry have been granted by Governors of his Majesty's Colonies, to be registered, &c.

CAP. CXIII.

An Act for allowing the Importation of Arrow Root from the British Plantations, and also of Linseed Cakes and Rape Cakes, from any Foreign Country, in British built Ships, owned, navigated, and registered according to Law, without Payment of Duty.

[18th May 1796.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to allow the Importation of Arrow Root from the British Plantations in America, in British-built Ships, owned, navigated, and registered according to Law, without 'Payment of any Duty whatever: May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons whatsoever, to import into Great Britain in any British-built Ship or Vessel, owned, navigated, and registered according to Law, Arrow Root from the British Plantations in America, without the Payment of any Duty whatever; any Act of Parliament to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Arrow Root may be imported Duty free, from the British Plantations in America in British-built Ships, owned, &c. according to Law;

II. 'And whereas it is expedient to allow the Importation of Linseed Cakes and Rape Cakes, from any 'Country whatever in British-built Ships:' Be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, to import into Great Britain, in any British Ship or Vessel, owned, navigated, and registered according to Law, Linseed Cakes and Rape Cakes from any Foreign Country whatever, without the Payment of Duty; any Act of Parliament to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

and Linseed and Rape Cakes from any Country on the same Conditions.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That a due Entry shall be made of all such Arrow Root, Linseed Cakes, and Rape Cakes, as shall be imported after the passing of this Act, with the proper Officers of the Customs, at the Port into which the same shall be imported, and the same shall be landed in the Presence of the proper Officers appointed for that Purpose, in Default whereof the same shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of his Majesty's Customs.

Entry to be made of Arrow Root, &c. at the Port of Importation, on Penalty of Forfeiture.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Penalties and Forfeitures, created and incurred by this Act, shall and may be sued for, prosecuted, recovered, and disposed of, in such Manner, and by such Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Penalties incurred, or any Goods, Ships, or Vessels, forfeited, for any Offence against the Laws of Customs, may now be legally sued for, prosecuted, recovered, and disposed of, and the Officer or Officers concerned in Seizures or Prosecutions under this Act, shall be entitled to and receive such Share of the Produce arising from the Seizures, as they are now by Law entitled to upon Prosecutions of Seizures for unlawful Importation, and to such Share of the Produce arising from any pecuniary Fine or Penalty, or Composition paid for any Offence against this Act, as they are now by Law or Regulation entitled to upon Prosecutions for pecuniary Penalties.

Penalties may be sued for, &c. as for any Offence against the Laws of Customs.

CAP. CXIV.

An Act to explain and amend an Act, passed in the thirty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to provide for the Families of Persons chosen by Lot to serve in the Militia of this Kingdom, and of Substitutes serving therein; and to explain and amend an Act of Parliament, passed in the twenty-sixth Year of His present Majesty, intituled, 'An Act for amending, and reducing into one Act of Parliament, the Laws relating 'to the Militia, in that Part of Great Britain called England.'—[18th May 1796.]

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the thirty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to 'provide for the Families of Persons chosen by Lot to serve in the Militia of this Kingdom, and of Sub-'stitutes serving therein; and to explain and amend an Act of Parliament, passed in the twenty-sixth Year of 'His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for amending, and reducing into one Act of Parliament, the Laws "relating to the Militia, in that Part of Great Britain called England;" it is amongst other Things enacted, that if the Family of any Substitute, hired Man, or Volunteer, serving in the Militia when embodied 'and called out into actual Service and ordered to march, shall become chargeable to the Parish wherein 'such Family shall dwell, and such Substitute shall not serve for the same Parish, it shall be lawful for the 'Justice of the Peace who shall make any Order for the Relief of such Family, at the same Time to direct

33 Geo. III. Cap. 8.

'the Overseers of the Parish for which such Substitute shall serve, to reimburse the Money so paid to the 'Overseer or Overseers who shall have advanced the same in pursuance of the Order before mentioned, if 'such Parish shall be situated within the same County, and if such Parish shall be situated in any other 'County, the said Justice shall cause the same to be reimbursed in Manner therein-after mentioned; and 'in case the Substitute whose Family shall be relieved as aforesaid, shall serve for any Parish situated in an- 'other County, the Monies advanced by the Overseers of the Parish, Township, or Place, where the Fa- 'mily shall dwell, shall be repaid them out of the County Stock, by the Treasurer of the County to which 'the Parish, Township, or Place, shall belong, on producing a Certificate of the Order of the Justice al- 'lowing such Relief, which Certificate such Justice is thereby required to grant accordingly; and the 'Treasurer who shall repay such Overseer, shall transmit such Certificate, and also an Account of all 'Monies so repaid by him from Time to Time quarterly, to the Treasurer of the County, Riding, or 'Place, in the Militia whereof such Substitute shall serve; and the Treasurer to whom the same shall have 'been so transmitted, shall forthwith reimburse the same to the Treasurer from whom the said Account was 'received; which Account, so received and reimbursed, shall be laid before the Justices of the Peace at their 'next General or Quarter Sessions, which shall be held for such County, Riding, or Place, for their Al- 'lowance thereof, and the said Justices shall and they are thereby required to allow the same accordingly, 'and forthwith to make an Order for the Overseers of the Poor of the Parish, Township, or Place, for 'which such Substitute shall serve, to make good the same to the Treasurer of the County, out of the 'Poor's Rates of such Parish, Township, or Place; and all Payments so made by such Treasurer or Trea- 'surers, Overseer or Overseers, in pursuance of such Order or Orders of such Justice or Justices, shall be 'allowed and passed in their respective Accounts in like Manner as the Expences incurred on Account of 'the Militia are by Law directed to be passed and allowed: And whereas by an Act, passed in the thirty-

34 Geo. III. Cap. 47. 'fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to amend an Act, passed in the last Session of Parlia- 'ment, intituled, "An Act to provide for the Families of Persons chosen by Lot to serve in the Militia of this "Kingdom, and of Substitutes serving therein; and to explain and amend an Act of Parliament, passed in the "twenty-sixth Year of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for amending, and reducing into one Act of Par- "liament, the Laws relating to the Militia, in that Part of Great Britain called England;" and also an Act, 'made in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for augmenting the Militia;" Provisions are 'made for the Relief of the Families of Persons inrolled in the Place of Militia Men discharged at their 'own Request, and further Provisions are made for enforcing the said Act of the thirty-third Year of His 'Majesty's Reign; and by an Act, passed in the thirty-fifth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, An

35 Geo. III. Cap. 81. 'Act to apportion the Relief, by the several Statutes now in force, directed to be given to the Families of Non- 'commissioned Officers, Drummers, Fifers, and Privates, serving in the Militia, between the County at large, 'and the peculiar Districts therein not contributing to the County Rate, according to the Number of Men serv- 'ing for each in such Militia; and to remove certain Difficulties in respect to the Relief of Families of Substi- 'tutes, hired Men, or Volunteers, serving in the Militia; further Provisions are made, touching the Relief 'of such Families: And whereas by virtue of an Act passed in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of

13 & 14 Car. II. Cap. 12; and 'the Reign of his late Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the better Relief of the Poor 'of this Kingdom, many Parishes in divers Parts of this Kingdom have been, and still are, divided into 'Townships, or other Divisions, for the better Maintenance of the Poor of such respective Townships, or 'other Divisions, and the Poor of such Townships, or other Divisions, are maintained by the several 'Townships, or other Divisions, to which they respectively belong, and Overseers of the Poor are ap- 'pointed for such Townships, or other Divisions, separately and distinctly, but no Overseers are appointed 'for the Parish at large wherein such Townships, or other Divisions, so separately maintaining their own 'Poor, are situate, although the Persons serving in the Militia are ballotted and serve for such Parish at large, 'and not for such Townships, or other Divisions, separately and distinctly comprised therein: And whereas

26 Geo. III. Cap. 107. recited. 'by an Act, made in the twenty-sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for amending, and re- 'ducing into one Act of Parliament, the Laws relating to the Militia in that Part of Great Britain called Eng- 'land, it is amongst other Things enacted, that in ballotting for the Militia, it shall be lawful to add to- 'gether the Lists of two or more Parishes, Tithings, or Places, and proceed upon such Lists, added to- 'gether, in like Manner as if they had been originally returned for one Parish, Tithing, or Place, so as to 'make the Choice of Militia Men by Ballot, within every Subdivision, as equal and impartial as possible: 'And whereas great Difficulties have arisen in executing the said several Provisions in the said Acts of the 'thirty-third, thirty-fourth, and thirty-fifth Years of His said Majesty's Reign, in consequence of the said 'Provisions in the said Acts of the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King 'Charles the Second, and of the twenty-sixth Year of His present Majesty:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Tempo- ral, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and

Provisions of the three first recited Acts, touching the Relief of Families of Substitutes, hired Men, or Volunteers, to extend to Places every the Provisions, in the said Acts of the thirty-third, thirty-fourth, and thirty-fifth Years of His Majesty's Reign contained, touching the Relief of the Family of any Substitute, hired Man, or Volunteer, serving for any Parish, Tithing, or Place, or any united Parishes, Tithings, or Places, and for the Reimbursement of all Sums of Money which have been or shall be advanced for any such Purpose, shall extend to all Town- ships and Places having separate Overseers of the Poor, and maintaining the Poor thereof separately and distinctly, and also to all Parishes and Places united for the Purposes of ballotting for Militia Men, as well as to all other Parishes and Places; and that the Justices of the Peace who have made or shall make Orders for the Relief of any such Families, or any other Justice of the same County or Place, shall give Directions for the

the Reimbursement of the Money already advanced, or to be advanced for such Purpose, by the Overseers of the Poor of the Parish or Place, or united Parishes or Places, or Townships or Places respectively, which ought to reimburse the same, or to contribute to the Reimbursement thereof; and the Treasurers of the several Counties, Ridings, Divisions, and Places, and the Justices of the Peace of the several Counties, Ridings, Divisions, and Places, within which all and every such Parishes, Townships, and Places respectively shall be, shall make Reimbursement, and direct Reimbursement to be made by such several Parishes, Townships, and Places respectively, in the same Manner as by the said Act is provided with respect to Parishes and Places therein described, so that in all Cases whatsoever such Reimbursement may be fully made according to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act, as well with respect to Money already advanced, as with respect to Money to be advanced under any Order for such Relief as aforesaid; and where any Man shall serve for any united Parishes or Places, or for any Parish or Place comprizing more than one Township or Place, which shall have separate and distinct Overseers of the Poor, all and every such Justices as aforesaid shall ascertain in what Proportions such united Parishes or Places, or such several Townships or Places, comprized within the same Parish or Place, for which any such Man whose Family shall be so relieved shall serve, ought to contribute to such Relief; such Proportions to be ascertained according to the Numbers of Men liable to be ballotted for the Militia, which each of such united Parishes or Places, or each of such Townships or Places, as the Case may be, shall appear to have had by the last Returns made for that Purpose; and such Justices shall make Orders for the Reimbursement of such Advances as aforesaid, in such several Proportions so to be ascertained, and from Time to Time as Occasion shall require; and in order to enable such Justices to ascertain such Proportions, the Clerks of the several Subdivision Meetings shall, when thereunto required, certify by Writing under their Hands the Number of Men so liable to be ballotted for according to the Returns made for each of such Parishes, Townships, or Places; for which Certificate there shall be paid a Fee of one Shilling and no more.

having separate Overseers, and to all Places united for ballotting for Militia Men.

Justices to ascertain what Proportions shall be contributed by united Places, or the several Places comprized within the same Parish, to the Relief of Militiamen's Families.

Clerk of Subdivision Meetings to certify, when required, the Number of Men liable to be ballotted for, for each Place.

II. 'And whereas in the Militia Regiments it sometimes happens that Non-commissioned Officers, in 'consequence of Misbehaviour, are reduced to serve again in the Ranks: And whereas in consequence of 'their having been promoted, the Parishes for which they were originally drawn are directed, and actually 'do furnish other Men in their Stead, to the Families of which Men the said Parishes pay the Weekly Al- 'lowance as directed by the Acts now in force, and are not directed by the said Acts to pay any Weekly 'Allowance to the Families of such Non-commissioned Officers so reduced as aforesaid;' be it therefore enacted, That the Families of such Non-commissioned Officers, so reduced as aforesaid, shall be relieved as Casual Poor by the Parishes in which they reside, and that such Parishes shall be reimbursed in such Manner as they would have been in case such Non-commissioned Officer so reduced as aforesaid had never been promoted.

Families of Non-commissioned Officers reduced to be relieved as casual Poor.

CAP. CXV.

An Act to enforce the due Execution of an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for raising a certain Number of Men, in the several Counties in England for the Service of His Majesty's Navy.—[18th May 1796.]

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for raising a certain 'Number of Men in the several Counties in England, for the Service of his Majesty's Navy; it is di- 'rected, that every Sum and Sums of Money agreed to be given as a Bounty or Bounties, or paid thereout 'to any Man or Men, raised in pursuance of the said Act, (except such Sums as shall have been directed by 'the Justices of the Peace to be advanced to any Man at the Time of his Inrolment,) and also all Fines le- 'vied upon the Churchwardens or Overseers, by Distress and Sale, or upon the Inhabitants of the several 'Parishes, Townships, or Places, by a Rate, for their Default in not raising the Number of Men appointed 'to be raised by virtue of the said Act, should be paid into the Hands of the Treasurer of the County, 'Riding, or Division, for the Uses and Purposes in the said Act mentioned: May it please your Majesty 'that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Justices of the Peace of the several Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Cities, Towns, Boroughs, and Places, shall, at their Meeting held within their respective Divisions next after the passing of this Act, or as soon after as conveniently may be, issue their Orders under the Hands of any two of them, directed to the Treasurer or Treasurers of the County, Riding, or Division, requiring the said Treasurer or Treasurers to deliver in an Account in Writing, signed by himself or themselves, of all Sums of Money by him or them received by virtue of the said Act, and on what Account, under the Heads and according to the Form in the Schedule hereunto annexed; and if it shall appear, by any such Account, that any Sum or Sums of Money received by him or them for or on Account of any Bounty or Bounties, agreed to be given to Men on their entering into his Majesty's Service, or for or on Account of Fines levied for Default in not raising the proper Number of Men, remain unaccounted for by such Treasurer or Treasurers, it shall be lawful for the said Justices, or any two of them, by their Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to order and direct such Treasurer or Treasurers, within fourteen Days after the Date of such Warrant, to pay into the Hands of the Receiver General of the County, Riding, or Division,

35 Geo. III. Cap. 5. recited.

Justices to order the County Treasurer to deliver in an Account of Money received under recited Act, and to pay in Balances to the Receiver General;

Division, or his Deputy, the Balance due from such Treasurer or Treasurers as aforesaid, which Receiver General, or his Deputy, shall give Acquittances for the same.

and where Bounties or Fines appear not to have been paid to him, to issue Warrants to Parish Officers to assess and pay the Arrears.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Justices of the Peace to whom such Accounts shall be delivered, shall issue their Orders or Warrants, under the Hands and Seals of any two of them, to the acting Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor of any Parish, Township, or Place, or Parishes, Townships, or Places, within their respective Divisions, for which any Man or Men shall have been appointed to be raised in pursuance of the said Act, and for which any Sum or Sums of Money agreed to be given as a Bounty or Bounties to such Man or Men, or directed to be levied as a Fine or Fines for the Default in not raising the proper Number of Men, shall appear not to have been fully paid into the Hands of the Treasurer or Treasurers of the County, Riding, or Division, by which Orders or Warrants the said Justices shall require the said Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor, in case such Sum or Sums of Money shall not appear to them to have been actually assessed and raised upon the Parish, Township, or Place, by the Persons holding the Office of Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor at the Time of the Men's Inrolment, or if the same shall appear to have been so actually assessed and raised, and to have been since accounted for to the succeeding Churhwardens or Overseers of the Poor, or applied to the Use of such Parish, Township, or Place, or Parishes, Townships, or Places, in any other Manner than is directed by the said Act, then and in such Case to pay the Sum and Sums in Arrear, (except such Sums as may have been directed to be advanced to any Man, at the Time of his Inrolment in His Majesty's Service, or to any Persons as a Reward in providing Substitutes, or for Charges incurred in bringing Substitutes to be inrolled,) into the Hands of the said Treasurer or Treasurers, out of any Monies in their or any of their Hands, of the Monies raised for the Relief of the Poor in such Parish, Township, or Place, Parishes, Townships, or Places; or if they shall not have Money sufficient for that Purpose in their Hands, then to make a Rate for the same, in like Manner as Rates are usually made for the Relief of the Poor.

Parish Officers to return Defaulters who have levied Rates and not paid the Money to the Treasurer, to the Justices, who may issue their Warrant for Payment; and if the Party be dead, &c. may direct the acting Parish Officers to raise and pay the Money.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if it shall appear to the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor, to whom any such Order or Warrant shall be directed, that the Persons holding the Office of Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor at the Time of the Men's Inrolment, actually caused all and every the Sum or Sums of Money agreed to be given as a Bounty or Bounties, or directed to be paid as a Fine or Fines, for Default in not raising the Number of Men appointed to be raised, to be assessed and levied as by the said Act is directed, and that the same, or any Part thereof, (except such Part thereof as may have been advanced as aforesaid,) yet remains unpaid to the Treasurer or Treasurers of the County, Riding, or Division, by the said then Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor, it shall be lawful for such Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor, to whom such Orders or Warrants shall be directed, and they are hereby required to return such Default, with the Sums in Arrear, and the Names of the Defaulters, by indorsing the same on the Back of such Order or Warrant, to the Justices granting the same, or to such other Justices as shall attend at any Meeting at which such Return shall be made, and such Justices may examine on Oath into the Matters contained in such Return; and, if they see Cause, may issue their Order or Warrant, directed to the Person or Persons making such Default, requiring them to pay to the Treasurer or Treasurers of the County, Riding, or Division, the Sum and Sums in Arrear, at a Time to be limited in such Order or Warrant, not later than fourteen Days after the Date thereof: Provided also, that if the Person or Persons, by whom the Sum or Sums of Money, so returned to be in Arrear, shall have been assessed or raised, and not applied as aforesaid, shall be dead, or shall have become Bankrupt or Insolvent, or shall not be then resident within the Jurisdiction of such Justices, it shall and may be lawful for any two of them, by like Order or Warrant as aforesaid, to direct the then acting Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor to raise and pay the Sum or Sums in Arrear to the Treasurer or Treasurers of the County, Riding, or Division, in like Manner as they are hereby authorized to direct Payment where the same shall not have been actually assessed or raised as aforesaid, for the Purposes of the said Act.

Treasurer to pay over Money to the Receiver General, and render, on Demand, to the Justices, an Account of all Monies received.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Treasurer or Treasurers of the County, Riding, or Division, shall pay over, within fourteen Days after he shall receive the same, all Sum and Sums of Money received by him or them at any Time after the passing of this Act, on Account of Men raised for His Majesty's Service, or on Account of Fines directed to be levied for Default in not raising the Number of Men appointed to be raised as aforesaid, to the Receiver General of the County, Riding, or Division, or his Deputy, in like Manner as they are hereby directed to pay any Sum of Money now remaining in their Hands; and shall also, on Demand made by any Justice of the Peace of the County, Riding, or Division, from Time to Time deliver an Account, signed as aforesaid, of all Monies which they shall receive at any Time after the passing of this Act applicable to the Uses and Purposes herein mentioned, in like Manner as they are hereby directed to deliver an Account of the Monies now remaining in their Hands.

If Treasurers neglect to deliver in Accounts and pay Balances to the Receiver General, or if Parish Officers neglect to pay Money directed by Justices to the Treasurer,

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Treasurer of any County, Riding, or Division shall refuse or neglect to deliver in any such Account to the Justices of the Peace as aforesaid, or to pay to the Receiver General of such County, Riding, or Division, all such Sum and Sums of Money as he shall have received, or shall receive, on Account of Men raised for His Majesty's Service, or on Account of Fines directed to be levied for Default in not raising the Number of Men appointed to be raised by virtue of the said Act, within the respective Times herein-before limited, or if any Churchwarden or Overseer of the Poor now being, or any Person holding the Office of Churchwarden or Overseer of the Poor at the Time of the Men's Inrolment, shall refuse or neglect, within the Time limited by any Order or Warrant of two or more such Justices of the Peace, to pay the Sum required to be paid, by the Order or Warrant of such Justices, to the Treasurer or Treasurers of the County, Riding, or Division, or shall refuse or neglect, glect, in Cases where the same shall be necessary to make a Rate, for raising the Sum required to be so paid, it shall and may be lawful for any two or more such Justices, to levy the same by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person or Persons so making Default, and to direct the Money so raised, to be paid into the Hands of the Receiver General of such County, Riding, or Division, or his Deputy, taking a Receipt for the same, and the Overplus, (if any,) after satisfying all Charges and Expences attending the same, to be paid to the Person or Persons against whom such Warrant shall be made.

Payment may be levied by Distress.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Justices of the Peace of the several Counties, Ridings, and Divisions, to whom any Accounts shall have been delivered by the Treasurer or Treasurers of such Counties, Ridings, or Divisions respectively, shall, as soon as conveniently may be, cause the same to be transmitted to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy, and shall also at the same Time return what they the said Justices shall have done thereupon in the Execution of this Act.

Justices to transmit Accounts received from Treasurers to the Navy Board, and return what they have done thereupon.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy, or any three of them, to demand from the Receiver or Receivers General of any County, Riding, or Division, such Sum and Sums of Money as he or they shall receive in pursuance of this Act, and direct the same to be paid into the Hands of the Treasurer of the Navy, for which Payments so made the said Commissioners, or any three of them, are hereby authorized to give a full Discharge in pursuance of this Act, such Receiver General being hereby directed to inform the said Commissioners, from Time to Time, of the Monies paid into his Hands, and such Monies shall be applied to the Repayment of such Sum and Sums of Money as shall appear by the Tickets of Inrolment to be due to the Treasurer of the Navy, and which shall, in the Course of his Majesty's Service, have been paid to any Volunteer or Substitute raised by virtue of the said Act, as also to pay such Sum and Sums of Money as shall appear by the Tickets of Inrolment in the Possession of the said Commissioners to be due to any other Volunteers or Substitutes, raised for the Service of his Majesty's Navy by virtue of the said Act; and the Residue thereof (if any) shall be applied for the Use of his Majesty's Naval Service, under the Direction of Parliament.

Navy Board may direct Receivers General to pay Money received by them to the Treasurer of the Navy, to be applied as herein directed.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Form of the Statement and Account required to be made by the Treasurer of any County, Riding, or Division, and to be transmitted to the Justices of the Peace as aforesaid, together with the other Particulars herein-before directed, shall be made as follows; (videlicet,) Accounts to be in the following Forms.

CAP. CXVI.

An Act for making Allowances in certain Cases to Subaltern Officers of the Militia, in Time of Peace.—[18th May 1796.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to make some Addition to the Pay of certain Subaltern Officers of the 'Militia Forces of this Kingdom, who have served during the present War, after the disembodying 'of the said Forces, and during Peace, under certain Regulations; may it therefore please your Majesty 'that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the disembodying of the Militia Forces of this Kingdom, certain Annual Allowances, over and above the Pay to which during Peace they are now by Law entitled, shall for the future be allowed and paid to Subaltern Officers of the Militia, of the Descriptions, to the Amount, under the Restrictions, and in the Manner herein-after expressed; (that is to say,) to every Subaltern Officer of the Militia, who, having at any Time previous to the Expiration of four Months, from the passing of an Act of the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for making Allowances in certain Cases to Subaltern Officers of the Militia in Time of Peace, been appointed to a Commission in the Militia, is now serving, and shall continue faithfully to serve, in the same Corps, until the disembodying thereof, the following Annual Allowances, over and above the Pay to which they may be by Law entitled during Peace, shall be allowed and paid without any Deductions of any Kind, or for any Purpose whatsoever; (that is to say,) to a Lieutenant twenty-five Pounds per Annum, and to an Ensign twenty Pounds per Annum, in the Manner herein-after mentioned.

From disembodying the Militia, the Subalterns to have certain Annual Allowances over the Pay they may be entitled to during Peace.

Exceptions.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person who is or shall at any Time hereafter become possessed of such an Estate or Income, as would by Law qualify him to hold a Captain's Commission in the Militia, or who is or shall at any Time hereafter be appointed Adjutant or Battalion Clerk in any Regiment or Corps of Militia, nor any Person deriving in any Way whatsoever, otherwise than as a Subaltern Officer of the Militia, any Income, Stipend, or Allowance whatever from the Public, nor any Officer on the Full or Half Pay of the Navy, Army, or Marines, who shall also hold a Subaltern's Commission, and serve as aforesaid in the Militia, shall have or be in anywise entitled to the said Annual Allowances, or any Part or Share thereof; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof, in any wise notwithstanding.

Subalterns to take the following Oath.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Subaltern Officers of the Militia, who shall claim under the Authority of this Act to receive either of the said Annual Allowances, shall, previous to receiving the same, and in order to entitle themselves thereto, annually take and subscribe an Oath before some one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, or Place, to which the Regiment or Corps in which they serve shall belong, in the Words or to the Effect following; (videlicet,)

'I A. B. do swear, That I am now serving as a Subaltern Officer in the —— Regiment [or Corps] of 'Militia, and that I am not in my own Right, or in the Right of my Wife, nor have been since the disembodying of the said Regiment, [or Corps,] in the actual Possession and Enjoyment, or Receipt of the 'Rents and Profits of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, of such an Annual Value above Reprizes, as 'would qualify me to hold a Captain's Commission in the Militia; that I am not, nor have been, since the 'disembodying the said Regiment, [or Corps,] an Adjutant or Battalion Clerk in any Regiment [or Corps 'of Militia]; that I do not hold or enjoy, nor have I held or enjoyed, nor does or has any Person for me 'hold or enjoy, or held or enjoyed, since the disembodying of the said Regiment, [or Corps,] any Office 'or Income whatsoever from the Public; and that I am not entitled either to the Full or Half Pay of the 'Navy, Army, or Marines, nor have been since the disembodying of the said Regiment [or Corps].

'So help me GOD.'

Justices to transmit Oaths to the Receiver General of the Land Tax for the County.

Which Oath, so taken and subscribed, shall be by the said Justice forthwith certified and transmitted, and he is hereby required to certify and transmit the same to the Receiver General of the Land Tax of the County, Riding, or Place, to which the Regiment or Corps of Militia in which such Subaltern Officer shall be then serving shall belong, to be by him filed and preserved for the Purposes herein-after mentioned.

Subalterns to attend the Annual Exercise, on Pain of forfeiting their Allowance and their Pay.

Certificate of such Attendance to be transmitted by the Commanding Officer to the Lieutenant and Receiver General of the Land Tax for the County.

IV. And be it further enacted, That every Subaltern Officer of the Militia who shall be entitled, or claim to be entitled to the Benefits of this Act, shall regularly attend the Annual Exercise and Training of the Regiment or Corps to which he belongs, during the Whole of the twenty-eight Days by Law required for that Purpose, and shall, during the said Time, punctually do and perform his Duty as a Subaltern Officer of such Regiment or Corps, on pain of forfeiting the said Annual Allowance, as well as the rest of his Pay, and every Part thereof which may be due for the current Year, in which he shall neglect or refuse to attend; and Certificates of his having so attended and performed his Duty, signed by the Commanding Officer of the Regiment or Corps to which he may belong, shall be transmitted by the said Commanding Officer to the Lieutenant and Receiver General of the Land Tax of the County, Riding, or Place, to which the said Regiment or Corps of Militia in which such Subaltern Officer shall be then serving shall belong, to be by the said Receiver General received previous to any such Subaltern Officer being entitled to demand or receive the said Annual Allowance, or any Part thereof; and in case any such Subaltern Officer, claiming to be entitled to such Annual Allowance, shall by his Commanding Officer be permitted or suffered, for any special Cause or unavoidable Necessity, to be absent during the Whole or any Part of such Annual Exer-else, (in which Case it shall be lawful for such Commanding Officer to grant such Leave of Absence, and for such Subaltern Officer who may be so permitted to be absent, to demand and receive the said Annual Allowance, and every Part thereof, in like Manner as if he had attended during the Whole of the said Annual Exercise,) the Reasons for such Absence, as well as the Duration thereof, shall be carefully and truly specified in the Certificates before mentioned, signed by the Commanding Officer, to be transmitted as soon as conveniently may be to the Lieutenant of the County, Riding, or Place, to which the Regiment or Corps shall belong, to the Receiver General of the Land Tax for the same County, Riding, or Place, and to his Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department.

In case of Leave of Absence, the Reason for granting it to be inserted in the Certificate, which must also be sent to the Secretary of State.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any Regiment or Corps of the Militia, after the disembodying thereof, at any Time, shall not be called out for the Annual Exercise and Training thereof, every Subaltern Officer belonging to any such Regiment or Corps, and coming within the Descriptions of this Act, who shall have taken and subscribed the Oath herein-before mentioned, before any such Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, shall be entitled to the said Annual Allowance, as if such Subaltern Officer had regularly attended the Annual Exercise and Training of such Regiment or Corps during the Whole of the twenty-eight Days by Law required for that Purpose, and a Certificate of such Attendance, signed by the Commanding Officer of the said Regiment or Corps, had been transmitted to the Lieutenant and Receiver General of the Land Tax for the County, Riding, or Place, to which such Regiment or Corps belong, according to the Directions of this Act; any Thing contained in this Act to the contrary hereof notwithstanding.

If Militia be not called out to Annual Exercise, the Subalterns shall to be entitled to the Allowance.

VI. And be it further enacted, That, upon such Certificates as aforesaid of such Justice of the Peace and Commanding Officer as aforesaid, or (where any Regiment or Corps of Militia shall not have been called out to their Annual Exercise, as aforesaid) upon a Certificate of any such Justice of the Peace only being produced to or received by the respective Receivers General of the Land Tax, it shall and may be lawful for such Receivers General, and they are hereby authorized and required to pay to the said Subaltern Officers, according to their respective Commissions of Lieutenant or Ensign, the Annual Allowance above mentioned, in Addition to their Pay, without any Deduction whatsoever, out of any public Monies in their Hands, and to charge the same in their respective Annual Accounts of Monies disbursed for the Use of the Public; the Certificates before mentioned to be by them preserved and produced among the Vouchers for the Payments from Time to Time made by them in pursuance of this Act.

Allowances to be paid without Deduction.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Subaltern Officers of the Militia, entitled or claiming to be entitled to the Benefits of this Act, shall at all Times be liable to serve in the respective Regiments or Corps to which they belong, whenever the same shall be embodied, and called out upon actual Service; and in case of Neglect or Refusal to attend when called upon, or in case any such Subaltern Officer shall a second Time neglect or refuse to attend, and perform his Duty at the Annual Exercise as before directed, each and every such Subaltern Officer shall forfeit his and their Claim to the said Annual Allowance, and every Part thereof, in all Time to come, and shall also be considered as having resigned and vacated his and their Commission and Commissions to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Subalterns not attending when called upon to forfeit their Claim.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the said several Annual Allowances shall be paid to the Persons respectively entitled thereto, by the Receivers General of the Land Tax, upon the Production of the before-mentioned several Certificates, as soon after the Times of the Annual Exercise and Training as may be convenient and practicable: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent any Subaltern Officer entitled to the Benefit of it, from receiving the Pay allowed by Law for his Attendance at such Annual Exercise as before mentioned, over and above the said Annual Allowance: Provided also, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to entitle any Subaltern Officer as aforesaid, to the said Annual Allowance, or any Part thereof, during the Time the Regiment or Corps to which he belongs shall be embodied or called out on actual Service: Provided also, that this Act, and the Benefits and Allowances therein contained, shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to more than ten Lieutenants in any Regiment consisting of more than ten Companies; to more than nine Lieutenants in any Regiment consisting of more than eight and less than eleven Companies; to more than eight Lieutenants in any Regiment consisting of more than six and less than nine Companies; to more than five Lieutenants in any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, consisting of six or of a less Number of Companies.

Allowances to be paid by Receivers General on Production of Certificates.

Subalterns may receive Pay for attending Annual Exercise; but not entitled to the Allowance while the Militia is embodied.

Allowance to extend only to a certain Number.

IX. And be it further enacted, That in case in any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of the Militia, at the Time of disembodying thereof, there shall happen to be a greater Number of Lieutenants, coming within the Descriptions of this Act, than can be entitled to claim the Benefits thereof, within the true Intent and Meaning of the foregoing Proviso, the Senior Lieutenants of such Number shall always be preferred, and shall be alone entitled to demand and receive the above-mentioned Allowances, and that the Junior Lieutenants shall succeed to such Allowances in Rotation as Vacancies may happen among the said Senior Lieutenants from Time to Time.

Senior Lieutenants to have the Preference, and the Junior to succeed on Vacancies.

X. 'And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of His present 'Majesty, intituled, An Act for amending, and reducing into one Act of Parliament, the Laws relating to the 'Militia in that Part of Great Britain called England, it is enacted, that the Lieutenant of any County, 'Riding, or Place, together with any three or more Deputy Lieutenants, and on the Death or Removal, or 'in the Absence of any such Lieutenant, any five or more Deputy Lieutenants may, at the End of every 'five Years, at their Annual Meetings to be holden as in the said Act mentioned, in case the Militia of such 'County, Riding, or Place shall not be then embodied, discharge a certain Number of Officers for the Pur-

26 Geo. III. Cap. 107. recited.

Powers of recited Act for discharging Officers at the End of every five Years, not to extend to Subalterns entitled to Allowances.

'poses and in the Manner in the said Act mentioned: And whereas it is not expedient that the Powers so 'given by the said recited Act should extend to Subaltern Officers coming within the Description and en-'titled to the Benefits of this Act:' Be it therefore enacted and declared, That nothing in the said recited Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to empower the Lieutenant, or Deputy Lieutenants, of any County, Riding, or Place, to discharge any such Subaltern Officers as are or may be entitled to the Benefit of this Act, according to the true Intent and Meaning thereof, or any of them.

Continuance of this Act.

XI. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in Force until the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and no longer.

CAP. CXVII.

An Act to exempt Dairies and Rooms used solely for making, keeping, and drying Cheese and Butter, from the Duties on Windows and Lights.—[18th May 1796.]

'WHEREAS in and by divers Acts of Parliament now in force, certain Rates and Duties have been 'from Time to Time laid upon Windows and Lights in Dwelling-houses and Offices belonging to 'and occupied therewith: And whereas it is expedient that Windows or Lights in Dairies, and Rooms kept 'and used solely for the Purpose of making, drying, and keeping Cheese and Butter, should not be charged 'with or liable to the said Rates and Duties in certain Cases herein-after mentioned:' May it please your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, upon every Assessment made or to be made of the said Duties, or any of them, it shall not be lawful to assess or charge any Windows or Lights in any Dairies, or in any Rooms or Places kept and used for the sole Purpose of drying and keeping Cheese, or of making Cheese or Butter, and to or for no other Purpose or Purposes whatsoever; which Dairies and Rooms shall be belonging to and occupied with any Dwelling-house chargeable with the Rates and Duties aforesaid, whether the same shall be attached to or detached from, and being Part of such Dwelling-house or not, and which shall be occupied by any Person or Persons who shall sell, or be in any Manner concerned in selling, the Produce of Dairies, or any Kind of Cheese.

Duties on Windows not to be charged on Places used solely for drying, keeping, or making Cheese or Butter.

Exemption to extend only to Windows without Glass, and Places kept solely for the before-mentioned Purposes.

II. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That the Exemptions herein-before provided shall extend only to such Windows or Lights in such Dairies or Rooms as aforesaid as shall be made with Splines or Wooden Laths, or Iron Bars, and wholly without Glass; and to such Dairies or Rooms as aforesaid, which shall not be at any Time or Times used to dwell or to sleep in by any Person or Persons whomsoever, but solely kept and used for the several Purposes herein-before mentioned.

Dairies to be liable to Duty unless certain Words be painted on the Doors.

III. Provided also, and be it enacted, That the respective Owner or Owners of the Dwelling-houses to which such Dairies or Rooms used as aforesaid respectively belong, do and shall paint or cause to be painted on the Door thereof, in large Roman black Letters, of two Inches at the least in Height, and of a proportionable Breadth, the Words Dairy and Cheese Room, or some of them, as the Case shall require, and do and shall keep and preserve such Words so painted distinctly legible, during such Time or Times as such Dairies and Rooms shall be used for the Purposes aforesaid, otherwise, and in case of Failure of all or any of the Orders and Regulations in this Act contained, it is hereby declared that such Dairies and Rooms as aforesaid shall be charged and chargeable with all and every of the Duties and Rates to which the same were liable previous to the passing this Act; any Thing herein contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

CAP. CXVIII.

An Act to authorize the Sale of Fish at Billingsgate by Retail.—[18th May 1796.]

2 Geo. III. Cap. 15. recited.

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An 'Act for the better supplying the Cities of London and Westminster with Fish, and to reduce the pre-'sent exorbitant Price thereof, and to protect and encourage Fishermen; it is enacted, among other Things, 'that no Person or Persons, from and after the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and sixty-two, 'shall a second Time sell, or expose to or for Sale, in Billingsgate Market, or within the Space of one hun-'dred and fifty Yards from Billingsgate Dock, or any other Market in the City of London, or within the 'Weekly Bills of Mortality, any Fish which, in the same Day, shall have been before sold in the same 'Market: And whereas, the retailing of Fish at Billingsgate would be of great public Utility and Conve-'nience, and tend materially to reduce the exorbitant Price of Fish; but inasmuch as such retailing of Fish 'may not be practised whilst the said Provision contained in the said Act remains in force:' May it please your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, sembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said herein-before in Part recited Act, passed in the second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, as restrains or prohibits the Sale of Fish by Way of Retail in Billingsgate Market, or within the Space of one hundred and fifty Yards from Billingsgate Dock, in the same Day upon which the same shall have been before sold in the same Market, or within the said Space of one hundred and fifty Yards from Billingsgate Dock, but no further, or otherwise, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

So much of the recited Act as restrains the Sale of Fish by Retail at Billingsgate repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That notwithstanding the Provisions to the contrary in the said herein-before recited Act, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the same or the like Effect contained, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons, from and after the passing of this Act, by Way or in the Manner of Retail, (but in no other Manner,) to sell a second Time, and not oftener, in Billingsgate Market, or within the Space of one hundred and fifty Yards from Billingsgate Dock, any Fish whatever, although the same Fish shall on the same Day have been sold once before by Wholesale in the same Market, or within the Space of one hundred and fifty Yards from Billingsgate Dock; any Law, Statute, Usage, or Custom to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Authorizing the Sale of Fish at Billingsgate by Retail.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, from Time to Time appoint the Hour for the Commencement of the Sale of Fish by Retail in Billingsgate Market, or within the said Space of one hundred and fifty Yards from Billingsgate Dock; and that the said Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, shall have the like Power, Authority, Jurisdiction, and Controul, over the said Market, for the Sale of Fish by Retail, as they now have over the several other public Markets of the said City.

Court of Common Council to have the same Jurisdiction over the said Retail Market, as over the other public Markets of the City.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed, adjudged, and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such, by all Judges, Justices, and other Persons whatsoever, without the same being specially pleaded.

Public Act.

Duties to be under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs and Excise respectively.

II. And be it further enacted, That such of the said Duties of Customs by this Act imposed, as shall arise or become due in that Part of Great Britain called England, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs in England, for the Time being; and such thereof as shall arise or become due in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs in Scotland for the Time being; and that such of the Excise Duties by this Act imposed, as shall arise or become due in that Part of Great Britain called England, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise in England for the Time being; and such thereof as shall arise or become due in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland for the Time being.

How Wines found in Stock shall be estimated, and how the Duties shall be paid.

III. And be it further enacted, That in estimating the said additional Duties hereby imposed on Foreign Wine, as being found upon such actual Survey as aforesaid, in the Stock, Custody, or Possession of any Dealer or Dealers in, or Seller or Sellers of, Foreign Wine, after the said seventeenth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, which shall be in Bottles, five reputed Quart Bottles shall be reckoned to the Gallon, and two hundred and fifty-two of such Gallons to the Tun; and the said additional Duties payable on Foreign Wine, as being found in the Stock, Custody, or Possession of such Dealer or Dealers in, or Seller or Sellers of, Foreign Wine as aforesaid, shall be paid in Manner following; that is to say, One-fourth Part thereof on the tenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, One-fourth Part thereof on the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, one other fourth Part thereof on the tenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and the remaining fourth Part on the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight.

Duties on Wine imported between April 17 and August 1, 1796, to be paid as before-mentioned, on Bond being given for paying them before Delivery of the Wine.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the said additional Duties by this Act imposed, for or in respect of any such Foreign Wine as hath been imported into Great Britain after the said seventeenth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, or which shall be imported into Great Britain at any Time before the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, shall be paid by the several and respective Importers or Proprietors thereof, in the Manner and on the Days, and in the Proportions before mentioned, provided the Proprietor or Proprietors, Importer or Importers thereof, shall enter into Bonds to His Majesty, with sufficient Sureties, for duly answering and paying the said additional Duties to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners of the Customs, before such Wine shall be delivered to the Proprietor or Proprietors, or the Importer or Importers thereof, or to any other Person for his or their Use.

Act not to extend to Wine for which the additional Duty shall have been paid on Importation, nor where the Stock does not exceed 252 Gallons.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to charge with any Duty by virtue of this Act, any Foreign Wine for which the additional Duty by this Act imposed shall have been paid on Importation thereof, or on having been found in any Ship or Vessel in which the same shall have been imported, or in any Lighter, Boat, or other Vessel, after the unshipping, and before the landing thereof, or upon any Pier, Quay, Wharf, or other Place, upon the first landing thereof; or on having been in any Cellar, Vault, or Warehouse, of the said United Company of Merchants, or in any Warehouse under the Locks of the Customs or Excise; nor to charge with the said Duty any Foreign Wine in the Stock, Custody, or Possession, of any Dealer or Dealers in, or Seller or Sellers of, Foreign Wine, unless such Dealer or Dealers, or Seller or Sellers, shall have in his, her, or their Stock, Custody, or Possession, on such actual Survey as aforesaid, after the said seventeenth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, a Quantity or Quantities of Foreign Wine exceeding two hundred and fifty-two Gallons, reckoning five reputed Quart Bottles to a Gallon for all such Wine as shall be in Bottles.

Dealers to pay the Duties on Stock at the Times prescribed, on Penalty of double the Amount;

VI. And be it further enacted, That all and every Dealer and Dealers in, and Seller and Sellers of, Foreign Wines shall, at the respective Days and Times herein-before for that Purpose prescribed, pay and clear off all the Duties of Excise by this Act imposed, for and in respect of all Foreign Wine found on the first actual Survey by the proper Officer of Excise, in the Stock, Custody, or Possession of such Dealer or Dealers, or Seller or Sellers, upon Pain of forfeiting double the Amount of such Duties.

and Auctioneers to pay the Duties on Wines sold by Auction at the Times prescribed for Payment of Auction Duty, on like Penalty.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the said Duties by this Act imposed, for or in respect of Foreign Wine sold by Auction, shall be paid by the respective Auctioneers by whom such Wine shall be sold, at such respective Times as are by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force, immediately before the passing of this Act, limited or prescribed for Payment of the Duties arising from Sales by Way of Auction; upon pain of such Auctioneers forfeiting double the Amount of the said Duties by this Act imposed, for or in respect of such Foreign Wine sold by Auction.

Prize Wines taken out of Warehouse for Home Consumption, liable to the additional Duty.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all Wine taken and condemned as Prize, and sold by the Captors or their Agents, and taken out of any Warehouse wherein the same shall have been secured to be consumed in this Kingdom, in pursuance of an Act passed in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the Relief of the Captors of Prizes with respect to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom, shall be subject and liable to the additional Duty by this Act imposed for or in respect of Wine imported; and such additional Duty shall be paid and payable by such Persons, and in such Manner, as the former Duties by the said Act of the thirty-third Year aforesaid imposed, are payable by Law.

For Wine contracted to be sold, the additional Duty may be added to the Price.

IX. 'And whereas Contracts may have been made for the Sale of Wine before the same shall have been 'charged with the Duties by this Act imposed;' be it therefore enacted, That in all Cases where any Wine whereon the respective Duties by this Act imposed shall be charged, shall have been after the said seventeenth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, or shall be delivered in pursuance of such Contracts or Sales, it shall be lawful for the Dealer or Dealers in such Foreign Wine, delivering the same, to charge so much Money as shall be equivalent to the Duties by this Act imposed in respect thereof, in Addition to the Price of such Wine; and such Dealer or Dealers shall be entitled by virtue of this Act to demand and be paid the same accordingly.

Drawback of the whole Duties to be allowed on Wine for Consumption by Officers on board the Navy, agreeable to 33 Geo. III. Cap. 48.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That a Drawback of the whole Duties on Foreign Wine imposed by this Act shall be allowed and paid by the Collectors of the Customs, on any Sort of such Foreign Wine intended for the Use of Admirals, Captains, or other Commissioned Officers employed in his Majesty's Service, for their actual Consumption on board such of his Majesty's Ships as they shall respectively serve in, in like Manner, and under the like Provisions, Conditions, and Restrictions, as a Drawback of the former Duties paid on the Importation of Wines into Great Britain is directed to be allowed and paid by such Collectors by an Act, passed in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act to allow the Drawback of the Duties of Customs and Excise upon Wines consumed by Admirals, Captains, and other Commissioned Officers, on board Ships of War in actual Service; and to allow such Ships to be supplied with Tobacco Duty-free.

Drawback of Duties to be allowed on Exportation of Foreign Wines.

XI. And be it further enacted, That on the Exportation of any Foreign Wine, for or in respect whereof the Duties by this Act imposed shall have been duly paid, there be allowed and paid by the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs, to the Exporter or Exporters, a Drawback of the said Duties upon the same Terms and Conditions, and under, subject, and according to the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Provisions, Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures contained, provided, settled, or established, in and by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force immediately before the passing of this Act, relating to the Exportation of Foreign Wine, in order to obtain the Drawback of the Duties of Customs; and the said Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Provisions, Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, shall be, and the same respectively are hereby directed to be used, applied, practised, and put in Execution on the Exportation of Wine, for the Purpose of obtaining a Drawback of the Duties by this Act granted, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Provisions, Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures had been expressly repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

Recovery and Application of Penalties.

XII. And be it further enacted, That all such Penalties of double the Amount of the said Duties imposed by this Act, shall be sued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated by such Ways, Means, or Methods, as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, may be sued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, respectively; and that one Moiety of every such Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture shall be to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them who shall inform, discover, or sue for the same.

Acts in force respecting the Revenue of Customs, to extend to this

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the several Duties of Customs by this Act imposed, shall be managed, ascertained, raised, levied, collected, recovered, answered, and paid, in such and the like Manner, and in or by any or either of the Means, Ways, or Methods, by which the Duties of Customs upon Wines imported by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force immediately before the passing of this Act, were or ought

CAP. CXXIV.

An Act for granting to His Majesty certain Duties on Dogs.—[19th May 1796.]

'Most gracious Sovereign,

'WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray your Majesty's Public Expences, and 'making such permanent Addition to the Public Revenue as shall be adequate to the encreased Charges occasioned by any Loan made, or to be made, or Stock to be created, by virtue of any Act or Acts for that 'Purpose, passed, or to be passed, in this Session of Parliament, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give 'and grant unto your Majesty the Duties herein-after mentioned; and do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, every Person who shall keep any Greyhound, Hound, Pointer, Setting Dog, Spaniel, Lurcher, or Tarrier, or who shall keep two or more Dogs of whatever Description or Denomination the same may be, shall be charged and assessed annually with the Sum of five Shillings for each Greyhound, Hound, Pointer, Setting Dog, Spaniel, Lurcher, or Tarrier, and also for each Dog, where two or more Dogs shall be so kept; and every Person who shall inhabit any Dwelling House, assessed to any of the Duties on inhabited Houses, or on Windows or Lights, and shall keep one Dog and no more, such Dog not being a Greyhound, Hound, Pointer, Setting Dog, Spaniel, Lurcher, or Tarrier, shall be charged and assessed annually with the Sum of three Shillings for such Dog.

5 s. to be paid annually for every Greyhound, &c. and for every Dog whatever where two or more are kept; and 3 s. for each Dog not being a Greyhound, &c. where only one is kept by a Housekeeper assessed to the Duties on Houses.

Duty not to extend to Dogs not six Months old, the Proof of which to lie on the Owner.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall charge with the said Duty any Dog or Whelp, which, at the Time of returning the List of Dogs kept by any Person as by this Act is required, shall not actually be of the Age of six Calendar Months: Provided also, that if any Dispute shall arise touching the Age of such Dog or Whelp, the Commissioners authorized to execute this Act shall finally determine the same, on Appeal to be made thereupon; and that upon every Appeal to the said Commissioners, for any Matter or Thing under this Act, if the Matter in Dispute shall be in respect of the Age of any Dog or Whelp assessed to the said Duty, the Fact that the same is under the Age of six Calendar Months shall lie on the Owner or Owners of such Dog or Whelp, who shall claim such Exemption, on his, her, or their Oath or Affirmation, or on the Oath or Affirmation of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, to be tendered by such Owner or Owners.

Duties to be collected, &c. as the Duties on Horses.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Duties hereby imposed on Dogs, shall be assessed, raised, collected, and received, by such Persons, in such and the like Form and Manner, and with such Allowances, and under such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, and according to such Rules, Methods, and Directions, as are prescribed or appointed for assessing, raising, collecting, receiving, and paying, the Duties on Horses, in and by certain Acts of the twenty-fifth and twenty-ninth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, and certain other Acts passed in subsequent Sessions and in the present Session of Parliament, or in or by any of the said Acts; and that all the Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Jurisdictions, Clauses, Matters, and Things, contained in the said Acts relative to the said Duties on Horses, and in force at and immediately before the passing of this Act for assessing, raising, collecting, receiving, and paying, the Rates and Duties on Horses thereby granted, shall be in full Force, and shall be extended to, and be duly observed, practised, and put in execution, throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, for assessing, raising, collecting, receiving, and paying, the said Duties on Dogs hereby imposed, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as the same are or may be observed, practised, and put in execution, for assessing, raising, collecting, receiving, or paying, the Rates and Duties granted by the said Acts on Horses, and shall, in the Execution of this Act, be construed in like Manner as if the same Provisions were specially enacted in this Act, so far as the said Powers, Rules, Authorities, and Penalties, and other Matters and Things, are applicable unto and not altered by this Act, except that the same shall not, by reason of any Exemption from the said Duties on Horses, in the said Acts contained, or any of them, or in any other Act, having Relation to the Duties on Horses, be construed in like Cases to exempt any Person from the Duties on Dogs hereby imposed.

Mode of making Assessments of the Duty, and of Lists of Dogs.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the first Assessment under this Act, of the said Duties hereby imposed, shall be made for three Quarters of a Year, from the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six; and that in the first List to be made out in pursuance of this Act, the same shall contain the greatest Number of Dogs kept in the Year preceding, and ending on the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, and afterwards the said Assessments shall be made for one Year from the fifth Day of April in every Year; and that, in the Lists to be made out for any subsequent Year, the same shall contain the greatest Number of Dogs kept in the Year preceding, and ending on the fifth Day of April yearly.

Commissioners for the Duties on Horses to be Commissioners for executing this Act, with the like Powers.

Their first Meeting, &c.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners authorized or appointed, or who shall hereafter be authorized or appointed, for putting in execution the said Acts relative to the Duties on Horses, shall be Commissioners for executing this Act, and the Powers herein contained, or hereby directed to be applied, in all and singular the Counties, Shires, Stewartries, Ridings, Cities, Boroughs, Cinque Ports, Towns, and Places respectively, within the Kingdom of Great Britain, and shall hold their first Meeting under this Act at such Time or Times as they shall appoint, before the thirtieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, and afterwards shall meet from Time to Time for the Purpose of executing this Act, at such Days and Times as the said Commissioners for the Time being shall think proper to appoint, or as the said Commissioners are or shall be authorized to appoint, for the Purpose of executing the said several Acts relative to the said Duties on Horses, and shall divide themselves into Districts, and proceed in the Execution of this present Act, in such and the same Manner as is prescribed by the said Acts relative to the Duties on Horses; and the said Commissioners shall, in all Things relative to the Duties by this Act imposed, have the like Powers, Authorities, and Jurisdictions, in appointing Collectors, making Assessments, and in enforcing, correcting, and amending, or relieving from the same, as are given to them by the said Acts in like Cases, relative to the Duties on Horses thereby granted, except so far as any Alteration is made by this Act; and that the several Surveyors, Inspectors, Assessors, and Collectors, respectively appointed or to be appointed to put in execution the said several Acts relative to the Duties on Horses before mentioned, or any of them, shall respectively be Surveyors, Inspectors, Assessors, and Collectors, to put in execution this Act, according to the Powers and Authorities given to them respectively by the said several Acts before mentioned, and shall respectively cause Notices for preparing Lists and Declarations to be delivered to all and every the Persons liable to the Duties hereby imposed, at such Times and in such Manner as by the said Acts is required in relation to the said Duties on Horses, and which Lists and Declarations shall be delivered according to such Notices, and under the like Penalties, and under and subject to the like Powers of being reviewed and surcharged, as are given, appointed, or limited by the said several Acts before mentioned; and that all such Powers, Authorities, Matters and Things shall be put in execution against all and every Person and Persons whatever, who shall keep any Dog or Dogs liable to the Duty by this Act imposed, whether such Person or Persons are, is, or shall be liable to the said Duties on Horses or not; and the said Commissioners, and other the Persons aforesaid, being duly qualified to act in the Execution of the said several Acts before mentioned, or any of them, shall, and they are hereby respectively empowered and required required to do all other Things necessary for putting this Act in execution with relation to the said Duties hereby imposed, in the like and in as full and ample a Manner as they or any of them are or is authorized to put in execution the said Acts relative to the said Duties on Horses, or any Matters and Things therein respectively contained.

Surveyors, &c. for the Duties on Horses, to act in like Manner in the Execution of this Act.

Commissioners for Taxes may direct joint or distinct Notices to be given to Persons liable to the Duties on Horses, &c. and Dogs.

VI. 'And whereas it may be convenient to enable the Assessors to deliver joint or distinct Notices to Persons liable to any of the Duties on Horses, Servants, or Carriages, or for wearing Hair Powder, by any former Act or Acts of Parliament, or by this Act, on Dogs, according to Circumstances and as the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes shall from Time to Time direct;' be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, at any Time after the passing of this Act, to direct joint or distinct Notices to be given to the several Persons liable to any of the before mentioned Duties, as the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes shall see convenient; and if any Assessor or Assessors, who shall be required by Order of the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes to prepare, sign, or deliver any Notice or Notices to the Person or Persons liable to any of the before mentioned Duties, shall neglect or refuse to prepare, sign, or deliver such Notice or Notices, in pursuance of such Order, every such Assessor or Assessors shall, on Complaint thereof made to the Commissioners authorized to carry this Act into execution, at any Meeting held within or for the Precinct of such Assessor or Assessors, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding five Pounds, nor less than forty Shillings, as the Commissioners before whom such Complaint is heard shall think fit, to be levied as any other Penalty inflicted by such Commissioners for Neglect of Duty by any Law in force may be levied.

Penalty on Assessors neglecting to prepare or deliver Notices.

Persons keeping Hounds may compound for the Duty.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person shall be desirous of compounding for the Number of Hounds by him, her, or them kept in any Year, and shall give Notice thereof within the Time herein-after mentioned to the Collector or Collectors of the Duty imposed by this Act for any Parish or Place where such Person shall be liable to be assessed, of his or her Intention so to do, and shall pay, or cause to be paid, the full Sum of fifteen Pounds, within thirty Days after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, and in any subsequent Year, shall pay, or cause to be paid, the Sum of twenty Pounds, within thirty Days after the fifth Day of April in such Year, such Person shall not be liable to be assessed in respect of any Hounds by him or her kept in the Year preceding such Notice and Payment; provided that if such Person shall be liable to be assessed in respect of the said Duty in two or more Parishes or Places, then he or she shall cause to be given the like Notice to the proper Officers in every Parish or Place where he or she shall be liable to be assessed; and shall declare in which Parish or Place such Composition is intended to be made; and every Collector to whom such Composition shall be paid shall give a Receipt for the same, as and for a Composition for the Duty by this Act imposed.

Duties to be carried to the Consolidated Fund.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies from Time to Time arising by the Duties by this Act imposed as aforesaid, (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same respectively excepted,) shall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster; and the said Money so paid in as aforesaid, shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund.

Duties to be applied in defraying the encreased Charges occasioned by any Loan of this Session, and for 10 Years together with other Duties granted for the same Purpose, kept apart from other Monies.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Monies to arise from the said Duties, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient, shall be deemed an Addition made to the Revenue, for the Purpose of defraying the encreased Charge occasioned by any Loan made by virtue of any Act, passed in this Session of Parliament, and that the said Monies, during the Space of ten Years next ensuing, shall continue to be paid into the said Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Public Revenue; and that there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt, during the said Period of ten Years, a Book or Books in which all the Monies arising from the said Duties, and paid into the said Receipt by virtue of this Act, shall, together with the Monies arising from any other Duties granted in this Session of Parliament, for the Purpose of defraying such encreased Charge as aforesaid, be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, upon any Account whatever.

Limitation of Actions.

General Issue.

Treble Costs.

X. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought or commenced against any Person or Persons for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, then and in every such Case, the said Action or Suit shall be commenced within six Calendar Months after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and shall be brought in the County or Place where such Cause of Action shall arise, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit to be brought, may plead the General Issue, and give this Act, and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the Authority of this Act; and if it shall appear to be so done, or if any such Action or Suit shall be brought after the Time before limited for bringing the same, or shall be brought in any other County, City, or Place than as aforesaid, then and in every such Case the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and if upon such Verdict, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuit, or discontinue his, her, or their Action, or if a Verdict shall pass against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, or if upon Demurrer, Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall and may recover Treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have for Costs of Suit in other Cases by Law.

CAP. CXXV.

An Act for the better Collection of the Duty on Hats.—[19th May 1796.]

'Most gracious Sovereign,

24 Geo. III. Sess. 2. Cap. 51.

'WHEREAS, by an Act, passed in the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, certain Rates and Duties are imposed on Licences granted to Persons uttering, vending, or selling by 'Retail, any Hats therein mentioned, and also several other Rates and Duties on Hats uttered, vended, or 'sold in Great Britain: We, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament assembled, thinking it expedient that the said Rates and Duties on Hats should be collected under the Provisions herein-after mentioned; do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be 'enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the fifth Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, so much of the said recited Act as relates to the issuing of stamped Paper Tickets by the Commissioners of his Majesty's Stamp Duties, or to the affixing such stamped Tickets in or upon the Hats liable to the said Duties, by the respective Dealers in such Hats, and all Penalties and Provisions therein contained for enforcing the due Collection of the said Duties on Hats, shall cease and determine, and that from thenceforth the said Duties shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, under the Provisions, and subject to the Penalties herein-after contained and expressed.

So much of recited Act as relates to issuing, and affixing stamped Tickets on Hats, and the Provisions for enforcing the Collection of the Duties, to cease.

Commissioners of Stamps to provide Stamps, and put this Act in execution.

II. And be it further enacted, That for the better and more effectual levying and collecting the said Duties on Hats, according to the Provisions of this Act, the Commissioners for the Time being appointed to manage the Duties charged on stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, or the major Part of them, are hereby empowered and required to provide and use such Stamps, to denote the said Duties on Hats, as shall be requisite for the Execution of this Act, and from Time to Time to alter or renew the same, or make new Stamps to denote the said Duties, as they, or the major Part of them, shall think fit, and to do all other Things necessary to be done for putting this Act into execution with relation to the said Duties on Hats, in the like, and in as full and ample Manner as they, or the major Part of them, are or is authorized to put in execution any former Law concerning Stamp Duties of any Kind whatever.

Duty to be calculated according to the full Price of the Hat.

III. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said fifth Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, the Rates of Duty by the said recited Act imposed, shall be calculated at, and according to the full Price and Value of the Hats in respect of which such Duty shall be charged, and of all the Mountings and other Ornaments (except Gold and Silver Lace) sold or exposed to Sale therewith; and that every Hat made wholly of Felt, Wool, Stuff, Beaver, or Leather, or any Mixture of the said Substances, or any of them, or with any other Substance or Substances by whatever Name such Hat shall be called or distinguished, shall be liable to the said Duties by the said recited Act imposed; and every such Hat which, from and after the fifth Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, shall be sold and delivered, shall, previous to such Delivery, be lined or covered in the Inside of the Crown thereof with Silk, Linen, or other proper Materials, whereon a durable Mark or Stamp can conveniently be affixed, to denote the Duties by the said recited Act imposed, and on which Materials a Stamp or Mark, to be provided by the said Commissioners in pursuance of this Act, shall have been stamped or marked, according to the Rate of Duty calculated as aforesaid, and according to the Directions of this Act.

Every Hat sold to be stamped on the Lining.

Shapes for Lining may be sent to the Office to be stamped.

IV. And be it further enacted, That for the greater Convenience in stamping such Materials as aforesaid, any Person or Persons whatever may bring or send, or cause to be brought or sent, to the Head Office of Stamps, any Quantities proper to be used, and intended to be used, for the Purpose of lining and covering the Inside of the Crown of such Hats, and cut into Shapes for that Purpose, to be marked and stamped with such Marks and Stamps, to be provided as aforesaid, to denote the Rates of Duties payable for the Hats to which such Materials are to be affixed, as the Person or Persons bringing the same shall require; and the said Commissioners, or their Officers to be employed under them for that Purpose, or some of them, shall, from Time to Time, before the said Materials shall be stamped, take an Account of the Number of Shapes which shall be at any one Time brought to the said Head Office to be stamped, and of the several Rates and Duties required by the Person or Persons bringing the same to be stamped thereon, and enter the same in a Book or Books to be provided and kept for that Purpose; and upon taking such Account thereof, shall mark or stamp with one of the said Stamps, one of the Pieces of every such Lining, in such Part thereof, and in such Manner, as that the Stamp put thereon shall be and remain visible and conspicuous when and after the same shall have been affixed to any Hat, in the Manner intended and to be declared as herein is mentioned, the Person or Persons bringing the same to be so stamped as aforesaid paying to the Receiver General of the Stamp Duties for the Time being, or his Clerk, the several Duties payable for the same by virtue of the said recited Act, subject to such Discount and Allowance thereon as is herein-after provided, which Stamp or Mark, when put on such Lining or Inside Covering, in pursuance of this Act, shall be a sufficient Discharge for the Duty denoted thereby to be paid.

An Account of the Numbers brought, and the Duties, to be entered in a Book, and the Shapes to be then stamped, on Payment of the Duty.

Commissioners may open Accounts with

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the said Stamp Duties for the Time being, or the major Part of them, to open an Account in Books to be provided by

by the said Commissioners for that Purpose, with any Person or Persons carrying on the Trade and Business of a Dealer or Dealers in, or a Manufacturer or Manufacturers of, Linings for Hats, by this Act required to be stamped as aforesaid, who respectively shall have given, or caused to be given, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, Security by Bond to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for the Payment of the Duties at the Times and in the Manner to be prescribed by the said Commissioners as hereinafter is mentioned, and from Time to Time, at the Request of such Person or Persons, to stamp such Materials or Linings as shall be brought to the said Head Office for that Purpose, and to return the same so stamped upon the Credit of such Person or Persons, he, she, or they first delivering, or causing to be delivered, to the said Commissioners or their Officers, a Note in Writing, signed by him, her, or them, respectively, of the Quantities of Linings from Time to Time required to be stamped, and the Amount and Denomination of the Stamps required to be put thereon, and on the Re-delivery of such Linings so stamped, signing or causing to be signed a sufficient Receipt for the same, for which Payments, if the same shall be duly performed according to the Directions of the said Commissioners, the like Allowances by Way of Discount may be made as are herein directed in case of present Payment of the said Duties; and that every Person upon whose Credit any Linings stamped according to the Directions of this Act shall be returned, and Payment thereof forborne, shall previously give or cause to be given Bond to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in such Form as the said Commissioners may think reasonable, so as the same may in no Case be less than the penal Sum of one hundred Pounds Sterling, but shall not in Cases requiring a higher Security exceed in any Case the probable Amount of the Duty which shall be payable by such Person or Persons, for any Space of Time not exceeding one Year, nor less than six Months, with a Condition that if such Person or Persons shall, from Time to Time, well and truly make Payment of all such Sum and Sums of Money which shall be due and payable to His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, such Bond shall be void, but otherwise to be and remain in full force; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, to fix the Times and Periods of making such Payments, and to specify the same in the Condition to every such Bond, and which shall not in any Case be by less than two Payments in the Year, at equal Intervals as nearly as may be; and every such Bond may be renewed from Time to Time in the Discretion of the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, as often as the same shall be forfeited, or the Party or Parties or any of them shall die, become Bankrupt or Insolvent, or reside in Parts beyond the Seas; and every such Bond shall at any Time, at the Request of the Obligor or Obligors therein, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, be delivered up to be cancelled, or otherwise, if, in the Discretion of the said Commissioners, the same shall be detained, then the same shall be put in suit for some Breach thereof before the End of the second Term after such Request made, or in default thereof shall be void.

Dealers or Manufacturers on certain Conditions.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Dealer or Dealers in Hats, being respectively licensed in pursuance of the said recited Act, during the Continuance of such Licence, to sell to any other Dealer or Dealers in Hats licensed in like Manner, any such Hat or Hats wherein no Lining shall be affixed, stamped, or marked, as by this Act is directed.

Licensed Dealers may sell unlined or unstamped lined Hats to one another, VII. And be it further enacted, That the Person or Persons bringing any Linings or Inside Coverings for the Crowns of Hats to be marked or stamped as aforesaid, shall, on Request made by the said Commissioners, or any of their Officers, declare the Uses of the different Parts or Pieces of any Lining or Inside Covering so brought, and also the Form and Manner of affixing every Part and Piece thereof in the Crown of any Hat, and shall shew, to their Satisfaction, in what Part of such Lining or Inside Covering the Mark or Stamp can be put thereon, so that such Mark or Stamp so put thereon, when the same shall be affixed in or to any Hat, shall be visible and conspicuous; and the said Commissioners, being satisfied therewith, shall cause the same to be marked or stamped according to the Directions of the Person or Persons bringing the same, and they, or any three or more of them, are hereby authorised and required, from Time to Time, to make such Regulations as they shall think fit and necessary, as well to prevent the Concealment of the Stamp upon any Linings or Inside Coverings affixed to or in any such Hats, as to prevent the Stamps sold and disposed of therewith, from being made use of again for the like Purpose, contrary to the Provisions of this Act; which Regulations aforesaid, fairly printed, by Order of the said Commissioners, shall be delivered to all and every Dealer or Dealers aforesaid now licensed, upon, his, her, or their applying for the same, and to all and every Person and Persons to be hereafter licensed, at the Time of his, her, or their taking out the first Licence, to be taken out after the passing of this Act, and so from Time to Time with every future Licence that shall be granted, if any Variation or Alteration shall have been made in any of such Regulations.

Persons bringing Linings to be stamped, to declare the Uses of the different Parts, and the Manner of fixing thereof in the Hat, and where the Stamp can be affixed to be visible.

Commissioners to cause the Linings to be stamped accordingly: and to make Regulations to prevent Concealment of Stamps, or their being made use of again; to be delivered to Dealers.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said fifth Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, no Person or Persons (other than Manufacturers of Hats, or such licensed Dealers as aforesaid selling Hats to other licensed Dealers, as herein mentioned) shall sell and deliver upon Sale, or cause to be sold and delivered upon Sale, any Hat or Hats subject to the said Stamp Duties by the said recited Act imposed, or shall receive or cause to be received any Thing or Value, by Way of Barter or in Exchange for any Hat subject to the said recited Duties, or any of them, wherein no Lining or Inside Covering shall be affixed at the Time of such Sale or Delivery, or wherein there shall be a Lining or Inside Covering affixed, which shall not be marked or stamped according to the Directions of this Act, or that shall not be marked or stamped with a Mark or Stamp, placed and affixed in the Inside of the Crown thereof, in such None but Manufacturers, or licensed Dealers, selling to one another, to sell or barter unlined Hats, or with unstamped Linings, &c. on Penalty of 10*l*.

Manner as to be viſible and conſpicuous therein, or that ſhall be marked or ſtamped with a Mark or Stamp of leſs Denomination or Value than by the ſaid recited Act and this Act is directed and required, under Pain that all and every ſuch Perſon and Perſons ſo offending ſhall forfeit and pay, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of ten Pounds, to be recovered and applied as herein-after is mentioned.

Penalty of 20l. for affixing ſtamped Linings, after having been uſed, to other Hats.

IX. XII. And be it further enacted, That if in any Action, Suit, or Information, for any Offence in uſing or wearing any Hat or Hats contrary to this Act, any Diſpute ſhall ariſe whether the Duty by the ſaid recited Act impoſed hath been duly paid for ſuch Hat or Hats, the Proof of the Fact that the Duty has been paid for ſuch Hat or Hats ſhall lie on the Owner of ſuch Hat or Hats, or Perſon accuſed of uſing or wearing the ſame contrary to this Act.

Perſons offending diſcovering the other Party, if convicted, freed from Penalty.

XIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall offend againſt this Act, ſhall, before his, her, or their Conviction of or for ſuch Offence, diſcover the other Perſon or Perſons offending therein, the Perſon or Perſons ſo diſcovering ſhall be admitted to give Evidence againſt the Party informed againſt or proſecuted; and in caſe ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo informed againſt or proſecuted be thereupon convicted, ſhall be freed and diſcharged from any Penalty or Penalties, Forfeiture or Forfeitures, by him, her, or them incurred for any Offence againſt this Act previous to ſuch Diſcovery.

Stamped Linings damaged, or Stamps under recited Act not uſed, may be cancelled by the Commiſſioners.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Stamp or Mark impreſſed upon any Lining or Inſide Covering by virtue of this Act, or any Lining or Inſide Covering whereon any ſuch Mark or Stamp is marked or ſtamped, ſhall be damaged in affixing the ſame in or to any Hat as aforeſaid, or in ſtamping the ſame, or otherwiſe, ſo as to be rendered unfit for Uſe, and ſuch Lining or Inſide Covering ſhall not have been uſed or worn, or ſold or diſpoſed of, with any Hat or Hats, or if any ſtamped Paper Tickets, provided under the ſaid recited Act, ſhall, from and after the paſſing of this Act, remain in the Poſſeſſion of any licenſed censed Dealer in Hats, which shall not have been used, or worn, or sold, or disposed of, with any Hat or Hats, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons licensed in pursuance of this Act, to bring all such Linings or Inside Coverings so damaged, or any Linings or Inside Coverings having any damaged Marks or Stamps impressed thereon, or at any Time within one Calendar Month after the said fifth Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, to bring any such stamped Paper Tickets which shall not have been used, or worn, or sold, or disposed of as aforesaid, to the Commissioners for managing the said Duties, at their Head Office, or to some Officer or Officers appointed by them; and the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, are hereby respectively empowered and required to examine upon Oath or solemn Affirmation, which Oath or solemn Affirmation the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, are hereby authorized to administer, into all or any Circumstances relating to the same, and upon due Proof made, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, of the Value of the respective Stamps brought to the said Commissioners, and also that such Linings or Inside Coverings so damaged, or having impressed thereon any Mark or Stamps so damaged, and such stamped Paper Tickets as aforesaid, or any of them, have not, nor hath before been used or worn, or sold or disposed of with any Hat or Hats, then and in every such Case it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, to direct the proper Officer or Officers, and such Officer or Officers is and are hereby required and directed to cancel such damaged Marks or Stamps impressed upon such Linings or Inside Coverings, and also to cancel such stamped Paper Tickets, and to mark or stamp any Linings or Inside Coverings in lieu thereof, with Marks and Stamps of the same Denomination and Value, without demanding or taking, directly or indirectly, any Sum or other Consideration for so doing.

Persons carrying about Hats for Sale without Lining or not duly stamped, may be apprehended and carried before a Magistrate, and the Apprehender on Conviction of the Offender to be entitled to 40s.

XV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall, from and after the said fifth Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, hawk or carry about for Sale any Hat or Hats liable to any of the said recited Duties, without any Lining or Inside Covering affixed hereto or therein, or without a Lining or Inside Covering duly marked and stamped with a Mark or Stamp visible and conspicuous on some Part thereof, as by this Act is directed, to denote the Payment of the Duty for the same at the Rate aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for any Person to seize, apprehend, and carry before any Justice of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, Shire, Stewartry, City, or Place, where such Offence shall be committed, any such Person or Persons so offending; and every Person so seizing or apprehending such Offender or Offenders, and carrying him, her, or them before such Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, upon Conviction of every such Offender or Offenders, by his, her, or their own Confession, or by the Oath or Oaths of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, and producing a Certificate of such Conviction under the Hand of such Justice, which Certificate the said Justice is hereby required to give, (without Fee to be taken for the same,) shall be entitled to a Reward of forty Shillings, to be paid by the Receiver General of his Majesty's Stamp Duties; and it shall and may be lawful for any such Justice of the Peace to commit every such Offender, so apprehended and convicted as aforesaid, to the House of Correction, for any Time not exceeding six nor less than two Calendar Months, as to such Justice shall seem meet.

Offenders may be committed to the House of Correction.

Discount to be made on purchasing Stamps to the Amount of 10 l.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners for the Time being, appointed to manage the Duties upon stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, shall allow and pay to the respective Persons that shall purchase Stamps at the Head Office, to the Amount of ten Pounds at any one Time, in pursuance of this Act, such Allowance by Way of Discount, as the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury shall from Time to Time direct, upon the present Payment of the said Duty or Duties upon the said Stamps so to them supplied.

Price of Hats in Bargains or Bills to be distinguished from Duties.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That where any Person or Persons shall make any Bargain for the Sale of any Hat or Hats, subject to the Duties by the said recited Act imposed, or shall deliver in any Bill or Charge for any such Hat or Hats sold, such Person and Persons respectively shall distinguish the Price of every such Hat from the Amount of the Duty payable thereon, and shall, in every such Bill or Charge, also make a distinct and separate Charge for the Stamp or Stamps which shall have been impressed upon the Linings or Inside Coverings of such Hat or Hats so charged in such Bill.

Hats, not less than a Dozen in a Package, may be exported unlined, or with unstamped Linings, XVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons to export from the lawful Quays, in the lawful Hours, and in the Manner herein directed, any Number of Hats, not less in Quantity than one Dozen in any one Package, either lined or unlined, and if lined, then without the same being stamped or marked, as by this Act is directed.

Persons counterfeiting Stamps, &c. guilty of Felony.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall counterfeit or forge, or procure to be counterfeited or forged, any Stamp or Mark directed to be allowed or used, or provided, made, or used, in pursuance of this Act, or shall counterfeit or resemble the Impression of the same, with Intent to defraud His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or shall utter, vend, or sell, or expose to Sale, or cause or procure to be uttered, vended, or sold, or exposed to Sale, any Piece of Silk, Linen, or other Material or Thing, with such counterfeit Mark or Stamp thereon, knowing such Mark or Stamp to be counterfeited, or if any Person shall privately or fraudulently use any Stamp or Mark, directed or allowed to be used by this Act, with Intent and Design to defraud His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, of any of the said Duties, then every such Person so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged a Felon, and shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

Powers of former Acts relating to Stamp Duties to extend to this Act.

XX. And be it further enacted, That all Powers, Provisions, Articles, Clauses, and all other Matters and Things prescribed or appointed by any former Act or Acts of Parliament relating to any Stamp Duties, except in Cases where other Powers, Penalties, or Provisions are made or prescribed by this Act in lieu thereof, thereof, shall be of full Force and Effect with relation to the Rates and Duties by this Act imposed, and shall be applied and put in execution for raising, levying, collecting, and securing the said Rates and Duties by this Act imposed, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had severally and respectively been repeated in this present Act.

Application of Penalties.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That all pecuniary Penalties hereby imposed shall be divided and distributed (if sued for within the Space of six Calendar Months from the Time of any such Penalties being incurred) in Manner following; that is to say, one Moiety thereof to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof to the Person or Persons who shall inform or sue for the same.

Recovery of Penalties.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That all pecuniary Penalties imposed on any Person or Persons for Offences committed against this Act, shall and may be sued for and recovered, with full Costs of Suit, in His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, for Offences committed in England, and in His Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland, for Offences committed in Scotland, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Essoin, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, shall be allowed.

Justices may hear and determine Offences subjecting to pecuniary Penalties, and levy the same by Distress.

XXIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Justice of the Peace residing near the Place where the Offence shall be committed, to hear and determine any Offence against this Act, which subjects the Offender to any pecuniary Penalty, which said Justice of the Peace is hereby authorized and required, upon any Information exhibited, or Complaint made in that Behalf, at any Time within six Calendar Months after such Offence shall have been committed against this Act, to summon the Party accused, and also the Witness or Witnesses on either Side, and shall examine into the Matter of Fact, and upon due Proof made thereof, either by the voluntary Confession of the Party, or by the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, (which Oath he is hereby empowered to administer,) to give Judgment or Sentence for the Penalty or Forfeiture, according as in or by this Act is directed, (all which Penalties and Forfeitures so adjudged shall be divided and distributed, one Moiety thereof to the Informer or Informers who shall prosecute for the same, and the other Moiety thereof, the necessary Charges for the Recovery thereof being first deducted, shall be paid to the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in the Manner herein-after directed,) and to award and issue out his Warrant, under his Hand and Seal, for levying any such pecuniary Penalties or Forfeitures so adjudged, on the Goods of the Offender or Offenders, and to cause Sale to be made thereof, in case they shall not be redeemed within six Days, rendering to the Party the Overplus, (if any,) and where Goods of the Offender cannot be found sufficient to answer the Penalty or Penalties, to commit the said Offender or Offenders to the House of Correction, there to remain for the Space of three Calendar Months, unless such pecuniary Penalty or Penalties shall be sooner paid and satisfied; and if any Person or Persons shall find him or herself, or themselves aggrieved by the Judgment of any such Justice, then he, she, or they shall or may, upon giving Security to the Amount of the Value of such Penalty and Forfeiture, together with such Costs as shall be awarded, in case such Judgment shall be affirmed, appeal to the Justices of the Peace at the next General or Quarter Sessions for the County, Riding, Division, Shire, Stewartry, or Place, wherein the Offence was committed, who are hereby empowered to summon and examine Witnesses upon Oath, and finally to hear and determine the same; and in case the Judgment shall be affirmed, it shall and may be lawful for such Justices of the Peace to award the Person or Persons so appealing to pay such Costs, occasioned by such Appeal, as to them the said Justices shall seem meet.

Offenders may be committed for Want of Distress.

Appeal may be made to the Quarter Sessions.

Penalty of 5*l.* on Witnesses for Default.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall be summoned as a Witness or Witnesses to give Evidence before such Justice or Justices of the Peace, touching any of the Matters relative to this Act, either on the Part of the Prosecutor, or of the Person or Persons accused, and shall neglect or refuse to appear at the Time and Place to be for that Purpose appointed, without a reasonable Excuse for such his, her, or their Neglect or Refusal, to be allowed of by such Justice or Justices of the Peace before whom the Prosecution shall be depending, that then every such Person shall forfeit, for every such Offence, the Sum of five Pounds, to be levied and paid in such Manner, and by such Means, as in and by this Act is directed as to other Penalties.

Justices to cause Conviction to be made out in the following

Form.

XXV. And, in order to avoid frivolous and vexatious Appeals, be it further enacted, That the Justice of the Peace before whom any Offender shall be convicted as aforesaid, shall cause the said Conviction to be made out in the Manner and Form following, or in any other Form of Words to the like Effect, mutatis mutandis, which Conviction shall be good and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes, without stating the Case, or the Facts or Evidence, in any more particular Manner; (that is to say,)

'BE it remembered, That on the —— Day of —— in the Year of our Lord —— A. B. of —— in the County of —— was convicted before me C. D. one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said County, residing near to the Place where the Offence was committed, for that the said A. B. on the —— Day of —— now last past, at the —— of —— in the said County of —— did [Here state the Offence against the Act] contrary to the Statute in that Case made and provided. Given under my Hand and Seal, the —— Day of ——.'

Convictions to be returned to the Quarter Sessions to be filed.

Which Conviction the said Justice shall cause to be written fairly upon Parchment, and returned to the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, Shire, Stewartry, or Place where such Conviction was made, to be filed by the Clerk of the Peace, and there to remain and be kept among the Records of the same County, Riding, Division, Shire, Stewartry, or Place: Provided always nevertheless, nevertheless, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Justice, where he shall see Cause, to mitigate and lessen any such Penalties as he shall think fit, the reasonable Costs of the Officers and Informers, as well in making the Discovery as in prosecuting the same, being always allowed, over and above such Mitigation, and so as such Mitigation do not reduce the Penalties to less than one Moiety of the Penalties incurred, over and above the said Costs and Charges, any Thing contained in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and such Conviction shall not be removed by Certiorari into any Court whatsoever.

Justices may mitigate Penalties.

Convictions not removable.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That at the End of every Quarter of a Year after the passing of this Act; (that is to say,) on the tenth Day of October, the fifth Day of January, the fifth Day of April, and the fifth Day of July, in every Year, there shall be set apart, at the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, out of the Monies arising from the Duties on Hats granted by the said recited Act, the Sum of two thousand three hundred and sixty-nine Pounds seventeen Shillings and nine Pence, being One-fourth Part of the Average Yearly Produce for three Years next before and ending on the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, of the said Duties; and that after setting apart such Quarterly Sums as aforesaid, the Remainder of the Monies arising from the said Duties shall be deemed an addition made to the Revenue for the Purpose of defraying the increased Charge occasioned by any Loan made, or Stock created or to be created, by virtue of any Act or Acts passed or to be passed in this Session of Parliament; and that during the Space of ten Years next ensuing, there shall be provided and kept, in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt, a Book or Books, in which all the Surplus Monies arising from the said Duties, and paid into the said Receipt, shall, together with any Monies arising from any Rates and Duties granted in this Session of Parliament, for the Purpose of defraying such increased Charge as aforesaid, be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, upon any Account whatever.

2,369 l. 17 s. 9 d. to be set apart Quarterly out of the Duties granted by recited Act, and the Remainder to be applied in defraying the increased Charge occasioned by any Loan of this Session, and for ten Years, with other Duties granted for the same Purpose, kept separate from all other Monies.

Limitation of Actions.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought or commenced against any Person or Persons, for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, then and in every such Case the said Action or Suit shall be commenced within six Calendar Months after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and shall be brought in the County or Place where the Cause of Action shall arise, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit to be brought may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the Authority of this Act: and if it shall appear to be so done, or if any such Action or Suit shall be brought after the Time before limited for bringing the same, or shall be brought in any other County, City, or Place than as aforesaid, then and in every such Case the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and if, upon such Verdict, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuit, or discontinue his, her, or their Action, or if a Verdict shall pass against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, or if upon Demurrer Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall and may recover Treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same, as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have for Costs of Suit in other Cases by Law.

General Issue.

Treble Costs.

STATUTES at Large, &c.

Anno Regni GEORGII III. tricesimo septimo.

'AT the Parliament begun and holden at Westminster, the twelfth Day of July, Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, in the thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE the Third, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c.

'And from thence continued, by several Prorogations, to the twenty-seventh Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six; being the first Session of the eighteenth Parliament of Great Britain.'

CAP. I.

An Act for continuing and granting to His Majesty certain Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder, and Perry, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven.—[2d November 1796.]

CAP. II.

An Act for granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax, to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven.

[4 s. in the £.] [2d November 1796.]

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

'WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, taking into our serious Consideration such Expences as are absolutely necessary for supporting your Majesty's Government, and being resolved to supply the same, have, for that End and Purpose, chearfully and voluntarily given and granted, and do by this Act give and grant unto your Majesty the several and respective Rates and Assessments hereafter mentioned; and we do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Sum of two millions thirty-seven thousand six hundred twenty-seven Pounds nine Shillings and one Farthing shall be raised, levied, and paid unto his Majesty, within the Kingdom of Great Britain, by such Proportions, and in such Manner and Form, as hereafter in this Act are expressed.

2,037,627*l.* 9*s.* 1*d.* to be raised in Great Britain.

LXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners, Clerks, and other Officers, from Time to Time appointed and employed in the Receipt, Management, and Government, of the Duties on Salt, shall be assessed upon this Act for their Salaries and other Profits of their Places in the Parish of Saint Martin in the Fields, within the City and Liberty of Westminster, where the Salaries and other Profits of the said Commissioners, Clerks, and other Officers, in the Year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight, were assessed, and not elsewhere, so as the full Proportion which was assessed on the said Division of Saint Martin in the Fields in the City and Liberty aforesaid, in the said Year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight, be again assessed thereon by virtue of this Act; and so as any other Division, District, Parish, or Place, to which the said Office has been or may be removed, be not charged with a greater Proportion in respect of the said Salaries and Profits, than it was in the said Year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight, any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, That out of the Sum to be assessed on the said Commissioners for the Receipt, Management, and Government, of the said Duties on Salt, their Clerks and other Officers, there shall be paid to the Collectors of the Land Tax for the Division, District, Parish, or Place, to which the said Office is or may be removed, one Moiety thereof, and also the Whole of the Land Tax for all additional Commissioners, Clerks, and other additional Commissioners, &c. of the Salt Office to be assessed in St. Martin's Parish.

A certain Portion of such Assessment to be paid to the Collectors for the District to which such Office may be removed.

tional Officers of the said Duties on Salt which shall or may be hereafter appointed and employed in the said Receipt, Management, or Government, to be applied in Aid of the Assessment to be laid upon the said Division, District, Parish, or Place, by virtue of this Act.

CAP. III.

An Act for providing an Augmentation to the Militia, to be trained and exercised in the Manner therein directed; and for enabling His Majesty to cause the same to be embodied, in case of Necessity, for the Defence of these Kingdoms.

[11th November 1796.]

34 Geo. III. Cap. 16.

'WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for amending and reducing into one Act of Parliament, the Laws relating to the Militia in that Part of Great Britain called England, a certain Number of Men are directed to be raised in the several Counties, Ridings, and Places in England, to serve in the Militia; and by another Act, passed in the thirty-fourth Year of the Reign of his said Majesty, intituled, An Act for augmenting the Militia, the several Regiments, Battalions, and Companies of Militia, have been augmented by such Numbers of Volunteers as his Majesty hath, under the Authority of the said last-mentioned Act, thought proper from Time to Time to add thereto: And whereas, in order to prevent or repel any Attempt which the Enemies of the Country may make to effect a Descent upon this Kingdom, it is expedient to augment the Militia Forces in such Manner, and to provide that such Augmentation may be trained, and exercised to Arms, without Delay, and embodied in case of Emergency:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted: and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That his Majesty's Lieutenants, constituted and appointed by virtue of the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year aforesaid, for the Counties, Ridings, and Places hereinafter mentioned, shall respectively have full Power and Authority, and are hereby required to call together, arm, array, and cause to be trained and exercised, such Persons, and in such Manner, as is hereinafter directed; and the said Lieutenants shall also have, and are hereby vested with full Power and Authority, to carry this Act into Execution, and to appoint a proper Number of Officers acting with the Regiment, Battalion, or Company, raised by virtue of either of the said Acts of the twenty-sixth and thirty-fourth Years aforesaid, for such County or Riding, or such other proper Persons as are duly qualified and approved of, according to the Directions of the said former Acts, or this Act, or such other Persons as are hereinafter described, to be Officers of Militia, to train, discipline, and command the Persons so to be armed and arrayed, according to the Rules, Orders, and Directions hereinafter mentioned, and to do all other Acts, Matters, and Things necessary for carrying this Act into Execution, in like Manner, and as fully and effectually, as they are authorized to carry into Execution the said former Acts, or any of them; and that in the Absence of any Lieutenant, or where there shall be no Lieutenant, the Deputy Lieutenants, duly authorized by his Majesty, may act in all Things touching the Execution of this Act, as they might do in the Execution of the said former Acts.

Lieutenants of Counties, appointed by virtue of the first recited Act, to carry this into Execution:

In their Absence Deputy Lieutenants may act.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if a sufficient Number of Officers acting with the Regiment, Battalion, or Company, raised by virtue of the said former Acts, for the County, Riding, or Place, or of Persons qualified as aforesaid, cannot be found to accept of Commissions in the Supplementary Militia to be raised by virtue of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants respectively, to appoint for that Service, such a Number of the Officers in the Army, whether on Full or on Half Pay, or of Persons who have had Commissions in any of his Majesty's Forces, or in the Militia, and have retired therefrom, as his Majesty shall approve, although not duly qualified as aforesaid; such Officers not to be appointed, on their first Appointment, to any higher Rank in the said Supplementary Militia, than they respectively have, or have had, in his Majesty's other Forces or in the Militia.

If a sufficient Number of qualified Persons cannot be found, Officers in the Army, or who have retired from the Army or Militia, may be appointed, though not qualified.

At Meetings in pursuance of the first recited Act the County Lieutenants, &c. to carry this into Execution as that Act, except where hereby altered. At the first Subdivision Meeting at which a Return of Men liable to be ballotted by virtue of the former Acts shall be made, a Duplicate of the List shall be made, in which the Names of Persons liable to be ballotted for under this Act, shall be inserted, &c.

into the Militia, by virtue of the said former Acts, shall have been, or shall be then made, the Deputy Lieutenants there attending, shall cause a Duplicate of such Lists to be made out, and after hearing Appeals against the same, shall direct the Duplicate of such Lists to be amended as the Case shall require, and in such Manner that the Names of all Persons liable to be ballotted for by virtue of this Act to serve in the Supplementary Militia, hereby directed to be raised, shall be inserted therein, and shall also direct the Names of all Persons by this Act respectively excepted from so serving, to be struck out of the Duplicate of the said List; and shall appoint the Times and Places for their second Meetings, within their respective Sub-divisions; and shall return to the Clerk of the General Meetings, for the Use of the said General Meetings, Certificates, under their Hands, of the Number of Men in each Parish, Tything, or Place, specified in the Duplicate of the List so amended, and the same shall be filed by the Clerk for the Use of the General Meetings, and which General Meetings are empowered to alter the same, in like Manner as they may do under the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year aforesaid.

A General Meeting of Lieutenancy to be held as soon as may be after the first Sub-division Meeting, at which the Number of Men to serve for the County in pursuance of this Act shall be appointed.

V. And be it further enacted, That a General Meeting of Lieutenancy shall be held in each County, Riding, or Place, as soon after such first Sub-division Meeting as may be, and before the Time appointed for the second Sub-division Meeting; and at such General Meeting the Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenants, or such of them as shall be present at such Meeting, shall appoint the Number of Men to serve in pursuance of this Act for each Hundred, Rape, Lath, Wapentake, or other Division, within such County, Riding, or Place, according to the Numbers contained in the Certificates received from the several Sub-division Meetings, in such Manner as they are authorised to do by the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year aforesaid.

At the second Sub division Meeting the Number of Men to serve for each Parish shall be appointed, and also another Meeting Orders to be issued to the Chief Constables to give Notice to the Constable of each Parish of the Number so appointed, and of the next Sub-division Meeting, at which they shall be chosen by Ballot out of the Duplicate of the List and another Meeting appointed, and Order issued to the Chief Constable to direct the Constable to give seven Days' Notice to the Men so chosen to appear thereat. Constable to make a Return upon Oath at the Meeting; and Persons chosen to take the following

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Deputy Lieutenants, assembled at their said second Meeting held after the passing of this Act, within any Sub-division as aforesaid, shall appoint what Number of Men shall serve for each Parish, Tything, and Place, within such Sub-division, in Proportion to the Number appointed to serve for each Hundred, Rape, Lath, Wapentake, or other Division; and shall appoint another Meeting to be holden as soon as conveniently may be, and within three Weeks from the Day on which such Meeting was holden, within the same Sub-division; and shall issue out an Order to the Chief Constables, or other Officers of the respective Hundreds, Rapes, Laths, Wapentakes, or other Divisions, requiring them to give Notice to the Constable, Tythingman, Headborough, or other Officer of every Parish, Tything, or Place, within their respective Hundreds, Rapes, Laths, Wapentakes, or other Divisions, of the Number of Men, so appointed to serve for such Parish, Tything, or Place, and of the Time and Place of the next Sub-division Meeting; and the said Deputy Lieutenants, or any two or more of them, assembled in pursuance of such Appointment, shall cause the Number of Men appointed to serve as aforesaid, to be chosen by Ballot out of the Duplicate of the List returned for every Parish, Tything, or Place aforesaid, and amended, where Occasion requires, according to the Directions of this Act, and shall appoint another Meeting to be holden, as soon as conveniently may be, and within three Weeks, in the same Sub-division; and shall issue out an Order to the Chief Constables, or other Officers of the respective Hundreds, Rapes, Laths, Wapentakes, or other Divisions, to direct the Constable, Tythingman, Headborough, or other Officer of every Parish, Tything, or Place, to give Notice to every Man so chosen to serve in the Supplementary Militia, to be raised by virtue of this Act, to appear at such Meeting, which Notice shall be given or left at his Place of Abode, at least seven Days before such Meeting; and such Constable, Tythingman, Headborough, or other Officer, shall attend such Meeting, and make a Return upon Oath of the Days when such Notice was served; and every Person so chosen by Ballot shall, upon such Notice, appear at such Meeting, and there take the following Oath; (that is to say,)

Oath:

'I A. B. do sincerely promise and swear, That I will be faithful, and bear true Allegiance to his Majesty King George: and I do swear, that I am a Protestant, and that I will faithfully serve in the Militia, within the Kingdom of Great Britain, for the Defence of the same, during the present War, and for the Space of one Calendar Month after the End thereof.'

And to be enrolled.

And every such Person shall be enrolled (in a Roll to be then and there prepared for that Purpose) to serve in the Militia of such County, Riding, or Place, as a Private Militia Man, during the present War, and for the Space of one Calendar Month after the End thereof.

Persons chosen may find Substitutes of the same County, who, if approved, shall be enrolled and sworn.

VII. Provided always, That if any Person so chosen by Ballot shall produce, for his Substitute, a Man of the same County, able and fit for Service, and who shall be approved by the said Deputy Lieutenants, or any two or more of them, such Substitute, so produced and approved, shall be enrolled to serve in the said Supplementary Militia of such County, Riding, or Place, as a Private Militia Man, for such Term as the Person for whom he shall be a Substitute shall have been chosen to serve, and such Substitute shall take the Oath before-mentioned; and any Person so chosen by Ballot, for whom such Substitute shall have been so produced, approved, enrolled, and sworn as aforesaid, shall not be again ballotted for in pursuance of this Act.

Substitute not to be objected to on account of the Number of his Children.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That such Deputy Lieutenants shall not reject any Person so produced as a Substitute for or on account of the Number of his Children; any Thing in any former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

IX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if any Person, so chosen by Ballot, who shall have been enrolled in the said Supplementary Militia, shall at any Time, during the Continuance of this Act, produce for his Substitute any Person of the Description before-mentioned, who shall be approved by the Commanding Officer of the Militia now serving for the County, Riding, or Place, where such Person was so chosen, it shall and may be lawful for such Commanding Officer to cause such Substitute to be enrolled to serve in the said Supplementary Militia of such County, Riding, or Place, in lieu of the Person so chosen by Ballot, which Enrolment shall be made in the Manner before directed; and that upon the Enrolment of such Substitute as aforesaid, the Person so chosen by Ballot shall be entitled to his immediate Discharge.

Persons chosen and enrolled producing Substitutes who shall be approved by the Commanding Officer, shall be entitled to their Discharge.

X. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to provide Volunteers to serve in the said Supplementary Militia, for any Sub-division within any County, Riding, or Place, and to produce such Volunteers before any Deputy Lieutenants or Justices of the Peace of the same Sub-division, at any Time previous to the Day appointed for choosing the Men by Ballot to serve for such Sub-division, or the said Supplementary Militia, in pursuance of this Act, or for any Persons willing to serve therein, to offer themselves to serve in the said Supplementary Militia for any such Sub-division, and to appear before any such Deputy Lieutenant or Justice of the Peace within such Time and at such Place as aforesaid; and every Person so produced, or appearing, who shall be approved of by the said Deputy Lieutenant or any Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, may be enrolled to serve in the said Supplementary Militia as a Private Man during the present War, and for the Space of one Calendar Month after the End thereof, and shall take the Oath hereinbefore prescribed; and such Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace respectively before whom any such Volunteers shall be enrolled, shall cause the Clerks of the Meetings for the respective Sub-divisions to enroll the Names of all such Volunteers in such Manner as they are required to enroll the Names of Persons chosen by Ballot; and the Names of all such Volunteers shall be so enrolled within their respective Sub-divisions before the Time appointed for balloting the Men within the same.

Persons may provide Volunteers previous to the Meeting for choosing Men by Ballot, or Persons may offer themselves to serve in the Supplementary Militia, who may be enrolled and sworn.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if the Number of Volunteers enrolled by virtue of this Act in any Sub-division, before the Time appointed for taking the Ballot as before directed, shall not amount to two-third Parts of the whole Number of Men appointed to be raised within such Sub-division, the Deputy Lieutenants shall, at the Time and Place before appointed, proceed to ballot for such Number of Men only as shall be then wanted to make up the whole Number to serve for such Sub-division, making a fresh Appointment of the Number of Men to be raised for the respective Parishes and Places in such Sub-division, according to the Number then wanted as aforesaid; and that if the Number of Volunteers who shall have been then enrolled, shall amount to or exceed such two-third Parts, then the said Deputy Lieutenants may suspend the Ballot appointed to be taken, for any Space of Time not exceeding five Days, (of which, like Notice shall be given as is hereinbefore directed,) and they shall forthwith transmit an Account of the Number of Volunteers so enrolled, to the Lieutenant of the County, Riding, or Place, who shall transmit the same, without Delay, to his Majesty's Privy Council; and it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty's Privy Council, on the Transmission of such Account, to direct a further Suspension of the said Ballot for such Time as shall be deemed expedient, in order to give a reasonable Opportunity to complete the Quota of such Sub-division by the Enrolment of Volunteers; and in such Case it shall be lawful for the Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace, acting for such Sub-division, within the Time allowed by his Majesty's Privy Council, to enroll such further Number of Men as Volunteers in the said Supplementary Militia, as shall be wanting to complete the Quota of Men to be raised for such Sub-division, in the Manner before directed: Provided always, that if at the Expiration of the Time allowed by his Majesty's Privy Council, the whole Number of Men to be raised for such Sub-division shall not have been enrolled, the Deputy Lieutenants, without further Delay, shall proceed to ballot for the Number of Men then wanted to make up such Number, making a fresh Appointment of the Number of Men to be raised for each Parish or Place, according to the Numbers then wanted as aforesaid; but if at the End of the Time so allowed, the whole Number of Men to be so raised for such Sub-division shall be completed, then the Deputy Lieutenants shall transmit an Account thereof to the Lieutenant of the said County or Place, who shall transmit the same to his Majesty's Privy Council; and in such Case no Ballot shall take place for such Sub-division.

If the Volunteers so enrolled shall not amount to Two-thirds of the whole Number to be raised for the Sub-division, the Deputy Lieutenants shall at the Time appointed ballot for the Remainder of the Whole; and if they shall amount to that Number the Ballot may be suspended for five Days, and an Account of the Volunteers enrolled sent to the County Lieutenant, and by him be transmitted to the Privy Council, who may direct a further Suspension, in order to complete the Quota by Volunteers; if the Quota is not completed in the Time allowed, the Deputy Lieutenants shall proceed to ballot for the Number wanted; but if completed, they shall transmit an Account to the Lieutenant to be sent to the Privy Council, in which case no Ballot shall take place.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person entitled to be exempted from being chosen by Ballot to serve in the said Supplementary Militia, by virtue of this Act, by reason of his Enrolment in any Volunteer Corps hereinafter mentioned, or by reason of his being or acting as Gamekeeper to any Lord or Lady of a Manor, who shall be enrolled to serve according to the Directions of any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament, shall be admitted into or enrolled in the said Supplementary Militia as a Volunteer, under the Provisions of this Act.

No Person exempted from being chosen by Ballot by reason of his Enrolment in any Volunteer Corps, or acting as Gamekeeper, shall be admitted as a Volunteer under this Act.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Overseer of the Poor of any Parish or Place, shall give to any Volunteer or Volunteers enrolled in the said Supplementary Militia, in the Manner before directed, any Sum of Money not exceeding four Pounds four Shillings each, to serve in the said Supplementary Militia for such Parish or Place, it shall be lawful for such Overseers to reimburse themselves out of any Monies of the Rates then raised, or to be reimbursed out of any Monies thereafter to be raised for the Relief of the Poor, Overseers giving to Volunteers not more than four Guineas, may reimburse themselves out of the Poor Rates.

Poor, in ſuch Manner as they may reimburſe themſelves, or be reimburſed for any Monies by them expended in Matters relating to the Poor.

If the Number of Men for any Sub-diviſion ſhall not be enrolled at the appointed Meeting, the Deputy Lieutenants may proceed to a freſh Ballot.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That if, through the Neglect or Miſtake of any chief Conſtables, Conſtables, or other Officers, or from any other Cauſe, the full Number of Men appointed for any Sub-diviſion ſhould not be duly enrolled at the Meeting appointed for that Purpoſe, as before directed, then the Deputy Lieutenants at their ſaid Meeting, or any two or more of them, may, and they are hereby required, immediately to cauſe the Liſts to be amended, and to proceed to a freſh Ballot, and to adjourn their Meeting, or appoint other Meetings, and repeat the amending of the Liſts as may be neceſſary and expedient for carrying the Purpoſes of this Act duly and fully into Execution; and it ſhall be lawful for any one Deputy Lieutenant, or Juſtice of the Peace, to adminiſter the Oath herein-before required to be taken by Perſons to ſerve in the ſaid Supplementary Militia to any Perſon ballotted, or to any Perſon offering as a Volunteer, under the Directions of this Act, or to any Perſon who ſhall offer to ſerve as a Subſtitute, and ſuch Deputy Lieutenant, or Juſtice of the Peace, is hereby authorized to direct and require the Clerk of the Sub-diviſion for which every ſuch Perſon, by whom the ſaid Oath has been before him taken, is to ſerve, to enroll the Name of every ſuch Perſon, together with the Date of the Day on which the ſaid Oath was ſo adminiſtered to him, in the Roll of ſuch Sub-diviſion.

A Deputy Lieutenant or Juſtice may adminiſter the Oath to Perſons who are to ſerve, and ſhall direct the Clerk of the Sub-diviſion to enrol the Perſons ſworn.

This Act not to delay levying Men to complete the embodied Militia.

XV. And be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained ſhall be conſtrued in any Manner to impede or delay the levying of Men who ought to be raiſed from Time to Time to complete the Militia now embodied, or to vary the Manner of proceeding therein according to the Directions of the ſaid Act of the twenty-ſixth Year aforeſaid; but that all ſuch Levies ſhall be effected in like Manner as if this Act had not been paſſed.

Perſons choſen by Ballot (not being Quakers) not appearing, &c. to forfeit 15 l. and to be liable to ſerve again at the next Ballot; and if the Penalty be not paid, ſhall be compelled to ſerve.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon choſen by Ballot, according to the Directions of this Act, to ſerve in the ſaid Supplementary Militia, (not being one of the People called Quakers,) ſhall refuſe or neglect to appear, and take the ſaid Oath, and ſerve in the Militia, or to provide a Subſtitute, to be approved as aforeſaid, who ſhall take the ſaid Oath, and ſign his Conſent to ſerve as his Subſtitute, every ſuch Perſon ſo refuſing or neglecting ſhall forfeit and pay the Sum of fifteen Pounds, and whenever any Ballot ſhall take place in the ſame Pariſh or Place, under the Authority of this Act, be liable to ſerve again, or provide a Subſtitute; and in Default of Payment of ſuch Penalty, or for Want of ſufficient Effects whereon to levy the ſame, the Name of ſuch Perſon ſhall be entered on the Roll, and ſuch Perſon ſhall be delivered over to ſome proper Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company, for which he was ballotted, and ſhall be compelled to ſerve in like Manner as any other Perſon who ſhould be then ballotted for would be compellable to ſerve, and ſhall be ſubject to the ſame Puniſhments for afterwards abſconding or deſerting, as he would have been ſubject to in caſe he had appeared, and been duly ſworn and enrolled as a Militia Man.

The Powers of the firſt recited Act with reſpect to Quakers, to extend to this Act.

XVII. Provided always, That the Powers contained in the ſaid Act of the twenty-ſixth Year aforeſaid, with reſpect to the People called Quakers, ſhall be carried into Execution in the levying of Men to be raiſed by virtue of this Act, as fully and amply as if the ſame had been repeated and enacted in the Body of this Act.

Certain Perſons exempted from Service in the Supplementary Militia.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Perſon who ſhall ſerve as a Commiſſioned Officer in any Regiment, Troop, or Company, in his Majeſty's other Forces, or Militia now embodied, or in any Corps of Volunteers raiſed by virtue of an Act paſſed in the thirty-fourth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for encouraging and diſciplining ſuch Corps or Companies of Men as ſhall voluntarily enroll themſelves for the Defence of their Counties, Towns, or Coaſts, or for the general Defence of the Kingdom, during the preſent War, and who ſhall have been duly entered therein, on or before the twentieth Day of October one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, or in any one of his Majeſty's Caſtles or Forts, nor any Non-commiſſioned Officer, or Private Man, ſerving in any of his Majeſty's other Forces, or Militia, or in any ſuch Volunteer Corps as aforeſaid, or who ſhall have offered themſelves and been accepted to ſerve upon Vacancies which ſhall have happened on or before the ſaid twentieth Day of October one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, nor any Perſon being a reſident Member of either of the Univerſities, nor any Clergyman, nor any licenſed Teacher of any ſeparate Congregation, nor any Conſtable, or other Peace Officer, nor any Perſon being and having been, on or before the twentieth Day of October one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, an Articled Clerk, Apprentice, Seaman, or Seafaring Man, nor any Perſon muſtered, trained, and doing Duty, or employed in any of his Majeſty's Docks or Dock Yards, for the Service thereof, or employed and muſtered in his Majeſty's Service in the Tower of London, Woolwich Warren, the ſeveral Gun Wharfs, or at the ſeveral Powder Mills, Powder Magazines, or other Store Houſes belonging to his Majeſty, under the Direction of the Board of Ordnance, nor any Perſon being free of the Company of Watermen of the River Thames, nor any Poor Man having more than three Children born in lawful Wedlock, under ten Years of Age, or infirm, nor any Gamekeeper who ſhall cauſe himſelf to be enrolled to ſerve according to the Directions of any Act to be paſſed in this Seſſion of Parliament, nor any Perſon who has ſerved perſonally or by Subſtitute in the Militia raiſed by virtue of the ſaid former Acts, ſhall be liable to ſerve perſonally, or provide a Subſtitute to ſerve in the Militia, to be raiſed by virtue of this Act; but no Perſon who has ſerved in any of his Majeſty's Forces, or in any Volunteer Corps before before mentioned, or as a Substitute in the Militia raised by virtue of the said former Acts, or of this Act, and hath been discharged, or quitted the same, shall by such Service be exempted from serving in the Militia to be raised by virtue of this Act, if he shall be chosen by Ballot.

Deputy Lieutenants to discharge unfit Persons chosen by Ballot, and cause others to be chosen.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That whenever it shall appear to any two or more Deputy Lieutenants, assembled at any Sub-division Meeting, that any Person chosen by Ballot to serve in the said Supplementary Militia, is unable by Reason of any Infirmity, or is otherwise unfit for the Service, such Deputy Lieutenants shall, and are hereby empowered and required to discharge such Person, and immediately to amend the List for the Place for which such Person shall have been ballotted, and to cause another Person to be chosen in his Stead, by Ballot, according to the Directions of this Act.

When an enrolled Militia Man shall become unfit for Service, he may be discharged, but another shall not be ballotted for till his Discharge be confirmed by two Deputy Lieutenants.

XX. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Militia Man, after having been sworn and enrolled by virtue of this Act, shall become unfit for Service, it shall be lawful for the Colonel or Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company of the County, Riding, or Place where such Militia shall be raised, together with any two or more Deputy Lieutenants of the County, Riding, or Place to which such Militia Man belongs, if the Militia raised by virtue of this Act shall not then have been embodied and called out in pursuance of the Directions hereinafter contained, or for the Commanding Officer only, if the said Militia shall then be embodied and called out, to discharge any such Militia Man of his Service in the said Militia, but another Man shall not be ballotted for in the Room of such Militia Man so discharged, until such Discharge shall be confirmed under the Hands of two or more Deputy Lieutenants of the County, Riding, or Place to which any such Militia Man belongs, assembled at any Meeting in the Sub-division for which such Militia Man was enrolled.

Vacancies occasioned by Death, &c. to be filled up by a fresh Ballot.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That when any such Militia Man shall, before the Expiration of the Term for which he was to serve, die, or be appointed a Serjeant, Corporal, or Drummer in the said Militia, or be discharged in pursuance of the Sentence of a Court Martial, the Vacancy thus occasioned shall be filled up by a fresh Ballot for a Militia Man to serve according to the Provisions of this Act, except as hereinbefore excepted.

The Enrolment of a Servant shall not vacate the Contract between him and his Employer, except in certain Cases.

The Servant to allow an Abatement in his Wages for the Time he shall be absent from his Service.

Disputes respecting the same, as to Sums not exceeding 20 l. may be settled by a Justice, who may order the Money to be levied by Distress.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Servant whatever, hired by the Year or otherwise, shall be enrolled as a Militia Man by virtue of this Act, such Enrolment shall not vacate or rescind the Contract, or alter the Employment, between such Servant and his Master or Mistress, and Employer or Employers, unless the Militia of the County, Riding, or Place, for which such Servant shall be enrolled, shall be embodied or called out by his Majesty, or ordered so to be in pursuance of this Act, or unless such Person so enrolled shall leave the Service of his Master, Mistress, or Employer, for the Purpose of being trained and exercised, for the Space of twenty Days in pursuance of this Act, and shall not return again to the same Service at the End of such twenty Days, or as soon after as reasonably may be, allowing to his Master, Mistress, or Employer an Abatement from his Wages in Proportion to the Duration of his Absence from his said Service, to be settled by a Justice of the Peace in the Manner hereinafter mentioned; and in every such Case, where any Dispute shall arise between his Master or Mistress, Employer or Employers, and such Servant, touching any Sum or Sums of Money due to such Servant, for or on account of his Service performed before the Time of his Departure from Service under the Conditions of the said Enrolment, or by being called out to join the Militia in which he shall have been so enrolled, or touching any Abatement to be made by such Servant by Reason of his Absence, for the Purpose of being trained and exercised, it shall and may be lawful, on Complaint made thereof to any Justice of the Peace for the County, Riding, City, Liberty, Town Corporate, or Place, where such Master or Mistress, Employer or Employers, shall inhabit, for such Justice to hear and determine every such Complaint, and to examine upon Oath every such Servant, or any other Witness or Witnesses, touching the same, and to make such Order for the Payment of so much Wages to such Servant, in Proportion to the Service he has performed, or such Abatement from his Wages, in Proportion to the Duration of his Absence from his Service, as the Case may require, as to such Justice shall seem just and reasonable, provided the Sum in question do not exceed the Sum of twenty Pounds; and in case of Refusal or Non-payment of any Sums so ordered to be paid, by the Space of twenty-one Days next after such Determination, such Justice shall and may issue forth his Warrant to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Master or Mistress, Employer or Employers, rendering the Overplus to the Owner or Owners, after Payment of the Charges of such Distress and Sale.

Substitutes or Volunteers neglecting to appear to be sworn, to return the Money received, and also forfeit not exceeding 5 l. or in Default of either to be committed to Gaol for three Months.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That any Person who shall receive Money from any other Person to serve as his Substitute in the said Supplementary Militia, or from any Person or Persons to serve as a Volunteer in pursuance of this Act, and shall neglect to appear at the usual Meeting appointed for swearing the Militia Men, or before some one Deputy Lieutenant, in order to be sworn according to the Directions of this Act, every such Person so neglecting to appear and be sworn, being convicted thereof before any Deputy Lieutenant or Justice of the Peace, shall be obliged to return the Money to the Person or Persons from whom he received it, and shall also forfeit and pay to such Person or Persons any Sum not exceeding five Pounds, at the Discretion of the Deputy Lieutenant or Justice of the Peace before whom he shall be so convicted; and if such Offender shall not immediately return the Money so by him received as aforesaid, and likewise pay the said Penalty, he shall be committed to the Common Gaol, or House of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour for the Space of three Calendar Months, or until the said Sum shall be returned.

If any Man chosen by Ballot shall engage a Substitute, or

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Man chosen by Ballot to serve in the said Supplementary Militia, shall have engaged any other Man to serve as his Substitute, or if any Person or Persons shall have engaged any Man to serve as a Volunteer as aforesaid, and the Man so chosen by Ballot, or such Person or Persons any Person shall engage a Volunteer, and shall after Enrolment refuse to pay him the Sum agreed on, a Justice may order it to be paid immediately, and proceed accordingly as under Stat. 20 Geo. 2. c. 19.

Persons shall have agreed to pay to the Man so engaged a certain Sum for such Service, and shall, after such Man has been enrolled, refuse to pay him the full Sum agreed on, it shall be lawful for any one Justice of the Peace on Application made to him, and such Justice is hereby required to order such Sum of Money as shall appear to him to be due to the Man so engaged, to be immediately paid to him by the Person or Persons by or for whom he shall be engaged to serve as aforesaid, and such Justice shall proceed therein in the same Manner as is directed by an Act of the twentieth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty, for the better adjusting and more easy Recovery of the Wages of certain Servants, and for the better regulating of such Servants, and of certain Apprentices.

Regulations for calling out and training the Supplementary Militia.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That the said Supplementary Militia to be raised as aforesaid, or such Part thereof as shall be appointed by the Lieutenants or Deputy Lieutenants at any General Meeting of Lieutenancy, with the Approbation of his Majesty, to be trained and exercised together, shall be called out for the Purpose of being trained and exercised for the Space of twenty Days, and which training and exercising shall commence as soon after the passing of this Act as conveniently may be; and in every County, Riding, or Place in which it shall have been appointed, that the whole of such Supplementary Militia shall not be trained or exercised at the same Time, then the respective Parts thereof shall be trained and exercised successively, until the Whole of the Men serving for such County, Riding, or Place shall have been trained and exercised for the Space of twenty Days; and that for the Purpose aforesaid the Men serving for such County, Riding, or Place, shall be called out to be so trained and exercised, in such Manner, and in such Proportions, at such Time or Times, and Place or Places, in such County or Riding, as shall be appointed by the Lieutenant, or Deputy Lieutenants, at a General Meeting of the Lieutenancy, to be holden as herein-before directed, or in Default of any such Meeting being holden, then by the Lieutenant of the County, Riding, or Place, or by three Deputy Lieutenants, authorized by his Majesty to act as aforesaid; and that during such Time as the Men shall be assembled for the Purpose of being trained and exercised, they, and each of them, shall be subject and liable to the same Orders, Regulations, Pains, and Punishments, as the Militia Forces are subject and liable to by the said former Act, during the Time of their Annual Exercise: Provided always, That it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants, at any General Meeting of Lieutenancy, to alter the Places appointed for assembling the Men for Exercise, and from Time to Time to appoint other or additional Places as they shall find expedient, giving the like Notice thereof as is herein required to be given of the Places first to be appointed.

The Men while assembled for training, to be subject to the same Regulations as the Militia are by the former Act.

The Place for Exercise may be altered.

The Men to be trained by such Officers, &c. of the Regiments serving for the respective Counties as can be spared; or the Lieutenants and Deputies, with the Approbation of his Majesty, may appoint Officers as herein directed; such Officers, &c. entitled to the same Pay as in the Militia;

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Militia Men to be raised by virtue of this Act, shall be trained and exercised during the respective Periods of twenty Days, by such Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Drummers, or Private Men, appointed to act as Non-commissioned Officers, of the respective Regiments, Battalions, or Companies of Militia serving for their respective Counties or Ridings, as may be conveniently spared from Service, and shall be detached for that Purpose; and where a sufficient Number of such Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, or Drummers, cannot be conveniently spared, it shall and may be lawful for the said Lieutenants, and Deputy Lieutenants respectively, with the Approbation of his Majesty, to appoint for that Service proper Officers as is herein-before directed; and all such Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, or Privates appointed to act as Non-commissioned Officers, shall be entitled to the same Pay during such Service as the Officers and Non-commissioned Officers of Militia are entitled to receive during the Times of Annual Exercise, over and above any other Pay, or other Emoluments or Allowances, to which they, or any of them, may be respectively entitled in the Corps to which they may belong; and no such Appointment of any Officer entitled to Half-pay shall be construed to deprive such Officer of such Half-pay during the Time he shall serve in the said Supplementary Militia.

and no such Officer to be deprived of Half-pay.

Notice of the Time and Place of Exercise shall, by Order of the General Meetings, be sent by their Clerk to the Clerks of the Sub-division Meetings, and the Deputy Lieutenants shall cause the Men to be called out as herein mentioned.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That Notices of the Times and Places of Exercise of the Militia Men to be raised by virtue of this Act, shall, by Order of the General Meetings of Lieutenancy, be sent by the Clerk of the General Meetings to the Clerks of the several Sub-division Meetings in the respective Counties, Ridings, and Places; and the said Deputy Lieutenants, at some Sub-division Meeting to be held for carrying this Act into Execution after the Receipt of the said Notices, shall cause the Men serving for such Sub-division to be called out in such Order and Course as shall have been notified by the Clerk of the General Meetings as aforesaid, and for that Purpose shall issue Orders to the Chief Constables or other Officers of the several Hundreds, Rapes, Laths, Wapentakes, or other Divisions respectively, with Directions to forward the same to the Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs, and other Officers within their respective Hundreds, Rapes, Laths, Wapentakes, or other Divisions, which Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs, or other Officers, shall cause such Notice as aforesaid to be affixed on the Door of the Churches or Chapels belonging to their respective Parishes, Tythings, or Places, or (if any Place shall have no Church or Chapel belonging thereto) on the Door of the Church or Chapel of some Parish, Tything, or Place thereunto adjoining; and such Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs, or other Officers, are hereby required also to give Notice, in Writing, to the several Militia Men who shall be called out to be trained and exercised at such Times and Places respectively, by serving them personally, or by leaving the same at their usual Places of Abode, to attend at the Time and Place mentioned in such Order; and all such Militia Men shall duly attend at the Time and Place of Exercise, according to such Notices respectively, and, in Men not attending, liable to the Penalties of the first recited Act.

Default

Default thereof, shall suffer the same Pains and Penalties as by the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year aforesaid are in such Case directed and imposed.

Ten Days after the Men are enrolled, Lists of them, and the Time and Place of Exercise, shall be transmitted by the Clerks of the Sub-division Meetings to the Commanding Officer of the respective Regiments, and a Duplicate to the Adjutant.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Clerks of the several Sub-division Meetings in every County, Riding, or Place, shall, within the Space of ten Days after the Men shall be enrolled, cause a full and true List, specifying the Name and Date of the Enrolment of all the Persons enrolled (within each Sub-division respectively) to serve in such Militia, and the Time and Place of Exercise, to be transmitted to the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company of Militia raised by virtue of the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year aforesaid, for the County or Riding for which such Persons have been enrolled by virtue of this Act, or to such Person as shall be appointed by such Commanding Officer to receive the same; and shall in like Manner cause a Duplicate of such List to be transmitted to the Adjutant of the said Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company.

Regulations respecting Arms, Accoutrements, and Cloathing.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That Arms, Accoutrements, and such Cloathing, may be provided for the Militia Men raised by virtue of this Act, as shall be deemed necessary by the Lord Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenants respectively, with the Approbation of his Majesty, and that one-sixth Part of the Arms and Cloathing so provided, or so much as shall be necessary for the Men called out to be trained and exercised, shall be delivered to the Use of the Militia during the Time of their being trained and exercised by virtue of this Act, and that the Residue of such Arms and Cloathing shall be kept in such secure Place as his Majesty shall direct; and all Muskets delivered for the Service of the Militia shall be marked distinctly in some visible Place with the Letter (M) and the Name of the County, Riding, or Place to which they belong; and in case any Militia Man shall sell, pawn, or lose any of his Arms, Cloaths, or Accoutrements, or neglect or refuse to return the same, in good Order, to his Commanding Officer, or to the Person appointed to receive the same, every such Militia Man shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding five Pounds; and if such Militia Man shall not immediately pay such Penalty, the Justice of the Peace before whom he shall be convicted shall commit him to the House of Correction for any Time not exceeding three Months, or until he shall have paid the said Penalty.

Penalty on Men for selling, pawning, losing, or not returning Arms, &c.

The Arms, when the Militia is not embodied, to be kept where the Commanding Officer shall direct.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That the Arms belonging and delivered out to the Militia raised by virtue of this Act, when not embodied, shall be kept in such convenient Place as the Commanding Officer shall direct, with the Approbation of the Lieutenant, or Deputy Lieutenants, authorised as aforesaid, of the County, Riding, or Place.

The Supplementary Militia, when called out to exercise, may be billetted in Inns, &c. and Lodgings may be provided for the Non-commissioned Officers and Privates, when not embodied.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant, or three Deputy Lieutenants, authorized by his Majesty, and he and they is and are hereby required to quarter and billet the Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Private Men, serving in the said Supplementary Militia, at the Times when they shall respectively be called out to exercise, in Inns, Ale-houses, Victualling Houses, Livery Stables, and all Houses of Persons selling Brandy, Strong Waters, Cyder, Wine, or Metheglin, by Retail; and also to order and provide convenient Lodging in such Houses as aforesaid, for the Serjeants, Corporals, and Drummers, of the said Supplementary Militia, whenever the same shall not be so called out to exercise, unless embodied and called out to actual Service.

His Majesty may order all the Militia to be embodied, in Cases of actual Invasion, &c. and commanded and led by General Officers, &c. the Occasion being communicated to Parliament if sitting; or otherwise by Proclamation.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases of actual Invasion, or upon imminent Danger thereof, it shall be lawful for his Majesty (the Occasion being first communicated to Parliament if the Parliament shall be then sitting, or declared in Council and notified by Proclamation, if no Parliament shall be then sitting or in being) to order and direct the Lieutenants of the said several Counties, Ridings, and Places, or on the Death or Removal, or in the Absence from their respective Counties, Ridings, or Places of any of them, then any three or more Deputy Lieutenants, with all convenient Speed, to draw out and embody all the Militia within their respective Counties, Ridings, and Places herein-before appointed to be raised and trained, or so many of them as his Majesty shall in his Wisdom judge necessary, and in such Manner as shall be best adapted to the Circumstances of the Danger, and to put the said Forces under the Command of such General Officers as his Majesty shall be pleased to appoint, and to direct the said Forces to be led by their respective Officers into any Parts of this Kingdom, and for the repelling and Prevention of any such Invasion; and such Militia Men so drawn out and embodied may be incorporated into the respective Companies of Militia then serving for the same County or Riding, by virtue of the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year aforesaid, or may be formed into a distinct Regiment or Regiments, Battalion or Battalions, or into an Independent Company or Companies, in such Manner as shall have been fixed by the Lieutenants of the several Counties, Ridings, and Places, with the Approbation of his Majesty; and such Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Drummers, may be appointed to the said Militia, when so drawn out and embodied, as shall appear to be necessary, and according to Circumstances, so that the Number of Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Drummers respectively, shall not exceed the Proportion allowed by the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year aforesaid; and that all Officers newly appointed, shall be approved of by his Majesty in the Manner directed by this Act; and the Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, Drummers, and Private Men, so appointed, whether incorporated as aforesaid, or formed into Regiments, Battalions, or or Independant Companies, ſhall, from the Time of their being drawn out and embodied as aforeſaid, and until they ſhall be returned again, by his Majeſty's Orders, to their reſpective Pariſhes or Places of Abode, remain under the Command of ſuch General Officers; and during ſuch Time as aforeſaid, all the Proviſions contained in any Act of Parliament which ſhall be then in Force for puniſhing Mutiny and Deſertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, ſhall be in Force with reſpect to the ſaid Militia, and ſhall extend to all the Officers, Non-commiſſioned Officers, Drummers, and Private Men of the ſaid Militia, in all Caſes whatſoever.

No Part of the Militia raiſed under this Act, ſhall be ordered out of Great Britain.

XXXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That neither the Whole or any Part of the Militia directed by this Act to be raiſed and maintained, ſhall, on any Account, be carried or ordered to go out of Great Britain.

When the Supplementary Militia is called out, his Majeſty may iſſue a Proclamation for the Meeting of Parliament in 14 Days;

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That whenever his Majeſty ſhall cauſe the ſaid Supplementary Militia, or any Part thereof, to be drawn out and embodied as aforeſaid, if the Parliament ſhall then be ſeparated by ſuch Adjournment or Prorogation as will not expire within fourteen Days, his Majeſty may and ſhall iſſue a Proclamation for the Meeting of the Parliament within fourteen Days, and the Parliament ſhall accordingly meet and ſit upon ſuch Day as ſhall be appointed by ſuch Proclamation, and continue to ſit and act in like Manner, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if it had ſtood adjourned or prorogued to the ſame Day.

And when ſo ordered out, the County Lieutenants are to iſſue Orders to the Chief Conſtables, to be forwarded to the Conſtables, who ſhall cauſe Notice to be given to the Militia Men to attend.

Men not attending, may be apprehended as Deſerters; and Perſons harbouring them to forfeit 5 l.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That when his Majeſty ſhall think fit to order the ſaid Supplementary Militia, or any Part thereof, to be drawn out and embodied as aforeſaid, the Lieutenant of every County, Riding, and Place, or (on the Death or Removal of any ſuch Lieutenant, or in his Abſence from his County, Riding, or Place) any three or more Deputy Lieutenants to whom any ſuch Order as aforeſaid from his Majeſty ſhall be directed, ſhall iſſue his or their Order to the Chief Conſtables or other Officers of the ſeveral Hundreds, Rapes, Laths, Wapentakes, or other Diviſions within their reſpective Counties, Ridings, and Places, with Directions to forward the ſame immediately to the Conſtables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs, or other Officers of the ſeveral Pariſhes, Tythings, and Places within their reſpective Hundreds, Rapes, Laths, Wapentakes, and Diviſions, and ſuch Conſtables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs, or other Officers, are hereby required, upon Receipt thereof, forthwith to cauſe Notice in Writing to be given to the ſeveral Militia Men, or left at their uſual Places of Abode, within their reſpective Pariſhes, Tythings, or Places, to attend at the Time and Place mentioned in ſuch Order; and if any Militia Man ſo ordered to be drawn out and embodied as aforeſaid (not labouring under any Infirmity, incapacitating him to ſerve as a Militia Man) ſhall not appear and march in purſuance of ſuch Order, every ſuch Militia Man ſhall be liable to be apprehended and puniſhed as a Deſerter, according to the Proviſions of any Act which ſhall be then in Force for puniſhing Mutiny and Deſertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters; and if any Perſon ſhall harbour or conceal any Militia Man when ordered out into actual Service, knowing him to be a Militia Man, every ſuch Perſon ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds.

When called out, the Receiver General of the Land Tax to pay one Guinea for the Uſe of each Man.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That when the ſaid Supplementary Militia of any County, Riding, or Place, ſhall be embodied and called out into actual Service, the Receiver General of the Land Tax for ſuch County, Riding, or Place, ſhall and is hereby required forthwith to pay to the Captains or Commanding Officers of Companies of Militia reſpectively, the Sum of one Guinea for the Uſe of every Private Militia Man who ſhall be ſo called out; and the ſaid Receiver General ſhall alſo pay to every Captain or other Commanding Officer of a Company as aforeſaid, the Sum of one Guinea for every Recruit as early as may be after ſuch Recruit ſhall have joined his Company, when out in actual Service as aforeſaid, (all which Money ſo paid by the ſaid Receiver General, ſhall be allowed him in his Account); and the Money ſo received by any Captain or other Commanding Officer (or ſo much thereof as ſuch Captain or Commanding Officer ſhall think proper) ſhall be laid out in the Manner he ſhall think moſt advantageous for the reſpective Militia Men; and ſuch Captain or Commanding Officer ſhall, before any Militia Man of his Company receives his Diſcharge, account to ſuch Militia Man how the ſaid Sum of one Guinea hath been applied and diſpoſed of, and ſhall pay the Remainder of the Money (if any) to the ſaid Militia Man.

Captains to account with the Men for the Money.

Militia when embodied to be entitled to the ſame Pay as the other Forces, and Non-commiſſioned Officers and Privates to Chelſea Hoſpital.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That from the Date of his Majeſty's Warrant for drawing the ſaid Militia out into actual Service, the Officers and Private Men of the ſaid Militia ſhall be entitled to the ſame Pay as the Officers and Private Men of his Majeſty's other Regiments of Foot receive, and no other; and if any Non-commiſſioned Officer or Private Man of the ſaid Militia, ſhall be maimed or wounded in actual Service, he ſhall be equally entitled to the Benefit of Chelſea Hoſpital, with any Non-commiſſioned Officer or Private Man belonging to any of his Majeſty's other Forces.

By Jan. 5, 1797, a Certificate to be tranſmitted to the Clerk of XXXVIII. And whereas it may happen through Neglect, or otherwiſe, that in ſome County, Riding, or Place, the Militia may not be raiſed according to the Directions of this Act, and it is juſt and reaſonable that all his Majeſty's Subjects ſhall contribute equally toward the Expence of raiſing and ſupporting a Militia litia for the Defence of the Kingdom; be it therefore further enacted, That the Lieutenant or any three Deputy Lieutenants of every County, Riding, and Place, where the Militia shall be raised, according to the Directions of this Act, shall, on or before the fifth Day of January in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, transmit a Certificate to the Clerk of the Peace, containing an Account of the Number of Private Men of the Militia raised by virtue of this Act, and every such Clerk of the Peace shall deliver such Certificate to the Justices of the Peace at their General Quarter Session to be held next after the said fifth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, on the Day on which such Session shall be opened, and the same shall be filed amongst the Records of such Session; but where no such Certificate shall be received by the Clerk of the Peace as aforesaid, he shall certify the same under his Hand and Seal to the Justices so assembled, and such Certificate of the said Clerk of the Peace shall be filed by him amongst the Records of such Session.

Clerk of the Peace of the Number of Private Men raised, who shall deliver it to the next Quarter Session to be filed; and where none shall be received, he shall certify the same to the Justices.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That in every County, Riding, and Place, where no such Certificate shall be transmitted to the Clerk of the Peace as aforesaid, the Justices of the Peace of such County, Riding, or Place, at the same General Quarter Sessions where such Default shall be made as aforesaid, shall, unless an Apportionment shall have been made according to the Directions of this Act, diligently proceed to apportion the Number of Men to be raised by virtue of this Act, in each Town, Parish, or Place, and the said Justices are hereby authorized and required to do all Acts necessary for that Purpose, which the Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants are hereby authorized to do, and the said Justices shall adjourn such General Sessions from Time to Time, until such Apportionment be completed; and that the Sum of fifteen Pounds shall be annually paid, for and in lieu of every Private Militia Man by this Act directed to be raised within the same County, Riding, or Place, making such Default, and shall be paid to the Treasurer of the County by the respective Overseers of the Poor of the several Towns, Parishes, and Places; and the Justices of the Peace shall and are hereby required, at their said General Quarter Session, to rate and assess the Sum of fifteen Pounds upon every Town, Parish, and Place within such County, Riding, or Place, for every Man which such Town, Parish, or Place ought to raise by virtue of this Act, and the same shall be levied, collected, received, paid, and accounted for in such Manner, and by such Ways and Means, and with such Powers of Distress, and other Remedies for enforcing the Collection and Payment thereof, and for punishing all Persons whose Duty it shall be to collect or account for the same, who shall make Default therein, as are directed with respect to Rates made for the Relief of the Poor of such Town, Parish, or Place.

Where no Certificate shall be transmitted, the Quarter Sessions, unless an Apportionment shall have been made, shall proceed to apportion the Number, and adjourn the Sessions till completed.

Quarter Session to assess the Money on the respective Parishes, &c.

XL. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons who shall be chosen by Lot and enrolled to serve in the said Supplementary Militia, to be raised by virtue of this Act, shall, when ordered out to be trained and exercised for twenty Days as aforesaid, leave a Family unable to support themselves, the Overseer or Overseers of the Poor of the Parish, Tything, or Place where the Family of such Militia Man shall dwell, shall, by Order of some one Justice of the Peace, out of the Rates for the Relief of the Poor of such Parish, Tything, or Place, pay to such Family the following Weekly Allowance; that is to say, a Sum not exceeding one Shilling for each and every Child born in Wedlock, and under the Age of ten Years, and a Sum not exceeding one Shilling for the Wife of such Militia Man, whether he shall or shall not have any Child or Children; and in every Parish, Tything, or Place, where the Money arising by such Rates shall not be sufficient for the Purpose aforesaid, a new Rate or Rates shall be made for raising a Sum sufficient for that Purpose.

The Families of Militia Men chosen by Lot, when ordered to be trained, to receive a weekly Allowance from the Overseers of the Poor.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That all Powers, Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Penalties, Forfeitures, Bounties, Allowances, Clauses, Matters, and Things, contained in the aforesaid Act of the twenty-sixth Year of his Majesty's Reign, or in any other Act of Parliament relative to the raising, training, embodying, and calling out the Militia, or providing for the Families of Militia Men called out, or in any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament relative to the paying, cloathing, or subsisting the Militia, shall be applied, practised, and put in Execution with respect to the Militia, directed to be raised by this Act, in as full and ample a Manner, as if the said Powers, Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Penalties, Forfeitures, Bounties, Allowances, Clauses, Matters and Things, were again repeated and enacted in this Act, so far as the same are applicable to the Provisions of this Act, and are not repugnant to or altered by the express Provisions of this Act.

The Powers of all Acts relating to the Militia to extend to this Act as far as applicable.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be and continue in force during the present War, and for the Space of one Calendar Month after the End thereof.

Continuance of Act.

XLIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, varied, or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

Act may be altered or repealed this Session.

His Majesty may appoint Officers to regulate the Admission of Men, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty to constitute and appoint, in the several Counties of Great Britain, (except in the City and County of the City of London,) so many Officers to regulate the Admission of Men to be levied under the Authority of this Act for his Majesty's Service, as his Majesty shall deem necessary, who, being so respectively appointed, shall establish a convenient Place or Places of Rendezvous, in each such County (except the City and County of the City of London as aforesaid) for the Reception of such Men; and every such Man so to be levied shall, before his Enrolment, be examined by one such Regulating Officer at the least, as to his Ability to serve his Majesty; and every such Officer shall have full Power of approving or of rejecting any Man tendered to serve his Majesty, subject nevertheless to such Controul as by this Act is particularly directed.

Justices within twenty one Days after passing this Act to hold a General Sessions for carrying it into Execution.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Justices of the Peace, acting in and for the several Counties aforesaid, shall, within a Time not exceeding twenty-one Days after the passing of this Act, assemble together at some convenient Place in each County, where the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace have heretofore or usually been held, and there hold a Court of General Sessions, for the Purpose of carrying effectually into Execution the Powers given to them by this Act; and that in every Case where any City, Town, or Borough, being a County of itself, or any Cinque Port or Liberty herein-before particularly mentioned, is hereby directed to be united with any County at large, in estimating the Number of Men to be raised by virtue of this Act, the Justices of such City, Town, or Borough, being a County of itself, and of such Cinque Port or Liberty, who shall have duly qualified themselves to act, and shall have acted before the passing of this Act, as such Justices respectively within the proper Limits of their respective Jurisdictions, and no other, shall assemble themselves together with the Justices of such County at large, who shall also be qualified and shall have acted in like Manner; and the Justices so assembled shall respectively have and be entitled to exercise the Powers and Jurisdictions of Justices of the Peace, in all Things touching the Execution of this Act, as well for such City, Town, or Borough, being a County of itself, and of such Cinque Port, or Liberty, as also for such County at large, and shall be deemed and taken to be such Justices respectively, without any other or further Qualification; and that the said Justices so assembled may, from Time to Time, as often as they shall find it necessary, adjourn such Court of General Sessions, so that such Adjournment shall not be for any longer Time than from Day to Day (Sundays excepted) until they shall have fully and effectually carried this Act into Execution, in respect of the Powers vested in such Court of General Sessions by this Act, except as to such Adjournment as shall be made to the Quarter Sessions as hereinafter is mentioned; but that such Justices so assembled shall not have any Authority, Power, or Jurisdiction, in or over any Matter or Thing whatever, other than in and for the Execution of the Powers expressly given them by this Act.

Jurisdiction of Justices for Cities, &c. when united with County Justices in execution of this Act.

Any Provision respecting any County to extend to the Ridings of Yorkshire and the Divisions of Lincolnshire.

IV. And be it further enacted, That any Direction given or Provision made by this Act, in any Matter respecting any County, shall be construed to extend, and shall extend to the several Ridings of the County of York, and to the several Divisions of the County of Lincoln respectively, and the Justices within the several Ridings and Divisions, and of any City or Town directed to be united therewith by this Act, shall have Power to put this Act in Execution, in all Things within their respective Jurisdictions as fully and amply as the Justices of any County are hereby empowered to execute the same.

Clerk of the Peace, with the Assent of two Justices, to appoint the first General Sessions, which may be adjourned, if sufficient Justices do not attend.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Clerk of the Peace of every County, where a Court of General Sessions is hereby directed to be held, shall, with the Assent of any two Justices of the Peace of such County, appoint the Time and Place of holding the first Court of General Sessions, to be held by virtue of this Act, of which Notice shall be given in any Newspaper usually circulated in such County, five Days at least before the Day appointed for holding such Court; and in case, at such Time of appointing such Court, or at any subsequent Time of appointing such Court by Adjournment, there shall not be Justices of the Peace attending sufficient to hold such General Sessions, any one Justice of the Peace, who shall there attend, shall and may adjourn the same to the next Day, and so from Day to Day (Sundays excepted) until such Court shall be held; and in case no such Justice shall attend at the Time and Place appointed for holding such Court, then the Clerk of the Peace shall adjourn the Time of holding such Court from Day to Day (Sundays excepted) until such Court shall be duly held.

Treasury to cause Lists to be prepared by the Surveyors, on

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, shall cause to be prepared true Lists of the Number of all the inhabited Houses within the Limits of the Juris-and to order the Constables to give Notice of the Number, and the Time for raising them, to the Parish Overseers.

Oath, if required, of the Number of inhabited Houses within the Limits of each Court of Sessions, liable to the Duties on Houses, &c. and to be laid before the Justices.

General Sessions to appoint Petty Sessions for receiving Returns, and attesting and enrolling Men.

At first Petty Sessions, Constables and Overseers to make Returns.

General Sessions may be adjourned when Orders are completed.

Jurisdiction of each Court of General Sessions, which are assessed, and pay to the Duties on inhabited Houses, or to the Duties on Houses, Windows, or Lights, in such Part of Great Britain as aforesaid, by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, distinguishing therein each Hundred, Rape, Lath, Wapentake, or District, and also each Parish, within such Hundred, Rape, Lath, Wapentake, or District, and shall cause the same to be laid before the Justices then assembled at their respective Courts of General Sessions, by the respective Surveyors of the said Duties, and to be by them verified on Oath, if required (which Oath the said Justices then assembled are hereby authorized to administer); and such Justices respectively shall proceed to appoint what Number of Men shall serve for each such Hundred, City, or Town, Rape, Lath, Wapentake, or District, and also for each Parish, within such Hundred, City, or Town, Rape, Lath, Wapentake, or District respectively, and in proportion, as nearly as may be, to the Number of Houses therein respectively assessed and paying to the said Duties, and so as the whole Number of Men appointed by this Act to be raised for such County may be included, and shall issue an Order, signed by the Clerk of the Peace of such County, to the Chief Constables or other Officers of the respective Hundreds, Laths, Wapentakes, or other Districts, within such Counties, requiring them to give Notice to the Overseers of the Poor of every Parish, within their respective Hundreds, Rapes, Laths, Wapentakes, or other Districts, of the Number of Men so appointed to be levied for such Parishes respectively, and of the Time allowed for raising the same, and of making a Return to such Orders; all which Particulars shall be specified in such Orders and Notices respectively; and the said Justices, at such Court of General Sessions, shall also appoint Petty Sessions to be held within the different Districts of each County, wherein Petty Sessions have been usually held, and also within each City, Borough, Town, Cinque Port, or Liberty, having Magistrates of itself, for the Purpose of receiving the Returns of the Officers of the several Parishes within those Districts respectively, and of attesting and causing to be enrolled the Number of Men to be raised by virtue of this Act, after such Persons shall be approved of by the Regulating Officer or Officers to be appointed for that Purpose; and the said Justices shall also appoint a Time for holding the first Petty Sessions to be holden in each District under this Act, at which first Petty Sessions Returns shall be made by the Chief Constables and other Officers, and also by the Overseers, of all Matters done by them in pursuance of this Act, according to the Directions therein contained, and which Petty Sessions shall be appointed at a Day not later than twenty-one Days after issuing the Orders before-mentioned; and such Justices having completed such Orders, shall and may then adjourn their Court of General Sessions to the next Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden for such County, at which Quarter Sessions the Justices of any City, Town, or Borough, Cinque Port, or Liberty, directed to be united therewith, may also attend for the Purpose of executing this Act, but not otherwise.

Mayor, &c. of London, at the General Sessions, to appoint the Number of Men to serve in Proportion to the Amount of the Duties on Houses, &c.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, of the City of London, assembled at the General Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the said City, by virtue of this Act, shall appoint the Number of Men to serve for each Ward or Parish, Precinct, Liberty, and Place, separately supporting its own Poor, within the City and County of the City of London aforesaid, as nearly as may be to the Amount of the Assessment to the Duties on inhabited Houses, and the Duties on Houses, Windows, or Lights, in such Ward or Parish, Precinct, Liberty, and Place respectively, instead of the Number of Houses therein respectively assessed and paying to the said Duties, as herein-before directed, any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Clerk to the Commissioners for the Duties on Houses, &c. in London, to lay before the Mayor, &c. Lists of the Number of Houses assessed, and the Amount of the Assessment in each Ward, &c. on Oath, if required.

VIII. And, for enabling the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of the City of London aforesaid to appoint or apportion the Number of Men herein-before directed, be it further enacted, That the Clerk or Clerks to the respective Commissioners for carrying into Execution the several Acts of Parliament respecting the Duties on inhabited Houses, and the Duties on Houses, Windows, or Lights, in the City and County of the City of London aforesaid, shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, true Lists of the Number of all inhabited Houses which are assessed, and pay to the Duties on inhabited Houses, or to the Duties on Houses, Windows, or Lights, in the City and County of the City of London aforesaid, by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, and also the Amount of the Assessments of the said Duties respectively, distinguishing therein each Ward or Parish, Precinct, Liberty, or Place, separately supporting its own Poor, within the City and County of the City of London aforesaid; and the said Lists shall respectively be verified on Oath by the said Clerk or Clerks, if required (which Oath the said Mayor, Recorder, or Aldermen respectively are hereby authorized to administer) and laid before the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, assembled at their respective General or Quarter Sessions aforesaid.

What Justices shall hold Petty Sessions.

IX. And be it further enacted, That within every County (not being a City, Town, or Borough, and a County of itself, nor a City, Borough, Town Corporate, Cinque Port, or Liberty, having respectively their own Magistrates or Justices) the Justices of the Peace usually acting in and for the District wherein such Petty Sessions shall be directed by the Court of General Sessions to be held, or such other Justices as shall be specially appointed by the Court of General Sessions to act in such District, which they are hereby authorized to appoint in every District where they shall see Occasion, shall be the Justices for holding such Petty Sessions, and no other; and that within any City, Borough, Town Corporate, Cinque Port, or Liberty, or any City, Borough or Town, being a County of itself, the Justices or Magistrates of such City, Borough, Town Corporate, Cinque Port, or Liberty, and no other, shall hold such Petty Sessions within such City, Borough, Town Corporate, Cinque Port, or Liberty; and such Justices respectively

Petty Seſſions to determine Differences between Inhabitants or Pariſh Officers.

XI. And be it further enacted, That any Direction given, or Proviſion made by this Act, in any Matter reſpecting any Pariſh, ſhall be conſtrued to extend to every Townſhip or Place ſeparately ſupporting its own Poor, and alſo to every extra-parochial Place added thereto, in like Manner as to any Pariſh, and as fully as if the ſaid Directions and Proviſions had ſeverally and reſpectively been expreſsly applied to Townſhips and Places ſeparately ſupporting their own Poor; and that where there ſhall be any extra-parochial Place or other Place, wherein no Overſeers of the Poor have been or are appointed, two ſufficient Perſons of the ſame Places reſpectively may be preſented to the Juſtices at their reſpective Seſſions to put this Act in Execution in each ſuch Place, who, being approved of and appointed to ſuch Office by the ſaid Juſtices, ſhall have all the Powers and Authorities of Overſeers of the Poor in carrying this Act into Execution, and they are hereby required to perform all the Duties required in and by this Act of Overſeers of the Poor of any Pariſh in all Matters required by this Act; and that where no ſuch Perſons ſhall be appointed, the Juſtices, at ſuch Seſſions, ſhall direct the Overſeers of any adjoining Pariſh, to which ſuch extra-parochial or other Place ſhall have been added by the Juſtices at their General Seſſions for the County, to act as Overſeers for ſuch extra-parochial or other Place, in the Execution of this Act, and ſuch Overſeers ſhall act therein accordingly: Provided always, that if any Rate or Rates ſhall be to be made for any Pariſh or Pariſhes, and any ſuch extra parochial or other Place, jointly, ſuch Rate or Rates ſhall be diſtinctly made for the Purpoſes of this Act, and for no other Purpoſe whatever.

Proviſion reſpecting any Pariſh to extend to every Place ſupporting its own Poor, and to every extra-parochial Place.

Where no Overſeers of the Poor are appointed, two Perſons may be appointed to the Office by the Seſſions; and where none are ſo appointed, the Seſſions ſhall direct the Overſeer of an adjoining Pariſh to act.

Rates for any Pariſh and extra-parochial or other Place, jointly, to be made diſtinctly for the Purpoſes of this Act only.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where any ſuch Pariſhes or Places ſhall be added together as aforeſaid, and any Fine or Fines ſhall be adjudged to be levied for Default of raiſing the proper Proportion of Men, or any Sum or Sums of Money agreed to be given as a Bounty or Bounties to any Man or Men raiſed in purſuance of this Act, ſhall be directed to be levied, ſuch Fine or Fines, and Bounty or Bounties reſpectively, ſhall be divided and apportioned, as near as may be, between ſuch Pariſhes and Places reſpectively, in ſuch Proportions as the Number of inhabited Houſes aſſeſſed to and paying the ſaid

Fines for Default in raiſing Men, and Bounties, to be proportioned between Pariſhes and Places added together, to the Number of inhabited Houses assessed in each.

Duties in each Parish or Place shall bear to each other; and the respective Justices are hereby authorised and required to divide and apportion the same accordingly.

The Charge for raising Men in a Parish lying in two Counties, shall be in that wherein the Church stands, &c.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That where any Parish shall lie in two or more Counties, the Charge imposed upon such Parish, for raising Men for his Majesty's Service, by this Act, shall be in the County where the Church belonging to such Parish is situated, and that such Parish shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be deemed Part of the County; and the Bounty or Bounties to be levied (or in case any Fine or Fines shall be levied of such Parish for Default in not raising Men for the Purposes of this Act, then also such Fine and Fines respectively) shall be paid to the Treasurer of such County.

What Counties Craike, Part of Maker, Wokingham, Filey, Threapwood, and Stamford Baron, shall be deemed Part of, for the Purposes of this Act.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That, for the several Purposes of this Act, the Constablery of Craike, which is a Parcel of the County of Durham, surrounded by Part of the North Riding of the County of York, shall be deemed to be situate within, and Part of, the said North Riding; and that Part of the Parish of Maker, which lies in the County of Cornwall, shall be deemed to be situate within, and Part of, the County of Cornwall; and that the Town and Parish of Wokingham shall be deemed to be situate within, and Part of, the County of Berks; and that the Township of Filey shall be deemed to be situate within, and Part of, the East Riding of the County of York; and that Threapwood shall be deemed to be situate within, and Part of, the Parish of Worthenbury, in the County of Flint; and that the Parish of Saint Martin, called Stamford Baron, in the Suburbs of the Borough and Town of Stamford, on the South Side of the Waters called Welland, shall be deemed to be situate within [and] Part of the County of Lincoln; and that the several Towns and Places herein-before mentioned, and deemed to be situate within, and Part of, the several Counties aforesaid, for the Purposes of this Act, shall be subject to the Jurisdiction and Authority of the Justices of the Peace and other Officers of the respective Counties, within which such Towns and Places are hereby deemed to be situate; any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Overseers to call the principal Inhabitants together to consider of the most effectual Means of raising Men; and, with their Consent, to agree with Volunteers, and make Rates for Bounties.

XV. And be it further enacted, That the Overseers of the Poor of every Parish to whom Notice of such Orders as aforesaid shall be given, shall, immediately after the receiving such Notice, call together the principal Inhabitants of such Parish to a Vestry or other Meeting, to take into Consideration the most speedy and effectual Means of raising the Number of Men appointed to be raised by them in pursuance of this Act, of which Meeting two Days public Notice shall be given in Writing, by affixing the same on the Church or Chapel Door of every such Parish, or where there is no Church or Chapel, then on the Church or Chapel Door nearest thereto, specifying the Cause of calling such Vestry or Meeting; and it shall be lawful for the said Overseers respectively, with the Consent of the Inhabitants of such Vestry or Meeting so assembled, to agree with any Person or Persons, subject to such Approbation or Rejection as herein is mentioned, to enter as a Volunteer or Volunteers to serve his Majesty either in the Army or in the Navy of Great Britain; and if any such Overseers shall, pursuant to such Consent, agree to give to such Volunteer or Volunteers any Sum or Sums of Money, as a Bounty or Bounties for his or their engaging in either of such Services, it shall be lawful for such Overseers to make a Rate upon the Inhabitants of every such Parish, according to the Rate then made for the Relief of the Poor; and where two or more Parishes shall be added together by virtue of this Act, such Rate shall be made generally for all such Parishes so added together, and shall be divided and apportioned between them, in such Proportions as the Number of inhabited Houses assessed to and paying the said Duties in each such Parish shall bear to each other respectively; which Rates being published and approved of, as Rates for the Relief of the Poor are by Law directed to be published and approved of, it shall be lawful for such Overseers to collect and reimburse themselves all such Sum or Sums of Money as they shall have paid for such Volunteer or Volunteers as aforesaid, and the Overplus (if any) shall be applied, in like Proportions as aforesaid, as Part of the Poor's Rate; and all the like Remedies, Powers, Rules, and Methods used, given, and applied for ascertaining, levying, and collecting the Rates for the Relief of the Poor, (except where other Provisions are made by this Act,) shall be used, applied, and put in force for ascertaining, levying, and collecting the Rates to be made by virtue of this Act, in all and every the Parishes charged with raising Men for such Service as aforesaid, in as full and ample a Manner as if the same Remedies, Powers, Rules, and Methods were particularly set forth in this Act.

Overseers may reimburse themselves Money paid to Volunteers.

Power for collecting Poor Rates to extend to this Act.

Overseers may pay Bounties out of Money in their Hands, or may make a Rate to satisfy them.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That the Overseers who are respectively required or empowered by this Act to levy any Money by a Rate, or to pay the Amount of any Bounty, or any Part thereof, to the Men enrolled in his Majesty's Service, or to the Treasurer of the County, for the Purposes of this Act, shall and may pay the same out of any Money in their or any of their Hands, of the Rates for the Relief of the Poor; and if they, or any of them, shall not have sufficient of such Money for that Purpose, then such Overseers shall, and they are hereby required to make a Rate for the Relief of the Poor sufficient to satisfy all probable Claims arising or to arise thereon, by virtue of this Act, in respect of the said Bounties, as soon after the passing of this Act as conveniently may be, and so as the full Money for such Bounties may be ready to be paid or advanced at the Time of Enrolment; and it shall be lawful for the said Overseers to levy and collect the same in such Manner as Rates made for the Relief of the Poor may be levied and collected (except as herein is otherwise provided); and that such Rates, being published and allowed as Rates for the Relief of the Poor are by Law directed to be published and allowed, the said Overseers shall and may proceed to collect the same notwithstanding any Appeal from such Rate may be pending; and no such Rate, after any Application thereof, or any Part thereof, for the Payment of such Bounties shall be totally quashed or set aside for Rates not to be quashed, but may be amended.

Treble Costs.

XVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if it shall appear to such Justices at such Petty Sessions, that such Rate cannot be conveniently collected within due Time for Payment of the said Bounty or Bounties, and sufficient Monies shall not be in the Hands of the said Overseers to satisfy the same, it shall and may be lawful for such Justices to make Order therein, and grant a Certificate thereof, and of the Amount of the Bounty or Bounties, and Sum or Sums wanting to defray the same, directed to the Receiver General of the Land Tax for the County, or to the Collector thereof for the District, or any of the Collectors of Customs or Excise of the Division where such Justices shall act, as to such Justices shall seem most expedient; upon producing of which Certificate to the Officer to whom the same shall be directed, he shall be obliged to advance the Sum mentioned in such Certificate to be wanting as aforesaid, to be paid to the Person or Persons enrolled, or to the Treasurer of the County, or to either of them, in such Proportions as shall be directed by such Certificate, out of any Public Monies in his Hands; and such Officer so advancing the same, shall be reimbursed by an Order of the Justices at the Petty Sessions for the same District or Division, with all Charges necessarily incurred, out of the first Monies which shall come into the Hands of the respective Overseers of the Poor of the Rates for the Relief of the Poor, within and for the respective Parishes or Places for which the Men, to whom or to whose Use such Monies were respectively advanced, were raised in pursuance of this Act.

If Rates cannot be collected in Time for Payment of Bounties, the Petty Sessions may grant a Certificate of the Sums wanting to the Receiver General of the Land Tax, &c. who shall advance the Money.

Sums so advanced to be reimbursed with Charges, out of the first Money which comes to the Hands of the Overseers.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace before whom any Person shall be brought to be examined, touching his Consent to enter into either of the said Services, to direct any Sum, not exceeding one Third Part of the Bounty agreed to be paid to him on his engaging to serve, to be advanced to such Person, or to such of his Family, and in such Proportions, as he shall request at the Time of his Enrolment; and that the Residue of such Bounty shall be paid into the Hands of the said Treasurer or Treasurers of the County, there to remain until the same shall become payable according to the Directions of this Act.

Justices may direct a Third of Bounties to be advanced on Enrolment of Volunteers, and the Remainder to be paid to the County Treasurer.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall agree to enter himself as a Volunteer in either of such Services as aforesaid, shall be produced before the Officer or Officers appointed to regulate the same, at the nearest Place of Rendezvous to any Parish for which such Volunteer shall agree to serve; and in case such Officer or Officers shall, on Examination, approve of such Volunteer or Volunteers to serve his Majesty, then such Volunteer or Volunteers may forthwith be brought before two or more Justices of the Peace acting in and for the County where any such Parish shall be situate; and in case it shall appear to such Justices of the Peace, that such Person or Persons hath or have voluntarily entered himself or themselves in either of such Services, then such Justices shall, and they are required, forthwith to certify under their Hands that such Person or Persons hath or have voluntarily entered himself or themselves in the Service of his Majesty's Army or Navy, as the Case may be, setting forth therein the Place or Places of the Birth or lawful Settlement, Age or Ages, and Calling or Callings, of him or them respectively, if the same shall be known; and shall also, at the Foot of every such Certificate, enter the Amount of the Sums to be paid as a Bounty or Bounties to such Volunteer or Volunteers, on his or their entering into such Service; and the Sums (if any) which shall be directed to be advanced to him or them at the Time of his or their Enrolment, and also the Sums to be paid to the Treasurer of the County according to the Directions of this Act; and which Certificates, being cut indentwise from Duplicates of the same, shall be delivered to the proper Regulating Officer or Officers, and the Regulating Officer or Officers shall thereupon cause such Person or Persons respectively to be enrolled in his Majesty's Service of the Army or Navy accordingly; and the said Justices before whom such Volunteer shall be examined, shall at the same Time and Place make an Order under their Hands and Seals, requiring the Overseers of the Poor of the Parish or Parishes where such Volunteer has been raised, to pay into the Hands of the Treasurer of the County, within the Space of fourteen Days after the Date of such Order, the full Bounty Money then remaining due.

Volunteers to be brought before the nearest Regulating Officer, and after Approbation, before two Justices, who shall certify their having entered, and state the Amounts of the Sums to be paid accordingly.

Certificates to be delivered to the Regulating Officer, who shall cause the Men to be enrolled.

Justices, on Examination of Volunteers, to order the Overseers to pay to the County Treasurer the Bounties remaining due.

If the Regulating Officer reject a Volunteer, the Overſeers may appeal to the Petty Seſſions.

XX. And be it further enacted, That in caſe the Regulating Officer or Officers at the neareſt Place of Rendezvous aforeſaid, ſhall reject any Perſon or Perſons produced before him or them as ſuch Volunteer or Volunteers as aforeſaid, as unfit to ſerve his Majeſty in either of the ſaid Services, and the Overſeers of any Pariſh for which ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall have been tendered to ſerve, ſhall think themſelves aggrieved by ſuch Determination of ſuch Officer or Officers, it ſhall and may be lawful for ſuch Overſeers, on giving immediate Notice to ſuch Regulating Officer or Officers of their Intention, to appeal to the Juſtices of the Diſtrict wherein ſuch Pariſh ſhall be ſituate, aſſembled at the next Petty Seſſions to be holden by virtue of this Act; and ſuch Regulating Officer or Officers, on receiving ſuch Notice, ſhall, and he and they is and are hereby required, before the Time of hearing ſuch Appeal, to ſet down his or their Reaſons, in Writing, for ſuch Rejection, which Reaſons, being produced before ſuch Juſtices at ſuch Petty Seſſions, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Juſtices, on due Conſideration thereof, and on due Examination of the Perſon or Perſons ſo rejected, to give Order therein, as in their Diſcretion ſhall ſeem expedient, which Orders ſhall be final and concluſive to all Parties; and in caſe ſuch Juſtices ſhall ſee Cauſe to reſcind the Determination of ſuch Regulating Officer or Officers, and ſhall cauſe to be delivered to ſuch Regulating Officer or Officers, ſuch Certificate as is herein-before directed, then ſuch Regulating Officer or Officers ſhall forthwith cauſe ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo raiſed and approved of, to be enrolled in his Majeſty's Service as a Volunteer or Volunteers; and the ſaid Officer or Officers ſhall cauſe an Entry to be made, in ſome Book to be kept by him or them, of the Names of Volunteers or Perſons enrolled by virtue of this Act, and of the Pariſhes of their laſt Abode or lawful Settlement, if they can be known, and of their Ages and Deſcriptions, and Sums paid on their Account, and to whom the ſame ſhall be paid, and ſhall cauſe true Copies or Duplicates of ſuch Entries to be tranſmitted to the Secretary at War, or Secretary of the Admiralty for the Time being, as the Caſe may require, and which ſhall be made in the Form herein-after mentioned; and the Pariſh or Pariſhes for which ſuch Volunteer or Volunteers ſhall be ſo enrolled to ſerve, ſhall be diſcharged in reſpect to ſuch Volunteer or Volunteers ſo enrolled, unleſs ſuch Volunteer or Volunteers ſhall afterwards, and before he or they ſhall be admitted into ſome Regiment, or entered in one of his Majeſty's Ships or Veſſels of War reſpectively, appear to be within any of the Diſqualifications in this Act expreſsly mentioned, and ſhall be, by reaſon of ſuch Diſqualification, diſcharged from ſuch Service, or otherwiſe taken out of the ſame; then and in every ſuch Caſe the Pariſh or Pariſhes ſhall be liable to provide other fit and able Men in lieu of thoſe who ſhall ſo appear to be diſqualified, to be raiſed in the Manner directed by this Act, and the Bounty agreed to be given and remaining unpaid, may be applied for that Purpoſe.

Regulating Officer, before hearing Appeal, to write his Reaſons for ſuch Rejection.

Order of Petty Seſſions to be final.

If the Determination of the Officer be reſcinded, and a Certificate be delivered to him, he ſhall cauſe the Volunteer to be enrolled.

Overſeers to make Returns of Volunteers enrolled to the Petty Seſſions.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That as ſoon as conveniently may be after any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be enrolled as ſuch Volunteer or Volunteers as aforeſaid, for any Place or Places, the Overſeers of the Poor of or acting for ſuch Place or Places, ſhall make a Return thereof to the Juſtices of the Diſtrict, at their Petty Seſſions to be holden next after ſuch Enrolment, ſpecifying the Name, the Place of the Birth or lawful Settlement, the Age, and the Calling, of every ſuch Perſon, if the ſame can be known, together with the Amount of the Sum or Sums of Money agreed to be paid by way of Bounty to every ſuch Volunteer, and what Sums ſhall have been advanced to ſuch Volunteer or Volunteers of the ſaid Bounty, which ſhall be verified on Oath, (if required,) and which Oath ſuch Juſtices are hereby authorized to adminiſter; and every ſuch Return ſo made, the ſaid Juſtices ſhall cauſe to be delivered to the Clerk of the Peace of the County, to be enrolled at the Seſſions there, at the next General or Quarter Seſſions to be holden for ſuch County; and in caſe Returns of the whole Number of Men appointed to be raiſed by and for any Place or Places ſhall not be made to the Juſtices of the Diſtrict at ſuch Petty Seſſions, within the Space of three Weeks next after the Service of Notice of the Order of General Seſſions for raiſing ſuch Number of Men, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Juſtices of ſuch Petty Seſſions to ſummon before them the Overſeers of the Poor of or acting for ſuch Place or Places making ſuch Default; and in caſe it ſhall not be made to appear by ſuch Overſeers, to the Satisfaction of ſuch Juſtices, that ſuch Default hath not happened by Reaſon of any wilful Neglect of, or Diſobedience to, the ſaid Order of Seſſions, and that the ſame hath been unavoidable, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Juſtices, and they are hereby required, to fine the ſaid Overſeers in a Sum which ſhall be ten Pounds over and above the Amount of ſuch Sum as ſhall appear (as far as the ſame can be aſcertained) to have been given on an Average as a Bounty to Men enrolled by virtue of this Act within the ſaid Diſtrict; or in caſe no Men ſhall be raiſed within the ſaid Diſtrict, then in the neareſt Diſtrict for which Men ſhall then have been raiſed, for each Man appointed to be raiſed by or for ſuch Place or Places, and whereof ſuch Default ſhall have been made as aforeſaid; and in caſe the ſame ſhall not be forthwith paid, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Juſtices to levy the ſame by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of ſuch Overſeers, returning the Overplus (if any) to the Owner or Owners thereof, in caſe ſuch Juſtices ſhall adjudge the Default to have been wilfully made by the ſaid Overſeers; or to cauſe the ſame to be raiſed by a like Rate as aforeſaid upon any Inhabitant or Inhabitants of ſuch Place or Places, in caſe ſuch Inhabitant or Inhabitants ſhall be adjudged to have wilfully made ſuch Default, ſuch Inhabitant or Inhabitants being previouſly ſummoned by ſuch Juſtices to ſhew Cauſe why ſuch Rate ſhould not be made; but in caſe ſuch Juſtices ſhall in their Judgement deem ſuch Default unavoidable, and ſuch Overſeers ſhall require further Time for raiſing the Number of Men appointed to be raiſed by them for his Majeſty's Service, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Juſtices, by their Order under their Hands, to allow ſuch further

The Juſtices to cauſe Returns so be delivered to the Clerk of the Peace, to be enrolled at the Quarter Seſſions.

If Returns of the whole Number to be raiſed for any Place ſhall not be made, in a limited Time, the Petty Seſſions may ſummon the Overſeers, and fine them for Neglect.

If Fines be not forthwith paid they may be levied on the Overſeers Goods, or raiſed by a Rate on the Inhabitants making Default.

further Time as they shall think reasonable, not exceeding the Space of fourteen Days from the Date of such Order; and every such Order shall be peremptorily complied with, under Pain of forfeiting such Sum of Money as is before mentioned for each Man of whom Default shall be so made, to be levied as herein-before is directed, in case the Justices shall adjudge the Default to have been wilfully made, but if the said Justices shall adjudge the Default to be unavoidable, then the said Fine shall be raised in like Manner as any Bounty or Bounties to be paid to Volunteers is by this Act directed to be raised, and shall be paid to the Treasurer of the County for the Purposes of this Act.

If Justices deem the Default unavoidable, they may allow further Time for raising the Men.

XXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in every Case where Justices shall allow further Time for raising the Number of Men appointed to be raised for his Majesty's Service, such Justices shall proceed, as herein-before directed, in hearing and determining the Appeals of such Parishes to which such further Time shall be allowed.

But shall proceed in hearing Appeals of those Parishes.

XXIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That all Fines which by this Act may be levied of any Inhabitant or Inhabitants of any Parish or Place, shall be levied against such Inhabitant or Inhabitants only who shall be adjudged to be guilty of any Neglect or Default, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Inhabitant or Inhabitants respectively, under the like Powers and Methods as any other Money may be levied by Distress and Sale by this Act: Provided always, that in case any Person or Persons shall find him, her, or themselves aggrieved, by any Rate or Assessment made for the Relief of the Poor, whereof any Part shall be necessarily applicable, or shall have been applied, for the Purposes of this Act, every such Person or Persons shall, and he and they is and are hereby required to make his or their Appeal to the Justices of the District where such Place or Places are situate, at the next Petty Sessions of the Peace holden for the same District or Division, and not to the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County; and the Justices of the Peace assembled at such Petty Sessions are hereby authorized and required, on Proof of reasonable Notice to the Overseers making such Rate, to receive such Appeal, and to hear and finally determine the same: Provided always, that this Act shall not extend to any Appeal to any Rate, where the same is not applicable, or has not been applied, in Part or wholly, to the Purposes of this Act.

Fines to be levied only against the Inhabitants making Default.

Persons aggrieved by any Rate applicable to the Purposes of this Act, shall appeal to the next Petty Sessions of the District, where it shall be finally determined.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That all and every Sum and Sums of Money agreed to be given as a Bounty or Bounties, or paid thereout to any Man or Men raised in pursuance of this Act, (except such Sums as shall have been directed by the Justices of the Peace to be advanced to any Man at the Time of his Enrolment in his Majesty's Service, by virtue of this Act,) and also all Fines levied upon the Overseers or Inhabitants by Distress and Sale as aforesaid, or by a Rate, for Default in not raising the Number of Men appointed to be raised by virtue of this Act, shall be forthwith paid into the Hands of the Treasurer of the County, for the Uses and Purposes of this Act; and such respective Treasurers shall place the Amount of the Fines to the Account of the respective Parishes paying the same, and the Amount of the Sums paid of the Bounties, to the Account of the Volunteer or Volunteers for whose Use the same was collected; and that in all Cases where such Default as aforesaid shall be made, it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons, having Authority under his Majesty to provide Men for the Service of the Navy, to produce any Persons as Substitutes, or for any such Persons voluntarily to come before any two or more Justices of the Peace of the District where the Parishes making such Default shall be situate, and be examined before such Justices as to their Consent to serve in his Majesty's Army or Navy, as Substitutes for such Parishes respectively, and who shall, and they are hereby authorized and required to settle the Bounty or Bounties to be paid for such Substitutes respectively; and such Justices shall, in case any such Persons shall be approved of by the Regulating Officer or Officers as aforesaid, certify such Consent and Approbation, together with the Names, Places of Birth, or lawful Settlement, Ages and Callings, of such Persons, respectively, and the Bounties agreed to be paid, in the Manner herein-before directed with respect to Volunteers; and such Justices who are hereby respectively required to grant Certificates on the Enrolment of any Person or Persons as a Volunteer or Volunteers, or Substitute or Substitutes, by virtue of this Act, shall transmit a Duplicate of every such Certificate, under their Hands, to the Clerk of the Peace for the County, to be enrolled at the Sessions there, at the next General or Quarter Sessions to be held for such County, and thereupon such Regulating Officer shall cause such Persons to be respectively enrolled as such Substitutes as aforesaid, and such Parishes respectively for which such Substitutes shall be raised, shall be discharged in like Manner as aforesaid, unless such Substitutes shall appear to be disqualified, and by Reason thereof be taken out of his Majesty's Service in the Manner before-mentioned; and the said Justices shall thereupon make an Order upon such Treasurer as aforesaid, to transfer, in his Account, unto the Use of such Persons respectively so enrolled as Substitutes, such Sums of Money, not exceeding the Amount of the Fines levied for such Default as aforesaid, as shall have been agreed to be paid as Bounties to such Persons respectively; and the said Justices shall and may, at any Time after such Substitutes shall be respectively entered into any Regiment, or on board any Ship of War, also order such further Sum of Money out of the Residue of such Fines (if any) to be paid to any Person or Persons duly authorized to provide Men for the Army or Navy, who shall appear to such Justice to have used Diligence in providing any such Substitutes, as a Reward for the Labour, or in Payment of lawful Charges to be incurred by bringing such Substitute to be enrolled; and the Residue (if any) that shall remain of such Fines, after Payment of such Sums as aforesaid, or for Want of sufficient Substitutes being provided, shall be in the Disposal of the Justices at the General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and shall be by them applied in providing Men for the Augmentation of his Majesty's Army or Navy, in such Manner as in their Discretion shall seem expedient, at any Time before the Time of holding the Easter Quarter Sessions, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven; and the said Justices shall, in case any Part thereof Bounty Money and Fines to be paid to the County Treasurer, to be placed to Account of the Parishes and Volunteers respectively.

In case of Default as aforesaid, Persons authorized by his Majesty may produce Substitutes, or Volunteers may offer themselves as such, to two Justices, who shall settle the Bounties and certify the Consent and Approbation of the Substitutes.

Justices to transmit Copies of Certificates to the Clerk of the Peace, to be enrolled at the Quarter Sessions.

Regulating Officer to cause Substitutes to be enrolled, which shall discharge the Parishes, unless the Men be disqualified.

Justices to order the Treasurer to transfer Bounties to the Use of Substitutes, and shall order Rewards to the Persons providing them. Residue of Fines to be applied by the Quarter Sessions in providing Men for the Army or Navy; and if any remain at Easter Sessions 1797, an Account to be transmitted to the Treasury.

Commanding Officers, within a limited Time, to make out Tickets for Payment of Bounty Money due.

If the Person shall have entered into the Army, the Ticket to be delivered to the County Treasurer, and a Copy transmitted to the Paymaster General.

County Treasurer to pay Tickets to the Persons presenting them, to be paid over to the Volunteers.

Penalty for Default in Payment.

Residue of Bounty to Volunteers entered in the Navy, may be paid agreeably to 31 Geo. II. Cap. 10, &c.

If the Bounty Money remaining due shall be to be paid to the Volunteer, the Commanding Officer of the Ship shall apply to the Commissioners of the Navy, or the Commissioner at the Port, for Payment; and if any Part be to be paid to his Family, it shall be remitted agreeably to 31 Geo. II. Cap. 10., payable by the County Treasurer. All the Rules for Payment of Seamen's Wages to extend to this Act.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That every such Certificate so granted, signed by such Regulating Officer or Officers, shall, in all Cases where any such Person enrolled by virtue of this Act shall be placed under the Command of any other Officer or Officers, either of the Army or Navy, be transmitted along with such Person so enrolled, and delivered to the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Company, or of the Ship or Vessel in which such Person shall be entered to serve; and such Commanding Officer shall, within four Days from the Time of such Person being admitted into any Regiment, and before such Volunteer shall be compelled to go out of the County for which he shall serve, or from the Time of such Person's joining such Regiment, which shall first happen, or from the Time of such Person being mustered and rated on board any Ship, and before such Ship or Vessel of War shall proceed to Sea, as the Case may be, make out a Ticket or Tickets for the Payment of the Bounty Money agreed to be paid to such Person on his engaging to serve, and then remaining due, and which shall be expressed in the Certificate granted in that Behalf, in such Manner as if such Bounty Money had become due to such Person on Account of Arrears of Pay as a Private in such Regiment, if such Person shall enter into the Army, or on account of Wages as a Seaman on board such Ship or Vessel, if such Person shall enter into the Navy; and if he shall have entered himself to serve in his Majesty's Army, then the Pay Ticket so made out shall be delivered to the Treasurer of the County to whom the same is herein-before directed to be paid, by the Officer or Officers making out the same, with a Certificate endorsed thereon, and signed by the said Officer, acknowledging the Receipt of such Volunteer, and his Admission into his Majesty's Army, together with the Regiment into which such Volunteer shall have been admitted, and that a Copy of every such Pay Ticket shall be transmitted to the Paymaster General of his Majesty's Army, within one Month after the Date thereof; and the Treasurer of the County to whom such Pay Ticket shall be presented, with such Certificate endorsed thereon, as aforesaid, shall forthwith pay the same to the Person or Persons presenting such Ticket, and the same shall be paid over to the respective Volunteers entitled thereto without Delay; and in default thereof, the Officer or Officers who shall have received the same, shall be liable to the Pains and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, or which may be inflicted by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament, for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, against Officers for wilfully withholding the Pay of their Soldiers; and in case such Volunteer shall be entered to serve in his Majesty's Navy, then the Residue of such Bounty Money or Part thereof, may be paid to such Person, or his Wife, Father, Mother, Child, or Children, in such Proportions as he shall request, in the Manner directed by an Act, made in the thirty-first Year of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of Seamen employed in the Royal Navy, and for establishing a regular Method for the punctual, frequent, and certain Payment of their Wages, and for enabling them more easily and readily to remit the same for the Support of their Wives and Families, and for preventing Frauds and Abuses attending such Payments, or by any other Act relating to the Payment of such Wages: Provided always, that if the Whole or any Part of such Bounty Money so remaining due, shall, at the Request of such Volunteer, be to be paid to himself, the Commanding Officer of the Ship in which such Person is appointed to serve shall apply to the Commissioners of the Navy, or to the resident Commissioner at the Port where the Ship may then be, for Payment of the same, producing the Ticket of Enrolment (on which Ticket of Enrolment the Commanding Officer of the Ship shall, and he is hereby required to indorse the Sum to be received by such Volunteer, which Indorsement, being signed by such Volunteer, and attested by such Commanding Officer, shall be a sufficient Authority and Discharge to any Officer of the Navy making Payment of the same, under the Direction of the said Commissioners of the Navy); and that where such Person shall desire any Portion of the said Bounty Money then remaining due, to be paid to his Family as aforesaid, the same shall be remitted in the Manner directed by the said Act of the thirty-first Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty, (subject nevertheless to such Alteration as the Case may require,) and shall be made payable by the Treasurer of the County in and for which the said Volunteer hath been raised to serve; and that all the Rules, Forms, Directions, and Methods, used for the Payment of Wages due to Seamen, or payable to their Families, in pursuance of the said Act of the thirty-first Year aforesaid, or by any such other Act of Parliament, (except as aforesaid,) shall be used, in like Manner, for the Payment of such Bounty Money to the Families of all and every the Men who shall be entered into his Majesty's Service, in pursuance of this Act, and in as full and ample a Manner as if the said Acts, and every Clause therein contained, had been extended and applied particularly by this Act to such Cases.

Quarter or Petty Sessions may require the Attendance of Constables and Overseers.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace, assembled either at the General or Quarter Sessions, or for the Justices at their Petty Sessions, within their respective Jurisdictions, or any two or more of them respectively, from Time to Time to issue their Order or Warrant, under their Hands and Seals, requiring the Attendance of the High Constable, Constable, Tything Man, Headborough, or Overseers of the Poor of, or acting for, any Parish or Parishes, at such Time and Place as in such Order or Warrant shall be expressed; and if any such Officer shall refuse or neglect to appear according to such Order or Warrant, or shall refuse or neglect to make such Return of all such Matters and Things directed to be done by them respectively in pursuance of this Act, as shall be required of them by the said Justices respectively, or to comply with such Orders and Directions as he or they respectively shall from Time to Time receive from the said Justices, or any two or more of them respectively, in pursuance of this Act, or shall, in making such Return, be guilty of any Fraud or wilful Partiality, or gross Neglect in his or their Duty, the said Justices, or any two or more of them respectively, are hereby empowered and required, at their Discretion, to fine such Person or Persons in any Sum not exceeding twenty Pounds, nor less than five Pounds; and in case of any Fraud, wilful Partiality, or gross Neglect as aforesaid, over and above such Penalty, to commit the Person so offending to the Common Gaol, there to be kept, without Bail or Mainprize, for the space of one Calendar Month.

Penalty on such Officers for Neglect of Duty.

XXVII. 'And whereas the Powers of this Act may not be fully executed, before the usual Time in the 'Year of the Overseers of the Poor going out of Office;' be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace, acting in and for the respective Districts or Divisions, at their respective Petty Sessions, (whenever they shall see Occasion, by reason of any of the Powers of this Act remaining unexecuted, in Part or in the Whole, at any Time previous to, or on the Appointment of other Overseers for the same Place or Places,) by any Order under the Hands and Seals of any two or more of them, to order and direct the Overseers, who shall have been in Office at the Commencement of this Act, to continue in their said respective Offices, for the Purposes of effectually and completely carrying into Execution the Powers and Trusts given or vested by this Act; and such Overseers shall, by virtue of the said Order, (notwithstanding other Overseers shall have been or may be appointed for the same Place or Places respectively for general Purposes,) continue to have and exercise all the Powers and Jurisdictions incident or belonging to their respective Offices, or given or vested in them by this Act, so far as the same are necessary to carry into Execution the Powers of this Act, and shall continue to do and perform all the like Duties and Offices required to be done or performed by them respectively by this Act, as fully and effectually, and under the like Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures as they respectively could, might, or ought to have, do, or perform the same, or any of them, at any Time after the Commencement of this Act, and before such Appointment of other Overseers for the same Place or Places, for general Purposes as aforesaid; any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that if no such Order shall be made, the Overseers for the Time being shall execute all Matters and Things necessary to be done for completely carrying into Execution the Powers of this Act.

Petty Sessions may order Overseers to continue in Office till they completely execute this Act.

But if no such Order be made, the Overseers for the Time being shall execute it.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Overseer shall die or remove from the Place for which he was appointed, or become insolvent before the Expiration of his Office or Duty under this Act, on Oath thereof made, it shall be lawful for such Justices of the Peace as aforesaid, to appoint another Overseer in his Stead, for the Purpose of completely carrying this Act into Execution, who shall continue in Office accordingly; and in case of Removal, such Overseer shall give an Account, on Oath, to the said Justices, of all Matters and Things done by him in the Execution of this Act, and shall comply with such Orders and Directions as he shall receive from the said Justices touching the Execution of this Act, under the like Penalties as are inflicted on Overseers in Office for any Neglect of Duty; and in case of the Death or Insolvency of such Overseer, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns shall, within forty Days after his Decease or Insolvency, in pursuance of an Order in Writing, signed by any two such Justices as aforesaid, attend such Justices, and give an Account to the best of their Knowledge and Belief, of all Things done by such Person deceased o. insolvent, touching the Execution of this Act, and shall in like Manner, and under the like Penalties, comply with such Orders as they shall respectively receive from the said Justices in relation to this Act.

Justices may appoint Overseers in the Stead of such as may die, remove, or become insolvent, to complete the Purposes of this Act.

Such as remove to give an Account on Oath to the Justices; and the Executors or Assignees of such as die, or become insolvent, to attend the Justices and obey their Orders.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That the Justices of the Peace of the several Counties, Cities, Towns, Boroughs, and Places before mentioned, shall, at their respective Quarter Sessions, held within their respective Counties and Places, next after the Day of Easter in the Year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, issue their Orders under the Hands of any two of them, directed to the Treasurer or Treasurers of the County, requiring the said Treasurer or Treasurers to deliver in an Account in Writing, signed by himself or themselves, of all Sums of Money by him or them received by virtue of this Act, and on what Account, under the Heads and according to the Form in the Schedule hereunto annexed; and if it shall appear, by any such Account, that any Sum or Sums of Money received by him or them for or on Account of any Bounty or Bounties, agreed to be given to Men on their entering into his Majesty's Service, or for or on Account of Fines levied for Default in not raising the proper Number of Men, remain unaccounted for by such Treasurer or Treasurers, according to the Directions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Justices, or any two of them, by their Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to order and direct such Treasurer or Treasurers, within fourteen Days after the Date of such Warrant, to pay into the Hands of the Receiver General of the County, or his Deputy, the Balance due from such Treasurer or Treasurers as aforesaid, which Receiver General, or his Deputy, shall give Acquittances for the same.

Quarter Sessions, immediately after Easter 1797, to order the County Treasurer to deliver an Account of Money received, and to pay the Balance to the Receiver General;

XXX. And be it further enacted, That the Justices of the Peace to whom such Accounts shall be delivered, shall issue their Orders or Warrants, under the Hands and Seals of any two of them, to the acting Overseers of the Poor of any Parish or Parishes within their respective Divisions, for which any Man or Men and where Bounties or Fines appear not to have been paid to him, to order the acting Overſeers to pay the Arrears out of Money in their Hands, or to make a Rate for the ſame.

Men ſhall have been appointed to be raiſed in purſuance of this Act, and for which any Sum or Sums of Money agreed to be given as a Bounty or Bounties to ſuch Man or Men, or directed to be levied as a Fine or Fines for Default in not raiſing the proper Number of Men, ſhall appear not to have been fully paid into the Hands of the Treaſurer or Treaſurers of the County; by which Orders or Warrants the ſaid Juſtices ſhall require the ſaid Overſeers of the Poor for the Time being, in caſe ſuch Sum or Sums of Money ſhall not appear to them to have been actually aſſeſſed and raiſed upon the Pariſh, by the Perſons holding the Office of Overſeers of the Poor at the Time of the Men's Enrolment, or if the ſame ſhall appear to have been ſo actually aſſeſſed and raiſed, and to have been ſince applied to the Uſe of ſuch Pariſh or Pariſhes, in any other Manner than is directed by this Act, then and in ſuch Caſe to pay the Sum and Sums in Arrear into the Hands of the ſaid Treaſurer or Treaſurers, out of any Monies in their or any of their Hands, of the Monies raiſed for the Relief of the Poor in ſuch Pariſh or Pariſhes, or if they ſhall not have Money ſufficient for that Purpoſe in their Hands, then to make a Rate for the ſame, in like Manner as Rates are uſually made for the Relief of the Poor.

Overſeers to return Defaulters in that Office who have levied Rates and not paid the Money to the County Treaſurer, and Juſtices may iſſue their Warrant for Payment of the ſame;

XXXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if ſuch Orders or Warrants of Juſtices as laſt aforeſaid ſhall be directed to any Overſeer or Overſeers who ſhall not have been in Office at the Time of the Men's Enrolment in purſuance of this Act, and it ſhall appear to the ſaid Overſeers of the Poor, to whom any ſuch Order or Warrant ſhall be directed, that the Perſons holding the Office of Overſeers of the Poor at the Time of the Men's Enrolment, actually cauſed all and every the Sum or Sums of Money agreed to be given as a Bounty or Bounties, or directed to be paid as a Fine or Fines, for Default in not raiſing the Number of Men appointed to be raiſed, to be aſſeſſed and levied as by this Act is directed, and that the ſame, or any Part thereof, yet remains in the Hands of the ſaid then Overſeers of the Poor, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Overſeers of the Poor, to whom ſuch Orders or Warrants ſhall be directed, and they are hereby required to return ſuch Default, with the Sums in Arrear, and the Names of the Defaulters, by endorſing the ſame on the Back of ſuch Order or Warrant, to the Juſtices granting the ſame, or to ſuch other Juſtices as ſhall attend at any Meeting at which ſuch Return ſhall be made; and ſuch Juſtices may examine on Oath into the Matters contained in ſuch Return, and, if they ſee Cauſe, may iſſue their Order or Warrant, directed to the Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Default, requiring them to pay to the Treaſurer or Treaſurers of the County the Sum and Sums in Arrear, at a Time to be limited in ſuch Order or Warrant, not later than fourteen Days after the Date thereof: Provided alſo, that if the Perſon or Perſons, by whom the Sum or Sums of Money ſo returned to be in Arrear, ſhall have been aſſeſſed or raiſed, and not applied as aforeſaid, ſhall be dead, or ſhall have become bankrupt or inſolvent, or ſhall not be then reſident within the Juriſdiction of ſuch Juſtices, it ſhall and may be lawful for any two of them, by like Order or Warrant as aforeſaid, to direct the then acting Overſeers of the Poor to raiſe and pay the Sum or Sums in Arrear to the Treaſurer or Treaſurers of the County, in like Manner as they are hereby authorized to direct Payment where the ſame ſhall not have been actually aſſeſſed or raiſed as aforeſaid, for the Purpoſes of this Act.

and if the Party be dead, &c. may direct the acting Overſeers to raiſe and pay the Arrear.

County Treaſurer to pay over Money received after the Eaſter Seſſions 1797, to the Receiver General, and on Demand of a Juſtice to deliver an Account of all Money received after that Period.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That the Treaſurer or Treaſurers of the County ſhall pay over, within fourteen Days after he ſhall receive the ſame, all Sum and Sums of Money received by him or them at any Time after the ſaid Eaſter Seſſions in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, on account of Men raiſed for his Majeſty's Service by virtue of this Act, or on Account of Fines directed to be levied for Default in not raiſing the Number of Men appointed to be raiſed as aforeſaid, to the Receiver General of the County, or his Deputy, in like Manner as they are hereby directed to pay any Sum of Money then remaining in their Hands; and ſhall alſo, on Demand made by any Juſtice of the Peace of the County, from Time to Time deliver an Account, ſigned as aforeſaid, of all Monies which they ſhall receive at any Time after the ſaid Eaſter Seſſions in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, applicable to the Uſes and Purpoſes herein mentioned, in like Manner as they are hereby directed to deliver in Accounts of the Monies then remaining in their Hands.

If Treaſurers neglect to deliver in Accounts or pay Balances, or Overſeers neglect to pay Money directed by the Juſtices, or to make Rates for raiſing the ſame, it may be levied by Diſtreſs on the Goods of the Defaulter.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Treaſurer of any County ſhall refuſe or neglect to deliver in any ſuch Account to the Juſtices of the Peace as aforeſaid, or to pay to the Receiver General of ſuch County all ſuch Sum and Sums of Money as he ſhall receive on account of Men raiſed for his Majeſty's Service, or on account of Fines directed to be levied for Default in not raiſing the Number of Men appointed to be raiſed by virtue of this Act, within the reſpective Times herein-before limited, or if any Perſon holding the Office of Overſeer of the Poor at the Time of the Men's Enrolment, or any ſucceeding Overſeer, ſhall refuſe or neglect within the Time limited by any Order or Warrant of two or more ſuch Juſtices of the Peace, to pay the Sum required to be paid by the Order or Warrant of ſuch Juſtices to the Treaſurer or Treaſurers of the County, or ſhall refuſe or neglect, in Caſes where the ſame ſhall be neceſſary, to make a Rate for raiſing the Sum required to be ſo paid, it ſhall and may be lawful for any two or more ſuch Juſtices to levy the ſame, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Perſon or Perſons ſo making Default, and to direct the Money ſo raiſed to be paid into the Hands of the Receiver General of ſuch County, or his Deputy, taking a Receipt for the ſame, and the Overplus (if any) after ſatisfying all Charges and Expences attending the ſame, to be paid to the Perſon or Perſons againſt whom ſuch Warrant ſhall be made.

Juſtices to tranſmit County Treaſurers Accounts to the XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That the Juſtices of the Peace of the ſeveral Counties, to whom any Accounts ſhall have been delivered by the Treaſurer or Treaſurers of ſuch Counties reſpectively, ſhall, as ſoon as conveniently may be, cauſe the ſame to be tranſmitted to the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, and shall also at the same Time return what they the said Justices shall respectively have done thereupon in the Execution of this Act.

Treasury, and return what they have done.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or any three of them, to demand from the Receiver or Receivers General of any County, an Account of such Sum and Sums of Money as he or they shall receive in pursuance of this Act, and to direct the same to be paid into the Hands of the Paymasters General of the Army, or the Treasurer of the Navy, in such Proportions as to them shall seem necessary, for the Purpose of reimbursing the said Paymasters and Treasurer respectively the Payments made by them in pursuance of this Act; and such Monies shall be applied to the Repayment of such Sum and Sums of Money as shall appear by the Tickets of Enrolment to be due to the Paymasters General and Treasurer of the Navy respectively, and which shall, in the Course of his Majesty's Service, have been paid by them respectively to any Volunteer or Substitute raised by virtue of this Act, and also to pay such Sum and Sums of Money as shall appear by the Tickets of Enrolment in the Possession of the said Paymasters General, or of his Majesty's Commissioners of the Navy, to be due to any other Volunteers or Substitutes, raised for the Service of his Majesty's Army or Navy, by virtue of this Act; and the Residue thereof (if any) shall be applied for the Use of his Majesty's Military or Naval Service, under the Direction of Parliament.

Treasury may demand from Receivers General Accounts of Money received, and direct the same to be paid to the Paymaster General, or the Treasurer of the Navy, to be applied to certain Purposes.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Clerk of the Peace of every County shall, and he is hereby required, within fourteen Days next after the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held next after the Day of Easter in the Year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, to transmit to the Secretary at War a Copy signed by such Clerk of the Peace, of every Return and Certificate of Men raised to serve in the Army by virtue of this Act; and also to transmit to the Commissioners of the Admiralty a Copy, signed as aforesaid, of every Return and Certificate of Men raised to serve in the Navy by virtue of this Act; and where such Return or Certificate shall be omitted to be made, such Clerk of the Peace shall certify such Omission, both to the Secretary at War, and the Commissioners of the Admiralty, in like Manner, and also what Proceedings shall have been had at any Quarter Sessions in relation to the raising Substitutes, where the due Proportion of Men shall not have been raised by the respective Parishes charged therewith; and if any such Clerk of the Peace shall refuse, or wilfully neglect to receive, deliver, make, record, or transmit any such Returns as aforesaid, according to the Directions and true Meaning of this Act, every such Clerk of the Peace so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of five hundred Pounds.

Clerks of the Peace, within 14 Days after the Easter Quarter Sessions 1797, to transmit to the Secretary at War and Admiralty, Copies of Returns, and Certificates of Men raised to serve in the Army and Navy respectively, &c. on Penalty of 500 l.

XXXVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person shall be received or enrolled in his Majesty's Service, by virtue of this Act, who is not, in the Opinion of the Regulating Officer or Officers, such an able-bodied Man as is fit to serve his Majesty, and is free from Ruptures, and every other Distemper, or Bodily Weakness or Infirmity, which may render him unfit to perform his Duty in the Army or Navy; or who, in the Opinion of such Officer or Officers, shall appear to be under the Age of sixteen Years, or above the Age of forty-five Years; nor any Person being or having been, on or before the twentieth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, an articled Clerk or Apprentice; nor Persons serving under Articles in the Coal Trade, until the Expiration of the said Articles (unless with the Consent of the Master of such Clerk or Apprentice, or of the Master or such other Persons as aforesaid); nor any Person enlisted in any of his Majesty's Forces, whether Military or Marine, or who has deserted therefrom, or who is already entered in his Majesty's Navy; nor any poor Man (not being a Sea-faring Man) who has more than two Children born in Wedlock: Provided, that no Person enrolled by virtue of this Act shall, by reason of any such Disqualification as aforesaid, be liable to be discharged from his Majesty's Service, or taken out of the same, unless Notice in Writing of such Disqualification shall be given to the Officer or Officers under whose Command such Person shall be, before the Time of his entering into any Regiment, or on board any of his Majesty's Ships of War, and before the Bounty hereby authorized to be paid to Men raised by virtue of this Act shall have been paid or satisfied to him; any Thing before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Persons disqualified as herein specified, not to be enrolled;

but no such Person, if enrolled, shall be discharged, unless Notice of his Disqualification be given before his entering into a Regiment, or on board Ship, and before receiving Bounty.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Person enrolled by virtue of this Act, and entered into any Regiment or Independent Company of his Majesty's Army, shall be liable to serve therein during the Continuance of the present War, and for the Space of one Calendar Month after the End of the War, if the Regiment or Independent Company in which such Person shall be serving shall be in Great Britain, or otherwise for the Space of one Calendar Month next after their Arrival in Great Britain; and that every such Person entering into the Service of the Navy, shall be liable to serve therein during the Continuance of the present War, and for the Space of one Calendar Month after the End of the War, if the Ship on board which such Persons shall serve shall be in any of the Ports of Great Britain, or otherwise for the Space of one Calendar Month next after the Arrival of such Ship in any such Port.

Time for which Persons shall be liable to serve.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person, being enrolled in his Majesty's Naval Service by virtue of this Act, shall desert such Service, or, being actually entered in such Service, shall list himself in any Company, Troop, or Regiment, in his Majesty's Military or Marine Forces, without first having a Discharge in Writing from the said Commissioners of the Admiralty, or such Officer or Officers as shall be of them, by their Order in Writing, under their Hands and Seals, to appoint and constitute a Place or Places of Rendezvous for the Reception of Men enrolled by virtue of this Act.

for Reception of Men enrolled.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall falsely make Oath to any of the Matters herein before required to be verified, such Person or Persons shall suffer the like Pains and Penalties as are incurred by Persons committing wilful and corrupt Perjury; and that if any Person or Persons shall counterfeit, erase, alter, or falsify any Certificate or Return required or directed to be given or made by this Act, or shall knowingly or wilfully make use of any Certificate or Return so counterfeited, erased, altered, or falsified, such Person or Persons shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of five hundred Pounds.

Penalty for making false Oath, counterfeiting Certificates or Returns, &c.

XLVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person enrolled in his Majesty's Service, by virtue of this Act, shall be accused of any capital Crime, or of any Violence or Offence against the Person, Estate, or Property of any of his Majesty's Subjects, which is punishable by the known Laws of the Land, the Officer or Officers having the Command of such Party is and are hereby required to use his and their utmost Endeavours to deliver over such accused Person to the Civil Magistrate, and shall also be aiding and assisting to the Officers of Justice in seizing and apprehending such Offender, in order to bring him to Trial; and if any such Officer shall wilfully neglect or refuse, upon Application made to him for that Purpose, to deliver over such accused Person to the Civil Magistrate, or to be aiding and assisting to the Officers of Justice in the apprehending such Offender, every such Officer so offending, and being thereof convicted before any two or more Justices of the Peace for the County where the Fact is committed, by the Oath of two credible Witnesses, shall be utterly disabled to have or hold any Civil or Military Office or Employment within this Kingdom, or in his Majesty's Service; provided the said Conviction be affirmed at the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said County, and a Certificate thereof be transmitted to the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being.

Persons enrolled accused of Offences punishable by Law, shall be delivered over to the Civil Magistrate. Penalty on Officers not delivering over such Offenders, &c.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That no Person who shall be enrolled in his Majesty's Service by virtue of this Act, shall be liable to be taken out of his Majesty's Service by any Process whatever, other than by some criminal Process, for some criminal Matter punishable by the known Laws of the Land.

No Person enrolled shall be taken out of the Service but for a criminal Matter.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That the several Forms of Enrolment and of the Returns which the Justices of the Peace, and other Officers before mentioned, are required to cause to be made and returned of the Number of Men levied for his Majesty's Service, together with the other Particulars herein-before directed, shall be made as follows; videlicet, Enrolments and Returns to be made in the following Form.

Names of Men enrolled.	Volunteers or Substitutes.	Parishes for which they serve.	Parishes they belong to.	Ages.	Descriptions of their Persons.	Sums paid to Volunteers or Substitutes.	Sums directed to be paid to the Treasurer of the County, and to whom.	Days on which they were enrolled, and at what Places.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Servant whatever, hired by the Year or otherwise, shall be enrolled, and any Dispute shall arise between his Master or Mistress, Employer or Employers, and such Servant, touching any Sum or Sums of Money due to such Servant for or on account of his Service performed before the Time of such Enrolment, or to such Time as he shall be obliged to quit the Service of his said Master or Mistress, Employer or Employers, it shall and may be lawful, on Complaint made thereof to any Justice of the Peace for the County, City, Liberty, Town Corporate, or Place, where such Master or Mistress, Employer or Employers shall inhabit, for such Justice to hear and determine every such Complaint, and to examine upon Oath every such Servant, or any other Witness or Witnesses, touching the same, and to make such Order for the Payment of so much Wages to such Servant, in Proportion to the Service he has performed, as to such Justice shall seem just and reasonable; and in case of Refusal or Non-payment of any Sums so ordered, by the Space of seven Days next after such Determination, such Justice shall and may issue forth his Warrant to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such such Master or Mistress, Employer or Employers, rendering the Overplus to the Owner or Owners, after Payment of the Charges of such Distress and Sale.

This Act not to be a Precedent for diminishing the Rights of the City of London.

L. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That this Act, or any Thing herein contained, shall not be deemed or construed to be a Precedent on any future Occasion to diminish or be prejudicial to the Rights, Liberties, Customs, Privileges, Immunities, and Exemptions to which the Mayor and Commonalty, and Citizens of the City of London, or the Freemen, Citizens, or Inhabitants of the said City, are entitled to enjoy by Prescription, Act of Parliament, Charter, Usage, or otherwise howsoever.

How Fines exceeding 20 l. (except for not raising the Proportion of Men) shall be recovered; and how Fines not exceeding that Sum.

LI. And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures by this Act imposed, which shall exceed the Sum of twenty Pounds (except the Fines to be levied for not raising the Proportion of Men as herein-before is directed) shall be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or the Courts of Great Session in the Principality of Wales, or the Courts of the Counties Palatine of Chester, Lancaster, and Durham, (as the Case shall require,) wherein no Essoign, Privilege, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, shall be allowed; and that all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures by this Act imposed, which shall not exceed the Sum of twenty Pounds, shall, upon Proof upon Oath of the Offence before any two or more Justices of the Peace of the County or Place where the Offence shall be committed, be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of such Justices, rendering the Overplus (if any) on Demand, after deducting the Charges of such Distress and Sale, to the Person whose Goods and Chattels shall have been so distrained and sold; and for Want of sufficient Distress such Justices are hereby required, in all Cases where no particular Time of Commitment is herein-before directed, to commit such Offender to the Common Gaol of the County or Place where the Offence shall have been committed, for any Time not exceeding three Months; and the Money arising by all such Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, the Application whereof is not otherwise particularly directed by this Act, shall be paid, one Moiety thereof to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof, with full Costs of Suit, to him or them that will inform or sue for the same.

Offenders may be committed for Want of Distress.

Application of Fines.

No Order to be removed by Certiorari, nor Execution to be superseded.

LII. And be it further enacted, That no Order or Conviction made by any Justice or Justices of the Peace, by virtue of this Act, shall be removed by Certiorari into any Court whatsoever; and that no Writ of Certiorari shall supersede Execution, or other Proceedings upon any such Order or Conviction so made in pursuance of this Act, but that Execution and other Proceedings shall be had and made thereupon; any such Writ or Writs, or Allowance thereof, notwithstanding.

Clerks of the Peace, Treasurers, Clerks of Petty Sessions, Constables, &c. to receive such Rewards as the Quarter Sessions shall judge proper, who shall direct Payment out of the County Rates; and if they shall be insufficient, they may make a Rate for the Payment.

LIII. And be it further enacted, That the respective Clerks of the Peace, Treasurers, Clerks of Justices, at Petty Sessions, Constables, and other Officers, who are hereby respectively required to execute this Act in any of the Particulars herein mentioned, and who shall respectively execute the same to the Satisfaction of the Justices of the Peace, at their respective Quarter Sessions assembled within the said Counties, Cities, Towns, Cinque Ports, Liberties, and Places herein mentioned, shall have and receive such Rewards, and no other (except such Rewards as shall be directed to be paid to any Person for his Pains or Charges in raising Substitutes as herein-before is directed) for their Care and Trouble in and about the executing this Act, and for their respective Expences and Charges in the same, as the said Justices shall judge the said Officers to have deserved; and the said Justices shall, after Allowance thereof, direct the same to be paid by the Treasurer, or other Officer of such County, out of any Money in his Hands of the County Rates; and if such Treasurer or Officer shall not have sufficient Money in his Hands of the County Rates to pay the same, then such Justices shall, and are hereby authorized and required, to make a Rate for the Payment of the same, in such Manner and Form as they are authorized by Law to make Rates for the Repair of Gaols or County Bridges, or any other Purposes for which the Rate commonly called The County Rate is or may by Law be applicable.

If a Place united with any County is not liable to the County Rates, the Justices shall ascertain the Proportion which it ought to pay.

LIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any District, Town, Liberty, or Place, which is hereby united with any County for the Purposes of this Act, is not liable to such County Rate, then the said Justices hereby appointed for the carrying into Execution the Purposes of this Act, shall, and they are hereby authorized and required, jointly to ascertain the Proportions of such Rate which ought to be defrayed by such District, Town, Liberty, or Place, according to the Number of inhabited Houses paying Taxes within the same, and the Amount so ascertained shall be levied within such District, Town, Liberty, or Place, by the Justices thereof, by a Rate, in the same Manner as any Justices might in a County levy Money for County Purposes.

The Justices at their first Meeting shall direct County Treasurers to whom Money shall have been directed to be paid in pursuance of 35 Geo. III. Cap. 5, to render an Account, in the Form directed by 36 Geo. 3. c. 115, of Monies received, and pay Balances, to the Receiver General, and shall transmit the Account to the Navy Office.

LV. And be it enacted, That the Justices of the Peace at their first Meeting, for the Purposes of carrying this Act into Execution, shall direct, and are hereby required to direct the Treasurer or Treasurers of the County to whom any Sum or Sums of Money shall have been directed to be paid on account of Bounty or Fines, in pursuance of an Act of the thirty-fifth Year of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for raising a certain Number of Men in the several Counties in England for the Service of his Majesty's Navy, to render an Account (in the Form directed by an Act to enforce the due Execution of the before-recited Act) of all and every Sum and Sums of Money whatever that shall have been paid to the said Treasurer or Treasurers on account of Bounty and Fines as aforesaid, and shall also direct the Balance or Residue of such Bounty and Fines to be forthwith paid into the Hands of the Receiver General of the County, and shall also transmit the said Accounts to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy, or any three of them, to demand from the Treasurer or Treasurers of any County, Riding, or Division, such Sum or Sums of Money as shall have been paid into the Hands of such Treasurer or Treasurers, as a Bounty or Bounties on account of any Man or Men entering to serve in the Navy in pursuance of this Act, and to direct the same to be paid into the Hands of the Treasurer of the Navy; for which Payments so made the said Commissioners, or any three of them, are hereby authorized to give a full Discharge in pursuance of this Act; and such Monies shall be applied to the Payment of Bounty or Bounties herein directed to be paid, under the Control of the said Commissioners, to Volunteers who are entered and rated on board the Ships in which they are intended to serve.

Commissioners of the Navy may direct County Treasurers to pay Monies received as Bounties to Men entering into the Navy, to the Treasurer of the Navy, to be applied in Payment of Bounties to Volunteers.

LVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person appointed, or to be appointed, an Overseer of any Parish during the Continuance of this Act, shall be of the People called Quakers, and shall neglect or refuse to perform the Duties required of Overseers by this Act, it shall and may be lawful for two Justices of the Peace of the District where such Parish is situate, and they are hereby required, in all Cases where the Circumstances of the Case shall, in their Judgment, render it expedient, by their Order, under their Hands and Seals, to appoint one or two fit and proper Person or Persons to be Deputy Overseer or Overseers of such Parish, for the Purpose only of carrying this Act into Execution; and such Persons so appointed Deputies shall have and exercise all the Powers and Jurisdiction given to Overseers of the Poor by this Act, and shall do and perform all the like Duties and Offices under the like Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as are hereby imposed for Neglect of Duty on Overseers of the Poor appointed by virtue of the Laws now in Force; and that where an Appointment of any Deputy shall be so made, the principal Overseer (being one of the People called Quakers) shall be, and he is hereby discharged from the Performance of any Duty required of him by this Act, and from all Penalties incurred for Neglect thereof after the Time of such Appointment.

If any Quaker shall be appointed an Overseer, and shall neglect his Duty, two Justices may appoint a Deputy Overseer for carrying Act into Execution.

LVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That whenever any Bounty or Bounties shall have been paid out of the Rates raised for the Relief of the Poor of any Parish, the same shall be reimbursed by a Rate specially made under the Authority and for the Purposes of this Act; and it shall be lawful for any two Justices of the Peace of the County where such Parish is situate, on the Complaint of any Parishioner that the Money so paid out of the Rate made for the Relief of the Poor hath not been reimbursed, and they are hereby required to order and direct the Overseers of such Parish forthwith to make a Rate to reimburse the same.

Bounties paid out of the Poor Rates, to be reimbursed by a special Rate.

LIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Action shall be brought against any Person or Persons for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, such Action or Suit shall be commenced within six Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and shall be laid in the County or Place where the Cause of Complaint did arise, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in every such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon; and if the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants in any such Action or Suit, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be nonsuited, or discontinue his or their Action or Suit after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if upon Demurrer Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendant hath in other Cases to recover Costs by Law.

Limitation of Actions.

General Issue.

Treble Costs.

LX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, varied, or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

This Act may be altered or repealed this Session. See post, Chap. 24.

LXI. And be it further enacted, That the Forms of the Proceedings relative to the several Matters contained in this Act, which are set forth and expressed in the Schedule hereunto annexed, may be used on all Occasions, with such Additions and Variations only as may be necessary to adapt them to the particular Exigencies of the Case, and that no Objection shall be made, or Advantage taken, for Want of Form, in any such Proceedings, by any Person or Persons whatever.

Forms in the annexed Schedule may be used.

No Objection to be made for Want of Form.

His Majeſty may appoint Officers to regulate the Admiſſion of Men.

II. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for his Majeſty to conſtitute and appoint ſo many Officers to regulate the Admiſſion of Men to be levied under the Authority of this Act, for his Majeſty's Service, as his Majeſty ſhall deem neceſſary, who being ſo reſpectively appointed, ſhall eſtabliſh within their reſpective Diſtricts a convenient Place or Places of Rendezvous in each ſuch Diſtrict, for the Reception of ſuch Men; and every ſuch Man, ſo to be levied, ſhall, before his Enrolment, be examined by one ſuch Regulating Officer at the leaſt, as to his Ability to ſerve his Majeſty; and every ſuch Officer ſhall have the full Power of approving or of rejecting any Man tendered to ſerve his Majeſty, ſubject nevertheleſs to ſuch Control and Superintendance as by this Act is particularly directed.

Clerks of the Peace to ſummon a General Seſſion of the Juſtices; who ſhall aſcertain the Rent of Pariſhes, and thence apportion the Number of Men to be raiſed for each County.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Clerks of the Peace of the ſaid ſeveral Counties and Stewartries in Scotland (excepting the Counties of Inverneſs, Roſs, Cromarty, Sutherland, and Caithneſs, and the Stewartry of Orkney and Zetland) ſhall, within thirty Days after the paſſing of this Act, and the Clerks of the Peace of the ſaid Counties of Inverneſs, Roſs, Cromarty, Sutherland, and Caithneſs, and of the ſaid Stewartry of Orkney and Zetland, ſhall, within fifty Days after the paſſing of this Act, or ſooner if it can be done, cauſe an Advertiſement to be publiſhed in ſome one Newſpaper publiſhed, or uſually circulated within the County, ſummoning the Juſtices of the Peace of the ſaid different Counties and Stewartries to meet in General Seſſion upon a Day to be mentioned in ſuch Advertiſement, and at the uſual Place where the Juſtices of each County ſeverally are accuſtomed to meet; and the Juſtices, when aſſembled at ſuch Meeting, ſhall proceed to diſtinguiſh and aſcertain the valued Rent of the different Pariſhes within the County or Stewartry, and apportion the Number of Men to be raiſed for each County or Stewartry upon the ſeveral Pariſhes, according to the Proportion which the Valuation of ſuch Pariſh bears to the total Valuation of the County; and the ſaid Juſtices ſhall have Power to adjourn till the Duty incumbent on them by this Act is fully diſcharged, ſo as ſuch Adjournment ſhall only be from Day to Day, Sundays excepted.

The Juſtices' Clerk to tranſmit to Pariſh Miniſters an Intimation to be read from the Pulpit, requiring Heritors to meet for procuring Men, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted, That immediately after making ſuch Apportionment in each Shire or Stewartry, the Juſtices of the Peace in and for the ſame ſhall cauſe their Clerk to tranſmit to the Miniſters of the ſeveral Pariſhes within the Shire or Stewartry, other than Pariſhes comprehended within the Royal Burghs and Towns herein-before mentioned, an Intimation to be read from the Pulpit the firſt Day of Divine Service after receiving the ſame, requiring the Heritors of the Pariſh to meet, by themſelves or Agents, within ten Days from the Time of the Intimation being ſo made at the Pariſh Church or Manſe of the ſaid Pariſh; and the Heritors, or their ſaid Agents, ſhall meet accordingly, and at ſuch Meeting ſhall direct ſuch Meaſures to be taken as to them ſhall ſeem moſt expedient to procure the Number of Men apportioned on the Pariſh, by the Payment of Bounty Money, and to have the Men procured delivered over to the Regulating Officer appointed to paſs and receive them, within fifteen Days after the Meeting; and and in case the said Number of Days shall elapse without the Quota of Men apportioned upon the Parish being produced, delivered over, and passed, then the Heritors of such Parish shall be liable, in the first Instance, to pay unto the Collector of the Cess for the County or Stewartry within which the Parish is situated, a Sum of Money equal to twenty-five Pounds Sterling for each Man of the Quota required from the Parish deficient, such Deficiency being certified under the Hand of the Regulating Officer of the District, and Copies of his Certificate delivered to the Minister of the Parish, and to the Clerk of the Peace for the Shire or Stewartry in which the Parish is situated; and in case the said Heritors shall fail to make such Payment within the Time above-mentioned, then the Justices of the Peace of the County or Stewartry shall immediately assess the Parish in the Sum due for its Deficiency at the Rate aforesaid, according to the valued Rent of the Parish, ascertained by them in Manner aforesaid, and shall order the Collector of the Land Tax for such County or Stewartry, and he is hereby authorized and required, without Loss of Time, to recover the same from the Heritors of such Parish, in the same Manner, and by the same Means, as he is empowered by Law to recover and render the Land Tax effectual.

Heritors to pay 25*l.* for each Man deficient of Quota; and if not paid, the Justices to assess the Parishes for Deficiencies.

V. And be it enacted, That the Bounty Monies to Men procured by the Heritors of the several Parishes, shall, in the first Place, be provided and paid by the said Heritors, and an Account kept thereof; and at the Elapse of the Time before-mentioned, when the Sum of twenty-five Pounds for each Man then deficient is appointed to be recovered and paid as aforesaid, in order to defray the Expence of the Bounties to be given to the said Men, it shall be lawful to the Heritors in the said Parishes, or such of them as have advanced the Bounty Monies, or to any Person authorized by them, to raise a Sum equal to the Whole of the Money so advanced and paid by them upon the Parish agreeably to the Act of the Parliament of Scotland, which was passed in the Reign of Charles the Second, in the Year one thousand six hundred and sixty-three, Chapter Sixteen, and the Proclamations of the Privy Council of Scotland in the Reign of King William, ratified by an Act of the Parliament of Scotland, which was passed in the same Reign, first September one thousand six hundred and ninety-eight, Chapter twenty-first.

Bounties to be paid by the Heritors, who may raise the Amount on the Parishes.

VI. And be it enacted, That in the Case aforesaid of the Number of Men allotted to any Parish not being raised, and delivered over as above directed, within the Time before limited, and the Sum of twenty-five Pounds for each deficient Man being raised from the Heritors as before directed, then the Heritors paying shall be, and they are hereby authorized to assess the Tenants, Inhabitants, and Possessors, of such Parish, in a Moiety of the Sum so paid, to be levied in the same Manner as they are empowered to do by the aforesaid Acts of the Parliament of Scotland.

Heritors paying for deficient Men may assess Inhabitants in a Moiety of the Sum.

VII. And be it enacted, That in case any Person or Persons shall refuse or delay to pay his, her, or their Proportion of the Sum or Sums so assessed or imposed, within the Time appointed for Payment thereof, the same shall, upon a Complaint to the Sheriff or Stewart Depute of the Shire or Stewartry, or his Substitute, by the Procurator Fiscal of the County or Stewartry, be recovered and rendered effectual by Distress and Sale of the Effects of the Person or Persons refusing or delaying so to pay.

Assessments may be recovered by Distress.

VIII. And be it enacted, That in all Cases where there is not sufficient Evidence of the valued Rent of Lands, the Apportionments and Assessments hereby directed shall be made according to the customary Payment of the Cess or Land Tax, or in such other Way as to the Justices of the Peace of each Shire or Stewartry, assembled as aforesaid, shall seem best; and in case there be no acting Justice of the Peace within any District, the Duty and Powers by this Act made incumbent on or given to the Justices, shall be performed and exercised by the Sheriff Depute or Substitute for such District, and the Duties of the Clerk of the Peace by the Sheriff or Stewart Clerk, or his Deputies.

Where there is no Evidence of the Rent of Lands, Assessments to be made according to the Land Tax, and where no Justices act, Sheriff Depute to act, &c.

IX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Justices at their said Meetings to add together, whenever they shall think it necessary, two or more Parishes, for the raising any Man or Number of Men in pursuance of this Act, so as to make the Charge as equal and impartial, and convenient as possible; and the Heritors of the Parishes so added together, or their Agents, shall proceed to raise the Proportion of Men allotted for the same, and to raise the Money necessary; and all the other Proceedings directed by this Act shall take place in like Manner as if the Parishes so joined did originally or by Law form but one Parish; and the Justices shall, in the Case of such Junction, direct where the Heritors of the Parishes joined shall meet; and the said Heritors are hereby directed and required to meet at the Place so appointed accordingly, by themselves or their Agents.

Justices may add together two or more Parishes for raising Men, &c.

X. And be it further enacted, That where any Parish lies in two or more Counties or Stewartries, the Charge imposed on such Parish for raising Men for his Majesty's Service by this Act, shall be in the Shire or Stewartry where the Church belonging to such Parish is situated, and the Whole of such Parish shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be deemed Part of the said Shire or Stewartry; and all the Money to be levied for or in respect of such Parish, in pursuance of this Act, shall be paid to and recovered by the Officers of the same.

The Charge for raising Men in a Parish lying in two Counties to be made in that where the Church is situate.

XI. And be it enacted, That in case any Regulating Officer shall fail to make his Certificate, and to cause Copies thereof to be delivered as herein-before directed, he shall, for every such Failure, be liable in the Penalty of thirty-one Pounds ten Shillings, to be recovered by summary Complaint made by the Procurator Fiscal of the County or Stewartry to the Sheriff or Stewart Depute; and in case the Procurator Fiscal shall fail in his Duty in any of the Articles before mentioned, then he shall be liable in a Penalty of thirty-one Pounds ten Shillings for each Failure, to be recovered by a summary Complaint to the Sheriff or Stewart Penalty on Regulating Officer or Procurator Fiscal for Neglect.

Orders of Sheriffs, &c. to be final.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the Orders or Decrees of the Sheriffs or Stewarts Depute, and of the Juſtices of the Peace, in any of the Caſes before-mentioned, and in all Proceedings held under this Act, ſhall be final and concluſive as to all Parties, and ſhall not be removeable by Bill of Suſpenſion, Advocation, or any other Form or Proceſs of Law, into any ſuperior or other Court whatſoever.

Magiſtrates, within a limited Time, to take Meaſures for levying Men, and may levy Money to pay Bounties.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the Magiſtrates of the ſeveral Cities, Royal Burghs, Towns, and Places, in this Act mentioned, except thoſe to the Northward of Inverneſs, ſhall, within twenty Days after the paſſing of this Act, and the Magiſtrates of the ſeveral Cities, Burghs, Towns, and other Places, in this Act mentioned, ſituated North of Inverneſs, ſhall, within forty Days after paſſing of the ſame, or ſooner if it can be done, take ſuch Meaſures as ſhall ſeem to them moſt expedient for levying the Number of able-bodied Men, according to the Proportions herein-before allotted for each of the ſaid Cities, Royal Burghs, Towns, and other Places; and they ſhall be, and they are hereby authorized to levy from the Heritors, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants, of ſuch Cities, Burghs, Towns, and other Places, a Sum not exceeding twenty-five Pounds per Man, for paying the Bounties they may ſee proper to give to ſuch Men as are actually levied, not exceeding the Numbers allotted for ſuch City, Burgh, Town, or other Places, by this Act, in ſuch Manner, and by the Proportions as is hereinafter directed; and the Men ſo levied ſhall be delivered over by the ſaid Magiſtrates to the Regulating Officer appointed to act for that Place in Manner aforeſaid.

If the Complement of Men is not raiſed within a limited Time, the Magiſtrates to aſſeſs the Heritors and Inhabitants for the Deficiency.

XIV. And be it enacted, That in caſe the Magiſtrates of any of the ſaid Cities, Royal Burghs, Towns, or other Places, ſhall not have raiſed its full Complement of Men accepted of by the Regulating Officer, within thirty Days after they are herein-before directed to take Meaſures for that End, then the ſaid Magiſtrates ſhall ſtent and aſſeſs the Heritors and Inhabitants in a Sum equal to twenty-five Pounds for each Man deficient, and ſhall levy the Sum ſo aſſeſſed in the Manner, and according to the Proportions hereinafter directed; and the ſaid Sum ſhall be paid to the Collector of the Ceſs for ſuch City, Burgh, or Town, or where there is no Collector of the Ceſs for ſuch City, Burgh, or Town, then to the Collector of the Ceſs for the Shire or Stewartry within which ſuch City, Burgh, Town, or other Place, is ſituated, to anſwer and pay the Bounty Money given to Men levied to ſupply the Deficiency, until the whole Number allotted for ſuch City, Burgh, Town, or Place, ſhall be completed.

Magiſtrates neglecting to make Aſſeſſments for Deficiencies to be perſonally liable.

XV. And be it enacted, That in caſe the Magiſtrates of any of the ſaid Cities, Burghs, Towns, or other Places, ſhall neglect or refuſe to aſſeſs and ſtent the Heritors and Inhabitants thereof, for the Sums of Money for which ſuch City, Burgh, Town, or Place, may be liable in caſe of Deficiency as aforeſaid, or to levy, apply, and pay over the ſame in Manner and for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, then the Magiſtrates of ſuch City, Burgh, Town, or Place, making Default, ſhall be perſonally liable in a Penalty equal to the Sum deficient, to be recovered by ſummary Complaint to the Sheriff Depute, at the Inſtance of the Procurator Fiſcal of the Sheriff Court, within the Juriſdiction whereof ſuch City, Burgh, Town, or Place, making Default, is ſituated; and the Sums ſo recovered ſhall be paid over and applicable in the ſame Way that the Sums are by this Act directed to be applied in the Caſe of the Magiſtrates levying the ſame from the Heritors and Inhabitants.

Treaſury to cauſe Liſts to be prepared of the Number of inhabited Houſes within the Limits of Cities, &c. aſſeſſed to the Duties on Houſes, &c. and to be forwarded to the Chief Magiſtrates, who ſhall apportion the Sums to be levied.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, for the Time being, ſhall cauſe to be prepared true Liſts of the Number of all the inhabited Houſes within the Limits of any of the Cities, Royal Burghs, Towns, Pariſhes, and Places, particularly above ſpecified, which are aſſeſſed and pay to the Duties on inhabited Houſes, or to the Duties on Houſes, Windows, or Lights, by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force, and ſhall forthwith cauſe the ſame to be forwarded by the reſpective Surveyors or other proper Officers of the ſaid Duties, to the Chief Magiſtrate of each of the ſaid Cities, Royal Burghs, Towns, Pariſhes, or other Places reſpectively; and where there are no ſuch Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, to the Juſtices of Peace, Clerk of the County or Stewartry, within which ſuch Town, Village, or Place, is reſpectively ſituated; and the Magiſtrates of the ſaid Cities, Royal Burghs, Towns, Pariſhes, and other Places, and the Juſtices of the Peace of the County or Stewartry, within which ſuch Towns, Villages, or Places above deſcribed, are reſpectively ſituated, duly and regularly aſſembled, ſhall, as ſoon after the Receipt of ſuch Liſts, as conveniently may be, reſpectively proceed to apportion among the Inhabitants of the ſaid Cities, Royal Burghs, Towns, Pariſhes, and Places, as nearly and equally as may be, the Sums of Money appointed to be levied by this Act either for Bounties to Men raiſed in purſuance of this Act, or for Fines or Penalties incurred for Default of raiſing the Proportion of Men reſpectively above ſpecified; and the ſaid Magiſtrates aſſembled as aforeſaid, are hereby reſpectively authorized and required to divide and apportion the ſaid Bounties, Fines, or Penalties reſpectively, as near as may be, in ſuch Proportions as the Number of inhabited Houſes aſſeſſed to and paying the ſaid Duties in each City, Royal Burgh, Town, Pariſh, or Place, ſhall bear to each other: Provided always, that where, from the inconſiderable Number of inhabited Houſes aſſeſſed as aforeſaid, contained in any Royal Burgh, Town, Village, or Place, the ſaid Liſt ſhall appear to the Magiſtrates of the ſaid Burgh, Town, Village, or Place, or to the Juſtices of the Peace, as the Caſe may be, within which the ſame are reſpectively ſituated, either totally inapplicable, or not affording an equal and impartial Rule for apportioning among the Inhabitants of the ſame, the ſaid Bounties, Fines, or Penalties, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Magiſtrates and Juſtices reſpectively, and they are hereby commanded and required to apportion the ſaid Bounties, Fines, or Penalties, among the Inhabitants of the same, in such Manner and by such Rule as to them shall seem most expedient, and as may render the Operation of this Act, in such Cases, as equal and impartial as possible: Provided always, that it shall be in the Power of any Inhabitant of such Burgh, Town, Village, or Place, conceiving himself aggrieved by the Assessment imposed by any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace above mentioned, to appeal from the same to a General Meeting of the Justices of the Peace, of the County or Stewartry within which such Burgh, Town, Village, or Place, is respectively situated; provided the said Appeal be entered within ten Days after written Notice has been given by the said Magistrates or Justices, or Person authorized by them, of the Rate or Assessment proposed to be put upon such Inhabitant; and the Order or Decree of the said General Meeting of Justices shall be final and conclusive as to all Parties, and shall not be removeable by Bill of Suspension, Advocation, or any other Form or Process of Law, into any superior or other Court whatsoever.

Where the Liſt ſhall appear inapplicable, the Magiſtrates or Juſtices may apportion the Levies as to them ſhall ſeem expedient.

Appeal may be made to a General Meeting of Justices.

Their Decree to be final.

XVII. And be it enacted, That where Parishes are partly Landward and partly within Burgh, the Landward Part of the Parish, whether holden of the Burgh or not, or whether paying Cess to or with the Burgh or not, shall be considered as Part of the Shire or Stewartry liable for its Proportion of the Men allotted by this Act to be raised in or for the same, and the Part within Burgh shall be included in the Allotment for the Burgh.

The Landward Part of the Parishes to be deemed Part of the Shire, and the Part within the Burgh, Part of the Burgh.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That when any Doubt shall arise what Part of any Parish ought to contribute and be assessed within the County or Stewartry of which it is a Part, and what Part of it is included and ought to contribute and be assessed as Part of the City, Royal Burgh, Town, Village, or Place, particularly and respectively above specified, it shall be in the Power of a General Meeting of the Justices of the Peace of the County or Stewartry within which such City, Royal Burgh, Town, Village, or Place, is situated, duly assembled at a General Meeting, and of which due Notice shall be given by Advertisement or otherwise, in order that all concerned may attend, to fix, ascertain, and determine, from the List of inhabited and assessed Houses, or from such other Evidence as the Nature of each Case respectively admits, what Part of such Parish falls to contribute and be assessed with the County or Stewartry, and what Part and Right in pursuance of this Act to contribute and be assessed, as Part of the City, Royal Burgh, Town, Village, or Place, respectively; and such Order or Judgment may, at the Suit of any Party conceiving himself aggrieved, be removed by Bill of Advocation, Suspension, or other usual Process of Law, into the Court of Session; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

General Meeting of Justices may determine what Part of any Parish ought to be assessed within the County, and what Part within the City, &c.

Their Order may be removed into the Court of Session.

XIX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, or any Sheriff or Stewart Depute, or Substitute, or Chief Magistrate, resident in any City, Burgh, or Town, in this Act mentioned, before whom any Person shall be brought to be examined touching his Consent to enter into his Majesty's Service, to direct that any Sum, not exceeding one third Part of the Bounty agreed to be paid to him on his engaging to serve, shall be advanced to such Person, or to such of his Family, and in such Proportions, as he shall request at the Time of his Enrolment herein-after mentioned; and that the Residue of such Bounty shall be paid into the Hands of the Collector of the Cess for the Shire or Stewartry, Burgh, or Town, to which the said Person belongs, or for which he is inlisted, there to remain until the same shall become payable to such Person, on his being enrolled in some Regiment, or mustered on board any of his Majesty's Ships of War.

Justices, &c. may direct a Third of Bounties to be advanced to Volunteers on their Examination, and the Residue to be paid the Collector of the Cess.

XX. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall agree to enter himself as a Volunteer in either of such Services as aforesaid, shall be produced before the Officer or Officers appointed to regulate the same Service, at the nearest Place of Rendezvous to any Parish or Place for which such Volunteer shall agree to serve; and in case such Officer or Officers shall, on Examination, approve of such Volunteer to serve his Majesty, then such Volunteer or Volunteers may forthwith be brought before any such Justice, Sheriff Depute, or Substitute, or Chief Magistrate, resident as aforesaid, acting in and for the Parish or Place; and in case it shall appear to such Justice, Sheriff Depute, or Substitute, or Magistrate, that such Person or Persons hath or have voluntarily entered himself or themselves in the Service of his Majesty as aforesaid, then they are hereby required forthwith to certify, under their Hands, that such Person or Persons hath or have voluntarily entered himself or themselves in the Service of his Majesty's Army or Navy, as the Case may be, and at the Foot of such Certificate enter the Amount of the Sums to be paid as Bounty or Bounties to such Volunteer or Volunteers, on his or their entering into such Service, and the Sums (if any) which have been directed to be advanced to him or them at the Time of his or their Enrolment; and which Certificates shall be delivered to such Regulating Officer, and he shall thereupon cause such Person or Persons to be enrolled in his Majesty's Military or Naval Service, as the Case may require.

Volunteers to be brought before the nearest Regulating Officer, and, if approved by him, taken before a Justice, &c. who shall certify their entering, and state the Amount of the Bounties paid, &c.

Certificates to be delivered to the Officer, who shall cause the Men to be enrolled.

XXI. And be it enacted, That in case the Regulating Officer at the nearest Place of Rendezvous aforesaid, shall reject any Person or Persons produced before him as such Volunteer or Volunteers, as unfit to serve his Majesty in either of the said Services, and the Heritors of any Parish, or Magistrates of any Burgh or Town, for which such Person or Persons shall have been tendered to serve, shall think themselves aggrieved by the Rejection, it shall and may be lawful for any one of such Heritors or Magistrates to apply, by summary Complaint, to the Sheriff or Stewart Depute, or Substitute, of the Shire or Stewartry, who shall cause the said Complaint to be served on the said Regulating Officer or Officers, directing him to answer the same within a Time to be limited, not exceeding six Days, and he or they, on receiving such Notice, shall, and they are hereby required, before the Time of hearing the Matter of the said Complaint, to set down his Reasons in Writing for such Rejection, and such Writing being exhibited to the Sheriff or Stewart Deputes.

If Regulating Officer reject a Volunteer, the Heritors or Magistrates may appeal to the Sheriff, &c.

Regulating Officer to write his Reasons for Rejection.

Sheriff's Order final.

If Men are not procured by the Heritors or Magiſtrates, certain Perſons may produce Subſtitutes, or Volunteers may offer themſelves to a Juſtice, &c. who ſhall ſettle the Bounty, &c. and order the Collector of the Ceſs to pay it.

XXII. And be it enacted, That in all Caſes where Default ſhall be made in procuring and delivering Men by the Heritors or Magiſtrates as aforeſaid, it ſhall be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons, having Authority under his Majeſty to provide Men for the Service of the Army or Navy, to produce any Perſon or Perſons, Subſtitute or Subſtitutes, or for any ſuch Perſon or Perſons voluntarily to come before any Juſtice of the Peace, Sheriff or Stewart Depute, or Subſtitute, or Chief Magiſtrate reſident of the County, Diſtrict, or Place reſpectively for which they are produced or come, and be examined as to their Conſent to ſerve in his Majeſty's Army or Navy, as Subſtitutes for ſuch Pariſhes or Places reſpectively, and who ſhall, and they are hereby authorized and required to ſettle the Bounty or Bounties to be paid for ſuch Subſtitutes; ſuch Bounty or Bounties, including the Expences incurred in providing the ſaid Subſtitutes, not to exceed the aforeſaid Sum of twenty-five Pounds Sterling; and ſuch Juſtices ſhall, in caſe any ſuch Perſons ſhall be approved of by the Regulating Officer as aforeſaid, certify ſuch Conſent and Approbation, and the Bounties agreed to be paid, in the Manner hereinbefore directed with reſpect to Volunteers; and the ſaid Juſtices ſhall thereupon make an Order upon the Collector of the Ceſs for the Shire or Stewartry, or Burgh or Town, for which ſuch Subſtitute is enrolled, to pay the Bounty Money out of the Money in the Hands of ſuch Collector ariſing from the Aſſeſſments made for and in the Pariſh or Place for which ſuch Subſtitute or Subſtitutes is or are admitted.

Certificates or Copies to be tranſmitted with the Perſons enrolled to the Commanding Officer, who ſhall make out a Ticket for the Bounty due, &c. (See Cap. 43; the County Quota Act.)

XXIII. And be it enacted, That every ſuch Certificate ſo granted, or a full and true Copy thereof, ſigned by the Regulating Officer, ſhall in all Caſes be tranſmitted along with the Perſon enrolled, and delivered to the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Company, or of the Ship or Veſſel in which ſuch Perſon ſhall be entered to ſerve; and ſuch Commanding Officer ſhall, within four Days from the Time of ſuch Perſon being admitted into any Regiment, and before ſuch Volunteer ſhall be compelled to go out of the County for which he ſhall ſerve; or from the Time of ſuch Perſon joining ſuch Regiment, which ſhall firſt happen, or from the Time of ſuch Perſon being muſtered and rated on board any Ship, and before ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall proceed to Sea, as the Caſe may be, make out a Ticket or Tickets for the Payment of the Bounty Money agreed to be paid to ſuch Perſon, and then remaining due, in ſuch Manner as if ſuch Money had become due to ſuch Perſon on account of Arrears of Wages as a Seaman on board ſuch Ship or Veſſel, and ſuch Bounty Money ſhall and may be paid to ſuch Perſon, or to his Family, in the Manner directed in reſpect of Men enrolled in England, as directed by an Act paſſed in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for raiſing a certain Number of Men in the ſeveral Counties of England, for the Service of his Majeſty's Army and Navy, and ſhall be reimburſed to the Perſon ſo paying the ſame, by the Collector of the Ceſs for the particular Shire, Stewartry, Burgh, or Town.

Certain Perſons diſqualified to be enrolled:

XXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Perſon ſhall be received or enrolled in his Majeſty's Service by virtue of this Act, who is not, in the Opinion of the Regulating Officer or Officers, ſuch an able-bodied Man as is fit to ſerve his Majeſty, and is free from Ruptures, and every other Diſtemper or Infirmity which may render him unfit to perform his Duty in the Army or Navy; and who, in the Opinion of ſuch Officer or Officers, ſhall appear to be under the Age of ſixteen Years, or above the Age of forty-five Years; nor any Perſon being an articled Clerk or Apprentice (unleſs with the Conſent of the Maſter of ſuch Clerk or Apprentice); nor any Perſon inliſted in any of his Majeſty's Forces, or already entered in his Majeſty's Navy; nor any Deſerter: Provided that no Perſon enrolled by virtue of this Act ſhall, by Reaſon of any ſuch Diſqualification, as being a Clerk, or Apprentice, or inliſted or entered, or being a Deſerter, be liable to be diſcharged from his Majeſty's Service, or taken out of the ſame, unleſs Notice in Writing of ſuch Diſqualification ſhall be given to the Officer or Officers under whoſe Command ſuch Perſon ſhall be, before the Time of his entering into any Regiment, or on board any of his Majeſty's Ships of War, and before the Bounty hereby authorized to be paid, or any Part thereof, ſhall have been paid or ſatisfied to him.

But no Perſon if enrolled ſhall be diſcharged as being an articled Clerk, &c. unleſs Notice of Diſqualification be given before his entering and the Bounty paid.

Regulations of 37 Geo. III. Cap. 4. reſpecting Deſerters from the Naval Service in England, to extend to this Act.

XXV. And be it enacted, That all the Regulations eſtabliſhed by the aforeſaid Act of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for raiſing a certain Number of Men in the ſeveral Counties of England, for the Service of his Majeſty's Army and Navy, againſt Deſerters from his Majeſty's Naval Service for England, and againſt Perſons harbouring or concealing Deſerters, and for billetting Officers and Men, ſhall attach upon and be conſtrued to comprehend the Caſes of Perſons enrolled in his Majeſty's Naval Service in Scotland, and the Officers commanding them, by virtue of this Act.

Expences in executing this Act to be defrayed by the reſpective Counties.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That all the Expences incurred in the Execution of this Act in Scotland (including ſuch Gratifications for the Trouble of the Clerks of the Peace, and other Officers, who are reſpectively required to execute this Act, as ſhall be deemed adequate for their Trouble by the Juſtices of the Peace or Sheriff Depute, or Subſtitute, or reſident Chief Magiſtrate as aforeſaid) ſhall be defrayed by the ſeveral Counties, Stewartries, Burghs, Towns, and Places ſeverally; and the Collectors of the Land Tax in the ſeveral Counties, Stewartries, and Burghs, are hereby empowered to aſſeſs and levy the ſaid Expence along with the Land Tax, according to the Rules and Proportions herein-before mentioned.

Collectors of the Land Tax may advance Bounties.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That until the Money to be raiſed by virtue of this Act ſhall be actually recovered and paid in to the ſeveral Collectors, that the reſpective Collectors of the Land Tax, out of the Publick Money in their Hands, ſhall, and are hereby authorized and required to advance and pay ſuch Sums Sums as may be necessary for Payment of Bounties to such Persons as shall be approved of by the Regulating Officers.

Persons receiving Money under this Act to be liable as Publick Accountants.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Collectors of the Cess in the several Counties, Stewartries, Burghs, and Towns, herein-before mentioned, and all other Persons into whose Hands Money raised or contributed under or in pursuance of this Act shall be paid, shall be liable for the same as Publick Accountants; and all Surplus Money remaining, after satisfying the Purposes of this Act, shall be at the Disposal of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, to be applied in providing Men for the Augmentation of his Majesty's Army or Navy, in such Manner as in their Discretion shall seem expedient; and the usual Process shall and may issue for compelling an Account and Payment thereof.

Surplus Money to be at the Disposal of the Treasury, &c.

By April 5, 1797, the Collectors of the Cess to transmit Accounts of Money levied, and of Balances in Hand, to the Receiver General of the Land Tax in Scotland, who shall forward them to the Treasury. Penalty of 500l. on Collectors failing to transmit Accounts.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That the Collectors of the Cess within the said several Counties, Stewartries, Cities, Burghs, and Towns, shall, on or before the fifth Day of April in the Year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, transmit to the Receiver General of the Land Tax in Scotland an Account of the Sums levied by them either for Bounties to Men actually raised, or for Fines and Penalties incurred in default of raising Men in pursuance of this Act, and stating what Sums of Money remain in their Hands unappropriated to the Purposes herein-before directed; and the said Receiver General shall forthwith transmit the said respective Accounts so received as aforesaid, to the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, and each Collector failing to transmit to the said Receiver General the said Accounts, shall incur the Penalty of five hundred Pounds Sterling, such Penalty to be recovered by summary Complaint before the Court of Session, or by Information in the Court of Exchequer, at the Suit of his Majesty's Advocate.

Penalty of 500l. on Heirs, &c. of Collectors dying or becoming insolvent, who do not, within 40 Days, deliver an Account of all Things done by the Deceased, &c. touching the Execution of this Act.

XXX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case of the Death or Insolvency of any Collector of the Cess, or any other Person into whose Hands Money raised or contributed under or in pursuance of this Act, shall be paid, the Heirs, Executors, Sureties, and Representatives of the said Collector, or other Persons aforesaid, shall, within forty Days after the Decease or Insolvency, deliver in to the Justices of Peace, Clerk, or Town Clerk respectively, as the Case may be, of each County, Stewartry, City, Royal Burgh, or Place respectively, an Account, to the best of their Knowledge and Belief, of all Things done by such Person insolvent or deceased, touching the Execution of this Act, and render an Account of all Monies actually received and remaining unpaid by any such Collector or other Person, levying and retaining any Sums levied and paid to them in pursuance of this Act, and that under the Penalty of five hundred Pounds; to be sued for and recovered in like Manner as is herein-before directed in respect to the Penalties which may be incurred by such Collector neglecting to transmit to the Receiver General of the Land Tax the Accounts of the Sums levied in pursuance of this Act.

Regulating Officer may intimate to Clerks of the Peace and Chief Magistrates when and where he will be ready to receive Men.

Clerks of the Peace to give Notice thereof to the Ministers when Volunteers are to be produced, or 25l. paid for each Man deficient:

Chief Magistrates to be liable in 25l. for each Man not then produced.

XXXI. 'And whereas the Regulating Officer appointed to receive and pass the Men as above mentioned, 'may not be able to go through the Examination of such Men at the different Places of Rendezvous within 'his District, in the Space of twenty Days after the Meeting of the Heritors for the Purposes above mentioned;' be it enacted, That such Regulating Officer may intimate to the Clerks of the Peace of each County or Stewartry, and Chief Residing Magistrate of each Burgh or Town situated within his District, that he will be ready to receive such Men as they may have procured, at such particular Place of Rendezvous, and on such several successive Days as he may find absolutely necessary, to enable him to travel without Loss of Time, and with all suitable Dispatch, from one Place of Rendezvous to another, in the several Counties, Burghs, Towns, and other Places, within his District; and the Clerk of the Peace shall forthwith give Notice to the Minister of each Parish within the County, or, in his Absence, to the Precentor or Session Clerk of the same, of the Place of Rendezvous, and the particular Day on which the Heritors of such Parish are respectively to produce and deliver over such Volunteer or Volunteers as aforesaid, or in default thereof to be liable in the Penalty of twenty-five Pounds Sterling above mentioned for each Man of their Quota deficient, to be levied, recovered, and applied, as herein directed; and the Chief resident Magistrate of each Burgh or Town is in like Manner to produce and deliver over at such Place of Rendezvous, on such Day as the Regulating Officer shall notify, such Volunteer or Volunteers apportioned on each, or in default thereof to be liable as aforesaid in the Penalty of twenty-five Pounds for each Man deficient, to be levied, recovered, and applied, as herein directed.

Mistake in 35 Geo. 3. c. 29. rectified.

XXXII. 'And whereas, by an Act passed in the thirty-fifth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An 'Act for raising a certain Number of Men in the several Counties, Stewartries, Royal Burghs, and Towns in that 'Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for the Service of his Majesty's Navy, forty-nine Men were appointed 'to be levied for the County of Wigtoun, and eighteen Men for the Town of Kilmarnock, both of which 'Numbers were by Mistake apportioned on the said County and Town;' be it therefore enacted, That on the said County furnishing, or proving itself to have furnished, twenty-three Men, and the said Town of Kilmarnock furnishing, or proving itself to have furnished, six Men, for the Service of his Majesty's Navy, as directed by the aforesaid Act, they shall be discharged of all further Claim upon them for any further Number of Men, or of any Demand for Penalties incurred for deficient Men, beyond the said Number of twenty-three Men and six Men respectively.

Limitation of Actions.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Action shall be brought against any Person or Persons for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, such Action or Suit shall be commenced within six Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards.

This Act may be altered or repealed this Seſſion. (Sept, Cap. 39.)

XXXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, varied, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be made in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament.

CAP. VI.

An Act for enabling His Majeſty to raiſe a proviſional Force of Cavalry, to be embodied, in caſe of Neceſſity, for the Defence of theſe Kingdoms.—[11th November 1796.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient, in the preſent Conjuncture, that a Body of Cavalry ſhould be enrolled, and kept in Readineſs to be called out to actual Service, whenever it ſhall be neceſſary, in order to prevent or repel any Invaſion that may be attempted by the Enemies of the Country:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That throughout that Part of Great Britain called England, there ſhall be enrolled, for his Majeſty's Service, one Horſeman clothed, and furniſhed as herein-after preſcribed, and equipped, with one able and ſufficient Mare or Gelding, fit for Military Duty, for and in reſpect of every ten Horſes, Mares, or Geldings, kept for the Purpoſe of riding, or for drawing any Carriage, mentioned and deſcribed in ſeveral Acts of Parliament of the twenty-fourth, twenty-ninth, and thirty-ſixth Years of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, and charged to the Duties on Horſes, granted by the ſaid Acts, by any Aſſeſſment made, or to be made, after the fifth Day of April one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, during the Continuance of this Act; the Execution of which Enrolment ſhall be in the Manner directed by this Act.

One Horſeman and Mare or Gelding to be enrolled for every ten Horſes kept for riding or drawing a Carriage, charged to the Duties on Horſes granted by certain Acts.

II. And be it further enacted, That every Perſon who is or ſhall be charged to the ſaid Duties, in Manner aforeſaid, for ten Horſes, Mares, or Geldings, ſhall provide for his Majeſty's Service in Manner herein directed, one Mare or Gelding fit for Military Duty, for or in reſpect of ſuch ten Horſes, Mares, or Geldings, by him or her kept and charged as aforeſaid; and in like Manner one other ſuch Mare or Gelding for or in reſpect of every ten Horſes, Mares, or Geldings, by him or her kept in Addition to thoſe before enumerated and charged as aforeſaid; and ſhall alſo provide one able and ſufficient Horſeman, cloathed in the Manner directed by this Act, in reſpect of every ſuch Mare or Gelding by him or her to be provided for the Purpoſes of this Act.

Every Perſon ſhall provide a Mare, &c. and Horſeman for every ſuch ten Horſes.

III. And be it further enacted, That the ſeveral Perſons herein-before deſcribed, who are or ſhall be charged to the ſaid Duties in Manner aforeſaid, for any greater Number of Horſes, Mares, or Geldings, than ſhall have been comprized in any Enumeration made in purſuance of the Proviſions of this Act before-mentioned, (ſuch greater Number of Horſes, Mares, or Geldings, not amounting to ten additional Horſes, Mares, or Geldings,) and alſo all other Perſons in that Part of Great Britain, as aforeſaid, who are or ſhall be reſpectively charged to the ſaid Duties in Manner aforeſaid, for any Number leſs than ten Horſes, Mares, or Geldings in the Whole, ſhall be claſſed together in Manner herein-after directed, and ſhall provide one Mare or Gelding fit for Military Duty, for and in reſpect of every Claſs conſiſting of ten Horſes, Mares, or Geldings, by them reſpectively kept and charged as aforeſaid; and ſhall alſo provide one able and ſufficient Horſeman, cloathed as aforeſaid, in reſpect of every Mare or Gelding by them reſpectively to be provided for the Purpoſes of this Act.

Perſons keeping leſs than ten Horſes to be claſſed together, and to provide a Mare, &c. and Horſeman for every ten.

IV. And be it further enacted, That his Majeſty's Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants, conſtituted and appointed in the ſeveral Counties, Ridings, and Places, in that Part of Great Britain aforeſaid, and the Juſtices of the Peace of the ſame Counties, Ridings, and Places, and ſuch other Perſons as are authorized to carry into Execution the Militia Laws within their reſpective Juriſdictions, ſhall, at their reſpective General and Subdiviſion Meetings, carry this Act into Execution, in all Matters herein directed to be done; which General and Subdiviſion Meetings ſhall be holden for the Purpoſes of this Act, by the like Perſons, and in like Manner, as ſuch Meetings are directed to be holden by the Laws relating to the Militia: And the Juriſdiction of ſuch Meetings aſſembled for the Purpoſes of executing this Act, ſhall extend to all Places within their reſpective Counties, Ridings, or Subdiviſions, in the Manner directed and eſtabliſhed by the ſaid Militia Laws, and alſo to all Extra-parochial Places whatever, within the Limits of their reſpective Counties, Ridings, or Places.

County Lieutenants, &c. to carry this Act into Execution at their Meetings.

V. And be it further enacted, That the firſt General Meeting of Lieutenancy, in every County, Riding, or Place, within that Part of Great Britain as aforeſaid, to be holden for the Purpoſes of this Act, ſhall be holden on a Day not later than fourteen Days after the paſſing of this Act; and may be held in purſuance of previous Adjournment, or by Summons, in the Manner directed by any Law now in Force relating to the Militia Forces; and ſhall be held from Time to Time, by Adjournment, within ſeven Days from the preceding Meeting, until the full Complement of Men ſhall be enrolled by virtue of this Act, and afterwards as Occaſion ſhall require.

The firſt General Meeting of Lieutenancy ſhall be holden within 14 Days after the paſſing of this Act.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Subdiviſion Meetings of Lieutenancy ſhall be appointed by the firſt General Meeting to be holden for the Purpoſes of this Act; and ſhall be holden on a Day not later than ſeven Days after the firſt General Meeting aforeſaid; which Meetings may be adjourned from Time to Time, in the Manner directed by the Laws relating to the ſaid Militia Forces; and ſhall be holden from Time to Time, as often as the General Meetings of Lieutenancy ſhall direct, or oftener if Occaſion ſhall require.

Subdiviſion Meetings to be appointed by the General Meetings.

VII. And

Treasury may issue Money to carry this Act into Execution.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being are hereby authorized and required to issue, and cause to be advanced, all such Sums of Money as shall appear to them to be necessary for the Purposes of this Act, and to prevent Delay in the Execution thereof, to such Persons, and in such Manner, as to them shall seem expedient (to be replaced in the Manner herein mentioned); and which Sums so to be advanced, shall be employed in defraying the necessary Expences in and about the Execution of this Act, in such Particulars as the said Commissioners of the Treasury shall order and direct.

Treasury shall cause a Schedule of the Number of Horses charged by the last Assessment after April 5, 1796, to be laid before the General Meetings of Lieutenancy.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, shall cause to be prepared a true Schedule of the Number of Horses, Mares, or Geldings, which have been, or shall be charged to the said several Duties, by the last Assessment which shall have been made at any Time after the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, and of the Names of the several Persons respectively keeping the same, and the Number kept by each Person; describing therein their respective Places of Residence, and distinguishing each Division wherein they were so respectively charged; and the said Commissioners of the Treasury shall cause the same to be laid before the respective General Meetings of Lieutenancy for the respective Counties, Ridings, or Places, where such Assessments have been made, at their first Meetings which shall be held after such Lists shall be prepared by the respective Surveyors of the said Duties, and to be by them verified on Oath if required (which Oath the Lieutenant, or any one Deputy Lieutenant, or Justice of the Peace then there assembled, is hereby authorized to administer); and the Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenants, or Justices of the Peace, or in the Absence of the Lieutenant, the Deputy Lieutenants, or Justices of the Peace, there attending, shall proceed to ascertain and appoint the Number of Men to be provided within the Precinct of each Subdivision Meeting of Lieutenancy, in such County, Riding, or Place, and shall cause a true Copy, signed and attested by them respectively, of so much of the Schedule delivered to them by the respective Surveyors of the said Duties as relate to the several Persons residing within the Precinct of each Subdivision Meeting of Lieutenancy, to be prepared, and the same to be transmitted to the respective Clerks of such Subdivision Meetings, to be laid before the Deputy Lieutenants and Justices assembled at their next Subdivision Meeting after such Transmission.

Lieutenant, &c. to appoint the Number of Men to be provided within each Subdivision, and transmit to the Clerks of the Subdivision Meetings so much of the Schedule as relates thereto.

Penalty on Persons not fully assessed neglecting to deliver a List of the greatest Number of Horses kept by them, &c.

IX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person, liable to the said Duties on Horses, shall not be rated and assessed to the full Amount of what he or she ought and is liable to pay, and shall neglect to deliver in a true List of the greatest Number of Horses, Mares, and Geldings, kept by him or her at any Time in the Year ending the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, for the Space of ten Days after the passing of this Act; or if any Person, having began to keep any Horses, Mares, or Geldings, at any Time since the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, shall, for the Space of ten Days after Demand thereof made by any Assessor or Assessors, Surveyor or Surveyors, or Inspector or Inspectors of the said Duties, neglect to deliver in a true List, containing the greatest Number of Horses, Mares, and Geldings by him or her kept at any Time since the said fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, so that the same may be inserted in an Assessment to be made for the Purposes of this Act, every such Person so neglecting shall forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Pounds: Provided always, that the Delivery of such List shall not subject any Person to the Payment of any Duty to which he or she was not liable before the passing of this Act: Provided also, that the Person delivering in any such List shall be freed and discharged from all Penalties or Surcharges incurred by reason of any Omission in any former List delivered before the passing of this Act, or Neglect in not delivering such List, and for the recovering of which no Prosecution or Proceeding was then had or commenced.

Such List not to subject any Person to more Duty than he was liable to before. Delivery of List to free the Party from all Penalties and Surcharges.

Mode of Recovery, and Application of the Penalty.

X. And be it further enacted, That the above mentioned Penalty of twenty Pounds by this Act imposed, shall be recoverable before any one or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the County, Riding, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, wherein the Offence shall be committed, on Proof of the Offence, either by the voluntary Confession of the Party or Parties accused, or by the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses; and one Moiety of every such Penalty shall belong and be paid to the Informer or Informers prosecuting for the same, and the other Moiety thereof shall be paid into the Hands of the Receiver General for the County wherein the Offence shall be committed, to be applied to the Purposes of this Act; and in case of Non-payment, shall be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of such Justice, and the Overplus of the Money raised, after deducting the Penalty, and the Expences of the Distress and Sale, shall be rendered to the Owner or Owners, and for Want of sufficient Distress the Offender shall be sent by such Justice to the Prison of such County, Riding, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, for such Time not exceeding six Months, nor less than one Month, as such Justice shall think most proper.

Penalty may be levied by Distress.

Offenders may be committed for Want of Distress.

Subdivision Meetings to prepare Lists of Persons appearing to be chargeable for Horses.

XI. And be it further enacted, That at the respective Sub-division Meetings to be held next after receiving the Copy of such Schedule as aforesaid, the Deputy Lieutenants there assembled shall cause to be prepared one List, in Writing, signed by them, or any two of them, containing the Names and Places of Residence of all Persons appearing by such Copy to be respectively charged to the said Duties for ten or more Horses, Mares, or Geldings, and shall, by distinct Enumerations of the Horses, Mares, or Geldings, for which each Person shall be so charged, as far as the same is practicable, each Enumeration to consist of ten Horses, Mares, or Geldings, in pursuance of the Directions of this Act, appoint the Number of Men, and also the Number of Mares or Geldings, which each Person inserted in such List shall provide, in respect of the Horses, Mares, and and Geldings, ſo enumerated; and if after ſuch Enumeration made, any Number of Horſes, Mares, or Geldings, leſs than ten, ſhall remain, then the ſaid Deputy Lieutenants ſhall alſo inſert the ſame in ſuch Liſt; and the ſaid Deputy Lieutenants ſhall alſo cauſe to be prepared another Liſt, containing the Names and reſpective Places of Reſidence of the ſeveral Perſons herein-before deſcribed, who ſhall be reſpectively charged for any Number of Horſes, Mares, or Geldings, not amounting to the Number of ten, and which are not enumerated in the Liſt before mentioned, together with the Number thereof; and alſo the Names and reſpective Places of Reſidence of all other Perſons within the Precinct of ſuch Sub-diviſion Meetings, who ſhall be charged as aforeſaid for one Horſe, Mare, or Gelding, or for any Number of Horſes, Mares, or Geldings, leſs than ten in the Whole of ſuch Charge, together with the Number thereof; and the Names of all Perſons included in ſuch laſt-mentioned Liſt, ſhall be placed in diſtinct Claſſes, with reference to the Number of Horſes, Mares, or Geldings by them reſpectively kept and charged as aforeſaid; ſo that ten Horſes, Mares, or Geldings, and no more, ſhall be included in one Claſs; and ſo that the Name of any one Perſon included in ſuch laſt-mentioned Liſt, ſhall not be inſerted in two or more diſtinct Claſſes; and ſo that every Perſon named in any ſuch Claſs ſhall ſtand one Chance in the Ballot, herein-after mentioned, for every Horſe, Mare, or Gelding, contained in ſuch laſt-mentioned Liſt, for which he or ſhe is charged to the ſaid Duties: Provided always, if after claſſing the Horſes, Mares, and Geldings, charged as aforeſaid, within the Precinct of any Sub-diviſion Meeting, any Number of Horſes, Mares, or Geldings ſhall remain to be enumerated, an Account of the ſame ſhall be carried to ſome adjoining Sub-diviſion Meeting in the County, Riding, or Place, where the like Reſult has taken Place, and ſo toties quoties, until the whole Number of Horſes, Mares, or Geldings, charged in ſuch County, Riding, or Place, ſhall have been enumerated, as nearly as may be, and the Number of Men enrolled in ſuch County, Riding, or Place, may as nearly as poſſible be in proportion to the Number of Horſes, Mares, and Geldings, charged to the ſaid Duties, throughout the whole County, Riding, or Place.

If, after claſſing Horſes within any Subdiviſion, any ſhall remain to be enumerated, an Account of them ſhall be carried to ſome adjoining Sub-diviſion.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the Deputy Lieutenants who ſhall have prepared ſuch Liſts and Claſſes, ſhall cauſe the ſame to be fairly written and depoſited in the Hands of the Clerks of their reſpective Sub-diviſion Meetings, for the Inſpection of the ſeveral Perſons charged to the ſaid Duties, (who are hereby empowered to demand, at all ſeaſonable Hours, Inſpection of the ſame gratis,) and ſhall appoint another Meeting to be holden within fourteen Days then next enſuing, within and for the ſame Sub-diviſion, and ſhall iſſue out an Order to the chief Conſtables or other Officers of the reſpective Hundreds, Rapes, Laths, Wapentakes, or other Diviſions, requiring them to give Notice to the Conſtable, Tythingman, Headborough, or other Officer of every Pariſh or Place within their reſpective Hundreds, Rapes, Laths, Wapentakes, or other Diviſions, of the Time and Place of the next Sub-diviſion Meeting, and of the Place where the Liſts and Claſſes before deſcribed are depoſited, and the Times of inſpecting the ſame; all which Particulars ſhall be expreſſed in the Order of the ſaid Deputy Lieutenants; and the ſaid Deputy Lieutenants, or any two or more of them, aſſembled in purſuance of ſuch Appointment, ſhall cauſe the Name of one Perſon to be drawn, by Ballot, out of every Claſs; and every Perſon whoſe Name ſhall be ſo drawn, ſhall provide one Horſeman and one Mare or Gelding, as herein-after deſcribed, for each Claſs; and when the ſaid Drawing by Ballot ſhall be finiſhed, the ſaid Deputy Lieutenants ſhall cauſe to be prepared one other Liſt, in which ſhall be inſerted the Names of all the Perſons appointed as aforeſaid, and alſo of all the Perſons choſen by Ballot as aforeſaid, for the Purpoſes of this Act, diſtinguiſhing the Caſes in which any one Perſon has been appointed to provide two or more Men, and in like Manner with reſpect to the Number of Mares or Geldings ſo to be provided; and ſhall appoint another Meeting to be holden within and for the ſame Sub-diviſion, and ſhall iſſue out an Order to the chief Conſtables, or other Officers of the reſpective Hundreds, Rapes, Laths, Wapentakes, or other Diviſions, to direct the Conſtable, Tythingman, Headborough, or other Officer of every Pariſh or Place, to give Notice to every Perſon ſo appointed or choſen by Ballot for the Purpoſes of this Act, to appear at ſuch Meeting, which Notice ſhall be given or left at the Place of his Abode, at the Time when ſuch Aſſeſſment as aforeſaid was made, at leaſt ſeven Days before ſuch Meeting; and ſuch Conſtable, Tythingman, Headborough, or other Officer, ſhall attend ſuch Meeting, and make a Return, upon Oath, of the Times when ſuch Notice was ſerved; and every Perſon ſo appointed or choſen by Ballot for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, ſhall, upon ſuch Notice, appear at ſuch Meeting, and in caſe he ſhall intend to ſerve perſonally, ſhall there take the following Oath; (videlicet,) Deputy Lieutenants to cauſe Liſts, &c to be depoſited with the Clerks of the Subdiviſion Meetings, for Inſpection, and appoint another Meeting for balloting for Perſons who are to provide Horſemen and Horſes out of Claſſes, &c.

Liſts of Perſons appointed or choſen by Ballot to be prepared, and ſeven Days' Notice given them to attend a Meeting.

Perſons intending to ſerve perſonally to take the following

Oath,
(Repealed as to ſwearing to being a Proteſtant, poſt, Cap. 23. §6.)

'I A. B. do ſincerely promiſe and ſwear, That I will be faithful and bear true Allegiance to his Majeſty King George; and I do ſwear that I am a Proteſtant; and that I will faithfully ſerve in the Corps in which I am enrolled within the Kingdom of Great Britain, for the Defence of the ſame, during the preſent War, and for the Space of one Calendar Month after the End thereof.'

the Cavalry of such County, Riding, or Place, as private Soldiers, for the Term of such Enrolment by virtue of this Act; and every Man enrolled as a Substitute shall take the Oath herein-before prescribed.

Persons ceasing to keep Horses, to receive back a Proportion of Assessments.

XIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if it shall be made to appear to the Satisfaction of the Deputy Lieutenants, at any Subdivision Meeting to be held as aforesaid, at any Time during the Continuance of this Act, that any Person in any such Class as aforesaid, has at any Time, bonâ fide, ceased to keep any Horse, Mare, or Gelding, or such Number of Horses, Mares, or Geldings, for which he shall have been charged by such Assessment as aforesaid, and shall have remained during the whole Interval without any Horse, Mare, or Gelding, liable to Duty in lieu of the former, then such Person shall be allowed by Certificate from the said Deputy Lieutenants to receive back such a Part of the whole Sum which shall have been paid by him or her towards the Assessments to be raised by virtue of this Act, as shall be proportioned to the Interval of Time during which he shall have been bonâ fide without any Horse, Mare, or Gelding, or Number of Horses, Mares, or Geldings, in respect of which he shall have been charged to such Assessment, or any Mare or Gelding, or Mares or Geldings, in lieu thereof.

Certain Persons exempted from Duty.

XIV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Person who shall serve as a Commissioned Officer in any Regiment, Troop, or Company, in his Majesty's other Forces, or in the Militia raised by virtue of any Act or Acts now in Force, or to be passed in this Session of Parliament, or in any Volunteer Corps raised by virtue of any such Act or Acts of Parliament, and who shall have been enrolled therein before the twentieth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, or shall have offered themselves and been accepted before the said twentieth Day of October to serve upon Vacancies which shall have happened, or who shall, at his or her Expence, furnish a Horse for any Person serving in any such Corps as aforesaid; nor any Person who shall serve in any one of his Majesty's Castles or Forts; nor any Non commissioned Officer or Private Man serving in any of his Majesty's other Forces, or in the Militia, by himself or Substitute, or in any such Volunteer Corps as aforesaid; nor any Person being a Resident Member of either of the Universities; nor any Clergyman; nor any Teacher of any private Congregation; nor any Persons acting in a medical Capacity, who, on account of their Circumstances, in the Opinion of two Deputy Lieutenants, shall be esteemed fit to be exempt from the Service required by this Act; nor any Constable or other Peace Officer serving for any Parish or Place; nor any Person having been, or being before or on the twentieth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, an articled Clerk, or Apprentice †; nor any Seaman, or seafaring Man; nor any Person mustered, trained, and doing Duty, or employed, in any of his Majesty's Docks or Dock Yards for the Service thereof, or employed and mustered in his Majesty's Service in the Tower of London, Woolwich Warren, the several Gun Wharfs, or at the several Powder Mills, Powder Magazines, or other Storehouses, belonging to his Majesty, under the Direction of the Board of Ordnance; nor any Person being free of the Company of Watermen of the River Thames, and who respectively shall not be charged to the said Duties for more than one Horse, Mare, or Gelding, shall be liable to provide any Man or Men, or any Mare or Gelding, or Mares or Geldings, for his Majesty's Service in pursuance of this Act.

† See post, Cap. 23. § 1.

Further Exemptions. (and see § 18 and 23 of this Act; and post, Cap. 23.

XV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Officer of his Majesty's Army, or of the Militia whilst in actual Service, shall be liable to provide any Man or Men, or any Mare or Gelding, Mares or Geldings, in pursuance of this Act, in respect of any Horse, Mare, or Gelding, or any Number of Horses, Mares, or Geldings, kept by such Officer within the Number allowed to receive Forage by his Majesty's Regulations.

How Mares or Geldings are to be provided, if the Person on whom the Lot falls shall have no Mare or Gelding, or if it shall not be approved of.

XVI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if in any Class of Persons to be made out as aforesaid, the Person on whom the Lot shall fall shall not be actually possessed of any Mare or Gelding, or if the Mare or Gelding which he shall provide shall not be approved of at a Muster to be taken in pursuance of this Act, then any other Person in the same Class shall be at Liberty to provide a Mare or Gelding to serve for such Class, and to receive the Compensation to be allowed for extra Expences for such Mare or Gelding; and if no Person in the same Class shall provide a Mare or Gelding to serve for such Class, which shall be approved as aforesaid, then a Mare or Gelding shall be provided by the Person so ballotted, who shall be allowed in respect thereof such Sum of Money as shall be settled by the Deputy Lieutenants, at a Sub-division Meeting of Lieutenancy of the same County, Riding, or Place, to be a fair Compensation to such Person for the same, which Compensation the Deputy Lieutenants acting in the Division where such Ballot shall have been made, shall demand from the Receiver General of the County, Riding, or Place, who is hereby required to pay the same out of the Monies in his Hands of the Sums raised by virtue of this Act; and if he shall not have sufficient of the said Money, then to pay the same out of the Duties before-mentioned, or any other Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for Affairs of Taxes, and the same shall be allowed to such Receiver General in his Accounts; and such Sum so received shall be paid by the said Deputy Lieutenants to the Person entitled to receive such Compensation as aforesaid; and the Sum so settled for such Compensation as aforesaid, shall be added to the last Assessment of the several Persons contained in the same Class to the Duties on Horses, in proportion to the Number belonging to them respectively, and levied and accounted for, together with the Duties therein contained.

Where any Allowance is made for providing a Mare, &c. it shall remain in the Care of the XVII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That where any Allowance as aforesaid shall have been made to any Person in any Class as aforesaid on whom the Lot shall have fallen, in order to enable him to provide a Mare or Gelding for the Service required by this Act, such Mare or Gelding shall remain in the Care of the Person providing the same, subject to the Regulations and Conditions of this Act; but such Person providing it, who shall deliver it up in a limited Time, or be liable to Penalty. Such Mares, &c. to be disposed of, and the Price paid to the Receiver General of the County.

Person shall be bound at any Time, within one Month after the Conclusion of the War, to deliver such Mare or Gelding to any Person authorized by any two or more Deputy Lieutenants of the Sub-division within which such Person resides, or shall on default forfeit and lose a Sum which shall at least be equal to the Sum before received by such Person, and so as not to exceed the Sum of twenty-five Pounds to be added to the Assessment of such Person for the said Duties, and to be accounted for together with the Duties therein contained; and such Deputy Lieutenants shall cause such Mare or Gelding to be disposed of to the best Advantage, and the Price received for the same to be paid over to the Receiver General of the County, to be applicable to the Purposes of this Act.

Inferior Officers of Excise keeping a Horse for the Performance of their Duty, exempted.

XVIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no inferior Officer of Excise, who shall not be charged to the said Duties for more than one Horse, Mare, or Gelding, and who shall make it appear to the Satisfaction of the Deputy Lieutenants at any such Subdivision Meeting as aforesaid, or any two or more of them, that he is obliged by the Regulations or Orders of his superior Officers of Excise to keep such Horse, Mare, or Gelding for the necessary Performance of his Duty as such Officer, shall be liable to provide any Man, or any Mare or Gelding, for his Majesty's Service in pursuance of this Act.

If in any Class there shall be no Person fit for Military Service, he on whom the Lot falls shall provide a Substitute, for which he shall be allowed a Compensation. (Repealed, post, Cap. 23 § 15.)

XIX. And be it further enacted, That if in any Class of Persons to be made out as aforesaid, there shall be no Person, who in the Opinion of the Deputy Lieutenants at a Subdivision Meeting of Lieutenancy of the same County, Riding, or Place, shall be fit for Military Service, then the Person on whom the Lot shall first fall shall be bound to provide a Substitute, who shall be approved by such Deputy Lieutenants, and such Person shall be allowed in respect thereof such Sum of Money as shall be settled by such Deputy Lieutenants to be a fair Compensation to such Person for the same; which Compensation the said Deputy Lieutenants shall demand from the Receiver General of the County, Riding, or Place, who is hereby required to pay the same out of the Monies in his Hands of the Sums raised by virtue of this Act, and if he shall not have sufficient of the said Money, then to pay the same out of the Duties before mentioned, or any other Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, and the same shall be allowed to such Receiver General in his Accounts, and such Sum so received shall be paid by the said Deputy Lieutenants to the Person entitled to receive such Compensation as aforesaid; and the Sum so settled for such Compensation as aforesaid shall be added to the last Assessment of the several Persons contained in the same Class to the Duties on Horses, in proportion to the Number belonging to them respectively, and levied and accounted for, together with the Duties therein contained.

Clerks of Subdivision Meetings to transmit an Account of the Men enrolled, and if the Complement be not enrolled, the Exemptions claimed, &c. to be transmitted to the Privy Council, &c.

XX. And be it further enacted, That the Clerks of the several Subdivision Meetings shall, and they are hereby respectively required to transmit to the Lieutenant, or to the General Meeting of the Lieutenancy, of the County, Riding, or Place, an Account, in Writing, of the Number of Men enrolled by virtue of this Act within their respective Subdivisions, their respective Ages, Descriptions, and Places of Residence, and whether they act as Principals or Substitutes; and if the full Complement of Men who ought to be enrolled in any Subdivision shall not be enrolled, then the said Clerks shall state, in their Account, the Number of Exemptions claimed and allowed in such Subdivision, and the Number and Amount of Fines imposed on Persons appointed or chosen by Ballot for not being enrolled, or for not finding Substitutes to be enrolled, and every other Cause or Occasion of Default to the best of his Knowledge; which Accounts, or true Copies thereof, shall be, as soon as conveniently may be, transmitted to his Majesty's Privy Council; and the Lord Lieutenant, or Deputy Lieutenants, at a General Meeting of Lieutenancy, may direct and order a new Appointment to be made, or a new Ballot to be taken, from and amongst the Persons making such Default, as if no Appointment had been made or Ballot taken with respect to those Persons.

Persons liable to Service in the Place where charged by the last Assessments after April 5, 1796; and if charged in more than one Place, liable to serve in that where charged for the greatest Number, &c. Certificates of Places where liable to serve to be granted, gratis.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That every Person shall be liable to the Service required by this Act, in the Parish or Place where such Person is charged to the said Duties upon Horses by the last Assessment made after the said fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, and before the passing of this Act, although he or she may have removed from the Place of Charge since the making of the said Assessment; and if any Person shall be so charged to the said Duties in two or more Places, then he or she shall be liable to the said Service in the Place where he or she shall be charged, for the greatest Number of Horses, Mares, or Geldings; and Certificates of such Person being charged in such other Place or Places, specifying the Number of Horses, Mares, or Geldings, for which he or she is rated, shall be transmitted to the General Meeting of Lieutenancy of the County, Riding, or Place, wherein the said Service is hereby required, by the Commissioners who shall have made such Assessment, in order that the same may be added to the Assessment made in the Place where such Service shall be required; and the Clerk of the Subdivision Meeting where such Person shall be returned as being liable to the said Service there, shall, if such Person requires the same, grant a Certificate, gratis, under his Hand, that such Return has been made.

Persons charged in more than one Place may elect in which they will serve, and give Notice accordingly.

XXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person liable to the Service required by this Act, shall be charged in two or more Places for the said Duties on Horses, it shall be lawful for such Person to elect in which Place he or she shall be returned as liable to the Service required by this Act; and to give to the Commissioners of the Land Tax of the respective Divisions, and also to the Deputy Lieutenants of the respective Subdivisions of the County, Riding, or Place wherein he or she is charged, Notice, in Writing, of the Place wherein he or she intends to perform such Service; and Certificates, in the Manner before directed, shall be transmitted to the General Meeting of Lieutenancy of the County, Riding, or Place, where such Return ought to be made, by the Commissioners who shall have made any Assessment in such other Place or Places respectively, in order that the same may be added to the Assessment made in the Place where such Service shall be required, and of which Notice shall be so given as aforesaid.

Men deemed unfit to serve, and certain other Persons, not to be enrolled.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall be enrolled by virtue of this Act, who is not, in the Opinion of the major Part of the Deputy Lieutenants present at the Subdivision Meeting at the Time appointed for Enrolment, such an able bodied Man as is fit to serve his Majesty, and is free from Ruptures, and every other Distemper or Infirmity, which may render him unfit to perform his Duty; or who, in the Opinion of the major Part of such Deputy Lieutenants, shall appear to be under the Age of sixteen Years, or above the Age of fifty Years; nor any articled Clerk or Apprentice as aforesaid (unless with the Consent of the Master of such Clerk or Apprentice); nor any Person inlisted in any of his Majesty's Forces, or entered in his Majesty's Navy, or in any Volunteer Corps raised by virtue of the said Act, passed in the thirty-fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, and who shall have been enrolled therein before the twentieth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six.

Men enrolled to appear dressed according to a Pattern appointed by the Lieutenancy, and approved by his Majesty, &c.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That every Man who shall be enrolled by virtue of this Act, shall be furnished with, and shall appear, in every Day of Muster, in a suitable Dress for a Private Soldier of Cavalry; which Dress shall be provided by himself, if he shall serve as a Principal, or if he shall serve as a Substitute, then by the Person for whom he shall so serve, according to the Pattern of Dress which shall be fixed and settled at a General Meeting of Lieutenancy for the County, Riding, or Place, where the Persons shall respectively serve, and which shall have been approved of by his Majesty; and the said General Meetings of Lieutenancy shall and are hereby empowered, from Time to Time, to make necessary Regulations respecting the same, and for the Appearance of the Men on the Days of Muster, according to the Orders established by Law for the Militia Forces; which Regulations, being approved of by his Majesty, shall be of the same Force as if the Regulations had been set down and enacted in and by this Act.

No Mare, &c. to be admitted at Muster, unless of a certain Height, &c.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That no Mare or Gelding shall be admitted at any Muster, unless the same shall be of the Height of fourteen Hands and two Inches, nor unless the same be, in the Opinion of the Officer of Muster, fit for Military Duty, and provided with sufficient Furniture, according to such Regulations as shall have been established at a General Meeting of Lieutenancy, with the Approbation of his Majesty.

Penalty on Men enrolled for not appearing at every Muster Day, &c.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Man enrolled by virtue of this Act, shall wilfully neglect to appear at every Day of Muster appointed by virtue thereof, or shall not appear in the proper Dress provided for him as aforesaid, or shall not, in the Opinion of the Persons authorized to take the Muster, have kept the same with due Care; and if no reasonable Excuse be given by such Man for such Neglect, every such Man shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of five Shillings, which shall be deducted out of the first Money which he shall be entitled to receive, whether as Allowance, Pay, or otherwise, by virtue of this Act.

Penalty on Men enrolled as Principals or Substitutes not appearing at the Place of Muster before taken, or not appearing at the Time and Place for assembling when called out and embodied, which may be levied by Distress.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall be enrolled to serve as a Principal in the said Service, and every Substitute not having obtained his Discharge in Manner hereinbefore directed, (and not labouring under any Infirmity incapacitating them respectively,) who shall not appear at the Place appointed for Muster according to the Directions of this Act, before such Muster shall be completely taken, and the Men dismissed therefrom, or who shall not appear at the Time and Place appointed for assembling the Men of such County, Riding, or Place, in pursuance of his Majesty's Warrant, for calling out and embodying the same, Notices thereof respectively having been published as this Act requires, shall, if not taken, or not having surrendered within the Space of twenty-four Hours after the Time appointed for such their Appearances as aforesaid, according to the Directions of this Act, forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Pounds, to be paid into the Hands of the Receiver General of the County, Riding, or Place, for which such Persons shall have been appointed to serve; and all such Penalties before-mentioned shall be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person guilty of such Offence, by Warrant of any one Justice of the Peace of the County, Riding, or Place where such Offence shall be committed; and where sufficient Goods and Chattels cannot be found to answer the said Penalty, then to commit such Offender to the common Gaol or House of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour for the Space of twelve Calendar Months, unless such Penalty shall be sooner paid or satisfied.

Penalty on Persons appointed to provide Men, who neglect to provide Cloathing and Horse-Furniture:

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person appointed to provide any Man or Men for the said Service, shall wilfully neglect to provide suitable Cloathing, according to the Directions of this Act, or to provide proper Furniture for each and every Mare or Gelding to be kept by him or her, for the Purposes of this Act, (before the first Muster of Men to be had in the Subdivision where he or she is charged to the said Duties.) to be used at every successive Muster to be had under this Act, every such Person shall, for every such Neglect, forfeit and pay the Sum of forty Shillings, to be added to the Assessment of such Person, and to be levied and accounted for, together with the Duties therein contained, in the Manner herein directed.

Penalty on any Person chosen by Ballot to provide a Man, for a like Default before the first Muster, XXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person chosen by Ballot to provide any Man for the said Service, shall neglect to provide suitable Cloathing, according to the Directions of this Act, or to provide proper Furniture for the Mare or Gelding to be kept by him or her for the Purposes of this Act, before the first Muster of Men to be had in the Subdivision where he or she is charged to the said Duties, to be used at every successive Muster as aforesaid, every such Person shall forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Shillings, which Sum shall be added to the Assessment of such Person, and levied and accounted for together with the and on the Claſs, for not providing them before the next Muſter.

Duties therein contained; and if after Default ſo made, the ſeveral Perſons compoſing the ſame Claſs, with the Perſon ſo making Default, ſhall not, before the next Muſter to be had after Notice in Writing given of ſuch Default, provide and produce proper Cloathing and Furniture to be uſed as aforeſaid, then the ſeveral Perſons compoſing that Claſs ſhall forfeit and pay the Sum of thirty Shillings; which Sum ſhall be aſſeſſed upon them rateably in proportion to the Number of Horſes, Mares, and Geldings, included in that Claſs for which each ſuch Perſon is charged to the ſaid Duties; and the ſaid ſeveral Proportions of ſuch Fine ſhall be added to their reſpective Aſſeſſments, and levied and accounted for together with the Duties therein reſpectively contained.

Penalty on Perſons appointed or choſen by Ballot to provide Men, who ſhall not appear to be enrolled, or provide Subſtitutes.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon appointed or choſen by Ballot, by virtue of this Act, to provide one Man for the ſaid Service, ſhall wilfully, and without any reaſonable Excuſe, to be allowed as aforeſaid, refuſe or neglect to appear and take the ſaid Oath, and be enrolled to ſerve in the Cavalry, according to the Directions of this Act, or to provide a Subſtitute who ſhall be approved of, and who ſhall take the ſaid Oath and be enrolled as a Subſtitute; or if any Perſon appointed by virtue of this Act to provide two or more Men for the ſaid Service, ſhall refuſe or neglect to provide Men, either by perſonal Service for one of ſuch Men, or by a Subſtitute for each Man to be provided, who ſhall reſpectively be approved of, and take the ſaid Oath and be enrolled as aforeſaid; every Perſon ſo refuſing or neglecting ſhall forfeit and pay, for and in reſpect of each Man ſo to be provided, the Sum of fifteen Pounds; which Fine and Penalty ſhall be added to the laſt Aſſeſſment of ſuch Perſon, and ſhall be levied and accounted for together with the Duties contained therein.

Penalty on Perſons appointed to provide Mares, &c. neglecting to provide, or maintain and produce them fit for Military Duty.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon appointed by virtue of this Act to provide any Mare or Gelding, or any Number of Mares or Geldings, for the ſaid Service, ſhall wilfully and without any reaſonable Excuſe, to be allowed as aforeſaid, refuſe or neglect to provide the full Complement of Mares or Geldings by him or her appointed to be provided, which ſhall reſpectively be approved at a Muſter to be taken in purſuance of this Act; or having provided ſuch Mare or Gelding, or ſuch Number of Mares or Geldings, ſhall neglect or refuſe to maintain and keep his or her full Complement of Mares or Geldings, ſo appointed to be provided, and to produce the ſame in a Condition fit for Military Duty, to be approved at every ſucceſſive Muſter to be taken in purſuance of this Act, before ſuch Time as the ſaid Forces ſhall be actually embodied, every ſuch Perſon ſhall, for every Mare or Gelding, of which Default ſhall be made as aforeſaid, forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Pounds, to be added to the laſt Aſſeſſment of ſuch Perſon, and levied and accounted for together with the Duties therein contained.

Penalty on Perſons choſen by Ballot to provide a Mare, &c. for a like Default before embodying the Forces, and on the Claſs, if not provided within 14 Days after Notice of ſuch Default, &c.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon choſen by Ballot to provide any Mare or Gelding for the ſaid Service, ſhall refuſe or neglect to provide a Mare or Gelding which ſhall be approved of at a Muſter to be taken in purſuance of this Act, or having provided ſuch Mare or Gelding ſhall neglect or refuſe to maintain and keep a Mare or Gelding, and to produce the ſame in a Condition fit for Military Duty, to be approved at every ſucceſſive Muſter to be taken in purſuance of this Act, before ſuch Time as the ſaid Forces ſhall be actually embodied, every ſuch Perſon ſhall forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds, which Sum ſhall be added to the laſt Aſſeſſment of ſuch Perſon, and levied and accounted for together with the Duties therein contained; and if after Default ſo made, the ſeveral Perſons compoſing the ſame Claſs with the Perſon ſo making Default, ſhall not, within the Space of fourteen Days after Notice in Writing given of ſuch Default, provide and produce a Mare or Gelding at every ſucceſſive Muſter to be taken in purſuance of this Act, in a Condition fit for Military Duty, to be approved as aforeſaid, and maintain and keep the ſame according to the Directions of this Act, then the ſeveral Perſons compoſing that Claſs ſhall forfeit and pay the Sum of fifteen Pounds, which Sum ſhall be aſſeſſed upon them rateably in proportion to the Number of Mares or Geldings included in that Claſs for which each ſuch Perſon is charged to the ſaid Duties, and the ſaid ſeveral Proportions of ſuch Fine ſhall be added to their laſt reſpective Aſſeſſments, and levied and accounted for together with the Duties therein reſpectively contained.

Penalty on Perſons providing a Mare, &c. not approved, and poſſeſſed of one fit for Service, and who ſhall not provide a fit one in a limited Time.

XXXIII. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That if any Perſon, providing any Mare or Gelding at any Muſter which ſhall not be approved by the Deputy Lieutenants as aforeſaid, ſhall have been poſſeſſed at the Time of any other Mare or Gelding, Mares or Geldings, fit for Service, and ſhall not, within fourteen Days from the Time of the Mare or Gelding provided by him or her being rejected, have provided another Mare or Gelding which ſhall be approved, ſuch Perſon, on Proof that he or ſhe had in his or her Poſſeſſion a Mare or Gelding, Mares or Geldings, which ſhall appear to the Satisfaction of two or more Deputy Lieutenants to have been at the Time actually fit for Service, ſhall forfeit and loſe ſuch Sum of Money as ſhall be fixed by any two or more Deputy Lieutenants as aforeſaid, not exceeding the Sum of twenty-five Pounds for each Mare or Gelding of which Default ſhall be made, to be added to the Aſſeſſment of ſuch Perſon, and accounted for together with the Duties therein contained.

Subſtitutes, before ordered to be drawn out, may give Notice of Intention to reſign, and ſhall be diſcharged, on the Principal producing another Subſtitute, &c.

XXXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon enrolled to ſerve by virtue of this Act as a Subſtitute, at any Time before he ſhall be ordered to be drawn out or embodied, to give Notice in Writing of his Intention to reſign, to any one or more of the Deputy Lieutenants or Juſtices of the Peace of the County, Riding, or Place, acting for the Subdiviſion for which he ſhall ſerve; and ſuch Deputy Lieutenant or Juſtice of the Peace ſhall iſſue a Summons to the Perſon or Perſons for whom ſuch Subſtitute ſhall have ſerved, to appear at the next Meeting to be holden for ſuch Subdiviſion, and to produce another Subſtitute, who ſhall be approved, and ſhall be enrolled and ſworn as aforeſaid; and thereupon the Perſon ſo reſigning ſhall be entitled to his Diſcharge, and which ſhall be made out in Writing under the Hands of any two or more Deputy Lieutenants or Juſtices of the Peace: Provided that no Person who shall upon his Enrolment have received any Money or other Consideration for his Service from the Person or Persons for whom he shall serve, shall be entitled to his Discharge until the full Sum or Value so received shall be repaid and satisfied: Provided also, that all Arms, Accoutrements, Cloathing, or Materials whatever, shall be delivered up in good Condition before such Discharge shall be granted.

such Substitute repaying Money received, &c.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That Musters of the Men enrolled by virtue of this Act, shall be had from Time to Time within each Subdivision of every County or Riding, at such Times, and at such Places, as shall be fixed at any General Meeting of Lieutenancy, with the Approbation of his Majesty; of which Times and Places Notice shall be given, by public Advertisement, in some Newspaper usually circulated in the same County or Riding, fourteen Days before the Time of such Muster; and if any Person enrolled by virtue of this Act shall wilfully absent himself from such Muster by the Space of one Hour after the Time appointed for taking the same, every such Person shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding ten Shillings, to be deducted out of the first Money which such Person shall be entitled to receive, whether as Allowance, Pay, or otherwise, by virtue of this Act; and the Lieutenant of the County, Riding, or Place, with the Consent of the Deputy Lieutenants of the Subdivision where such Person shall have been enrolled, may discharge such Person, and direct another Person to be chosen in his Place.

When Musters shall be had.

Penalty for absenting from Muster.

Persons so absenting may be discharged, and others chosen.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Deputy Lieutenants of every Subdivision of any County or Riding, and the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Independant Company, or such Officer or Officers as his Majesty shall have appointed for that Purpose, or any two or more of them, shall muster the Men enrolled by virtue of this Act, within their respective Subdivisions, in such Manner as may by Law be used in mustering the Militia Forces; and all Fines imposed on any Person enrolled for any Neglect of Duty in any Matter relating to such Muster, shall be ordered, adjudged, and imposed by the said Deputy Lieutenants, Commanding Officer, or other Officer or Officers aforesaid, or any two of them, who are hereby empowered finally to determine the same.

Who shall muster the Men enrolled, and fine them for Neglect.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That the like Penalties and Forfeitures as are directed to be inflicted against Persons belonging to his Majesty's Army, for causing themselves to be falsely mustered, or against Persons for procuring the same to be done, or for aiding or assisting them therein, by any Law now in Force, or hereafter to be passed for punishing Mutiny and Desertion in respect of his Majesty's Army, shall extend to every Person enrolled by virtue of this Act, who shall be guilty of the like Offence or Offences, their Procurers, Aiders, and Abettors respectively.

The Penalties for false Musters in the Army to extend to this Act.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the General Meetings of Lieutenancy in the several Counties, Ridings, and Places in that Part of Great Britain aforesaid, shall cause to be prepared an Estimate of the Allowance to be made for providing a Man to attend the General Musters, and of Cloathing such Man according to the Directions of this Act, and what ought reasonably to be allowed to the Persons providing such Mares or Geldings for the said Service, for any extra Expences to be incurred in providing Furniture, maintaining and keeping such Mares or Geldings, for the Space of one Year, which such Persons would not be subject to if such Mares or Geldings were not provided for such Service, and shall settle and determine at what Times such Allowances shall be made; and every Person who shall be appointed or chosen by Ballot to provide any Man, or any Mares or Geldings, for the Purpose aforesaid, and who shall duly conform to the Regulations of this Act, shall be entitled to receive the full Allowance so settled; and the Deputy Lieutenants within their respective Divisions shall demand from the Receiver General of the County, Riding, or Place, all such Sums of Money as shall become due in respect of the Men, and also the Mares and Geldings, provided within such Division, for the Use of the Persons providing the same respectively, to be paid to them at such Times as shall be fixed and settled by the said General Meetings of Lieutenancy; which Sums such Receivers General are hereby required, from Time to Time, during the Continuance of this Act, until the Men enrolled by virtue of this Act shall be called out and embodied by virtue of the Powers hereby given to his Majesty, on Demand, to pay, on the Production of the Certificate of the Conformity to the Regulations of this Act, signed by the Officer or Officers of Muster appointed by virtue of this Act, taking a proper Receipt or Receipts for the same, out of the Monies in his Hands of the Sums raised by virtue of this Act; and if he shall not have sufficient of the said Money, then to pay the same out of the Duties beforementioned, or any other Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes; and all such Payments shall be allowed to such Receivers General in their Accounts.

Meetings of Lieutenancy to prepare certain Estimates.

Persons providing Men or Mares, &c. to be entitled to a settled Allowance.

Deputy Lieutenants to receive the Money due for Allowances from the Receiver General, &c.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That the Clerk of the General Meetings of Lieutenancy in any County, Riding, or Place, shall, and he is hereby required to transmit a true Account of the Allowances to be made to the several Persons before mentioned, on account of their providing any Man or Men, or any Mare or Gelding, or any Mares or Geldings, for the said Service, to the Commissioners of the Land Tax for the same County, Riding, or Place, within their respective Divisions; which Accounts shall contain the Names and Places of Residence of all such Persons who are charged to the said Duties in respect of any Horses, Mares, or Geldings, together with the Number thereof kept by them respectively within those Divisions, and also the Names and Places of Residence of Persons exempted from the Provisions of this Act; and shall also, from Time to Time, transmit an Account of all Fines imposed on any Person or Persons by virtue of this Act; and the said Commissioners shall cause the said Fines to be inserted in the Assessments for the then current Year, and the Persons so fined to be respectively charged therewith; and shall also cause all the Persons, within their Divisions liable to provide Men, and Mares or Geldings, as aforesaid, for the said Service, to be assessed in proportion to the Number of Horses, Mares, and Geldings by them respectively kept,

Clerk of General Meetings to transmit an Account of Allowances, &c. and Fines, to the Commissioners of the Land Tax for the County, who shall insert the Fines in the Assessments, and charge the Persons liable to provide Men kept, and charged to the said Duties, towards Payment of the Allowances to be made to the several Persons before-mentioned, for providing such Men and Horses for such Service, which Assessments shall be added to the Assessments of the said Duties upon Horses, and shall include all Allowances to be made from the passing of this Act until and upon the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and afterwards for one whole Year from the fifth Day of April yearly during the Continuance of this Act, until the Men enrolled by virtue of this Act shall be drawn out and embodied; and the same shall be paid on the usual Quarterly Days of Payment during such Time as the Men enrolled by virtue of this Act shall continue to be mustered in pursuance of this Act, or until they shall be drawn out and embodied; and if any Sum inserted in such Assessment shall not have become payable at the Expiration of this Act, or when the Men enrolled by virtue of this Act shall be drawn out and embodied, such Sum shall be struck out of such Assessment by the said respective Commissioners.

Application of Assessments paid to the Receiver General.

XL. And be it further enacted, That all Monies raised by Assessment by virtue of this Act, and paid into the Hands of the Receiver General of the County, Riding, or Place, shall be applied, in the first Place, to reimburse such Receiver General the Monies paid by him out of the Produce of the said Duties upon Horses, or any other Duties herein mentioned, and in the next Place towards paying the Allowances directed to be made to Persons providing the Military Force to be raised by virtue of this Act in the Manner herein directed, and afterwards towards reimbursing the Monies directed to be advanced by the Commissioners of the Treasury towards the Expences of executing this Act; and if any Monies shall remain, the same shall be applied towards providing Men, and Mares or Geldings, for the Service required by this Act, in any Case where Default shall be made in providing the same according to the Directions herein-before contained; and any Surplus remaining when the Men shall be drawn out and embodied, and not wanted for any of the Purposes aforesaid, shall be paid to the Colonels or Commanding Officers of the respective Regiments or Troops, and be applied as Part of the Regimental Stock.

If before the Men be called out and embodied it shall appear that any are unfit for Service, the Sub-division Meeting may refuse to enrol them; and the Mustering Officer may discharge them, though enrolled, and another Appointment or Ballot be made.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That if at any Time before the Men shall be called out and embodied, according to the Directions of this Act, it shall appear, to any two or more Deputy Lieutenants or Justices assembled at any Sub-division Meeting, that any Person appointed or chosen by Ballot to provide for the said Military Service, and tendering himself to serve, or any Person tendered as a Substitute for the said Service, or if it shall appear to the Officer or Officers appointed to muster the Men to be raised by virtue of this Act, that any Person, although sworn and enrolled, is unfit for Military Service, or that after Enrolment such Person is become unfit for Military Service, it shall be lawful for the said Deputy Lieutenants, and Justices, or any two of them, assembled at such Sub-division Meeting, to refuse such Man to be enrolled, and for the Officer or Officers appointed to muster the said Men, at such Muster to discharge such Man from Service; and the Deputy Lieutenants and Justices assembled at any Meeting within the same Sub-division shall and they are hereby required to amend the List and Enrolment, as the Case may require, and to cause another Appointment to be made upon the Person before appointed to the same Service, or another Ballot to be taken from the same Class, according to the Circumstances of the Case, and as if no former Appointment had been made or Ballot been had.

Fines (except such as are imposed at a Muster) shall be adjudged at Sub-division Meetings; and such as are to be added to Assessments of the Duties on Horses to be certified to the Commissioners of the Land Tax.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, to be imposed by virtue of this Act, for any Breach of the Regulations thereof, which are hereby directed to be added to the respective Assessments of the said Duties on Horses, (except such Fines as shall be imposed at a Muster had under this Act in Manner before directed,) shall be ordered, adjudged, and imposed, at the respective Sub-division Meetings of the County, Riding, or Place, where such Offences shall be committed, by the Deputy Lieutenants and Justices there attending, or any two or more of them, who are hereby empowered finally to determine the same; and all such Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, which are hereby directed to be added to the respective Assessments of the said Duties on Horses, shall, as soon after Adjudication thereof as may be convenient, be certified by the Deputy Lieutenants and others hereby empowered to adjudge the same, under the Hands and Seals of any two or more of them respectively, to the Commissioners of the Land Tax of the Division where the Person against whom the same is directed to be levied is charged to the said Duties on Horses; and such Commissioners shall, on Receipt of any such Certificate, cause the Fine or Fines contained therein to be added to the then last Assessment of such Person for the said Duties on Horses, and to be levied in the Manner, and under the like Powers, as the Duties on Horses may be levied by any Law now in Force.

Lists of Persons to provide Men, and of Classes, to be transcribed into a Book, and kept by the Clerks of Sub-division Meetings; as also all their Proceedings, and those of the General Meetings of Lieutenancy; which shall not be subject to Appeal.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That all Lists of Persons appointed or chosen by Ballot to provide Men for the said Service, and of the Classes composing the same, shall be carefully transcribed into a Book to be prepared by Order of every Sub-division Meeting of Lieutenancy, and kept by the Clerk of such Meetings; and that all Orders, Regulations, and Proceedings of such Meetings, and also of the General Meetings of Lieutenancy, made in pursuance of this Act, shall also be carefully transcribed into a Book or Books to be prepared by Order of such Meetings respectively, and kept by the respective Clerks thereof; which Books shall be open to the Inspection of any Person assessed to the said Duties on Horses, within the same County, Riding, or Shire, at all seasonable Times, paying Sixpence, and no more, for each Inspection; and that no Order, Adjudication, or Proceeding whatever, of any General Meeting, or Sub-division Meeting of Lieutenancy, holden in pursuance of this Act, shall be subject to Appeal, nor to be removed by Certiorari, or other Writ or Process, into any Court whatsoever.

XLIV. And

His Majesty may cause the Men enrolled to be drawn out and embodied, as the Augmentation to the Militia Forces. Lieutenants, &c. with his Majesty's Approbation, may appoint Officers and Non-commissioned Officers, the former being qualified as in the Militia; or in certain Cases, Officers in the Army, or such as have retired from it, or the Militia.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for his Majesty to cause the Men enrolled by virtue of this Act, to be drawn out and embodied at such Times, and in such Manner, and under the like Regulations and Restrictions, as the Augmentation to the Militia Forces to be raised by virtue of any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament, may be drawn out and embodied; and it shall be lawful for his Majesty to form the Men enrolled for any County, Riding, or Place, when so drawn out and embodied, into a Regiment, or into Battalions or Troops, as shall seem most expedient; and for the Lieutenant, or General Meeting of Lieutenancy, in such County, Riding, or Place, to be holden as herein is directed, with the Approbation of his Majesty, at any Time after the passing of this Act, to appoint Officers and Non-commissioned Officers to the Command of such Regiment, Battalions, or Troops, under the like Rules and Regulations as are established with respect to the Cavalry of his Majesty's Forces, such Officers being respectively qualified in the Manner required by the Laws relating to the Militia; and in case, when the Men so enrolled shall be embodied, a sufficient Number of Officers so qualified shall not have been appointed, or cannot be found to accept Commissions in such Regiments, Battalions, or Troops, it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant, or General Meeting of Lieutenancy aforesaid, with the Approbation of his Majesty, to appoint for that Service such a Number of the Officers in the Army, whether on Full or on Half Pay, or of Persons who have had Commissions in any of his Majesty's Forces, or in the Militia, and have retired therefrom, although not duly qualified as aforesaid.

The Men enrolled not to be ordered out of Great Britain.

XLV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That neither the Whole or any Part of the Men enrolled by virtue of this Act, shall on any Account be carried or ordered to go out of Great Britain.

When drawn out and embodied, the Officers and Men to receive the same Pay as in other Regiments of Cavalry; and the Non-commissioned Officers and Privates entitled to Chelsea Hospital. Allowance to be made for Mares, &c. dying, &c. in actual service.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That from the Date of his Majesty's Warrant for drawing out and embodying the Forces to be raised by virtue of this Act, the Officers and Private Men shall be entitled to the same Pay as the Officers and Private Men of his Majesty's other Regiments of Cavalry receive, and no other; and if any Non commissioned Officer or Private Man of any such Regiment, Battalion, or Troop, shall be maimed or wounded in actual Service, he shall be equally entitled to the Benefit of Chelsea Hospital with any Non commissioned Officer or Private Man belonging to any of his Majesty's other Forces; and if any Mare or Gelding shall die or be maimed or wounded in actual Service, the Proprietor thereof shall have a reasonable Allowance for the same, by the Certificate of the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Company, where such Mare or Gelding had or then served, to be directed to the Deputy Lieutenants of the Sub-division where such Mare or Gelding was provided, which the said Commanding Officer is hereby empowered and required to grant, and which Allowance shall not in any Case exceed the Sum of twenty-five Pounds, and which shall be paid by the Receiver General of the County, Riding, or Place, out of any Monies in his Hands arising by virtue of this Act, or of the said Duties on Horses, or of any other Duties under the Management of the said Commissioners of Taxes, in the Manner herein directed in respect to other Payments to be made by such Receivers General.

When the Men are drawn out into actual Service, the Mutiny Act shall extend to them.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That from the Day appointed by his Majesty's Warrant for drawing out the Men, enrolled by virtue of this Act, into actual Service, all the Rules, Regulations, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, established by an Act of the last Session of Parliament, for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and its Quarters, or which shall be established by any Act to be passed in this or any future Session of Parliament for the like Purpose, during the Continuance of this Act, shall extend and be applied, and be construed to extend and be applied, to the Men enrolled by virtue of this Act, as fully and amply as to any other of his Majesty's Forces.

Persons enrolled before drawn out may enlist in the regular Forces; with the Consent of two Deputy Lieutenants; and others to be provided.

XLVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That any Person enrolled by virtue of this Act may, at any Time before he shall be ordered to be drawn out and embodied, enlist himself in any Regiment of his Majesty's Regular Forces; but that no such Enlistment shall be valid without the Consent of the Deputy Lieutenants of the Sub-division where such Person shall be enrolled, or any two of them, in Writing under their Hands and Seals; in which Case another Person shall be provided in the Room of the Person so enlisted, according to the Directions of this Act.

Clerks of the General Meetings, &c. to be rewarded, as the Deputy Lieutenants shall think proper, by the Receiver General.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That the respective Clerks of the General Meetings of Lieutenancy, the Clerks of the respective Sub-divisions of Lieutenancy, of the Commissioners of the Land Tax, Constables, and other Officers who are hereby respectively required to execute this Act, in any of the Particulars herein mentioned, and who shall respectively execute the same to the Satisfaction of the Deputy Lieutenants assembled at their respective Sub-division Meetings, shall have and receive such Rewards, and no other, for their Care and Trouble in and about the executing of this Act, and for their respective Expences and Charges in the same, as the said Deputy Lieutenants shall judge the said Clerks, Officers, and other Persons to have deserved; and the said Deputy Lieutenants shall, after Allowance thereof, direct the same to be paid by the Receiver General of the County, Riding, or Place, out of any Money in his Hands, of the Assessments levied by virtue of this Act, whether the same shall have been levied as Fines, or for the Expences in providing a Military Force; and if such Receiver General shall not have sufficient Money in his Hands of the said Assessments to pay the same, then such Receiver General may pay the same out of any Monies in his Hands of the said Duties on Horses, or any other Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes: Provided always, that all Monies of the said Duties under the Management of the said Commissioners, which any Receiver General shall pay in pursuance of this Act,

Receiver General to be re-im-

Purſed out of the firſt Aſſeſſment.

ſhall be reimburſed to him by and by out of the firſt Monies that ſhall come to his Hands of the Aſſeſſments levied by virtue of this Act.

General or Sub-diviſion Meetings may require the Attendance of Peace Officers: Penalty on ſuch Officers for Neglect of Duty.

L. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for the Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenants, at any General or Sub diviſion Meeting of Lieutenancy, or any two or more of them reſpectively preſent at ſuch Meetings, from Time to Time, to iſſue their Order or Warrant, under their Hands and Seals, requiring the Attendance of the High Conſtable, Tythingman, Headborough, or other Officer of the Peace at ſuch Time and Place as in ſuch Order or Warrant ſhall be expreſſed; and if any ſuch Officer ſhall refuſe or neglect to appear according to ſuch Warrant, or ſhall refuſe or neglect to comply with ſuch Orders and Directions as he or they reſpectively ſhall, from Time to Time, receive from the ſaid Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenants reſpectively, they, or any two or more of them, are hereby empowered and required, at their Diſcretion, to fine ſuch Perſon or Perſons in any Sum, not exceeding twenty Pounds nor leſs than forty Shillings, to be applied towards defraying any Expences incurred in the Execution of this Act; and in caſe of Nonpayment within thirteen Days, to commit the Perſon ſo offending to the Common Gaol, there to be kept for the Space of one Month without Bail or Mainprize.

24 Geo. II. Cap. 44. to extend to Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants.

LI. And be it further enacted, That the Proviſions of an Act, paſſed in the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the rendering Juſtices of the Peace more ſafe in the Execution of their Office, and for indemnifying Conſtables and others acting in Obedience to their Warrants, ſhall extend to all his Majeſty's Lieutenants, and to all Deputy Lieutenants acting in the Execution of this Act, in like Manner, and as fully and effectually, as the ſame extend to Juſtices of the Peace acting in the Execution of their Office.

Acceptance of Commiſſions not to vacate Seats in Parliament

LII. And be it further enacted, That the Acceptance of a Commiſſion in any Regiment, Battalion, or Troop, raiſed by virtue of this Act, ſhall not vacate the Seat of any Member returned to ſerve in Parliament; and that no Perſon being an Officer of any ſuch Regiment, Battalion or Troop, ſhall be compelled to ſerve the Office of Sheriff.

No Officer compellable to ſerve as Sheriff.

No Perſon liable to Penalty for Abſence, going to or returning from Election of Members of Parliament.

LIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Officer of any ſuch Regiment, Battalion, or Troop, or Private therein, ſhall be liable to any Penalty or Puniſhment for or on account of his Abſence during the Time he ſhall be going to vote at any Election of a Member to ſerve in Parliament, or during the Time he ſhall be returning from ſuch Election.

No private Man compellable to ſerve as a Peace or Pariſh Officer, or in the Navy.

LIV. And be it further enacted, That no private Man in any ſuch Regiment, Battalion, or Troop, from the Time of his Enrolment until he ſhall be regularly diſcharged, ſhall be compelled to ſerve as a Peace Officer or Pariſh Officer, or to ſerve in any of his Majeſty's Sea Forces.

Married Men, having been drawn out into actual Service, may ſet up Trade in any Place in Great Britain, as Mariners or Soldiers may, under Stat. 22 Geo. II. Cap. 44.

LV. And be it further enacted, That every Perſon having ſerved in any ſuch Regiment, Battalion, or Troop, when drawn out into actual Service, being a married Man, may ſet up, and exerciſe any Trade in any Town or Place within Great Britain, without any Let, Suit, or Moleſtation, of or from any Perſon or Perſons whomſoever, for or by reaſon of uſing or exerciſing ſuch Trade, as freely, and with the ſame Proviſions, and under the ſame Regulations, and with the like Exception in reſpect to the two Univerſities, as any Mariner or Soldier can or may do by virtue of an Act, paſſed in the twenty-ſecond Year of his late Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act to enable ſuch Officers, Mariners, and Soldiers, as have been in his Majeſty's Service ſince his Acceſſion to the Throne, to exerciſe Trades; and no ſuch Perſon ſhall be liable to be removed out of any ſuch Town or Place, until he is become chargeable to the Pariſh.

Such Places as by 26 Geo. III, Cap. 107. are deemed to be ſituate within any Part of Counties for the Purpoſes of that Act, ſhall be ſo deemed for the Purpoſes of this Act.

LVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all ſuch Towns and Places as by an Act paſſed in the twenty-ſixth Year of his Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for amending and reducing into one Act of Parliament, the Laws relating to the Militia in that Part of Great Britain called England, are directed to be deemed to be ſituate within and Part of any Counties, Ridings, or Places, for the Purpoſes of the ſaid Act, ſhall alſo be deemed to be ſituate within and Part of the ſame Counties, Ridings, and Places reſpectively, for the Purpoſes of this Act; and ſhall be ſubject to the Juriſdiction and Authority of the Lieutenants, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, and other Officers of the reſpective Counties, Ridings, and Places, within which ſuch Towns and Places are hereby and by the ſaid Act deemed to be ſituate in ſuch and the ſame Manner as is provided by the ſaid Act.

This Act not to prejudice the Rights of the City of London.

LVII. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That this Act, or any Thing herein contained, ſhall not be deemed or conſtrued to be a Precedent, on any future Occaſion, to diminiſh or be prejudicial to the Rights, Liberties, Cuſtoms, Privileges, Immunities, and Exemptions, to which the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, or the Freemen, Citizens, or Inhabitants of the ſaid City are entitled to enjoy by Preſcription, Act of Parliament, Charter, Uſage, or otherwiſe howſoever.

Limitation of Actions.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit ſhall be brought againſt any Perſon or Perſons, for any Thing done in purſuance of this Act, ſuch Action or Suit ſhall be commenced within ſix Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and ſhall be laid in the County or Place where the Cauſe of Complaint did ariſe, and not elſewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in every ſuch Action or

rying Coastwise, or carrying out, or the Exportation of, the several Sorts of Corn, or other Articles, as aforesaid, for all or any of the Purposes mentioned in the said two Acts, passed in the thirty-first and thirty-third Years of his present Majesty's Reign, or either of them, in like Manner, and in the same Proportions and Quantities, and from and to the same Ports and Places as is allowed by the said two Acts, or either of them, at such Times as any of the several Sorts of Corn, or other Articles as aforesaid, are prohibited to be exported, subject to the like Securities, Conditions, Regulations, and Restrictions, Forfeitures, and Penalties, as are by the said two Acts, or by either of them, in any such Case required and imposed; and also to permit, by special Order or Orders in Council, the Exportation of a limited Quantity of any of the several Sorts of Corn or other Articles as aforesaid, from any Port in Great Britain, to any Country in Europe in Amity with his Majesty, South of Cape Finisterre, subject to such Security, Conditions, Regulations, and Restrictions, as by such Order in Council shall be directed.

and the Exportation of a limited Quantity to Places in Amity with his Majesty, South of Cape Finisterre.

Certain Articles may be imported, Duty-free, from any Place, in British Vessels, or Vessels belonging to Places in Amity with his Majesty.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the Expiration of the said Act, and until the Expiration of six Weeks from the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons whatever to import into Great Britain, from any Port or Place whatever, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with his Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, any Beans, called Kidney or French Beans, Tares, Lentiles, Callivancies, and all other Sorts of Pulse; and also Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, and Swine, Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, and Lamb, whether salted or otherwise, Bacon, Hams, Tongues, Butter, Cheese, Potatoes, Rice, Sago, Sago-powder, Tapioca, Vermicelli, Millet Seed, Poultry, Fowls, Eggs, Game, and Sour-crout, without the Payment of any Duty whatever, at all Times before the said Expiration of six Weeks from the Commencement of the said next Session of Parliament; any Thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Entry to be made of such Articles with the Officer of the Customs, on Penalty of Forfeiture.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That a due Entry shall be made of all such Beans called Kidney or French Beans, Tares, Lentiles, Callivancies, and all other Sorts of Pulse; and of such Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, and Swine, Beef, and Pork, Veal, Mutton, and Lamb, Bacon, Hams, Tongues, Butter, Cheese, Potatoes, Rice, Sago, Sago-powder, Tapioca, Vermicelli, Millet Seed, Poultry, Fowls, Eggs, Game, and Sour-crout, that shall be imported by virtue of this Act, with the proper Officers of the Customs, at the Port into which the same shall be imported; and in default thereof, the same shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of his Majesty's Customs.

Recovery and Application of Forfeitures.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Penalties and Forfeitures created and incurred by this Act, (and not herein otherwise specially directed to be prosecuted and recovered,) shall and may be sued for, prosecuted, recovered, and disposed of, in such Manner, and by such Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Penalties incurred, or any Goods, Ships, or Vessels, forfeited for any Offence against the Laws of Customs, may now be legally sued for, prosecuted, recovered, and disposed of; and the Officer or Officers concerned in Seizures or Prosecutions under this Act shall be entitled to and receive such Share of the Produce arising from the Seizures as they are now by Law entitled to upon Prosecutions of Seizures for unlawful Importation, and to such Share of the Produce arising from any pecuniary Fine or Penalty, or Composition paid for any Offence against this Act, as they are now by any Law or Regulation entitled to upon Prosecutions for pecuniary Penalties.

His Majesty, during the Recess of Parliament, may suspend this Act.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case his Majesty, at any Time during the Recess of Parliament, shall judge it to be most for the Benefit and Advantage of this Kingdom to suspend all or any of the Provisions of this Act, then it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by his or their Royal Proclamation, to be issued by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, or by his Majesty's Order in Council, to be published in the London Gazette, so to do.

Commissioners of Excise, till Feb. 1, 1797, may grant Licence for using Wheat, &c. imported to obtain Bounty under 36 Geo. III. Cap. 21. found unfit for Bread, in making Starch, &c. or in Distillation.

VII. 'And whereas certain Quantities of Wheat, or Wheat Flour, or Meal, have been imported in 'order to obtain the Bounties granted by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for 'allowing Bounties, for a limited Time, on the Importation, into Great Britain, of any Wheat, Wheat Flour, 'Indian Corn, Indian Meal or Rye, in British Ships, or other Ships the Property of Persons of any Kingdom or 'State in Amity with his Majesty, or on the Delivery of the same out of Warehouse for Home Consumption, but 'which having appeared upon Inspection and Examination, according to the Directions of the said Act, not 'to be fit for making Bread, have not received any of the said Bounties: And whereas it is expedient that 'Permission should be given for using the same for other Purposes notwithstanding any Act or Acts of Parlia-'ment now in force to the contrary;' be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Excise, or the major Part of them, in England and Scotland respectively, at any Time on or before the first Day of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, to grant a Licence or Licences for using any such Wheat, Wheat Flour, or Meal, in making Starch, Hair Powder, or Blue, or in Distillation of Low Wines or Spirits, upon Proof being made to their Satisfaction, upon Oath or otherwise, that such Wheat, Wheat Flour, or Meal, had been so imported, and upon Inspection and Examination was deemed not fit for making Bread; and such Licence or Licences shall be granted subject to such Regulations for preventing Fraud or Abuse thereof as to the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them respectively, shall seem proper; any Thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

This Act may be altered or repealed this Session.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be varied, altered, or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. XIV.

An Act for granting to His Majesty additional Duties of Excise on Auctions, Bricks, Cocoa Nuts, British and Foreign Spirits, and Tea.—[28th December 1796.]

' Most Gracious Sovereign,

' WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament ' assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray your Majesty's Public Expences, and ' making a permanent Addition to the Public Revenue, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and ' grant unto your Majesty the several new and additional Rates and Duties of Excise herein respectively ' mentioned: And do therefore most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, Duties in Schedule (A) to be levied, and Drawbacks in Schedule (B) allowed.

That there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, to and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon the several Goods, Wares, Merchandize, and Commodities, mentioned and described in the Schedule marked (A), hereunto annexed, the several Sums of Money and Duties of Excise, as they are respectively inserted, described, and set forth in the said Schedule; and that there shall be made, allowed, and paid, for or in respect of Goods, Wares, Merchandize, and Commodities, for or in respect whereof any Duty of Excise is by this Act imposed, to the several Persons entitled to the same, the several Drawbacks of Excise as the same are also respectively inserted, described, and set forth, in the Schedule marked (B), hereunto annexed; and also all such special Allowances as are particularly directed by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on and immediately before the passing of this Act; and the same respectively shall commence and take effect from the respective Days mentioned in the said Schedules, in Cases where special Dates are inserted therein, and in Cases where no such Date is inserted, from the Day on which this Act shall receive the Royal Assent.

Commencement of Duties.

Duties to be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise in England and Scotland respectively.

II. And be it further enacted, That such of the Duties of Excise by this Act imposed, as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called England, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise in England for the Time being; and such thereof as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland for the Time being; and shall be accounted for, cleared off, paid, satisfied, and discharged by the Person and Persons liable to the accounting for, clearing off, Payment, Satisfaction, or Discharge thereof, at such Time and Times, and in such Manner, as the Duties of Excise chargeable upon the like Goods, Wares, Merchandize, and Commodities respectively, or upon any Person or Persons for or in respect thereof, were by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force immediately before the passing of this Act, to be accounted for, cleared off, paid, satisfied, or discharged.

Where Contracts have been

III. ' And whereas Contracts or Agreements may have been made before the said seventh Day of ' December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, by Importers or Dealers in Foreign Spirits, and by ' Distillers

'Distillers and Makers of Spirits, for such Spirits respectively to be delivered after the said seventh Day of 'December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six;' be it therefore enacted, That such Importers or Dealers, and such Distillers and Makers, respectively delivering such Spirits after the said seventh Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, in pursuance of such Contracts, shall be allowed to add so much Money, as will be equivalent to the Duties by this Act imposed for or in respect of such Spirits respectively, to the Price thereof, and shall be entitled by virtue of this Act to be paid for the same accordingly.

made before December 7, 1796, for Delivery of Spirits after that Day, the Duty may added to the Price.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the said several Sums of Money respectively inserted, described, and set forth in the said Schedule hereunto annexed, marked (A), as the Duties of Excise; and the Drawbacks of the Duties of Excise set forth in the said Schedule marked (B), upon the several Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities inserted therein, shall and may be respectively raised, levied, collected, answered, paid, recovered, adjudged, mitigated, and allowed, in such and the like Manner, and in or by any or either of the general Means, Ways, or Methods by which the former Duties of Excise respectively, and Drawbacks of Duties of Excise respectively, or by any or either of the special Means, Ways, or Methods respectively by which the former Duties of Excise respectively, and Drawbacks of Duties of Excise respectively, upon Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities of the same Sorts or Kinds respectively, were or might be raised, levied, collected, answered, paid, recovered, adjudged, mitigated, and allowed; and the Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities so by this Act respectively made liable to the Payment of, or chargeable with Duties of Excise, or so entitled to Drawbacks of Duties of Excise, as respectively inserted, described, and set forth in the said Schedules hereunto annexed, shall be, and the same are hereby made subject to all and every the Conditions, Regulations, Rules, Restrictions, and Forfeitures, to which Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities in general, and also all and every the special Conditions, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, and Forfeitures respectively, to which the like Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes respectively were subject and liable, by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force immediately before the passing of this Act respecting the Duties of Excise; and all and every Pain, Penalty, Fine, or Forfeiture, of any Nature or Kind whatever, as well Pains of Death, as others, for any Offence whatever committed against or in breach of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force immediately before the passing of this Act, made for securing the Revenue of Excise, or for the Regulation or Improvement thereof; and the several Clauses, Powers, and Directions therein contained, shall and are hereby directed and declared to extend to, and shall be respectively applied, practised, and put in Execution for and in respect of the several Duties of Excise, and Drawbacks of Duties of Excise hereby charged and allowed, in as full and ample Manner, to all Intents and Purposes whatever, as if all and every the said Acts, Clauses, Provisions, Powers, Directions, Fines, Pains, Penalties, or Forfeitures were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act.

Duties and Drawbacks to be levied and allowed according to, and the Goods, &c. to be subject to the Laws of Excise; and all Pains and Penalties of former Acts extended to Duties imposed by this Act.

V. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where Duties are imposed, or Drawbacks allowed by this Act, on any specific Quantity of Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, the same shall in every Case be understood and deemed and taken to apply in the same Proportion, and after the same Rate, to any greater or less Quantity than such specific Quantity.

Duties and Drawbacks on specific Quantities to apply proportionally to greater or less Quantities.

VI. And be it further enacted, That all the Money arising by the Duties by this Act imposed (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted) shall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster; and the said Monies so paid into the said Receipt of Exchequer as aforesaid, shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund.

Duties to be paid into the Exchequer, and carried to Consolidated Fund, VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all the Monies arising, or to arise, by the said Rates and Duties, or any of them, shall be deemed an Addition made to the Revenue, for the Purpose of defraying the increased Charge occasioned by any Loan made, or Stock created or to be created by virtue of any Act or Acts passed, or to be passed, in this Session of Parliament; and that the said Monies shall, during the Space of ten Years next ensuing, be paid into the said Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Public Revenues; and that there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt, during the said Period of ten Years, a Book or Books, in which all the Monies arising from the said Rates and Duties, and paid into the said Receipt, shall, together with the Monies arising from any other Rates and Duties, granted in this Session of Parliament, for the Purpose of defraying such increased Charge as aforesaid, be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, upon any Account whatever.

An Act for granting to His Majesty certain Duties of Customs, on Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, imported into, exported from, or brought and carried Coastwise, within Great Britain, except Wine, and except Coals, when brought or carried Coastwise; and for applying the Money to arise by virtue of an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for Reduction of the Drawbacks and Bounties now allowed on the Exportation of Sugar, towards defraying the encreased Charge occasioned by any Loan granted, or Stock created, by any Act or Acts passed in the last Session of Parliament.

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

'WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament 'assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray your Majesty's Public Expences, and 'making a permanent Addition to the Public Revenue, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and 'grant unto your Majesty the several additional Duties of Customs herein-after mentioned; and do most 'humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, over and above the Duties payable by Law, the following additional Duties on Sugars, to be paid in ready Money, without any Discount or Abatement whatever; that is to say,

The following additional Duties on Sugars to be paid:

Rates.

For every Hundred Weight, containing one hundred and twelve Pounds, of Brown and Muscovado Sugar of the British Plantations, which shall be imported or brought into Great Britain, or which shall have been so imported, after the seventh Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, the Sum of two Shillings and Sixpence; and so in proportion for any greater or less Quantity:

For every Hundred Weight, containing one hundred and twelve Pounds, of Sugar, which shall have been or shall be imported into Great Britain, by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, and which shall have been or shall be sold at the Sales of the said Company, to be used or consumed in this Kingdom, after the said seventh Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, the Sum of two Shillings and Sixpence; and so in proportion for any greater or less Quantity: And,

For every Hundred Weight, containing one hundred and twelve Pounds, of all Sugar which shall be imported into Great Britain, (except Sugars herein-before charged,) or which shall have been so imported, after the said seventh Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, the Sum of five Shillings; and so in proportion for any greater or less Quantity.

If Sugars subject to the Duty of 5 s. be warehoused, it shall not be paid till taken out for Home Consumption.

II. Provided always, That if any Sugars subject to the said Duty of five Shillings imposed by this Act, shall be warehoused by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament, then and in such Case the said Duty shall not be paid or payable thereon, until such Sugars shall be taken out of such Warehouse to be used or consumed in this Kingdom; in which Case, and before the same shall be delivered from such Warehouse, the said Duty, over and above all other Duties to which such Sugars are liable by Law, shall be first paid to the proper Officer of his Majesty's Customs.

On Brown and Muscovado Sugar of the British Plantations, imported after Dec. 7, 1796, a Drawback of the Duty to be allowed on Exportation;

III. And be it further enacted, That upon all Brown and Muscovado Sugar, of the British Plantations, which shall have been imported into Great Britain after the said seventh Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, and on which the Duties by this Act imposed shall have been paid, there shall be paid or allowed, on the due Exportation thereof, within the Times limited by Law, a Drawback of the Whole of the said Duty by this Act imposed, provided the said Sugar be exported in the same State in which it was imported, but not otherwise.

and on Bastard, &c. Sugars so imported, an additional Drawback of 2 s. 6 d. per Cwt.;

IV. And be it further enacted, That for all Refined Sugar called Bastard, and Ground or Powdered Sugar, and Refined Loaf Sugar broke in Pieces, and all Sugar called Candy, which shall be made from Brown or Muscovado Sugar of the British Plantations, which shall have been imported into Great Britain, after the said seventh Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, and on which the Duty by this Act imposed shall have been paid, there shall be allowed on Exportation of every Hundred Weight thereof, containing one hundred and twelve Pounds, within the Time limited by Law, to the Exporter thereof, a Drawback or Bounty of two Shillings and Sixpence, and so in proportion for any greater or less Quantity of such Sugars respectively, over and above all other Bounties or Drawbacks allowed for the same by Law, on and immediately before the said seventh Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six.

and on refined Sugar made from Brown and Muscovado Sugar so imported, an additional Drawback of 4 s.

V. And be it further enacted, That for all Refined Sugar in the Loaf and Whole, being net, which shall be made from Brown and Muscovado Sugar of the British Plantations, which shall have been imported into Great Britain after the said seventh Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, and on which the Duty by this Act imposed shall have been paid, there shall be allowed on Exportation of every Hundred Weight thereof, containing one hundred and twelve Pounds, within the Time limited by Law, to the Exporter thereof, a Drawback or Bounty of four Shillings, and so in proportion for any greater or less Quantity of such Sugar, over and above all other Drawbacks or Bounties allowed for the same by Law, on and immediately before the said seventh Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six.

3 s. 7 d. additional Duty to be paid for every 1000 Bricks imported after passing this Act;

VI. And be it further enacted, That there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the following additional Duties of Customs; that is to say, for every thousand of Bricks imported into Great Britain from and after the passing of this Act, the Sum of three Shillings and Seven-pence.

and an additional Duty of 5 l. per Cent. on the Amount of the Duties of Customs on Goods imported, &c. and 10 l. per Cent. on those Duties on certain Articles; but not chargeable on warehoused Prize Goods till delivered out for Home Consumption.

VII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, there shall also be raised, levied, collected, and paid respectively, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, an additional Duty of Customs at and after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum upon the Produce and Amount of all the several Duties of Customs then payable by Law, for and upon any Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, which shall be imported into, exported from, or brought or carried Coastwise from Port to Port in Great Britain, except as herein-after is excepted; and a like additional Duty of Customs at and after the Rate of ten Pounds per Centum upon the Produce and Amount of the several Duties of Customs then due and payable by Law, on the Importation into Great Britain of the following Articles, that is to say, Brimstone, Hemp, Iron in Bars or unwrought, and Staves, imported from any Part of Europe: Provided always, that the said respective Duties of five Pounds and ten Pounds per Centum herein-before granted, shall not be charged or paid for or on account of any Prize Goods which now are, or hereafter may be, warehoused in this Kingdom, by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament made for granting Relief to the Captors of Prizes, with respect to the bringing and landing Prize Goods in this Kingdom, unless and until such Goods shall be taken out of or delivered from such Warehouses to be used or consumed in this Kingdom; in which Case, and before the same shall be so taken out of or delivered from such Warehouses, the respective Duties by this Act imposed of five Pounds and ten Pounds per Centum on the Produce and Amount of the respective Duties of Customs payable by Law on any such Goods so taken out of or delivered from such Warehouses, shall be first paid to the proper Officer of his Majesty's Customs: Provided also, that the said Duty of five Pounds per Centum herein-before granted, shall not be charged or paid on the Produce and Amount of the Duties of Customs, payable on the Importation of any Wine into Great Britain, nor on the Produce and Amount of the Duty of Customs payable on Coals brought or carried Coastwise from Port to Port in this Kingdom; nor on the Produce and Amount of the Duties of Customs payable by Law on any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, on which other Duties are by this Act imposed.

Duty of 5 l. per Cent. not payable on certain Articles.

Duties to be under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs in England and Scotland respectively.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That such of the Duties of Customs by this Act granted as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called England, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs in England for the Time being; and such thereof as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs in Scotland for the Time being.

IX. And

Duties and Drawbacks to be paid and allowed according to 27 Geo. III. Cap. 13.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the several Duties of Customs granted by this Act, and the Drawbacks allowed, shall and may be respectively managed, ascertained, raised, levied, collected, answered, paid, recovered, and allowed in such and the like Manner, and in and by any and either of the Means, Ways, or Methods, by which the Duties of Customs imposed, and the Drawbacks allowed on the like Goods, by an Act passed in the twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, amongst other Things, for repealing the several Duties of Customs and Excise, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof, were or might be managed, ascertained, raised, levied, collected, answered, paid, recovered, and allowed; and the said Goods, Wares, or Merchandize so by this Act respectively made chargeable with Duties of Customs, or entitled to Drawbacks thereof on Exportation, shall be, and the same are hereby made subject and liable to all and every the Conditions, Regulations, Rules, Restrictions, and Forfeitures, to which the like Goods, Wares, or Merchandize were subject and liable by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force, on and immediately before the passing of this Act; and all and every Pain, Penalty, Fine, or Forfeiture, for any Offence whatever committed against or in Breach of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force, on and immediately before the passing of this Act, made for securing the Revenue of Customs, or for the Regulation or Improvement thereof; and the several Clauses, Powers, and Directions therein contained, shall, and are hereby directed and declared to extend to, and shall be respectively applied, practised, and put in Execution, for and in respect of the several Duties of Customs and Drawbacks of Customs hereby respectively charged and allowed, (as far as the same are applicable thereto,) in as full and ample a Manner, to all Intents and Purposes whatever, as if all and every the said Acts, Clauses, Provisions, Powers, Directions, Fines, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act.

And be it further enacted, That the several and respective Duties by this Act imposed, shall from Time to Time be raised, collected, recovered, secured, and paid by such Persons, at such Times, in such Manner, and by such Ways and Means, and under such Management, and under and subject to such Penalties and Forfeitures, and with such Power of adjudging and mitigating Penalties and Forfeitures, and with such other Powers, and subject to such other Powers, and subject to the like Allowances, Repayments, Abatements, Rules, and Directions, and by such Methods, and in such Manner and Form, as by several Acts, made in the thirty-third and thirty-fifth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, for the Regulation of Distilleries in Scotland, and the Exportation of British-made Spirits from England to Scotland, and from Scotland to England, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force, concerning the several Matters and Things respectively, for or in respect whereof any Duty is by this Act imposed, is directed or prescribed; and that all the Provisions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Powers, Authorities, Rules, and Directions, mentioned and contained in the said Acts respectively, shall be practised and put in Execution for the raising, receiving, levying, recovering, securing, or paying the several and respective Duties by this Act imposed, and for the making any Repayment, Allowance, or Abatement, in Manner in the said Act directed, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same were particularly repeated and enacted in this Act.

Duties to be raised, &c. according to Stats. 33 Geo. III. Cap. 61. 35 Geo. III. Cap. 59. and the other Laws now in Force.

Duties to be paid into the Exchequer, and carried to the Consolidated Fund;

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Money arising by the Duties by this Act imposed, (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted,) shall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster; and the said Monies so paid into the said Receipt of Exchequer as aforesaid, shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund.

and deemed an Addition to the Revenue for defraying the increased Charge occasioned by any Loan of this Session.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies arising, or to arise, by the said Rates and Duties, or any of them, shall be deemed an Addition made to the Revenue, for the Purpose of defraying the increased Charge occasioned by any Loan made, or Stock created or to be created by virtue of any Act or Acts passed or to be passed in this Session of Parliament; and that the said Monies shall, during the Space of ten Years next ensuing, be paid into the said Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Public Revenues; and that there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt, during the said Period of ten Years, a Book or Books in which all the Monies arising from the said Rates and Duties, and paid into the said Receipt, shall, together with the Monies arising from any other Rates and Duties granted in this Session of Parliament, for the Purpose of defraying such increased Charge as aforesaid, be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, upon any Account whatever.

Distillers in Scotland may deliver up their Licences before Jan. 20, 1797, and receive a proportional Part of the Duty paid.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons licensed by the Commissioners of Excise to work any Still or Stills for the distilling, making, or manufacturing of Low Wines or Spirits from Malt, Corn, or any Kind of Materials herein-mentioned, or for the rectifying, compounding, or mixing of any Kind of Spirits, in any Part of Scotland, to deliver up his, her, or their Licence to the said Commissioners, or to the Principal Officer of Excise within the Division, who shall, and they are hereby respectively authorized to vacate the same; and every such Person or Persons delivering up such Licence to be vacated before the twentieth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, shall be entitled to a Return of a Part of the Duty paid thereupon for the present Year, in proportion to the Period of such Year then unexpired; and all and every such Person or Persons shall be and they are hereby fully indemnified, freed, and discharged from any Payment of Duty by this Act imposed, and from any Penalty, Forfeiture, Action, Suit, or Prosecution, for or by reason of his or their having worked or working any Still or Stills under the Authority of such Licence, between the Time appointed by this Act, for the Commencement of the said Duties, and the Time of delivering up such Licence as aforesaid.

Where Entry has been made of more Stills than one, Licence may be vacated in Part.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where any such Licence shall have been granted to any such Distiller or Distillers, or Maker or Makers of Spirits, and any Entry or Entries shall have been made by such Distiller or Distillers, or Maker or Makers of Spirits, of more Stills than one under such Licence, it shall and may be lawful for such Commissioners and Officers of Excise respectively, on Notice being given to them respectively in Writing, before the Day herein mentioned, of the Intention of such Distiller or Distillers, or Maker or Makers of Spirits, to cease working one or more of such Stills, and to continue to work the other or others of such Stills, to indorse the same on the Back of such Licence, specifying in such Indorsement the Content of such Still or Stills respectively, and distinguishing such as are intended to be worked from such as are not intended to be worked after the Time before limited, and to re-deliver such Licence to such Distiller or Distillers, or Maker or Makers of Spirits, with such Indorsement thereupon; and which Indorsement on such Licence shall be deemed to vacate such Licence, in such Part only as relates to the Still or Stills which shall cease to be worked, as aforesaid, and an Abatement of Duty shall be made on such last-mentioned Still or Stills only; and which shall and may be set off against any Duty to which such Distiller or Distillers, or Maker or Makers of Spirits, shall be liable to pay by virtue of this Act, in respect of such Still or Stills, as he, she, or they shall continue to work after the Time limited as aforesaid.

Act may be altered or repealed this Session.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act may be varied, altered, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. XVIII.

An Act for altering certain Rates of Postage for Conveyance of Letters in England and Scotland respectively, and of Packets to and from Great Britain, from and to Portugal and the British Colonies in America respectively; and for setting apart, at the Receipt of the Exchequer, for a certain Period, out of the Revenues of the Post Office, the Annual Sum of forty thousand Pounds, towards defraying the increased Charge occasioned by any Loan raised, or Stock created, by any Act or Acts passed in the thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty.—[28th December 1796.]

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

'WHEREAS it is expedient that certain Rates of Postage established by an Act of the ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, and by two several Acts of the fifth and twenty-fourth Years of your Majesty's Reign, should be repealed: We, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament assembled, as well for the Purposes aforesaid, as towards

'raising the necessary Supplies to defray your Majesty's Public Expences, and making a permanent 'Addition to the Public Revenue, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto your Majesty 'the Rates and Duties herein-after mentioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech your Majesty that it 'may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of an Act, made in the ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for establishing a General Post Office for all her Majesty's Dominions, and for settling a Weekly Sum out of the Revenues thereof, for the Service of the War, and other her Majesty's Occasions; and so much of an Act, made in the fifth Year of your most Gracious Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to alter certain Rates of Postage; and to amend, explain, and enlarge, several Provisions in an Act made in the ninth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, and in other Acts relating to the Revenue of the Post Office; and also so much of another Act, passed in the twenty-fourth Year of your most Gracious Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty certain additional Rates of Postage for Conveyance of Letters and Packets, by the Post, within the Kingdom of Great Britain; for preventing Frauds in the Revenue, carried on by the Conveyance of certain Goods in Letters and Packets; and for further preventing Frauds and Abuses in relation to the sending and receiving of Letters and Packets free from Postage, as establishes certain Rates or Sums for the Port and Conveyance of Letters and Packets within that Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain called England, the Dominion of Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, shall, from and after the fifth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

From January 5, 1797, so much of 9 Annæ, Cap. 10. 5 Geo. III. Cap. 25. and 24 Geo. III. Sess. 2. Cap. 37. as establishes certain Rates of Postage in England, Wales, and Berwick upon Tweed, repealed, and Schedules to be deemed Part of Indentures, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That every Schedule or other Inſtrument annexed unto any Indenture, Leaſe, Bond, or other Deed and Indorſement made thereon, ſhall, in eſtimating the Number of Stamps required by virtue of this Act to be put thereon, be deemed as Part of ſuch Indenture, Leaſe, Bond, or other Deed; and the Quantity or Number of Words contained therein ſhall be calculated as if the ſame were contained in ſuch Indenture, Leaſe, Bond, or other Deed.

Any Perſon not bringing Indentures not duly ſtampt, to be ſo ſtampt, to forfeit 20 l.

III. And be it further enacted, That if any Attorney, Solicitor, Clerk, Officer, or other Perſon, ſhall engroſs, print, or write, or cauſe to be engroſſed, printed, or written, any Indenture, Leaſe, Bond, or other Deed, on Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, not duly ſtamped according to the Directions of this Act, and ſhall neglect to bring the ſame to be duly ſtamped in the Manner and within the Time hereby directed and allowed for ſtamping the ſame, every ſuch Attorney, Solicitor, Clerk, Officer, or other Perſon, ſhall forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Pounds; and no ſuch Indenture, Leaſe, Bond, or other Deed, ſhall be pleaded or given in Evidence, or be good, uſeful, or available, in any Manner whatever, unleſs the ſame ſhall be ſtamped as required by this Act.

No Indenture available unleſs duly ſtampt.

Indentures, &c. which have been ſtampt, when blank, but not according to this Act, may be properly ſtampt within a limited Time.

Officer to calculate the Duty on Indentures, &c. and write on them certain Particulars.

On Payment of Duty at the Head Office, Indentures, &c. to be ſtampt; and at other Offices, Indentures, &c. to be tranſmitted to the Head Office within 21 Days for that Purpoſe.

Officer receiving Duty to acknowledge Receipt of Indentures, &c. for Tranſmiſſion, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted, That every Indenture, Leaſe, Bond, or other Deed, which ſhall have been ſtamped with one Stamp on every Skin or Piece of ſuch Vellum or Parchment, or on every Sheet or Piece of ſuch Paper, before any Matter or Thing ſhall have been engroſſed, printed, or written thereon, and ſhall not be ſtamped as by this Act is directed, which ſhall be brought at any Time before the Execution thereof, or within the Space of one Calendar Month after the Date thereof, to the Head Office of the Commiſſioners for managing the Duties on ſtamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, may be ſtamped as this Act requires, on Payment of the Duty for the ſame; and that, upon bringing any Indenture, Leaſe, Bond, or other Deed, to be ſtamped as aforeſaid, the Officer appointed by the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall calculate the Duty payable thereon, and the Number of Stamps required by this Act to be put thereon, and ſhall write in Words at length upon the Margent of each Skin or Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, whereon the ſame ſhall be engroſſed, printed, or written, the Number of Common Law Sheets contained therein, and the Day on which ſuch Payment ſhall be made, and ſhall ſubſcribe his Name thereto; and in caſe the Duty ſhall be ſo paid at the ſaid Head Office, then the Indenture, Leaſe, Bond, or other Deed, ſo brought to be ſtamped, ſhall, on Payment of the ſaid Duty, be ſtamped with ſuch Number of Stamps as the Caſe ſhall require; and in caſe the Duty ſhall be ſo paid at any other Office to be appointed by the ſaid Commiſſioners, the Indenture, Leaſe, Bond, or other Deed, whereon the Duty ſo payable, and the Number of Words ſo contained therein ſhall have been calculated and written, ſhall be tranſmitted within the Space of twenty-one Days from the Day of Payment of ſuch Duty to the Head Office to be ſtamped, and the ſame ſhall be ſtamped accordingly with ſuch Number of Stamps as the Caſe ſhall require; and if the Perſon paying ſuch Duty at any ſuch Office to be appointed as aforeſaid, ſhall be deſirous that the ſame ſhall be tranſmitted to the ſaid Head Office by the Officer to whom ſuch Duty ſhall be paid, and ſhall leave the ſame with ſuch Officer for ſuch Purpoſe, ſuch Officer ſhall, upon Requeſt, ſign and deliver an Acknowledgment that ſuch Indenture, Leaſe, Bond, or other Deed, has been left with him for ſuch Purpoſe, and ſhall tranſmit ſuch Indenture, Leaſe, Bond, or other Deed, to the ſaid Head Office to be ſtamped as aforeſaid; and the ſame ſhall be returned to ſuch Officer as ſoon as conveniently may be after the ſtamping thereof, and ſuch Officer ſhall deliver back the ſame to the Perſon entitled thereto, upon Re-delivery to him of the Acknowledgment which he ſhall have given for the ſame, if any ſhall have been given.

Indentures, &c. may be ſtampt at the Head Office at any Time, on Payment of the Duty and a Penalty.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful to carry any ſuch Indenture, Leaſe, Bond, or other Deed, at any Time within ſix Calendar Months after the Date thereof, to the ſaid Head Office to be ſtamped in like Manner, paying the Duty for the ſame, and alſo the further Sum of ten Pounds by Way of Penalty, and alſo to carry the ſame to the ſaid Head Office to be ſtamped in like Manner at any Time after the Expiration of the ſaid ſix Months, on Payment of the Duty for the ſame, and alſo the further Sum of ten Pounds for every Skin, or Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, whereon ſuch Indenture, Leaſe, Bond, or other Deed, or Matter or Thing aforeſaid, ſhall be engroſſed, engrossed, printed, or written, by way of Penalty for not having before caused the same to be duly stamped according to the Directions of this Act.

Actions brought for engrossing Indentures, &c. contrary to this Act, not to be defeated by Payment of the Duty, &c. after Action commenced.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where any Action shall be commenced against any Person for engrossing, printing, or writing, any Indenture, Lease, Bond, or other Deed, contrary to the Directions of this Act, which shall not be brought to the said Head Office to be stamped within one Calendar Month after the Date thereof, and such Action shall be prosecuted with Effect, the same shall not be delayed, prejudiced, defeated, or barred, by reason of the Payment of any Duty or Penalty on stamping the same, or of the same being stamped, after the Commencement of such Action, but that the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs therein shall be entitled to recover as if such Duty and Penalty had not been paid, or such Stamp or Stamps had not been put thereon after the Commencement of such Action.

Penalty of 100*l.* for adding to Indentures, &c. after the Duty has been calculated, and before stampt, &c.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall add any Word in any such Indenture, Lease, Bond, or other Deed, after the Officer to be appointed by the said Commissioners shall have calculated the Duty payable thereon, and before the same shall be duly stamped, according to the Directions of this Act, or shall alter any Word or Letter in any Writing hereby required to be made, by the Officer to be appointed by the said Commissioners, on the Margent of such Indenture, Lease, Bond, or other Deed, after such Officer shall have signed the same according to the Directions of this Act, or shall knowingly utter or publish as true any such Indenture, Lease, Bond, or other Deed, with such Word added thereto, or any such altered Writing, with Intent to defraud his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or any other Person or Persons, then and in such Case every Person so adding, altering, uttering, or publishing as aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

All Powers, &c. in Acts relating to Stamp Duties, not hereby altered, to be applied to this Act.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all Powers, Provisoes, Articles, Clauses, Allowances, and all Matters and Things prescribed or appointed by any former Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Stamp Duties on Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, and not hereby altered, shall be of full Force and Effect, with relation to the several Matters and Things by this Act prescribed or directed, and shall be applied and put in Execution for the enforcing the Regulations of this Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had severally and respectively been hereby re-enacted.

Application and Recovery of Penalties sued for in four Months.

IX. And be it further enacted, That one Moiety of all pecuniary Penalties and Forfeitures hereby imposed shall, if sued for within the Space of four Calendar Months from the Time of such Penalties or Forfeitures being incurred, be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof, with full Costs of Suit, to the Person or Persons who shall inform or sue for the same within the Time aforesaid; and which shall and may be sued for in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, for Offences committed in England, or in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland, for Offences committed in Scotland, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Essoin, Privilege, Wager of Law, nor more than one Imparlance shall be allowed; but nevertheless it shall be lawful for his Majesty's Attorney General in England, or his Majesty's Advocate in Scotland, in case it shall appear to his Satisfaction that any such Penalty or Forfeiture was incurred without any Intention of Fraud, to stay all further Proceedings, by entering a Noli Prosequi, or otherwise, with respect as well to the Share of such Penalty or Forfeiture claimed by such Informer or Informers, as to the Share thereof belonging to his Majesty.

Where Penalty appears to have been incurred without Fraud, Proceedings may be stopt.

Recovery and Application of Penalties, not sued for in four Months.

Penalties to his Majesty to be paid to the Receiver General of Stamp Duties.

Informers may be rewarded out of Penalties to his Majesty.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in default of Prosecution within the Time hereinbefore limited, no such Penalty or Forfeiture shall be afterwards recoverable, except in the Name of his Majesty's Attorney General in England, and of his Majesty's Advocate in Scotland, by Information in the Courts of Exchequer in England and Scotland respectively; and in every Case where such Information shall be prosecuted as aforesaid, the Whole of such Penalty or Forfeiture shall belong to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; and that all Penalties and Forfeitures, and Shares of Penalties and Forfeitures, incurred as aforesaid, belonging to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall be paid into the Hands of his Majesty's Receiver General of Stamp Duties for the Time being, any Law, Usage, or Custom, to the contrary notwithstanding; and that, in any Case where the Whole of such Penalties or Forfeitures shall be recovered, to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to cause such Reward as they shall think fit, not exceeding one Moiety of the Penalties or Forfeitures so recovered, after deducting all Charges and Expences incurred in recovering the same, to be paid thereout, to or amongst any Person or Persons who shall appear to them entitled thereto, as an Informer or Informers, in respect of such Penalties or Forfeitures so recovered; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Application of Duties on Indentures, &c. under former Acts.

[39,151*l.* 5*s.* (being one Quarter of 156,605*l. the average Annual Produce for three Years to August* 1, 1794,) to be set apart at the Exchequer quarterly; and the Remainder applied to this Year's Revenue.]

XI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, out of the Monies that shall be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, of the Duties imposed by any former Acts of Parliament, on every Skin or Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, upon which any Indenture, Lease, Bond, or other Deed, shall be engrossed, printed, or written, in pursuance of any such Act or Acts, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, or any of them, the Sum of thirty-nine thousand one hundred and fifty-one Pounds and five Shillings, being one-fourth Part of the Sum of one hundred and fifty-six thousand six hundred and five Pounds, the annual average Produce for three Years, ending the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four, of the Whole of the said Duties, shall Quarterly, on the fifth Day of April, the fifth Day of July, the tenth Day of October, and the fifth Day of January, in every Year, during the Period of ten Years, be set apart from the Remainder of the said Monies; and that after setting apart at the said Receipt of Exchequer, at the End of each such Quarter, the Sum of thirty-nine thousand one hundred and fifty-one Pounds and five Shillings, the said Remainder of the said Monies arising, or to arise, of the said several Duties imposed by the said former Acts, or so much thereof thereof as shall be sufficient, shall be deemed an Addition made to the Revenue, for the Purpose of defraying the increased Charges occasioned by any Loan made, or to be made, or any Stock to be created, by virtue of any Act or Acts passed, or to be passed, in this Session of Parliament; and that the said Monies shall, during the Space of ten Years next ensuing, be paid into the said Receipt distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Publick Revenue; and that there shall be provided and kept at the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt, during the said Period of ten Years, a Book or Books, in which the said Remainder of the Monies arising from the said Duties, and paid into the said Receipt, shall, together with the Monies arising from any other Rates or Duties granted in this Session of Parliament, for the Purpose of defraying such increased Charges as aforesaid, be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, on any Account whatever.

Recited Act 19 Geo. III. Cap. 66. in Part repealed.

XII. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said Act passed in the nineteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, as relates to the engrossing, printing, or writing, on any Skin of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, any Indenture, Lease, Bond, or other Deed, or to any of the Matters for which Provision is made by this Act, shall be, and is hereby repealed.

CAP. XXII.

An Act to explain and amend an Act, made in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for providing an Augmentation to the Militia, to be trained and exercised in the Manner therein directed, and for enabling his Majesty to cause the same to be embodied, in case of Necessity, for the Defence of these Kingdoms.—[30th December 1796.]

Act of present Session, Cap 3. recited.

'WHEREAS it is expedient that an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for providing an Augmentation to the Militia, to be trained and exercised in the Manner therein directed, and for enabling his Majesty to cause the same to be embodied, in case of Necessity, for the Defence of those Kingdoms, should be explained and amended, in the Particulars after mentioned:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Justices of the Peace for any County, Riding, Division, or Place, within their respective Jurisdictions, shall have and are hereby vested with full Power and Authority, to carry the said Act into Execution in the like Manner and as fully and effectually as they are authorized to carry into Execution an Act passed in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for amending and reducing into one Act of Parliament, the Laws relating to the Militia in that Part of Great Britain called England, or any other Act relating to the Militia; and that in all Cases where Deputy Lieutenants are empowered by the said Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, or this Act, to act in the Execution thereof at any Sub-division Meeting, any Justice of the Peace of the same County, Riding, or Place, together with one Deputy Lieutenant, may execute the several Matters and Things required to be done at such Meeting, as effectually as two or more Deputy Lieutenants of such County, Riding, or Place.

Justices may carry the said Act into Execution, as Stat. 26 Geo. III. Cap. 107, or any other relating to the Militia.

Where Deputy Lieutenants are empowered to act by the Act recited or this Act, a Justice and Deputy Lieutenant may act.

II. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said Act of the present Session of Parliament as requires every Person, previously to his being enrolled, or permitted to serve, in the Supplementary Militia of any County, Riding, or Place, to swear that he is a Protestant, shall be and is hereby repealed; and that it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons authorized to administer the Oath prescribed by the said Act of the present Session of Parliament, and he and they is and are hereby required in every Case in administering the same, to omit the following Words, videlicet: 'And I do swear, that I am a Protestant.'

Supplementary Militia Men not to be required to swear they are Protestants, and the Person administering the Oath to omit those Words.

III. And be it further enacted, That if in any County, Riding, or Place, or in any Sub-division thereof, it shall have happened that the Lieutenants, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Constables, or other Peace Officers, have omitted to put the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year aforesaid, into Execution, by reason that a due Return of the Annual Lists of Men liable to be balloted into the Militia raised by virtue of the said last mentioned Act was not made, or not ordered to be made, on the Day or in the Manner directed by the said last mentioned Act, so that the said Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, cannot be duly executed for Want of such Returns; or if such Lieutenants, Deputy Lieutenants, or Justices of the Peace respectively, have omitted to put the Act of the present Session into Execution, by neglecting to make out Duplicates of such Lists which have been returned to them, according to the said last mentioned Act, or have been prevented from making out the same; it shall and may be lawful for the Lieutenants, Deputy Lieutenants, and Justices of the Peace respectively, to execute the Powers contained in the said Act passed in the present Session of Parliament at any Meeting to be held after the passing of this Act, whether the Purposes to be executed at such Meeting shall have Relation to the Militia raised under the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year aforesaid, and to the said Supplementary Militia to be raised under the said Act of the present Session, jointly, or to either of the said Acts separately, or to meet for that Purpose at any other Time or Times after the passing of this Act, and from Time or Time, as there shall be Occasion; and they are hereby respectively authorized and required, as soon as conveniently may be, to meet and to execute the Powers contained in the said Act passed in the present Session, in such Manner that the said Supplementary Militia may be raised without Delay: And it shall be lawful for such Deputy Lieutenants and Justices so met, to proceed to execute the said Act on the Returns already made for the Purpose aforesaid; or where no such Returns shall have been made, or the same shall have been lost or destroyed, to order fresh Lists to be made out and returned, as there shall be Occasion; and where Lists have been returned, and any Exemption shall have been claimed, and erroneously, or contrary to this Act, allowed, it shall be lawful for the said Deputy Lieutenants and Justices respectively, and they are hereby required to amend the Duplicate of such Lists, according to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act of the present Session of Parliament, and of this Act; and (where there shall be Occasion) to order and direct a fresh Ballot to be taken; and all Acts which might lawfully have been done at any Meeting held on the Days mentioned in the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year aforesaid, and which shall have been done at any other Meeting held under the said Act, shall be as valid and effectual as if the same Acts had been done on the Days and in the Manner directed by the said Acts, or either of them; and all such Meetings to be held after the passing of this Act, for the Purpose of carrying into Effect the Proceedings of former Meetings, or of supplying any Defect or Omission in such Proceedings, or of rectifying the same, or of further Where 26 Geo. III. Cap 107, has not been put into Execution, because a Return of Men liable to be ballotted has not been made, or where Duplicates of such Lists have not been made out, the Powers of the Act of the present Session may be executed at any Meeting after passing this Act, in such Manner that the Supplementary Militia may be raised without Delay.

Deputy Lieutenants, &c. may proceed on Returns already made, or where none are made, &c. may order new Ones to be made out; and where Exemptions have been erroneously allowed, may amend Lists, and direct fresh Ballots to be taken, &c.

further carrying the said Act of the present Session into Execution, and all Acts to be done at such Meetings to be held after the passing of this Act, pursuant in all Respects to the Directions of the said Acts, or either of them, (except as to the Time of doing the same,) shall be, and are hereby declared to be valid and effectual, notwithstanding any such former Defect, Omission, or Error as aforesaid; and all Lieutenants, Deputy Lieutenants, and Justices of the Peace, who have omitted to carry, or have been hindered from carrying the said Act of the present Session into Execution, according to the Directions thereof, or shall have executed the same erroneously, by allowing any Exemption contrary to the Intent thereof, or of this Act, and who shall at any other Time or Times have met and executed the same, or who shall meet and execute the same according to the Directions of this Act, shall be and are hereby indemnified, freed, and discharged, from and against all Penalties and Damages, and against all Actions and Prosecutions whatsoever, incurred or to be incurred by reason of any Neglect, Omission, or Hindrance as aforesaid; and all Constables and other Officers are hereby also indemnified, freed, and discharged, from all Penalties and Damages, and against all Actions and Prosecutions incurred or to be incurred for any Act done or to be done by them in pursuance of any Order or Orders of the Lieutenants, Deputy Lieutenants, or Justices of the Peace, made or to be made pursuant in all other Respects to the Directions of the said Acts, except as to the Time of making the same; and none of his or their Acts shall be questioned or avoided by reason of the same respectively.

Lieutenants, &c. who have omitted to act, or have acted erroneously, indemnified.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in case any Action, Suit, Bill of Indictment or Information, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be brought, carried on, or prosecuted, against any Person or Persons hereby meant or intended to be indemnified for or on account of any Penalty or Damages incurred or to be incurred for any Omission or Neglect before-mentioned, or for any Act done in pursuance of this Act, such Person or Persons may plead the General Issue, and upon their Defence give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence upon any Trial to be had thereupon.

In Actions brought against Persons hereby indemnified, the General Issue may be pleaded.

V. And be it further enacted, That if in any County, Riding, or Place, a sufficient Number of Officers, duly qualified according to the said Acts, shall not be appointed to Commissions in the Supplementary Militia to be raised for the said County, Riding, or Place, on or before the thirtieth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenants respectively, (and they are hereby required, as soon as conveniently may be,) to appoint a sufficient Number of such other Persons, as are described in the said Act of the present Session, to be Officers in the said Supplementary Militia, subject to the Approbation of his Majesty, and in the Manner therein directed.

If by Jan. 30, 1797, a sufficient Number of Officers shall not be appointed, the Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenants may appoint such Persons as are described in Cap. 3. § 2.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if it shall appear to the Lieutenant, or any three or more Deputy Lieutenants, at any Time before the fifteenth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, that a sufficient Number of Non-commissioned Officers, Drummers, or Private Men, cannot conveniently be spared from the Regiment, Battalion, or Company of Militia serving for any County, Riding, or Place, to train and exercise the said Supplementary Militia to be raised by virtue of the said Act of the present Session as aforesaid, for such County, Riding, or Place, it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenants respectively, and he and they is and are hereby required to appoint, for that Purpose, such Number of Men from and amongst the Persons put or to be put on the Establishment of Chelsea Hospital, as shall be certified to him or them, by the Secretary at War for the Time being, to be fit and proper Persons for such Service; and any Deficiency of Non-commissioned Officers, Drummers, or Privates, remaining after such Appointments, may be supplied by any Persons who shall have served as Non-commissioned Officers, Drummers, or Privates, in his Majesty's Army, or in the Militia, and have been discharged therefrom, or such other Persons as the said Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenants respectively shall judge to be proper for that Service and shall appoint; and any Person so to be appointed shall be entitled to the same Pay during such Service as Non-commissioned Officers, Drummers, and private Men, serving in the Supplementary Militia, would be entitled to by virtue of such Appointment according to the said Act, over and above any other Pay, Emolument, or Allowance, to which they or any of them may be respectively entitled.

If it shall appear before Jan. 15, 1797, that a sufficient Number of Non-commissioned Officers, &c. cannot be spared from the Militia, to train the Supplementary Militia, Chelsea Pensioners certified by the Secretary at War as fit, may be appointed, &c Deficiencies still remaining may be suplied by Persons discharged from the Army, Militia, &c. (See § 26 of Cap. 3.)

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Powers given by the said Act of the present Session to the Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenants of any County, Riding or Place, to quarter and billet the Supplementary Militia to be raised by virtue of the said Act, shall not restrain or be construed to restrain Justices of the Peace of Counties, Ridings, or Places, Mayors, Bailiffs, Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs, and other Chief Magistrates and Officers of Cities, Towns, Parishes, Tythings, and Places, from quartering and billeting the said Supplementary Militia; but that all such Magistrates may, within their respective Jurisdictions, quarter and billet the said Supplementary Militia, and provide Lodgings for the Non-commissioned Officers of such Militia, under and according to the Powers and Directions given by the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year aforesaid.

Powers given to Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants to quarter the Supplementary Militia, not to restrain Justices, &c. from billetting them.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That no Person who shall be ballotted to serve in the said Supplementary Militia, and who shall forfeit and pay the Penalty of fifteen Pounds, prescribed by the said Act, for neglecting to serve or to provide a Substitute, shall be liable to be ballotted for again, either for the Militia raised by virtue of the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year aforesaid, or by any other Act of Parliament, or for the said Supplementary Militia, for the Period of five Years.

Persons ballotted paying 15*l.* for not serving or providing a Substitute not liable to be ballotted for again for the Militia for five Years.

IX. And

No Person chosen by Ballot, nor any Substitute five Feet two Inches high, (instead of five Feet four Inches,) to be deemed unfit for Service.

IX. And be it further enacted, That no Person chosen by Ballot to serve in the said Supplementary Militia, nor any Substitute, being of the full Height of five Feet two Inches, shall be deemed unfit for Service, or be liable to be discharged, by reason that such Person is under the Height required by the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year aforesaid.

Act of the present Session not to empower any Overseer to provide Volunteers without the Consent of the Parishioners.

X. And be it further enacted, That nothing contained in the said Act of the present Session, shall be construed to empower any Overseer of the Poor of any Parish, Tything, or Place, to provide any Volunteer or Volunteers for the said Supplementary Militia, without the Consent of the Inhabitants of such Parish, Tything, or Place, to be obtained in the Manner directed by the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year aforesaid.

Substitutes may offer themselves at such Time and Place as is provided for enrolling Volunteers.

XI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons to offer themselves to serve as Substitutes in the said Supplementary Militia, for any such Subdivision, and to appear before any Deputy Lieutenant or Justice of the Peace, within such Time and at such Place as is provided for the enrolling Volunteers under the said Act of the present Session; and that in every such Case, a correct List shall then and there be made of the Names and Places of Abode of all such Persons so appearing, who shall be approved of according to the Provisions of the said Act, and such Persons, so approved, shall be accepted as Substitutes for such Subdivision.

Overseers may give Substitutes such Sum as shall be fixed by the Subdivision Meeting, which they may reimburse themselves out of the Rates.

XII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Overseer or Overseers of the Poor of any Parish or Place within the Subdivision for which such Person or Persons shall have offered themselves so to serve as Substitutes, (according to the Order in which the said Parish or Place shall stand upon the List prepared for the Ballot,) to give any such Person or Persons (according to the Order in which their Names shall have been entered in the List as aforesaid) any such Sum as shall be deemed reasonable, and shall be fixed by the Deputy Lieutenants, or any two or more of them, or one Deputy Lieutenant and one Justice of the Peace, at any Subdivision Meeting to be held after the passing of this Act, after they shall have been sworn and enrolled to serve as the Substitute or Substitutes for such Parish or Place in the said Supplementary Militia, in Manner as directed in the said Act; and it shall be lawful for such Overseers to reimburse themselves out of any Monies of the Rates then raised, or to be reimbursed out of any Monies thereafter to be raised for the Relief of the Poor, in such Manner as they may reimburse themselves, or be reimbursed for any Monies by them expended in Matters relating to the Poor.

Supplementary Militia Men not liable to be chosen by Ballot to serve in any other Militia.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That no Person enrolled in the said Supplementary Militia shall, during his Service therein, according to the Directions of the said Act of the present Session, be liable to be chosen by Ballot to serve in the Militia raised or to be raised by virtue of the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year aforesaid, or any other Act relating to the said Militia.

Subdivision Meetings may fix the average current Price to be paid for Volunteers, according to which the Claims for half such current Price (under 26 Geo. III. Cap. 107. § 41.) shall be ascertained.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the Deputy Lieutenants, or any two or more of them, or one Deputy Lieutenant and one Justice of the Peace, at any Subdivision Meeting to be held after the passing of this Act, may fix the average current Price then paid, or which in their Judgment shall be a reasonable Sum to be paid for a Volunteer in the said Supplementary Militia; and that in every Case where any Person falling within the Circumstances provided for by the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year aforesaid, shall claim to be entitled to one Half of the current Price then paid for a Volunteer, such Price shall, in all Cases relating to the said Supplementary Militia, be ascertained by the average current Price then fixed by the said Deputy Lieutenants or Justices respectively, to be paid for Volunteers in the said Supplementary Militia, and not according to the Directions contained in the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year aforesaid; one Moiety of which Price so to be fixed shall be paid to such Person by such Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor, at such Times, and in such Manner, and under such Regulations, in all Respects, except as to the Amount thereof as aforesaid, as are provided by the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year aforesaid.

In any Place where the Numbers appointed to be raised by Cap. 3. with those serving in the Militia, shall amount to more than 1-6th of the whole Number, liable to serve under 26 Geo. III. Cap. 107. the Lieutenant to transmit an Account of the Number so liable to the Privy Council, who shall fix the Number of the Supplementary Militia, and if

XV. And be it further enacted, That if in any County, Riding, or Place, for which any Men are to be raised for the said Supplementary Militia, the Numbers appointed to be raised by the said Act of the present Session shall, together with the Numbers serving in the Militia for the same County, Riding, or Place, raised by virtue of the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year of his present Majesty, amount in the Whole to more than the Proportion herein-after mentioned within such County, Riding, or Place, it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant of the same to transmit to his Majesty's Privy Council an Account in Writing of the true State of the Number of Persons liable to serve under the said Act of the twenty-sixth of his present Majesty; on Receipt of which his Majesty's Privy Council shall forthwith fix and settle, as nearly as may be, the Number of the Supplementary Militia who shall serve for such County, Riding, or Place, so as not to exceed, together with the Numbers serving in the Militia raised under the Authority of the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year of his present Majesty, the Proportion of one for every six of the whole Number of Persons returned by the Lieutenant as liable to serve under the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year of his present Majesty; and where the Number of Supplementary Militia Men, so fixed by his Majesty's Privy Council, shall be less than the Number of such Militia Men who are by the said Act of the present Session of Parliament appointed to serve for any County, Riding, or Place, then and in every such Case the General Meeting of Lieutenancy for such County, Riding, or Place, assembled for that Purpose, in case the said Supplementary Militia shall have been raised for such County, Riding, or Place, shall discharge, by Ballot, proportionally out of each respective Hundred, Rape, Lath, Wapentake, or other Division, so many Militia Men as shall exceed the Number so fixed and settled as aforesaid; and in case the said Supplementary Militia shall

shall not have been raised for such County, Riding, or Place, then the said General Meeting of Lieutenancy shall make an Apportionment of the Number of Men to be raised in each Hundred, Rape, Lath, Wapentake, or Division, within such County, Riding, or Place, according to the Number of Men so fixed and settled by his Majesty's Privy Council as aforesaid; and the Deputy Lieutenants of the respective Subdivisions within such County, Riding, or Place, shall ballot for such Number of Men only as shall be so fixed and settled as aforesaid.

As soon as a Return of the Number of Men liable to serve for Birmingham is made to the Privy Council, they shall fix the Number to serve, in Proportion to the Number contained in the Returns.

XVI. 'And whereas at the Time of passing the said Act of the present Session, no Return had been or yet 'is made for the Town of Birmingham in the County of Warwick, of the Number of Men liable to serve 'in the said Supplementary Militia for the said Town:' Be it further enacted, That as soon as a Return shall be made to his Majesty's Privy Council, of the Number of Men liable to serve for the said Town of Birmingham, in the said Supplementary Militia, (which Return the Lieutenant of the said County of Warwick is hereby required to make as soon as conveniently may be,) it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty's Privy Council, and they are hereby required forthwith to fix and settle, as near as may be, the Number of Men who shall serve in the said Supplementary Militia for the said Town of Birmingham, and which Number so to be fixed shall not bear a greater Proportion to the Number of Persons contained in such Returns than shall be necessary to bring the Number of Men now serving for the Town of Birmingham in the Militia for the County of Warwick, and the Number so to be fixed for the said Supplementary Militia, in the Whole to the Proportion as near as may be of one for every six Persons contained in the said Returns so to be made for the said Town of Birmingham, and to transmit Accounts of the Number so fixed and settled to the Lieutenant of the said County of Warwick for the Time being.

Officers executing Act to receive such Rewards as the Quarter Sessions shall judge proper, payable out of the County Rates.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That the respective Clerks of the General Subdivision Meetings of Lieutenancy, Constables, and other Officers, who are hereby respectively required to execute the said Act passed in this Session of Parliament, or this Act, in any of the Particulars therein or herein mentioned, and who shall respectively execute the same to the Satisfaction of the Justices of the Peace at their respective Quarter Sessions assembled within the said Counties, Ridings, and Places therein mentioned, shall have and receive such Rewards, and no other, for their Care and Trouble in and about the executing the said Act of the present Session of Parliament and this Act, and for their respective Expences and Charges in the same, as the Justices shall judge the said Officers to have deserved; and the said Justices shall, after Allowance thereof, direct the same to be paid by the Treasurer, or other Officer of such County, Riding, or Place, out of any Money in his Hands of the County Rates; and if such Treasurer or Officer shall not have sufficient Money in his Hands, of the County Rates, to pay the same, then such Justices shall, and are hereby authorized and required to make a Rate for the Payment of the same, in such Manner and Form as they are authorized by Law to make Rates for the Repair of Gaols or County Bridges, or any other Purposes for which the Rate commonly called The County Rate, is or may by Law be applicable.

Provisions of 24 Geo. II. Cap. 44. to extend to Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Provisions of an Act passed in the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the rendering Justices of the Peace more safe in the Execution of their Office, and for indemnifying Constables and others acting in obedience to their Warrants, shall extend to all his Majesty's Lieutenants, and to all Deputy Lieutenants, acting in the Execution of this Act, or the said Act of the present Session, in like Manner, and as fully and effectually as the same extend to Justices of the Peace acting in the Execution of their Office.

No Order or Conviction to be removed, or Execution superseded by Writ of Certiorari.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That no Order or Conviction made by any Lieutenant of any County, Riding, or Place, or by any two or more Deputy Lieutenants, or by any one Deputy Lieutenant, together with any one Justice of the Peace, or by any Justice or Justices of the Peace by virtue of the said Act of the present Session, or this Act, shall be removed by Certiorari out of the County, Riding, Division, City, Town, or Place, wherein such Order or Conviction was made, into any Court whatsoever; and that no Writ of Certiorari shall supersede Execution or other Proceedings upon any such Order or Conviction so made in pursuance of the said Act of the present Session, or of this Act; but that Execution and other Proceedings shall be had and made thereupon, any such Writ or Writs, or Allowance thereof, notwithstanding.

The Provisions of this and recited Act of the present Session, to be used in Execution of either.

XX. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Provisions of this Act shall, in the Execution of the said Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, be used and applied, and construed, in like Manner as if the same Provisions were specially enacted in the said Act; and all and every the Provisions of the said Act shall, in the Execution of this Act, be used, applied, extended, and construed, in like Manner as if the same Provisions were specially enacted in this Act.

Act may be altered or repealed this Session.

XXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, varied, or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be made in this Session of Parliament.

CAP. XXIII.

An Act to explain and amend an Act, made in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for enabling His Majesty to raise a provisional Force of Cavalry, to be embodied, in case of Necessity, for the Defence of these Kingdoms.—[30th December 1796.]

Act of the present Session, Cap. 6. recited.

'WHEREAS it is expedient that an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An 'Act for enabling his Majesty to raise a provisional Force of Cavalry, to be embodied, in case of Neces-'sity, for the Defence of these Kingdoms, should be explained and amended, in the Particulars herein after 'mentioned:'

'mentioned:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That no Person shall be exempt from the Service mentioned in the said Act, by reason of his or her having been an articled Clerk or Apprentice, unless the Articles or Indentures under which such Person shall be bound shall have been executed on or before the twentieth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, and unless such Person shall be actually serving under such Articles or Indentures at the Time of his or her claiming such Exemption.

No articled Clerk or Apprentice exempt from Service, unless bound on or before Oct. 10, 1796, and serving when Exemption is claimed.

II. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said Act, passed in the present Session, as exempts any Teacher of a private Congregation from the Service required by the said Act, shall be and is hereby repealed: And that no licensed Teacher to any separate Congregation, shall be liable to the Service required by the said Act, who shall not be charged to the said Duties on Horses for more than one Horse, Mare, or Gelding.

No licensed Teacher of a separate Congregation liable to Service, who is not charged to the Duties on Horses for more than one.

III. And be it further enacted, That if any Person not charged to any of the Duties on Horses for more than three Horses, Mares, or Geldings, shall have served or been entered in any Volunteer Corps of Cavalry, raised by virtue of an Act, passed in the thirty-fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for encouraging and disciplining such Corps or Companies of Men as shall voluntarily enrol themselves for the Defence of their Counties, Towns, or Coasts, or for the general Defence of the Kingdom, during the present War, or who shall enter or offer himself, and be accepted before the fifteenth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, to serve in any such Corps raised or to be raised by virtue of the said Act, before the fifteenth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, or such other Day to which the Ballot, within any Subdivision of a County, Riding, or Division, shall be postponed by his Majesty's Privy Council, in the Manner herein-after directed; and if such Person shall, at his own Expence, furnish a Mare or Gelding for the said Service, in such Corps, then such Person shall not be liable to be classed, or to provide any Man, or furnish any Mare or Gelding, in pursuance of the said Act of the present Session, in respect of such Horses, Mares, or Geldings, not exceeding three, for which he shall be so charged: Provided always, That if any such Person as aforesaid, being charged for more than three such Horses, shall be appointed or chosen by Ballot to provide for the Service required by the said Act of the present Session of Parliament, such Person shall be obliged to provide a proper Substitute or Substitutes, for the Service thereby required, although by reason of the personal Service of such Person in such Volunteer Corps he cannot be enrolled under the said Act of the present Session of Parliament; and that any other Person who shall by virtue of the said Act be appointed or chosen by Ballot to provide for the Service thereby required, and who shall be deemed unfit for personal Service therein, for any Cause to be allowed by the Deputy Lieutenants, or one Deputy Lieutenant, and one Justice of the Peace, acting for the Subdivision, or who shall refuse or neglect to take the Oath required to be taken under the said Act, as amended by this Act, shall be obliged to provide a Substitute or Substitutes for the Service thereby required.

Persons not charged to the Duties on Horses for more than three, serving in the Cavalry raised under 34 Geo. III. Cap. 31. or who shall be accepted to serve by a limited Time, not to be classed under recited Act for such Horses; but if any such Person charged for more than three Horses, &c. be appointed or chosen by Ballot to serve, he shall provide a Substitute; as also Persons appointed or chosen by Ballot, deemed unfit for Service, or refusing to be sworn.

IV. And be it further enacted, That no inferior Officer of his Majesty's Duties of Customs, nor any Supervisor, Riding Officer, or other inferior Officer of the Duties on Salt, who shall not be respectively charged to the said Duties on Horses for more than one Horse, Mare, or Gelding, and who shall make it appear to the Deputy Lieutenants, or any two or more of them, or to one Deputy Lieutenant and one Justice of the Peace, at any Subdivision Meeting to be held as aforesaid, that he is obliged by the Regulations or Orders of his superior Officers to keep such Horse, Mare, or Gelding, for the necessary Performance of his Duty, as such Officer, shall be liable to provide any Man, or any Mare, or Gelding, for his Majesty's Service, in pursuance of the said Act of the present Session of Parliament.

Inferior Officers of Customs, &c. how far exempted.

V. And be it further enacted, That no Mare, or Gelding, provided by any Person by virtue of the said Act, and being of the Height of fourteen Hands or upwards, shall be deemed unfit for Service, or rejected at any Muster held under the said Act of the present Session, by reason that such Mare or Gelding may be under the Height required by the said Act.

No Mare, &c. of 14 Hands or upwards to be rejected on account of its Height. (See Cap. 6. § 25.)

VI. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said Act of the present Session as requires every Person previously to his being inrolled, or permitted to serve in the Cavalry of any County, Riding, or Place, to swear that he is a Protestant, shall be, and it is hereby repealed; and that it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons authorized to administer the Oath prescribed by the said Act of the present Session of Parliament, and he and they is and are hereby required in every Case in administering the same, to omit the following Words, videlicet: 'And I do swear that I am a Protestant.'

No Person to be required to swear he is a Protestant, and in administering the Oath, those Words to be omitted.

VII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where the said Deputy Lieutenants, or one Deputy Lieutenant and one Justice of the Peace, have already omitted, or shall at any Time or Times hereafter omit, to meet or execute any of the Powers of the said Act of the present Session of Parliament, at the Time or Times, or according to the Manner prescribed by the said Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Deputy Lieutenants, or any two or more of them, or one Deputy Lieutenant and one Justice of the Peace, acting for any Subdivision of any County, Riding, or Division, to meet and execute the said Powers, or any of them,

Where Deputy Lieutenants, &c. have omitted to meet to execute the recited Act, they may meet for that Purpose, and are required, as soon after passing this Act as convenient, to meet to execute the same.

them, at any other Time or Times, and from Time to Time as there shall be Occasion; and they are hereby authorized and required, as soon after the passing of this Act as shall be convenient, to meet at such Time or Times as they shall think fit, and execute the same at any Meeting or Meetings, to be held in pursuance of seven Days previous Notice, to be given in the Manner directed by the said Act, or by Adjournment, as the Case may require, so as the said Act may be fully executed; and all Meetings and Acts of the said Deputy Lieutenants, or any two or more of them, or one Deputy Lieutenant and one Justice of the Peace in any such Subdivision, which have been already had pursuant (in all other Respects) to the Directions of the said Act, or which shall hereafter be had under the Authority given by this Act, shall be deemed and are hereby declared to be good and valid to all Intents and Purposes, notwithstanding such former Omission or Defect.

Mode of appealing.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person whose Name shall be inserted in any List or Class made out in pursuance of the said Act, shall think himself or herself aggrieved thereby, and shall claim to be exempted from the Service mentioned therein, it shall be lawful for such Person, and he or she is hereby required, in every Case where no Ballot shall have taken place, to appeal to the Subdivision Meeting appointed to be held for the Purpose of taking the Ballot to be made for such Class, and before such Ballot shall take place, and that where such Ballot shall have taken place before the passing of this Act, then to appeal to the next Subdivision Meeting for hearing such Appeals to be held by the Appointment of two or more of the said Deputy Lieutenants, or of one Deputy Lieutenant and one Justice of the Peace, or by Adjournment, which Meetings the said Deputy Lieutenants and Justices respectively are hereby authorized and required, whenever there shall be Occasion, to appoint, at any Time after the eighth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and within twenty-one Days after the passing of this Act, unless a Meeting shall be held by Adjournment on a convenient Day within the Time before limited; and any two or more of the said Deputy Lieutenants, or one Deputy Lieutenant and one Justice of the Peace, are hereby empowered and required to hear and determine all such Appeals; and the Determination of the said Deputy Lieutenants, or any two or more of them there assembled, or the major Part of them, or one Deputy Lieutenant and one Justice of the Peace there assembled, shall be final to all Intents and Purposes; and the said Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace respectively shall, after hearing any such Appeal, direct, as the Case shall require, the Lists, and also the Classes in all Cases where any Exemption shall be allowed in any Class, to be amended; and if there shall be Occasion, a fresh Ballot to be taken; and shall and may from Time to Time adjourn their Meetings, or appoint other Meetings, and repeat the amending of the Lists and making the new Classes, and taking a fresh Ballot, as often as may be necessary for carrying the Purposes of the said Act of the present Session into Execution.

Meetings for hearing Appeals to be appointed when necessary.

Determination at such Meetings to be final.

Lists, &c. may be amended, and a fresh Ballot taken.

Classes not to be amended but in certain Cases;

nor any fresh Ballot to take place.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Amendment shall be made in any Class, unless the Name of some Person or Persons inserted therein shall have been struck out, or the Number of Horses, Mares, or Geldings inserted therein shall have been altered by the Order of two Deputy Lieutenants, or one Deputy Lieutenant and one Justice of the Peace; and that no fresh Ballot shall take place until such Class shall be amended by the Insertion of the Name or Names of some other Person or Persons therein, and so as to make up the due Number of Horses, Mares, and Geldings required to be inserted therein: Provided also, that in order to fill up any Class or Classes from which the Name or Names of any Person or Persons shall have been struck out, it shall be lawful for two or more of the said Deputy Lieutenants, or one Deputy Lieutenant and one Justice of the Peace, at any Subdivision Meeting, whenever the Name of any Person charged to the said Duties on Horses who ought to be classed shall have been omitted, to cause the same to be inserted in any such defective Class, in order to complete such Class, or if it shall be expedient, then to distribute the Persons composing any entire Class or Classes amongst the said defective Classes, in such Manner as to complete the same, and so from Time to Time to alter, vary, or amend such Classes, as often as shall be necessary, until all such Classes shall be completed, according to the Intent and Meaning of the said Act of the present Session of Parliament; and it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant and two Deputy Lieutenants, or for three Deputy Lieutenants, at any General Meeting of Lieutenancy for any County, Riding, or Division, where a Ballot shall have taken place before the passing of this Act, if they respectively shall see Occasion, to amend the Classes in various Instances, to direct the Formation of the Classes throughout any Subdivision of such County, Riding, or Division, where such Instances occur, anew, and to proceed to ballot thereupon as if no such former Ballot had been made.

Subdivision Meetings may complete Classes from which Names shall have been struck out, by inserting Names omitted, &c.

General Meetings may, where a Ballot has taken place before passing this Act, direct new Classes to be formed and a fresh Ballot to be made.

Deputy Lieutenants, &c. not to annul Proceedings respecting Classes already made, &c. unless for completing such as have been altered on Appeal, &c.

X. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein-before contained shall be construed to authorize or require the respective Deputy Lieutenants or Justices of the Peace, or any of them, to annul or set aside any of their Proceedings respecting any Class or Classes of Persons already made, or any Appointment or Appointments, or Ballot, already had, unless in their Judgment the same shall appear to be necessary and expedient, for the Purpose of completing such of the said Classes from which any Names of Persons, or any Enumeration of Mares or Geldings, have been struck out upon Appeal as aforesaid, or otherwise, in pursuance of the Directions of this Act.

The Number of Horses in any Assessment made after

XI. And be it further enacted, That the Number of Horses, Mares, or Geldings, included in any Assessment or Assessments made after the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, or to be made, to any of the Duties granted by the Acts of the twenty-fourth, twenty-ninth, and thirty-fourth Years of

of the Reign of his present Majesty, or any of them, in the said Act of the present Session of Parliament mentioned, shall be inserted in the Schedule directed by the said Act to be laid before the General Meetings of Lieutenancy in their respective Counties, Ridings, and Places in the said Act described; and that from Time to Time new Schedules shall be prepared of any other Horses, Mares, or Geldings, which shall be assessed to the said Duties, or any of them, to be laid before such General Meetings, which last-mentioned Horses, Mares, or Geldings, shall from Time to Time be enumerated or classed in the Manner herein directed, until the Service required by the said Act shall be completed: Provided always, That if any Person shall have bona fide ceased to keep or use any Horse, Mare, or Gelding, or any Number of Horses, Mares, or Geldings, for which he or she is charged in any such Assessment, at all Times since the twentieth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, and shall have remained during the whole Interval without any Horse, Mare, or Gelding, liable to any of the said Duties, in lieu of the former Horse, Mare, or Gelding, Horses, Mares, or Geldings, it shall be lawful for the Deputy Lieutenants, or any two or more of them, or one Deputy Lieutenant and one Justice of the Peace, acting for any Subdivision before whom any Appeal for that Cause shall be brought in pursuance of this Act, to discharge such Horse, Mare, or Gelding, or such Horses, Mares, or Geldings, which such Person shall have ceased to keep or use as aforesaid, from the Copy of the Schedule whereon the same respectively shall appear to have been so charged; and such Person shall not be liable to provide for the Service required by the said Act in respect of any Horse, Mare, or Gelding struck out of such Copy, in the Manner and for the Cause herein directed.

April 5. 1796. or to be made, to the Duties granted by certain Acts, to be inserted in the Schedules to be laid before the General Meetings; and new Schedules, from Time to Time, of other Horses assessed to those Duties, to be laid before them, until the Service required be completed. Persons ceasing to keep Horses for which they are assessed, since Oct. 20, 1796, may, on Appeal, have them struck out of the Schedule.

XII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person liable to the Service required by the said Act of the present Session, who shall be charged to any other Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, in any Place different from the Place or Places where he or she shall be charged to the said Duties on Horses, to elect in which of the said Places he or she shall be returned as liable to the said Service, giving such Notices thereof and procuring such Certificates as are required to be made and procured by the said Act in other Cases where such Election may be made; and in case such Person shall elect to serve in the Place where he or she shall be charged to any other assessed Duties than the said Duties on Horses, then the Number of Horses, Mares, or Geldings for which he shall be so charged, shall be indorsed or written upon the Assessment made after the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, in respect of such other Duties upon such Person in the Place where he or she shall make such Election to serve in pursuance of such Certificates; and all Fines and Penalties which such Person may incur, and all other Payments to which such Person may become liable, in pursuance of the said Act, shall and may from Time to Time be added to the said Assessment upon which the Number of Horses, Mares, or Geldings, for which he or she shall be so charged, shall be endorsed or written in pursuance of such Certificates, and shall be levied and accounted for, together with the Duties therein respectively contained, subject to such Application as is provided by the said Act in respect of Fines, Penalties, and other Payments aforesaid.

Persons charged for other Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for Taxes, in a different Place than for Horses, may elect in which they shall be returned, &c.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That in every Class of Persons made out or to be made out in pursuance of the said Act of the present Session, the Person on whom the Lot shall fall shall be bound to provide a Man, who shall be approved in the Manner directed by the said Act; and that no Allowance shall be made to such Person in respect thereof beyond such Sum as shall be settled by the General Meeting of Lieutenancy of the same County, Riding, or Division, where such Person shall be chosen, to be a fair Compensation in respect of the Cloathing to be provided; unless such Person shall be deemed unfit for the said Service, in which Case an Allowance shall be made, in respect thereof, of such Sum of Money as shall be settled at a Subdivision Meeting of Lieutenancy in the Division of the same County, Riding, or Place where such Person shall serve, to be a fair Compensation for the same, and which Compensation shall be apportioned, assessed, collected, and paid in the Manner directed by the said Act.

The Person on whom the Lot shall fall, shall provide an approved Man, and no Allowance shall be made in respect thereof beyond the Sum settled by the General Meeting, unless the Person be deemed unfit for Service.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That no Allowance shall be made to any Person on whom the Lot shall fall, in any Class, to provide a Mare or Gelding for the said Service, beyond such Sum as shall be settled at a General Meeting of Lieutenancy, to be allowed for any extra Expences to be incurred in providing Furniture, and in maintaining and keeping such Mare or Gelding; unless such Person, at the Time of such Ballot being had, shall not be actually possessed of any Mare or Gelding, which shall be approved in pursuance of the Directions contained in the said Act; in which Case such Allowance shall be made, as shall be settled at such Subdivision Meeting of Lieutenancy as aforesaid to be a fair Compensation for the same, and which shall be apportioned, assessed, collected, and paid in the Manner directed by the said Act.

No Allowance to be made to the Person on whom the Lot shall fall to provide a Mare, &c. beyond the Sum settled at a General Meeting, unless at the Ballot he shall not be possessed of an approved Mare, &c.

XV. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said Act made in the present Session of Parliament, as directs an Allowance to be made to the Person who shall provide a Substitute in Cases where in any Class there shall not be a Person fit for Military Service, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed.

§ 19. of Cap. 6. repealed.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Mare or Gelding which shall have been approved at a Muster made in pursuance of the said Act of the present Session, shall die, or become unfit for Service, the Person before appointed or chosen by Ballot to provide such Mare or Gelding shall be obliged to provide another Mare or Gelding, which shall be approved in like Manner; and that whenever any Substitute shall die,

Whenever any Mare, &c. shall die or become unfit for Service, or any Substitute die or be diſcharged, the Perſon who provided them ſhall provide another, for which he ſhall receive Compenſation.

die, or ſhall be diſcharged in purſuance of the ſaid Act, the Perſon who ſhall have provided ſuch Subſtitute ſhall be obliged to provide another Man to the ſaid Service in the Room of the Subſtitute ſo dying or diſcharged; and in every ſuch Caſe the Perſon ſo providing ſuch other Man, or ſuch other Mare or Gelding, ſhall receive a Compenſation, to be ſettled at a Subdiviſion Meeting of Lieutenancy in the Manner before directed: Provided always, That where ſuch Allowance ſhall be made in reſpect of any Mare or Gelding provided under this Act, ſuch Mare or Gelding ſhall remain under and ſubject to all the Conditions, Reſtrictions, and Regulations, for returning the ſame, as are contained in the ſaid Act, in the like Caſes where Allowances are directed to be made by the ſaid Act.

Where ſuch Allowance ſhall be made for a Mare, &c. it ſhall be ſubject to the Conditions of Cap. 6.

All Perſons charged to the Duties on Horſes, until the Men ſerving under Cap. 6. ſhall be embodied, ſhall be liable to be aſſeſſed towards Allowances.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That all the Perſons charged or to be charged to the ſaid Duties on Horſes, in any County, Riding, or Diviſion, at any Time during the Continuance of the ſaid Act of the preſent Seſſion, until the Men ſerving in purſuance of the ſaid Act ſhall be called out and embodied according to the Directions therein contained, although ſuch Perſons may not be included in any Claſs or Claſſes, and although ſuch Perſons reſpectively may ſerve, or may have provided for the ſaid Service, in the Manner directed by the ſaid Act, ſhall be liable to be aſſeſſed according to the general Eſtimate to be made in ſuch County, Riding, or Diviſion, towards the Allowances to be made in purſuance of the ſaid Act and of this Act, in Proportion to the Number of Horſes, Mares, or Geldings, for which he or ſhe are or ſhall be charged to the ſaid Duties.

Perſons enrolled may, before their Corps are ordered to be drawn out, produce Subſtitutes.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for any Perſon appointed or choſen by Ballot, and enrolled to ſerve by virtue of the ſaid Act of the preſent Seſſion, at any Time before the Corps in which he ſhall be enrolled ſhall be ordered to be drawn out or embodied, to give Notice in Writing of his Intention to reſign to any one or more of the Deputy Lieutenants or Juſtices of the Peace acting for the Subdiviſion for which he ſhall ſerve, and to produce a Subſtitute at the next Meeting to be holden for ſuch Subdiviſion after ſuch Notice, who, being approved, ſhall be enrolled and ſworn in the Manner directed by the ſaid Act, and thereupon the Perſon ſo reſigning ſhall be entitled to his Diſcharge, to be made out in Writing under the Hands of any two or more Deputy Lieutenants, or one Deputy Lieutenant and one Juſtice of the Peace acting as aforeſaid.

Whenever the Men are called out, the Deputy Lieutenants, &c. may direct the County Receiver General to pay not exceeding 10l. in reſpect of each Subſtitute, &c.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Men ſerving under the ſaid Act of the preſent Seſſion ſhall be called out and embodied as aforeſaid, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Deputy Lieutenants, or any two or more of them, or one Deputy Lieutenant and one Juſtice of the Peace, acting for any Subdiviſion of a County, Riding, or Diviſion, by an Order in Writing under their Hands and Seals, to direct the Receiver General of the ſame County, Riding, or Diviſion, to pay to the Commanding Officer of ſuch Men, or other Perſon appointed proviſionally to the Command of ſuch Men, in reſpect of each and every Perſon ſerving for the reſpective Subdiviſions as a Subſtitute, any Sum not exceeding ten Pounds, as the Perſon for whom ſuch Subſtitute ſhall ſerve ſhall have contracted to give to ſuch Subſtitute, ſuch Contract being regiſtered with the Clerk of the Subdiviſion where ſuch Subſtitute ſhall ſerve, within one Month after the Time of his Enrolment in the ſaid Service; and ſuch Receiver General ſhall forthwith pay the ſame accordingly out of any Monies in his Hands of the Monies raiſed by virtue of the ſaid Act, or if he ſhall not have ſufficient of the ſaid Money, then to pay the ſame out of any Monies in his Hands, or which ſhall be paid to him of or for any of the Duties under the Management of the Commiſſioners for the Affairs of Taxes, all which Sums ſo paid ſhall be allowed to ſuch Receiver General in his Accounts.

Volunteers raiſed under 34 Geo. III. Cap. 31. before Jan. 15, 1797, if approved and their Mares, &c. may be regiſtered, and if they amount to 3-4ths of the Men to be raiſed in the Subdiviſion under Cap. 6. of the preſent Seſſion, the further Execution of that Act may, in certain Particulars, be ſuſpended.

Volunteers ſo regiſtered to be entitled to the like Compenſations as Perſons choſen by Ballot, &c.

XX. And be it further enacted, That if in any Subdiviſion of any County, Riding, or Diviſion, any Number of Volunteers who ſhall be formed or raiſed under the Authority of the ſaid Act paſſed in the thirty-fourth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, at any Time after the paſſing of this Act, and before the fifteenth Day of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, ſhall be produced before the Deputy Lieutenants, or before one Deputy Lieutenant and one Juſtice of the Peace, at any Meeting held for ſuch Subdiviſion within the Time before limited; and if each of ſuch Volunteers ſhall be reſpectively cloathed, and ſhall be provided with a Mare or Gelding fit for Military Service, and ſhall be, together with their reſpective Mares or Geldings, approved by ſuch Deputy Lieutenants or Juſtices, in the Manner directed by the ſaid Act of the preſent Seſſion, it ſhall and may be lawful for ſuch Deputy Lieutenants, or any two or more of them, or ſuch Deputy Lieutenant and Juſtice of the Peace as aforeſaid, to cauſe their Names and Places of Abode to be regiſtered in Books to be prepared for that Purpoſe, and kept by the Clerk of ſuch Subdiviſion Meetings; and if the Number of Volunteers to be regiſtered in any Subdiviſion within the Time before limited ſhall amount to or exceed three fourth Parts of the whole Number of Men to be raiſed within ſuch Subdiviſion by virtue of the ſaid Act of the preſent Seſſion, the Deputy Lieutenants, or any two or more of them, or one Deputy Lieutenant and one Juſtice of the Peace there attending, may ſuſpend the further Execution of the ſaid Act of the preſent Seſſion within ſuch Subdiviſion, ſo far as reſpects the making of Appointments, and the taking of Ballots of Perſons to provide Men, and to furniſh Mares and Geldings for his Majeſty's Service, and for enforcing their Attendance at Muſter; and every Volunteer ſo regiſtered ſhall, in all Caſes where ſuch Suſpenſion ſhall take place, be entitled to receive, and ſhall be allowed, the like Compenſation for extra Expences in reſpect of Cloathing to be provided, or for maintaining and keeping their reſpective Mares or Geldings fit for Military Service, as by the ſaid Act of the preſent Seſſion of Parliament and this Act is directed to be allowed to Perſons choſen by Ballot to provide for his Majeſty's Service under the ſaid Act of the preſent Seſſion; which Allowances ſhall be ſettled by the

Genera

General Meetings of Lieutenancy in the same County, Riding, or Division, and shall be assessed in the Manner directed by the said Act; and the Monies so payable shall be received by the Deputy Lieutenants, and paid over to the Commanding Officer of such Volunteers, for the Use of such Volunteers, in the Manner therein directed; and that all Rules and Methods for making and collecting Assessments under the said Act of the present Session shall be applied and extended to the making and collecting the Assessments to be paid to the Use of the said Volunteers, as fully and effectually as if the same had been hereby expressly applied and extended thereto.

[See 1st. Cap. 139. further suspending the Execution of Cap. 6.]

XXI. And be it further enacted, That although the Number of Volunteers to be so registered within any such Subdivision, within the Time herein limited, shall not amount to three fourth Parts of the whole Number of Men to be raised within such Subdivision under the Authority of the said Act of the present Session, nevertheless it shall and may be lawful for such of the said Volunteers who shall be cloathed and equipped as aforesaid, and who shall be approved, to enter themselves on the Behalf of particular Persons and Classes required to provide for the said Military Service under the said Act, and to nominate the Persons and Classes for which they are respectively willing to serve; and the said Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace there attending, shall cause the same to be registered in such Books as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the said Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace respectively to cause the further Execution of the said Act of the present Session to be suspended within such Subdivision, so far as respects the making of Appointments, and the taking of Ballots of the Persons and Classes on the Behalf of which such Volunteers shall enter themselves, and for enforcing the Attendance at Muster either of the Persons enrolled in the said Service by virtue of any Appointments or Ballots taken of such Persons and Classes respectively, or of the Volunteers who shall enter themselves on the Behalf of such Persons and Classes respectively; and every Volunteer so entered shall be entitled to receive, and shall be allowed, the like Compensation for Extra Expences as is herein-before directed to be allowed to Volunteers to be registered under the Authority of this Act; and that in every Case where Volunteers shall be entered on the Behalf of any Persons or Classes as aforesaid, the Deputy Lieutenants, or any two or more of them, or any one Deputy Lieutenant and one Justice of the Peace, at any Meeting of such Subdivision, shall, within a reasonable Time, proceed within such Subdivision to appoint such Persons, and to choose Persons by Ballots from such Classes only, and to enforce the Enrolment or Attendance at Muster of such Persons only on whose Behalf no Volunteers shall have so entered themselves, unless in the meantime such Suspension thereof as is herein-after mentioned shall be directed; and the said Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace respectively shall forthwith transmit an Account of the Number of Volunteers so entering themselves to the Lieutenant of the same County, Riding, or Division, who shall transmit the same, without Delay, to his Majesty's Privy Council; and it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty's Privy Council to direct a Suspension of the further Execution of the said Act within any such Subdivision, for such Time as shall be thought expedient, in order to give a reasonable Opportunity to complete the Quota of such Subdivision by the raising and entering of Volunteers for the remaining Persons and Classes in such Subdivision; and in such Case it shall be lawful for the Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace respectively acting for such Subdivision, within the Time allowed by his Majesty's Privy Council, to enter any further Number of Volunteers on the Behalf of the remaining Persons and Classes in such Subdivision, and at the End of the Time so allowed to make such Appointments of the remaining Persons, and choose such Persons by Ballot out of the remaining Classes, or to enrol and enforce the Attendance at Muster of Persons before appointed or chosen by Ballot, on whose Behalf no Volunteers shall then have entered, as shall be requisite: Provided always, that if at the End of the Time so allowed, the Number of Volunteers so entered shall amount to or exceed three fourth Parts of the whole Number of Men to be raised within such Subdivision, then and in such Case no Appointment or Ballot, nor any Enrolment or Muster of Persons appointed or ballotted, or their respective Substitutes, shall take place within or for such Subdivision, under the said Act passed in the present Session of Parliament.

If the Number of Volunteers so registered shall not amount to such 3-4ths Parts, they who shall be approved may enter themselves for particular Persons or Classes, respecting whom the further Execution of Cap. 6. shall be suspended, &c.; and in such Cases the Subdivision Meeting shall proceed to execute the Act with respect to such Classes or Persons on whose Behalf no Volunteers shall have entered.

An Account of such Volunteers to be transmitted to the County Lieutenant, and by him to the Privy Council, who may allow a further Time for completing the Quota, &c.

If at the End of the Time allowed, the Volunteers amount to 3-4ths of the Whole to be raised, no Appointment or Ballot, &c. shall take place in the Subdivision.

XXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That every Volunteer so to be registered or entering himself on the Behalf of any other Person or Class as aforesaid, shall continue to be and shall be understood to serve under and subject to the Provisions and Regulations of the said Act of the thirty-fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, and shall be entitled to all and every the Exemptions which any Volunteer entered into any such Corps, at any Time before the passing of this Act, or the said Act of the present Session, may be entitled to, by any Act or Acts passed in the present Session of Parliament, but shall not be considered as liable to the Regulations of the said Act passed in the present Session, either as to his Attendance at Muster, or to his being drawn out and embodied in pursuance of the said Act, or to any Penalty or Forfeiture for Non-attendance at such Muster, or Non-compliance with any of the said Regulations, except as to such Regulations as are herein-before provided with respect to the Allowances to be made to such Volunteers under the Authority of the said Act of the present Session, or of this Act.

Volunteers so registered to be subject to the Provisions of the recited Act of the 34th Geo. III. and entitled to the like Exemptions as Volunteers entered before passing this Act or Cap. 6. of the present Session; but not liable to the Regulations, except such as relate to Allowances.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Number of Volunteers registered for any Subdivision shall amount to the Proportion herein-before specified, all and every the Appointments already made, and Ballots already taken or had, in pursuance of the said Act, for such Subdivision, shall be, and are hereby declared to be void.

When the Volunteers registered for any Subdivision shall amount to the Proportion herein-before specified, the Appointments made, and Ballots taken for it, shall be void.

Where the Appointments and Ballots shall not have taken place, they may be suspended.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Deputy Lieutenants, or one Deputy Lieutenant and one Justice of the Peace acting for any Subdivision, where the Appointments and Ballots to be made by virtue of the said Act shall not have already taken place, to suspend the making such Appointments, and taking such Ballots, until the fifteenth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, or such other Day to which the same shall be postponed by his Majesty's Privy Council, in order that the Provisions of this Act, with respect to the raising of Volunteers, may have their due Effect.

Officers to attend Musters of Men enrolled, when so mad, until embodied, &c.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That the Officers who shall be provisionally appointed by the Lieutenant or General Meeting of Lieutenancy of any County, Riding, or Division, with the Approbation of his Majesty, to the Command of Men enrolled by virtue of this Act, whenever they shall be formed into a Regiment, Battalion, or Troop, in pursuance of the said Act, shall attend the Musters which shall be directed to be made of Men so enrolled in their respective Subdivisions, until such Men shall be ordered to be drawn out and embodied, and shall have full Power and Authority to execute the said Act of the present Session of Parliament, in all Things which may lawfully be done by Officers appointed to muster such Men.

Quakers on producing a Certificate thereof, shall have their Names struck out of Lists, and be fined 20s. for each Horse for which they are charged with Duty.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person being of the People called Quakers, shall at any Time on or before the fifteenth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, or at the first Subdivision Meeting which shall be held after the tenth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, produce, or cause to be produced, before the Deputy Lieutenants, or one Deputy Lieutenant and one Justice of the Peace acting for the Subdivision where such Person shall be liable to the Service required by the said Act, a Certificate under the Hands of two or more reputable Housekeepers being of the People called Quakers, acknowledging such Person to be of their Persuasion, it shall and may be lawful for the said Deputy Lieutenants, or any two or more of them, or one Deputy Lieutenant and one Justice of the Peace, to cause the Name of such Person to be struck out of any List or Class then made, whether a Ballot shall have taken place for such Subdivision or not, and thereupon such Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace respectively, are required to fine such Person in the Sum of twenty Shillings for each and every Horse, Mare, or Gelding, for which such Person shall be charged to the said Duties, which Sum shall be added to the last Assessment of such Person to the said Duties on Horses, and shall be levied at the next subsequent Payment to be made of any of the said Duties, and applied in such Manner as is directed by the said Act with respect to any Fines thereby imposed.

No Order, &c. to be removed by Certiorari, &c.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That no Order or Conviction made by any Lieutenant of any County, Riding, or Place, or by any two or more Deputy Lieutenants, or by any one Deputy Lieutenant together with any one Justice of the Peace, or by any Justice or Justices of the Peace, by virtue of the said Act of this present Session or this Act, shall be removed by Certiorari out of the County, Riding, Division, City, Town, or Place, wherein such Order or Conviction was made, into any Court whatsoever; and that no Writ of Certiorari shall supersede Execution or other Proceedings upon any such Order or Conviction so made in pursuance of the said Act of the present Session, or of this Act; but that Execution and other Proceedings shall be had and made thereupon, any such Writ or Writs, or Allowance thereof, notwithstanding.

Provisions of this Act and of Cap. 6. shall be mutually applied in the Execution of either.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Provisions of this Act shall, in the Execution of the said Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, be used and applied, and construed, in like Manner as if the same Provisions were specially enacted in the said Act; and all and every the Provisions of the said Act shall, in the Execution of this Act, be used, applied, extended, and construed, in like Manner as if the same Provisions were specially enacted in this Act.

Act may be altered or repealed this Session. [See post. Cap. 139.]

XXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, varied, or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. XXIV.

An Act to explain and amend an Act, made in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for raising a certain Number of Men in the several Counties in England, for the Service of His Majesty's Army and Navy.—[30th December 1796.]

Act of present Session, Cap. 4. recited.

'WHEREAS it is expedient that an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for raising a certain Number of Men in the several Counties in England, for the Service of his Majesty's Army and Navy, should be explained and amended, in the Particulars hereinafter mentioned:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That any Volunteer or Volunteers raised under the said Act for the Army, who shall be approved by the Regulating Officer, may be brought before any two Justices of the same County, Riding, Division, or Place, residing near to the Place of Rendezvous, to be examined touching his Consent to enter into such Service; and it shall be lawful for such Justices of the Peace to cause such Volunteer or Volunteers to be attested and sworn in the Manner and according to the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed (mutatis mutandis).

Volunteers raised under the recited Act for the Army may be brought before two Justices, who may cause them to be attested according to the Form in the annexed Schedule.

II. And

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace before whom any such Volunteer shall be attested, over and above such Part of the Bounty as shall have been agreed to be paid to such Volunteer on his engaging to serve, to direct and order the further Sum of one Guinea, out of such Bounty, to be advanced and paid to the Officer or Officers appointed to receive, and who shall receive, such Volunteer, to be by him laid out in providing immediate Necessaries for such Volunteer.

Justices may order, over the Part of the Bounty agreed to be paid Volunteers on engaging, one Guinea to the Receiving Officers for Necessaries.

III. And be it further enacted, That if any Volunteer or Volunteers who shall be so attested shall desert from his Majesty's Service at any Time before such Volunteer or Volunteers shall have arrived at the Head Quarters of their respective Regiments, if such Regiments shall then be in Great Britain, and if such Regiments shall then be on Foreign Service before such Volunteer or Volunteers shall have arrived at Chatham Barracks, the Parish or Parishes by which such Volunteers were provided shall be liable to provide other fit and able Men in lieu of those who shall so desert, to be raised in the Manner directed by the said Act, within fourteen Days after Notice in Writing of such Desertion shall be given to the respective Overseers of such Parishes or Places by the Officer from whom such Volunteer or Volunteers deserted; and the Bounties agreed to be given to any such Volunteers who shall desert, and remaining unpaid, may be applied for the Purpose of providing other Men in lieu of those who shall desert: Provided always, that the Officer or Officers who shall receive such other Men in lieu of those who have deserted, shall return to the respective Overseers of the Poor of the respective Parishes by whom such Men shall be raised, all Sums received by him or them for the Purpose of providing Necessaries as aforesaid, not exceeding the Sum of one Guinea for each such Man; all which Sums of Money so repaid shall be allowed to such Officer or Officers in his or their Accounts.

If Volunteers desert before they arrive at Quarters or Chatham, the Parish must provide others, and the Bounties of Deserters unpaid may be applied for that Purpose.

Officers to return to the Overseers the Sum received for Necessaries of Deserters, not exceeding a Guinea.

IV. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Volunteer raised under the said Act for the Army, shall have arrived at the Head Quarters of the Regiment for which he shall be attested, if such Regiment shall then be in Great Britain, or, if such Regiment shall be on Foreign Service, shall have arrived at Chatham Barracks, it shall and may be lawful for the Commanding Officer of such Regiment, in every Case where the Regiment, for which such Volunteer shall be attested, shall then be in Great Britain, and for the Inspector General of the Recruiting Service at Chatham, in every Case where the Regiment, for which such Volunteer shall be attested shall then be on Foreign Service, and they are hereby respectively required to make out and transmit the Pay Ticket directed to be made out by the said Act (and which Ticket shall be made out in the Manner directed thereby) to the Receiver General of the County where such Volunteer shall have been raised, and such Receiver General shall, and he is hereby empowered to pay to the Order of such Commanding Officer, or such Inspector General, as the Case may require, the Remainder of the Bounty Money agreed to be paid to such Volunteer on his engaging to serve, and then remaining due, out of any Publick Monies in the Hands of such Receiver General; and such Receiver General shall pay the same without Delay, and shall demand Repayment of the same from the County Treasurer who shall have received such Bounty Money.

On Arrival of Volunteers at Quarters or Chatham, a Pay Ticket to be transmited to the County Receiver General, who shall pay the Remainder of Bounties, and demand the same of the County Treasurer.

V. And be it further enacted, That out of the Bounty Money which any such Officer or such Inspector General shall receive in pursuance of this Act for the Use of any Volunteer, it shall be lawful for them respectively to apply Part thereof, not exceeding three Guineas, to complete the Necessaries to be provided for such Volunteer, in the Manner such Commanding Officer and Inspector General respectively shall think most for the Benefit of the respective Volunteers; and the Remainder of such Bounty Money (if any) shall be advanced and paid to such Volunteers without Delay; and the Officer or Officers who shall have expended any Part of such Bounty Money in providing Necessaries as aforesaid, shall account to such Volunteers how the said respective Sums have been applied and disposed of, which Accounts shall be rendered within a reasonable Time after such Application thereof.

Out of the Bounty, three Guineas may be applied for Necessaries, and the Remainder paid the Volunteer.

VI. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall have been already enrolled by virtue of the said Act of the present Session of Parliament, or who shall be enrolled by virtue thereof after the passing of this Act, to serve in the Army, shall be delivered by the Overseers of the Poor of the Parish or Parishes for which such Person shall be engaged to serve at the nearest Place of Rendezvous appointed, or to be appointed, for the Reception of Volunteers raised for the Army by virtue of the said Act, within the County, Riding, or Division, for which such Person shall be engaged to serve; or if not there delivered, then at the Head Quarters of such Regiment, if such Regiment shall be in Great Britain, or if such Regiment shall be on Foreign Service, then at Chatham Barracks; and that no Officer shall be compelled to receive such Person at any other Place than is herein described.

Persons enrolled to be delivered by the Overseers, at the nearest Rendezvous, or at Head Quarters or Chatham.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Volunteer raised, or to be raised, for the Army by virtue of the said Act, who shall have been delivered to the proper Officer at the Place of Rendezvous appointed for the Reception of Volunteers within any County, Riding, or Division, shall afterwards desert from such Officer or Officers, then the Parish or Parishes for which the Person so deserting shall have been raised, and which shall provide any other Man in lieu of the Person so deserting, shall be entitled to receive the Sum paid to such Deserter, not exceeding one third Part of such Sum as shall have been agreed to be paid to him as a Bounty at the Time when he engaged to serve, and which shall have been expressed in the Certificate of the Justices of the Peace who shall have attested such Person; and the Justices of the Peace before whom such other Man shall be attested, shall, on Production of such Certificate, or a true Copy thereof, attested by the Justices granting the same, make an Order on the Receiver General of the County,

If a Volunteer desert after Delivery at the Rendezvous, the Parish which shall provide another Man shall receive the Sum paid the Deserter, not exceeding a Third of the Bounty, &c.

County, Riding, or Division, for the Payment of the same; and which Sum every such Receiver General is hereby required to pay accordingly out of any Public Monies in the Hands of such Receiver General.

Volunteers may be removed out of the County for which raised, to Head Quarters or Chatham, and only Part of their Bounty to be paid till their Arrival.

VIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That whenever any Volunteer who, from and after the passing of this Act, shall be raised for the Army by virtue of the said Act of the present Session of Parliament, and entered in any Regiment whose Head Quarters shall not then be within the County, Riding, or Division, for which such Volunteer shall be engaged to serve, it shall and may be lawful to convey such Volunteer out of the County, Riding, or Division, where he shall have been raised into any other County, Riding, or Division, where such Head Quarters shall be, or to Chatham Barracks as the Case may require; and no Part of the Bounty Money for which he engaged to serve, except one third Part thereof allowed by the said Act to be paid to him at the Time of his Enrolment, and the further Sum of one Guinea, allowed to be paid to the Officer for his Use for Necessaries by this Act, shall be paid either to him or to his Use until he shall have arrived at such Head Quarters, or at Chatham Barracks, as the Case may require.

If Overseers undertake to deliver any Person raised, at Head Quarters or Chatham, they may pay him the Remainder of Bounty.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if the Overseers of the Poor of the Parish or Parishes, for which any Person already raised, or to be raised, for the Army by the said Act is or shall be engaged to serve, shall voluntarily undertake to deliver such Person at the Head Quarters of the Regiment for which such Person is or shall be entered, or at Chatham Barracks, as the Case may require, it shall and may be lawful for them so to do, and to pay to such Person the Whole of the Bounty Money then remaining due to such Person, except such Sums as the Commanding Officer of such Regiment, the Inspector General of Recruits at Chatham, and the Officers appointed to receive such Men at the Places of Rendezvous respectively, shall be entitled to receive for the Use of such Person for providing Necessaries, not exceeding, in the Whole, the Sum of four Guineas, including the Sum of one Guinea directed to be advanced to the Officer at the Time of receiving such Person.

Parishes delivering Volunteers at Head Quarters or Chatham, or on board Ship, to receive 4d. per Mile, for the Distance, from the County Receiver General.

Receipts to be given the Receiver General as his Vouchers, who shall be reimbursed by the County Treasurer.

X. And be it further enacted, That any Parish or Parishes which shall cause to be delivered any Volunteer raised or to be raised for the Army, at the Head Quarters of the Regiment in which he shall be entered, or at Chatham Barracks as aforesaid, or shall deliver any Volunteer raised or to be raised for the Navy on board any of his Majesty's Ships of War, at such Place and Time as is herein-before mentioned, shall, by Order of two Justices of the Peace of the County, Riding, or Division, where such Volunteer shall have been raised, to be granted on the Certificate of the Commanding Officer at the Head Quarters, or at Chatham Barracks, in respect of Recruits for the Army, and of the Officer having the Command of the Ship, in respect of Recruits for the Navy, of such his future Officer having received such Volunteer, be entitled to receive an Allowance after the Rate of Four-pence for each and every Mile such Volunteer shall be conveyed, from the Receiver General of such County, Riding, or Division, to be paid to the Overseer or Overseers of such Parish or Parishes, by such Receiver General out of any Public Monies in his Hands: Provided, that in every Case where any Receiver General is by this Act required to pay any Sum of Money out of any Public Monies, the Person or Persons demanding the same shall give a Receipt for the same, which such Receiver General shall produce as a Voucher for such Payment: Provided also, that every such Receiver General who shall advance any Monies in pursuance of this Act, shall be reimbursed the same by and out of any Monies which shall come into the Hands of the Treasurer of such County, Riding, or Division, of the Fines to be paid by any Parish or Parishes for not raising the Number of Men required to be raised by the said Act, and which shall be directed to be paid to such Receiver General by any Justices of the Peace, in pursuance of the said Act; and if such Receiver General shall not receive sufficient of such Monies, then the Deficiency shall be allowed to such Receiver General in his Accounts.

Persons under 18 to be 5 Feet 3 Inches, and above 18, 5 Feet 4 Inches in Height.

XI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person shall be enrolled to serve in the Army, by virtue of the said Act, who, being under the Age of eighteen Years, shall be under the Height of five Feet three Inches, or being above the Age of eighteen, shall be under the Height of five Feet four Inches.

Where the whole Number is not raised for any Place, further Time may be allowed by the General Sessions.

XII. And be it further enacted, That where the whole Number of Men appointed to be raised by or for any Place or Places, shall not be raised, and a Return thereof made to the Justices of the District at a Petty Sessions, within three Weeks next after Notice of the Order of General Sessions shall have been served, in the Manner directed by the said Act of the present Session, it shall and may be lawful for the Justices, at such Sessions, to allow a further Time for that Purpose, not later than the twentieth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and at the End of such further Time to proceed in the Execution of the said Act, in the Manner they are directed to proceed at the End of the first Period of three Weeks aforesaid.

Volunteers may be received on board Ship from Overseers, who may pay them the Whole of their Bounties.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Volunteer entered to serve in his Majesty's Navy by virtue of the said Act of the present Session shall, at the voluntary Request of the Overseers of the Poor of the Parish or Parishes for which such Volunteer shall be engaged to serve, be conveyed by the said Overseers on board any of his Majesty's Ships of War, at such Place, and within such Time, as the Regulating Officer by whom such Volunteers shall be entered, shall direct, by any Order in Writing signed by him, it shall and may be lawful for the Person taking or having the Command of such Ship to receive such Volunteer from the said Overseers of the Poor; and the said Overseers of the Poor may, in the Presence of the Person taking the Command of such Ship, pay the Whole of the Bounty Money agreed to be paid, into the Hands of such Volunteer, to his sole Use, every such Volunteer giving a Receipt to the said Overseers, which shall be attested teſted by the Perſon then taking the Command of ſuch Ship, in Token of his having received ſuch Volunteer into the ſaid Service.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Proviſions of this Act ſhall, in the Execution of the ſaid Act paſſed in the preſent Seſſion of Parliament, be uſed and applied, and conſtrued, in like Manner as if the ſame Proviſions were ſpecially enacted in the ſaid Act; and all and every the Proviſions of the ſaid Act ſhall, in the Execution of this Act, be uſed, applied, extended, and conſtrued, in like Manner as if the ſame Proviſions were ſpecially enacted in this Act. Proviſions of this Act and Cap. 4. may be applied in the Execution of either.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, varied, or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be made in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament. Act may be altered or repealed this Seſſion.

CAP. XXVI.

An Act to provide for the more speedy Payment of all Navy, Victualling, and Transport Bills, that shall be issued in future.—[30th December 1796.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the more speedy Payment of all Navy, Victualling, and Transport Bills:' May it please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, every Bill issued by or under the Authority of the Commissioners of the Navy, Victualling, and Transport Offices respectively, shall be made payable on a certain Day, to be expressed in each particular Bill, which Day shall not be later than three Calendar Months from the Date of such Bill; and that every such Bill shall carry an Interest after the Rate of Three-pence Half-penny per Centum per Diem, which shall commence from the Date of the same, and shall be paid at the Time when such Bill shall become payable; any former Law or Usage to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Navy, Victualling, and Transport Bills, to be made payable not later than three Months after Date, with Three-pence Half-penny per Cent. per Day Interest.

CAP. XXVII.

An Act for allowing further Time for the Payment of Instalments to become due on certain Sums advanced by way of Loan, pursuant to an Act of the thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for enabling His Majesty to direct the Issue of Exchequer Bills to a limited Amount, for the Purposes, and in the Manner therein mentioned; and for granting further Relief to Persons connected with and trading to the Islands of Grenada and Saint Vincent.—[30th December 1796.]

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, 'An Act for enabling his Majesty to direct the Issue of Exchequer Bills to a limited Amount, for the Purposes, and in the Manner therein mentioned, reciting that, in Consideration of the heavy Losses which had been sustained in the Islands of Grenada and Saint Vincents, in consequence of the late Insurrections, it was expedient that his Majesty should be enabled to direct Exchequer Bills, to the Amount of one million five hundred thousand Pounds, to be issued to Commissioners, to be by them advanced under certain Regulations and Restrictions, for the Assistance and Accommodation of such Persons connected with or trading to the said Islands, as should be desirous of receiving the same, on due Security being given for the Repayment of the Sums so advanced within a Time to be limited, his Majesty was enabled by Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, to authorize and empower the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, to cause or direct any Number of Exchequer Bills to be made out at his Majesty's Exchequer in Manner therein mentioned: And whereas Issues in Exchequer Bills, to the Amount of nine hundred and ten thousand Pounds, have been made in pursuance of the said Act, whereby great Benefit and Relief have been afforded, not only to the Persons who have received the same, but such Advantages have been communicated generally to the Owners of Plantations and Estates in the said Islands, and to other Persons connected in Trade therewith; but the Proprietors of Estates in the said Islands, from the long Continuance of internal Troubles therein, have not yet been enabled to restore their Estates to a productive State, and many Proprietors of Estates, and other Persons trading to or connected with the said Islands, have by reason of the unexpected Continuance of such Troubles, been prevented from procuring and proposing the Securities or Sureties required by the said recited Act, so as to entile them to apply for a Loan of Exchequer Bills under the same: And whereas, from the present Condition of the said Islands of Grenada and Saint Vincents, it is expedient to continue and enlarge the Powers of the said Act, and to extend the Times for the Repayment of the Amount of the said Exchequer Bills already issued, upon the Terms and Conditions, and in Manner herein-after specified:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Honourable Henry Hobart, the Right Honourable Charles Townshend, Sir William Pulteney Baronet, Sir John Sinclair Baronet, the Right Honourable Sir Grey Cooper Baronet, Edward Simeon, Ebenezer Maitland, John William Anderson, William Curtis, Charles Grant, George Dorrien, Robert Hunter, Thomas Plummer, Gabriel Tucker Steward, and Benjamin Savage, Esquires, being the present acting Commissioners under the said recited Act, and who are severally authorized by, named in, or appointed under the Powers contained in the said recited Act, shall be and are hereby constituted Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act.

35 Geo. III. Cap. 127. recited.

Commissioners.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons to whom such Exchequer Bills have been issued in pursuance of the said recited Act, his, her, or their Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, and who respectively shall be desirous of enlarging or extending the Time limited by the said Act for such Repayment, to make Application to the said Commissioners hereby appointed for any Enlargement or Extension of the Times limited for such Repayment, not exceeding two Years from the Persons may apply to the Commissioners to have the Time of Repayment of Exchequer Bills issued under the Act, 35 Geo. III. Cap 127. extended.

respective Times when the several Instalments are now payable by the Provisions of the said recited Act, and to offer to the said Commissioners, Security for the due Payment of such Instalments, at or within such enlarged or extended Times, (either by continuing, in the Manner herein-after mentioned, the Sureties or Securites already liable or pledged for Repayment of the Amount of the said Bills and the Interest thereon, or by procuring or making further or other Sureties or Securities, of the Nature and Quality specified in the said Act, or this Act, or by all or any of those Means, as he or they may be able to give or effect; and the said Commissioners are hereby authorized, from Time to Time, to judge of and determine upon the Sufficiency of such Surety or Sureties, Security or Securities, to be given for securing the Repayment of such Sums, at the Expiration of such enlarged or extended Times, in like Manner as they are enabled by the said recited Act to do with respect to the original Sureties or Surety, or Securities or Security, directed to be proposed, given, and made, previous to the Advance or Issue of any Exchequer Bills under the same.

Commissioners to determine on the Sufficiency of Sureties and Securities.

Sureties willing to remain so for Repayment of Loan at the Expiration of extended Times, to signify to the Secretary their Consent in the following Form.

III. And be it further enacted, That all and every Persons or Person who now are or is, or at the Time of any such Application shall be, liable as Sureties or Surety for the Repayment of any such Loan or Advance, at the Times limited by the said herein-before recited Act, and who shall be willing to remain Sureties or Surety for the Repayment of such Loan or Advance, at the Expiration of such enlarged or extended Times, and who shall be approved by the said Commissioners for that Purpose, shall signify their Consent to remain such Sureties or Surety, by subscribing their or his Names or Name to a Writing, to be left with the Secretary of the said Commissioners for the Time being, in the following Form; (that is to say,)

Form.

'WHEREAS the Commissioners named in and appointed under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for enabling his Majesty to direct the Issue of Exchequer Bills to a limited Amount, for the Purposes and in the Manner therein mentioned; did, on the Day of advance to the Sum of in Exchequer Bills, who thereupon entered into and executed a Bond to his Majesty in the penal Sum of conditioned for Payment of the said Sum of with Interest at the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, by three several Instalments, according to the said Act; and the several Persons hereunder mentioned as Sureties for the said entered into, and executed Bonds to his Majesty for the several Sums of Money set opposite their respective Names hereunder written, conditioned for Repayment of the said Sum of and the Interest thereof, in Manner aforesaid: And whereas by an Act passed in the thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, for continuing and enlarging the Powers given by the said Act, and for extending the Times limited by the said Act, for the Repayment of the Amount of the Exchequer Bills issued in pursuance of the same, the said Commissioners, upon the Application of the Persons who have received Advances of Exchequer Bills under the first mentioned Act, and upon such Security and Consent being given to and deposited with the said Commissioners as is directed by the said last mentioned Act, are authorized to extend the Time for Repayment of the Amount of such Exchequer Bills for any Period, not exceeding two Years from the respective Times when the several Instalments are made payable by the said first mentioned Act: And whereas the said applied to the said Commissioners to extend the Time for the Payment of [the Whole of the said Loan in Exchequer Bills, or the first, second, or third Instalments thereof, as the Case may be] for the Space of from the Time [or respective Times] when the same became payable, according to the first mentioned Act, and proposed that the Persons whose Names are hereto subscribed, shall consent to remain as Sureties for Payment of the said Sum of with Interest at the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, at the said extended Period [or Periods], in like Manner as they now stand liable for Payment thereof, with Interest, by Instalments, according to the first mentioned Act: Now these Presents witness, That we, whose Names are hereunto subscribed, do hereby severally and respectively declare, that the said Application and Proposal, so made to the said Commissioners by the said as aforesaid, were made with our Privity, Consent, and Approbation; and we do hereby consent and agree, that the Bonds already executed by us for the respective Sums set opposite our respective Names, at the Foot hereof as aforesaid, shall remain and continue as a Security for Repayment of the said Sum of with Interest thereon at the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, at the said extended Period [or Periods], in like Manner as the same now stand, as a Security for Repayment thereof by Instalments, according to the said first mentioned Act; and we further consent and agree, that the said Commissioners shall be at Liberty to grant to the said the said Extension of Time for Payment, either upon the Security already received for the same, or upon any other or different Securities, as they in their Discretion shall think fit to accept. Witness our Hands this Day of

And every such Consent, so subscribed and delivered, shall be binding upon the respective Sureties or Surety so signing the same, their, his, or her Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, in like Manner as such respective Sureties or Surety were or was by the original Bonds or Bond entered into by them or him, bound for the Repayment of such Loan or Advance at the Times thereby limited for the Repayment thereof.

Commissioners shall meet to receive Applications for Extension of Times

IV. And be it further enacted, That within seven Days next after this Act shall have received the Royal Assent, the Commissioners who shall have taken the Oath prescribed by the said herein-before recited Act, or some five or more of them, shall meet to receive, or to appoint a proper Person or Persons to receive, all such Applications in Writing as shall be made to them for such Enlargement or Extension of the Times for the Repayment of the Amount of such Exchequer Bills, or any of the Instalments thereof; and shall also fix proper and convenient Days for the Purpose of taking into Consideration all such Applications, and shall meet together for that Purpose, and proceed to take into Consideration all such Applications, as shall specify the Times to which such Payments are required to be extended, (not exceeding the Limits herein-before mentioned,) and which shall tender any Security, which the said Commissioners are authorized as aforesaid to take for the due Payment of such Sums of Money, at or before the Expiration of such enlarged or extended Times, and which shall also specify the Nature, Quality, and Amount thereof; and the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, shall, from Time to Time, on Inquiry into the same respectively, determine upon the Sufficiency of the Securities so tendered.

for Repayment of Loans, and fix Days for taking them into Consideration: and shall determine on Sufficiency of the Securities.

V. And be it further enacted, That in case any Persons or Person, making such Application to the said Commissioners, shall not, previous to or upon any of the said Instalments becoming due and payable under the said recited Act, be prepared to tender such sufficient Sureties or Surety, or Securities or Security, for the Purposes herein mentioned, as shall by the said Commissioners be deemed requisite, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, by Writing under the Hands and Seals of any five or more of them, to grant to such Persons or Person such further Time for the procuring and tendering such Sureties or Securities (not exceeding the Limits herein-after mentioned) as they in their Discretion shall think fit to allow; and in the mean Time, and until the Expiration of the Time so allowed by the said Commissioners for the Purpose aforesaid, such Parties respectively shall not be deemed or taken to have made Default in Payment of such Instalment of the said Loan under the said recited Act, nor shall any Process, Suit, or other Proceeding, be issued, commenced, or had, nor any Warrant for the same granted against the said Parties respectively, or their Sureties or Surety, their Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, or upon or in respect of any Securities or Security made, assigned, or deposited for the Purposes in the said Act mentioned, or otherwise, for the Purpose of recovering or compelling Payment of the said Loan, or any Part thereof.

Commissioners may grant to Persons not prepared to tender sufficient Sureties, previous to or upon Instalments becoming due under recited Act, further Time;

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case such Application shall be made to the said Commissioners for the Enlargement or Extension of the Time limited for the Payment of the first Instalment, payable under the said recited Act, and the Persons or Person making such Application shall not be prepared to tender such sufficient Sureties or Surety, Securities or Security, as aforesaid, the said Commissioners shall not allow to such Persons or Person any longer Time than three Months, to be computed from the fifth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, for the Purpose of procuring and tendering such Sureties or Surety, Securities or Security; and in case such first Instalment shall have been duly paid, and such Application shall be made for the Enlargement or Extension of the Times of Payment of the second and third Instalments, or either of them, then the said Commissioners shall not allow any longer Time for the Purposes aforesaid than three Months, to be computed from the respective Times of Payment of the said second and third Instalments respectively, as limited by the said Act; and any Grant or Allowance by the said Commissioners, to any Persons or Person making such Application, of any longer or further Time for the Purposes aforesaid, than as herein-before mentioned, shall be wholly void and of none Effect.

but not beyond three Months from January 5, 1797, or from the Time for Payment of the second and third Instalments.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Persons and Person, who shall make such Application to the said Commissioners for the Enlargement or Extension of the Times of Repayment of the Amount of any Exchequer Bills advanced under the said recited Act, or any Instalment thereof, and whose Applications and Proposals shall be approved by the said Commissioners, shall forthwith enter into such additional Bond or Obligation, Bonds or Obligations, and in such and the like Penalties as were required by the said recited Act upon the original Advance or Issue of the said Exchequer Bills, and with such original or new Sureties (if any) as shall be approved by the said Commissioners, for the due Repayment of the Amount of such Exchequer Bills, at or before the Expiration of such enlarged or extended Times, and shall deposit, or cause to be deposited, in the Hands of the said Commissioners, or of such Person as they shall appoint to receive the same, all such further or other Securities as shall have been tendered by the said Parties respectively, and approved by the said Commissioners, and shall pay such Interest on the said Loan, and in such Manner, and within such Time, as herein-after directed; and from and after the Execution and Delivery of such Bonds, and the signing of such Consent by the original Sureties as aforesaid, and the Deposit of such further Securities (as the Case may be) and the Payment of such Interest as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to grant and allow, in Manner hereinafter mentioned, to such Parties respectively, such Enlargement or Extension of the Times of Repayment of such Loan as they the said Commissioners shall, in their Discretion, think proper, so that the same be made payable by such Instalments as herein-after mentioned; (that is to say,) one third Part of the said principal Sums with the Interest then due for the same, at the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, on or before the fifth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine; one third Part thereof with like Interest on or before the tenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, and the Residue thereof with like Interest, on or before the fifth Day of July one thousand eight hundred; and such Parties respectively to whom the said Commissioners shall allow such Enlargement or Extension of the Times of Payment of the said Loan, shall not be deemed or taken to have made Default in Payment of the said Loan in Manner directed by the said recited Act, nor shall any Process, Suit, or other Proceeding be issued, commenced, or had, nor any Warrant for the same granted against the said Parties respectively, or their Sureties or Surety, their or any of their Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, or upon or in respect of any Securities or Security made, assigned, or deposited, for the Purposes in the said Act mentioned, or otherwise, in order to recover Persons to whom Times for Repayment of Loans shall be extended, to enter into additional Bonds, &c.

Commissioners may grant to such Persons Extension of Times of Repayment by Instalments, One-third on January 5, 1799; One third on October 10, 1799, and the remaining One-third on July 5, 1800.

Before receiving Certificates, the Intereſt of Loans to be paid.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all and every Perſons and Perſon to whom ſuch Enlargement or Extenſion of Time, for the Payment of the ſaid Inſtalments, or any or either of them, ſhall be granted or allowed under the Powers and Authorities herein-before given for that Purpoſe, ſhall, previous to receiving the Certificate of the ſaid Commiſſioners for the ſame, pay, or cauſe to be paid, to the ſaid Commiſſioners, or ſuch Perſons or Perſon as they, or any five or more of them, ſhall appoint to receive the ſame, Intereſt for the Whole of the ſaid Loan, or ſo much thereof as ſhall remain due or unpaid at the Time when ſuch Grant or Allowance ſhall be made; ſuch Intereſt to be paid, in caſe the Whole of the ſaid Loan ſhall remain due and unpaid, within three Months, to be computed from the fifth Day of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven; or if any of ſuch Inſtalments ſhall have been paid or ſatisfied before ſuch Grant or Allowance, then within three Months from the Time when the next accruing Inſtalment is made payable in purſuance of the ſaid recited Act.

Remedies of the Act 35 Geo. III. Cap 127. for compelling Repayment of Exchequer Bills, to continue where the Times have not been extended.

X. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That the ſaid Act herein-before recited, and all Remedies thereby provided for recovering or compelling the Repayment of the Amount of the Exchequer Bills iſſued and advanced under the ſame as aforeſaid, ſhall continue and be in full Force as againſt all Perſons, and in all Caſes, where the Time for Repayment hath not been enlarged and extended according to the Proviſions of this Act.

His Majeſty may empower the Treaſury to direct Exchequer Bills to be made out for 600,000l. to the Commiſſioners.

XI. 'And whereas Exchequer Bills to the Amount of nine hundred and ten thouſand Pounds only, hav-'ing been hitherto iſſued under the Powers and Authorities given by the ſaid herein-before recited Act, and 'it being expedient to grant further Relief to Perſons connected with, and trading to, the ſaid Iſlands of 'Grenada and Saint Vincents;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the King's moſt excellent Majeſty, by Warrant or Warrants under his Royal Sign Manual, to authorize and empower the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, now or for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or the Lord High Treaſurer for the Time being, out of any Monies granted for the Supply of the preſent Year, to cauſe or direct to be iſſued and paid, at the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer, any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding ſix hundred thouſand Pounds to the Commiſſioners hereby appointed, to be by them advanced and paid from Time to Time for the Accommodation of ſuch Perſons connected with, and trading to, the ſaid Iſlands, or either of them, as ſhall be deſirous thereof, upon ſuch Security, and under ſuch Rules and Regulations, as are herein mentioned and contained.

XII. And

XII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners to lend or advance, apportion or distribute, to and amongst any Persons connected with, or trading to, the said Islands of Grenada and Saint Vincents, or either of them, (whether such Persons or Person shall or shall not have hitherto received any such Loan or Advance by Means of the Exchequer Bills already issued,) all or any Part of the Sum or Sums of Money to be issued under the Authority of this Act, under the like Terms and Conditions as are specified and prescribed by the said recited Act, with respect to the Issue and Advance of the Exchequer Bills thereby authorized, except as to the Time stipulated for Repayment thereof; and that instead thereof the Sum or Sums of Money which shall be advanced and lent by the said Commissioners under the Authority of this Act, shall be repaid without Deduction or Abatement, together with Interest for the same, by Instalments as herein-after is mentioned; (that is to say,) one third Part of such Sum or Sums shall be repaid to the Cashier or Cashiers of the Bank of England at their Office, together with Interest for the same, at and after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, on or before the fifth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine; one other third Part thereof, with like Interest, on or before the tenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine; and the Residue thereof, with like Interest, on or before the fifth Day of July one thousand eight hundred; such Interest to be computed on the said Sum or Sums from the Time of such Loan to the respective Times of Payment thereof as aforesaid.

Commissioners may advance Money issued under this Act, under the Conditions of the Act 35 Geo. III. Cap. 127. except as to Times of Repayment, which shall be as before specified.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, upon any Application made to them for any Sum or Sums of Money as aforesaid, to take from the Parties or Party making such Application, not only such Securities as they are by the said Act herein-before recited authorized to take for the Repayment of such Loan, but also to take, at their Discretion, as a Security for such Repayment, any Mortgage or Mortgages upon any Plantations or Plantation, Estates or Estate, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, in the said Islands of Grenada and Saint Vincents, or either of them, which the said Parties respectively shall or may be seised of or entitled to in Fee Simple, and the Negroes, Stock, and Effects, upon such Plantations, Estates, and Premises respectively (subject nevertheless to the Restrictions and Provisions herein-after declared respecting the same); and such Parties respectively shall make such Mortgages or Mortgage to the Secretary of the said Commissioners for the Time being, and shall deposit all such Title Deeds, Papers, or Writings, of or relating to such mortgaged Premises, as they the said Commissioners shall require, in such Manner and Form as the several Securities enumerated in the said herein-before recited Act are directed to be made and deposited; and shall also execute to such Persons or Person as shall be appointed by the said Commissioners for that Purpose, a Warrant of Attorney to confess, in the Names of such Mortgagors respectively, Judgment in any Actions or Action of Ejectment to be brought in the proper Courts of the said Islands respectively, for recovering the Possession of the said mortgaged Premises; and such Judgments shall be forthwith entered up of Record in the proper Courts of the said Islands, and no Writ of Error or Appeal shall be or be allowed from such Judgment.

Commissioners may take as Security Mortgages upon Plantations, &c. with Warrants to confess Judgment, &c.

XIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall not accept or take any such Mortgages or Mortgage of any such Plantations or Plantation, Estates or Estate, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments in the said Islands, or either of them, as Securities or Security for the Repayment of any such Advance or Loan, unless the Persons or Person who, at the Time of the making such Mortgages or Mortgage, shall be the Consignees or Consignee of the Produce of such Premises respectively in Great Britain, shall also become Sureties or Surety for the Repayment of the whole Amount of such Advance or Loan, and the Interest thereof.

Mortgages not to be taken unless the Consignees of the Produce in Great Britain become Sureties;

XV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall not accept or take any such Mortgages or Mortgage of any such Plantations or Plantation, Estates or Estate, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, in the said Islands, or either of them, as Securities or Security for the Repayment of any such Loan or Advance, unless such Premises shall be free from any other Incumbrances or Incumbrance, or (in case such Premises shall be subject or liable to any existing Incumbrances or Incumbrance) unless all and every prior Incumbrancers or Incumbrancer shall join in the Mortgage thereof, for the Purpose of securing the Repayment of such Loan or Advance as aforesaid, so as to make the Claim or Demand of the said Commissioners in respect thereof payable out of the said mortgaged Premises, in preference to all other Incumbrances or Demands thereon.

nor unless the Premises be freed from any other Incumbrances, &c.

XVI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That any such Mortgages or Mortgage of any such Plantations or Plantation, Estates or Estate, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, shall not be deemed or taken as sufficient Securities, or a sufficient Security, for any Sum of Money exceeding the fair average Value of the Produce of such Premises in two Years.

Mortgages not to be taken as Security for Sums exceeding the average Value of the Produce in two Years.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Default shall be made in the Repayment of all or any Part of such Loan or Advance, for which any such Mortgage shall be accepted or taken by the said Commissioners, as a Security, (but not otherwise,) it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or their Attornies or Attorney to be appointed for that Purpose, by the proper Proceedings in the said Islands upon the Judgment so to be entered up as aforesaid, to take Possession of all or any Parts or Part of the said mortgaged Premises, and by Sale or Mortgage of the same, or a competent Part thereof, to raise and levy such Sum or Sums of Money as shall be sufficient to repay all Monies due upon or in respect of such Loan or Advance, and the Interest thereof, and all Costs and Charges attending such Proceedings; and the Monies so recovered (the Costs and Charges aforesaid excepted) shall be paid and applied in Reimbursement and Satisfaction of the Sum due upon or in respect of such Loan or Advance, in like Manner as the Sums of Money to be recovered under the Proceedings authorized by the said recited Act, in Default of Payment, are thereby directed to be paid and applied; and the Receipt of such Persons or Person as the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, shall nominate and appoint, as their Attornies or Attorney, in the said Islands, or in Great Britain, shall alone be a full and sufficient Discharge to such Mortgagees or Purchasers, or Mortgagee or Purchaser, for the Monies or Money advanced on Mortgage, or for the Purchase Monies or Purchase Money of the respective Premises, so mortgaged or sold; and such Mortgagees or Purchasers, or Mortgagee or Purchaser, shall not be bound to see to the Application thereof, nor shall be liable, or in any Manner accountable, for the Misapplication or Non-application of such Monies or Money by the Attornies or Agents of the said Commissioners, or any of them; and the Attornies or Agents, so to be appointed as aforesaid, shall give Security, by Obligations to his Majesty, with such Sureties as the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, shall approve, duly to account to the said Commissioners for, and to pay to the Cashiers of the Bank of England, when and as the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, shall direct or appoint, all such Sum and Sums of Money as they shall recover or receive, under or by virtue of such Appointments, after deducting all Costs, Charges, and Expences, which shall or may be incurred in the Recovery thereof, and the Commission or Compensation to be paid or allowed to such Attornies or Agents for their Trouble; which Costs, Charges, Expences, Commission, or Compensation, shall be examined and allowed by the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, in such Manner, and to such Extent as they, in their Discretion, shall think fit; and the said Attornies or Agents, to be appointed as aforesaid, shall alone be Accountants to his Majesty for such Sum and Sums of Money as they shall recover under or by virtue of this Act.

If Default be made in Repayment of Loans, the mortgaged Premises may be sold.

Attornies to give Security, and become liable as Accountants.

Commissioners to have the same Powers as under the Act 35 Geo. III. Cap. 127.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall have all such Powers and Authorities, with respect to any Parties applying for Relief under this Act, (either for the Enlargement or Extension of the Times of Repayment of any Loan already advanced, or for any Loan to be advanced under the Authority of this Act,) and the Sureties and Securities tendered by such Parties respectively, and shall have all such Remedies for the Purpose of recovering or compelling Repayment of any Loans or Advances already made, the Times of Repayment of which shall or may be enlarged or extended by the Authority of this Act, or of any Loans or Advances to be originally made under the Authority of the same, as are given to the said Commissioners, and provided by the said recited Act, in respect of any Persons applying for Relief under the same, and the Sureties and Securities tendered by them, or in respect of any Default in Repayment of the Loan authorized by the same Act.

Sureties satisfying Loan to have the same Remedies against the Principals or Co-sureties as under the Act 35 Geo. III. Cap. 127. and Mortgages taken by the Commissioners to remain as Securities for Reimbursement of such Sureties.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Persons or Person consenting to remain Sureties or Surety for any Parties or Party to whom such Enlargement or Extension of the Times of Repayment of Loans advanced to them as herein-before mentioned shall be allowed, or becoming Sureties or Surety for any Person or Persons to whom any such Loan shall be originally made by the Authority of this Act, their or his Executors or Administrators, shall pay or satisfy such Loan, or any Part thereof, or the Interest thereof, or any Costs or Charges incurred in recovering or compelling Payment of such Loan, or any Part thereof, such Sureties or Surety shall have all such Remedies as against their or his Principals or Principal, and their or his Co-sureties or Co-surety, (if any,) as are provided by the said recited Act, for the Benefit of the Sureties of the Persons obtaining a Loan of Exchequer Bills under the said Act: And, moreover, all and every such Mortgages or Mortgage as shall be accepted or taken by the said Commissioners, under the Authority herein-before given to them for that Purpose, as Securities or Security for any Loan or Advance to be made under the Authority of this Act, shall stand and remain as Securities or a Security for the Reimbursement to such Sureties respectively, their Executors and Administrators, of the Whole of any Sum or Sums of Money which shall be paid and satisfied by them as such Sureties, and shall and may be enforced and rendered available, by and under the Authority of the said Commissioners, in like Manner, and with the same Force and Effect, as is herein-before provided, for the Purpose of recovering Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money that shall or may be advanced by the said Commissioners, upon the Security of such Mortgage or Mortgages under and by virtue of this Act.

Obligations taken by the Commissioners, &c. not liable to Stamp Duties.

XX. And be it further enacted, That no Obligation to his Majesty taken by the said Commissioners under this Act, nor any Consent signed by any Sureties or Surety for the Purposes herein-before mentioned, nor any Promissory Note to be given to the Secretary of the said Commissioners, as a Security for the Repayment of the Amount of any such Sum or Sums of Money as aforesaid, nor any Affidavit, Deposition, or Receipt, taken or made under or by virtue of this Act, shall be liable to any Stamp Duty whatsoever.

CAP. XXVIII.

An Act to remove Doubts respecting Promissory Notes of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England for Payment of Sums of Money under Five Pounds.

[3d March 1797.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient for the Publick Service, and for the Convenience of Commercial Circulation, that the Governor and Company of the Bank of England should issue Promissory Notes, 'payable to Bearer, for Sums of Money under five Pounds;' now, to avoid any Doubt concerning the Validity thereof, be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority thority of the same, That all Promissory Notes, and other Notes for Payment of Money, which, since the second Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, have been, or which hereafter shall be issued by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, payable to Bearer, notwithstanding the same shall have been, or shall be, made and issued for the Payment of any Sum of Money under the Sum of five Pounds, shall be good and valid in the Law, to all Intents and Purposes, in like Manner as if the same had been made and issued for the Sum of five Pounds, or upwards; any Law, Statute, or Usage, to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

All Notes issued by the Bank after March 2, 1797, for Sums under 5 l. shall be valid.

II. And be it further enacted, That no Person concerned, or who has acted in, or who shall or may be concerned or act in, the making, uttering, publishing, or negociating, such Notes, shall be subject or liable to any Penalty or Forfeiture whatsoever in respect thereof.

No Person making or negociating such Notes liable to Penalty.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful to alter, vary, or repeal, this Act, or any Part thereof, in this present Session of Parliament.

Act may be altered or repealed this Session.

CAP. XXXI.

An Act to enable the East India Company to raise Money by further increasing their Capital Stock, and to extend the Provisions now existing respecting the present Stock of the Company to the said increased Stock.—[7th March 1797.]

'WHEREAS the Affairs of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies 'require a permanent Advance of a considerable Sum of Money beyond what the said Company 'can raise under the Powers now vested in them by Law; and it is expedient that such Money should be 'raised by an Increase of their Capital Stock:' May it therefore please your most excellent Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said United Company, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, by and with the Consent and Approbation of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or of the High Treasurer for the Time being, from Time to Time, and at any Time or Times hereafter, to open Books and receive Subscriptions from any Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politic or Corporate, for enlarging their present Capital Stock or Fund of six Millions of Pounds to any Sum or Sums, not exceeding the further Sum of two Millions Capital Stock, so that their whole Capital Stock shall not exceed the Capital Sum of eight Millions; which said additional Capital Stock shall from Time to Time be subscribed and paid for at such Rate for every one hundred Pounds of such Stock as the Court of Directors of the said United Company, with the Consent and Approbation of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or of the High Treasurer for the Time being, shall direct; which said Subscriptions shall be made, and the Money for the said additional Stock shall, from Time to Time, be paid, in such Manner and Form, and by such Instalments and Proportions, as the said Court of Directors, with such Consent and Approbation as aforesaid, shall appoint; and the Capital Stock so subscribed and paid for, shall, from and after the Time of such Payment, be deemed, considered, and taken, as and for a Part of the Capital Stock of the said Company; and the said Subscribers, from and after the Time of making full Payment for the said additional Stock, and their respective Executors or Administrators and Assigns, shall at all Times be deemed and reputed to be Members of the said United Company, and incorporated therewith, and shall be entitled unto, and have, hold, and enjoy all and every the Profits, Benefits, Privileges, Advantages, and Immunities, and be subject and liable to all and every the Regulations, Rules, and Orders, whereto the present Stockholders and Members of the said United Company, in respect of the Stock held by and belonging to them, are respectively entitled, subject, and liable unto by any Act or Acts of Parliament, Charter, or Bye-law, or otherwise howsoever; and the said additional Stock shall be transferrable and assignable in the like Manner, and the Proprietors and Holders thereof shall hold their respective Shares of the said additional Stock in like Manner, as the respective present Stockholders of the said Company now do, and hereafter shall hold and enjoy the respective Sums now belonging to them in the present Capital Stock of the said United Company, and the same shall in all Respects be consolidated and united as one Joint Stock.

The Company, with Consent of the Treasury may add 2,000,000 l. to their Capital Stock.

Subscribers to be incorporated with the Company.

The like Dividends to be paid on the additional as on the present Stock.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said United Company shall and may, from Time to Time, make and pay the like Dividends to the Proprietors of the said additional Stock as they now do, and hereafter shall and may make and pay to the Proprietors and Holders of the present Stock of the said United Company; the first of which said Dividends shall commence from such Time as shall be specified in the Proposals or Terms to be offered for the said Subscription, by the said Court of Directors, with such Consent and Approbation as aforesaid.

Preference to be given to present Proprietors, not exceeding 50 l. per Cent. of their Capital.

III. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Court of Directors, with such Consent and Approbation as aforesaid, to give the Option and Preference in subscribing for the said additional Stock, to such Persons as shall hold the said Company's Stock at the Time or Times of such Subscription as aforesaid, as far as and not exceeding the Amount of fifty Pounds per Centum on the Capital Stock, which shall then be held by each Stockholder so subscribing, for all such Sums as they shall subscribe, on or before a Day to be named by the said Court of Directors, with such Consent and Approbation as aforesaid; and in case the Subscriptions made by them, on or before such Day, shall exceed the Sum proposed to be sold at that Time, a proportionable Deduction shall be made from each Subscription; and if such Subscription shall, on the Close thereof on such Day as aforesaid, fall short of the Sum proposed to be sold, the Deficiency shall be disposed of to other Persons, as the said Court of Directors, with such Consent and Approbation as aforesaid, shall think fit.

If their Subscriptions be more than sufficient, a proportionable Deduction to be made; and if less, the Deficiency may be supplied by others.

The additional Stock, with Consent of the Treasury, may be sold to one or more Persons.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent or restrain the Court of Directors of the said United Company, by and with such Consent and Approbation as aforesaid, from agreeing with one or more Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, for the Sale of the Whole of the said additional Capital Stock, or for such Part or Parts thereof, as they shall from Time to Time think fit, and find it necessary and proper to sell; but it shall and may be lawful for the said Court, with such Consent and Approbation as aforesaid, to contract for and agree to sell the Whole, or any Part thereof, to one or more Person or Persons.

Receipts to be given for Deposits, which may be assigned, &c.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That as soon as reasonably may be after the Deposit or first Payment shall be made for the said additional Stock to be subscribed for, the said Company's Cashier or Treasurer shall give a Receipt for the same, and so from Time to Time as future Payments shall be made; which said Receipts shall be assignable and transferrable by Indorsement thereon; and when the last Payment shall be made on the said additional Stock to be subscribed for as aforesaid, the Holder of such Receipt, on delivering up the same, shall have his or her Name entered in proper Books to be kept by the said United Company for that Purpose, with an Account of the Capital Stock belonging to each Proprietor in like Manner as the Accounts of the present Proprietors of India Stock are kept.

Deposits of Defaulters to be forfeited.

VI. Provided always nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That in case any Subscriber or Subscribers, after having subscribed, shall fail in making all or any the Payments agreed at the respective Times for such Payments, then and in every such Case the said United Company shall and may take in Subscriptions for, and sell the Stock subscribed for by such Defaulter, to any other Person or Persons; and all Deposits and Payments made by such Defaulter, previous to such Default, shall be forfeited to and become the Property of the said United Company.

Guardians may subscribe for Infants.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any Guardian or Trustee having the Disposition of the Money of any Infant, to subscribe and pay for the said additional Stock, or any Part thereof, upon the Terms and Conditions contained in this Act; and such Infant, upon the Payment of such Sum or Sums by such Guardian or Trustee, shall be entitled unto the Stock so subscribed and paid for on his Account, and to all Advantages in respect thereof, in like Manner as any other Purchaser or Subscriber; and the said Guardian or Trustee, as to the Sum or Sums advanced by him, shall be, and is hereby discharged in respect thereof, so as the Name of such Infant shall be expressed in the Receipt or Receipts for such Money.

33 Geo. III. Cap. 52. §§ 111, 113, 114, & 115, recited.

VIII. 'And whereas, by an Act made in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for continuing in the East India Company, for a further Term, the Possession of the British Territories in India, together with their exclusive Trade, under certain Limitations; for establishing further Regulations for the Government of the said Territories, and the better Administration of Justice within the same; for appropriating to certain Uses the Revenues and Profits of the said Company; and for making Provision for the good Order and Government of the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay; it was (amongst other Things) enacted, That, during the Continuance of the exclusive Trade to the said Company, the Net Proceeds of their Sales of Goods at Home, with the Duties and Allowances arising by private Trade, and all other Profits of the said Company in Great Britain, after providing for the Payment of Bills of Exchange then already accepted by the said Company, as the same should become due, and for the current Payments of other Debts, Interest, and other Outgoings, Charges, and Expences of the said Company, (their Bond Debt always excepted,) should be applied and disposed of in the following Manner; (that is to say,) first, in the Payment of a Dividend after the Rate of ten Pounds per Centum per Annum, on the present or any future Amount of the Capital Stock of the said Company, the first Half-year's Payment thereof to commence and be made at Midsummer one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three; secondly, in Payment of five hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, the same to be set apart on the first Day of March and the first Day of September,

'tember, half-yearly, in equal Portions, and applied in the Discharge of Bills of Exchange drawn or to be 'drawn in India, for the Transfer or Remittance of the Debts of the said Company from thence to Great 'Britain, for the Diminution of such Debts, until the same should be reduced to two Crores of Current Ru- 'pees, or two millions of Pounds Sterling; thirdly, in Payment of a Sum not exceeding five hundred thousand 'Pounds in every Year into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, to be applied as Parliament should 'direct; and that, until the said Debts in India should be reduced to the Amount of two Crores of Current 'Rupees, or two millions of Pounds Sterling, the ultimate Surplus which should remain of the said Net Pro- 'ceeds, after such Payments thereout made as aforesaid, should and might be from Time to Time set apart and 'applied in Augmentation of the said Fund or Annual Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds a Year, thereby 'appropriated for the Reduction of the said Debts in India, in and for the Reduction thereof by the Discharge 'of any further Bills of Exchange to be drawn from thence either for the Transfer and Remittance thereof to 'Great Britain, or for Loans of Money to be borrowed on the Credit of any Bills of Exchange which should 'be granted by the Order of the Court of Directors to any greater Amount than was therein before limited or 'directed in that Behalf, or otherwise it should be lawful for the said Court of Directors to apply any Part of 'the said ultimate Surplus of the said Net Proceeds in the Payment of any Debts of the said Company in 'Great Britain, (the Bond Debt therein mentioned, of one million five hundred thousand Pounds only ex- 'cepted,) or to the Purchase of any Goods, Wares, or other Merchandize, to be disposed of in India or China, 'and to appropriate the Produce thereof in and towards the more speedy Diminution of the said Debts in 'India; and that when and so soon as the said Debts in India should have been reduced to the Amount 'therein before limited in respect thereof, and the Bond Debt in Great Britain to one million five hundred 'thousand Pounds, the Surplus of the said Net Proceeds, after providing for the current Payments of Interest, 'and other Outgoings, Charges, and Expences, of the said Company, and of a Dividend after the Rate of ten 'Pounds per Centum per Annum on the said Capital Stock, and the said Annual Sum of five hundred thousand 'Pounds to be paid into the Exchequer, and after making good all former Deficiencies in the said Annual 'Payments, otherwise than was provided by the said Act, should be applied and disposed of in the Manner 'following; (that is to say,) one sixth Part of the said Surplus, computed and adjusted to the first Day of 'March in every Year, should be reserved and retained by the said Company for their own Use, and applied 'in Augmentation of the Dividends on their Capital Stock, and that the Residue of the said Surplus should be 'set apart, and from Time to Time paid by the said Company into the Bank of England, within the first 'Week in April in each Year, to be there placed to the Account of the Commissioners appointed by an Act 'of the twenty-sixth Year of his Majesty's Reign*, intituled, An Act for vesting certain Sums in Commissioners, * Cap. 31. 'at the End of every Quarter of a Year, to be by them applied in the Reduction of the National Debt, until the 'Monies so paid, together with the Sums arising by the growing Interest thereof, should have amounted to 'twelve millions of Pounds Sterling; and that, from and after such Payments, together with the Money so 'arising by the said growing Interest, should have amounted to the said Sum of twelve millions of Pounds 'Sterling, the said Surplus should be, from Time to Time, paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, 'and be there placed to the Account of the Consolidated Fund, as the Property of the Public, in full Right: 'And it was thereby further enacted, that the Governor and Company of the Bank of England should raise, 'and keep an Account with the said Commissioners in their Books, to be intituled, The Account of the Gua- 'rantee Fund of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies; and that as well all 'such Monies as should be paid by the said United Company to the said Governor and Company, by virtue of 'that Act, as also the annual Dividends or Interest to arise therefrom, in Manner by that Act provided, should 'be placed to the said Account, and should be severally and respectively, under the Order and Direction of 'the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, laid out and invested in the Names of the said Com- 'missioners in the Purchase of Capital Stock in any of the redeemable Public Annuities transferrable at the 'Bank of England, the same to be transferred to the said Commissioners, on account of the said Guarantee 'Fund in the Books of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and that the Dividends 'payable thereon, should from Time to Time be received by the said Governor and Company of the Bank of 'England, and be placed to the Account of the said Commissioners: And it was thereby further enacted, that 'when and after the Monies paid by the said United Company to the said Governor and Company of the 'Bank, together with the Monies received for Dividends on the Capital Stock of Annuities purchased there- 'with, and with the Proceeds thereof, should have amounted to twelve millions of Pounds Sterling, the Divi- 'dends of the said Capital Stock of Annuities should, in preference to any other Disposition thereof, be sub- 'ject and liable to make good to the said United Company, for and during such Time as they shall continue 'to trade with a Joint Stock, any Deficiency or Deficiencies in their own Funds, applicable to the Payment 'of the Dividends in the said Act mentioned of ten Pounds per Centum per Annum on the Capital Stock of 'the said United Company, if any such Deficiency should happen in such Payment or Payments; and that 'when there should be no such Deficiency, or being such after the same should be made good out of the said 'Dividends, such Dividends, or the Surplus thereof, should be deemed to be the Property of the Public, and 'should be paid, when and as often as the same should arise, by the Governor and Company of the Bank of 'England into the Receipt of the Exchequer, and be there carried to the Account of the Consolidated Fund: 'And it was further enacted, that the Capital Stock of Annuities wherein or in the Purchase whereof the said 'Sum of twelve millions of Pounds Sterling should be invested pursuant to the Directions of that Act, should 'be deemed and considered as a Guarantee Fund for the better securing to the said United Company their 'Capital Stock, or the Value thereof, such Value being always computed for that Purpose after the Rate of

'two hundred Pounds for every one hundred Pounds of such Capital Stock; and that if at the Time of the 'Right and Title of the said United Company to the said whole, sole, and exclusive Trade (limited as in the 'said Act is mentioned) becoming determined, their own Funds and Assets, Real and Personal, should be in- 'sufficient to pay and satisfy all their just Debts, and to make good to the said Company their said Capital 'Stock, or the Value thereof, computing the same after the Rate of two hundred Pounds for every one hun- 'dred Pounds of the said Stock, that then the said Capital Stock of Annuities, or Guarantee Fund, should 'be deemed and considered, as far as the same should or might extend for that Purpose, to be, in the first Place, 'and before any other Application thereof, subject and liable to make good to the said Company and their 'Creditors the Deficiency so arising in their own Funds and Effects for the Purpose aforesaid; and that the 'said Capital Stock of Annuities, or the Surplus thereof, after making good such Deficiency (if any such 'there should be) should remain and continue as a Guarantee Fund, for the better securing the Capital Stock 'of the said United Company, or the Value thereof, rating the same as aforesaid, after such Determination 'of their whole, sole, and exclusive Trade, for so long Time as they should continue to trade with a Joint 'Stock, and subject thereto; and after making good all such Deficiencies, the said Capital Stock of Annui- 'ties, or so much thereof as should then remain, should be and be deemed the Property of the Public; as by 'the said recited Act may appear: And whereas it is just and expedient that, after the Stock of the said Com- 'pany shall be increased, the said Guarantee Fund should be also increased, so as to give the Proprietors of the 'said increased Stock the same Security and Benefit as the Proprietors of the present Stock of the said Com- 'pany are entitled to:' Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from Time to Time when and as the said Company's Stock shall be increased, the said Fund, in the said recited Act, called The Guarantee Fund, shall also be increased, by the Means and in the Manner in which the said Guarantee Fund of twelve millions of Pounds Sterling is to be raised, so that the same may amount to the Sum of the Capital Stock of the said Company, computing the same at such Rate as in the said recited Act is mentioned; and the said Guarantee Fund, so increased as aforesaid, shall be subject unto and a Security for such Payments, and shall be applied in the same Manner in every Respect, to all Intents and Purposes, as the said Guarantee Fund is directed to be paid and applied, so as to secure and make good to the Creditors of the said Company any Deficiency of their Funds for the Payment of Debts, and also any Deficiency to the Proprietors of the said increased Stock, as well as the Proprietors of the present Stock of the said Company, of the said Dividend of ten Pounds per Centum, and of the Value of the said Stock, at the Times and under the Circumstances in the said Act mentioned, rating such Value at two hundred Pounds for every one hundred Pounds Capital Stock, as in the said Act is mentioned.

As the Stock shall be increased, the Guarantee Fund, mentioned in the Act 33 Geo. III. Cap. 52. be also increased.

33 Geo. III. Cap. 52. § 124. recited.

IX. 'And whereas, by the said Act made in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty 'taking Notice of a Fund separately belonging to the said United Company, and therein called The Company's 'Separate Fund, it was enacted, that the said separate Fund, or the Monies constituting the same, should con- 'tinue in the Hands of the said Company, bearing Interest, and be employed in their Trade, subject to the 'Payment of such Dividends as were therein-after specified; and that the said separate Fund, with the grow- 'ing Interest thereof, should be divided and distributed in the Manner therein after mentioned, and in no other 'Manner whatsoever, that is to say, that after Payment should be made by the Company into his Majesty's 'Exchequer of the two first Instalments of two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds each, which by force and 'virtue of that Act would become due from the said Company to the Public on the first Day of July one 'thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, and the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and 'ninety-four, respectively, or otherwise, after setting apart a sufficient Sum for such Payments, (which said 'Payments were duly made agreeable to the Provision of the said Act,) it should be lawful for the said Com- 'pany, out of the said separate Fund, and the Interest or growing Income thereof, to make and declare a 'Dividend or Dividends after the Rate of ten Shillings per Centum per Annum on the present or any future 'Amount of their Capital Stock, which said Dividend or Dividends should be paid and payable to the said 'Company over and above any other Dividend or Dividends which should become due in respect thereof; 'and that after the Expiration of the further Term thereby granted in the said exclusive Trade, it should be 'lawful for the said Company to retain and dispose of what should then remain of the said Company's separate 'Fund, or of the Monies constituting the same, and the Interest or other Annual Proceeds thereof, in such 'Manner as they should then think fit: And whereas the Payment of the said Dividend of ten Shillings per 'Centum to the Proprietors of the said increased Stock out of the said separate Fund as in the said recited Act is 'mentioned, will exhaust the same long before the Expiration of the Term of the said exclusive Trade, to the 'Injury of the present Proprietors of the Stock of the said Company, who would thereby be deprived of such 'Dividend for the Remainder of the said Term, and in regard the Money to be raised by the said increased 'Stock is for the mutual Benefit of the Public and the said United Company, it is fit that the said Dividend 'should be considered as a Charge upon the said Trade;' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority afore- said, That the said Dividend of Ten Shillings per Centum, which under the Authority of the said recited Act will be payable to the Proprietors of the said increased Stock out of the said separate Fund, shall be paid to them out of the Annual Profits of the said Company, in the same Manner, and at the same Times, as the Dividend of ten Pounds per Centum in the said Act mentioned is to be paid to the Proprietors of the Stock of the said Company; and for that Purpose a Sum equal to the Amount of such Dividends shall, from Time to Time, be debited to the Annual Account, as a Charge on the said Trade, and carried to the Account of the said separate Fund; any Thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Dividend of 10 s. per Cent. payable under recited Act, out of the separate Fund, to be paid out of the Profits of the Company.

X. And

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act; and shall be judicially taken notice of as such, by all Judges, Justices, and other Persons whomsoever, without specially pleading the same. Public Act.

CAP. XXXII.

An Act to suspend, for a limited Time, the Operation of two Acts of the fifteenth and seventeenth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, for restraining the Negociation of Promissory Notes, and Inland Bills of Exchange, under a limited Sum, within that Part of Great Britain called England.—[10th March 1797.]

'WHEREAS an Act of Parliament was passed in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of his present 'Majesty, intituled, An Act to restrain the Negociation of Promissory Notes, and Inland Bills of Ex-'change, under a limited Sum, within that Part of Great Britain called England: And whereas another Act 'was passed in the seventeenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for further re-'straining the Negociation of Promissory Notes, and Inland Bills of Exchange, under a limited Sum, within that 'Part of Great Britain called England: And whereas it is expedient, that the said Acts should be suspended 'for a certain Time, so far as the same may relate to any Notes, Draughts, or Undertakings, made pay-'able on Demand:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Acts, so far as the same relate to the making void of Promissory Notes, or Draughts, or Undertakings in Writing, payable on Demand to the Bearer thereof, for any Sum of Money less than the Sum of five Pounds in the Whole; and also to restrain the publishing or uttering and negociating of any such Notes, Draughts, or Undertakings as aforesaid, shall, from and after the second Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, be, and the same is hereby declared to be, to all Intents and Purposes, suspended until the first Day of May next. 15 Geo. III. Cap. 51. 17 Geo. III. Cap. 30. recited: and suspended, so far as they relate to making void Notes under 5l. payable on Demand to Bearer, till May 1, 1797: [by Cap. 61. till July 8: and by Cap. 120. till six Weeks after commencement of the ensuing Session.]

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, varied, or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament. Act may be altered or repealed this Session. See Cap. 61, 120.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person liable to the Payment of any of such Notes, Draughts, or Undertakings in Writing, as may be issued in pursuance of this Act, shall neglect or fail to make full Payment in Money of the Sum or Sums for which such Notes, Draughts, or Undertakings in Writing, shall be respectively given or issued, or so much thereof as shall be or remain due thereon respectively, by the Space of three Days after Demand thereof made by the Holder or Holders of such Notes, Draughts or Undertakings in Writing, it shall and may be lawful for any one or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, City, Division, or Place, where the Person or Persons respectively so refusing to pay any of such Notes, Draughts, or Undertakings in Writing, as last aforesaid, shall or may happen to be or reside, and such Justice or Justices is or are hereby required, upon Complaint made by the Holder or Holders thereof, to summon the Person or Persons against whom such Complaint shall be made, and after his, her, or their Appearance, or in Default thereof, upon due Proof upon Oath, (and which Oath such Justice or Justices is or are hereby empowered to administer,) of such Summons or Warning having been given, such Justice or Justices shall proceed to hear and determine the said Complaint, and award such Sum to be paid by the Person or Persons respectively liable to the Payment of every such Note, Draught, or Undertaking in Writing, to the Holder or Holders thereof, as shall appear to such Justice or Justices to be due thereon, together with such a Sum for Costs, not exceeding the Sum of twenty Shillings, as to such Justice or Justices shall seem meet; and if any Person or Persons shall refuse or neglect to pay or satisfy such Sum of Money as upon such Complaint as aforesaid shall be adjudged, upon the same being demanded, such Justice or Justices shall, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, cause the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods of the Party so neglecting or refusing as aforesaid, together with all Costs and Charges attending such Distress and Sale, returning the Overplus, if any, to the Owner. If Notes are not paid within three Days after Demand, a Justice may order Payment with Costs; and on Neglect may cause the same to be levied by Distress. [Extended to seven Days, post. Cap. 61.]

An Act to continue the Laws now in force for regulating the Trade between the Subjects of His Majesty's Dominions and the Inhabitants of the Territories belonging to the United States of America, so far as the same relate to the Trade and Commerce carried on between this Kingdom and the Inhabitants of the Countries belonging to the said United States.—[27th March 1797.]

23 Geo. III. Cap. 39.

'WHEREAS an Act was made in the twenty-third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, 'An Act for preventing certain Instruments from being required from Ships belonging to the United States of America; and to give to his Majesty, for a limited Time, certain Powers for the better carrying on Trade and Commerce between the Subjects of his Majesty's Dominions and the Inhabitants of the said United States; which said Act has been continued, by several subsequent Acts, until the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven: And whereas by an Act, made in the twenty-fourth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to extend the Powers of an Act, made in the twenty-third Year of his present Majesty, "for giving his Majesty certain Powers for the better carrying on Trade and Commerce between the Subjects of his Majesty's Dominions and the Inhabitants of the United States of America," to the Trade and Commerce of this Kingdom with the British Colonies and Plantations in America, with respect to certain Articles therein mentioned; the Powers given by the said recited Act were extended to the Trade and Intercourse between this Kingdom and the British Colonies and Plantations in America, so far as the same might relate to Iron, Hemp, and Sail-cloth, and other Articles of the Produce of any Place bordering on the Baltic, which might be exported from this Kingdom; which said last mentioned Act has also, by several subsequent Acts, been continued until the said fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven: And whereas it is expedient that the said Act of the twenty-third Year of his present Majesty's Reign, so far only as the same extends to the Trade and Commerce carried on between this Kingdom and the People and Territories belonging to the United States of America; and also that the said Act of the twenty-fourth Year of his Majesty's Reign should be further continued:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Act of the twenty-third Year of his present Majesty's Reign, so far only as the same extends to the Trade and Commerce carried on between this Kingdom and the People and Territories belonging to the United States of America; and that the said Act, made in the twenty-fourth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, and all the Matters and Things therein contained, shall continue and be in force until the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, and no longer.

23 Geo. III. Cap. 39, so far as relates to the Commerce between this Kingdom and the United States of America, and 24 Geo. III. Cap. 45, to continue in force till April 5, 1798.

Articles from any Place bordering on the Baltic, which may be exported from this Kingdom, if exported contrary to Law, and Goods imported from the United States of America, and not permitted by Law, and also Goods imported from those States contrary to Law, to be forfeited.

II. And be it further enacted, That if any Iron, Hemp, Sail-cloth, or other Articles of the Produce of any Place, bordering on the Baltic, which may be lawfully exported from this Kingdom, shall be exported from hence in any other Manner than such as is or shall be allowed by any Law now in force, or which shall hereafter be in force, or by Order of his Majesty in Council; or if any Goods or Commodities whatever shall be imported from any of the Territories of the United States of America, into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, other than such as by any Law now in force, or which shall hereafter be in force, or by virtue of this present Act, or by Order of his Majesty in Council, now are, or hereafter shall be permitted to be imported; or if any Goods or Commodities shall be imported from the Territories of the said United States of America into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, in any other Manner whatever than such as is or shall be allowed by any Law now in force, or which shall hereafter be in force, or by Order of his Majesty in Council; the same shall be forfeited, together with the Ship or Vessel in which such Goods or Commodities shall respectively be exported or imported, and all the Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle, and Apparel, belonging thereto.

How Forfeitures are to be recovered and applied.

III. And be it further enacted, That every Forfeiture incurred by virtue of this Act shall and may be sued for, prosecuted, and recovered, by such and the like Ways, Means, and Methods, and the Produce thereof disposed of, paid, and applied, in such and the like Manner, and to such and the like Uses and Purposes, as any Forfeiture incurred by any Law respecting the Revenue of Customs may now be sued for, prosecuted, and recovered, in the Places where respectively the Offence shall be committed; and that the Produce thereof shall be disposed of, paid, and applied in like Manner, in the said Places respectively; any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue and be in force until the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, and no longer. Act to continue in force till April 5, 1798; but may be repealed this Session.

V. And be it further enacted, That this Act, or any Part thereof, may be altered, varied, or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. XXXVIII.

An Act for defraying the Charge of the Pay and Cloathing of the Militia, in that Part of Great Britain called England, for the Year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven.—[27th March 1797.]

CAP. XXXIX.

An Act to explain and amend an Act, made in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for raising a certain Number of Men in the several Counties, Stewartries, Royal Burghs, and Towns, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for the Service of His Majesty's Army and Navy.—[27th March 1797.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for raising a certain Number of Men in the several Counties, Stewartries, Royal Burghs, and Towns, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for the Service of his Majesty's Army and Navy, should be altered, explained and amended:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said Act, as directs one hundred and fifty-four Men to be levied for the County of Aberdeen, and thirty-two Men for the City of Aberdeen, including the Parish of Old Machar, shall be and is hereby repealed. Act of present Session, Cap. 5, recited; and so much thereof as directs the Number of Men to be raised for the County and the City of Aberdeen, repealed.

II. And be it enacted, That for the County of Aberdeen, including the Whole of the Parish of Old Machar, there shall be levied one hundred and fifty-nine Men; and for the City of Aberdeen twenty-seven Men. Number of Men to be raised for the County and the City of Aberdeen.

III. And be it enacted, That in case the said City of Aberdeen shall have raised thirty-two Men as directed by the said Act, and delivered them over to the Regulating Officer, five of that Number shall be added to those appointed to be raised by the said County; and the said County shall refund to the said City the Expence incurred in raising the said five Men, to be calculated at the average Rate of the Expence of raising the said thirty-two Men, but not to exceed the Sum of twenty-five Pounds Sterling for each Man. If the City shall have delivered 32 Men, the Expence of five to be refunded by the County.

IV. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said Act as directs two Men to be levied for the Town of Melrose, in the County of Roxburgh, and two Men for the Town of Newton, in the County of Wigton, shall be and is hereby repealed; and that for the Town of Melrose, and the Villages of Danielton, Darnick, Bridgend, Gattenside, and Newsted, there shall be levied two Men; and for the Town of Newton Douglas two Men. So much of Cap. 5. as relates to the Number of Men to be raised for Melrose and Newton repealed, and another Apportionment made;

V. And be it enacted, That so much of the said Act as directs five Men to be levied for the Town of Jedburgh, in the County of Roxburgh, shall be repealed; and that for the said Town of Jedburgh there shall be levied three Men, and that the remaining two Men shall be levied for the said County. as also for Jedburgh;

VI. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said Act as imposes the Number of eight Men upon the Town of Thurso, in the County of Caithness, shall be repealed; and that the Number of three Men be raised by the said Town of Thurso, and the remaining five by the said County of Caithness. and Thurso.

VII. 'And whereas by the said Act, the Trustees or Magistrates respectively are authorized and required to 'divide and apportion Bounties, Fines, and Penalties, among the Inhabitants of any County or Place, in such 'Manner and by such Rule as to them shall seem most expedient, and as may render the Operation of the said 'Act in such Cases as equal and impartial as possible; but Doubts having arisen whether the Justices are 'authorized to apportion the Number of Men to be raised by each Parish otherwise than according to the 'Proportion which the Valuation of each Parish bears to the Valuation of the whole County;' be it therefore enacted and declared, That the Justices of the Peace, when apportioning the Number of Men to be raised by each Parish, Town, Burgh, Village, or Place, if it shall appear to them, from the Lists of inhabited Houses or otherwise, that any Town, Burgh, Village, or Place, should be rated with a greater Number of Men than according to the Valuation of the said Parish, the Justices are hereby authorized to separate the said Burgh, Town, Village, or Place, from the Parish to which it belongs, and to apportion such a Number of Men upon such Burgh, Town, Parish, or Place, as to the said Justices may seem just and reasonable; and where the Justices have already acted in Manner aforesaid, their Proceedings and Orders are hereby declared legal and valid. Justices may separate any Place from its Parish, and rate it as to them shall seem just. [See Cap. 5. § 9.]

VIII. And be it enacted, That every Certificate granted to a Person enrolled in virtue of the said Act, or a full and true Copy thereof, signed by the Regulating Officer, shall in all Cases be transmitted along with the Person enrolled, and delivered to the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Company, or of the Ship, Tender, or Vessel of War in his Majesty's Service, in which such Person shall be enrolled or entered Certificates to be delivered with Persons enrolled to the Commanding Officers of the Regiments or Vessels, who shall in a limited Time make out Tickets for Payment of Bounties remaining due, which shall be paid agreeably to Cap. 4. of the present Session.

tered to serve; and such Commanding Officer shall, within four Days from the Time of such Person being admitted into any Regiment, or before such Volunteer shall be compelled to go out of the County for which he shall serve, or from the Time of such Person's joining such Regiment, which shall first happen, or from the Time of such Person being mustered and rated on board any such Ship, Tender, or Vessel, and before such Ship or Vessel shall proceed to Sea, as the Case may be, make out a Ticket or Tickets for the Payment of the Bounty Money agreed to be paid to such Person on his engaging to serve, and then remaining due, and which shall be expressed in the Certificate granted in that Behalf, in such Manner as if such Bounty Money had become due to such Person on account of Arrears of Pay as a Private Man in such Regiment, if such Person shall enter into the Army, or on account of Wages as a Landman or Seaman on board such Ship or Vessel, if such Person shall enter into the Navy; and such Bounty Money shall and may be paid to such Person, or to his Family, in the Manner directed in respect of Men enrolled in England, by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for raising a certain Number of Men in the several Counties of England, for the Service of his Majesty's Army and Navy, and shall be reimbursed to the Person so paying the same, by the Collector of the Cess for the particular Shire, Stewartry, Burgh, or Town.

Time for which Persons enrolled shall be liable to serve.

IX. And be it further enacted, That every Person enrolled by virtue of the said first recited Act, and inlisted into any Regiment or Independent Company of his Majesty's Army, shall be liable to serve therein during the Continuance of the present War, and for the Space of one Calendar Month after the End of the War, if the Regiment or Independent Company, in which such Person shall be serving, shall be in Great Britain, or otherwise for the Space of one Calendar Month next after the Arrival of such Regiment or Company in Great Britain; and that every such Person entering into the Service of the Navy, shall be liable to serve therein during the Continuance of the present War, and for the Space of one Calendar Month after the End of the War, if the Ship on board which such Person shall serve shall be in any of the Ports of Great Britain, or otherwise for the Space of one Calendar Month next after the Arrival of such Ship in any such Port.

Persons enrolled accused of Capital Crimes, &c. to be delivered over to the Civil Magistrate.

Penalty on Officers for refusing to deliver them over.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person enrolled in his Majesty's Service, by virtue of the said first recited Act, shall be accused of any Capital Crime, or of any Violence or Offence against the Person, Estate, or Property of any of his Majesty's Subjects, which is punishable by the known Laws of the Land, the Officer or Officers having the Command of such Party is and are hereby required to use his or their utmost Endeavours to deliver over such accused Person to the Civil Magistrate, and shall also be aiding and assisting to the Officers of Justice in seizing and apprehending such Offender, in order to bring him to Trial; and if any such Officer shall wilfully neglect or refuse, upon Application made to him for that Purpose, to deliver over such accused Person to the Civil Magistrate, or to be aiding or assisting to the Officers of Justice in apprehending such Offender, every such Officer so offending, and being thereof convicted before any two or more Justices of the Peace of the County where the Fact is committed, by the Oath of two creditable Witnesses, shall be utterly disabled to have or hold any Civil or Military Office or Employment within this Kingdom, or in his Majesty's Service, provided the said Conviction be affirmed at the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said County, and a Certificate thereof be transmitted to the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being.

Persons enrolled not to be taken out of the Service but for a criminal Matter.

XI. And be it enacted, That no Person who shall be enrolled in his Majesty's Service, in virtue of the said first recited Act, shall be liable to be taken out of his Majesty's Service by any Process whatever, other than by some criminal Process for some criminal Matter, punishable by the known Laws of the Land.

Returns to be made in the following Form.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the several Forms of Enrolment and of the Return which the Justices of the Peace and other Officers are required to cause to be made and returned of the Number of Men levied for his Majesty's Service, together with the other Particulars by the said first recited and this Act directed, shall be made in the following Form:

Names of Men enrolled.	Volunteers or Substitutes.	County or Burgh for which they serve.	Parishes they belong to.	Ages.	Sums paid to Volunteers or Substitutes.	Sums paid to the Collectors of the Cess, and to whom.	Days on which they were enrolled, and at what Places.

XIII. And

XIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Servant whatever, hired by the Year or otherwise, shall be enrolled, and any Dispute shall arise between his Master or Mistress, Employer or Employers, and such Servant, touching any Sum or Sums of Money due to such Servant for or on account of his Service, performed before the Time of such Enrolment, or to such Time as he shall be obliged to quit the Service of his said Master, Mistress, Employer or Employers, it shall and may be lawful, on Complaint made thereof to any Justice of the Peace for the County, City, Town, or Place where such Master, Mistress, Employer or Employers shall inhabit, for such Justice to hear and determine every such Complaint, and to examine upon Oath every such Servant, or any other Witness or Witnesses touching the same, and to make such Order for the Payment of so much Wages to such Servant in Proportion to the Service he has performed, as to such Justice shall seem just and reasonable, and in case of Refusal or Nonpayment of any Sums so ordered, by the Space of seven Days next after such Determination, such Justice shall and may issue forth his Warrant to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Master or Mistress, Employer or Employers, rendering the Overplus (if any) to the Owner or Owners after Payment of the Charges of such Distress and Sale. Provisions of this and the Act c. 5 to apply to either.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, varied, or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament. Act may be altered or repealed this Session.

CAP. XL.

An Act to allow the Banks, and certain Banking Companies, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, to issue Notes for Sums under a certain Amount, for a limited Time; and for indemnifying all Persons who have issued Notes for small Sums of Money in that Part of the United Kingdom.—[27th March 1797.]

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to prevent the Inconveniencies arising from the present Method of issuing Notes and Bills by the Banks, Banking Companies, and Bankers, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, it was enacted, that, from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and sixty-five, no Note, Accepted Bill, Post Bill, Ticket, Token, or other Writing, circulated, or which might be circulated as Specie, in the Manner of a Bank or Banker's Note, should be issued, re-issued, or given out as Specie, by any Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, their Servants or Agents, in that Part of the United Kingdom called Scotland, for any Sum or Sums of Money less than twenty Shillings lawful Money of Great Britain, any Law, Usage, or Custom, to the contrary notwithstanding; and that the Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, their Servants or Agents, who should, after the said first Day of June, issue, re-issue, or give out any Note, Accepted Bill, Post Bill, Ticket, Token, or other Writing aforesaid, for any Sum less than twenty Shillings, should, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of five hundred Pounds Sterling, with full Costs of Suit, to the Person or Persons who should inform or prosecute for the same, to be sued for and recovered in Manner thereby directed: And whereas it is expedient at the present Time to allow the Banks and Banking Companies herein-after described, to issue Notes for a less Sum than twenty Shillings, for a limited Time, notwithstanding the said recited Clause in the said Act:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Bank of Scotland, the Royal Bank of Scotland, the British Linen Company, and all other Banks or Banking Companies in Scotland, who, on or before the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, have exercised the Business of Banking, or keeping any Bank for Receipt of Money, and have issued Notes under the Firm of such Bank, in the Nature of Bank Notes, (but to and for no other Person or Persons, Company or Companies, whatsoever,) to issue Notes, Bills, or Tickets, in the Nature of Bank Notes, payable to the Bearer on Demand, for any Sum whatever under the Sum of twenty Shillings Sterling, in the same Way that the said Banks and Banking Companies have heretofore been used to issue Notes for twenty Shillings and upwards, since the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and sixty-five; any Thing in the said recited Act, passed in the fifth Year of his Majesty's Reign, to the contrary notwithstanding. 5 Geo. 3. c. 49. recited. The Bank of Scotland, &c. may issue Notes, payable to Bearer on Demand, under 20s. [until May 1, 1797, § 3. enlarged by c. 72, to August 25; and by c. 137, until next Session, &c.]

II. 'And whereas, from the present Difficulty of procuring Specie, several Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, their Servants or Agents, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, have issued, and may continue to issue Bills, Notes, or other Obligations, for small Sums under twenty Shillings Sterling, and Doubts may arise whether such Persons have not been guilty of the Offence prohibited by the said recited Act;' be it therefore enacted, That such Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, and their Servants or Agents, shall, and they hereby are indemnified, freed, and discharged, from and against all Penalties or Forfeitures incurred, or that may be incurred, for or by reason of their having issued the Bills, Notes, Persons who have issued Notes under 20s. prior to passing this Act, indemnified.

or Obligations aforesaid, or by reason of such as may be issued on or before the passing of this Act: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the Holders of such Bills, Notes, or Obligations, at any Time from demanding and receiving Payment thereof from the Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, who have issued, or may, until the passing of this Act, issue the same.

Continuance of Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in force until the fifteenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and no longer; and shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act.

Act may be altered or repealed this Session. [See post. p. 72, 137.]

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, varied, or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. XLI.

CAP. XLV.

An Act for confirming and continuing, for a limited Time, the Restriction contained in the Minute of Council of the twenty-sixth of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, on Payments of Cash by the Bank.—[3d May 1797.]

Minute of Privy Council of Feb. 26, 1797, recited.

'WHEREAS, by Minute of his Majesty's Privy Council, made on the twenty-sixth Day of February 'one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, upon the Representation of the Chancellor of the 'Exchequer, stating, that, from the Result of the Information which he had received, and of the Enquiries 'which it had been his Duty to make respecting the Effect of the unusual Demands for Specie that have been 'made upon the Metropolis, in consequence of ill-founded or exaggerated Alarms in different Parts of the 'Country, it appeared, that unless some Measure was immediately taken, there might be Reason to appre- 'hend a Want of a sufficient Supply of Cash to answer the Exigencies of the Public Service; it was declared 'to be the unanimous Opinion of the Board, that it was indispensably necessary for the Public Service, 'that the Directors of the Bank of England should forbear issuing any Cash in Payment until the Sense 'of Parliament could be taken on that Subject, and the proper Measures adopted thereupon for main- 'taining the Means of Circulation and supporting the Public and Commercial Credit of the Kingdom at 'this important Conjuncture; and it was ordered, that a Copy of the said Minute should be transmitted to 'the Directors of the Bank of England, and they were thereby required, on the Grounds of the Exigency 'of the Case, to conform thereto until the Sense of Parliament could be taken as aforesaid: And whereas, 'in pursuance of the said Minute, the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, have, since the 'said twenty-sixth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, forborne to issue Cash in 'Payments, except for Purposes for which the Issue of Cash was deemed unavoidable; and it is necessary

'that

'that the Restriction contained in the said Minute, although not warranted by Law, should be confirmed, 'and should be continued for a limited Time by the Authority of Parliament:' Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Acts done by the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or by their Order or Direction, in pursuance of the said Minute of Council, shall be, and the same are hereby ratified and confirmed; and that all and every Persons and Person who have or hath been concerned in doing any such Acts, or any Matter or Thing relating thereto, shall be, and are and is hereby saved harmless, indemnified, and discharged, in respect thereof, as well against the King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, as against all and every other Persons and Person; and that all Suits and Proceedings whatsoever touching or concerning any Matter discharged by this Act, shall be, and the same are hereby made void and of no Effect to all Intents and Purposes; any Law, Statute, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Bank and all Persons concerned indemnified for all Acts done in pursuance of recited Minute of Council.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall not be lawful for the said Governor and Company to issue any Cash in Payment of any Debt or Demand whatsoever, except according to the Provisions hereinafter contained; and that during the Continuance of the Restriction hereby imposed on Payments by the said Governor and Company in Cash, no Action or Suit shall be prosecuted against the said Governor and Company to compel Payment of any Note of the said Governor and Company expressed to be payable on Demand, or to compel Payment of any Note of the said Governor and Company made payable otherwise than on Demand, which the said Governor and Company shall be willing to exchange for any Note or Notes of equal Amount expressed to be payable on Demand, or to compel Payment of any Sum of Money whatsoever by the said Governor and Company, which the said Governor and Company shall be willing to pay in Notes of the said Governor and Company expressed to be payable on Demand; and it shall be lawful for the said Governor and Company, during the Continuance of the Restriction aforesaid on Payments in Cash, to apply to the Court wherein any Action or Suit shall be brought, or shall be depending, against the said Governor and Company, to stay Proceedings therein, in a summary Way; and in case such Action or Suit shall be brought to compel Payment of any Note or Notes of the said Governor and Company made payable on Demand, it shall be lawful for the said Governor and Company to apply to the said Court to stay all Proceedings in such Action or Suit until the Expiration of the Time hereinafter limited for the Continuance of such Restriction as aforesaid, and such Court shall stay all Proceedings accordingly; and in like Manner it shall be lawful for the said Governor and Company to apply to any Court in which any Action or Suit shall be brought or depending for the Purpose of compelling Payment by the said Governor and Company of any Note of the said Governor and Company payable otherwise than on Demand, or of any other Debt or Demand whatsoever, to stay all Proceedings against the said Governor and Company in such Action or Suit, on Payment of such Sum of Money as shall appear to be justly due, or which might be recovered in such Action or Suit, by Delivery of Notes of the said Governor and Company for the Amount thereof expressed to be payable on Demand, if the Party or Parties to whom such Money shall appear to be due shall be willing to accept Payment thereof in such Notes, and thereupon such Court shall order all Proceedings to be stayed accordingly; but if the Party or Parties entitled to any such Money shall refuse to accept Payment thereof by Delivery of such Notes of the said Governor and Company, expressed to be payable on Demand as aforesaid, the said Court shall order all Proceedings against the said Governor and Company in such Action or Suit to be stayed until the Expiration of the Time herein-after limited for the Continuance of such Restriction on Payments in Cash as aforesaid: Provided always, that if it shall appear to such Court to be necessary, for the Purpose of ascertaining the Amount of any Demand on the said Governor and Company, or otherwise for the Furtherance of Justice, that any Proceedings should be had for any such Purpose, it shall be lawful for the said Court to permit Proceedings to be had in any such Action or Suit for such necessary Purpose only, or to ascertain the Amount of such Demand, in a summary Way, as the Nature of the particular Case may require, and as shall be consistent with the Restriction on Payments in Cash hereby imposed: Provided also, that no Costs shall be recovered against the said Governor and Company, in any Action or Suit which, during the Continuance of the Restriction aforesaid, shall be brought or prosecuted for the Purpose of compelling Payment by the said Governor and Company of any Debt or Demand, unless the Court wherein the same shall be brought or prosecuted shall be of Opinion that the same was necessary for the Purpose of ascertaining the Amount of such Debt or Demand, or the Title thereto, and in such Case such Court may direct the Payment of such Costs by the said Governor and Company in their Notes expressed to be payable on Demand, if the Party or Parties entitled to such Costs shall be willing to accept such Notes; and if such Party or Parties shall refuse to accept such Notes, then such Court shall stay all Proceedings to compel Payment of such Costs until after the Expiration of the Restriction on Payments by the said Governor and Company in Cash, herein contained.

The Bank not to issue Cash but according to Provisions after mentioned.

During such Restriction no Suit to be prosecuted to compel Payment of Notes which the Bank shall be willing to exchange for other Notes.

The Bank may apply to the Court to stay Proceedings in Actions.

The Court may permit Proceedings to be had to ascertain the Amount of any Demand on the Bank, or for the Furtherance of Justice.

No Costs to be given unless the Court think the Action necessary, &c.

III. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to restrain the said Governor and Company from issuing any Sum of Money less than twenty Shillings in Cash in Payment of any Debt or Demand not amounting to twenty Shillings, or in Payment of so much of any larger Debt or Demand as shall be a fractional Part of twenty Shillings over and above the Residue of such Debt or Demand; or from issuing any Sum of Money in Cash for the Services of the Army, Navy, or Ordnance, in pursuance of an Order of his Majesty's Privy Council, stating the special Purpose for which such Issue shall be required, and the Necessity for the same; all which Orders of Council

The Bank may issue Cash in certain Cases.

Orders in Council for issuing

Cash to be laid before Parliament.

Council shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within three Days after the Date of each of such Order, if Parliament shall be then sitting, and if not, then within three Days after the Sitting of Parliament.

Bank not to advance more than 600,000l. for the Public Service during the Restriction. [Sec. 91. § 3.]

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the said Governor and Company, during the Continuance of the Restriction on Payments of Cash imposed by this Act, to issue any Sum of Money in Cash, or in Notes of the said Governor and Company, by way of Loan or Advance, for or on account of the Public Service, except to an Amount not exceeding six hundred thousand Pounds, on the Credit of Exchequer Bills, to be issued by virtue of an Act of the present Session of Parliament for raising the Sum of eighteen millions by way of Annuities; any Law, Usage, or Statute, to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Bank may repay in Cash three-fourths of Sums not under 500l. received by them in exchange for Notes after April 7, 1797, and during the Restrictions of this Act. [Sec. 91. § 4.]

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the seventh Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, during the Continuance of the Restriction by this Act imposed on Payments by the said Governor and Company in Cash, it shall nevertheless be lawful for the said Governor and Company to accept, from any Person or Persons whatsoever, any Sum or Sums of Money, in Cash, not being less than five hundred Pounds, in Exchange for Notes of the said Governor and Company, of equal Amount, upon an Engagement from the said Governor and Company to pay to such Person or Persons, during the Continuance of such Restriction as aforesaid, Cash in exchange for any Note or Notes of the said Governor and Company, payable on Demand, to such an Amount, not exceeding in the Whole Three-fourths of the Sum of Money which shall have been so paid by such Person or Persons to the said Governor and Company in Cash, and in such Proportions, and at such Intervals, as shall be expressed in such Engagement; and it shall be lawful for the said Governor and Company to pay in Cash such Sum and Sums of Money as shall be required to be so paid, according to the Terms of such Engagement, to the Amount, in the Proportions, at the Times, and in the Manner therein to be expressed; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Bank may advance to the Bankers of London, Westminster, and Southwark, 100,000l. in Cash.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for the said Governor and Company, notwithstanding the Restriction imposed by this Act, to advance, for the Accommodation of the Persons dealing as Bankers in London, Westminster, and the Borough of Southwark, in Cash, any Sums of Money, not exceeding one hundred thousand Pounds in the Whole, to be paid to such Persons, at such Times, in such Proportions, and in such Manner, as to the said Governor and Company shall seem expedient.

The Bank may advance in Cash to the Bank of Scotland, and to the Royal Bank of Scotland, 25,000l. each.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, upon Application being made to them, by or on the Behalf of the Treasurer of the Bank called The Bank of Scotland, established by an Act of the Parliament of Scotland, in one thousand six hundred and ninety-five, or by or on the Behalf of the Cashier of the Bank called The Royal Bank of Scotland, incorporated by Royal Charter, dated the thirty-first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, to issue and pay to such Treasurer or Cashier respectively, or to such Person or Persons as they shall respectively appoint to receive the same, for the sole Use of the said Banks, such Sum or Sums of Money, in Gold or Silver, as may be required, not exceeding the Sum of twenty-five thousand Pounds for each of the said Banks; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Payments in Notes to be deemed Payments in Cash if accepted as such.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Payments in Notes of the said Governor and Company expressed to be payable on Demand, which have been made since the said twenty-sixth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, or which shall be made during the Restriction on Payments by the said Governor and Company in Cash, herein contained, shall be deemed Payments in Cash if made and accepted as such; any Law, Statute, or Usage, to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

No Person to be held to Special Bail unless Affidavit required to be made by 12 Geo 1 c. 29. also add that there had been no Offer to pay in Bank Notes: Otherwise Proceedings to be had as if no Affidavit had been made to hold to Special Bail.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That during the Continuance of the Restriction on Payments by the said Governor and Company in Cash, imposed by this Act, no Person shall be held to Special Bail upon any Process issuing out of any Court, unless the Affidavit which shall be made for that Purpose according to the Provisions in the Act of the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the First, for preventing frivolous and vexatious Arrests, shall not only contain the several Matters required by the said Act, but also that no Offer has been made to pay the Sum of Money in such Affidavit mentioned, and therein sworn to, for the Purpose of holding any Person to Special Bail, in Notes of the said Governor and Company, expressed to be payable on Demand (fractional Parts of the Sum of twenty Shillings only excepted); and if any Process shall be issued against any Person upon which such Person might have been held to Special Bail before the passing of this Act, and no Affidavit shall be made as aforesaid, that no such Offer of Payment in Notes of the Governor and Company had been made as aforesaid, such Person shall not be arrested on such Process, but Proceedings shall be had against such Person in the same Manner as if no Affidavit had been made for the Purpose of holding such Person to Special Bail under the Provisions of the said Act of his said late Majesty King George the First; and all Provisions in such Act, or in any other Act of Parliament, for preventing frivolous and vexatious Arrests, shall be applied to the Provisions in this Act contained, so far as the same are capable of being so applied: Provided always, that if Affidavit shall be made upon which any Person or Persons might have been held to Special Bail upon any such Process as aforesaid, before the passing of this Act, and it shall be likewise sworn in such Affidavit that such Offer of Payment has been made as aforesaid, so that the Person or Persons who might have been arrested and held to Special Bail upon such Process, if this Act had not been made, cannot, by reason of such Offer and of the Provisions in this Act contained, be so arrested and held to Special Bail, it shall be lawful for the Court out of which such Process shall issue, or for any Judge of such Court, in a summary Way, to order the Defendant or Defendants in the Action in which such Process shall issue, and who might have been so held to Special Bail as aforesaid if this Act had not been made, to cause Notes of the said Governor and Company, expressed to be payable on Demand, to the Amount of the Sum of Money for which such Person or Persons might have been so held to Special Bail if this Act had not been made, to be deposited in such Manner as such Court or such Judge shall direct, to answer the Demand of the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in such Action; and if such Deposit shall not be made within the Time limited by such Order after such Notice thereof as shall thereby be directed to be given, it shall be lawful, upon Affidavit duly made and filed that such Deposit has not been made according to such Order, to arrest such Defendant or Defendants, and hold him, her, or them to Special Bail, in such and the same Manner as if this Act had not been made.

reason of this Act to be held to Special Bail, the Court may order him to deposit Bank Notes to answer the Demand, and if not done, he may be arrested, and held to Special Bail.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, during the Continuance of the Restriction on Payments by the said Governor and Company in Cash, by this Act imposed, all Sums of Money which now are or shall become payable for any Part of the Public Revenue, shall be accepted by the Collectors, Receivers, and other Officers of the Revenue, authorized to receive the same, in Notes of the said Governor and Company, expressed to be payable on Demand, if offered to be so paid (fractional Parts of the Sum of twenty Shillings only excepted).

Collectors of the Public Revenue to accept it in Bank Notes.

XI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, during the Continuance of this Act, to issue Cash, out of any Cash which shall have come into the Hands of the said Governor and Company subsequent to the twenty-sixth Day of February last, and which shall be at their Disposal, in Payment of any Debt or Demand whatsoever, or of any Part or Proportion of any Debt or Demand whatsoever, upon their giving five Days Notice in Writing to the Speaker of the House of Commons of their Intention so to do, any Thing in this Act to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding; which Notice the Speaker of the House of Commons is hereby required to cause forthwith to be inserted in the London Gazette, and a Copy thereof to be affixed on the Royal Exchange in London.

The Bank may issue Cash out of any coming into their Hands since Feb. 26, 1797, on previous Notice to the Speaker of the House of Commons. [See c. 91. § 10.]

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be in force and have Continuance, so far as the same restrains the said Governor and Company from issuing Cash in Payments, until the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven. 24; and 1, c. 91. the next Session, &c.]

Continuance of Act [till June

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act, or any Clause, Matter, or Thing herein contained, may be repealed, altered, or varied, in any Manner whatsoever, during the present Session of Parliament.

Act may be repealed or altered this Session. [See post. c. 91.]

CAP. XLVI.

An Act for making certain Annuities, created by the Parliament of the Kingdom of Ireland, transferrable, and the Dividends thereon payable, at the Bank of England; and for the better Security of the Proprietors of such Annuities, and of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England.—[3d May 1797.]

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament of the Kingdom of Ireland, made and passed in the thirty-seventh Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for securing the Payment of the Annuities, and of the Interest upon the Principal Sums therein provided, for and towards the Discharge of such Principal Sums in such Manner as therein is directed; and for enabling the Officers of his Majesty's Treasury to receive certain Sums for a limited Time in Manner therein mentioned; and for granting to his Majesty a certain Sum of Money out of the Consolidated Fund; and for applying a certain Sum of Money therein mentioned, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and for other Purposes, reciting (among other Things) that by a Resolution of the House of Commons of Ireland, of the eighteenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety six, it was resolved, That whatever Sum or Sums of Money should be advanced or paid into his Majesty's Treasury in the Kingdom of Ireland, not exceeding in the Whole the Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds, to be applied by his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, to defray such extraordinary Expences as the then present Circumstances rendered necessary, and which had not been provided for by Parliament for the Service of the then current Year, should be made good, such Sum to be raised by issuing Debentures or Stock of one hundred Pounds, bearing an Interest not exceeding five Pounds per Centum per Annum, and not redeemable for fifteen Years, to the Amount of five hundred thousand Pounds, together with such Annuities for each one hundred Pounds as should be agreed on by his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, not exceeding the lowest Rate which should be offered by any Person or Persons proposing to pay and advance such Sums, such Annuity to continue for fifteen Years, or by Sale of Annuities of one hundred Pounds each, not exceeding in the Whole the Sum of sixty thousand Pounds per Annum, for fifteen Years or for one Life, to the Person or Persons offering the greatest Number of Years' Purchase for such Annuity, or partly by issuing such Stock or Debentures, and partly Act of the Parliament of Ireland, 37 Geo. 3. recited.

'by Sale of said Annuities, in such Manner as should be directed by his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, 'or other Chief Governor or Governors of the said Kingdom of Ireland; and also reciting that, in pur- 'suance of the said Resolution, the Sum of three hundred and twenty-five thousand Pounds, being three 'hundred thousand Pounds British Currency, Part of the said Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds, had 'been subscribed for in England, to be paid into his Majesty's Treasury in the Kingdom of Ireland, and had 'been made Stock, transferrable in Transfer Books, agreed to be kept by the Governor and Company of 'the Bank of England, for which Sum an Interest of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, from the twenty- 'fifth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, was payable in the City of London; and 'that the said Sum was due and unpaid; and for effectuating the raising of the said Sum of three hundred 'and twenty-five thousand Pounds, Annuities of four Pounds and fifteen Shillings, by the Year, for each 'Sum of one hundred Pounds, for thirteen Years and a half, from the said twenty-fifth Day of September 'one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, amounting to fifteen thousand four hundred and thirty-seven 'Pounds ten Shillings Irish Currency, transferrable at the Bank of England, had been appointed to be 'paid in London to the Person or Persons who advanced and paid the said Sum; it was enacted, (amongst 'other Things,) That for the said Sum of three hundred and twenty-five thousand Pounds made Stock, 'transferrable at the Bank of England, there should be paid in the City of London, at the End of every six 'Calendar Months, to the Person or Persons who paid or lent or should have become entitled to the same re- 'spectively, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, an Interest at the Rate of five Pounds 'per Centum per Annum Irish Currency, such Interest to be paid without any Fee or Charge, and free from 'all Deductions whatsoever, until such Time as they should be respectively paid their Principal Money at 'one entire Payment: And it was further enacted, That the several Annuities granted in pursuance of the 'said Resolution of the eighteenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, should be re- 'gularly paid at the City of London, to the Persons thereunto respectively entitled, as the same should become 'due, according to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act: And whereas the Governor and Company 'of the Bank of England have consented and agreed that the Annuities and Interest upon the said Principal 'Sum of three hundred thousand Pounds Sterling, hereinbefore stated to have been subscribed for in England, 'and by the said Act of Parliament of Ireland made payable in England, shall be payable at the Bank of 'England, and the said Governor and Company have also consented and agreed to keep such Transfer Books 'thereof as are mentioned in the said Act of Parliament of Ireland; but such Agreement cannot be effec- 'tually carried into Execution without the Aid of Parliament:' May it therefore please your Majesty, that it may be enacted, and be it enacted and declared by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor and Company of the Bank of England to pay the Interest and Annuities already due and payable, and hereafter to become due and payable, upon the said Principal Sum of three hundred thousand Pounds Sterling; and the said Annuities, and also the said Principal Sum or Stock, and any Part or Parcel thereof, shall and may be transferrable at the Bank of England, in the Manner hereinafter described; and the said Annuities, Principal Sum, or Stock, and the Interest payable thereon, shall not be liable to any Foreign Attachment by the Custom of London, or otherwise; any Law, Statute, or Custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Bank of England may pay the Interest of 300,000 l. subscribed in England, (on Account of the Irish Loan,) which may be transferred at the Bank.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for the Governor and Company of the Bank of England to authorize and direct their Accountant General for the Time being to keep Books, wherein all Assignments or Transfers of the said Annuities and Principal Sums or Stock shall be entered and registered, in such Manner as the said Governor and Company shall direct; which Entry shall be signed by the Parties making such Assignments or Transfers, or if such Parties be absent, by their respective Attorney or Attornies thereunto lawfully authorized, in Writing, under his, her, or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, to be attested by two or more credible Witnesses; and that the several Persons to whom such Transfers shall be made, shall respectively underwrite their Acceptance thereof by themselves, or by their respective Attorney or Attornies thereunto lawfully authorized in Manner aforesaid; and that no other Method of assigning and transferring the said Annuities and Principal Sum or Stock, or any Part thereof, or any Interest therein, shall be good or available in Law: Provided always, that no Stamp Duties whatsoever shall be charged on any of the said Transfers, nor on any Receipt for any Payment in respect of the said Annuities or the said Principal Sums or Stock, or the Interest thereof; any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

Books to be kept for entering Transfers.

No Stamp Duties to be charged on Transfers or Receipt of Annuities.

III. 'And whereas for the Prevention of Forgeries and Frauds in respect of the Receipts, Payments, and 'Transfers made or given in pursuance of this Act, it is necessary that the like Provisions should be enacted as 'by the Laws now in being are already in force, respecting Stocks, Annuities, and other Public Funds trans- 'ferrable at the Bank of England:' Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, if any Person or Persons shall forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be forged or counterfeited, or wilfully act or assist in the forging or counterfeiting, any Receipt or Receipts for the Whole or any Part or Parts of the said Subscriptions or Contributions towards the said Principal Sum of three hundred thousand Pounds Sterling, or any Debenture or Debentures, purporting to entitle any Person or Persons, or Body Politic or Corporate whatsoever, to any Principal Sum, or the Interest thereon, or any Annuity or Part of any Principal Sum, Interest, or Annuity payable under the said Act of Parliament of Ireland, either with or without the Name or Names of any Person or Persons, or Body Politic or Corporate Persons forging, altering, &c. Receipts or Debentures, to be guilty of Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

Corporate being inserted therein, as the Subscriber or Subscribers, or Contributor or Contributors, or Payer or Payers towards the said Principal Sum of three hundred thousand Pounds Sterling, or any Part or Parts thereof, or shall alter any Number, Figure, or Word therein, or utter or publish as true any such false, forged, counterfeited, or altered Receipt or Receipts, Debenture or Debentures, with Intention to defraud the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or any Body Politic or Corporate, or any Person or Persons whatsoever, such Receipt or Receipts, Debenture or Debentures, concerning some Part or Share of or in the Principal Sums or Stock, or the Annuities, by this Act made or declared transferrable at the Bank of England, every such Person or Persons so forging or counterfeiting, or causing or procuring to be forged or counterfeited, or wilfully acting or assisting in the forging or counterfeiting, or altering, uttering, or publishing as aforesaid, shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as a Felon or Felons without Benefit of Clergy.

Persons forging Letters of Attorney, &c. or personating Proprietors, to be guilty of Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, if any Person or Persons shall forge or counterfeit, or procure to be forged or counterfeited, or knowingly and wilfully act or assist in the forging or counterfeiting any Letter of Attorney, or other Authority or Instrument, to transfer, assign, sell, or convey, any Part or Share of or in the Principal Sums or Stock, or the Annuities, by this Act made or declared transferrable at the Bank of England, or to receive any Annuity or Annuities, or Interest, or Dividend or Dividends, in pursuance of this Act, payable at the Bank of England, or any Part thereof, or shall forge or counterfeit, or procure to be forged or counterfeited, or knowingly and wilfully act or assist in the forging or counterfeiting, any the Name or Names of any the Proprietor or Proprietors of any such Part or Share of or in such Principal Sum or Stock, or Annuities, Interest, Dividend or Dividends, as aforesaid, in or to any such pretended Letter of Attorney, Instrument, or Authority, or shall knowingly and fraudulently demand or endeavour to have any such Part or Share of or in such Principal Sum or Stock, or Annuities, Interest, Dividend or Dividends, or any Part thereof, transferred, assigned, sold, or conveyed, or such Annuity or Annuities, Interest, Dividend or Dividends, or any Part thereof, to be received by virtue of any such counterfeit or forged Letter of Attorney, Authority, or Instrument, or shall falsely and deceitfully personate any true and real Proprietor or Proprietors of the said Shares of or in the said Principal Sum or Stock, Annuities, Interest, Dividend or Dividends, or any of them, or any Part thereof, and thereby transferring or endeavouring to transfer any Part or Share of or in the said Principal Sum or Stock, or Annuities, or receiving or endeavouring to receive the Money of such true and lawful Proprietor or Proprietors, as if such Offender or Offenders were the true and lawful Owner or Owners thereof, then and in every or any such Case such Offender or Offenders shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as a Felon or Felons without Benefit of Clergy.

Persons forging or uttering forged Dividend Warrants, &c. to be guilty of Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, if any Person or Persons shall forge, counterfeit, or alter any Dividend Warrant, or Warrant for Payment of any Annuity, Interest, or Money, payable in pursuance of this Act at the Bank of England, or any Indorsement thereon, or shall offer or dispose of or put away any such forged, counterfeited, or altered Dividend Warrant, or Warrant for Payment of any Annuity, Interest, or Money, payable as aforesaid, or the Indorsement thereon, or demand the Money therein contained, or pretended to be due thereon, or any Part thereof, of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or any their Officers or Servants, knowing such Dividend Warrant, or Warrant for Payment of any Annuity, Interest, or Money, payable as aforesaid, or the Indorsement thereon, to be forged, counterfeited, or altered, with Intent to defraud the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or their Successors, or any other Body Politic or Corporate, or any Person or Persons whatsoever, every Person or Persons so offending, shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as a Felon or Felons without Benefit of Clergy.

Officers of the Bank embezzling Notes, to be guilty of Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, if any Officer or Servant of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, being intrusted with any Note, Bill, Dividend Warrant, or Warrant for Payment of any Annuity or Interest, or Money, or any Security Money, or other Effects of or belonging to the said Governor and Company, or having any Note, Bill, Dividend Warrant, or Warrant for Payment of any Annuity or Interest, or Money, or any Security Money, or other Effects of any other Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, lodged or deposited with the said Governor and Company, or with him as an Officer or Servant of the said Governor and Company in pursuance of this Act, or of the due Execution thereof, shall secrete, embezzle, or run away with any such Note, Bill, Dividend or other Warrant, Security Money, or other Effects as aforesaid, or any Part thereof, every such Officer or Servant so offending, shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as a Felon without Benefit of Clergy.

Persons making Transfers in other than Proprietors Names, &c. to be guilty of Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, if any Person or Persons shall wilfully make or assist in making any Transfer of any Interest, Part, or Share of or in any Principal Sum or Stock, Annuity or Annuities, by this Act made or declared transferrable at the Bank of England, in any of the Books of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England in which Transfers of Principal Sums, Stock, or Annuities, as aforesaid, are, or in pursuance of this Act shall be made, in the Name or Names of any Person or Persons not being the Owner or Owners, or Proprietor or Proprietors of such Principal Sum or Stock, or Annuity or Annuities transferrable as aforesaid, with Intent to defraud the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or any other Body Politic or Corporate, or any Person or Persons whatsoever, such Person or Persons so making or assisting in making such Transfer Transfer as aforesaid, shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as a Felon or Felons without Benefit of Clergy.

Persons forging or uttering forged Transfers to be guilty of Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall falsely make, forge, or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be falsely made, forged, or counterfeited, or shall wilfully act or assist in the falsely making, forging, or counterfeiting of any Transfer of any Interest, Part, or Share of or in any Principal Sum or Stock, or Annuity or Annuities, by this Act made or declared transferrable at the Bank of England, or shall utter or publish as true any such false, forged, or counterfeited Transfer as aforesaid, knowing the same to be false, forged, or counterfeited, with Intent to defraud the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or any other Body Politic or Corporate, or any Person or Persons whatsoever, all and every Person or Persons whatsoever so offending, shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as a Felon or Felons without Benefit of Clergy.

Persons making false Entry in the Books of the Bank, to be guilty of Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall wilfully make or assist in making, any false Entry, or shall wilfully alter, or assist in altering, any Word or Figure in any Entry in the Books of Account kept, or in pursuance of this Act to be kept, by the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, wherein the several Accounts of the Owners or Proprietors of Principal Sums or Stock or Annuities by this Act made or declared transferrable at the Bank of England are, or in pursuance of this Act shall be, entered and kept, or shall in any Manner wilfully falsify the Account or Accounts of any such Owner or Proprietor in the Books of the said Governor and Company, wherein such Accounts are, or in pursuance of this Act shall be, entered and kept, with Intent to defraud the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or any other Body Politic or Corporate, or any Person or Persons whatsoever, every such Person or Persons so offending shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as a Felon or Felons without Benefit of Clergy.

Officers of the Bank making out false Dividend Warrants to be transported for seven Years.

X. 'And whereas, in order to cover and conceal Forgeries and Frauds in Transfers, Dividend Warrants 'have been sometimes made out for different Sums than the Sums really due;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Clerk, Officer, or Servant of, or other Person or Persons employed or entrusted by, the said Governor and Company, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, knowingly or wilfully make out or deliver, or cause or procure to be made out or delivered, or wilfully act or assist in the making out or delivering of any Dividend Warrant, or Warrant for Payment of any Annuity, or Interest, or Money payable in pursuance of this Act at the Bank of England, for a greater or less Amount than the Person or Persons on whose Behalf, or pretended Behalf, such Dividend Warrant, or Warrant for Payment of any Annuity, or Interest, or Money payable as aforesaid, shall be made out, is or are entitled to, with intent to defraud the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or any other Body Politic or Corporate, or any Person or Persons whatsoever, all and every such Person or Persons so offending, being in due Form of Law convicted of any such Offence or Offences as aforesaid, shall be transported for seven Years.

CAP. XLVIII.

An Act for altering, amending, and rendering more effectual Two Acts, made in the Eleventh and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, for the Regulation and Improvement of the Fisheries in the River Tweed, and the Rivers and Streams running into the same, and also within the Mouth or Entrance of the said River.

[3d May 1797.]

11 Geo. 3. c. 27. and 15 Geo. 3. c. 46.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, 'An Act for regulating and improving the Fisheries in the River Tweed, and the Rivers and 'Streams running into the same, and also within the Mouth or Entrance of the said River: And whereas 'also an Act was passed in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, for amending and ren'dering more effectual the said Act: And whereas, notwithstanding the Provisions of the said Acts, idle and 'disorderly

'disorderly Persons make a Practice of fishing for Salmon, Gilses, Salmon Trouts, and Whitlings, within 'the Mouth or Entrance of the said River Tweed, and by setting of Bob Nets and other Nets therein, inter- 'cept and obstruct the free Progress of such Fish into the said River, to the manifest Detriment and Loss of 'the Proprietors and Occupiers thereof: And whereas also, by Means of Sloops, Vessels, Cobles, or Boats, 'constructed for the Purpose of catching White Fish at Sea, or for other Purposes, such idle and disorderly 'Persons fish for Salmon, Gilses, Salmon Trouts, and Whitlings, beyond and further towards the Sea than 'the Mouth or Entrance of the said River extends, by such Means not only destroying but dispersing the 'said Fish, (which at certain Seasons of the Year are known to make in Shoals to the Fresh Water,) and 'by such Means driving many of them from the Coast:' For Remedy of which, may it please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, upon Complaint and Information in Writing, upon Oath, made to any one or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for that Part of Great Britain called England, the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or the Bounds and Liberties thereof, or to any one or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, or to the Sheriff Depute of any County or Stewartry for that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, that the Informant hath probable Cause to suspect, and doth suspect, that any Person or Persons dwelling and usually residing in any Township or Place, Townships or Places, within the Jurisdiction of the said Justices or Sheriff Depute, before whom the Information is laid, has or have gone to Sea in any Sloop, Coble, Boat, Raft, or other Vessel, with Intent to fish for Salmon, Gilses, Salmon Trouts, or Whitlings, within the Mouth or Entrance of the said River Tweed, as herein-after described *, it shall and may be lawful to and for any such Justices and Sheriff Depute, any one or more of them, and he and they is and are hereby required to authorize and direct, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, any High or Petty Constable, or other Peace Officer, and any Number of Persons, not exceeding ten, to be severally named and described in the Warrant, to proceed to Sea in any Vessel, Coble, or other Boat, and there examine and search all and every such Sloop, Coble, Boat, Raft, or other Vessel, as they shall suspect to be employed in taking and killing Salmon, Gilses, Salmon Trouts, or Whitlings, in the Mouth or Entrance of the said River, as herein after described; and such Warrant shall be in the Words following, or to the like Effect; (that is to say,) Magistrates empowered to issue Search Warrants on Information of improper Persons being suspected to be gone out to Sea for the Purpose of taking Fish within the Limits specified by the Act.

Name of Place or County. } 'A. B. one of the Justices of our Lord the King, assigned to keep the Peace within the said County, to the Constable, Petty Constable, or Bailiff of the Township of [as the same may be] within the said County [or Place], and to [here insert the Names of the other Persons, not exceeding ten], and to all the other Ministers and Officers of our said Lord the King, within the said and to every of them, greeting. Forasmuch as C. D. of [here insert the Name, &c. of Informant] hath come before me the said A. B. and hath given me Information in Writing, on Oath, that he hath probable Cause to suspect, and doth suspect, that E. F. &c. of within the Jurisdiction of me the said Justice, has gone to Sea in a certain Boat or Vessel with 'Intent to fish for Salmon, Gilses, Salmon Trout, or Whitling, within the Mouth or Entrance of the River 'Tweed, contrary to the Statutes in such Case made and provided, ye or either of you are therefore hereby 'required, by this Warrant, under my Hand and Seal, to proceed to Sea, and there examine and search such 'Boat or Vessel, and if upon any such Search any such Fish, or any Nets, Engines, or other Tackle, properly 'adapted and used in the taking of such Fish, † or in case ye or either of you should see any Person or Persons 'on board any such Boat or Vessel fish for any Salmon, Gilses, Salmon Trouts, or Whitling, within the 'Mouth or Entrance of the said River Tweed, then ye or either of you are hereby required to seize such 'Boat or Vessel, and all and every Person or Persons who shall be found on board thereof, to apprehend and 'bring before me the said Justice. Given under my Hand and Seal this Day of 'in the Year of our Lord

Form of Warrant.

And if upon such Search any such Fish, or any Nets, Engines, or other Tackle, properly adapted and used in the taking of such Fish, shall be found, or if the said Peace Officer and Persons with him shall see any Person or Persons on board any such Sloop, Coble, Boat, Raft, or other Vessel, fish for any Salmon, Gilses, Salmon Trouts, or Whitlings, within the Mouth or Entrance of the said River Tweed, as hereinafter described, then and in either of the said Cases it shall be lawful for the said Peace Officer and Persons so authorized, and he and they are hereby required to seize such Sloop, Coble, Boat, Raft, or other Vessel, and all such Persons as shall be found on board thereof to apprehend and bring before the Justice or Justices and Sheriff Depute respectively, who granted such Warrant as aforesaid, who shall proceed to examine into the Matter of the said Complaint, and if upon Confession of the Parties, or the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, any such Person or Persons shall be convicted of fishing for Salmon, Gilses, Salmon Trouts, or Whitlings, in the Mouth or Entrance of the said River Tweed, as hereinafter described, or of having in his or their Custody, in such Sloop, Coble, Boat, Raft, or other Vessel, any Fish or Parcel of Fish of the Description aforesaid, or Nets, Engines, or other Tackle, properly adapted and used in the taking and killing thereof, every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit a Sum not exceeding fifty Pounds, nor less than twenty Pounds, at the Discretion of the said Justice and Justices or Sheriff Depute, before whom the Conviction shall be had, and also the Boats, Nets, Tackle, Engines, and other Devices made use of in taking or killing such Fish, and also the Fish so taken; and the said Justices and Sheriff Depute respectively shall order and direct such Sloop, Coble, Boat, Raft, or other Vessel, Nets, Engines, and other Tackle, to be cut to Pieces, burnt, or otherwise destroyed.

Magistrates empowered to issue Search Warrants on Information of its being suspected that Fish have been taken within the prohibited Limits, and are concealed or expected to be landed: Peace Officers, &c. authorized to watch on the Shore and seize Fish and Vessels, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, upon Complaint and Information in Writing, upon Oath, made to any one or more such Justices and Sheriff Depute as aforesaid, that the Informant hath probable Cause to suspect, and doth suspect, that Salmon, Gilses, Salmon Trouts, or Whitlings, which have been taken or caught in the Mouth or Entrance of the said River Tweed, as hereinafter described, are concealed in, or are expected to be landed in some Place or Places (specifying the same) wherein the said Justices and Sheriff Depute have Jurisdiction respectively, it shall be lawful for the said Justices and Sheriff Depute, any one or more of them, and he and they are hereby required, to authorize and direct, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, any High or Petty Constable, or other Peace Officer, and any Number of Persons, not exceeding three, to be severally named and described in the Warrant, to search, in the Day Time, every such Place or Places wherein they have Information that such Fish as aforesaid are concealed; and also to direct, authorize, and require, such Peace Officer and Persons aforesaid to abide, remain, and watch upon the Shore or Coast whereon such Fish are expected to be landed, during the Night as well as the Day, and there watch for the landing of the same, and such Warrant, mutatis mutandis, shall be according to the Form aforesaid; and if upon such Search, any Salmon, Gilses, Salmon Trouts, or Whitlings, shall be found, or if during such Watch such Fish shall be landed in any Sloop, Coble, Boat, Raft, or other Vessel, (which the said Peace Officer and other Persons are hereby also authorized to search and examine,) then it shall be lawful, and the said Peace Officer and Persons authorized as aforesaid, are hereby required to seize the same, and the Package and Packages in which they shall be found, and also the Sloops, Cobles, Boats, Rafts, and other Vessels, in which the same shall be landed, together with the Nets, Engines, and other Tackle used and employed in taking such Fish, and to put and place the same in some secure Place or Places for the safe Custody thereof, under the Care and Guard of some of their Number, and to bring the Body or Bodies of the Person or Persons in whose Custody the same shall be found, or who shall be in the Sloop, Coble, Boat, Raft, or other Vessel, in which the same shall be landed, before the said Justice or Justices and Sheriff Depute respectively, to answer and account for the same; and the Proof that the Fish (so found upon such Search, or seized and taken upon being landed and brought to Shore as aforesaid) were not taken in the Mouth or Entrance of the said River, as herein-after described, shall lie upon the said Person or Persons in whose Custody or Possession the same shall be found, and if he or they shall fail to make good the same, to the Satisfaction of the said Justice or Justices and Sheriff Depute, before whom he or they shall be brought respectively as aforesaid, such Person or Persons shall stand and be convicted of having fished for, taken, and killed the same in the Mouth or Entrance of the said River Tweed, and shall severally forfeit, for every such Offence, a Sum not exceeding fifty Pounds, nor less than twenty Pounds, at the Discretion of the said Justice, Justices, or Sheriff Depute, before whom the Conviction shall be had, and also the Boats, Nets, Engines, and other Tackle made use of in taking or killing such Fish, and also the Fish so taken, and the said Justice or Justices and Sheriff Depute respectively shall order and direct such Sloop, Coble, Boat, Raft, or other Vessel, Nets, Engines, and other Tackle, to be burnt, cut to Pieces, or otherwise destroyed.

Limits of the Harbour ascertained.

III. 'And whereas Doubts have arisen touching the Limits of the Mouth or Entrance of the said River 'Tweed, as described in the said Act of the eleventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty;' be it therefore further enacted, That for the Purposes of this and the said two former Acts, the Limits of the Mouth or Entrance of the said River Tweed shall for the future be deemed to extend, and shall extend from a Pier called Queen Elizabeth's Pier, along the Sea Coast on the South Side of the said Pier five Miles, and from the said Pier called Queen Elizabeth's Pier, along the said Sea Coast on the North Side of the said Pier five Miles, and shall also extend five Miles in Front of the Mouth of the said Harbour, and of the several Lines of Boundary herein-before mentioned into the Sea, such Distances towards the Sea to be computed by Lines drawn, the one from the Northern and the other from the Southern Extremities aforesaid, and running directly parallel to each other.

Magistrates empowered to issue Search Warrants on information of Persons, not entitled to fish within the limits, being suspected to have in their Custody Nets and Engines for taking the Fish: The Owners of such Nets to forfeit from 20 l. to 10 l. and the Nets to be destroyed.

IV. 'And whereas many idle and disorderly Persons, who are not Owners or Occupiers of any Fishery 'or Fisheries in the said River Tweed, or within the Limits of the Mouth or Entrance thereof, or on the Shore 'beyond the same, or otherwise entitled to fish for Salmon, Gilses, Salmon Trouts, or Whitlings, in the said 'River, have and keep in their Possession, Nets, Engines, and other Tackle, adapted for the taking and killing 'such Fish, and by Means thereof take, kill, and destroy many such Fish, to the manifest Loss and Injury of 'the Owners and Proprietors of such Fisheries;' be it further enacted, That, from and after the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, upon Complaint and Information in Writing, upon Oath made to any one or more such Justice or Justices and Sheriff Depute as aforesaid, that the Informant hath probable Cause to suspect, and doth suspect, that any Person or Persons dwelling and usually residing in any Township or Place, Townships or Places, or within any Royal Borough, Village, or Cottage, within the Jurisdiction of the said Justices or Sheriff Depute, before whom the Information is laid, (not being Owners or Occupiers of any such Fishery as aforesaid, or otherwise entitled to fish in the said River Tweed, or within the Mouth or Entrance thereof, or on the Shore beyond the Mouth or Entrance of the same,) have in his or their Possession or Custody, or have lodged, placed, or concealed, or caused to be lodged, placed, or concealed, any Net or Nets, Engines, or other Tackle properly adapted for the taking or killing of Salmon, Gilses, Salmon Trouts, or Whitlings, in any Dwelling House, or Out-house, or in any Net Green, Beach, Shore, or other Place in the open Air, or in any Boat, Coble, or other Vessel (specifying the same) wherein the said Justices and Sheriff Depute have Jurisdiction respectively, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Justices and Sheriff Depute, any one or more of them, and he and they are hereby required to authorize and direct, by Warrant under his and their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, any High or Petty

Petty Constable, or other Peace Officer, and any Number of Persons, not exceeding five, to be severally named and described in the Warrant, to search in the Day Time every such Dwelling House or Out-house, and also in the Night as well as the Day, any such Net Green, Beach, Shore, or other Place in the open Air, or any Boat, Coble, or other Vessel, wherein they have Information that such Nets, Engines, and other Tackle are lodged, concealed, or placed, or laid, or spread out to dry; and such Warrant, mutatis mutandis, shall be according to the Form aforesaid; and if upon such Search any such Nets, Engines, or Tackle as aforesaid shall be found, then it shall be lawful for the said Peace Officer and Persons authorized as aforesaid, and they are hereby required to seize the same, and to place the same in some Place or Places for the Security thereof, under the Care and Guard of some of their Number, and if the Owner or Owners thereof shall be known and found, to bring him or them, or the Person or Persons in whose Custody the same shall be found, before the said Justice or Justices and Sheriff Depute respectively, to answer and account for the same; and the Proof that the said Nets, Engines, or other Tackle so found upon such Search, were and are bonâ fide the Property of some Person or Persons having Right to fish for Salmon, Gilses, Salmon Trouts, or Whitlings, as aforesaid, shall lie upon such Owner and Owners, or the Person and Persons in whose Custody the same shall be found as aforesaid; and if he or they shall fail to make good the same, to the Satisfaction of the said Justice or Justices and Sheriff Depute, before whom he or they shall be brought respectively as aforesaid, such Owner or Owners, Person and Persons respectively, shall forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding twenty Pounds, nor less than ten Pounds, at the Discretion of the said Justice, Justices, or Sheriff Depute respectively, before whom the Conviction shall be had, and also the Nets, Engines, and other Tackle so found upon such Search; and the said Justice, Justices, and Sheriff Depute respectively, shall order and direct all such Nets, Engines, and other Tackle, to be burnt, cut to Pieces, or otherwise destroyed; and if the Owner or Owners of the said Nets, Engines, or Tackle, or Person or Persons who placed the same, or in whose Custody they are, cannot be found, then the said Peace Officer and Persons aforesaid shall keep the same in their Custody for the Space of four Days at the least, and in the mean Time shall cause public Notice to be given on the Door of the Parish Church or Chapel of the Township or Place where the same shall have been found; and if the same shall not be owned in the Space of Time aforesaid, he or they shall carry the same before the Justice or Justices or Sheriff Depute aforesaid who directed the Search for the same; and the said Justice or Justices or Sheriff Depute respectively shall proceed to condemn the same, on Proof that no Person has laid Claim to the same, and may and shall order and direct all such Nets, Engines, and other Tackle to be burnt, cut to Pieces, or otherwise destroyed.

Penalty on resisting Officers in the Execution of their Duty under this Act.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall resist or refuse to permit the said High or Petty Constable, or other Peace Officer and other Persons, (being duly authorized as aforesaid,) to search any Dwelling House, Out-house, Beach, Shore, or other Place in the open Air, Sloop, Coble, Boat, Raft, or other Vessel, for such Fish Nets, Engines, or other Tackle as aforesaid, every Person and Persons so refusing shall, upon due Proof being made thereof to the said Justice or Justices and Sheriff Depute respectively, be liable and subject to the same Penalties and Forfeitures, to be recovered in the same Manner as Persons convicted of fishing for Salmon, Gilses, Salmon Trouts, or Whitlings, in the Mouth or Entrance of the said River, are hereby subjected and made liable unto.

Occupiers of Fisheries in the Tweed, and Rivers and Streams running into the same, to remove and secure their Boats and Fishing Tackle, that the same may not be used clandestinely, from Oct. 12. to Jan. 7 on penalty from 10 l. to 40 s.

VI. 'And whereas since the passing of the said Acts of the eleventh and fifteenth Years of his present Ma-'jesty, idle and disorderly Persons have made a Practice of robbing the River, and the Rivers and Streams 'running into the same, in the Night Time, between the tenth Day of October and the tenth Day of Ja-'nuary, by Means of the Boats, Oars, Nets, Engines, and other Tackle of the Occupiers, which have been 'left near to or upon the several Fisheries thereof, whereby many Salmon, Gilses, Salmon Trouts, and Whit-'lings (at that Time full of Spawn, out of Season, and unwholesome to be used as Food) are by such Persons 'killed, taken, and carried away, and sent privately to Market, to the manifest Destruction of the Breed of all 'such Fish, and Injury of the Health of those who use the same as Food;' be it therefore enacted, That all and every Occupier and Occupiers of any Fishery or Fisheries in the said River Tweed, or in the Rivers and Streams running into the same, and of Fisheries being Property in the Mouth or Entrance of the said River, shall, and they, and each and every of them is and are hereby required from their several Fishings, Fishing Sheilds, Boat Stands, Net Greens, Landing Places, and the Lands and Grounds adjoining thereto, all Boats, Oars, Nets, Engines, and other Tackle used and employed by them in the taking and killing such Fish as aforesaid, to remove and carry away to some Place or Places where the same can be securely lodged and kept, on or before the twelfth Day of October in every Year, and there to remain until the seventh Day of January in every Year; and in case any such Occupier or Occupiers shall refuse or neglect to remove all and every such Boats, Oars, Nets, Engines, and other Tackle as aforesaid, and the same so removed to keep secured from the said Fisheries and Premises at the Time aforesaid, every such Person or Persons so refusing or neglecting, on being convicted thereof before any one or more such Justices or Sheriff Depute as aforesaid, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding ten Pounds, nor less than forty Shillings, at the Discretion of the Justice, Justices, or Sheriff Depute respectively, before whom such Conviction shall be had.

Magistrates empowered to grant Warrants to seize Boats and Fishing Tackle not removed and secured according

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any such Justice or Justices and Sheriff Depute as aforesaid, any one or more of them, upon Application to him or them made in Writing, under the Hands of any three or more of the Proprietors of Fisheries in the said River Tweed, and he and they are hereby ordered and directed to authorize and direct, by Warrant under his and their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, any High or Petty Constable, or other Peace Officer, and any Number of Persons, not exceeding five, to be severally named and described in the Warrant, to search between the twelfth Day of October and to the Directions of the Act. Penalty on Owners in such Case from 20l. to 10l.

the seventh Day of January in every Year, all and every the Fishery and Fisheries, Fishing Shields, Boat Stands, Net Greens, Landing Places, and the Lands and Grounds adjoining thereto; and all such Boats, Oars, Nets, Engines, and other Tackle as they shall find upon such Search, to remove and carry away to some Place or Places where the same can be securely lodged and kept, and such Warrant, mutatis mutandis, shall be according to the Form aforesaid; and if the Owner or Owners thereof shall be known or found, to bring him or them, or the Person or Persons in whose Custody the same shall be found, before the said Justice, Justices, or Sheriff Depute respectively, to answer and account for the same; and every such Owner or Owners, Person or Persons respectively, upon due Proof thereof, shall forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding twenty Pounds, nor less than ten Pounds, at the Discretion of the said Justice, Justices, or Sheriff Depute respectively, before whom the Conviction shall be had; and if the Owner or Owners thereof, or Person or Persons who placed, occupied, or used the same, cannot be found, then the said Peace Officer and Persons authorized as aforesaid, shall cause public Notice to be given on the Church or Chapel Door of the Parish, Township, or Place, where the same shall be found, and if the same shall not be owned within four Days thereafter, they shall carry the same before the said Justice, Justices, or Sheriff Depute, who directed the Search for the same, and the said Justice or Justices and Sheriff Depute respectively shall proceed to condemn the same, on Proof that no Person or Persons has laid Claim to the same, and may and shall order all such Boats, Oars, Engines, and other Tackle, to be burnt, cut to Pieces, or otherwise destroyed; and if in pursuance of such Search such High and Petty Constable, or other Peace Officer, and such Persons so appointed as aforesaid, shall find the Door of any Fishery, Shield, or other Out-house locked up, and upon Request the Occupier thereof shall refuse the Key thereof, it shall be lawful for the said Peace Officer and other Persons aforesaid to break open the said Door, and search for all such Boats, Oars, Nets, Engines, and other Tackle as aforesaid.

Act not to extend to Ferry Boats.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend, or be deemed, taken, or construed to extend, to empower any such Justice and Sheriff Depute to authorize any such Peace Officer or other Persons so appointed as aforesaid, to seize or take any Boat or Boats, or the Oars thereof, being established and accustomed Ferry Boats for the Conveyance of Passengers, Horses, and Carriages across the said River Tweed, or across other Rivers running into the same, nor to Boats used for the express Purpose of repairing or building Dam Dykes, and Mill Races, or Leads upon and from the said Rivers, and for no other Purpose, Use, or Intent whatsoever; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Boats deposited in certain Repositories specified, to be deemed to be removed and secured within the prohibited Time.

IX. Provided also, That all Boats deposited in certain Repositories of Boats at Places called Blackwell Green, Cuthbert's Well, and Hallow Stell Green, in the Chapelry of Tweedmouth and County of Durham, between the twelfth Day of October and the seventh Day of January, shall be deemed and taken to be removed from the several Fishings, Fishing Shields, Boat Stands, Net Greens, Landing Places, and Lands and Grounds adjacent thereto, within the Meaning and for the Purposes of this Act; but nothing in this Clause contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to compel the Occupier or Occupiers of the said Fishery or Fisheries, to remove their Boats to the said Places called Blakewell Green, Cuthbert's Well, and Hallow Stell Green, or any of those Places, but the same Clause shall extend and be construed to extend merely to indemnify the Person or Persons removing their said Boats to any of the said three last-mentioned Places, of and from any Penalty or Penalties under this Act, in respect of the Removal of the said Boats during the Time or Times the said Boats shall be kept at any one or more of the said three last-mentioned Places; any Thing herein contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Penalty on placing Nets, Engines, or Devices in the River Tweed, or in any River, Rivulet, or Stream communicating therewith, in order to take the Spawn of Fish.

X. 'And whereas also, since the passing of the said Acts of the eleventh and fifteenth Years of the Reign 'of his present Majesty, many idle and disorderly Persons have made a Practice of destroying and intercept- 'ing the Salmon Fry in the said River Tweed, and Rivers and Streams running into the same, by placing 'Nets, Creels, Hampers, Engines, and using other Devices for that Purpose, whereby immense Numbers are 'destroyed to the Diminution of the Breed thereof, notwithstanding the Provisions of the said Acts: And 'whereas the Penalties inflicted by the said former Acts have from Experience been found altogether inade- 'quate to check such mischievous Practices;' be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, if any Person or Persons shall place, lay, set, continue, or draw any Net, Creel, Hamper, or other Engine, or use any other Device whatsoever in the said River Tweed, or in any River, Rivulet, Brook, or Stream, or in any Mill Pool, Mill Race, Sluice, or Cut, which communicates with the said River Tweed, or within the Mouth or Entrance of the same, in order to take or kill any Spawn Fry or young Brood of any Salmon, Gilses, Salmon Trout, or Whitling, or shall take, kill, or destroy, or have in his, her, or their Custody or Possession, any Spawn Fry or young Brood of any such Fish as aforesaid, every such Person and Persons, upon being convicted thereof before any one or more such Justice or Justices, or Sheriff Depute, as aforesaid, shall, for the first Offence, forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding ten Pounds, nor less than five Pounds; and for the second and every subsequent Offence, a Sum not exceeding twenty Pounds, nor less than ten Pounds, at the Discretion of the Justice or Justices and Sheriff Depute respectively, before whom such Conviction shall be had.

Owners of Fisheries, and those by them licensed, may angle in the said River between Jan. 10. and Oct. 10.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Owner or Owners of any Fishery in the said River Tweed, or for the Owner or Owners of any Fishery in any River which runs into the said River, and for all and every Person or Persons having his, or her, or their Authority, Licence, or Leave, in Writing under his, her, or their Hand and Hands so to do, to angle or fish with Rods or Lines at any Time or Times between the tenth Day of January and the tenth Day of October in any Year, for any Kind or Sort of Fish in his, her, or their own Fishery or Fisheries, and also to take, carry, and make use of the Fish so taken; and no such Owner or Persons having such Authority, Licence, or Leave, shall be liable, on account of such angling, to any Penalty inflicted by this or the said former Acts; any Thing herein contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Provision in Act 15 Geo. 3. enabling Magistrates to act in the Execution of the recited Acts, although interested in Fisheries in the Tweed, repealed.

XII. 'And whereas it is enacted in and by the said Act of the fifteenth Year of his present Majesty, that 'Justices of the Peace and Sheriffs Depute may act in the Execution of that Act, and also of the said Act of 'the eleventh Year of his said Majesty, notwithstanding they are interested in the Fisheries of the said River 'Tweed;' be it therefore enacted, That the following Words in the recited Clause of the said Act of the fifteenth Year of his present Majesty, "notwithstanding such Justices or Sheriffs Depute are interested in the "Fisheries of the said River Tweed," shall be, and the same are hereby repealed.

Magistrates may act in the Execution of the said Acts, and this Act, if interested only as Proprietors of Fisheries in the River Tweed.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That Justices of the Peace and Sheriffs Depute may act in their several and respective Jurisdictions in the Execution of this Act, and of the said Acts of the eleventh and fifteenth Years of his present Majesty, notwithstanding they are interested in the said River Tweed, or in other Rivers and Streams running into the same, as Proprietors of Fisheries only.

Magistrates not to act in the Execution of the said Acts, or this Act, while Occupiers of Fisheries their own Property, or Tenants of others.

XIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Justice of the Peace or Sheriff Depute shall act in the Execution of this or of either of the said former Acts, who at the Time of his acting shall be the Occupier or Occupiers, either of his own Property, or as Lessee or Lessees, Tenant or Tenants, of any Fishery or Fisheries, or of any Part or Parts of any Fishery or Fisheries in the said River Tweed, or in the Mouth or Entrance, or on the Shore beyond the Limits of the Mouth or Entrance thereof, or who is in any Manner interested in the said Fisheries, or in any Part or Parts thereof, otherwise than as actual Owners or Proprietors, upon Pain of forfeiting a Sum not exceeding two hundred Pounds, or less than fifty Pounds, to him who shall sue for the same in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of the County Palatine of Durham; any Thing herein or in either of the said former Acts contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Form of Conviction.

XV. And be it further enacted, That all Convictions shall be under the Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals of one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, and shall be in the Form following; (that is to say,)

An Act for carrying into Execution His Majesty's Order in Council of the third Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, for an Increase of Pay and Provisions to the Seamen and Marines serving in His Majesty's Navy; and to amend so much of an Act, made in the thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, as enables Petty Officers and Seamen, Non-commissioned Officers of Marines, and Marines, to allot Part of their Pay for the Maintenance of their Wives, Children, or Mothers.—[9th May 1797.]

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

'WHEREAS an Order was made by your Majesty in Council, on the third Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, for an Increase to the present Allowance of Wages and Provisions 'for the Petty Officers, Seamen, Landmen, and Marines, serving in your Majesty's Fleet; and for a Continuation of the Pay of all Petty Officers, Seamen, Landmen, and Marines, who may hereafter be wounded 'in Action with the Enemy, until their Wounds shall be healed, or some other Provision shall be made 'for them: We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being desirous of enabling your Majesty to carry the same into full and immediate 'Execution, do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That a Sum not exceeding three hundred and seventy-two thousand Pounds, be granted to his Majesty on account, towards enabling his Majesty to make an Addition of five Shillings and Sixpence per Month to the present Wages of the Petty Officers and Able Seamen belonging to his Majesty's Fleet; an Addition of four Shillings and Sixpence per Month to the Wages of Ordinary Seamen; an Addition of three Shillings and Sixpence per Month to the Wages of Landmen; and for continuing to the Marines, when embarked and serving on board his Majesty's Ships, the Allowances usually called Consolidated Allowances made to Marines when serving on Shore, videlicet, to Serjeants, Corporals, and Drummers, at the Rate of Two-pence, and to Privates, at the Rate of Two-pence Farthing, per Diem; and also to enable his Majesty to defray the Expence of providing for the full Allowance of Provisions being issued to the Crews of his Majesty's Ships, without any Deduction whatsoever on account of Leakage or Waste, and for paying Short Allowance Money to the Crews of any of the said Ships, in lieu thereof, until the same can be carried into full Effect.

£. 372,000 granted to his Majesty, on Account, for Increase of Pay and Allowance to Petty Officers and Seamen, and Marines, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That all Petty Officers, Able Seamen, Ordinary Seamen, Landmen, and Marines, who may hereafter be wounded in Action with the Enemy, shall receive the full Amount of their Wages and Allowances until their Wounds shall be healed, or until, being declared incurable, they shall receive a Pension from the Chest at Chatham, or be admitted into the Royal Hospital at Greenwich.

Petty Officers, Seamen, and Marines, &c. wounded, to receive their Wages and Allowances till their Wounds are healed, or they are otherwise provided for.

III. 'And whereas, by an Act passed in the thirty-fifth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to 'enable Petty Officers in the Navy, and Seamen, Non-commissioned Officers of Marines, and Marines, serving in 'his Majesty's Navy, to allot Part of their Pay for the Maintenance of their Wives and Families; it is enacted, 'That it shall be lawful for Petty Officers and Non-commissioned Officers of Marines, to allot Half their 'Pay, Able-bodied Seamen Five-pence per Day, Ordinary Seamen and Landsmen Four-pence per Day, and

'Marines Three-pence per Day, for the Maintenance of their Wives and Children or Mothers:' Be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy, or any three of them, to direct the Treasurer of the Navy, or any Receiver General of Land Tax, Collector of Customs, or Collector of Excise, or Clerks of the Cheque, to whom an Allotment made conformable to the said Act shall have been addressed, to increase, from the twenty-fourth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, the Allowance in the Payments he or they or any of them may thereafter make to the Wife or Mother of any Petty Officer or Seaman, Non-commissioned Officer of Marines, or Marine, to a Proportion equal to Half the increased Pay of such Petty Officer or Seaman, Non-commissioned Officer of Marines, or Marine, provided for by this Act; and which shall thereupon be paid in the same Manner as if such Declaration and Order of Allotment had been originally made according to the Rate of Half the Pay of Petty Officers, Seamen, and Marines, as by this Act is provided.

Proportion of pay hereby given may be allotted for the Maintenance of Families, as by 35 Geo. 3. c. 28.

IV. And be it further enacted, That when any Petty Officer or Seaman, Non-commissioned Officer of Marines, or Marine, shall hereafter allot any Pay for the Maintenance of his Wife and Children or Mother, the same shall be at a Rate calculated as nearly equal as may be to Half his Pay, and according to the Table in the Schedule hereunto annexed.

Allotments of Pay to be calculated according to the annexed Schedule.

No Fee to be taken for receiving Subscriptions, or paying or transferring An- " nuities, on Penalty of 20 l. General Issue. Treble Costs. The Bank to retain 5,500,000 l. out of the " Instalments on the two Loans, in Part of Advances for the Public Service. Part of § 3. of the Act " 37 Geo. 3. c. 57. recited. As the whole Loan is not to be raised, the Excess of Contributions to be paid " out of Instalments due May 26, 1797."

CAP. LX.

An Act to amend an Act, made in the thirty-fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majesty certain Stamp Duties on Indentures of Clerkships to Solicitors and Attornies in any of the Courts in England therein mentioned.

[25th May 1797.]

' WHEREAS, by an Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fourth Year of the Reign of his present ' Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty certain Stamp Duties on Indentures of Clerk- ' ships to Solicitors and Attornies in any of the Courts in England therein mentioned, it is enacted, That with- ' in the Bills of Mortality, from and after the fifth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety- ' four, and in every other Part of England and Wales, from and after the tenth Day of February one thousand ' seven hundred and ninety-four, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, unto and for the Use of his ' Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for and in respect of every Contract in Writing, made after the said ' fifth and tenth Days of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four respectively, whereby any ' Person shall become bound to serve as a Clerk, in order to his Admission as a Solicitor or Attorney in any ' of the Courts of Law or Equity in the said Act mentioned, in pursuance of the Laws then in Force for the ' better Regulation of Solicitors and Attornies, divers Rates and Duties in the said Act mentioned; and the ' Indentures or other Writings containing such Contract, duly stamped according to the Directions of the ' said Act, are required to be enrolled or registered with the proper Officer to be appointed for that Purpose ' by the Court wherein such Person shall propose to be afterwards admitted a Solicitor or Attorney by virtue ' of the Service under such Contract, together with an Affidavit of the Time of the Execution of such Con- ' tract by such Clerk; and in case such Indenture or other Writing shall not be so enrolled or registered ' within six Months next after the Execution thereof, together with such Affidavit of the Time of Execution ' of such Contract, then and in such Case the Service of such Clerk under such Indenture or Writing, shall ' be deemed to commence from the Time of such Enrolment or Registry only, and not from the Execution ' of such Indenture or Writing: And whereas the said Act did not receive the Royal Assent until the twenty- ' eighth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four, and several Persons were bound by In- ' dentures and Writings made after the said fifth and tenth Days of February respectively, and before the said ' twenty-eighth Day of March, and which Indentures and Writings are charged with and liable to the said ' Duties imposed by the said Act, and no Provision is therein made for the Payment of the same, or for the ' Enrolment or Registry of such Indentures and Writings respectively: And whereas it is reasonable that ' some Provision should be made for that Purpose;' therefore be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That any and every such Indenture and Writing, made after the said fifth and tenth Days of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four respectively, and before the said twenty-eighth Day of March in the same Year, whereon any such Duty is by the said Act required to be paid, shall and may, on Payment of the Duty thereby required, on or before

34 Geo. 3. c. 14. recited,

imposing Duties on Contracts made after Feb. 5 and 10, 1794; which Act did not receive the Royal Assent till March 28, 1794.

Indentures made after 5th and 10th Feb. 1794, and before March 28, 1794, whereon any Duty is required to be paid by the recited Act, may, on Payment of the Duty by Aug. 1, 1797, be stampt.

before the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, be stamped with the proper Stamp in that Behalf; and the Commissioners for the Time being, appointed to manage the Duties on stamped Parchment, Paper, and Vellum, are hereby authorized and required to cause the same to be stamped accordingly.

Indentures so stampt may be enrolled within two Months.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every such Indenture and Writing shall and may, at any Time within two Calendar Months next after the same shall be so stamped by virtue of this Act, be enrolled and registered by the proper Officer of the Court for that Purpose, together with an Affidavit of the Time of the due Execution of such Contract, in Manner directed by the said Act; and such Officer of the said Courts is hereby required and authorized to enrol and register the same accordingly; and the Service of every such Clerk shall be deemed and taken to commence according to the due Execution of such Indenture and Writing; the said Act or any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Service of Clerks, whose Indentures have been already stamped, or who have been bound by new Indentures, to commence from Date of the first Indentures.

III. 'And whereas several Persons who were bound as Clerks to Attornies by such Indentures and Writings as aforesaid made after the said fifth and tenth Days of February respectively, and before the said twenty eighth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four, have since procured the said Articles to be stamped with the Stamp required by the said Act to denote the Payment of the said Duties, and other such Persons have been again bound by Indentures and Writings duly stamped according to the said Act; and it is reasonable that some Relief should be given to such Clerks in respect to the Time when their Service shall be deemed to commence;' therefore, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in every such Case where the said Duty has, since the passing of the said Act, been already duly paid, and such Indenture or Writing has been already duly stamped, or where such Clerk has been again bound by any Indenture or Writing duly stamped according to the said Act, that then and in every such Case the Service of such Clerk shall be deemed and taken to have commenced at the Time of the Execution of such first Indenture or Writing, and agreeable to the Terms thereof, provided the same has been already, or shall be in the Time and in Manner hereinbefore mentioned, enrolled and registered, together with an Affidavit of the Time of the Execution thereof; any Thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

CAP. LXI.

An Act to revive, amend, and continue, for a limited Time, an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to suspend, for a limited Time, the Operation of two Acts of the fifteenth and seventeenth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, for restraining the Negociation of Promissory Notes and Inland Bills of Exchange, under a limited Sum, within that Part of Great Britain called England.—[25th May 1797.]

37 Geo. 3. c. 32. recited.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to suspend, for a limited Time, the Operation of two Acts of the fifteenth and seventeenth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, for restraining the Negociation of Promissory Notes and Inland Bills of Exchange, under a limited Sum, within that Part of Great Britain called England: And whereas it was by the said Act, amongst other Things, enacted, * That if any Person, liable to the Payment of any of such Notes, Draughts, or Undertakings, in Writing, as may be issued in pursuance of the said Act, should neglect or fail to make full Payment, in Money, of the Sum or Sums for which such Notes, Draughts, or Undertakings, in Writing, should be respectively given or issued, or so much thereof as should be or remain due thereon respectively, by the Space of three Days after Demand thereof made by the Holder or Holders of such Notes, Draughts, or Undertakings, in Writing; then and in that Case the Amount of the Money due, and Costs, should be levied on the Goods and Chattels of the Person liable to pay the same, in Manner by the said Act prescribed: And whereas it is expedient that the said Act should be revived, altered, and continued, and that the said Term of three Days, therein mentioned, should be extended to seven Days;' be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Act shall be, and the same is hereby revived.

* § 3.

Recited Act revived.

Term allowed for Payment of any Note, to be seven Days.

II. And it is further enacted, That the said Act shall be in Force from the first Day of this instant May; and that the Term allowed for Payment of any Note, Draught, or Undertaking, in Writing, therein mentioned, shall be seven Days; till the Expiration of which Time no Warrant of Distress shall be issued under the Authority of the said Act, so revived and amended as aforesaid.

Continuance of this Act, which may be altered or repealed this Session. [See post, Cap. 120.]

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Act so amended shall have Continuance until the eighth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, varied, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. LXII.

An Act to revive and continue, for a limited Time, and amend an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to allow the Banks, and certain Banking Companies, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, to issue Notes for Sums under a certain Amount, for a limited Time; and for indemnifying all Persons who have issued Notes for small Sums of Money in that Part of the United Kingdom.—[25th May 1797.]

37 Geo. 3. c. 42. recited.

'WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to allow the Banks, and certain Banking Companies, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, to issue Notes for Sums under a certain Amount, for a limited Time; and for indemnifying all Persons who have issued Notes for small Sums of Money in that Part of the United Kingdom; it was enacted, that, from and after the passing of the same, it should be lawful to and for the Bank of Scotland, the Royal Bank of Scotland, the British Linen Company, and all other Banks or Banking Companies in Scotland, who, on or before the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, had exercised the Business of Banking, or keeping any Bank for Receipt of Money, and had issued Notes under the Firm of such Bank in the Nature of Bank Notes, (but to and for no other Person or Persons, Company or Companies whatsoever,) to issue Notes, Bills, or Tickets in the Nature of Bank Notes, payable to the Bearer on Demand, for any Sum whatever under the Sum of twenty Shillings Sterling, in the same Way that the said Banks and Banking Companies have heretofore been used to issue Notes for twenty Shillings and upwards since the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and sixty-five; and it was further enacted, that the said Act should continue in force until the fifteenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and no longer: And whereas it is expedient to revive and continue the said Act for a further Time, and to amend the same;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said hereinbefore recited Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, shall be, and the same is hereby revived.

Recited Act revived,

II. And it is hereby further enacted, That the said Act so revived shall continue and be in force from and after the Time thereby limited, until the fifteenth Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and no longer.

and continued till August 15, 1797.

III. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Carron Company to issue Notes, Bills, or Tickets in the Nature of Bank Notes, payable to the Bearer on Demand, for any Sum whatever under twenty Shillings Sterling, in the same Manner as the Banks and Banking Companies mentioned in the said recited Act are authorized to issue any Notes, Bills, or Tickets.

The Carron Company may issue Notes, payable to Bearer on Demand, under 20s. Sterling.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be enlarged, altered, varied, or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

Act may be altered or repealed this Session. [See post, Cap. 137.]

CAP. LXIII.

An Act for granting to Foreign Ships put under His Majesty's Protection, the Privileges of Prize Ships, under certain Regulations and Restrictions; and for allowing Aliens in Foreign Colonies surrendered to His Majesty, to exercise the Occupations of Merchants or Factors.—[25th May 1797.]

'WHEREAS, in consequence of Articles of Capitulation, whereby certain Foreign Colonies or Settlements, or Parts thereof, have been or may hereafter be surrendered to his Majesty during the present War, certain Foreign Ships and Vessels may have been put or may be put under his Majesty's Protection: And whereas the said Ships and Vessels, not being taken and condemned as lawful Prize in any Court of Admiralty, cannot by the Laws now in force be registered as Prize Ships, and be entitled to the Privileges and Advantages of such Ships: And whereas it is just and expedient that Ships or Vessels which shall have been or may be so put under his Majesty's Protection, should be admitted in like Manner as Prize Ships to the Privileges and Advantages of British Ships or Vessels, under certain Regulations and Restrictions;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Foreign Ships and Vessels which, in consequence of any such Capitulation, shall have been or may be so put under his Majesty's Protection, at the Time of or in consequence of the Surrender of any Foreign Colony or Settlement, or Part of any Foreign Colony or Settlement, to his Majesty, shall and may be registered in like Manner as Ships taken and condemned as lawful Prize may, by the Laws now in force, be registered, and shall by virtue thereof become entitled to the Privileges and Advantages of British Ships or Vessels, under the Regulations and Restrictions herein-after mentioned: Provided always, that no such Ship or Vessel shall shall be so registered but upon producing a Certificate under the Hand and Seal of the Person who commanded in chief by Sea or by Land at the Time when such Foreign Colony or Settlement, or Part of Foreign Colony or Settlement, was surrendered to his Majesty; or in case of the Death or Departure of any such Officer before such Certificate shall have been so given, then, upon a like Certificate under the Hand and Seal of the Person who shall command in chief by Sea or by Land at such Colony or Settlement, or Part of such Colony or Settlement, testifying that such Ship or Vessel was put under the Protection of his Majesty at the Time of or in consequence of such Surrender, and upon Oath being made and subscribed before the Person or Persons authorized to make such Registry, and grant such Certificate of Registry respectively, (which they are hereby respectively empowered to administer,) by the Owner of such Ship or Vessel, if such Ship or Vessel is owned by or belongs to one Person only, or in case there shall be two joint Owners then by both of such joint Owners, if both shall be resident within twenty Miles of the Port or Place where such Register is required; or by one of such Owners, if one or both of them shall be resident at a greater Distance from such Port or Place; or if the Number of such Owners or Proprietors shall exceed two, then by the greater Part of the Number of such Owners or Proprietors, if the greater Number of them shall be resident within twenty Miles of such Port or Place as aforesaid, not in any Case exceeding three of such Owners or Proprietors, or by one of such Owners, if all shall be resident at a greater Distance, declaring in the Form and Manner hereinafter directed, that such Ship or Vessel is wholly owned by natural born British Subjects, or by Aliens that have been naturalized or made Denizens, or by Persons who have become British Subjects by virtue of some Capitulation or Conquest, as aforesaid, and have taken the Oath of Fidelity and Allegiance to his Majesty, in consequence of such Capitulation or Conquest, or by any or either of the before-mentioned Descriptions of Persons, and none other: Provided also, that such Registry shall not be made, nor Certificate of such Registry be granted, for any Ship or Vessel that has been or may be so put under his Majesty's Protection at the Cape of Good Hope, or Places adjoining thereto, but at the Port of the Cape Town; nor for any Ship or Vessel that has been or may be so put under his Majesty's Protection in any Part of the Island of Ceylon, or of the Parts to the Eastward of the Island of Ceylon, but in the Port of Columbo in the Island of Ceylon; nor for any Ship or Vessel that has been or may be so put under his Majesty's Protection in any Part of the Coast of Malabar, but in the Port of Cochin; nor for any Ship or Vessel that has been or may be so put under his Majesty's Protection in the Island of Trinidad in the West Indies, but in the Port of Scarborough in the Island of Tobago; nor for any Ship or Vessel that has been or may be so put under his Majesty's Protection in the Settlement of Demerary on the Continent of South America, but in the Port of Scarborough in the Island of Tobago; and that the said Ports of Cape Town, Columbo, and Cochin, and the said Port of Scarborough, shall respectively, for the Purpose of such Registry, be deemed and taken to be the Ports to which such Ship or Vessel belongs.

Where Registry of such Vessels is to be made.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Oath before directed to be taken shall be in the Form and Manner following:

Oath to be taken in the following Form.

'I A. B. of [Place of Residence and Occupation] do make Oath that the Ship or Vessel [Name] of [Port, or Place] whereof [Master's Name] is at present Master, being [Kind of built, Burthen, et cetera, as described in the Certificate of the Surveying Officer] was [when and where Built; or if Prize, Capture, and Condemnation; or if put under his Majesty's Protection, when and where]; and that I the said A. B. [and the other Owners Names and Occupations (if any), and where they respectively reside, videlicet, Town, Place, or Parish, and County, or if Member of and resident in any Factory in Foreign Parts, or in any Foreign Town or City, being an Agent for or Partner in any House of Trade, or Co-partnership, actually carrying on Trade in Great Britain or Ireland, the Name of such Factory, Foreign Town, or City; and the Names of such House or Co-partnership] am [or are] sole Owner [or Owners] of the said Vessel; and that no other Person or Persons whatever have or hath any Right, Title, Interest, Share, or Property, therein or thereto; and that I the said A. B. [and the said other Owners, if any,] am [or are] truly and bona fide a Subject [or Subjects] of Great Britain; and that I the said A. B. have not [nor have any of the other Owners, to the best of my Knowledge and Belief] taken the Oath of Allegiance to any Foreign State whatever, [except under the Terms of some Capitulation, describing the Particulars thereof,] or that since my taking [or his or their taking] the Oath of Allegiance to [naming the Foreign States respectively to which he or any of the said Owners shall have taken the same], and prior to the passing of an Act in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled, An Act for the further Encrease and Encouragement of Shipping and Navigation, I have [or he or they hath or have] become a Subject [or Subjects] of Great Britain, [either by his Majesty's Letters Patent, as a Denizen (or Denizens) or naturalized by Act of Parliament, as the Case may be, naming the Dates of the Letters of Denization, or the Act or Acts of Parliament for Naturalization respectively]; or [as the Case may be] I have [or he or they hath or have] become a Denizen [or Denizens, or naturalized Subject or Subjects, as the Case may be] of Great Britain, by his Majesty's Letters Patent, or by an Act of Parliament, passed since the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, [naming the Times when such Letters of Denization have been granted respectively, or the Year or Years in which such Act or Acts of Naturalization have passed respectively,] or that I A. B. [and the other Owners, if any,] having become British Subject [or Subjects] by virtue of a Capitulation or Conquest [describing the Particulars thereof, as to Place, State, and Parties,] have [or he or they hath or have] taken the Oath of Fidelity and Allegiance to his Majesty the King of Great Britain, [describing the Times when, the Place where, and before whom taken,] in consequence of such Capitulation; and that no Foreigner, directly or indirectly, hath any Share, or Part, or Interest, in the said Ship or Vessel.'

III. And

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any such Ship or Vessel, being registered, and having a Certificate of Registry as aforesaid, and being navigated as British Ships are now, or may hereafter be required by Law to be navigated, to import and export to and from any Place or Places whatsoever, such Goods and Merchandizes respectively, and none other, as may be imported and exported by any Ship or Vessel taken and condemned as lawful Prize; such Importations and Exportations to be made in like Manner, and under and subject to the like Duties, Conditions, Regulations, and Restrictions, and subject to the like Penalties and Forfeitures for the Breach thereof, as if the same were made by any Ship or Vessel taken and condemned as lawful Prize: Provided always, that such Ships and Vessels so put under his Majesty's Protection, shall not be allowed to import or export any Goods whatsoever to or from any Port in Europe not in the Possession of his Majesty.

Such Vessels may import and export as Prize Vessels.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, at any Time on the Arrival of any such Ship or Vessel in any Port of Great Britain, upon Application to him made, and upon Consideration of such Circumstances as shall satisfy his Majesty of the Expediency thereof, to authorize any such Ship or Vessel (without Payment of any Duty whatever for the said Ship or Vessel, or the Sails and other necessary Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture thereof) to be registered, and to have a Certificate thereof, as in the Case of a Prize Ship, in any Port in the Kingdom of Great Britain; and such Ship or Vessel so registered shall, in such Case, be entitled to all the Privileges and Advantages which belong, by Law, to Ships taken and condemned as lawful Prize.

His Majesty may authorize such Vessels to be registered as Prize Ships in Great Britain.

V. 'And whereas, by an Act, passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the encouraging and increasing of Shipping and Navigation, it is enacted, That no Alien, 'or Person not born within the Allegiance of our Sovereign Lord the King, his Heirs and Successors, or 'naturalized or made a free Denizen, shall exercise the Trade or Occupation of a Merchant or Factor in 'any Lands, Islands, Plantations, or Territories, to his Majesty belonging or in his Possession, or which 'might thereafter belong unto or be in the Possession of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in Asia, 'Africa, or America, upon pain of the Forfeiture and Loss of all his Goods and Chattels, or which are 'in his Possession;' be it enacted, That every Person, although an Alien born, and neither naturalized nor made a free Denizen, who shall reside in any Island or Place which has surrendered, or which shall hereafter surrender, to his Majesty, and be in his Majesty's Possession, and who shall have taken the Oath of Fidelity and Allegiance to his Majesty, according to the Terms of the Capitulation under which such Island or Place shall have surrendered, shall be, and shall from the Time of such Surrender be deemed to have been, entitled to exercise the Trade or Occupation of a Merchant or Factor in any such Island or Place, during so long Time as the same shall remain and be in the Possession or under the Protection of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors; any Thing in the said Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding; subject, nevertheless, to such Laws and Regulations as his Majesty's Subjects shall and may be liable to in the same Islands or Places.

12 Car. 2. c. 18. § 2. recited.

Aliens residing in any Place surrendered to his Majesty, may act as Merchants or Factors; taking Oath of Allegiance.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act, or any Thing herein contained, shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to take away, abridge, vary, or alter, any of the Rights or Privileges belonging to, and vested in, the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, by any Charter, Act of Parliament, or otherwise whatsoever, respecting Persons resident in, or carrying on, or being concerned in any Trade to, from, or in any Place or Places within the Limits of the exclusive Trade of the said United Company; but all Persons resident, and all Trade to be carried on within the said Limits, under the Authority of the said Capitulations, or of this Act, shall be subject unto all and every the Prohibitions, Restrictions, Regulations, Licences, Duties, and Conditions, in all Respects as the Residence and Trade of any British Subject is now liable to by Law, and shall be subject to the like Penalties and Forfeitures, and all other Matters and Things which any British Subject, and the Goods, Merchandize, and Trade of any British Subject, would be subject and liable to by Law for doing any Thing in Violation of the Rights and Privileges of the said United Company; any Thing herein-before contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Act not to abridge the Rights of the East India Company.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the respective Governors or Lieutenant Governors, or Officers commanding in chief of the Cape of Good Hope, of the Island of Ceylon, and of Cochin on the Coast of Malabar, or of the Island of Trinidad in the West Indies, or of the Settlement of Demerary on the Continent of South America, to administer the Oaths, grant the Certificates, and do all and every other Matters and Things in and about the registering of the said Ships, which, under the Authority of an Act, made in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the further Encrease and Encouragement of Shipping and Navigation, may be done by the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief, and principal Officer or Officers of his Majesty's Revenue of Customs, in any of his Majesty's Colonies, Plantations, Islands, or Territories in America, respecting the registering of Ships there; and the said Governors or Lieutenant Governors, or Officers commanding in chief at such Places respectively, shall appoint such Officers under them as they shall think proper, for surveying the Ships to be registered, and for doing all other Things relating thereto, which, in and by the said Act, is to be done by certain Officers of the Customs therein mentioned.

Governors of Cape of Good Hope, &c. may administer Oaths, grant Certificates of Registry, &c. agreeably to 26 Geo. 3. c. 60.

CAP.

CAP. LXV.

An Act for empowering the Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, at their General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to make a fair and equal County Rate for the said County.—[25th May 1797.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that Power and Authority should be given to the Justices of the Peace 'for the County of Middlesex, in their General or Quarter Sessions assembled, to make a fair and 'equal County Rate, and for that Purpose to assess and tax rateably and in equal Proportions, according 'to the Annual Rent or Value of Estates, within all and every the Parishes, Towns, Liberties, Precincts, 'Villages, Hamlets, and Places, within the said County, for and towards the same:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Justices of the Peace for the said County of Middlesex, in their General or Quarter Sessions assembled, shall have full Power and Authority, and they are hereby required from Time to Time to assess and tax all and every Parish, Town, Liberty, Precinct, Village, Hamlet, and Place, within the said County, rateably and in equal Proportions, according to the Annual Rent or Value of Estates within such Parish, Town, Liberty, Precinct, Village, Hamlet, and Place respectively.

Justices empowered to make an equal County Rate, according to the Annual Rent or Value of Estates in each Parish.

II. 'And, in order the better to enable the said Justices of the Peace for the said County of Middlesex, 'to assess and tax rateably and in equal Proportions, all and every such Parishes, Towns, Liberties, Pre-'cincts, Villages, Hamlets, and Places,' be it further enacted, That at the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden in and for the said County of Middlesex after the passing of this Act, the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the said several Parishes, Towns, Liberties, Precincts, Villages, Hamlets, and Places, shall, and they are hereby required, within the two first Days of such next Sessions, to make a Return in Writing to the said Justices in Sessions assembled, which Return shall be verified upon Oath in open Court at the Time of delivering in the same, of the total Amount of the Rental or Value of the Estates within the Parish, Town, Liberty, Precinct, Village, Hamlet, or Place, to which they shall respectively belong, charged or assessed to the Poors Rate of and in the said Parish, Town, Liberty, Precinct, Village, Hamlet, or Place, at the Time of making such Return; and where the proportionable Mode of rating is less than the real Rent or Value, the same shall be stated and pointed out in Writing upon such Return, and verified as aforesaid, in order that the said Justices may be enabled to discover the real Amount of the Rental or Value of the Estates within the said several Parishes, Towns, Liberties, Precincts, Villages, Hamlets, or Places.

Churchwardens and Overseers to make a Return, upon Oath, of Amount of the real Rental of Estates in each Parish, within a certain Time.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of all and every Parish, Town, Liberty, Precinct, Village, Hamlet, or Place within the said County, or some or one of them, shall yearly and every Year, from and after the passing of this Act, within the two first Days of the Michaelmas Quarter Sessions to be holden in and for the said County, make a Return to the Justices of the Peace then and there assembled, of the total Amount of the Rental or Value of Estates within the said Parish, Town, Liberty, Precinct, Village, Hamlet, or Place, at the Time of making the last preceding Rate for the Relief of the Poor, and also shall, when the proportionable Mode of rating is less than the real Rent or Value, state and point out the same in Writing upon such Return; and shall verify every such Return upon Oath in Manner aforesaid.

The like Return upon Oath to be made annually to the Michaelmas Sessions.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in case the said Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of any of the several Parishes, Towns, Liberties, Precincts, Villages, Hamlets, or Places within the said County, shall neglect or make default in making such several Returns, so verified as aforesaid, at the next Sessions of the Peace after the passing of this Act, or in making such Annual Return at the Michaelmas Quarter Sessions, as hereinbefore directed, that each and every such Churchwarden and Overseer of the Poor shall forfeit and pay such Sum and Sums of Money, not exceeding one hundred Pounds, as shall or may be ordered or adjudged by the said Justices in their General or Quarter Sessions assembled, by way of Penalty for such Neglect or Default; and in case any such Penalty is not paid, the said Justices in such Session assembled, may issue their Warrant to the High Constable of the Division where such Parish, Town, Liberty, Precinct, Village, Hamlet, or Place shall be situate, directing him to levy such Penalty upon the respective Goods and Chattels of each and every Churchwarden and Overseer of the Poor of the Parish, Town, Liberty, Precinct, Village, Hamlet, or Place, so neglecting or making default, in like Manner, and with such Powers and Authorities as the said High Constable is by a Statute, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the more ealy assessing, collecting, and levying County Rates, vested with for levying on the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor the Sum assessed for the County Rate.

Penalty for Neglect.

Penalty to be levied by High Constables, in like Manner as County Rates are levied under Stat. 12 Geo. 2. c. 29.

V. And be it further enacted, That if the said Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor shall so make Default in making such Return as aforesaid, to the said Michaelmas Quarter Sessions annually, or if it shall happen that notwithstanding the incurring of a Penalty or Penalties as aforesaid, for or on account of such Neglect or Default, a Return as aforesaid for any Parish, Town, Liberty, Precinct, Village, Hamlet, or Place, shall not be made within the Time before limited for the making thereof, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Justices, and they are hereby required, either at the said Quarter Sessions, or at some subsequent General or Quarter Sessions to be held for the said County, to rate and assess each and every the Parish, Town, Liberty, Precinct, Hamlet, or Place, the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of which shall so neglect or make Default as aforesaid, for and towards the said County Rate, according to such Estimate of just and fair Annual Rent or Value of the Estates within such Parish, Town, Liberty, Precinct, Village, Hamlet, or Place, or Parishes, Townships, Liberties, Precincts, Villages, Hamlets, or Places respectively, as the said Justices shall be able to procure by any other Means than the Returns which are by this Act required to be made as aforesaid; and to order such Allowance and Compensation to be made to the Constables and other Persons within the several Districts and Divisions in the said County, for their Expences and Trouble in procuring, collecting, and levying the same, as to the said Justices shall appear reasonable and proper; and that all such Allowances, Compensations, and other Expences as shall be thereby incurred, shall be by the Justices of the Peace for the said County of Middlesex, in their General or Quarter Sessions assembled, charged upon the Parish, Town, Liberty, Precinct, Hamlet, or Place, the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of which shall so neglect or make Default as aforesaid, in Addition to their Proportion of the said County Rate, and be collected and paid therewith.

In Cases where Returns are neglected to be made, Justices empowered to make a Rate.

Appeal against Rate by Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of any of the said Parishes, Towns, Liberties, Precincts, Villages, Hamlets, or Places, within the said County, shall at any Time hereafter have Reason to believe that such Parish, Town, Liberty, Precinct, Village, Hamlet, or Place is over-rated by any Rate to be made in pursuance of this Act, such Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor may appeal to the Justices of the Peace for the said County, at their next General or General Quarter Sessions, against such Part of the Rate only as may affect the Parish or Place in which they serve such Offices; which Justices are hereby empowered to hear and finally determine the same, and to give such Appellants such Relief as in their Discretion shall appear fair, just, and equal: Provided nevertheless, that upon such Appeal, such Rate shall not be quashed or destroyed in regard to any other Parishes or Places assessed thereby; any Thing in this Act, or any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

General Appeal.

VII. Provided also, That if any other Person or Persons shall think himself, herself, or themselves aggrieved by any Act, Matter, or Thing to be done in pursuance of this Act, or the Powers hereby given, that he, she, or they shall and may appeal to the said Justices of the Peace of the said County, at their next General or General Quarter Sessions to be holden next after any such Cause of Appeal shall arise; which Justices are hereby empowered to hear and finally determine the same, and to give such Appellants such Relief as in their Discretion shall appear fair and just.

Powers and Authorities in Act 12 Geo. 2. c. 29. continued, except where altered by this Act.

VIII. And it is hereby enacted and declared, That all the Powers and Authorities in and by the said Act of the twelfth Year of the Reign of King George the Second, and all other existing Laws relating to the County Rate, shall be and continue in full Force and Effect, except where altered by this Act.

Expences of this Act to be paid by Treasurer out of County Rate.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Treasurer of the said County of Middlesex shall be, and he is hereby authorized and required to pay and discharge the reasonable Charges and Expences occasioned by the procuring and passing this Act, out of the first Money belonging to the said County which shall be in his Hands; such Charges being first examined and allowed by the said Justices at their General or Quarter Sessions.

Allowance to Constables, &c.

X. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of the Peace for the said County of Middlesex, in their General or Quarter Sessions assembled, to order such Allowance and Compensation to be made to the Constables and other Persons within such Districts and Divisions in the said County, where no Rate is or shall be made for the Relief of the Poor, for their Expences and Trouble in collecting and levying the said County Rate within such Districts and Divisions, as to the said Justices shall appear reasonable and proper; and to charge such Allowance and Compensation upon such Districts and Divisions in Addition to their Proportion of the said County Rate.

Limitation of Actions, six Months—twenty-one Days Notice—Tender of Amends—to be tried in Middlesex.

XI. And be it further enacted, That no Action at Law shall be brought or commenced, or any Proceeding had against any Person for any Thing done by virtue of this Act, until twenty-one Days Notice thereof shall have been given to, or left at the usual Place of Abode of, the Person or Persons against whom such Action or Proceeding is intended to be had or brought, thereby setting forth the particular Cause of such Action or Proceeding; or after Tender of sufficient Amends have been made to the Party or Parties aggrieved; or after six Calendar Months next after the Fact or Cause of such Action shall have arisen; and every such Action shall be laid and tried in the County of Middlesex, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in such Action shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the Authority of this Act; and if the same shall appear to have been so done, or if any such Action shall be brought before the Expiration of twenty-one Days next after Notice shall have been given as aforesaid, or after sufficient Tender of Amends shall have been made to the Party or Parties aggrieved, or after the Time before limited for bringing the same, or shall be brought in any other County or Place than as aforesaid, then and in every such Case the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and upon such Verdict, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be nonsuited, or suffer a Discontinuance of his, her, or their Action or Suit after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if, upon Demurrer, Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs, and shall have such

Treble Costs.

Remedy for the same as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have for Costs of Suit in any other Case by Law.

Expences of Appeals, &c. not to be charged to, or paid out of, the County Rate.

XII. And be it further enacted, That in case of any Appeals, Actions, Suits, or Proceedings at Law, as betwixt Parish and Parish, or betwixt any Person or Persons and any Parish or Parishes, or any Person or Persons, respecting any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, or any other Act or Acts relating to the County Rate, the Expences of all such Appeals, Actions, Suits, or Proceedings at Law, shall be borne and paid by such respective Parishes and Persons, or such of them, and in such Proportions, as the said Justices upon any Appeal in their General or Quarter Sessions shall award and order the same, or as such Courts wherein such Actions, Suits, or Proceedings shall be instituted, shall adjudge and order, and shall not be charged to, or paid out of, the County Rate.

Public Act.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be adjudged, deemed, and taken to be a Public Act; and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such, by all Judges, Justices, and other Persons whomsoever, without specially pleading the same.

CAP. LXVI.

CAP. LXIX.

An Act for granting to His Majesty additional Duties on the Amount of certain Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes.

[6th June 1797.]

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

'WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament 'assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray your Majesty's Public Expences, and 'making a permanent Addition to the Public Revenue, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and 'grant unto your Majesty the Duties herein-after mentioned; and do most humbly beseech your Majesty 'that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon every Assessment which shall have been made, or which shall be made, after the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, under and by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament hereinafter next mentioned; that is to say, An Act passed in the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for repealing the several Duties on Tea, and for granting to his Majesty other Duties in lieu thereof; and also several Duties on inhabited Houses; and upon the Importation of Cocoa Nuts and Coffee, and for repealing the Inland Duties of Excise thereon; one other Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty new Duties on certain Horses not charged with Duty by any other Act or Acts of Parliament, and on Mules; one other Act passed in the same Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty several additional Duties on Horses kept for the Purpose of riding, or drawing certain Carriages, therein mentioned; and one other Act passed in the same Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty certain Duties on Dogs; for or in respect of the several Rates and Duties thereby granted under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, an additional Rate or Duty after the Rate of ten Pounds for every hundred Pounds of the gross Amount thereof in such Assessment.

On every Assessment made after April 5, 1797, under 24 Geo. 3. Sess. 2. c. 38. and 36 Geo. 3. c. 15, 16, and 124, in respect of Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for Taxes, an additional Duty of 10 l. per Cent. on the Amount to be levied.

II. And be it further enacted, That upon every Assessment which shall have been, or which shall be made, after the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, under or by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, under or by virtue of one Act, passed in the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty certain Duties on Horses kept for the Purpose of riding, and on Horses used in drawing certain Carriages, in respect whereof any Duty of Excise is made payable; under or by virtue of one other Act, passed in the twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty several additional Rates and Duties upon Horses and Carriages with four Wheels; and for explaining and amending an Act,

On every Assessment made after April 5, 1797, under 24 Geo. 3. Sess. 2. c. 31. and 29 Geo. 3. c. 49. in respect of Duties on Horses kept for riding, or draw-passed in the twenty fifth Year of his present Majesty, as far as relates to certain Carriages with two or three Wheels therein mentioned, for or in respect of the several Rates and Duties on Horses kept for the Purpose of riding, or for the Purpose of drawing any Carriage, in the said Acts respectively mentioned; and under or by virtue of the said several Acts, passed in the last Session of Parliament, herein-before mentioned, for or in respect of the several Rates and Duties thereby respectively granted, a further additional Rate or Duty shall be charged after the Rate of ten Pounds for every hundred Pounds of the gross Amount thereof in such Assessment.

ing any Carriage, or under the Acts of last Session before mentioned, a further additional Duty of 10*l.* per Cent. on the Amount to be charged.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners authorized or appointed, or who shall be authorized or appointed, to put in Execution the several Acts relative to the Rates or Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, or any of them, on the Amount of which the several Duties after the Rate of ten Pounds per Centum, and the several further Duties after the like Rate of ten Pounds per Centum are hereby imposed, shall be Commissioners for Executing this present Act; and that the several Surveyors, Inspectors, Assessors, and Collectors respectively, appointed or to be appointed to put in Execution the said several Acts before mentioned, or any of them, shall be Surveyors, Inspectors, Assessors, and Collectors, to put in Execution this present Act, according to the respective Powers and Authorities given to them by the said Acts, or any of them; and the said Commissioners, and other the Persons aforesaid, duly qualified to act in the Execution of the said several Acts before mentioned, shall and they are hereby respectively empowered and required to do all Things necessary for putting this Act in Execution, with relation to the said Duties hereby imposed, in the like and in as full and ample a Manner as they, or any of them are or is authorized to put in Execution the said Acts before mentioned, or any of them, or any Matters or Things therein respectively contained.

Commissioners, &c. for the Affairs of Taxes, to put this Act in Execution.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the several Receivers General appointed, or who shall be appointed, to receive the Rates and Duties to be assessed and collected under or by virtue of the said Acts before-mentioned, shall, without any new Commission or Commissions to be had, obtained, or given, be Receivers General of the said several Rates or Duties hereby imposed within their respective Districts or Collections, unless other Receivers shall be appointed in pursuance of this Act, within such Districts or Collections respectively (such Receiver and Receivers giving such Security for duly answering the said Duties as the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes shall require); and the said Receivers General being duly qualified to act in the Execution of the said several Acts before mentioned relative to the said former Rates or Duties, or any of them, shall and they are hereby respectively empowered and required to do all Things necessary for putting this Act in Execution, with relation to the said several Rates or Duties hereby imposed, in the like and in as full and ample a Manner as they, or any of them, are or is authorized to act in the Execution of the said former Acts relative to the said Rates and Duties, or any Matters or Things therein respectively contained.

Receivers General appointed to receive the Duties assessed under the Acts before mentioned, to receive the Duties hereby imposed.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them, for the Time being, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, to appoint any Person or Persons other than the Receiver or Receivers of the said former Rates and Duties, to be the Receiver or Receivers of the Rates and Duties by this Act imposed, within or for any County, Riding, or Division, as the said Commissioners or the High Treasurer respectively shall think expedient.

Treasury may appoint other Receivers.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the several Rates or Duties by this Act imposed upon the Amount of the several former Rates and Duties hereinbefore mentioned, shall and may be respectively ascertained, managed, collected, paid, recovered, paid over, and accounted for, under such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, and according to such general Rules, Methods, and Directions, by which all the former Rates and Duties on the Amount of which the said Rates or Duties are by this Act imposed, or according to such special Rules, Methods, and Directions, by which such of the former Rates and Duties upon the Amount of which any of the said additional Rates or Duties may be chargeable by this Act, were or might be ascertained, managed, collected, paid, recovered, paid over, and accounted for, except as far as any of the said Rules, Methods, and Directions are expressly varied by this Act; and all and every the Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relative to the said former Rates and Duties, or any Part of them now in force, (and not hereby otherwise provided,) for the computing, surcharging, recovering, paying, and accounting for the said Rates and Duties by any former Acts granted, as far as the same are applicable to the additional Rates or Duties by this Act imposed, and not repugnant to the particular Directions of this Act, shall be in full Force, and be duly observed, practised, and put in Execution, for computing, surcharging, recovering, paying, and accounting for the several Rates and Duties by this Act granted, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same or the like Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act.

Additional Duties to be ascertained, &c. as former Duties.

VII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, the said additional Rates and Duties hereby imposed, shall commence from and after the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and shall be paid Quarterly in each Year, on the four most usual Days of Payment in the Year; (that is to say,) on the fifth Day of January, the fifth Day of April, the fifth Day of July, and the tenth Day of October, in every Year, by even and equal Portions, the first Payment thereof to be made on the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven.

Additional Duties to commence from April 5, 1797, and to be paid Quarterly.

31 Geo. 3. c. 5. and

36 Geo. 3. c. 14. recited.

Duties under recited Acts, and this Act, may be assessed in one Sum, &c.

VIII. 'And whereas the several Duties after the Rate of ten Pounds per Centum, granted by an Act, 'passed in the thirty-first Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to his 'Majesty additional Duties on the Amount of the Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the 'Affairs of Taxes, therein mentioned; and of ten Pounds per Centum, granted by an Act, passed in the 'thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty further 'additional Duties on the Amount of the Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of 'Taxes, therein mentioned; and of ten Pounds per Centum, by this Act granted, make together the Sum of 'twenty Pounds per Centum, on the Amount of all the several Rates and Duties whereon the respective 'Duties of ten Pounds per Centum are imposed;' be it further enacted, That in assessing and charging the said respective Duties, after the Rate of ten Pounds per Centum on the Amount of the said former Duties, it shall be lawful for the said respective Commissioners, Inspectors, Surveyors, and Assessors of the said Duties, to assess and charge the Sum of twenty Pounds per Centum upon the Amount of all the several Rates and Duties whereon the respective Duties of ten Pounds per Centum are imposed by the said several Acts, and this Act, in one Sum, and by one Assessment and Charge, instead of distinct Assessments and Charges; and to certify and return the same upon such Assessments to the respective Commissioners authorized to put the said Acts in Execution, at their respective Meetings to be held for returning such Assessments in all and every the respective Counties, Shires, Stewartries, Ridings, Divisions, Cities, Boroughs, Cinque Ports, Towns, and Places respectively; which said Sum and Sums so certified shall be added to the Amount of the former assessed Rates and Duties, and shall be collected, raised, levied, and received under the Rules, Regulations, and Directions prescribed by the said former Acts, subject nevertheless to such proportional Increase or Abatement in the Amount thereof, as shall be necessary in case the said former Rates or Duties so assessed shall be increased or diminished by any Surcharge thereupon, or Appeal therefrom, in pursuance of the said former Acts.

Duties to be carried to the Consolidated Fund.

IX. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies arising by the said Rates and Duties (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted) shall, from Time to Time, be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, and shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund.

Duties to be applied in defraying any increased Charge by any Loan of this Session, and for ten Years to be kept, with other Duties granted for the same Purpose, separate from other Monies.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Monies arising or to arise of the Duties hereby granted, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient, shall be deemed an Addition made to the Revenue for the Purpose of defraying the increased Charge occasioned by any Loan to be raised, or Stock created, or to be created, by virtue of any Act or Acts passed, or to be passed, in this Session of Parliament; and that the said Monies shall, during the Space of ten Years next ensuing, be paid into the said Receipt, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Public Revenue; and that there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt, during the said Period of ten Years, a Book or Books, in which all the Monies arising from the said Duties, and paid into the said Receipt, shall, together with the Monies arising from any other Rates and Duties granted in this Session of Parliament, for the Purpose of defraying such increased Charge as aforesaid, be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, upon any Account whatever.

CAP. LXX.

An Act for the better Prevention and Punishment of Attempts to seduce Persons serving in His Majesty's Forces, by Sea or Land, from their Duty and Allegiance to His Majesty, or to incite them to Mutiny or Disobedience.—[6th June 1797.]

'WHEREAS divers wicked and evil-disposed Persons, by the Publication of written or printed Papers, and by malicious and advised Speaking, have of late industriously endeavoured to seduce 'Persons serving in his Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land from their Duty and Allegiance to his Majesty, 'and to incite them to Mutiny and Disobedience;' be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, any Person who shall maliciously and advisedly endeavour to seduce any Person or Persons serving in his Majesty's Forces, by Sea or Land, from his or their Duty and Allegiance to his Majesty, or to incite or stir up any such Person or Persons to commit any Act of Mutiny, or to make, or endeavour to make, any mutinous Assembly, or to commit any traiterous or mutinous Practice whatsoever, shall, on being legally convicted of such Offence, be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

Any Person who shall attempt to seduce any Sailor or Soldier from his Duty, or incite him to Mutiny, &c. to be guilty of Felony without Clergy.

Where Offences may be prosecuted.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Offence committed against this Act, whether committed on the High Seas or within that Part of Great Britain called England, shall and may be prosecuted and tried before any Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery for any County in that Part of Great Britain called England, in such Manner and Form as if the said Offence had been therein committed.

Persons tried for Offences against this Act, not to be tried again for the same, as

III. Provided always, and it is hereby declared and enacted, That any Person who shall be tried and acquitted, or convicted of any Offence against this Act, shall not be liable to be indicted, prosecuted, or tried again for the same Offence or Fact, as High Treason, or Misprision of High Treason; and that nothing in this this Act contained shall be construed to extend, to prevent any Persons guilty of any Offence against this Act, and who shall not be tried for the same as an Offence against this Act, from being tried for the same as High Treason, or Misprision of High Treason, in such Manner as if this Act had not been made. High Treason, or Misprision of High Treason, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall continue and be in force until the Expiration of one Month after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament, and no longer. Continuance of Act.

CAP. LXXI.

An Act for more effectually restraining Intercourse with the Crews of certain of His Majesty's Ships now in a State of Mutiny and Rebellion, and for the more effectual Suppression of such Mutiny and Rebellion.—[6th June 1797.]

'WHEREAS the Crews of certain of his Majesty's Ships, notwithstanding the repeated Marks of his 'Majesty's gracious Favour and Condescension towards them, have persisted, and do still persist, in 'a most dangerous and criminal Mutiny, and in the Commission of divers Acts of the most heinous and 'treasonable Nature, against the Crown and Dignity of our Sovereign Lord the King, and to the manifest 'Danger of the Safety of this Realm, engaged in War against a Foreign Enemy: And whereas it is necessary 'that immediate Provision should be made for the Suppression and Punishment of Offences of so high and 'dangerous a Nature, and for deterring all others from being guilty of similar Crimes in future:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or any three or more of them, being thereto authorized by Order of his Majesty in Council, to declare the Crew of any of his Majesty's Ships who have been guilty of Acts of Mutiny and Rebellion, and who still persist therein, and also the Crew of any other of his Majesty's Ships who shall be guilty of any of the like Offences, to be in a State of Mutiny and Rebellion, and by such Declaration to warn all his Majesty's faithful Subjects to abstain from all Communication or Intercourse with the Crews of the said Ships; and such Declaration shall forthwith be published in the London Gazette, and shall also (as soon as the same can conveniently be done) be proclaimed in his Majesty's Dock Yards. The Admiralty, by Order of the King in Council, may declare the Crew of any Ship to be in a State of Mutiny and Rebellion, and thereby warn all Subjects to abstain from Intercourse with the Crew. Such Declaration to be published in the Gazette, &c.

II. And be it enacted, That, from and after the Date of such Publication in the London Gazette, it shall not be lawful for any of his Majesty's liege Subjects, or others residing or being within this Realm, to have any Communication or Intercourse, whether personally or by Letter, Message, or otherwise, with the Crew of any Ship so declared to be in a State of Mutiny and Rebellion, or with any Persons or Person being Part of such Crew, or with any Person who shall remain on Board the said Ship, after the Day on which such Declaration shall have been so published in the London Gazette as aforesaid, or in any Manner to supply, aid, comfort, or assist the said Crew, or any Persons or Person being Part thereof, or any Person so remaining on Board the said Ship. After such Publication, no Person to communicate with the Crew, or assist them.

III. And be it enacted, That any Person who, after the Date of such Publication as aforesaid, shall wilfully and advisedly have any such Communication or Intercourse with such Crew, or with any Persons or Person being Part thereof, or with any Person so remaining on Board any such Ship as aforesaid, or in any Manner supply, aid, comfort, or assist such Crew, or any Persons or Person being Part thereof, or any Persons or Person so remaining on Board the said Ship, shall, on Conviction thereof, be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony without Benefit of Clergy. Persons communicating with such Crew, or assisting them, to be guilty of Felony without Clergy.

IV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Date of such Publication as aforesaid, all Wages and other Allowances payable to the said Crew, or any of them, shall cease and determine, and be no longer payable, and they shall respectively from thenceforth forfeit and lose all Wages and other Allowances, and all Shares of Prizes then due to them respectively, and all Benefits or Advantages to which they might otherwise be entitled from Greenwich Hospital or the Chest at Chatham, and all other Benefits and Advantages whatsoever, to which they might be otherwise entitled in consequence of their having served as Seamen or Marines on Board any of his Majesty's Ships; and that all Persons voluntarily remaining on Board any of the said Ships, after having had Knowledge of such Declaration, shall be adjudged guilty of Piracy and Felony, and shall suffer such Pains of Death and Loss of Lands, Goods, and Chattels, as any Pirates or Felons by virtue of an Act, made in the eleventh Year of King William the Third, intituled, An Act for the more effectual Suppression of Piracy, or any other Act, ought to suffer. From such Publication the Crew shall forfeit all Wages, Allowances, Prize Money, &c.; and all Persons voluntarily remaining on Board after Knowledge of such Declaration to be adjudged guilty of Piracy and Felony, as under Stat. 11 and 12 W. 3. c. 7.

V. Provided always, That nothing in this Act shall be construed to extend to such Communication or Intercourse as may be carried on with the said Crews, or any Persons remaining on Board the said Ships as aforesaid, by the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or any three or more of them, or by their Order or Authority, or by the Order or Authority of such Persons or Person as may be authorized by them to grant Permission or to give Directions in that Behalf. Act not to extend to Communications with the Admiralty.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or any three or more of them, in such Manner The Admiralty, as authorized by his Majesty,

ner as his Majesty shall authorize and require, to accept the Submission of the Crew of any Ship which shall have been so declared to be in a State of Mutiny and Rebellion, or of any Person or Persons, Part of such Crew, or of any Person or Persons on Board of any such Ships, or to declare any such Person or Persons to have returned to their Duty, and thereupon to declare the Persons or Person whose Submission shall be so accepted, or who shall be so declared to have returned to their Duty, to be exempted and relieved from all or any of the Penalties and Forfeitures in this Act contained, in such Manner, and under such Terms and Restrictions as his Majesty shall think fit; and from and after such Declaration, nothing in this Act contained shall extend to prevent any such Intercourse or Communication as aforesaid, with any Persons or Person to whom such Declaration shall apply.

Where Offences may be prosecuted.

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Offence committed against this Act, whether committed on the High Seas or within that Part of Great Britain called England, shall and may be prosecuted and tried before any Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery for any County in that Part of Great Britain called England, in such Manner and Form as if the said Offence had been therein committed.

Persons tried for Offences against this Act, not to be tried again for the same, as High Treason or Misprision of High Treason, &c.

VIII. Provided always, and it is hereby declared and enacted, That any Person who shall be tried and acquitted, or convicted of any Offence against this Act, shall not be liable to be indicted, prosecuted, or tried again for the same Offence or Fact, as High Treason, or Misprision of High Treason; and that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to prevent any Persons guilty of any Offence against this Act, and who shall not be tried for the same as an Offence against this Act, from being tried for the same as High Treason, or Misprision of High Treason, in such Manner as if this Act had not been made.

Continuance of Act.

IX. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be in Force until the Expiration of one Month after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament, and no longer.

Act may be altered during the present Session.

X. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful to amend or alter this Act, or any Part thereof, during the present Session of Parliament.

CAP. LXXII.

An Act for prohibiting the Importation of Cambrics and French Lawns into this Kingdom, not being of the Manufacture of Ireland, except for the Purpose of being warehoused for Exportation.—[6th June 1797.]

27 Geo. 3. c. 13. § 22. and

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for repealing the several Duties of Customs and Excise, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof, and for applying the said Duties, together with the other Duties composing the Public Revenue; for permitting the Importation of certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, the Produce or Manufacture of the European Dominions of the French King, into this Kingdom; and for applying certain unclaimed Monies, remaining in the Exchequer for the Payment of Annuities on Lives, to the Reduction of the National Debt; among other Things the Importation of Cambrics and Lawns was allowed directly from France, or any of the European Dominions of the French King, under certain Regulations and Restrictions, and on Payment of certain Duties, as set forth and described in Table C. annexed to the said recited Act: And whereas among other Things it is enacted by the said recited Act, that all Cambrics or French Lawns, legally imported, shall and may be worn, used, or consumed in Great Britain, or sold or exposed to Sale therein, and shall not be subject to Seizure or Forfeiture on account of such Importation, nor shall the Person or Persons who shall import, wear, use, or consume the same, or who shall sell or expose to Sale the same, or have the same in his, her, or their Custody or Possession, be liable to any Penalty or Penalties, Fine or Fines whatever, for wearing, using, consuming, selling, or exposing to Sale the same: And whereas the Importation of Cambrics and French Lawns was allowed by the said recited Act, and the Duty was charged, and such Cambrics and French Lawns were permitted to be worn, used, and consumed, and to be sold or exposed to Sale, in consequence of a Treaty of Navigation and Commerce concluded between his Britannic Majesty and the French King, the Operation of which Treaty is now at an End; and it is therefore expedient that so much of the said recited Act as permits the Importation of Cambrics and French Lawns, on Payment of Duty, to be worn, used, or consumed, and to be sold, or exposed to Sale in this Kingdom, should be repealed; and it is also expedient, that so much of an Act, passed in the thirty-

34 Geo. 3. c. 50. § 3. recited.

fourth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for repealing so much of an Act passed in the seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, as directs, that no Cambric or Lawn shall be imported from Ireland until the Importation of Cambrics and French Lawns into Ireland shall be prohibited by Law; to allow the Importation of Cambrics and French Lawns from the Austrian Netherlands for a limited Time; for making more effectual an Act, made in the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, for the more effectual Prevention of Smuggling in this Kingdom; and for preventing the fraudulent relanding of Tobacco shipped for Exportation, as permits or allows any Cambrics or French Lawns which shall have been imported and warehoused for Exportation, to be delivered from the Warehouse or Warehouses in which the same shall have been deposited, on Payment of such Duty for the same as Cambrics and French Lawns are by the said recited Act made subject and liable to, should in like Manner be repealed; and that no Cambric or Lawn whatever, other than of the Manufacture of Ireland, should, during the Continuance of

'this Act, be permitted to be imported, except to be warehoused in this Kingdom for Exportation there-'from, according to the Laws now in Force:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act or Acts of Parliament, as permits or allows the Importation of Cambrics or French Lawns, other than to be lodged in a Warehouse according to Law, in order to be again exported from thence, or the taking of any such Cambrics and Lawns out of any Warehouse or Warehouses on Payment of Duty, to be worn, used, and consumed, or to be sold or exposed to Sale in this Kingdom, shall be, and the same is and are hereby repealed; and that all Penalties and Forfeitures relating to the Importation, wearing, using, and consuming such Cambrics and Lawns, and to the selling or exposing the same to Sale in this Kingdom, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be in full Force, in like Manner as if the said recited Acts, allowing such Cambrics and Lawns to be imported, and to be used, worn, and consumed, and to be sold or exposed to Sale in this Kingdom, had not been made: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prohibit or prevent the Importation into this Kingdom of Cambrics or Lawns of the Manufacture of Ireland.

So much of recited or any other Acts, as permits the Importation of Cambrics or French Lawns, except for Exportation, or the taking them out of Warehouses for Home Consumption, repealed. Act not to prevent the Importation of Irish Cambrics or Lawns.

II. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Cambrics and Lawns of the Manufacture of Ireland, which, from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, shall be imported or brought into this Kingdom, shall, after the same have been entered at the Custom House, and before the same shall be discharged by the Officers, and delivered into the Custody of the Importer or his Agent, be marked, stamped, or sealed in such Manner, and with such Mark or Stamp, or Seal, and by such Officer or Officers, as the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England, or any four or more of them, for the Time being, or the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in Scotland, or any three or more of them, for the Time being, shall respectively direct or appoint for that Purpose.

From June 1, 1797, Irish Cambrics and Lawns, after Entry at the Custom House, to be marked by the Officer.

III. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons, having in his, her, or their Custody or Possession, in any Part of this Kingdom for Sale, any such Cambrics or Lawns so directed to be marked, stamped, or sealed as aforesaid, or any other Cambrics or French Lawns, shall, on or before the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, bring or cause such Cambrics or Lawns to be brought to the Custom House for the Port nearest to the Place where such Cambrics and Lawns shall be, and shall make Proof on Oath before the Collector and Comptroller, or other principal Officer of the Customs at such Port (which Oath such Collector and Comptroller, or other principal Officer, is and are hereby required to administer without Fee or Reward) that the said Cambrics and Lawns were lawfully imported, and for such as are liable to the Payment of Duties, that the legal Duties due and payable to his Majesty were paid upon the Importation of such Cambrics and Lawns, if the same were imported by him, her, or them, or that such Cambrics or Lawns was or were purchased by such Person or Persons (having Possession thereof) in a legal fair Way of Trade, and that he, she, or they verily believe the legal Duties due and payable to his Majesty have been duly paid for the same, mentioning the Time when and the Port where such Cambrics and Lawns were imported, or the Time when and of whom such Cambrics and Lawns were purchased, (as the Case may be,) and such Cambrics and Lawns shall be thereupon, without Fee or Reward, marked, stamped, or sealed, in such Manner, and with such Mark, Stamp, or Seal, and by such Officer or Officers, as the said Commissioners of the Customs in England and Scotland respectively shall direct and appoint for that Purpose.

Persons having Cambrics and Lawns for Sale, may till Aug. 1, 1797, have them so marked at the Custom House, on Proof of their having been legally imported, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, in case any Cambrics, or Irish or French Lawns, shall be found in any Shop, Warehouse, or other Place whatsoever upon Land, within this Kingdom, not being in a Warehouse wherein the same shall have been deposited according to Law in order to be again exported, and shall not be marked, stamped, or sealed as herein is directed, the same shall be forfeited and lost, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs, and shall and may be prosecuted, recovered, and disposed of in the same Manner, and by the same Rules and Regulations as Cambrics and French Lawns clandestinely imported and run into this Kingdom may be prosecuted, recovered, and disposed of by any Law now in Force: Provided always, that if it shall be found impracticable or inconvenient in any Case to bring such Cambrics or Lawns to the Custom House to be marked, stamped, or sealed as herein directed, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England and Scotland respectively, to authorize and direct their Officers to mark, stamp, or seal such Goods in such other Place or Places as they shall think fit, on all the Regulations and Restrictions of this Act being fully complied with.

After Aug. 1, 1797, any Cambrics or Lawns found, except in a legal Warehouse for Exportation, and not marked, to be forfeited.

Commissioners of Customs may direct Lawns to be marked in any Place.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall at any Time forge or counterfeit any Mark, Stamp, or Seal, to resemble any Mark, Stamp, or Seal which shall be provided or used in pursuance of this Act, or shall forge or counterfeit the Impression of any such Mark, Stamp, or Seal upon any Goods required by this Act to be marked, stamped, or sealed, or shall sell, or expose to Sale, or have in his, her, or their Custody or Possession, any such Cambrics or Lawns with a counterfeit Mark, Stamp, or Seal thereon, knowing the same to be counterfeited, all and every such Offender and Offenders, and his, her, and their Aiders, Abettors, and Assistants, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, one Moiety to his Majesty, and the other Moiety to such Officer or Officers of the Customs as shall sue and prosecute for the same, and such Offender and Offenders shall also be adjudged to suffer one Year's Imprisonment.

Penalty for counterfeiting Marks, &c. 100l. and one Year's Imprisonment.

VI. And

Cambries and French Lawns seized, to be sold for Exportation only.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Cambrics and French Lawns which have been or shall be seized and condemned, shall be sold and disposed of for Exportation only, under and subject to the several and respective Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures by the Laws in Force on and immediately before the passing of the said recited Act in the twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty.

Commissioners of Customs may cause Lawns, seized at other Ports, to be sold in London.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, to cause all Cambrics and Lawns which have been or may hereafter be seized and condemned at any other Port than the Port of London, to be brought to and publicly sold in the said Port of London.

No Cambrics or French Lawns to be exported but from London, and in Vessels of 100 Tons or upwards.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Cambrics or French Lawns, whether the same shall have been imported and warehoused for Exportation, or shall have been seized and condemned for any Cause of Forfeiture, shall be exported from, or entered for Exportation at any other Port than the Port of London, or in any Ship or Vessel which shall not be of the Burden of one hundred Tons or upwards.

Recovery and Application of Fines.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures imposed by this Act, shall and may be sued for, levied, and recovered by such Ways, Means, or Methods as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture is or may be recovered by any Law or Laws of Customs, or by any Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland; and that one Moiety of every such Fine, Penalty, and Forfeiture shall be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them who shall inform, sue for, or discover the same.

Limitation of Actions.

X. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall at any Time or Times be sued or prosecuted for any Thing by him or them done or executed in pursuance of or by Colour of this Act, or of any Matter or Thing in this Act contained, such Action or Prosecution shall be commenced within the Space of three Months after the Offence shall be committed; and such Person or Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence for his and their Defence, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the Authority of this Act; and if it shall appear so to have been done, then the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and if the Plaintiff shall be nonsuited, or discontinue his Action after the Defendant or Defendants have appeared, or if Judgment shall be given upon any Verdict or Demurrer against the Plaintiff, the Defendant or Defendants shall and may recover Treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same as the Defendant or Defendants hath or have in other Cases by Law.

General Issue.

Treble Costs.

Act not to extend to Cambrics or French Lawns imported and warehoused by Licence of the Customs, before Sept. 1, 1797.

XI. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to hinder or prevent, or be construed to extend to hinder or prevent, the Entry for Home Consumption of any Cambrics or French Lawns which have been imported and warehoused, or may be imported by Licence from the Commissioners of the Customs to be warehoused, on or before the said first Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and such Cambrics and French Lawns shall be subject and liable to all the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures of this Act.

No such Licence to be granted but on Proof that the Cambrics and French Lawns were ordered before May 1, 1797.

XII. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby declared, That no Cambrics or French Lawns which shall be imported (under Licence) after the passing of this Act shall be admitted to Entry for Home Consumption, unless Proof be first made, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Customs, that the Importer or Proprietor of such Cambrics and French Lawns was actually and bonâ fide under Contract for such Cambrics and French Lawns, or had given Orders and Directions for the Supply thereof before the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven.

Continuance of Act.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall continue and be in Force until thirty Days after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament, and no longer.

CAP. LXXIII.

An Act for preventing the Desertion of Seamen from British Merchant Ships trading to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in the West Indies.—[6th June 1797.]

'WHEREAS Seamen and Mariners, after entering into Articles to serve on Board British Merchant Ships, during the Voyages from Great Britain to his Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in the West Indies, and back to Great Britain, do frequently desert from such Ships on their Arrival at or in such Colonies and Plantations, on account of the exorbitant Wages given by Masters and Commanders of other British Merchant Ships, by the Run or Gross, to Seamen and Mariners, when in such Colonies or Plantations, to induce them to enter on Board their Ships: And whereas such Seamen and Mariners, upon entering into Articles for such Voyages from Great Britain, usually receive large Sums of Money in Advance, for the Purpose of their Outfit; and Monthly Allowances are frequently paid to their Families, towards their Support and Maintenance, during the Absence of such Seamen and Mariners: And whereas

'whereas such Desertions have been the Means of depriving many Merchant Ships of a sufficient Number 'of Seamen and Mariners to navigate them back to Great Britain, and thereby occasioned great Losses to 'the Merchants trading to the said Colonies and Plantations: For Remedy whereof, may it please your 'Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, all and every Seaman, Mariner, and other Person who shall desert, at any Time during the Voyage, either out or home, from any British Merchant Ship trading to or from the said Colonies or Plantations, shall, over and above all Punishments, Penalties, and Forfeitures, to which he is now by Law subject, forfeit all the Wages he may have agreed for with, or be entitled to during the Voyage from the Master or Owner of the Ship on Board of which he shall enter, immediately after such Desertion.

From July 1, 1797, Seamen deserting from Merchant Ships, to or from the West Indies, to forfeit their Wages, on board the Ship entered into after such Desertion.

II. And be it further enacted, That all and every Master or Commander of any British Merchant Ship who shall, from and after the said first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, hire, or engage to serve on Board his Ship or Vessel any Seaman, Mariner, or other Person who shall, to the Knowledge of such Master, have deserted from any other Ship or Vessel, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of one hundred Pounds, to be recovered, levied, and applied, as hereinafter directed.

Masters hiring Seamen who have deserted from any other Ship, to forfeit 100l.

III. And be it further enacted, That no Master or Commander of any Merchant Ship or Vessel which shall, from and after the first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, sail or proceed from any Port or Place in Great Britain, shall hire or engage, or cause or procure to be hired or engaged, any Seaman, Mariner, or other Person, at any Port or Place within his Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in the West Indies, to serve on Board any such Merchant Ship or Vessel at or for greater or more Wages or Hire for such Service than according to the Rate of Double Monthly Wages, contracted for with the Seamen, Mariners, and other Persons, hired or engaged to serve on Board such Ship or Vessel at the Time of her then last Departure from Great Britain, being in the same Degree and Station in which such Seaman, Mariner, or other Person, shall be so hired or engaged at any such Port or Place as aforesaid; unless the Governor, Chief Magistrate, Collector, or Comptroller of such Port or Place in the said Colonies or Plantations shall think that greater or more Wages or Hire than Double the Monthly Wages aforesaid should or ought to be given to such Seaman, Mariner, or other Person as aforesaid, and do and shall accordingly authorize or direct the same to be given by Writing under his Hand; that then and in such Case the Master or Commander of such Ship or Vessel shall and may be at Liberty to pay, and the Seaman, Mariner, or other Person on Board such Ship or Vessel to receive, such greater or higher Wages as such Governor, Chief Magistrate, Collector, or Comptroller, shall direct, as aforesaid; and that all Contracts, Bonds, Bills, Notes, and other Securities, Promises, and Undertakings, which shall be made, entered into, or given, contrary to the Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall be null and void to all Intents and Purposes; and that the Master or Commander of any such Merchant Ship or Vessel, or other Person or Persons whomsoever, who shall make, enter into, or give, or cause or procure to be made, entered into, or given, any such Contract, Bond, Bill, Note, or other Security, Promise, or Undertaking, or who shall hire or engage, or cause or procure to be hired or engaged, any Seaman, Mariner, or other Person, to enter on Board any Ship or Vessel contrary to the Intent and Meaning of this Act, or who shall pay, or cause or procure to be paid or given, any greater or more Hire or Wages, or other Gratuity or Advantage whatsoever, to or for any Seaman, Mariner, or other Person so hired or engaged at any such Port or Place within his Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in the West Indies as aforesaid, than is allowed or directed by this Act, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of one hundred Pounds; to be recovered, levied, and applied, in the Manner hereinafter directed.

No Master sailing from Great Britain after July 1, 1797, shall hire Seamen in the West Indies at more than Double Wages, unless authorized by the Governor, &c.

Contracts contrary to this Act void, and Persons entering into them, &c. to forfeit 100l.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all and every Master and Masters of any Merchant Ship or Merchant Ships trading to his Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in the West Indies, shall have on Board his or their Ship or Ships at the Time of such Ship or Ships clearing out from Great Britain, one Apprentice, who shall be under the Age of seventeen Years, duly indented for three Years, for every one hundred Tons Admeasurement of such Ship or Ships, and so in proportion for every one hundred Tons which such Ship or Ships shall admeasure, according to the Certificate of Registry, and the Indenture or Indentures of every such Apprentice shall be duly enrolled at the Custom House of the Port from whence any such Ship shall clear out, with the Collector or Comptroller, within one Month after the Date or Execution thereof; which said Apprentice and Apprentices shall be, and is and are hereby exempt from serving in his Majesty's Navy for the Space of three Years from the Date of such Indenture or Indentures; and all and every Owner or Owners, or Master and Masters neglecting to enroll the same as aforesaid, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds, to be paid in Manner following; (that is to say,) one Moiety by the Owner or Owners of such Ship or Ships, and the other Moiety by the Master or Masters thereof, to be levied, recovered, and applied, in Manner hereinafter mentioned.

Every Ship trading to the West Indies to have one Apprentice under 17 Years old, for every 100 Tons Burthen, &c.

Apprentices exempt from serving in the Navy for three Years.

Penalty of 10l. for not enrolling them.

V. And be it further enacted, That all and every Master and Masters of such Ship or Ships shall, within ten Days after their Arrival out at any Port or Ports in the said Colonies or Plantations, and also within ten Days after their Arrival home at any Port or Ports in Great Britain, deliver, upon Oath, to be made before the Collector or Comptroller of such Port or Ports respectively, (who is hereby authorized to administer the same,) a true and exact List and Description of all and every the Crew on Board such Ship or Ships at the Time of their clearing out from any Port or Ports in Great Britain, and also of the Crew on Board the same at the Time of their Arrival in any Port or Ports in the said Colonies or Plantations, and also a true and exact List and Description of all and every Seaman, Mariner, or other Person who has or have deserted from from ſuch Ship or Ships, or who has or have died during the Voyage; and alſo a true Account of the Wages due to each Seaman, Mariner, or other Perſon ſo dying, at the Time of his Death; and all and every Maſter and Maſters omitting, neglecting, or refuſing ſo to do, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds; and for which ſaid Liſt and Account ſo delivered, ſuch Collector or Comptroller ſhall be entitled to demand and receive, from the Perſon ſo delivering the ſame, the Fee of two Shillings and Sixpence, and no more; and it ſhall and may be lawful to and for all and every Maſter and Maſters of any Ship or Ships, or other Perſon or Perſons, to inſpect ſuch Liſt and Liſts, from Time to Time, as he or they may think proper; for which Inſpection the ſaid Collector or Comptroller ſhall be entitled to demand and receive from the Perſon making the ſame, the Sum of one Shilling, and no more.

Collector, &c. entitled to 2s. 6d. on Delivery of Liſts, which may be inſpected on Payment of 1s.

VI And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Seaman, Mariner, or other Perſon, who ſhall, at any Port or Place within his Majeſty's Colonies or Plantations in the Weſt Indies, hire or engage himſelf to ſerve, or who ſhall in the ſaid Colonies or Plantations enter on Board any Merchant Ship or Veſſel which ſhall ſail from Great Britain after the firſt Day of July one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, ſhall be entitled to, nor ſhall he ſue for, recover, or receive, any greater or more Wages or Hire, or other Gratuity or Advantage whatſoever, on account of or for ſuch his Service, than ſuch Wages or Hire as hereinbefore authorized or directed to be paid or received.

No Seaman entering on Board any Veſſel in the Weſt Indies which ſailed from England after July 1, 1797, to be entitled to greater Wages than herein authorized.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Sum and Sums of Money which ſhall be due for Wages to any Seaman, Mariner, or other Perſon hired or engaged on Board any Britiſh Merchant Ship for any Voyage from any Port or Ports in Great Britain to any Port or Ports in the ſaid Colonies or Plantations, and who has or have died on Board during the Voyage, ſhall, within three Calendar Months after the Arrival of ſuch Merchant Ship in any Port or Ports in Great Britain, be paid to the Receiver of the Sixpenny Duty for Greenwich Hoſpital for the Time being, to the Uſe of the Executor or Executors, Adminiſtrator or Adminiſtrators, of the Seamen, Mariner, or other Perſon ſo dying; and if any Maſter of any ſuch Merchant Ship ſhall neglect or refuſe to pay over, or tender to the ſaid Receiver, all and every ſuch Sum and Sums of Money within the Time hereinbefore limited, he ſhall forfeit and pay, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of fifty Pounds, and alſo Double the Amount of the Sum or Sums of Money ſo due to any Seaman, Mariner, or other Perſon, for Wages, as aforeſaid.

Wages of dead Men to be paid to the Receiver of the 6d. Duty for Greenwich Hoſpital, on Penalty of 50l. and Double the Wages.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all and every ſuch Sum and Sums of Money which ſhall not be lawfully demanded of the ſaid Receiver within the Term of three Years after Payment thereof to him in Manner aforeſaid, ſhall be forfeited, and ſhall go and be paid to the Uſe of the Seamen's Hoſpital of the Port to which ſuch Ship belongs; but in caſe there ſhall be no Seamen's Hoſpital at the Port to which ſuch Ship belongs, then to and for the Uſe and Benefit of the old and diſabled Seamen of the ſame Port, and their Families, to be diſtributed at the Diſcretion of the Magiſtrates for the County where ſuch Port ſhall be ſituate, or any two or more of them.

Diſpoſition of ſuch Wages if not demanded of the Receiver in three Years.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Penalties and Forfeitures given by this Act ſhall be paid and applied in Manner following; that is to ſay, one third Part thereof for and towards the Support of Greenwich Hoſpital; one other third Part thereof for and towards the Support of the Seamen's Hoſpital at the Port to which the Ship or Veſſel in reſpect of which the Forfeiture ſhall ariſe belongs; but in caſe there ſhall be no Seamen's Hoſpital at the Port to which ſuch Ship or Veſſel belongs, then to and for the Uſe and Benefit of the old and diſabled Seamen of the ſame Port and their Families, to be diſtributed at the Diſcretion of the Perſons having the Direction of the Merchants Seamen's Fund at ſuch Port, or in caſe there ſhall be no ſuch Eſtabliſhment there, by the Magiſtrates or Overſeer of the Poor of ſuch Port; and the other third Part thereof to and for the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall inform and ſue for the ſame; and that ſuch Penalty ſhall be recovered by Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter; or ſuch of them as do not exceed the Sum of twenty Pounds, upon Information, on the Oath of one or more Witneſſes, before any one or more of his Majeſty's Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace in any Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain, who ſhall not reſide more than ten Miles from the Place of Abode of the Perſon or Perſons complained of, which Juſtice and Juſtices is and are hereby authorized and required to iſſue out his or their Warrant or Warrants, to bring before him or them every Perſon charged with any Offence under this Act; and in caſe he or they ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay ſuch Penalties or Forfeitures as aforeſaid, to iſſue his or their Warrant or Warrants to levy the ſame by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Offenders Goods, and in caſe no Diſtreſs can be found, to commit the Offender or Offenders to the Common Gaol of the City, Town, or Place within the Juriſdiction of ſuch reſpective Juſtice or Juſtices, there to remain for the Space of three Calendar Months, or until he or they ſhall pay the ſame.

Diſpoſition of Penalties.

Recovery of Penalties.

X. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to any Contract or Agreement which ſhall or may be made with any Seaman, Mariner, or other Perſon hired or engaged to ſerve on Board any Merchant Ship or Veſſel, at any Port or Place within his Majeſty's Colonies or Plantations in the Weſt Indies, who ſhall, at the Time of ſuch Hiring or Engagement, produce and deliver to the Maſter and Commander of ſuch Merchant Ship or Veſſel a Certificate, under the Hand of the Maſter or Commander of the Ship or Veſſel on Board of which ſuch Seaman, Mariner, or other Perſon had then laſt ſerved, ſigned in the Preſence of one or more Witneſs or Witneſſes, ſtating their uſual Place or Places of Abode, thereby declaring or certifying that ſuch Seaman, Mariner, or other Perſon, had been duly diſcharged from the Ship or Veſſel on Board of which he had ſo laſt ſerved; and which Certificate the ſaid Maſter or Commander ſhall grant within three Days next after Application made to him by ſuch Act not to extend to Seamen producing Certificates of Diſcharge.

Maſters to grant ſuch Certificates on Penalty of 20l.

ſuch Seaman, Mariner, or other Perſon, before a Witneſs, or in Default thereof ſhall forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Pounds, to be levied, recovered, and applied, in Manner hereinbefore directed; nor to any Contract or Agreement to be made with any Seaman, Mariner, or other Perſon hired or engaged to ſerve on Board any Merchant Ship or Veſſel, which through Neceſſity, or on account of very hazardous Service or extraordinary Duty, require ſuch Contract or Agreement to be made, and more Wages or Hire given, and of which Neceſſity, Service, or extraordinary Duty, Proof ſhall be made on Oath before the Chief Magiſtrate or Principal Officer of any Port or Place, or before any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace of the ſaid Colonies or Plantations; and provided alſo that ſuch Seaman, Mariner, or other Perſon ſo hired or engaged to ſerve on Board any Ship or Veſſel, ſo requiring ſuch Service, ſhall not have deſerted from the Ship or Veſſel on Board of which he had then laſt ſerved; and provided alſo, that no greater or higher Wages or Hire ſhall be given by any Maſter or Commander, or taken or received by any Seaman, Mariner, or other Perſon as aforeſaid, except in Caſes of ſuch Neceſſity, very hazardous Service, or extraordinary Duty, as aforeſaid, than after the Rate of Double the Monthly Wages, or the Wages to be ſettled or directed by any Governor, Chief Magiſtrate, Collector, or Comptroller, as hereinbefore directed to be paid or received as aforeſaid.

Act not to extend to Seamen hired through Neceſſity, &c. of which due Proof ſhall be made.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of July one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, the Articles to be entered into by and between the Maſters, Seamen, and Mariners of ſuch Merchant Ship or Ships, ſhall be agreeable and to the Purport and Effect as mentioned in the Schedule hereto annexed, marked with the Letter A.

Articles to be entered into agreeable to annexed Schedule.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act; and all Judges and Juſtices are hereby required to take Notice of it as ſuch, without ſpecially pleading the ſame.

Public Act.

A.

Ship. IT is hereby agreed between the Maſter, Seamen, and Mariners of the Ship now bound for the Port of and the Maſter or Commander of the ſaid Ship, That in Conſideration of the Monthly or other Wages againſt each reſpective Seaman or Mariner's Name hereunto ſet, they ſeverally ſhall and will perform the abovementioned Voyage; and the ſaid Maſter doth hereby agree with and hire the ſaid Seamen and Mariners for the ſaid Voyage at ſuch Monthly Wages, to be paid purſuant to the Laws of Great Britain; and they the ſaid Seamen and Mariners do hereby promiſe and oblige themſelves to do their Duty, and obey the lawful Commands of their Officers on Board the ſaid Ship or Boats thereunto belonging, as become good and faithful Seamen and Mariners; and at all Places where the ſaid Ship ſhall put in or anchor during the ſaid Ship's Voyage, to do their beſt Endeavours for the Preſervation of the ſaid Ship and Cargo, and not to neglect or refuſe doing their Duty by Day or Night; nor ſhall go out of the ſaid Ship on Board any other Veſſel, or be on Shore under any Pretence whatſoever, till the Voyage is ended and the Ship diſcharged of her Cargo, without Leave firſt obtained of the Maſter, Captain, or Commanding Officer on Board; and in Default thereof they freely agree to be liable to the Penalties mentioned in the Act of Parliament made in the ſecond Year of the Reign of King George the Second *, intituled, An Act for the better Regulation and Government of Seamen in the Merchants Service; and the Act, made in the thirty-ſeventh Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for preventing the Deſertion of Seamen from Britiſh Merchant Ships trading to his Majeſty's Colonies and Plantations in the Weſt Indies: And it is further agreed by the Parties to theſe Preſents, That twenty-four Hours Abſence without Leave ſhall be deemed a total Deſertion, and render ſuch Seamen and Mariners liable to the Forfeitures and Penalties contained in the Acts above recited; that each and every lawful Command which the ſaid Maſter ſhall think neceſſary to iſſue for the effectual Government of the ſaid Veſſel, ſuppreſſing Immorality and Vice of all Kinds, be ſtrictly complied with under the Penalty of the Perſon or Perſons diſobeying, forfeiting his or their whole Wages or Hire, together with every Thing belonging to him or them on Board the ſaid Veſſel: And it is further agreed, That no Officer or Seaman, or Perſon belonging to the ſaid Ship, ſhall demand or be entitled to his Wages, or any Part thereof, until the Arrival of the ſaid Ship at the above-mentioned Port of Diſcharge, and her Cargo delivered, nor leſs than twenty Days in caſe the Seaman is not employed in the Delivery: And it is hereby further agreed between the Maſter and Officers of the ſaid Ship, That whatever Apparel, Furniture, and Stores, each of them may receive into their Charge, belonging to the ſaid Ship, ſhall be accounted for on her Return; and in caſe any Thing ſhall be loſt or damaged through their Careleſsneſs or Inſufficiency, it ſhall be made good by ſuch Officer or Seaman by whoſe Means it may happen to the Maſter and Owner of the ſaid Ship: And whereas it is cuſtomary for the Officers and Seamen on the Ship's Return home in the River, and during the Time their Cargoes are delivering, to go on Shore each Night to ſleep, greatly to the Prejudice of ſuch Ship and Freighters; be it further agreed by the ſaid Parties, That neither Officer nor Seaman ſhall, on any Pretence whatſoever, be entitled to ſuch Indulgence, but ſhall do their Duty by Day in Diſcharge of the Cargo, and keep ſuch Watch by Night as the Maſter or Commander of the ſaid Ship ſhall think neceſſary, in order for the Preſervation of the above: And whereas it often happens that Part of the Cargo is embezzled after being delivered into Lighters, and as ſuch Loſſes are made good by the Owners of the Ships; be it therefore agreed by theſe

* Cap. 36.

Presents, That whatever Officer or Seaman the Master shall think proper to appoint, shall take Charge of the Cargo in the Lighters, and go with the same to the lawful Quay, and there deliver his Charge to the Ship's Husband, or his Representative, or see the same safely weighed at the King's Beam, and in consequence of their true Fidelity, such Officer or Seaman shall be entitled to two Shillings and Sixpence each Lighter, exclusive of their Monthly Pay; and should it so happen that Lighters are detained a considerable Time at the Quay before they can be unloaded, such Officer and Seaman so appointed shall in that Case be entitled to two Shilling and Sixpence for every twenty-four Hours, exclusive of their said Monthly Pay; that each Seaman and Mariner who shall well and truly perform the above-mentioned Voyage (provided always that there be no Plunderage, Embezzlement, or other unlawful Acts committed on the said Vessel's Cargo or Stores) shall be entitled to their Wages or Hire that may become due to him, pursuant to this Agreement; that for the due Performance of each and every the above mentioned Articles and Agreements, and Acknowledgement of their being voluntary and without Compulsion, or any other clandestine Means being used, the said Parties have hereto subscribed their Names, the Day and Month set opposite to their respective Names.

An Act to repeal so much of an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, as prohibits the Exportation and permits the Importation, Duty free, of several Sorts of Corn, and other Articles made thereof.—[19th June 1797.]

37 Geo. 3. c. 7. recited,

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to continue for a limited Time, and amend an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, 'An Act to prohibit 'the Exportation of Corn, Meal, Flour, and Potatoes, and to permit the Importation of Corn, and other Articles 'of Provision, for a limited Time, in any Ships whatever, without Payment of Duty;' and for permitting 'Wheat, Wheat Flour, and Meal, imported, in order to obtain the Bounties granted by an Act of the last Session of Parliament, but which have not been found fit for making Bread, to be used in the Manufacture of 'Starch, Hair Powder, and Blue, or in the Distillation of Low Wines and Spirits:' And whereas, since the 'passing of the said Act, the Prices of several of the Sorts of Corn therein mentioned have been considerably 'diminished:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the sixteenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, so much of the said Act as relates to the Importation and Exportation, and the carrying Coastwise, of Barley, Beer, or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, or any Meal, Flour, Bread, Biscuit, or Malt, made thereof, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed.

and so much thereof as relates to Importation, Exportation, and carrying Coastwise, of Barley, &c. repealed.

No such Articles entered for Exportation before Feb. 5, 1798, entitled to Bounty.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Articles mentioned in this Act, which shall be entered for Exportation before the fifth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, shall be entitled to any Bounty upon the Exportation thereof; any Act, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

CAP. LXXXIV.

An Act to permit Goods, the Product or Manufacture of certain Places within the Levant or Mediterranean Seas, to be imported into Great Britain, in British or Foreign Vessels, from any Place whatsoever, for a limited Time.—[19th June 1797.]

12 Car. 2. c. 18.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the 'Second, intituled, An Act for the encouraging and increasing of Shipping and Navigation, all Goods 'or Commodities of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of Africa, Asia, or America, or any Part 'thereof, are to be imported and brought into the Kingdom of England, Ireland, or Wales, the Islands of Guernsey and Jersey, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, in English built Shipping, or other Shipping be-'longing to some of the aforesaid Places, whereof the Master and Three-fourths of the Mariners at least are 'English, and are not to be shipped and brought from any other Place or Places, Country or Countries, but 'only from those of the said Growth, Production, or Manufacture, or from those Ports where the said Goods 'and Commodities can only, or are or usually have been first shipped for Transportation, and from none 'other Places or Countries, under the Penalty and Forfeiture of the Ship and Goods, excepting in some 'particular Cases provided by the said Act: And whereas, by the said in part recited Act, it is also enacted,

'that no Goods or Commodities of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of Muscovy, or of any of the 'Countries, Dominions, or Territories to the Great Duke or Emperor of Muscovy or Russia belonging, as 'also that no Sorts of Masts, Timber, or Boards, no Foreign Salt, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Hemp, or Flax, 'Raisins, Figs, Prunes, Olive Oil, no Sort of Corn or Grain, Sugar, Pot Ashes, Wines, Vinegar, or 'Spirits called Aqua Vitæ, or Brandy Wine, shall be imported into England, Ireland, Wales, or Town of 'Berwick upon Tweed, in any Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels, but in such as do truly and without Fraud 'belong to the People thereof, or some of them, as the true Owners and Proprietors thereof, and whereof 'the Master and Three-fourths of the Mariners at least are English; and that no Currants or Com-'modities of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture of any of the Countries, Islands, Dominions, or Ter-'ritories to the Ottoman or Turkish Empire belonging, shall be imported into any of the fore-mentioned 'Places in any Ship or Vessel but which is of English Built, and navigated as aforesaid, and in no other, ex-'cept only such Foreign Ships and Vessels as are of the Built of that Country or Place of which the said 'Goods are the Growth, Production, or Manufacture respectively, or of such Port where the said Goods 'can only be, or most usually are first shipped for Transportation, and whereof the Master and Three-fourths 'of the Mariners at least are of the said Country or Place, under the Penalty and Forfeiture of Ship and 'Goods: And whereas several of the Articles in the said Act, and hereinbefore particularly enumerated, 'being the Growth or Production of some of the Places or Countries within the Levant or Mediterranean 'Seas, cannot be now imported directly from thence in British Vessels, without great Hazard of Capture by 'the Enemies, and much Expence of Insurance to the Merchants trading to this Kingdom; and it has been 'found necessary, during the Continuance of Hostilities between this Kingdom and any of the Powers with 'which this Kingdom is at present at War, by temporary Laws which are now in Force, to suspend in some 'Degree the strict Regulations prescribed by the said recited Act; and it is further expedient, for the En-'couragement of Trade and the Increase of the Public Revenue, to permit, for a limited Time under certain 'Restrictions, various Articles of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of Turkey or Egypt, and other 'Goods and Commodities which are enumerated in the before-recited Act, which are of the Growth, 'Product, or Manufacture of Places or Countries within the Streights or Levant Seas, to be imported into 'this Kingdom in Foreign Vessels, although such Goods are not shipped and brought directly from the 'Place or Country of their Growth, Production, or Manufacture, or from the Ports or Places from whence 'such Goods are or usually have been first shipped for Transportation:' May it therefore please your Ma-jesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Ad-vice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons admitted into and made free of the Company of Merchants of England, trading into the Levant Seas, commonly called or known by the Name of The Turkey Company, to import into Great Britain any Goods or Commodities which have heretofore usually been imported from Turkey or Egypt, or from any Place within the Dominions of the Grand Seignior within the Levant Seas, in any Ship or Vessel built in or belonging to Great Britain or Ireland, navigated according to Law, or in any Ship or Vessel belonging to any Kingdom or State in Amity with his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, navigated by Foreign Seamen, from any Port or Place whatsoever, upon Payment of the same Duties, if imported into Great Britain in British-built Ships, as the like Goods would be subject and liable to if imported in British Ships directly from the Place of their Growth, Production, or Manufacture; but if such Goods shall be imported in any Foreign-built Ship or Vessel, then and in such Case the Goods so imported shall be subject to the Duties which such Goods would have been subject and liable to if this Act had not been made; any Thing in the said recited Act, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, to the contrary notwith-standing.

Persons free of the Turkey Company may import Goods, which have been heretofore imported from Turkey, Egypt, &c. from any Place, in Ships built in or belonging to Great Britain or Ireland, or to any State in Amity with his Majesty.

II. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Entry shall be suffered to pass at the Custom House for any such Goods of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of Turkey or Egypt, or of any of the Dominions of the Grand Seignior, as before the passing of this Act might be imported only from such Ports or Places in the Streights or Levant Seas as are within the Dominions of the Grand Seignior, or for any Drugs which would have been liable to the Payment of Treble Duties when not imported directly from the Place of their Growth or Production, and which, by the Authority of this Act, are permitted to be imported in Manner aforesaid, until the Person importing or entering the same shall produce to the Collector or other proper Officer of his Majesty's Customs at the Port of Importation, a Certificate under the Hand of the Collector of the Duties for the said Turkey Company, certifying such Person is free of the said Company, and that he has paid the Duties imposed on such Goods by the said Company, and has conformed, in all Respects, to the Rules and Regulations of the said Company rela-tive thereto.

No Entry to pass at the Cus-tom House un-til a Certificate be produced that the Im-porter is free of the Turkey Company, &c.

III. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, any Goods or Commodities which have been heretofore usually imported from any Port or Place in Europe within the Streights of Gibraltar, except such Goods or Commodities as might heretofore be im-ported only from such Ports or Places as are within the Dominions of the Grand Seignior, shall and may, during the Continuance of this Act, be imported and brought by any Person or Persons whatsoever into Great Britain, from any Port or Place whatsoever not being within the Dominions of the Grand Seignior, in any Ship or Vessel built in or belonging to Great Britain or Ireland, navigated according to Law, or in any ported only from the Dominions of the Grand Seignior, may be imported from any Place not being within those Dominions, &c.

any Ship or Vessel belonging to any Kingdom or State in Amity with his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, navigated with Foreign Seamen, upon Payment of the same Duties, if imported into Great Britain in British-built Ships, as the like Goods would be subject and liable to if imported directly from the Place of their Growth, Production, or Manufacture, except Drugs, which, if imported by any Person or Persons not free of the Turkey Company, shall be liable to the like Duties as they would have been liable to if not imported directly from the Place of their Growth and Production, if this Act had not been made; and if any such Goods shall be imported in any Foreign-built Ship or Vessel, then and in such Case the Goods so imported shall be subject to the Duties which such Goods would have been subject and liable to by Law, if this Act had not been made; any Thing in the said recited Act, or any other Act or Acts, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Goods which have been warehoused, may be taken out under the Regulations of this Act.

IV. 'And whereas certain Goods and Commodities as aforesaid, imported in the Manner hereinbefore 'mentioned, have been permitted by his Majesty in Council to be landed and warehoused, subject to such 'Duties and Regulations as shall be imposed and made by Parliament respecting the same:' Be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to take all such Goods and Commodities out of any Warehouse in which the same shall have been lodged or deposited, upon Payment of the like Duties, and subject to the same Rules and Regulations, as such Goods and Commodities would have been liable unto, if they had been imported by virtue of this Act.

Continuance of Act.

V. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall continue and remain in full Force until three Months after the Conclusion of the present War.

CAP. LXXXV.

An Act to amend so much of an Act, made in the thirty-second Year of the Reign of King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the Relief of Debtors, with respect to the Imprisonment of their Persons; and to oblige Debtors, who shall continue in Execution in Prison beyond a certain Time, and for Sums not exceeding what are mentioned in the Act, to make Discovery of, and deliver upon Oath, their Estates, for their Creditors Benefit, as relates to the weekly Sums thereby directed to be paid to Prisoners in Execution for Debt, in the Cases therein mentioned.—[19th June 1797.]

2 Geo. 2. c. 22. and

32 Geo. 2. c. 28. recited.

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the 'Second, intituled, An Act for the Relief of Debtors with respect to the Imprisonment of their Persons, 'it was, among other Things, enacted, That Prisoners charged in Execution for any Debt or Debts under 'the Sum therein mentioned, who should make an Assignment of their Estate and Effects for the Benefit of 'their Creditors, in the Manner therein specified, should be entitled to be discharged, or to have an Allow-'ance, not exceeding the Sum of two Shillings and Four-pence per Week, to be made to them by such of 'their Creditors charging them in Execution, as should insist on their being detained in Prison; which Act 'was by several subsequent Acts amended and continued until the first Day of June one thousand seven 'hundred and fifty-nine: And whereas, by an Act, passed in the thirty-second Year of the Reign of his late 'Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the Relief of Debtors with respect to the Imprison-'ment of their Persons; and to oblige Debtors who shall continue in Execution in Prison beyond a certain Time, 'and for Sums not exceeding what are mentioned in the Act, to make Discovery of, and deliver upon Oath, their 'Estates, for their Creditors Benefit; it is, amongst other Things, enacted, that, from and after the fifteenth 'Day of June one thousand seven hundred and fifty-nine, if any Person or Persons should be charged in 'Execution for any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding, in the Whole, the Sum of one hundred Pounds, 'or on which Execution or Executions there should remain due a Sum or Sums of Money not amounting 'to above the said Sum of one hundred Pounds, and should be minded to deliver up to his or their Creditor 'or Creditors, who should so charge him, her, or them in Execution, all his, her, or their Estate and Effects, 'for or towards the Satisfaction of the Debt or Debts wherewith he, she, or they should so stand charged, 'it should and might be lawful to and for any such Prisoner or Prisoners to exhibit such Petition to such 'Court of Law, and to carry on such Proceedings thereon as in the said last mentioned Act are particularly 'specified and set forth; and that the several Requisites contained in the said Act, having been complied with 'on the Part of such Prisoner or Prisoners as therein mentioned, it should and might be lawful for such 'Court, by Rule or Order thereof, immediately to cause such Prisoner or Prisoners to be discharged, upon 'his, her, or their executing such Assignment and Conveyance of his, her, or their Estate and Effects in 'the Manner therein mentioned, unless such Creditor or Creditors who should have charged any such Prisoner 'or Prisoners in Execution, his, her, or their Executors or Administrators, should agree, by Writing, 'in the Manner therein mentioned, to pay and allow weekly a Sum not exceeding two Shillings and Four-'pence, as any such Court should think fit, unto such Prisoner, to be paid so long as any such Prisoner 'should continue in Prison, in Execution at the Suit of any such Creditor or Creditors, with such Remedy, 'in case of any Failure in the Payment of such weekly Sum, as in the said Act is particularly mentioned: 'And whereas it is also by the said Act further enacted, that where more Creditors than one should charge 'any Prisoner or Prisoners in Execution, and should desire to have such Prisoner or Prisoners detained in 'Prison, each and every such Creditor and Creditors should only respectively pay such weekly Sum of Mo'ney,

'ney, not exceeding one Shilling and Sixpence a Week, as therein mentioned: And whereas such Allow-'ance is now insufficient for the Purpose for which it was intended:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, so much of the said last recited Act, as relates to the Amount of the several and respective Sums, not exceeding two Shillings and Fourpence, and one Shilling and Sixpence, to be paid and allowed as aforesaid, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

From July 5, 1797, so much of last recited Act (§ 13 and 14) as relates to weekly Allowances, repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for all and every such Prisoner and Prisoners in Execution for Debt, on the said fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, who shall be by virtue of any Rule or Order of any Court entitled to receive from any Creditor or Creditors any Sum not exceeding the said Sum of two Shillings and Four-pence, to make an Application by Petition to the Court, in the Prison whereof such Prisoner or Prisoners shall remain and be charged in Custody, praying that such weekly Allowance be ordered to be increased by virtue of this Act; and that upon due Notice being given to such Creditor or Creditors of such Petition, it shall and may be lawful for such Court to hear the Matter thereof, and by Rule or Order of such Court immediately to cause such Prisoner or Prisoners to be discharged, unless such Creditor or Creditors, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, doth or do insist upon such Prisoner or Prisoners being detained in Prison, and shall agree in the Manner mentioned in the said last-mentioned Act, with respect to the Allowance not exceeding two Shillings and Four-pence per Week, to pay and allow weekly a Sum not exceeding three Shillings and Sixpence, as any such Court shall think fit, unto such Prisoner, to be paid at and for such Time or Times, and under and subject to the like Regulations as in the said Act are expressed with respect to the said Allowance not exceeding two Shillings and Four-pence per Week.

Prisoners entitled to Allowance of 2 s. 4 d. may apply to the Court to have it increased to 3 s. 6 d. per Week.

III. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where any Person or Persons, charged in Execution for Debt at any Time or Times from and after the said fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, would have been entitled to be discharged under the Provisions of the said Act last mentioned, unless their Creditor or Creditors would agree as therein mentioned to pay and allow a weekly Sum not exceeding two Shillings and Four-pence to such Prisoner, as any such Court as is therein mentioned should think fit, it shall and may be lawful for such Court, by Rule or Order thereof, immediately to cause the said Prisoner or Prisoners to be discharged, upon such Prisoner or Prisoners executing such Assignment and Conveyance of his or her Estate and Effects as is therein mentioned, unless the Creditor or Creditors doth or do insist upon such Prisoner or Prisoners being detained in Prison, and shall agree, by Writing signed in the Manner in the said last-mentioned Act, to pay and allow weekly a Sum not exceeding three Shillings and Sixpence, as any such Court shall think fit, unto the said Prisoner or Prisoners, to be paid at such Time and Times, and in such Manner, and upon the same Terms and Conditions, and under the same Rules and Regulations in every Respect, as in and by the said Act is provided with respect to the Allowance thereby directed to be made.

Debtors entitled to their Discharge under last recited Act, if not paid weekly Allowance, may be discharged, unless Creditors agree to pay them not exceeding 3 s. 6 d. weekly.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That where more Creditors than one shall have already charged, or shall at any Time or Times hereafter, from and after the said fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, charge, under and by virtue of the said last recited Act, any Person or Persons in Execution, and shall desire to have such Prisoner or Prisoners detained in Prison, each and every such Creditor and Creditors shall respectively pay such weekly Sum of Money only, not exceeding two Shillings, on every Monday in every Week, to or for such Prisoner or Prisoners respectively, as the Court before whom any such Prisoner or Prisoners shall be brought up to be discharged, under the Powers, Authorities, and Directions, contained in the said last recited Act, shall, at the Time of his, her, or their being remanded, on such Note for the Payment of the weekly Sum ordered to be paid, as in the said last recited Act is required and provided being given, direct or appoint.

Where more Creditors than one insist on a Debtor's Detention, they are each to pay him not exceeding 2 s. weekly.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Duties charged on any of the Matters and Things hereinbefore mentioned, on which any former Duty is by Law payable, shall be paid over and above the Duties payable on the same respectively, on and immediately before the passing of this Act ; and that the said Duties hereby granted shall be under the Government, Care, and Management, of the Commissioners for the Time being appointed to manage the Duties charged on stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, who, or the major Part of them, are hereby required and empowered to employ the necessary Officers under them for that Purpose ; and in order to denote any of the several Duties payable by virtue of this Act, whenever they see Occasion to use such Stamps as shall have been heretofore provided, to denote any former Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, or to cause new Stamps to be provided for that Purpose, or for the Purpose of denoting the former Duties, and also the Duties granted by this Act, and to alter or renew the same respectively from Time to Time, and to do all other Things necessary to be done for putting this Act in Execution, with relation to the said several Duties hereinbefore granted, in the like and in as full and ample a Manner as they, or the major Part of them, are authorized to put in Execution any former Law concerning stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper. Duties to be paid above former Duties, and to be under the Management of the Commissioners for Stamps, &c.

V. And

Penalty of Felony without Clergy for counterfeiting Stamps, &c.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall counterfeit or forge, or cause or procure to be counterfeited or forged, any Stamp directed or allowed to be used by this Act, or provided, made, or used, for the Purpose of denoting the Duties by this Act granted as aforesaid, or any of them, or shall counterfeit or resemble the Impression of the same, with an Intent to defraud his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, of any of the said Duties, or shall utter, vend, or sell any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, liable to any Stamp Duty by this Act imposed, with such counterfeit Stamp or Mark thereupon, knowing the same to be counterfeit, or shall privately or fraudulently use any Stamp directed or allowed to be used by this Act, with Intent to defraud his Majesty of the said Duties, then every Person so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged a Felon, and shall suffer Death, as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

Powers of Acts in Force at passing this Act, to extend to the Duties before mentioned.

VI. And be it further enacted, That all Powers, Provisions, Rules, Methods, Articles, Clauses, Penalties, and Forfeitures, Distributions of Penalties and Forfeitures, and all other Matters and Things prescribed or appointed by any Act or Acts of Parliament in Force at and immediately before the passing of this Act, relating to the Stamp Duties on Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, (and not hereby altered,) shall (as far as the same are respectively applicable) be of full Force and Effect with relation to the additional and other Duties hereinbefore mentioned, and shall be applied and put in Execution for the raising, levying, collecting, and securing, the said additional and other Duties according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, as fully, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had severally and respectively been hereby re-enacted with relation to the said additional and other Duties.

Manner of calculating the Number of Stamps to be put on Indentures, &c. [One Stamp for every 15 common Law Sheets complete. See ante, Cap. 19.]

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Number of Stamps required to be put on any Skin, or Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper on which any Indenture, Lease, Bond, or other Deed hereby charged with the Duty of three Shillings, or any Agreement hereby charged with any Duty, shall be engrossed, written, or printed, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be calculated according to the Number of common Law Sheets, each common Law Sheet containing seventy-two Words, of which such Indenture, Lease, Bond, or other Deed or Agreement, together with every Schedule or Instrument annexed unto or Indorsement made on the same, shall consist in Manner following; that is to say, Where the Quantity of Words of which any Indenture, Lease, Bond, or other Deed, or any Agreement, together with such Schedule, Instrument, or Indorsement, shall consist as aforesaid, shall not exceed fifteen such common Law Sheets, one or more Stamp or Stamps to denote the Value of all the Duties charged thereon by any former Act or Acts of Parliament, and this Act; and where the Quantity of Words shall exceed the Number of fifteen common Law Sheets, then progressively one or more further Stamp or Stamps of the like Value for every further entire Quantity of fifteen such common Law Sheets, of which any such Indenture, Lease, Bond, or other Deed or Agreement, with every Schedule, Instrument, or Indorsement, as aforesaid, shall consist: Provided always, that if, after calculating the Words in Manner aforesaid, there shall remain any Number of Words less in Quantity than fifteen other common Law Sheets, no further Stamp shall be required for such Excess above the Number so calculated.

Manner of calculating the Number of Stamps to be put on Copies of Indentures, &c. [One Stamp for every 10 such Sheets complete.]

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Number of Stamps which shall be required to be put on any Skin, or Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, on which any Copy, purporting to be a true Copy, or attested to be a true Copy, of any Indenture, Lease, or other Deed hereby charged with Duty, shall be engrossed, printed, or written, shall be calculated in Manner following; that is to say, Where the Quantity of Words of which such Copy shall consist shall not exceed ten such common Law Sheets as aforesaid, one Stamp as aforesaid; and where the Quantity of Words shall exceed the Number of ten common Law Sheets, then progressively one further Stamp as aforesaid for every entire further Quantity of ten common Law Sheets of which such Copy shall consist: Provided always, that if, after calculating the Words in Manner last aforesaid, there shall remain any Number of Words less in Quantity than ten other common Law Sheets, no further Stamp shall be required for such Excess above the Number so calculated.

Provisions of Cap. 19. of this Session to extend to this Act, and if any Person shall neglect to bring Instruments not duly stampt to be so stampt within the Time allowed by the recited Act, he shall forfeit 20*l.* and the Instrument shall be of no Avail.

IX. And be it further enacted, That all the Provisions, Rules, and Matters, prescribed by an Act, passed in this Session of Parliament, for the more effectually securing the Stamp Duties on Indentures, Leases, Bonds, and other Deeds, and not hereby altered, shall be extended, applied, and put in Practice, for the stamping such Indentures, Leases, Bonds, Deeds, Agreements, and Copies of Indentures, Leases, Bonds, and other Deeds according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, as fully and effectually as if the same had been re-enacted in this Act; and if any Attorney, Solicitor, Clerk, Officer, or other Person, shall engross, print, or write, or cause to be engrossed, printed, or written, any Agreement, or any Copy purporting to be a true Copy, or attested to be a true Copy, of any Indenture, Lease, or Deed, not duly stamped, according to the Directions of this Act, and shall neglect to bring the same to be duly stamped within the Time directed and allowed for stamping Indentures, Leases, Bonds, and other Deeds, by the said Act passed in this Session of Parliament, every such Attorney, Solicitor, Clerk, Officer, or other Person, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Pounds, to be recovered and applied as any Penalty imposed by the said Act may be recovered and applied; and no such Agreement or Copy shall be pleaded or given in Evidence, or be good, useful, or available, in any Manner whatever, unless the same shall be stamped as required by this Act.

Persons administering Personal Estates

X. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall administer the Personal Estate of any Person dying after the passing of this Act, or any Part thereof, without proving the Will of the Deceased, or taking out out Letters of Administration of such Personal Estate, within six Calendar Months after the Death of the Person so dying, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds, to be recovered in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, for Offences committed in England, or in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland, for Offences committed in Scotland, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Essoign, Privilege, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, shall be allowed; and that one Moiety of such Penalty or Forfeiture shall, if sued for within the Space of six Calendar Months, be to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, and the other Moiety thereof to the Person or Persons who shall inform or sue for the same.

without proving the Will, or taking out Letters of Administration within six Months after the Death of the Party, to forfeit 50*l.*

XI. And be it further enacted, That for and in respect of each and every Copyhold Tenement of the Value of twenty Shillings per Annum, or upwards, mentioned in any Surrender, Admittance, or Copy of Court Roll, of any Honour or Manor, and each and every Custom-Right or Tenant-Right Tenement, not being Copyhold, (of the Value before mentioned,) mentioned in any Surrender, Admittance, or Instrument of Admittance, whereupon a several Fine shall be due or payable to the Lord or Lady of any Honour or Manor, or a several Fee shall be demanded or received by any Steward, or Deputy Steward, of such Honour or Manor, a distinct and several Stamp Duty shall be charged according to the Amount of all the Duties imposed thereon by this Act, and any former Act or Acts in force on and immediately before the passing of this Act.

For every Copyhold Tenement of 20*s.* per Ann. mentioned in any Surrender, &c. for which a several Fine shall be due, a distinct Stamp Duty shall be charged.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if any Steward or other Officer of any Copyhold Court, or of any Customary or Tenant-Right Court, not being Copyhold, shall demand, take, or receive, from any Person whatever, any Fine or Fee for any Surrender or Admittance of or to any Copyhold Tenement, or for any Grant or Lease by Copy of any Court Roll or for any other Copy of the Court Roll of any Honour or Manor, or for any Surrender or Admittance, or Instrument of Admittance, to any Custom-Right or Tenant-Right Tenement, not being Copyhold, without at the same Time demanding and receiving the Stamp Duty in respect of each several and distinct Tenement as aforesaid, then and in every such Case every such Steward or other Officer shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Pounds; and the Duties which shall be due and payable thereon, whether the same shall have been so received by the Steward or other Officer as aforesaid, or not, shall be a Debt to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, of the Steward or Officer who shall or ought to have received the same; and if the same shall not be received by such Steward or other Officer, then the said Duties shall also be a Debt to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, of the Person or Persons to whom any Estate as aforesaid shall pass by force of any Surrender, Admittance, or Copy, or Instrument of Admittance, which shall not be so stamped as aforesaid.

If any Officer of a Copyhold Court, &c. shall receive a Fine for any Surrender, &c. without demanding the Duty for each distinct Tenement, he shall forfeit 20*l.* &c.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Steward or other Officer of any Honour or Manor shall receive the Duties payable on any such Surrender, Admittance, Instrument of Admittance, or Copy as aforesaid, and shall neglect to purchase the proper Stamps for the same, and to pay the Stamp Duty so received to the Officer appointed by the Commissioners of his Majesty's Stamp Duties for such Purpose, for the Space of three Calendar Months after he shall so have received the same, every such Steward or other Officer aforesaid, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds, and Double the Duty which shall not be so paid by him within the Time aforesaid.

If an Officer of a Manor shall receive the Duties, and neglect to pay them for three Months, he shall forfeit 5*l.* and Double the Duty.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Persons who shall, on the said fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, have in their Custody or Possession any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, stamped or marked with any Stamp or Mark, or Stamps or Marks, used to denote any of the Duties now payable by Law on stamped Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, by virtue of any Act or Acts in force on and immediately before the passing of this Act, and upon which Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, any Duty is hereby imposed in Addition to the Duty now payable, at any Time within the Space of sixty Days for Persons residing in England, and of four Calendar Months for Persons residing in Scotland, to be computed from and after the said fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, to bring or send such Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, to the said Commissioners, at their said Head Office, who, or their Officers under them, are hereby authorized and required, on Payment of the respective Duties by this Act imposed, to the Receiver General of the said Duties, or to some Person or Persons to be authorized by him for such Purpose, to cause such Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, to be duly stamped and marked with the proper Stamp or Mark, or Stamps or Marks, to denote the Payment of the respective Duties hereby imposed; or at the Election of the Person or Persons bringing such Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, to cause the same to be cancelled, and other Vellum, Parchment, or Paper to be stamped with the proper Stamps of the like Value with the Amount of the Stamps so cancelled, and of the Duties so paid, without demanding or taking directly or indirectly any Sum of Money or Consideration whatever (other than the Duty hereby imposed) for the same; and all Vellum, Parchment, and Paper stamped or marked by virtue of any Act or Acts now in force as aforesaid, on which any Matter or Thing shall be engrossed, printed, or written, after the said fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, which shall not be brought within the respective Times aforesaid to the said Head Office, shall be, and is hereby declared to be, of no other Effect or Use than if the same had not been so stamped; and the Matters and Things which shall, after the said fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, be engrossed, printed, or written thereon, shall be of no other Effect than if the same Matters and Things had been engrossed, printed, or written on unstamped Vellum, Parchment, or Paper.

Persons having on July 5, 1797, Parchment, &c. stamp with the old Duties may, within a limited Time, have it stamp with the proper Stamp, or exchanged;

but if not so brought, Instruments written thereon to be of no Effect.

[See p. 578, c. 136.]

XV. And

No Note allowed by 31 Geo. 3. c. 25. to be issued again, shall, after July 5, 1797, be so issued until stampt with additional Stamp directed by this Act.

XV. And be it further enacted, That no Promissory Note, or other Note, which by the said Act passed in the thirty-first Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, is allowed to be again issued under certain Regulations therein contained, shall, from and after the said fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, be again issued after Payment thereof, until the same shall have been brought to the said Head Office to be stamped with a proper Stamp in the Manner directed by this Act; and the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and required to stamp the same, or cause the same to be stamped, on Payment of the Duty by this Act imposed, on Proof on Oath or solemn Affirmation before the said Commissioners, (which Oath or solemn Affirmation the said Commissioners, or any two or more of them, are hereby authorized to administer,) that the same hath not been, after Payment thereof, again issued since the said fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven; and any such Promissory or other Note which shall be first issued or negociated after the said fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and which may be after any Payment thereof according to the Regulations of the said Act again issued, being also first stamped with the proper Stamp to denote the Duty by this Act imposed, may be again issued from Time to Time in the Manner allowed by the said Act; and all Rules, Regulations, Duties, and Penalties prescribed or imposed by the said Act, with respect to the stamping such Promissory or other Notes, in order to issue the same from Time to Time, or with respect to the issuing, or negociating, or cancelling such Notes, after Payment thereof, shall be applied and put in Practice with respect to the securing the Duties by this Act imposed, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had severally been enacted in the Body of this Act.

Regulations of the said Act to extend to this.

From July 5, 1797, certain additional Duties to be paid on Gold and Silver Plate imported or made in Great Britain.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the Rates or Duties following; that is to say, For and upon all Gold Plate which shall be imported or brought into, or which shall be made or wrought within, the Kingdom of Great Britain, and which shall or ought to be touched, assayed, and marked in Great Britain, an additional Duty after the Rate of eight Shillings for every Ounce Troy, and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity; and for and upon all Silver Plate, which, from and after the said fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, shall be imported or brought into, or which shall be made or wrought within, the Kingdom of Great Britain, and which shall or ought to be touched, assayed, and marked in Great Britain, an additional Duty after the Rate of Sixpence for every Ounce Troy; and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity.

appointed by them, at the Head Office of Stamps in Middlesex, a Paper or Note, in Writing, containing the Name and usual Place of Residence of such Person; and thereupon, and upon Payment of the Duties by the said Act imposed, according to the Place of his Residence described in such Paper or Note, in Writing, every such Person shall be entitled to a Certificate, duly stamped, to denote the Payment of the Duty by the said Act imposed, according to the Place of Residence described as aforesaid; which Certificate the said Commissioners, or such Person or Persons who shall be appointed by the said Commissioners, shall cause to be immediately issued, under the Hand and Name of the proper Officer, in such Form as the said Commissioners shall devise.

Certificates to be entered with the proper Officer of the Court, who shall be paid 1 s. for the Entry.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That every Certificate so to be obtained as aforesaid, shall be entered in one of the Courts in which the Person described therein shall be admitted, enrolled, sworn, or registered, with the respective Officer or Officers of the said Courts, appointed by the said Act to grant Certificates of Enrolment, Admission, or Register, within the Time hereinbefore prescribed, or before such Person shall be permitted to practise as aforesaid; and the said respective Officers shall, and they are hereby respectively required, from Time to Time, upon Payment of the Fee of one Shilling, to enter in alphabetical Order the Names of the Persons described in such respective Certificates, together with the Places of such their Residence as aforesaid, and the respective Dates of such Certificates, in Books or Rolls to be prepared for that Purpose, to which Books or Rolls in the said Courts respectively, all Persons shall and may at seasonable Times have free Access without Fee or Reward.

Books of Entry may be inspected gratis.

When such Certificates shall bear Date, and when determine.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Certificate issued by virtue of this Act, between the first Day of November in any Year, and the End of the then next Michaelmas Term, shall bear Date on the second Day of November in such Year; and every Certificate issued at any other Time shall bear Date on the Day on which the same shall be issued; and every such Certificate shall cease and determine on the first Day of November then next following.

Certificates granted before Nov. 1, 1797, shall cease on that Day; and on such Certificates being delivered to be cancelled, an Allowance of Duty in Proportion to the Period unexpired to be allowed.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That every Certificate granted, or which shall be granted at any Time before the first Day of November one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, by virtue of the said recited Act, and in the Manner therein mentioned, shall cease and determine on the first Day of November one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven; and any Person who shall deliver any Certificate granted after the first Day of November one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, or to be granted before the first Day of November one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and then in Force, to the said Commissioners at their said Office, or to any Person appointed by them to receive the same, to be cancelled, shall be entitled to an Allowance of Duty in Proportion to the Period then unexpired of the Time for which such Certificate was granted; which Allowance the said Commissioners or their respective Officers are hereby authorized and required to compute and pay to the Person delivering such Certificate to be cancelled, and the same may be paid out of any Duties in their Hands, or in case any of the Persons bringing any Certificate to be cancelled shall require a new Certificate for the ensuing Year, then to deduct the same out of the Duties to be paid for such new Certificate.

Penalty for acting after Nov. 1, 1797, without a Certificate, or without entering it, or for delivering in a Place of Residence contrary to the Directions of 25 Geo. 3. c. 80.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the first Day of November one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, if any Person shall in his own Name, or in the Name of any other Person or Persons, sue out any Writ or Process, or commence, prosecute, carry on, or defend, any Action or Suit, or any Proceedings in any of the Courts aforesaid, for or in Expectation of any Gain, Fee, or Reward, or shall do any Act in any of the said Courts as an Attorney, Solicitor, Notary, Proctor, Agent, or Procurator, of such Court, without obtaining a Certificate in the Manner hereinbefore directed, or without entering the same in one of the Courts aforesaid, wherein such Person shall be admitted, enrolled, sworn, or registered, as Solicitor, Attorney, Notary, Proctor, Agent, or Procurator, or shall deliver in to any Person at the said Head Office, any Account, containing a Place of Residence as the Place of his Residence, contrary to the Directions of the said Act of the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty aforesaid, with Intent to evade the Payment of the higher Duties of five Pounds, by the said Act imposed, every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds, and shall be and is hereby made incapable to maintain or prosecute any Action or Suit in any Court of Law or Equity, for the recovering any Fee, Reward, or Disbursement, on Account of prosecuting, carrying on, or defending any Action, Suit, or Proceeding, or having prosecuted, carried on, or defended, any Action, Suit, or Proceeding, or any Matter or Thing relating thereto, without such Certificate as aforesaid.

From Nov. 1, 1797, Persons neglecting to obtain Certificates for a Year incapable of practising; but they may be re-admitted on Payment of the Duty and a Penalty.

Exceptions.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That every Person admitted, sworn, enrolled, or registered, in any of the said Courts as aforesaid, who, from and after the said first Day of November, shall neglect to obtain his Certificate thereof, in the Manner before directed, for the Space of one whole Year, shall from thenceforth be incapable of practising in his own Name, or in the Name of any other Person, in any of the said Courts, by virtue of such Admission, Entry, Enrolment, or Register; and the Admission, Entry, Enrolment, or Register, of such Person in any of the said Courts, shall be from thenceforth null and void: Provided always, that nothing hereinbefore contained shall be construed to prevent any of the said Courts from re-admitting any such Person on Payment to the said Commissioners of the Duty accrued since the Expiration of the last Certificate obtained by such Person, and such further Sum of Money by way of Penalty, as the said Court shall think fit to order and direct: Provided also, that nothing hereinbefore contained shall be construed to include within the Regulations of this Act respecting such Persons as last aforesaid, any Person who is exempted by the Provisions of the said Act of the twenty-fifth Year aforesaid, from the Payment of the Duty imposed thereby.

XXXII. And

Application of Duties under 25 Geo. 3. c. 80. from Oct. 10. 1797.

CAP. XCI.

An Act to continue, for a limited Time, an Act, made in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for confirming and continuing, for a limited Time, the Restriction contained in the Minute of Council of the twenty-sixth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, on Payments of Cash by the Bank, under certain Regulations and Restrictions.—[22d June 1797.]

37 Geo. 3. c. 45.

'WHEREAS an Act was made in the present Session of Parliament, for confirming and continuing, for a limited Time, the Restriction contained in the Minute of Council of the twenty-sixth of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, on Payments of Cash by the Bank: And whereas it is expedient that certain Parts of the said Act, which will expire on the twenty fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, should be further continued:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall not be lawful for the Governor and Company of the Bank of England to issue any Cash in Payment of any Debt or Demand whatsoever, except according to the Provisions hereinafter contained; and that, during the Continuance of the Restriction hereby imposed on Payments by the said Governor and Company in Cash, no Action or Suit shall be prosecuted against the said Governor and Company to compel Payment of any Note of the said Governor and Company expressed to be payable on Demand, or to compel Payment of any Note of the said Governor and Company made payable otherwise than on Demand, which the said Governor and Company shall be willing to exchange for any Note or Notes of equal Amount expressed to be payable on Demand, or to compel Payment of any Sum of Money whatsoever by the said Governor and Company, which the said Governor and Company shall be willing to pay in Notes of the said Governor and Company expressed to be payable on Demand; and it shall be lawful for the said Governor and Company, during the Continuance of the Restriction aforesaid on Payments in Cash, to apply to the Court wherein any Action or Suit shall be brought, or shall be depending, against the said Governor and Company, to stay Proceedings therein, in a summary Way; and in case such Action or Suit shall be brought to compel Payment of any Note or Notes of the said Governor and Company made payable on Demand, it shall be lawful for the said Governor and Company to apply to the said Court to stay all Proceedings in such Action or Suit until the Expiration of the Time hereinafter limited for the Continuance of such Restriction as aforesaid, and such Court shall stay all Proceedings accordingly; and in like Manner it shall be lawful for the said Governor and Company to apply to any Court in which any Action or Suit shall be brought or depending for the Purpose of compelling Payment by the said Governor and Company of any Note of the said Governor and Company payable otherwise than on Demand, or of any other Debt or Demand whatsoever, to stay all Proceedings against the said Governor and Company in such Action or Suit, on Payment of such Sum of Money as shall appear to be justly due, or which might be recovered in such Action or Suit, by Delivery of Notes of the said Governor and Company for the Amount thereof expressed to be payable on Demand, if the Party or Parties to whom such Money shall appear to be due shall be willing to accept Payment thereof in such Notes, and thereupon such Court shall order all Proceedings to be stayed accordingly; but if the Party or Parties entitled to any such Money shall refuse to accept Payment thereof by Delivery of such Notes of the said Governor and Company, expressed to be payable on Demand as aforesaid, the said Court shall order all Proceedings against the said Governor and Company in such Action or Suit to be stayed until the Expiration of the Time hereinafter limited for the Continuance of such Restriction on Payments in Cash as aforesaid: Provided always, that if it shall appear to such Court to be necessary, for the Purpose of ascertaining

The Bank not to issue Cash but according to certain Provisions.

During such Restriction no Suit to be prosecuted to compel Payment of Notes which the Bank shall be willing to exchange for other Notes.

The Bank may apply to Courts to stay Proceedings in Actions.

The Court may permit Proceeding the Amount of any Demand on the said Governor and Company, or otherwise for the Furtherance of Justice, that any Proceedings should be had for any such Purpose, it shall be lawful for the said Court to permit Proceedings to be had in any such Action or Suit for such necessary Purpose only, or to ascertain the Amount of such Demand, in a summary Way, as the Nature of the particular Case may require, and as shall be consistent with the Restriction on Payments in Cash hereby imposed: Provided also, that no Costs shall be recovered against the said Governor and Company, in any Action or Suit which, during the Continuance of the Restriction aforesaid, shall be brought or prosecuted for the Purpose of compelling Payment by the said Governor and Company of any Debt or Demand, unless the Court wherein the same shall be brought or prosecuted shall be of Opinion that the same was necessary for the Purpose of ascertaining the Amount of such Debt or Demand, or the Title thereto, and in such Case such Court may direct the Payment of such Costs by the said Governor and Company in their Notes expressed to be payable on Demand, if the Party or Parties entitled to such Costs shall be willing to accept such Notes; and if such Party or Parties shall refuse to accept such Notes, then such Court shall stay all Proceedings to compel Payment of such Costs until after the Expiration of the Restriction on Payments by the said Governor and Company in Cash, herein contained.

Suits to be had to ascertain the Amount of any Demand on the Bank, or for the Furtherance of Justice.

No Costs to be given unless the Court think the Action necessary.

[This Section is verbatim the same as § 2. of Cap. 45.]

II. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to restrain the said Governor and Company from issuing any Sum of Money less than twenty Shillings in Cash in Payment of any Debt or Demand not amounting to twenty Shillings, or in Payment of so much of any larger Debt or Demand as shall be a fractional Part of twenty Shillings over and above the Residue of such Debt or Demand; or from issuing any Sum of Money in Cash for the Services of the Army, Navy, or Ordnance, in pursuance of an Order of his Majesty's Privy Council, stating the special Purpose for which such Issue shall be required, and the Necessity for the same; all which Orders of Council shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within three Days after the Date of each such Order, if Parliament shall be then sitting, and if not, then within three Days after the Sitting of Parliament. [Verbatim from § 3 of Cap. 45.

The Bank may issue Cash in Payments under 20s.; or to the Army or Navy, in pursuance of Orders in Council, which shall be laid before Parliament.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the said Governor and Company, during the Continuance of the Restriction on Payments in Cash imposed by this Act, to issue any Sum of Money in Cash, or in Notes of the said Governor and Company, by Way of Loan or Advance, for or on Account of the Public Service; any Law, Usage, or Statute, to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Bank not to advance any Money by Way of Loan for the Public Service during the Restriction. [600,000*l. permitted by* § 4. of Cap. 45.]

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That during the Continuance of the Restriction by this Act imposed on Payments by the said Governor and Company in Cash, it shall nevertheless be lawful for the said Governor and Company to accept, from any Person or Persons whatsoever, any Sum or Sums of Money, in Cash, not being less than five hundred Pounds, in Exchange for Notes of the said Governor and Company, of equal Amount, upon an Engagement from the said Governor and Company to pay to such Person or Persons, during the Continuance of such Restriction as aforesaid, Cash in Exchange for any Note or Notes of the said Governor and Company, payable on Demand, to such an Amount, not exceeding in the Whole Three-fourths of the Sum of Money which shall have been so paid by such Person or Persons to the said Governor and Company in Cash, and in such Proportions, and at such Intervals, as shall be expressed in such Engagement; and it shall be lawful for the said Governor and Company to pay in Cash such Sum and Sums of Money as shall be required to be so paid, according to the Terms of such Engagement, to the Amount, in the Proportions, at the Times, and in the Manner therein to be expressed; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Bank may receive Sums, not under 500*l.*, for Notes and engage to repay three-fourths in Cash [§ 5. of Cap. 45. ratifies such Engagement from April 7.]

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for the said Governor and Company, notwithstanding the Restrictions imposed by this Act, to advance, for the Accommodation of the Persons dealing as Bankers in London, Westminster, and the Borough of Southwark, in Cash, any Sums of Money, not exceeding one hundred thousand Pounds in the Whole, to be paid to such Persons, at such Times, in such Proportions, and in such Manner, as to the said Governor and Company shall seem expedient. [Verbatim from § 6. of Cap. 45.]

100,000*l.* in Cash may be advanced to the Bankers of London, Westminster, and Southwark.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, upon Application being made to them, by or on the Behalf of the Treasurer of the Bank called The Bank of Scotland, established by an Act of the Parliament of Scotland, in one thousand six hundred and ninety-five, or by or on the Behalf of the Cashier of the Bank called The Royal Bank of Scotland, incorporated by Royal Charter, dated the thirty-first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, to issue and pay to such Treasurer or Cashier respectively, or to such Person or Persons as they shall respectively appoint to receive the same, for the sole Use of the said Banks, such Sum or Sums of Money, in Gold or Silver, as may be required, not exceeding the Sum of twenty-five thousand Pounds for each of the said Banks; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

25,000*l.* for each may be advanced to the Bank of Scotland, and the Royal Bank of Scotland. [Verbatim from § 7. of Cap. 45.]

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Payments in Notes of the said Governor and Company expressed to be payable on Demand, which have been made since the twenty-sixth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, or which shall be made during the Restriction on Payments by the said Governor and Company in Cash, herein contained, shall be deemed Payments in Cash if made and accepted as such; any Law, Statute, or Usage, to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Payments in Notes to be deemed made in Cash, if accepted as such. [Verbatim from § 8. of Cap. 45.]

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That during the Continuance of the Restriction on Payments by the said Governor and Company in Cash, imposed by this Act, no Person shall be

No Person to be held to Special Bail unless Affidavit required to be made by 12 Geo. 1. c. 29; must also add that there had been no Offer to pay in Bank Notes;

otherwise Proceedings to be had as if no Affidavit had been made to hold to Special Bail.

If any Person having offered to pay in Bank Notes cannot, by Reason of this Act, be held to Special Bail, the Court may order him to deposit Bank Notes to answer the Demand, and if not done he may be arrested and held to Special Bail. [See C. 45. § 9.]

be held to Special Bail upon any Process issuing out of any Court, unless the Affidavit which shall be made for that Purpose according to the Provisions in the Act of the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the First, for preventing frivolous and vexatious Arrests, shall not only contain the several Matters required by the said Act, but also that no Offer has been made to pay the Sum of Money in such Affidavit mentioned, and therein sworn to, for the Purpose of holding any Person to Special Bail, in Notes of the said Governor and Company, expressed to be payable on Demand (fractional Parts of the Sum of twenty Shillings only excepted); and if any Process shall be issued against any Person upon which such Person might have been held to Special Bail before the passing of the said Act of the present Session of Parliament, and no Affidavit shall be made as aforesaid, that no such Offer of Payment in Notes of the Governor and Company had been made as aforesaid, such Person shall not be arrested on such Process, but Proceedings shall be had against such Person in the same Manner as if no Affidavit had been made for the Purpose of holding such Person to Special Bail under the Provisions of the said Act of his said late Majesty King George the First; and all Provisions in such Act, or in any other Act of Parliament, for preventing frivolous and vexatious Arrests, shall be applied to the Provisions in this Act contained, so far as the same are capable of being so applied: Provided always, that if Affidavit shall be made upon which any Person might have been held to Special Bail upon any such Process as aforesaid, before the passing of the said recited Act of the present Session of Parliament, and it shall be likewise sworn in such Affidavit that such Offer of Payment has been made as aforesaid, so that the Person who might have been arrested and held to Special Bail upon such Process, if this Act had not been made, cannot, by reason of such Offer and of the Provisions in this Act contained, be so arrested and held to Special Bail, it shall be lawful for the Court out of which such Process shall issue, or for any Judge of such Court, in a summary Way, to order the Defendant in the Action in which such Process shall issue, and who might have been so held to Special Bail as aforesaid if this Act had not been made, to cause Notes of the said Governor and Company, expressed to be payable on Demand, to the Amount of the Sum of Money for which such Person might have been so held to Special Bail if this Act had not been made, to be deposited in such Manner as such Court or such Judge shall direct, to answer the Demands of the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in such Action; and if such Deposit shall not be made within the Time limited by such Order after such Notice thereof as shall thereby be directed to be given, it shall be lawful, upon Affidavit duly made and filed that such Deposit has not been made according to such Order, to arrest such Defendant, and hold him or her to Special Bail, in such and the same Manner as if this Act had not been made.

Collectors of the Public Revenue to accept it in Notes. [Verbatim from § 10. of Cap. 45.]

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That during the Continuance of the Restriction on Payments by the said Governor and Company in Cash, by this Act imposed, all Sums of Money which now are or shall become payable for any Part of the Public Revenue, shall be accepted by the Collectors, Receivers, and other Officers of the Revenue, authorized to receive the same, in Notes of the said Governor and Company, expressed to be payable on Demand, if offered to be so paid (fractional Parts of the Sum of twenty Shillings only excepted).

The Bank may issue Cash, on previous Notice to the Speaker of the House of Commons.

Publication of Notice.

X. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, during the Continuance of this Act, to issue Cash, out of any Cash which shall be at their Disposal, in Payment of any Debt or Demand whatever, or of any Part or Proportion of any Debt or Demand whatever, upon their giving five Days Notice in Writing to the Speaker of the House of Commons of their Intention so to do, specifying the Description of such Debt or Demand; any Thing in this Act to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding; which Notice the Speaker of the House of Commons is hereby required to cause forthwith to be inserted in the London Gazette.

Continuance of Act.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be in force and have Continuance, so far as the same restrains the said Governor and Company from issuing Cash in Payments, until one Month after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament.

Act may be repealed or altered this Session.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act, or any Clause, Matter, or Thing herein contained, may be repealed, altered, or varied, in any Manner whatsoever, during the present Session of Parliament.

CAP. XCII.
